

STILL DESTROYED—This twin still set-up, a type that seems becoming most common in this area in recent months, was destroyed by officers Friday morning, January 28. It was located approximately five miles northwest of the Jumpertown community in the Baggett hills of the second district, and was one of the most easily accessible ever discovered in the county. A woods road led down the hill almost to the still, a short distance from the gravel road. Each of the cooker vats had a mash capacity of about 540 gallons. Shown from left are Deputy Sheriff Nonan Chaffin; Paul Short, third district constable; and Bonnie Knight, second district constable. Constables Knight and Short had been watching the still for 10 days after discovering it, but when no one appeared during that time they decided to destroy it.

WHISKEY CONFISCATED — L. B. Moorman, fifth district constable; G. S. Sparks, fourth district constable; and Chester Ward, fourth district justice of the peace, display a five-gallon jug and two half-gallon fruit jars of corn whiskey, two half-pints of bonded whiskey, and eight cans of beer which they confiscated about 2 p.m. Thursday, January 27, eight miles east of Booneville in the fifth district. The officers said Fred Taylor was arrested on charges of possession of beer and whiskey and released on $600 bond.

Fifth District Constable Investigating Shotgun Blast That Shattered Pickup Truck Window Thursday Night

Fifth District Constable L. B. Moorman said Wednesday night that he is continuing investigation of a shotgun blast into his pickup truck Thursday night, January 27, and that he hoped to have enough evidence to present to the Grand Jury when the February term of Circuit Court convenes February 14. He is being assisted in the investigation by Pat Stricklen, fifth district justice of the peace, and sheriff's officers.

Constable Moorman said he, his wife, son and daughter were in the house at the time of the shooting. He said he heard a car and heard the blast about 9 o'clock, but thought it might have been a firecracker and didn't go out to investigate. When he went out Friday morning he discovered that his truck was marked from shot and the rear window had a hole shot through it and had to be replaced.

Mr. Stricklen said in late December a car kept driving by his home and someone fired a pistol at his house twice from the car, but no one was hit.

Northeast Tigers Host Freshmen Of Ole Miss In Game February 7

The largest crowd of the season is expected to be on hand at the Northeast Miss. Junior College gym in Booneville on February 7 when the Tigers of Northeast meet the Ole Miss Freshman basketball team. In a preliminary game that starts at 7 p.m. the Belmont Cardinals will meet Bruce.

Playing their first season under Coach Kenneth Robbins, the Tigers have a record of 17-9 and last week defeated Holmes JC 114 to 83 and Delta JC 88 to 71. Don Kesinger's Baby Rebels have a record of 9-3. Featured in the Rebel attack, Jerry Brawner 6-8 center of Kossuth who was a former team mate of Bobby Null and Paul Tomlinson, members of the Tiger team.

The Tigers lost to the Baby Rebels at Ole Miss earlier in the season by a five-point margin and will be out to even this score on their home floor. The Tigers feature a balanced attack with any man on the floor capable of high scoring honors. Danny McClung, Tishomingo, and Sonny Faulkner, Ingomar, will handle the back-court play, while D. T. Whitfield, Booneville, and Charles Jeter, Ingomar, will be at the forwards, with Larry Morgan, Booneville, at center.

The preliminary game pits two of the strongest teams in Northeast Mississippi. Bruce has a record of 24 and 2 and features a well balanced team with height under the basket and deadly outside shooting. Belmont has a record of 15-4 and has a smaller but exceedingly fast aggregation. Their attack is explosive with five deadly accurate shooters.

Game time is 7 p.m., Monday night, February 7.

Series Of Fires Occur During The Extreme Cold Weather In This Area

The Fire Department has been busy the past week and succeeded in preventing extreme losses in most cases.

On Thursday January 27th, at 10:22 they answered the alarm at Lindsey's Cleaners, preventing what might have been a destructive fire. Steam was backed up in the cold water line, going all over the machinery. The gauges were almost to the point of exploding when cut off by the firemen.

On Friday, January 28th, the Rodney Counce rent house on Highway 45 South caught fire from curtains falling over the heaters. Small damage was reported due to quick response of the Fire Department.

Saturday, January 29th, an alarm came in at 9 o'clock p.m. from Armstrong's Feed Store on West Church Street. The fire was reported as originating from a coal and wood heater. Flames quickly spread to the attic and roof. The flue had collapsed. Considerable damage was done to the building, with minor damage to the stock.

Also on Saturday, firemen were called to the Hillie Lee Austin house on Hatchie Street at 5:30 p.m. The fire, which originated from a wood stove had spread to the attic and roof. The living room was damaged.

Answering a call on Monday, January 31st at 9 a.m., to the Oscar Gilley home on Highway 45 North, near Troy Moore's Store, firemen reported the house was practically destroyed and had made rapid headway when discovered. It was thought to have originated from a heater in the bathroom. Fast work by the firemen saved several nearby out-houses although the house was practically destroyed.

The meeting opened by giving the Pledge of Allegiance to the U. S. Flag, followed by singing "Count Your Blessings." Minutes of the previous meeting were read and roll call answered.

Mrs. Stutts had charge of the Study Topic, which was prepared by Dr. W. L. Giles, vice-president for Agriculture and Forestry, Mississippi State University, "Home and Community Shape The Moral and Material Future of Our Country." This was a most excellent paper and very informative, well reviewed by Mrs. Stutts.

The meeting closed by reading the Beatitudes for Club Members by Mrs. Claudie Price.

Delicious rubard pie and coffee were served by the hostess, Mrs. M. W. Faughender.

March Of Dimes Contributions Coming In

Gloria Jean Rutherford, Prentiss County March of Dimes Campaign Chairman, reports that contributions are coming in, and expresses her deep appreciation for the response she is receiving from the good people of Prentiss County in the fight against the Nation's second greatest killer — birth defects.

Because of extreme weather conditions during the month of January, it has been impossible to contact all the people of Prentiss County, and if you have not had an opportunity to give to this very worthy cause, please leave your contribution at The Peoples Bank and Trust Company or The Prentiss County Home Bank.

City To Install Fire Hydrants

The Mayor and Board of Aldermen, in a regular session Monday night, authorized the installation of two new fire hydrants in the Shinnault Heights sub-division at a cost of approximately $1,200.00.

In addition to the fire protection offered residents of that area, the new hydrants will also cause a reduction in their insurance rates.

City Fathers commended the Gas and Water Department, Street Department, Fire and Police Departments and the Power Association for their devotion to duty during the recent blizzard and snow storm.

The Board also accepted the bid from Milton Motor Company, low bidder, for a pick-up truck for the city.

Other routine business was conducted.

Voters Approve Bond Issue; Bain, Stennett In JP Runoff

Voters in 19 of Prentiss County's precincts went to the polls Wednesday and by a small margin of 25 votes, approved a bond issue of the Prentiss County School District in the amount of $175,000.00 for making general repairs and purchasing equipment at the attendance centers in the county school district. The unofficial total showed 908 for the issue and 883 against.

The Geeville precinct and almost all Baldwin voters are within the Baldwin Separate School District and were not involved in the issue.

The bond issue was called by the board of supervisors upon a resolution of the county board of education requesting the issuance and sale of such bonds. The unprecedented Wednesday date was set because the traditional Tuesday was the last day for paying the 1965 poll tax required to vote in the election.

The resolution specified that the money will be divided for use of the Booneville Attendance Centers, $30,000; Marietta Attendance Center, $30,000; New Site Attendance Center, $30,000; Jumpertown Attendance Center, $30,000; Thrasher Attendance Center, $25,000; Wheeler Attendance Center, $25,000; and Hills Chapel, $5,000.

Voting was much heavier in the first district of the county, where on a separate ballot electors also voted in a justice of the peace election to fill the unexpired term of the late B. L. Anderson. R. E. Bain polled 236 votes and will be the runoff opponent February 16 of Woodrow Stennett, who received 215 ballots. Although a total of 1244 ballots were cast in the district, the fact that there were nine candidates in the race kept the number required to reach the runoff relatively small.

Vote by precincts on bond issue:

Survey Shows County's Income For Agriculture And Industry Payrolls

The Peoples Bank and Trust Company has prepared the following information relative to part of the income in Prentiss County during the year 1965. They state that while these are approximate figures, "we feel that they are fairly accurate."

1. Cotton and Cottonseed	$3,250,000.00
2. Soybeans	1,375,000.00
3. Dairymen	1,300,000.00
4. Poultry & Eggs	1,175,000.00
5. Corn	750,000.00
6. Beef Cattle & Hogs	700,000.00
7. Forestry	325,000.00

TOTAL, AGRICULTURE	$8,875,000.00
INDUSTRIAL INCOME (Payrolls)	$5,900,000.00
Total Income	$14,775,000.00

The total income from these two sources, agriculture and industrial payroll is a little lower than last year when the total was $15,145,846.00. This was due in a large measure from the drop of $4,000,000.00 for cotton and cotton seed in 1964 to $3,250,000.00 in 1965. There was also a slight drop in industrial income.

With the exception of cotton and cotton seed, every other category in the agricultural field showed an increase over 1964.

7 Inch Snowfall Recorded Here

This was the coldest ever on record for that date, and the coldest Booneville has seen in fifteen years when it was also eight below. The coldest ever recorded for Booneville was ten below in 1918.

Sammy Ryan is the official weather observer in Booneville.

STAR ☆ BRIGHT

When Millie goes to bed she stops by the stairway window to say good night to her favorite star. It twinkles in the frosty evening sky, and to me it seems remote and cold. But to Millie, the star is a warm and glowing friend. It's just a matter of viewpoint. A grown-up sees through the eyes of experience. The child gazes through the eyes of innocence. And as we all know, it isn't easy to exchange our experience for innocence again.

Yet, this is exactly what many of us need to do. Many of us need a new approach, a new look at the old things, the old truths. We need to open our eyes, and let ourselves see; to open our ears, and let ourselves hear.

There is no better place to discover this new approach than in your church. In church next Sunday you will find a new point of view. Let yourself see, let yourself hear. You will be surprised at the results.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Business Field Offers Good Career Future

(This is the third in a series of sixteen articles featuring the academic departments at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College.)

One of the widest fields of education open to college students today is that of business.

A future career in business appears to be fascinating as demonstrated by the number of students enrolled in courses in the Northeast Mississippi Junior College Business Department.

By getting first hand experience in the use and operation of various machines, students realize that the modern office is equipped with much more than a typewriter. To be able to secure and hold a good job, a person needs to acquire many skills and know how to operate various office machines. An awareness of the need for additional skills is evidenced by the fact that approximately 415 students at Northeast are enrolled in business subjects. Of this number 196 are actual business majors which shows an increase of 18% over last year's enrollment.

The Northeast Business Department is equipped with various types of adding machines, calculating machines, banking machines, duplicating equipment, voice recording and transcribing equipment as well as a variety of typewriters.

Courses leading to a major in many business fields include business education, business administration, secretarial science, accounting, salesmanship, marketing, finance, economics, business law, and industrial engineering. A program designed to train individuals quickly for secretarial positions is the nine-month intensive secretarial course.

Through the college evening program all business courses are available to employed individuals who are interested in furthering their education. As a feature in the evening program of the business department, non-credit vocational business courses are now being offered. Courses available for the current semester are secretarial upgrading, refresher shorthand, and beginner shorthand.

The Phi Beta Lambda, a national affiliated business organization provides the business majors with an

Dixie National Livestock Show Scheduled For Jackson February 10-18

Jackson and Mississippi will be host February 10-18 to the newest beef cattle show in the nation and the first of its magnitude ever held East of the Mississippi River.

It has been appropriately named Dixie National and will offer $80,000 in premiums and prizes its first year.

Opened to breeders from Coast to Coast, the brand-new show will feature Angus, Brahman, Herefords, Polled Herefords, Santa Gertrudis, Charolais and Short-horns.

The $4,500,000 Mississippi Coliseum at Jackson, an air-conditioned arena seating 10,000 persons, is the home of this history-making show.

Sponsored by the official state agency, the Mississippi Fair Commission and backed by every livestock association in the area, the Dixie National has as its enthusiastic Executive Secretary and General Manager, H. H. Annison, veteran livestock man and cattle judge known throughout the South.

In addition to beef cattle, the big new show will also feature the Mississippi Junior Round-Up with the largest entries of steers, cattle, swine and lambs in the history of that event.

An extra-added attraction will be a Quarter Horse Show featuring scores of prize mounts from all parts of the South.

The entertainment highlights during the six days of the nine-day show will be Tommy Steiner's World Championship Rodeo featuring Fess Parker, who plays the title role in the famous Daniel Boone TV series.

Jackson business and civic leaders are joining Mississippi cattle-men in making elaborate preparations to entertain the hundreds of visiting breeders, members of their families and guests. Entertainment will include a giant reception for the VIP visitors, a banquet for herdsmen, tea for the ladies at the historic Governor's Mansion and escorted tours of the Capital City and its environs, including the famous Old Capitol Museum, the $25,000,000 Reservoir, and Old Natchez Trace.

"The State of Mississippi," says Governor Paul B. Johnson, in a special greeting, "is proud to offer the livestock world a new showcase for American beef cattle. I invite you to be a part of this history-making national show. You will receive a warm welcome in Mississippi, the Hospitality State, and the Cattle Showplace of the Southeast."

The Navajo Indian reservation covers 25,000 square miles in Arizona and Utah.

Mr. G. T. Pharr Discusses Water Situation, Nationally And Locally, At Meeting Of Thursday Study Club

Graciously welcomed in the lovely home of Mrs. Harrell Barnett, the Thursday Study Club met last Thursday afternoon with a splendid attendance from the membership.

Winter flowers in modernistic designs were arranged with artistry on the stately mirrored console in the living room and on a prized antique occasional table in the dining-den, along with Mrs. Barnett's beautiful imported art objects. A fire glowed in the open fireplace adding to the charm of hospitality on a winter day.

Miss Mabel Cunningham, club president, presided over a brief business period.

Mrs. E. L. Robison introduced the speaker, Mr. G. T. Pharr, who is Superintendent of the City Water and Gas System. Mr. Pharr talked on "The Conservation and Management of Water", a subject of vital importance to all people. Forward looking Mr. Pharr has been remarkably successful, in a relatively short period, in his accomplishments. Through his spirit of progress he has tripled the previous volume of gas thereby extending services to more people in the area. His program planning will further benefit the people.

A native of Prentiss County, Mr. Pharr's family has made major contributions with their constructive influence, to all phases of local, state and national life.

He has a significant military record. He is a retired Army Major and most of his time has been spent overseas. He has served in France, Germany, Korea, Hawaii and the Philippines. He served in World War II and in Korea, both during the war and in peacetime. The last thirteen years of his service, he was a post engineer, supervising the work of hundreds of people mostly civilians. A man of distinguished ability, attainment and wide experience in the engineering field, Booneville is most fortunate to have Mr. Pharr's services.

Mr. Pharr's talk was highly impressive, bringing members up to date on the water situation, pertaining particularly to the local system.

Beginning his talk with the statement, "This is the land of abundance . . . as a nation we are blessed with far more rainfall, about 43 billion gallons every day, than we can use," but then, he added "yet we are a nation faced with the threat of thirst."

He pointed out that the growing population needs more water every year and that by the year 2000, the demands will have tripled.

The speaker said we cannot blame our nation's water shortage on population growth alone, that the shocking fact is that most of the water that is here for our use is wasted. "Americans must learn how to manage their water resources," he said.

Tracing the history of our American civilization, he pointed out that our forefathers denuded the land with axe and plow and invited the years of the great floods not only losing the water but also valuable topsoil with it. The next serious problem is pollution. Today untreated waste in our waterways from municipalities is three times as great as in 1900, and industrial waste makes the problem even more complex. Our cities are now taking water from sources that carry twice as much pollutant as was considered safe in 1955.

Mr. Pharr said our forests and farmlands must be revitalized through modern conservation practices. "Flooding must be controlled," he continued.

"The answer to much of our water problem is management. The most underdeveloped phase of much of today's ills in our nation is management methods, and management must upgrade its application techniques. We should always remember that the time to prepare for the future is when the present never looked better. Management with growth is important because every nation community or product has a life cycle similar to a flower. Through spring, summer and fall there is a growing and maturity period, a full bloom period and then the fade-out," said the speaker.

Bringing the talk to the local level, Mr. Pharr said, "In Booneville we believe that we have the leadership and management required from our progressive minded mayor on down through the lower echelons of city government to assure a continued growth of our city and continued emphasis on our development and use of our natural resources."

"We are fortunate to be supplied water from the Eutaw formation, which is known for its vast quantities of good water. Three wells are available for pumping water from this underlying strata. This type of water, because of its good properties and constant temperature is an asset for industrial development. The municipal water supply is derived from the three wells averaging about 500 feet in depth. The combined pumping capacity of these pumps at the present time is 1150 gallons per minute or approximately 1,650,000 gallons per day. This supply is adequate for our present needs for fire protection and peak consumption. Our current peak demand for simultaneous fire protection and peak consumption is approximately 1,500,000 gallons per day.

"Our storage capacity is not sufficient, however, to meet the peak demand that could be expected in case of a dry season and a large fire demand. We have a storage capacity of 100,000 gallons which is approximately 15% of our maximum daily consumption. We are at present in the process of obtaining federal help to increase our storage capacity to 350,000 gallons, as well as the increasing of our main lines to loop the city."

"Our water meets U. S. Public Health standards in respect to bacteriological quality. However we have taken the precaution of installing a chlorinator at one of the wells in case of any contamination in the future and will in the near future equip all wells with chlorinators."

Mr. Pharr concluded his talk with the fact that in 1951 there were less than 1000 customers and that today we have 1806 active customers. He then gave pertinent statistics showing the contents of local water and also a projected need for increased facilities as the local population increases.

I thought the snow was beautiful and the youngsters really enjoyed it—especially on Tay's Hill, Murphy's Hill and Kemp's Hill where they sledded for hours. February is supposed to be colder than usual so there will probably be more snow . . . and more frozen water pipes, and more half-heated houses, but I've found a new way for keeping warm at night—sleep in two pairs of pajamas—don't know why I didn't think of it before.

What is communism? What are its aims? How does it gain its aims? Why study it? These are questions each of us has asked at least once during this past few troubled years. Today, we are striving for some of these answers. And, the reasons we do try are many. First and foremost perhaps, is that they, the communists—not we, declared that they are our enemies. Some Americans deny this, but the communists reiterate it—"We will bury you." They classify even farmers with incomes of $3,000 a year as "exploiters." Theirs is not a passive hatred of us. They ACT against us in many ways—some of them are: 1. Preparation for and threats of war; 2. Subversion; 3. Undermining our reputation elsewhere in the world, and 4. Economic competition for political purposes. Let's become more aware of their tactics.

Leista (Horn's) twins who are almost three years old don't miss a thing. The other night the boy, Dennis, was demanding lots of attention and Leista said, "I'm going to scream." Denise, the girl, very calmly said, "And are you going to pull your hair out, too?"

When B. E. Walton of San Jose, California, visited here recently, he brought me many jokes and items. Here are a few:

The lady in the second house from the corner says there really isn't any way to improve the living-room decor without slip-covering her husband.

Some people can stay longer in an hour than others can in a week.

We've made great medical progress in the last generation. What used to be merely an itch is now an allergy.

A woman will look in a mirror anytime except when she's pulling out of a parking space.

A Scoutmaster, noticing that his recruits were having difficulty organizing their first cook-out asked whether they had forgotten anything. "Yes", replied one, "my Mommy."

Frazzled baby sitter to returning parents: "Don't apologize — I wouldn't be in a hurry to come home either."

In a corner of his log cabin, the mountaineer struggled with a pencil and a piece of paper. Suddenly he looked up and exclaimed, "Doggone if I ain't learned to write."

His wife walked over and peered at the lines scribbled on the paper. She asked, "What do it say, Ezra?"

"I don't know," he answered, "I ain't learned to read yet."

Prentiss County Cotton Farmers Benefit From Good Crop Insurance Experience

J. S. Smith, State Crop Insurance Director, announced that the Federal all-risk Cotton Crop Insurance Program has been improved beginning with this crop year to reflect good yield experience and good crop insurance experience.

Crop insurance coverages which are offered on the basis of a guarantee of line cotton per acre, have been increased an average of 27 per cent in Prentiss County. This is due to the increased yields per acre and the necessity for additional insurance coverage to cover increased production costs.

Even though the insurance coverage was increased 27 per cent for the county, it was necessary to increase the premium only 4 per cent. This was due to good experience in the county in the past. During a six year period 1959 through 1964 the total amount of cotton losses paid to Prentiss County policyholders amounted to 72 per cent of total premiums paid, making the program more than self-supporting on a county basis insofar as being able to pay losses for premium income.

Other changes in the program include the following: (1) The time for selling the insurance has been extended to coincide more closely to the time planting normally begins and (2) Policyholders are given a choice of price selections. These are 20, 25, and 30 cents per pound of lint cotton. Losses are determined in pounds of lint cotton. These losses are valued at the price selection made by the policyholder, which determines the dollar value of the insurance as Soil and water conservation transforms ugly eroded land into beauty. This peaceful lake on the farm of Soil Conservation District Cooperator John Leslie, near Oxford, once ran dark with mud from the eroding hills. Surrounding land is now growing fine pastures that support a registered Angus herd. —SCS Photo.

Conservation Plan Can Change Gullies Into Beautiful Pastures

There are beauties of conservation on the John Leslie farm just out of Oxford on Woodson Ridge.

They are there in the thick-matted pastures growing on once eroded land, trod now by Angus that glisten like black satin in the sun.

They are there in pines shading a clear blue lake that once ran red with mud bleeding off the hills.

They are there in blackberry thickets, clouded with white blooms left to shelter rabbit families—and in wild honeysuckle, so piercing sweet it hurts the throat.

Treating the last 5 acres of eroded gullies this summer, Mr. Leslie said about fifty per cent of this 163-acre farm looked desolate four years ago. At that time he worked out a conservation plan with the local soil conservation district.

"In this field," he said—of a spot now as smooth as your palm and lush with Bermuda—"You couldn't walk for gullies. I bulldozed all this land, fertilized it, seeded it. Our cows are supported entirely on grass and legume pastures and protein concentrates."

Not many thoroughbreds can thrive so uncoddled. Mr. Leslie pointed out one cow that is the daughter of K. F. Bardolier 4th, the 1963 and 1964 National Angus Sire of the Year. His herd bull is the son of the 1965 Angus Sire of the Year, O'Bardolier Mere, the 2nd.

"We built our lake four years ago as an erosion pond to trap the silt that was moving from the critical area around it. Now look."

The lake is clear blue—untroubled by muddy wash from unhealed land because the hills are now green with pasture grasses, providing life for these fine cattle as well as the spent soil.

This all-risk insurance protects the farmer's crop investment against such hazards as insect infestation that cannot be controlled, plant disease, drought, flood, excessive moisture, hail, and other weather hazards.

College Students Have Rare Books

The classic, "Paradise Lost" by John Milton, belonging to Anne Griffin is a large volume including the entire epic in large type. Full page illustrations vividly portray the Biblical scenes in Milton's masterpiece.

There is no publication date in the book; however, from research that Miss Griffin has done, she believes the publishing date was approximately 1873.

Patsy Pannell finds that one of the most fascinating parts of her book, "The Complete Works of John Bunyan" is the facsimile of his will. Written and witnessed in 1683 five years before his death, Bunyan bequeaths to his wife, "all my worldly goods and my debts."

The volume published in 1873 is bound in dark green. Upon opening the volume, one will find a portrait and biography of the author followed by the extensive selections of the great writer.

STATE WOOD INDUSTRY EXPANSION

The increasing number of wood-using industries in our state are bringing renewed interest in tree planting and other forestry activities designed to step up woodland production. Large new paper mills to be constructed at Vicksburg, Columbia, and Monticello are expected to boost our state's consumption of pulpwood by 80 per cent when they are in full production. Mississippi forests and factories have provided a steadily expanding volume of the paper and wood products output, and our future potential is enormous. The expanding markets for home-grown timber are providing a good future profit for landowners. The rapid growth of trees planted in the right kind of soil in Mississippi can bring a high return on a modest investment.

In the last century illiteracy dropped from 20 to only 2 per cent.

HOME ECONOMIST'S NOTES

By CLAUDE T. ROSS, Extension Home Economist

GOOD AND GOOD FOR YOU—fresh tangerine or sipping the juice. Tangerines aid in throwing off is more pleasant than taking a pill.

Here is good news for those At the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, researchers were studying how plants use nitrogen from fertilizers when they made an exciting discovery. They found that tangerines contain the decongestant synephrine (a phenolic amine) in an abundant amount. Prior to its discovery in nature, synephrine was made in the laboratory and medicinally prescribed as a stimulant and decongestant for the relief of colds. Since 1927 it has been recommended for children and adults in minimum doses of 100 milligrams. An equivalent amount is contained in only 8 to 12 ounces of tangerine juice.

Although citrus fruits have long been recommended for warding off colds, there is the new possibility that eating tangerines can give relief from sniffles after you catch cold. Three cheers for tangerines, a much loved fruit.

HOW TO AVOID ACCIDENTS

Safety in the kitchen is no accident; it requires careful planning. Good work habits are basic. Here are tips on how to stay safe in the kitchen:

To avoid falls, a prime accident hazard, wipe up all fat splatters and spills as soon as they occur. Avoid excess wax. Buff the floor well following waxing.

Start the new year with a steady stool for reaching high objects. Never trust a rickety one. If tightening all screws and bolts does not keep the stool firm and steady, it's time to replace it.

Many burns, another cause of serious accidents, can be prevented. Store lifting tongs close to the cooking center. Pot-lifters for handling hot utensils should be kept close to the oven. Mitts serve well for this; just be sure they are well padded. Keep utensil handles and tea-kettle spouts turned toward the back of the stove and out of all traffic lanes where they might get upset.

Tighten all wooden handles regularly. A loose handle or one that turns is a frequent cause of burns.

Cuts can be avoided by safe storage and careful use of knives and can openers. Guard against fatigue. Too much haste makes people more accident prone.

Store sharp knives separately, and preferably in a holder. Use a cutting board whenever possible. Establish the good habit of cutting away from yourself.

Check all electric cords, plugs and switches regularly, and repair or replace as needed.

Marietta Lodge 10 Confer Degree

Marietta Lodge No. 188 will confer the Master Mason's Degree on Thursday night, February 3rd, at 7 o'clock.

All members are urged to be present. Visiting brethren will be welcome. Refreshments will be served.

WINTERTIME DRIVING

Wintertime brings added hazards to motorists in Mississippi; and in addition to the normal dangers of driving that we encounter every day in the year, winter imposes two additional dangers in reduced visibility and inadequate traction for quick stopping. These factors can spell disaster to the unwary driver who fails to recognize them for what they are. Courtesy, common sense and extra care are the marks of a responsible driver, and he is the one most likely to get

STATE JAYCEES TO CITE TEACHERS

A worthwhile project sponsored by the Mississippi Junior Chamber of Commerce will recognize teaching excellence by choosing "Mississippi Outstanding Young Educator" through a series of local awards and a statewide contest. Jaycee chapters across the state will present "Outstanding Young Educator" awards in their communities with these local winners entering competition for the state title. The winners will be based on career progress and service to the community. It would be quite a feather in Mississippi's cap for our state to win top honors in the national contest this year and well-observed honors for each local contest winner as topnotch educational and community assets.

Educational Needs

(Editor's Note: The University of Mississippi has been requested by the Inter-Alumni Council to distribute this material for possible editorial use.)

Mississippi—long the laggard in this nation's parade of economic progress—may soon take its place near the head of the line if the pronouncements of Governor Paul B. Johnson are legislated into reality. In addresses before the Jackson Chamber of Commerce and a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature, Governor Johnson pointed out the importance of education to Mississippi's economic development in more forceful and meaningful terms than has ever before been expressed by a Governor of the State.

In speaking of Mississippi's economic development program, Governor Johnson said, "One major gap remains, however... And it may be the most important gap of all... That gap is in the field of education... Education designed to meet the needs of today and tomorrow, not yesterday... Education calculated to develop Mississippi's human resources to the highest level of productivity."

"I do not vary one iota from the dominant theme of this administration—comprehensive economic development—when I advocate the focus of your most serious attention upon education. For superior education—and research which is the partner of education at its highest level—constitute the very foundation of regional development over the long range... This State's progress—material and non-material—has been restricted because we have not done what is necessary to produce and attract—and to retain—people with high-level skills, knowledge and creativity... Mississippians can never hope to live as fully, or as well as their fellow Americans until our State, with the unstinted support of every citizen, does WHAT-EVER IS NECESSARY to provide superior educational opportunities."

Governor Johnson added, "Education only for the already-rich... education as a mark of refinement and social grace... is a thing of the past... Education is not an end in itself... It is a means to an end. To a State like Mississippi—to a nation, to a society—education is an instrument for the maximum development of all its resources. To the individual citizen of today, education is the means of a better life... To a better income, as well as to a greater appreciation of things cultural, intellectual, and spiritual."

Governor Johnson has recommended an extensive analysis of Mississippi's educational requirements, both short term and long term. The Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning has recommended an appropriation of $51,000,000 for operation of our colleges and universities during the next biennium. The Inter-Alumni Council has enthusiastically endorsed both of these recommendations. Fifty-one million dollars will not solve the problems of Mississippi's Institutions of Higher Learning but it will enable them to hold what they have, to keep from falling further behind—or, in simpler terms, to keep their heads above water. The ultimate solution will require a much greater sum and can better be determined when the extensive analysis is made.

It is imperative that our State institutions not move backward at this critical and important time in Mississippi's march to the front. If we lose ground now, it may be ground never to be regained, or at best, a costly and expensive delay. As Governor Johnson has so ably stated, the progress of education in Mississippi will affect the lives of every citizen—man, woman and child—for generations to come. Education is the key that will unlock the closed gates and allow our citizens to march forward and take their rightful places in the stream of progress. It is hoped that every citizen, every member of the Legislature will give serious consideration and support to the Board recommendation of $51,000,000 which is an absolute necessity to preserve what we have already gained.

school in our city system for many years. The Hill family contributed to the educational, spiritual, cultural and business and professional life of this county and their respective places of residence for a long period.

Mrs. Medlin was graduated from the Booneville High School, and Belhaven College. She did post-graduate work at Columbia University in New York.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and the Saturday Reading Club. Mrs. Medlin is remembered for her charm of

Local Resident's Brother Dies In Wreck

Mr. H. H. Daws, chairman of the Science Department at Northeast Mississippi Junior College, received word early Thursday that his brother, Hubert C. Daws of Houston, Texas, had been killed the night before in an automobile wreck.

Mr. Daws was traveling alone near Crockett, Texas, when he is presumed to have lost control of his car and plunged down a ravine. No other vehicle was involved. It is thought Mr. Daws died instantly.

Mr. H. H. Daws, and son, Harry, drove to DeKalb, Mississippi, the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daws. They were met there by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daws, another brother, and his wife, Harry remained there to be with his grandparents during the sad time. Mr. Daws and his brother and sister-in-law traveled on to Houston for the funeral.

Mr. Daws and Harry returned to Booneville, Sunday.

The Daws family has the sympathy of many friends during their bereavement.

business. A lot of damage may be done before you notice the usual signs of rubbing and scratching the neck, shoulders, tail setting and hindquarters.

Damage to your pocketbook from reduced gains and higher costs of wintering come not only from the torment the infested animal endures, but also to the quantity of blood lost to the lice.

You can spray during the winter for lice control. It is a good idea to pick a sunny day and spray in the morning. A thorough soaking is necessary for good control, especially on the underside and between the legs.

Come by this office for details on insecticide to use and how and when to use it.

DAIRY NOTES

Want more money from dairying? Most dairymen do strive for higher profits. Here are some things you should be thinking about to help make higher profits from your dairy herd:

Breed all cows artificially and raise your own herd replacements. Use a good calf-raising program. Give your cows an annual 60-day dry period and take good care of them while dry.

Store plenty of hay. This means around two and a half tons per cow annually. Keep milk production records and feed according to how much the cow produces. Provide at least 180 days of temporary and permanent pastures. Cull out the low 20 per cent of the herd each year.

Follow a strict health and sanitation program and keep milk clean, pure and cool.

Check yourself. How many of these management items are you now doing? They can mean more profit for you!

COASTAL BERMUDA

Here are some good rules for establishing Coastal Bermuda: Prepare a good seedbed; put out phosphate and potash before or at time of setting sprigs, then spray with 2-4-D or simazine.

When runners start growing, apply 60 pounds per acre of nitrogen. If other grasses or weeds come in and interfere with the Coastal, spray again, or clip, or graze.

You cannot successfully set Coastal in old sod. One of the best places to put it is on land that is being cleaned to go into pasture.
