Inspirational Speaker Is Guest At Rotary-Ann Banquet Held At NE

Last Tuesday night, the Booneville Rotarians honored their Rotary Ann at the Annual Rotary-Ann Dinner, which was held in the beautiful newly decorated dining hall of the Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

The banquet had the largest turn out in Rotary history.

The speaker for the evening, Mr. Frank Hollomon, Director of Development, Memphis State University, left a lasting impression on this community.

The sincerity and fervor with which Mr. Hollomon "spoke out" on the subject "Where Were You When The Lights Went Out?" inspired all who heard him. He asked such penetrating questions as "Where were we as Americans when the light went out for morality, justice, religion and our freedoms?" He was indeed an inspirational speaker.

Merrill Cartwright, Rotary president, acted as toastmaster. The invocation was given by Mr. Harmon.

Booneville Golf Tournament Entry Limit Is Almost Reached

Tournament chairman Homer Guy said Wednesday that 110 have registered to play in the Third Annual Hospitality Golf Tournament on May 21-22 and this leaves openings for only 18. He said, "In fact, it looks like we'll have more than we can handle and I'm now looking for early morning golfers."

A number of invitations that were sent out have not answered yet but the deadline isn't until May 10th.

It seems the field will be wide open since the past two tournament champions are not expected to play. Sam Hall of Tupelo, last year's winner, has moved to Hattiesburg and Mr. Guy has not heard from the first year's champion, Bob Cornett of Florence, Ala.

Twelve or 15 members of the local Booneville Golf and Country Club will play including three club champions, Harmon Barron, Randall Howell and Rae Kitchen. Players will be coming from Holly Springs, Starkville, Tupelo, Corinth, Jackson, Tenn., New Albany Memphis, Tenn. and many other cities.

There will be 8 flights with first, second and third trophies awarded in each flight.

There will also be a medalist trophy. Mr. Guy said, "We're still looking for someone to break the record of Curtis Monts, Jr. of Tupelo who fired a 3 under par 69 on opening day of the tournament two years ago."

Much Building And Remodeling Work Is Underway In Downtown Booneville

Downtown Booneville is experiencing a surge of building and remodeling which will greatly increase its appearance as well as economic value.

The Town and Country Building is being constructed on the corner of College and First Streets. Directors are Douglas Jumper, Thomas Keenum, Joe Langston and Luther Moore. Mr. Jumper is also the contractor.

The building will be the home of the Town and Country Insurance Agency. Mr. Langston will have his agency on the ground floor. Mr. Jumper and Mr. Keenum will have offices on the upper floor where there will be a conference room for customers and possibly offices for rent.

The front of the building will be constructed of Ozark rock on the lower level and structural glass on the second floor, a combination that will be most attractive. It will contain 2500 square feet.

The owners bought the property from T. A. Cook, Sr. and the filling station operated by Howard Robinson, which was on the property, was razed.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Waters are having a new building constructed to house The Fabric Shop, now located on Market Street. They purchased the property from Mrs. Mabel Hill and it is located at the corner of Market and College Streets, formerly occupied by Guy's Service Station which is being torn down.

The completely modern building will be constructed of brick and will have a 50 foot front and a 74 foot depth. It will be two stories with The Fabric Shop occupying the ground floor and possibly rental office space above.

On the corner of Front and Church Streets a modern building is being prepared to sell or rent. Theron Pounds, realtor, said the building belonged to Mrs. W. H. Caver of Tupelo. The side facing Front Street will have two 8 x 9 plate glass windows and a glass door; the sides will be brick. It will have new plumbing, wiring, new concrete floor and be repainted inside and out. The size is 45 feet by 60 feet and it was formerly occupied by Joe Parr Tire Recapping.

Jim Alexander has bought the lot and house adjacent to the ice plant from Mrs. W. H. Caver of Tupelo and will build a new building for Parker Body Shop which now rent a small building from Mr. Alexander.

It will be constructed with a brick front and sides and back of block and will be 30 feet by 60 feet.

The Booneville Gin located on College Street was torn down last summer and a new one built on Highway 45 North and a series of buildings including the old livery stable on Front Street were likewise razed, all of which is giving Downtown Booneville a decided boost in many ways.

DIRECT SCA AT MSCW — Student Christian Association activities at Mississippi State College for Women will be directed during the 1966-67 session by these six students. Let The People Choose

Even though not required by the Constitution, most of the 50 states as they came into the Union, organized their legislatures following the federal pattern — one house apportioned according to population and one by geographical areas. In this way, statewide and regional interests were balanced with the concerns and wishes of the populous city areas. But on June 15, 1964, the Supreme Court by a six-to-three decision ruled that both houses in state legislatures must be made up of districts equal in population.

The question is this — by what right does a federal court set aside the wishes of the people and redesign the government of the states? Senator Everett Dirksen has introduced a Constitutional Amendment, Senate Joint Resolution 103, which, if adopted, would permit the people in each state to continue if they wished — to apportion one house of their state legislature on factors other than population. A majority of congressmen support this Amendment — but it takes two thirds approval to change the Constitution. Twenty-eight states have passed resolutions calling for a national constitutional convention to bring the issue before the people — but 34 are required.

If our congressional members were chosen on the basis of population only, for both Representatives and Senators, instead of on population for Representatives, and then 2 Senators for each state regardless of population, the voters from small town and rural areas would have little voice in government. The people of every state must make their wishes known now.

Date Set To Forward Resource Conservation & Development Prog.

June 1 has been set as the tentative date for forwarding to Washington the 19-county Resource Conservation and Development program sponsored by the Tombigbee Valley Water Management District.

Soil conservation districts of this area which are co-sponsors of the program, were asked at meetings in Booneville Tuesday, April 19 at the Power Building, and in Tupelo, to get in their county reports by May 6.

Those in attendance at the Booneville meeting were interested people from Tippah, Alcorn, Tishomingo and Prentiss Counties. Local Soil Conservation District Commissioners or members of the County Agriculture Co-ordinating Council have questionnaires to be filled out and would appreciate everyone furnishing the information on County Resource to them.

The soil conservation districts may delegate to any individual or group in the county the job of getting the detailed questionnaire filled out and basic problems in natural and human resource development listed, according to Thompson Pound, executive director of the Tombigbee Water Management District.

Once the county questionnaires outlining needs of industry, commerce, recreation and health, welfare and education are received by Mr. Pound, they will be co-ordinated in an area-wide program for which Congress will be asked to appropriate funds to draw up detailed plans of the projects needed.

D.A.R. Regents Club Presents Program On Decoration Day At Meeting Tuesday

Memorial Day, its origin and meaning was ably discussed by Mrs. J. B. Wheeler and Miss Bess Bartlett, at the meeting of the D.A.R. Past Regents Club luncheon, which was held at the Town Motel, Tuesday.

Mrs. Wheeler said that on May 30, Memorial Day was observed for the first time in the North, when Gen. John A. Logan was Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mrs. Wheeler quoting from the book, "Reminiscences of a Soldier's Wife", said "in a churchyard near Petersburg we saw hundreds of graves of Confederate soldiers. These graves had upon them small bleached Confederate flags, faded flowers and wreaths that had been laid upon them by loving hands on the occasion of their Decoration Day."

The General stated that it was a beautiful revival of a custom of the ancients, in the preservation of the memory of the dead, and that he, as Commander-in-Chief of the G.A.R. would issue an order for the decoration of the graves of the Union soldiers. May 30, was selected as Memorial Day, and this was made official by Act of Congress in 1898.

Miss Bartlett described the impressive ceremony at the historic old Columbus, Miss. cemetery marking the 100th anniversary that has come to be known as Southern Memorial Day.

Officially Southern Memorial Day is observed in Mississippi and other southern states on April 26. Elsewhere in the country May 30, is observed as Memorial Day.

It was related that on the first Confederate decoration, there was a profusion of flowers left over, and that Major Maurice McCarthy, Veteran of the Confederate Army, suggested that wreaths be placed on the graves of the forty Union soldiers buried in the same cemetery. The news of this touching ceremony reached the people of the North, who, as an old clipping states, "were electrified," by the magnanimity of the Southern people. The New York Times comment on the noble sentiments of these women and a tribute was paid to how they had shown themselves impartial in their offerings. A direct result of the news was the writing of the poem, "The Blue and the Gray", by Judge Francis Miles Finch.

Columbus, Miss., was later given official recognition by the Library of Congress, as the scene of the first Memorial Day in America, and quiet Old Friendship Cemetery and its solemn history has drawn hundreds of tourists to the spot, where Memorial Day began 100 years ago.

Other Ex-Regents present were Mrs. Lewis Earl Perry, Mrs. J. E. Scott and Mrs. Edgar L. Robison.

Awards Made For Artistic Talent

Three Henry Bellamann Foundation special awards of $500.00 each, to recognize and encourage unusual artistic talent, were announced today by Mrs. Edith Sansom, New Orleans, Louisiana, president of the Foundation.

Mrs. Sansom said the awards will go to Charles East, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, author of "Where the Music Was" (published by Harcourt, Brace & World); to William Anderson, Lorman, Mississippi, sculptor; and to William Rowell, Columbus, Mississippi, painter.

Earlier this year the Foundation presented its 1965 annual award of $1,000.00 to Mrs. Marie Hull, Jackson, Mississippi, painter, for her outstanding contribution to the arts.

Mr. East has served as assistant director and editor of the Louisiana State University Press since 1962. Prior to that time he held editorial positions on Collier's Magazine, the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate and the Baton Rouge State-Times. His stories have appeared in leading periodicals, including Mademoiselle, the Yale Review, the Virginia Quarterly Review, and the Antioch Review. Many deal with the complex relationship between Negroes and Southern whites. Mr. East was born in Shelby, Mississippi, reared in Cleveland, Mississippi, and educated at LSU, where he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees.

Mr. Anderson, an art teacher at Aicora Agricultural and Mechanical College in Lorman, Mississippi, is a native of Selma, Alabama, and a graduate of Alabama State College, Montgomery, and of Cranbrook Academy of Art in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. He uses wood as a media to capture the strength and endurance of mankind.

The third artist, William Rowell, works principally in watercolor and oil. He has exhibited widely in Mississippi, and in Memphis, Tennessee, where his design, pleasing color combinations and semi-abstract style have won critical attention. Mr. Rowell, a native of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, was educated at Memphis Art Academy and at the University of Mississippi, Oxford, where he obtained his master's degree in fine arts. He is presently employed as an art professor at Mississippi State College for Women in Columbus.

Mrs. Sansom explained that awards have been made annually since the Bellamann Foundation was established in 1958 under the terms of the will of Henry Bellamann's widow, Katherine Jones Bellamann of Jackson, Mississippi. "The awards have been national in scale, although many Southerners have been recognized, probably because a great deal of good work in all artistic fields is coming out of the South," said Mrs. Sansom.

"The awards are non-competitive," she continued, "and can be made to persons, institutions or groups whose contributions to music, literature or art have been of outstanding significance, or whose present work seems to be of rare and unusual promise."

Several awards have been made to unable artists to complete works in progress, or to continue advanced study. In 1963 the Foundation set up trust funds at Mississippi College, Jackson, and Mississippi College, Clinton, providing cash awards to students of unusual promise in artistic fields. In 1963 the student Bellamann awards were presented during the Southern Literary Festival, held at Mississippi.

Henry Bellamann was a musician who concentrated in early life, later taught in South Carolina and New York City, and was chairman of the examining board of the Julliard Music Foundation from 1924 to 1926. Writing eventually became a full-time career and he published many poems and novels, including the best-seller "King's Row." Mrs. Bellamann was also a painter, writer and musician of note. Mr. and Mrs. Bellamann maintained a music studio in New York City for a number of years and traveled extensively abroad. Through-

News For Sportsmen...

FISHING PICKS UP

All over the state, the fishing picture is becoming brighter. Though still hampered by winds, the fishermen are bringin' em in.

Conservation Officer O. C. Allier says the catches on Grenada Lake are improving in number and size. He's seen some good strings of crappie, and every now and then, a good bass catch. Two fishermen from State College hauled in twenty bass - all in the ont to two-pound bracket.

The best fishing success on Grenada recently has been at Young's Landing, Red Grass and Perry Creek.

Another of the big, north Mississippi reservoirs, Sardis, has also been plagued by winds lately. Warden Supervisor Ben Selby is mighty enthusiastic about the way the crappie have been biting. One fisherman up there had the limit of pound to pound and a half crappie - except for three that weighed three pounds each!

Best fishing spots on Sardis lately have been Clear Creek and Toby Tubby.

EAGLE AND CHOTARD
The stripes are really running in Muddy Bayou. There were folks lined up shoulder-to-shoulder all the way from Steel Bayou to the outlet this weekend - that's about a mile-long stretch! They were just bank fishing with artificial lures, as well as minnows, and really pulling them in.

Conservation Officer Johnny Laney talked to one man who had a mess of fish weighing 75 pounds - and not over the limit, yet. Down on Eagle Lake, Alvis McNeal rack-out their lives, they gave generously of time and money to encourage young artists.

Baldwyn, Miss.

ed up a beautiful string of crappie (2 1/4 - 2 1/2 lbs.) and catfish, one of which weighed ten pounds.

STATE LAKES

The Game and Fish Commission lakes are right up with the other choice fishing spots these days. Crappie fishing is good on Lake Jeff Davis near Prentiss, and Bluff Lake near Starkville. On nearby Lake Lowndes, just outside Columbus, there have been some really good bass catches. Bass and bluegill are biting on Lake Walthall, near Tylertown, while the bluegill and crappie are major catches on Lake Lee near Tupelo.

Fishing on the Commission's 14 lakes should continue to be good this next week.

From all appearances, it seems the fishing in the state is just a little better than great. This writer, for one, is chomping at the bit to get out from behind this desk and out on the water, pole in hand.

Improve Waterfowl Hunting

The Ross Barnett Reservoir Board has agreed to assist the Game and Fish Commission and construct a temporary levee for the control of water on a 2000 acre public shooting area adjoining the Pearl River Waterfowl Refuge.

Timber in that area is beginning to die out from the reservoir water that stands over the tree roots. The levee, with a system of water control gates, would allow dewatering during the summer months to keep the timber green and reflooded by gravity flow in the fall, to keep it a favorite feeding place for waterfowl.

The 2,000-acre area lies south of the Natchez Trace and just east of the Commission's Waterfowl Refuge on the other side of the pipeline wall. The proposed levee would run north and east from the turn in the pipeline road to the 296 or 297 ft. elevation point.

NEW SEASON

An Easter-day sign on a North Jackson motel proclaimed "Good Hunting - Eggs. That is."

Mississippi Guit Coast

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Coon Hunters Club has been growing for over a year now, to where its getting rough for a man to buy even a fair coon dog, but this is what all coon hunting clubs are for: to help promote coon hunting in their section of the country. Mississippi is in the running with some of the country's top coon dogs. The Coon Hunters Club should and can support coon hunters along the entire Gulf Coast and up to Forrest County. Above this hunters can join the Jones County Coon Hunters Club. Coon hunters should try to enter their dog in as many different club hunts as possible to see how the dog stands up to the other dogs in different parts of the country. The Mississippi Gulf Coast Coon Hunters Club has its meetings on the third Friday of every month. Club hunts are held on the second Saturday night of every month. A first, second and third place trophy is given to the dog with the most plus points only. Anyone wanting information contact Mr. or Mrs. James Loftin, Gulfport, Miss., or Mr. Phillip Levine, Biloxi.

Thou hast blessed the work of his hand.—(John 1:10).

As we work, we put into productivity the power and the ability that are ours from God. That work becomes more and more wonderful and gratifying as we draw upon the divine potential He has made available to us.

The Family That Prays Together...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES JONES

Miss Carolyn Wallis And James L. Jones Wed In Candlelight Ceremony At Geeville

The Mt. Olive Baptist Church in the Geeville Community near Baldwin was the setting for the lovely candlelight wedding of Miss Carolyn Irene Wallis and James Luther (Buddy) Jones on April 8, at 6:30 p.m. with Rev. H. T. Curbow, pastor, conducting the impressive double-ring ceremony in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isom Wallis, of the Lebanon Community, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jones of New Site.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Carolyn Pannell of Ellistown, pianist, and Mrs. Mary Evelyn Carnes, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Thomas Wallis, the bride wore a lovely white floor-length wedding gown of chantilly lace over peau de'sole that featured a portrait neckline, basque bodice and long tapering sleeves that came to dainty petal points at the hands. Her veil of pure silk illusion cascaded from a wedding ring crown of lace embroidered with seed pearl. She carried a hand bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid that rested on a white Bible. The Bible was a gift from the members of the Church. She wore a dainty string of pearls which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wages, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a lovely street-length gown of pale yellow dotted swiss organza with matching float veil attached to a yellow ring crown and a corsage of yellow cavel. Her opera pumps were in a matching pale yellow.

Jack Jones served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Jimmy Grubbs of Blue Springs, and Gene Horn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, of New Site.

The couple exchanged their wedding vows before an altar of white candles glowing from wrought iron candelabrum and tall floorbaskets filled with white gladioli and greenery.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wallis chose a lovely gown of navy blue sheer with matching accessories. Both mothers wore pretty corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Tennessee. For traveling the bride chose a two-piece suit-dress of aqua crepe with black accessories with which she wore the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The couple will reside in Booneville.

Out-of-Town Guests

Among the out of town guests attending the Wallis-Jones wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wallis of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wallis of Ripley; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Magers of Algoma; Miss Frances Rogers of Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Russ and children of Long Beach, Miss;

"Cancer And You" Theme Of Pilot Club Meeting Held Thursday Night

The Booneville Pilot Club had its regular monthly program meeting April 21 at the Town Motel Restaurant. The Community Service Committee with Chairman Mrs. Hoyt Nelson was in charge of the program. Other committee members are Mrs. Clyde Carter, Mrs. Fred Houston, Mrs. Clifford Long, Mrs. E. O. Roden, Miss Earline Woods and Mrs. C. W. Yarber.

The banquet tables were artistically decorated in the theme of the evening "Cancer and You". Pamphlets on the subject were used as place cards, and the bright red American Cancer Society Emblem and medical books were used throughout the room.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Oswald Pounds and Mrs. Hubert McDaniel led in the Pledge of Allegiance. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. Hoyt Nelson, Prentiss County Health Nurse. She ably presented some facts regarding that dread disease, cancer, and stated that hope is in the air concerning its prevention and even cure. She said that a yearly check-up, or even a six-month checkup, is the best defense against cancer. It can lead to early detection and treatment and can add years to your life as it has to many. She urged cigarette smokers to stop smoking and for those that don't smoke not to start, as a protection against lung cancer. Those who "break the habit" gain real health benefits, even after years of smoking. She asked that each of us familiarize ourselves with the Seven Danger Signals of cancer and that if any of those painful signals lasts more than two weeks, see your doctor. A signal could be something serious and the earlier the treatment, the better the chance of cure. Mrs. Nelson closed with the statement that research is making great progress and the future could hold a brighter future regarding control of leukemia and other forms of cancer. After some brief announcements the meeting was adjourned with the President, Mrs. Clifford Kizer, leading the club in repeating the club motto "True Course Ever".

Grandparents of the prospective groom are the late Dr. and Mrs. James Walter Hervey of Groves, Texas, and the late Dr. and Mrs. William Tillman Smith of Dickson, Tennessee.

Shakespeare Tragedy Is Season Finale At Front Street Theatre

For its final production of the season, Front Street Theatre in Memphis has tackled one of the most challenging, and exciting, plays in the entire classical repertory. Shakespeare's stirring historical tragedy, "Anthony and Cleopatra."

Adding to the excitement is the presence, in perhaps the most fascinating feminine role ever written, of Miss Rita Gam, internationally known stage and screen and television actress making her Shakespearean debut. As Cleopatra, Miss Gam is following in the barge-wake of such stars as Sarah Siddons, Eleanor Duse, Sarah Bernhardt and, in more modern times, Katharine Cornell, Vivien Leigh, Dame Edith Evans, Katharine Hepburn, Tallulah Bankhead and, in the recent non-Shakespearean film, Elizabeth Taylor.

Opposite Miss Gam, as the reckless Roman statesman-soldier, Anthony, is FST resident actor, Gil Rogers. Guest actor John Seitz plays both Lepidus, one of the Triumvirs of the Roman Empire, and Thidius. Allen Hamilton is seen as Enobarbus, the man who knows the truth and speaks it; Don Hayes as Octavius Caesar; Polly Holliday as his sister, Octavia, whom Antony marries in a political move, and Leon Russum as Eros, loyal officer to Antony.

Cleopatra's court of attendants are portrayed by Liz Ingleson as handmaiden, Chairman; Sheila Larken as Iras, Barry Fuller as Mardian and Michael Norrell as Alexas. Tom Carson is seen as the pirate, Pompey, and Duane Campbell portrays the chilling friend to Pompey, Menas.

Other characters who give the drama complete life are Macon McCalm as a Scootsayer, Andy Rich as Canidius, Marler Stone as Scarus and Stuart Michaels as Agrippa. Also included in the cast are: Harry Watson, Charles Faithful, James Wetzel, Michael Arian and John Porter.

Guest director William Woodman, who directed "Becket" is at the helm of "Anthony and Cleopatra." Costumes are by Don Fibiger, sets by Richard Wilcox, and lighting by Lynn LePelley.

"Anthony and Cleopatra" will run through May 7 with performances nightly at 8:30 except Sundays when the curtain rises at 7:30, and Mondays which are dark. Tickets are now on sale at Front Street Theatre Box Office, 1819 Madison Avenue, 247-1122, or mail orders are accepted. In addition to the evening performances Memphis Shakespeare Festival, Inc. is sponsoring 15 student matinees on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Student group reservations at $1.00 per ticket, may be made by telephoning Mrs. Jan Leonard at 275-4866.

George Morton Googe Wins Poetry Contest

In a poetry contest sponsored by the Woman's Club of Jackson, Tennessee, George Morton Googe won first place at Tigrett Junior High School for his original poem, "Sister's Gettin' Married."

The poem was then entered in the Tennessee District Poetry Contest and was awarded second prize there. George Morton is the thirteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker Googe of Jackson, Tennessee, and the grandson of Mrs. Charles Morton of Booneville. The subject of his poem is his sister Janeen, whose engagement announcement appears in this issue.

SISTER'S GETTIN' MARRIED

by George Morton Googe

Sister's gettin' married, and gee! will I be glad!

She won't be here to pester me and "snitch" to Mom and Dad.

I'll be the only child at home . . . Things will work out fine; And when the chicken plate is passed, the best piece will be mine.

I'll get her cake and candy and the biggest piece of pie, And I will be the apple of my mom and daddy's eye!

I'll have a bathroom of my own—'twill be my private lair; And I won't be interrupted by her comin' to fix her hair!

But come to think about it, when my sister's gone from here, I won't have anyone to tease . . . I'll miss her lots, I fear.

Sometimes she played ball with me, and games and checkers, too— And helped my mom take care of me that time I had the flu.

I've got to stop this wedding, so before that preacher's through, When he asks if anyone objects . . . I'll exclaim "I do!"

Special Question-and-Answer Column On New Graduated Withholding Income Tax Rates

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions about the new tax withholding system which becomes effective May 1, 1966.

Q - What will the new income tax withholding rates do to my take home pay?

A - Generally speaking, the new system will increase take home pay for those who have been over-withheld and reduce take home pay for those who have been under-withheld. To find out what the effect will be on your paycheck, ask your employer or the local IRS office for a copy of IRS Document 5642. Tables in this one-page fact sheet will enable you to compare the amounts withheld under both the new and the old system.

Q - Who has to file a new withholding exemption certificate?

A - All married people must file a new Form W-4 if they want tax withheld at the rates from the table for married persons instead of table for single persons. The law says that unless an employee files a new W-4 withholding form with his employer indicating he is married, he will be considered single for tax withholding purposes.

Some widows and widowers also will be concerned with filing a new Form W-4, and should see IRS Document 5642 for details.

Actually, all employees should review their withholding situation to see whether another W-4 should be filed.

Q - When do the new withholding rates start?

A - The rates become effective May 1 and apply to amounts paid on or after that date.

Q - Can I still claim fewer exemptions than I am entitled to under the new withholding system?

A - Yes, you can still claim fewer exemptions than you are entitled to, but the graduated withholding rates are designed to bring withholding closer to actual tax liability and it may not be necessary for you to drop any of your exemptions.

Q - If the new withholding system is going to give the government more revenue isn't that a tax increase?

A - No. The graduated withholding rates will only speed up collections, they will not change total yearly tax liabilities. In other words, the government will only be getting the amount of taxes it is entitled to at present rates but it will be getting it sooner.

Q - How will the new rates on withholding effect estimated tax payments for employees?

A - Generally, estimated tax declarations are required when the tax for the year exceeds tax withheld by $40 or more. For middle and upper income taxpayers, it should also reduce the amount required for estimated payments. Thus, under the new withholding rates, some employees may no longer need to file an estimate.

If you have to file declarations of estimated tax, check to see whether the increased withholding under graduated rates will meet your total tax liability.

Q - How can the new system reduce withholding for some people when the lowest rate is still 14 percent?

A - The new system has been designed to take the minimum standard deduction into account. This was not done under the old system. Also, the new system makes a distinction between separate and joint returns so withholding is lower for married taxpayers than it is for single taxpayers.

Q - What's the highest rate of withholding under the new system?

A - The top rate is 30 percent.

Air conditioning sales are expected to reach $13-million in S. Carolina during 1966.

Prentiss ASCS County News

By CHARLES E. CALVERT, Office Manager

SOYBEAN SUPPORT
PRICE BOOSTED

Prices for the 1966 crop of soybeans will be supported at a national average of $2.50 per bushel. This compares with the support of $2.25 per bushel which has been in effect for soybean production since 1961.

The average price received by farmers from the 1965 crop is expected to be about $2.60 per bushel. However, the increased minimum level of support for the 1966 crop soybeans will protect farmers against any unwarranted price declines at harvest time when marketings are usually the heaviest and prices lower. At the same time it will encourage farmers to expand plantings to provide a stable supply of soybeans.

Growers are urged to consider carefully the desirability of shifting corn acreage to soybeans as a crop in much demand and for which production increases are vital if needs are to be met. Feed grain supplies, on the other hand, are more than adequate to meet needs.

Soybeans offer farmers a good cash alternative to corn; they have been the top individual crop dollar earner among U. S. agricultural exports for four consecutive years and have been pushing higher each season. The soybean crop now ranks fourth in total value of production among the principal crops produced in the United States. They are an important cash crop in 30 states. Preliminary estimates place the farm value of the 1965 crop, at nearly $2 billion.

As announced earlier, growers who take part in the 1966 feed grain program may plant soybeans in acreage intended for producing feed grains under the program and still receive the price support payment earned through program participation. Price support payments are 30 cents per bushel for corn, 20 cents a bushel for barley, and 53 cents a hundredweight for grain sorghum. The payments are made on the farm's projected yield of the feed grain acreage planted under the program, up to 50 percent of the total feed grain base.

Producers can receive price support on their 1966-crop soybeans through warehouse and farm-stored loans, and through purchases, either as individuals or through their approved cooperative marketing associations. Program availability and loan maturity dates will be announced later.

DAIRY SUPPORT
PRICES BOOSTED

The support price for manufacturing milk has been increased to $3.50 per hundredweight for the period April 1, 1966, through March 31, 1967. The support for butterfat in farm-separated cream is increased to 61.6 cents a pound. Support prices since April 1, 1965, have been $3.24 per hundredweight for manufacturing milk and 59.4 cents per pound of butterfat in farm-separated cream.

The new higher supports are still well below current market prices. The national average price of manufacturing milk adjusted for seasonal milk fat content was 63 cents a pound.

The increase in the support price for manufacturing milk and actions in Federal milk orders to increase prices to producers for bottling milk were steps taken recently by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman to encourage expanded milk production and thus assure an adequate supply of milk and dairy products for domestic market needs and high priority programs. Expanded output will mean lower retail prices for consumers that would otherwise be expected, while the higher support level will provide greater price protection to the Nation's dairymen.

Total milk production has fallen increasingly below a year earlier since mid-1965. Apparent reasons include relatively good prices of meat animals, high farm labor costs, increased off-farm opportunities, and low milk-producing quality of last year's roughage crop. And the lower milk production has been reflected in sharply reduced output of manufactured dairy products.

In carrying out the program to support prices to farmers for milk and butterfat, the U. S. Department of Agriculture will continue to offer to purchase butter, cheddar cheese, and nonfat dry milk in carlot quantities. Because the parity and support prices are higher, the announced purchase prices are increased by 2 cents a pound for butter, 2 cents a pound for nonfat dry milk, and 3.2 cents a pound for cheddar cheese. The new purchase prices, however, are well below their average market price levels in recent months.

HOME ECONOMIST'S NOTES

By CLAUDE T. ROSS, Extension Home Economist

No matter how wonderful a garment or a household fabric may look, what really matters is the way it responds to care.

Washing instructions on the hang-tag of a new dress, shirt, or any new purchase are worth their weight in gold. So we suggest a filing system for such.

Keep a small card-file near your washing center. Each time a member of the family gets a new garment, or you buy new curtains, take off the informative tag and put it in the file box. Identify each toy, as "Johnny's new white jeans", or "Mary's pink shorts".

When it comes time to sort the laundry, you will know which items you can load together, which take short washing and spin cycles, and which need hot or warm water. You will also know which need ironing and at what temperature setting.

Fabrics give so much more wear and satisfaction when laundered properly that it does not pay to rely on memory as to fabric content. When you write information down, file it properly, and refer to it as needed, you protect both your belongings and your budget.

Helpful Tips:

Try waxing ash trays. Ashes won't cling, odors won't linger and they can be wiped clean with a paper towel.

It is better to buy medium size eggs rather than large unless there is at least 7c difference in the price.

You can ease the job of washing painted walls and woodwork and venetian blinds by using a mixture of one cup ammonia, one-half cup of vinegar and one-fourth cup of baking soda with one gallon of warm water.

Apply this solution to the walls or blinds with a sponge or cloth and rinse with clear water. Dirt and grime will disappear like magic and the solution will not dull the painted finish or leave streaks.

Nobody likes to wash windows, but here is an easy, fast way to handle it: add ½ cup ammonia and one-eighth cup of vinegar to one quart of warm water. This solution will make your windows gleam and won't leave the usual film or streak on the glass.

If tap water has clogged your steam iron, fill it with 1/4 cup of vinegar and 1 cup water and let it stand overnight. The next day heat iron and remove the mixture.

STUDY TOUR OF PASTURE PLANTS

The Mississippi Experiment Station will hold a study tour of pasture plants Friday, April 29 at Mississippi State University.

The study will include new varieties of white clover including the new release from South Carolina, TILMAN-37 varieties of winter legumes—breeding work on Crimson Clover; Varieties of winter annual grasses; nitrogen fertilization of wheat and ryegrass pastures; Alfalfa varieties and management studies including alfalfa weevil control, and Fescue plots.

Any interested in attending this study tour contact our office.

LIME

Late spring and early summer are good times to apply lime to permanent pastures as it will have time to work gradually into the soil. You will get the full effect for any fall pastures this year and spring and summer pastures next year. Where lime is needed, it should be the first fertility practice carried out.

If your cotton needs lime and you planted skiprow, you can apply lime by driving the spreading truck down the four-row skip area. The truck driver will have to adjust his equipment to get a uniform spread and lapping of the lime. He will probably have to drive down every other skip. The lime will not hurt the cotton even though it gets on the leaves.

WEEDS IN PONDS

Weeds are one of the biggest problems in farm fish ponds. If you are building a new pond, one of the best weed controls you can use is to be sure that the edge of the pond is at least two or three feet deep.

Many above water weeds like water lilies, water hyacinths, water primroses and like plants can be usually controlled with low volatile ester 2,4-D. Use one gallon of four-pound per gallon 2,4-D in 100 gallons of water and spray above water broadleaf weeds. Water should be warm when spraying with 2,4-D. Take extreme caution to make sure that the 2,4-D does not drift into cotton or other susceptible crop.

SOYBEANS

Do not get in a hurry about planting soybeans. They should not be planted before May 1. Best recommended planting time is between May 1 and June 10.

Research indicates that soybeans planted June 10 yield 95 percent as much as those planted on May 10 on weed-free field. On weedy fields, delayed planting will increase yields if shallow cultivation is done to reduce the weed population before planting.

Jackson Tornado Claims Paid Quickly

JACKSON, April 21 — Insurance companies rushed checks to property owners in settlement of claims for damage caused by the March 3 tornado, to help in getting repairs and rebuilding underway quickly, and today only a few claims remain to be paid.

Approximately half of the claims caused by the tornado were assigned to the General Adjustment Bureau, Inc., for settlement. Claims are assigned to the GAB by many capital stock insurance companies.

Working long hours with its regular staff and additional adjusters who were rushed into the Jackson storm office, the GAB closed 60 per cent of the assigned claims within three weeks.

At mid-April, the GAB had only two dozen claims unclosed.

The tornado caused property damage estimated at between $4 and $5 million.

Decoration Day At Friendship May 1

Decoration Day at Friendship Church, 18 miles east of Booneville will be Sunday, May 1. Bro. Grady Guntharp will preach at 11 o'clock. Dinner will be spread at the noon hour with singing in the afternoon. Everyone has a special invitation to attend.

Saturday, April 30 is the day to clean the cemetery. All interested persons are asked to come and bring tools to work with.

Nineteen Courses Offered In Natural Science Curriculum At Northeast JC

By Mary Robinson

(This is the eleventh in a series of sixteen articles featuring the academic departments at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College.)

The thirty-three Science Majors at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College find the Science Department to be an excellent means for developing their scientific abilities.

In the Natural Science curriculum are nineteen courses covering the fields of Biology, Chemistry, Physical Science, and Physics.

For students of Biology, there are several courses of interest. Beginning Botany is an introductory course with emphasis on the basic facts and principles involved in the scientific study of plants; while general Botany gives a survey of the divisions of the plant kingdom. General Biology is a course in general principles including the nature of protoplasm, cellular activity, etc. The course, General Zoology, is a study of the life processes and representative animals of the major phyla; while the course, Principles of Zoology, is a study of the basic principles of Biology as seen in animal life. A more advanced course is Microbiology which is the study of anatomy, physiology and behavior of microorganisms.

Several courses in chemistry are offered giving the student a wide range in this field. Courses in General Chemistry give the basic fundamentals, the properties, structure, and transformation of matter, and courses in Physical Science are offered which give studies of the basic laws of physics and astronomy, and chemistry, geology, and meteorology.

General Physics, including Physics 214 and 224 gives the fundamental laws of mechanics, heat, and sound; and a study of magnetism, electricity, light and introduction to modern physics.

The Northeast Science Department has complied with the standards of the American Chemical Society which meet the requirements of Senior Institutions so that Northeast students transferring to these institutions do not have to take Quantitative Analysis. At the present time the Northeast Mississippi Junior College is the only Junior College in the state which meets these requirements.

Added recently to the Science Department are major items such as a water-jacketed incubator, P. H. Meter, and Analytical Balance.

The Natural Science Department sponsors the Society of Student Scientists an honorary organization for those interested in science. The purpose of this club is to further interest in science by student participation. Membership is open to majors and minors in chemistry, biology, or physics. Officers of the club are George Kemp, Corinth, President; Susan Griffin, Baldwin, Vice President; and Beverly Lowrey, Booneville, with Mr. H. H. Daws as sponsor.

A highlight of the year for the science majors is a field trip to Gulf Coast Research Laboratory. Another activity is the annual luncheon given in the Home Economics Departments when students have the privilege of hearing an outstanding scientist as guest speaker.

Members of the Science faculty attend the annual Mississippi Academy of Science Meetings, and the American Chemistry Society meeting held at the University of Mississippi.

Many former Northeast Science students have done advanced study and many are now practicing their chosen profession in many areas of the country — as Doctors, Dentists, Pharmacists, Technologists, and Teachers.

Members of the Natural Science

Department are: Mr. H. H. Daws as Chairman; Miss Mary E. Hobson; Miss Reba F. Williamson; Mr. W. T. Dallison; and Mr. W. D. Clifton who teaches part time in the Department.

L. R. Barnes Buys Registered Angus

L. R. Barnes, Marietta, recently purchased an Aberdeen-Angus bull from Ansel Hall, Pontotoc, Miss.

A man, 6 foot tall, between 25 and 29 years of age, should weigh 172 pounds.

Hunters in Hawaii seek wild boar as a major sport. Some are as big as 300 pounds.
