PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR NEW PLANT HERE

Announcement was made here this week of the completion of plans and signing of an agreement for a new industry to locate in Booneville in the immediate future.

Walter Ruff, president of the newly chartered South Central Plastics, Inc., made the announcement here Tuesday and plans call for building construction to start in 30 to 45 days.

The plant will be located on a site west of the G. M. & O. Railroad and north of Brown Shoe Company plant. The building will be completely air conditioned and will contain 12,000 square feet of manufacturing area of steel construction and 3600 square feet of office space, which will be of brick and glass.

Major operation of the firm will consist of injection molding of plastic components, along with injection molding of other secondary operations to be performed for complete finished plastic products.

It will be a 24-hour a day operation, working up to an employment of about 100 when capacity is reached. A large percentage of the employees will likely be women, Mr. Ruff said. Tentative date for the beginning of operation is about June 1.

Mr. Ruff's firm is currently operating two other production plants in New York State. He will have his headquarters in Booneville and the other plants will be operated as subsidiaries. His associates in the firm are Arthur Frank of Buffalo, N. Y. and Ferdinand Ruff of West Falls, N. Y., who will continue to operate the present companies, R. & F. Mold Company and Thruway Molders, Inc., in those locations.

When the announcement was made, Mayor M. W. Smith said, "We are very fortunate indeed to have this fine firm locate here, which will give more diversification to our industrial development and we are especially pleased to have such a fine family coming here to become a part of our city and area."

Mayor Smith also pointed out that the firm is paying its own way and no bond issue or tax funds are involved in the location of the plant here.

In speaking of his decision to locate here, Mr. Ruff said that it was very advantageous for economic reasons to locate another plant in this section to better serve some of our customers, but he said he was particularly impressed with the hospitality of the people of Booneville, and especially the efforts of Mayor Smith and Doug Jumper of S. & J. Builders. He said "Few people will ever realize the countless hours of work that these two put in while we were working out the necessary details."

Others present at the announcement were Joe Duckworth, president, and Kenneth Pounds, secretary-treasurer, of the local Industrial Development Council; J. W. Abernethy, vice president of the North Mississippi Industrial Development Council; and Joe Ray Langston, attorney for the firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruff have purchased a lot in the Wickwood subdivision where they will build their home. They have three daughters, two of whom will move here with them. Nancy Lee will graduate in June from Buffalo State College and Karen Lee is graduating from Brighton-Stratford. Their eldest daughter, Bonnie Lee, is married and has two children.

Prentiss County March Of Dimes Needs Your Help

Miss Gloria Jean Rutherford, Campaign Fund Chairman for Prentiss County March of Dimes, in stressing the need for funds said, "This is a fight everyone must join. Birth defects are the Nation's second greatest destroyer of life. Every year, we lose a half million unborn babies, as well as 60,000 infants, children and adults, because of birth defects. March of Dimes finances 57 birth defect centers in its fight against birth defects including one in Jackson, Miss., and one in Memphis, Tenn., both now serving our Mississippi children. With knowledge of the vast problems of birth defects, and with compassion to do something about it, I know Prentiss Countians will see to it that the March of Dimes in January 1966, will be successful."

Won't you please open up your heart to this worthy cause, when you are called on for a contribution. Teenagers will call on the business district Saturday, January 22nd. As in the words of the Master, "For as much as ye have done it unto the least of one of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Lions District Conference Scheduled This Week End

Booneville will be roaring this weekend as Lions members from the 46 clubs in North Mississippi which comprise District 30-A, Mississippi converge here for the annual Mid-Winter Conference to be held January 22-23 at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College. This will be the second time for the Booneville club to host the event since it was started some 10 years ago.

Registration will be from 4 until 7 p.m. Saturday, followed at 7:30 by the banquet in the junior college dining room with Billy Bennett, president of the Booneville Lions Club, presiding. Mayor M. W. Smith will welcome the group and M. C. Lewis, Jr., Director, Lions International, of Hot Springs, Ark., will be a special guest and main speaker for the Saturday night session of the conference.

Registration will resume Sunday morning and after an intermission to allow members to attend church, a luncheon meeting will be held in the college dining room beginning at 12:30. Glen Davidson of Ecru, district governor, will preside at this session and the principal speaker will be N. S. (Soggy) Sweat, Jr., of Corinth, circuit judge of the First Judicial District of Mississippi.

Door prizes will be awarded at all sessions. Mary Grace Nabers, vocalist, accompanied by Mary Gault Nabers, will entertain during the banquet and the Melo-Tones—Kay Chapman, Wanda Holder and Rubye Lawrence — will entertain at the luncheon. Entertainment will also be provided for the ladies during the registration periods and the business session.

County Will Have Few Qualified To Vote Unless Tax Payments Pick Up

Unless many more persons pay their poll taxes before the February 1 deadline only a small percentage of the county's population will make decisions for all during the coming elections, Roy Lowrey, circuit clerk and county registrar, said Wednesday.

Mr. Lowrey said that so much has been said and written about abolishing the poll tax that epi-dently many persons think it is no longer a requirement. But it has not yet been abolished and is required to vote in local and state elections.

The clerk reminded electors that poll tax receipts or exemption slips will be required for voting in the special county school bond election and the first district justice of the peace election on February 2. He also said that persons who have attained the age of 60 since February 1, 1965 still must pay the poll tax to be eligible because the tax paid now is for the year past.

Mr. Lowrey said there are approximately 7,000, including those exempt from the poll tax, who would otherwise be eligible to vote and normally some 5200 pay poll taxes, but as of Wednesday morning only about 2300 had paid.

Funds Received For Work-Study Program At NE

Hal Hughes, Northeast Director of Student Personnel, said that financial aid under the Work-Study Program will be available in the form of Work-Ships and will be awarded on the basis of need and the ability to serve.

The student assistant project has culminated from the efforts of the Board of Trustees and the Administration of the Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

Record Prices Set In Twenty-Third Area Feeder Pig Sale

All prices were shattered and a new record was set in the twenty-third area feeder pig sale held here last Thursday.

Three hundred and seventy-seven head of pigs were sold. The average weight was 54.1 lbs. per pig. The sale average was $49.84 per cwt. or $26.97 per pig.

Several buyers from other states and in the state were disappointed because of the limited number of pigs offered for sale.

There were enough buyers present to purchase 1500 to 2000 head of pigs if they had been available.

The outlook for continued good hog markets is being predicted through the next two years.

Many of our farmers are missing a golden opportunity of supplementing present farm income by not adding the feeder pig enterprise.

Farmers with corn can double the market price by feeding through hogs.

ORGANIZE YOUR STORAGE

Let your New Year's resolution to clean out your cabinets be one that you don't break. You don't have to do them all at once. A little along as you have time. But as you work on shelves and drawers, wipe them out and line with contact paper, shelf paper or rubber shelf liner.

As you work, discard broken, chipped and stained dishes, give away those you use seldom. In other words, don't keep any "skeletons in your cupboard."

You may need to do some organizing, too. Place articles at the first point of use. Stack like items together. If you use certain items or articles together, store them together. Keep within easy reach those items you use frequently. Store them so you can see and grasp them easily.

PLANT IN JANUARY

You can sow seed this month for hollyhock, phlox drummond, scarlet sage, forget-me-not, four-o'clock, nasturtium, verbena, larkspur, calendula, gaillardia, cornflower.

DOWN THE DRAIN?

Don't pour nutrition down the drain. That's what you do when you throw out liquids in which you cook vegetables, meat drippings, and the liquids from canned foods. Put these liquids in gravies, soups, sauces and gelatin dishes. You'll be adding nutritive values and interesting flavors to your cooking.

Albert Brewer May Seek Office Of Lt. Governor

In "The Commercial Appeal" from Tom Johnson's column "In Alabama" we quote in part, that "A young legislator from North Alabama, is quietly and effectively, lining up his ducks to go after the lieutenant governorship." He is Albert Brewer, of Decatur, Ala., who has spent several summers in Booneville in the Ewell home.

He is the grandson of Mrs. W. A. Brewer and nephew of Mrs. H. G. Ewell. The youngest Speaker of the House Alabama has ever had steered most of Governor Wallace's legislation through the lower house.

The political opponents of Brewer are swinging behind him, now that it is known that he is in earnest about making the race. His supporters include the present lieutenant-governor, Jim Allen, who cannot succeed himself.

There is sectional as well as political interest in Brewer's candidacy. In North Alabama, Brewer's home territory, he has the predominant voting strength.

Recognized as one of the leading attorneys in his state, shortly after the beginning of his extensive law practice, Mr. Brewer won the biggest personal injury lawsuit in the history of the state of Alabama at that time. Along with his political ambitions he has a large and successful law practice. Mr. Brewer was selected as the Outstanding Man of the Year in his district, which comprises four in his state. He is much in demand as a speaker for various organizations.

Because of Mr. Brewer's connection with Gov. Wallace, Brewer has appeal beyond his region. The lieutenant-governorship in the next administration is certain to be an exciting office. The number 2 post, as presiding officer of the State Senate, has tremendous power independent of the governor's office.

Some influential Republicans concede that their best hope might lie in the election of Brewer, as School of Pharmacy in cooperation with the Miss. State Pharmaceutical Association. The programs are held through the Ole Miss Bureau of Pharmaceutical Services.

Two Ole Miss faculty members, Dr. Harry A. Smith, associate professor of Pharmacy Administration and assistant director of the Bureau, and Dr. Lewis N. Nobles, professor of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Chemistry and dean of the Graduate School, were the principal speakers.

Dr. Nobles' remarks concerned "The Priceless Ingredient," and Dr. Smith discussed House Bill II, the drug abuse bill which becomes effective Feb. 1.

The seminars being held are part of a continuing education program designed to keep Mississippi pharmacists abreast of new products and services in the pharmaceutical profession.

lieutenant-governor. Through he is a Democrat it is thought that he would not obstruct a legislative program because it was authored by a Republican. Most observers agree that he has a strong chance to be elected.

Just Scribbling

MRS. ED JOHNSON

Dr. Walt Simpson was helping his son, Walter, review some history questions, and asked him, "Who was Francis Scott Key?" Walter replied, "Oh, I know it ... he wrote 'The Banner Independent.'"

You never know when an act of kindness pays off big dividends. Mr. Walter Ruff announced this week the location of the South Central Plastic, Inc. for Booneville.

Wednesday morning he came by the office and during the conversation mentioned that he had been in Corinth seeing about the feasibility of locating a plant there and decided to go to Tupelo and look over the situation also. About ½ mile north of Booneville his car ran out of gas and a gentleman driving a pick-up truck went out of his way to help him get gas and was especially nice and accommodating. This kindness played a big part in Mr. Ruff's decision to come to Booneville.

If a nation values anything more than freedom, it will lose its freedom; and the irony of it is that if it is comfort or money that it values more, it will lose that, too. —Somerset Maugham

An idea isn't worth much until a man is found who has the energy and ability to make it work.

A police whistle in the handbag or pants pocket or under the pillow might be more effective than a rusty revolver in the glove compartment or in the bureau drawer.

Leista tells me that when the power was off one morning, recently, a person said, "I'm not going to be caught like this again ... I'm going to town today and buy me a hot plate."

She also said that Mabel Nelson has bought a kerosene lamp for her daughter, Sara Ann Cole, to take with her to Boston, Massachusetts—just in case they have another black-out up that way.

Snow may be predicted, but spring is evidently on the way because pansies are in bloom at Pete Morgan's service station on Highway 45.

I don't believe it ... but I was told that a woman never admits she has lost an argument — she just thinks she has failed to make her position clear.

Meeting Planned For Jan. 24th At Marietta

The Marietta Community is proud of her park, and we regret that the weather hindered our work day last week, when we planned to work on the Park Ground and clean up and clean out the Springs. We are trying to keep the Park open and usable all year around. We cordially invite the public and our friends everywhere to visit the Park and use it freely and we hope with as much pleasure as it affords the community.

A number of us have talked a little about reorganizing our R. C. D. C. or some other plan for promoting the interest of the community. We decided to invite all interested persons to meet at the Marietta School Building, Monday night, January 24 at 7 o'clock in pre-organizational free discussion of the future of our community. If expressed interest is strong enough partial organization might be effective.

On the drawing board... a better future

Our community is really going places . . . physically, financially, educationally, industrially . . . and the future has never looked brighter! We've made great strides over the years . . . and by working together, we'll continue to grow.

A WORLD IN TROUBLE

What has happened to this marvelous world of ours in this twentieth century of God's grace? Mankind seems to be passing through a sea of troubles which has no counterpart in human history.

There are wars and rumors of wars among the nations, and many of the nations themselves are split into warring factions, each faction striving for supremacy, and each intolerant of the views, hopes, and rights of others.

The great trouble with the world is that men have forgotten God. They no longer seek spiritual guidance, but follow the vain ways of the modern world. We have become a cynical, materialistic generation.

If this drift toward world tragedy and chaos is ever stopped, the churches of the world must do it. The world's hope—our hope—is in God and His Church. He alone can save mankind from a sorrowful fate.

The Church seeks to turn the hearts of men from the ways of war and fear and hate to the ways of peace and love.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

COULD BE WORTH $10 MILLION ANNUALLY—Dr. Norman J. Doorenbos (center), professor of pharmaceutical chemistry at the University of Mississippi, glances back at a sumac plant which has been stripped of its leaves by student and faculty researchers in the Ole Miss Research Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences. Sumac, which grows wild in the South, may become a major domestic source of the chemical "tannin," which is vital to a number of industrial products. In the future, Mississippi farmers may raise sumac along with their cotton, corn, bean and other crops. As a result of the Ole Miss research on sumac, the plant has the potential of being worth over $10 million annually to the farm economy of Mississippi.

NE Students To Vote On Vietnam Resolution

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Student Government Council has adopted a Resolution which fully supports the United States' action in Vietnam.

Northeast students realize that the situation is very serious not only in the way it may affect their lives but also the future of our country and the entire free world. In order that the Northeast students might be better informed about the Vietnam situation, a symposium was presented in assembly by students enrolled in Mrs. Jane Preston's speech classes. Those taking part were Gary Ballard of Booneville, who spoke on the subject, "Why We Are In Vietnam"; Linda Kay Thomas, New Albany, "Our Allies in Vietnam"; Mary Whitley, Glenn, "Enemies in Vietnam"; Don Martini, Walnut, "Will Peace Negotiations Be At All Possible?" and Tommy Stoop, Booneville, "Will A Victory In Vietnam Be A Hollow One?"

During registration on January 25-26, the resolution will be presented to the student body in the form of a petition.

VA Answers Vets Questions

Q—My son is a Navy veteran and the father of six children. He is unable to acquire insurance due to disabilities. It is my understanding that the policy he once held while in the Navy is still open to him until May, 1966.

A—He should contact the nearest Veterans Administration Regional Office for information and pamphlets on the new insurance being sold to veterans who have a service-connected disability. This insurance will be sold until May 2, 1966.

Q—I am single and receiving a nonservice-connected pension from the VA of $78.75 per month. I would like to know how much I am allowed to earn per year by the Veterans Administration? This pension is under the "old pension law."

A—A veteran without dependents receiving a nonservice-connected pension under the old law, may not have an income which exceeds $1400 per year.

Q—I was a private in the Army in WW I. I had a GI insurance policy of $10,000 and $6.70 was taken from my check every month. I have recently been told that GI's in WW I did not have to pay for their government insurance. Is this correct?

A—Servicemen in WW I had to pay the premiums on their government life insurance policies.

Q—My neighbor, a disabled veteran receiving monthly disability payments, received an income questionnaire from VA; his payments would be stopped if he did not report his annual income. I am receiving disability compensation payments, but have never received the questionnaire. Should I file a report of income, anyway?

A—Your neighbor evidently received monthly "pension" payments for a nonservice-connected disability. You are receiving "compensation" payments for a service-connected disability which is not affected by your other income. You do not have to file a report.

Q—I receive a nonservice-connected disability pension from the VA amounting to $30 per month. I

I no longer live with my wife will I lose any of my pension and if so, how much?

A—If you and your wife live apart and you are contributing to her support, your pension payment will not change. If you and your wife live apart and you do not contribute to her support, you will be considered a single person—without dependents—and your maximum income could then not exceed $1800 per year. Your exact pension will depend on your individual income.

Q—I am a veteran of World War II with a 50 per cent service-connected disability. I have four minor children but I have never notified the VA about the fourth child since I thought the VA would pay nothing extra for children beyond the first three. Now a friend of mine has told me VA will pay additional compensation for any number of children. Is this true?

A—Yes, but, this additional compensation for dependents is paid only where the disability is evaluated at 50 per cent or more. It is always wise to inform the VA of changes in dependency status. Send a copy of the birth certificate of your fourth child along with your inquiry to the VA regional office.

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Reports

The desire to serve, not only the students on the Mississippi State University campus, but the entire Mississippi business community is developing into a new Division of Business Services in the University's College of Business and Industry.

Already administration authorized, it will provide a series of educational services not available now to Mississippi's businessmen and industrialists. Dr. W. C. Flewellen, dean of the college, visualizes the division as needed supplement to the college's teaching program and the activities of the Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

"We are approached on every hand to conduct short courses, conferences, institutes, seminars and workshops," said the dean. "Requests come from business, industry and government, and there are far more than we can answer." He notes that a number of events have already been held—in supervisory development, sales and personal motivation, wage and hour law, right-of-way acquisition, management development, estate planning, banking, accountancy, and postal clerk education. "But we're just scratching the surface," he confesses.

PLANS FOR THE NEW division are both energetic and optimistic: A division director will be hired soon. Business professors will shoulder additional responsibilities in extension service. More physical facilities will be provided when feasible and possible.

"Possibilities for service are almost limitless," said Dr. Flewellen. "We hope to schedule educational events to cover the whole range of business functions and to serve all areas of management, from the lowest level to the highest." Authorities will be utilized for instruction, not only from the University, but from business and industry as well.

"ALL OF THE PROGRAMS will have one objective in common," said the dean, "improving management for a greater profit margin."

The new division would hope to be as successful as the Cooperative Extension Service has been in working with Mississippi agriculture, although the framework is different in business and there are no government subsidies involved.

"The services we will perform will be paid for by the organizations involved," noted Dr. Flewellen, "and they will be tailored to fit the sponsor's needs."

"These needs already exist," stressed the dean. "We're not trying to create any."

"The needs are also multiplying," he added, "in direct parallel to the state's economic progress. This makes it even more important that these educational services be provided now."

Woman's Society Lists Objectives

As a reminder of events and opportunities for the last half of the church year, Mrs. J. G. Houston, president of the New Albany District Woman's Society of Christian Service, sent out copies of the January newsletter from the conference officers which listed major activities for the local units of the Methodist organization.

The president of the Woman's Society for the North Mississippi Conference, Mrs. H. E. Jones of Saltillo, urges the continuance of the good work in promoting the Purpose of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild which is "to help women grow in the knowledge and experience of God as revealed in Jesus Christ and to challenge them to respond to God's redemptive purpose in the world."

Vitality important Spiritual Life Cultivation objectives listed in the newsletter by Mrs. S. D. Simpson of Pikesville, include: (1) Church attendance, Bible reading, prayer, family worship, (2) Emphasis on stewardship for all life through programs and devotional reading, (3) Day-Apart, prayer-study groups, Lenten service, (4) Study "Acts—Then and Now." And Mrs. R. L. Long of Aberdeen mentioned the study, "Mission—The Christian's Calling."

Concerning giving, Mrs. J. D. McKie of Pikesville listed the need for contributions toward the $15,000 promised by the conference for furnishing the new auditorium at Wood Junior College, commonly known as the Chairs for Wood project, and paying pledges to meet the conference pledge of $66,750 for mission work. Supply askings are needed and cash and good used clothing for Choctaw Indian Reservation, Philadelphia, Miss.

"Check achievement sheet and a work toward Certificate of Recognition to be given at District Annual Meeting," says Mrs. O. R. Swingo of Sardis. The new date set for a "Day on Campus" is May 4, 1966, at Ole Miss, announces Mrs. R. E. Wasson of West Point, with the goal that every local president and secretary for Campus Ministry attend the meeting.

Mrs. B. W. Gaston of Starkville says to keep in mind the needs of women and their responsibility as they confront new concepts in this new age, and Mrs. L. A. Ross, Jr., of Clarksdale says, "We must continue to present interesting and inspiring programs so our women will be well informed and will be anxious to give and work for the mission program of our church."

HUNTING SEASONS CLOSING

It's that time of year again when a number of hunting seasons in the state come to an end in order to protect an adequate breeding stock to produce a new crop of game birds and animals. January 9 was the last day of the duck and goose seasons in Mississippi, January 11 closed the squirrel season in central and south Mississippi which was also the last day of the deer season in all counties, January 12 was the last day of the state's third dove season, and January 15 for snipe and woodcock. The seasons on the birds and bunnies run through Feb. 18, 1966.

NOVEMBER DEER KILL

The statewide deer kill in Mississippi during the November season reached another new high in 1965. This is in spite of the fact that extremely warm and dry weather conditions were very unfavorable for deer hunting. The nearly complete deer kill report as compiled from reports of wardens, warden supervisors, and deer camps shows a total of 8,546. The November, 1964 kill was 8,108.

Now a resort, French Lick, Indiana, was a French trading post in pioneer days.

Woodrow Stennett Appeals To The People

Friends, I wish you to consider me as a successor to the late Justice, Baxter L. Anderson. Time and my responsibility at the Booneville Junior High School make it impossible for me to see each of you personally, so I am taking this method of earnestly soliciting your vote.

Most of you have known me all my life. I was born and reared in the First District of Prentiss County. As a young man, after my experience in the service, I resolved to come back home to live the rest of my natural life among the best and most generous people in the world.

You have lived up to my highest expectations. Having married here, my good wife and I have found work to earn our livelihood and rear our two sons in the healthy association with you as friends and neighbors. You have been with us in sickness and shared with us the pleasures of our lives.

As a child I played with many of you, as a young man I went to the service of our country with you, and as a man I have worked with you. I have been equally diligent in trying to do each phase of my tasks with the best of my ability.

If elected your Justice of the Peace, I shall be ever mindful that he who sits in the seat of justice owes his fellow man, himself, and his God a debt. I shall, to the best of my ability, try to pay this obligation by rendering fair, honest decisions based upon the facts in the case and in the light of the law of the land. I shall endeavor to let reason sit by my side, to let justice govern my decisions, and to eliminate prejudice and personal feelings from my decisions.

Again I ask for your vote when you go to the polls on February 2, 1966. I shall appreciate more than anything else your confidence in me. I promise each of you that I will make a fair, unprejudiced Justice of the Peace, so that when this term is over, you can say with my wife and sons, "Woodrow did not let us, his family, friends and neighbors, down."

I need your help.
Yours very truly,
Woodrow Stennett

"Many a man who misses his anniversary, catches it later." Joe Harrison, The Texas (Dickens County) Spur.

Floy Jacob Circle Meets With Mrs. Lila Caldwell

The Floy Jacob Circle of First Baptist Church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Lila Caldwell for the regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Agnes Tutor had charge of the program entitled "What Is Missionary Education?" She displayed a poster "World Wide Knowledge, Plus Christ-Like Concern, Equals World Mission Service." In her own creative way, she discussed each topic, which was more than interesting.

Mrs. Coy Stutts assisted Mrs. Caldwell in serving loaf cake, topped with strawberries and whipped cream, toasted nuts and coffee.

Members present were Mrs. Myrtle Weems, Mrs. Lucy Spain, Mrs. Ann Kimbrell, president of WMU, Mrs. Sarah Rogers, Mrs. Minnie Mae Holley, Mrs. Lurline West, Mrs. Ruby Sutherland, Mrs. Mary Lee Robertson, Mrs. Marie Houston, Mrs. Virginia West, Mrs. Tutor, and Mrs. Stutts.

Calvary W.M.S. Circle Meets

Mrs. Shelby Barnes was hostess to the Elizabeth Merritt Circle of the Calvary Baptist Church Tuesday night. The call to prayer was given by Mrs. Charles Rowan, Miss Jessie Pressley and Mrs. Richard Harber gave previews of the February Royal Service Program and Community Missions.

Mrs. W. K. Wallace, Chairman of the Circle, directed a very informative program on "What Is Missionary Education?" The message of the program was thoughts concerning the 1966 Emphasis, "Every Christian A Witness Now."

Mrs. Hasting Barnett discussed, "What Is Missionary Education?" Miss Hortense Morgan, "World-Wide Knowledge," Mrs. Bill Clark, "Christian Concern," and Mrs. Barnes spoke on "World Mission Service."

In closing, Mrs. Wallace encouraged each member to thank God for His blessings, for the wonderful task He has given to Christian people, and for each to pray for seeing eyes, a loving heart, and working hands to do His biddings. Mrs. Trent Grubbs led the closing prayer.

Mrs. Barnes served a delicious plate with iced punch to the thirteen members present, and guests, Mrs. Lamar Booth, Mrs. Mose Johnson and Mrs. Hargett.

Services For J. B. Wheeler Conducted Monday Afternoon

J. B. Wheeler of Wheeler, who was former head of the Vocational Rehabilitation Department in the State Department of Education from 1930 to 1945 and had served for the past three years as district counselor for this department at Tupelo, died at 10 p.m. Saturday in Caldwell Memorial Hospital at Baldwin, after being in failing health for nine years. He was 65.

Most accidents happen within 25 miles of home

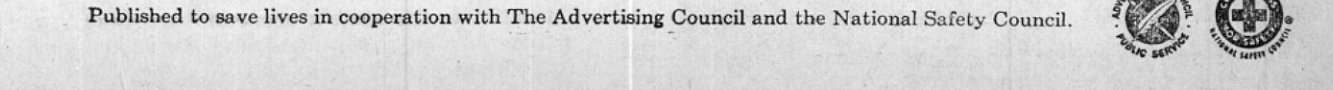

It's a fact. According to the National Safety Council, 4 out of 5 auto accidents happen within 25 miles of home. Happen during those local shopping trips, or while taking the children to school. Happen on the way to work . . . or the way home. So be smart. Always buckle your seat belt—every time you drive.

Remember, according to the National Safety Council, if everyone had seat belts and buckled them all the time, at least 5,000 lives could be saved each year and serious injuries reduced by one-third.

Always buckle your seat belt

COUNTY AGENT NOTES

FEDERAL INCOME TAX

You may not owe any income tax, but chances are you are required to file a return!

If your income from sale of farm products, machine hire, government programs or any other source totals $600.00 or more, you must file a return. This is based on GROSS INCOME—not net.

If you failed to file an estimate of your tax by January 17, you must file and pay any tax due by February 15. This date applies if the major portion of your income is from farming.

SOIL SAMPLING

At your earliest opportunity take soil samples for spring planted crops.

Here are some suggestions for taking good samples: Divide the field into areas not larger than 25 acres; divide the fields according to crops to be planted or crops planted previously.

Divide the fields where soils types show major changes. Take enough top soil and subsoil samples to be representative of the field. A good rule of thumb is to get top soil from at least 15 places and subsoil at three or more places.

Avoid sampling small spots that are not representative of the field. Do not take samples when soil is either extremely wet or very dry. Fill out the information sheet completely and mail it with the sample to the State Soils Testing Laboratory, State College, Miss.

DEHORNING DAIRY ANIMALS
The 1966 model dairy cow does not need horns! Back ages ago when cows were wild, they may have needed horns for defense. But that was a long time ago. In modern dairying horns can be a nuisance and can cause many injuries.

The best time to get rid of horns is when calves are around a week old. Here is how: Clip hair around horn bud; scrape with sterile knife until hornbud is red and just about ready to bleed. Then apply stick of caustic potash or dehorning compound until entire surface is covered. DO NOT USE TOO MUCH. You can put vaseline around the edges to keep the caustic from running. Keep treated calves under shelter for three days.

Electric dehorning, if properly used, will do a good job. If you are going to dehorn adult cows, get a qualified veterinarian.

ATTENTION:

All Contractors, builders or residential, commercial and industrial owners, who plan to build, re-build or alter any structure within City Limits of Booneville, Mississippi must make application for building permit at City Clerk's office. Application must be made in accordance with Southern Builder's Code. This Building Code has been in effect for over three years and all should be familiar with its laws. Section 106-1

No person, firm or corporation shall erect, construct, enlarge, alter, repair, move, improve, convert or demolish any building or structure in the City or cause the same to be done, without first obtaining a separate building permit for such buildings or structure, from building Official. Section 105

(C) Ordinary minor repairs may be made with the approval of Building Official, without a permit, provided that such repairs shall not violate any of the provisions of the Code.

(D) Where Construction is commenced before a permit is obtained, the permit fee shall be doubled. As of February 1, 1966, Corporations, firms or individual engaged in building must comply with rules or will be subject to Penalty.

Building Inspector. 41-3tc

Mrs. O. C. Robinson Speaks To U.D.C. On "Woman's Role In The Confederacy"

On Wednesday evening the D. T. Beall Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy met in the stately home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Perry. The house, built in the early years of the century, reflects all the grace and charm that is so typical of gracious Southern living. Many handsome pieces of heirloom furniture added beauty to the setting. The members were greeted and made welcome by Mrs. Perry and her co-hostess, Dr. Mary Summers.

A plate of assorted sandwiches, salted nuts and hot tea were served the members during the social hour.

The formal program was opened with a pledge of allegiance to the United States flag and a salute to the Confederate flag. Mrs. Clarence Chase, president, led the group in reciting the ritual and she gave a brief summary of the organization's yearly business.

It was indeed heart warming for the members to know that the 54th year of the organization's work had been profitable. The chapter had the honor of completing a perfect historical record of two Civil War soldiers and of adding new members to replace those who were deceased. It was noted that the dauntless spirit of the Southern soldier still lives in the hearts of their descendants.

The speaker for the occasion, Mrs. O. C. Robinson, held the members spell bound with her discussion of "Woman's Role in the Confederacy." Mrs. Robinson prefaced her remarks with the statement that she did not doubt that the dauntless courage of the Southern women was a dynamic spark that spurred the soldiers of the Confederacy to exhibit such bravery and unbelievable valor.

Mrs. Robinson stated that for the few women whose names have gone down in history, there were hundreds who sacrificed and suffered to preserve Southern traditions. She mentioned that from our ancestors we had heard stories of women nursing and caring for the wounded. She stated that Ella King Trader was called the Florence Nightingale of the Confederacy because of her outstanding work with the wounded at Corinth.

Mrs. Robinson said that WAC or women soldiers dated back to the Civil War, when Mrs. Brown Morgan organized a company of women who were called "Nancy Harts" from a very handsome but cross-eyed woman. The bravery of these women soldiers did not fall short of those of the other sex.

Ann Sevier Churchill was another Southern woman, who was a heroine in her own right and like many others of her sex will long be revered by true Southerners.

Mrs. Robinson told of Emma Sansing, a young Southern girl, who when the Yankees had destroyed a bridge, led General Forest's through to a hidden fjord in Black Creek thereby saving the town of Rome, Georgia, from Federal troops. General Forest asked her to see to the burial of the dead who were killed in the battle to save the Black Creek bridge.

Mrs. Robinson said that the Union Armies often failed to recognize the worth of the Confederate soldier but the Southern women were a ways quick to recognize their worthlessness.

Ann Morrison, the wife of General Thomas Jonathan Jackson, when her parents objected to her marriage, was quick to point out the many virtues of the then untied Stonewall Jackson, the great Southern general.

Of special interest was the story Mrs. Robinson told of the beautiful young spy, Kitty McCutchen who, by her beauty and charm, proved a valuable asset to the Southern Army. Especially was Mrs. Robinson proud to relate that she was a descendant on her maternal parents' side from the self same Kitty

The members will long remember the pleasant as well as instructive meeting. The D. T. Beall Chapter members look with pride upon the nobleness of their past history and with courage to the future of their Southland.

"Federal aid is giving yourself a transfusion by drawing blood from your right arm, returning it to your left—and spilling 90 per cent on the way across." Fred W. Grown, The Bergen (N. J.) Citizen.

Woman's Club Members Hear Talk On Communism At Thursday's Meeting

Assembling at the Town Motel on Thursday afternoon the Booneville Woman's Club met with the president, Mrs. Webster Cleveland, presiding.

The Club Woman's Collect was led by Mrs. John Mahaffy. Reports were read by the standing committees and approved. Mrs. Cleveland announced the new criteria for judging reports.

Prior to the program a delicious dessert and coffee were served.

Mrs. J. W. Abernethy, the able and effective director, introduced the program on "Communism."

Mrs. Ed Johnson in a talk entitled, "The Threat of Communism," approached her subject with uncommon intensity, making a valuable contribution toward a better understanding of the true nature of the communist, backed up with substantial documentation. Step by step the speaker kept her subject moving on from the beginning of Marxism and carried over to the present day. Each new development fitted into a rapidly unfolding pattern of the Communist's attempt at world domination. Mrs. Johnson was heard with commendatory appreciation.

Never losing its emphasis concerning the subject, Mrs. Lewis Earl Perry, Mrs. B. G. Horton and Mrs. Bob Cox gave authentic information concerning our democracy. At the close of the program, Mrs. Abernethy conducted a questionnaire which was a challenge to the thinking of her listeners.

News From Frankstown Mission

Friday night, January 14th, 10:30 at night, a thoughtful woman in Baldwin telephoned us that a family of eight was in town, with no place to stay, it was dreadfully cold and misting rain. I told them to send them up, so this made us lodging twelve and had twelve for breakfast.

This was a fine family, some of a contest was held for the best costume. Peggy McVey was awarded first prize. Door prizes were received by Judy Lambert and Edith Hooper.

Following the program and exchanging of gifts, the members were served potato chips, cookies, fruit cake, cheese cubes, and lime punch.

The members departed reluctantly, agreeing that this would be a well-remembered occasion.

Norma Lambert, Reporter

them helped with breakfast and one of them gave thanks. It seemed a blessing to all the guests.

We are happy to have this rescue station here and everybody needs this information.

Since this is the peoples Mission and we are making efforts to extend any services to where we don't have to turn anybody down.

We also had one man sent here from Baldwin Thursday night, whom we lodged and gave a leather jacket, which he needed very badly.

Build Our Nation With Responsible Citizenship

(Editor's Note: We are indebted to Jack Beene, president of the Booneville Civitan Club, for the following editorial. He said the motto of Civitan International since it was founded in March 1917 has been "Builder's of Good Citizenship." Each year for the past few years Civitan has sponsored programs to promote citizenship. Some of their previous public service patriotic programs have been: "Speak Up For Freedom, Today", "Protect Freedom's Future", and "Build America's Future Through Active Citizenship." For 1966 they are promoting another of these services with the title, "Build Our Nation With Responsible Citizenship—Think—Speak—Participate."

Mr. Beene also said, "In these days nothing could be more important than keeping items of this nature fresh on people's minds, so that we can retain what freedom we have."

Hard work and sacrifice founded this great country of ours. The wish of our forefathers was to eradicate tyranny and oppression forever. To keep our liberties and freedoms secure we must continue to work and sacrifice, perhaps not in the same severe way the pioneers did but with a diligence and an awareness of the obligations of citizenship.

Freedoms and liberties are the products of the highest form of government ever achieved by mankind. Only active citizenship can make it work. To be a good citizen we must have a love of truth and justice and willingness to sacrifice personal advantage for honor.

We may wonder what we can do to Build Our Nation, yet every day of our lives we are given the privilege of THE KING—of being aware of the needs of our communities, our states, provinces and our nation, and in turn, PARTICIPATING in actions that preserve its dignity and its liberties.

The obligations of good and responsible citizenship are ours to do with as we like... we may PARTICIPATE in the political party of our choice and study the issues involved—to be more knowing contributors to the welfare of our nation. There are many outstanding examples of inspired individuals who have changed the direction of the government by alert and positive action. Let your efforts toward citizenship be an expression of conscientious citizenship.

No intelligent citizen in this day and age is unaware of the threats to our freedom, our peace, and even to our very identity and individuality. All of this was established for us and if we fail to appreciate its precious value, then we have little hope indeed of preserving it.

The role that each and every citizen must play in this stupendous undertaking of building our nation, is unlimited. Responsible citizens must exhaust every resource and every ounce of energy-giving responsible leadership.

Citizens throughout the United States and Canada have adopted the theme for this year, "Build Our Nation With Responsible Citizenship." Let's join them in this program to build a nobler citizenship!

Stricter Traffic Standards Urged

1966 could well see more people killed on Mississippi streets and highways than ever before if the current trend in traffic deaths continues. This statement was made by Hal D. Miller, president of the Mississippi Safety Council, who pointed out that to date in January approximately 15 more people have been killed in motor vehicle accidents than during this same period in 1965.

"When we consider the fact that more people were killed in 1965 than during any other year, and then see 1966 approximately 30% above the same period in 1965 we should attempt to do whatever is necessary to reverse this trend," he said. The Safety Council president said that driver error was the cause for most of the traffic accidents and until drivers could be made to meet minimum safety standards, the state could look forward to nothing but more and more traffic deaths. Miller said the legislature would be asked to enact three major pieces of corrective legislation if we are to improve our traffic record.

These bills would raise the minimum age from 15 to 18 unless the applicant had successfully completed an approved driver training course at which time he would be allowed to secure his license at age 16; require all drivers to take a written test on the rules of the road and a test for eyesight each four years; and require persons who were suspected of driving while drinking to submit to a chemical analysis of the alcohol content in their systems. Failure to submit to this test would cause the revocation of their license or if the analysis showed .10% of alcohol by body weight he would be legally drunk and this evidence could be used against him in court.

Miller said the state could not afford to lose 665 of its citizens each year, not to mention the $125 million dollars that is lost with the deaths caused by traffic accidents.

The safety official said he hoped the people of Mississippi would insist that these minimum safety standards be enacted at the earliest opportunity.
