FIRE PREVENTION

Just because you may have had some recent rains, don't be lulled into a sense of security regarding field and forest fires. Just a couple of days of sunshine and wind can dry broomseed fields and woods so that a fire can develop.

When burning brush piles and debris, use extreme caution. If you must burn, here are some rules to follow:

1. Burn late in the afternoon when wind is low.
2. Have plenty of help on hand to control the fire.
3. Notify your local fire tower of the time and place that you intend to burn.
4. Have fire fighting equipment or farm equipment on hand to control the first just in case it is needed.

FERTILIZING SPRING PASTURES

February and early March are ideal times to fertilize clover and grass areas for good spring grazing. Fertilizer to use at this time is phosphate and potash.

You can expect many times more than double the grazing from fertilized pastures than you get from unfertilized pastures.

The quickest, easiest and sometimes the cheapest way to fertilize with phosphate and potash on pastures is bulk spreading.

On areas where ryegrass, fescue or cereals are growing in the clover or other legumes it will pay to use a complete fertilizer. This will make the clover and grass both grow together and keep one from taking over and driving out the other.

HOME GARDENING

Now is the time to really get with it in home gardening. You

Baldwyn Soldier Receives Promotion

FORT HOOD, TEX. — Joe A. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Roberts, Route 3, Box 262, Baldwyn, Miss., received an early promotion to Army pay grade private E-2 on completion of basic combat training at Fort Hood, Texas, January 29.

Roberts was awarded the promotion two months earlier than is customary because of his score in firing the M-14 rifle, high score on the physical combat proficiency test and his military bearing and leadership abilities.

The early promotion program is a new Army policy recognizing and providing incentive to outstanding trainees.

The 19-year-old soldier was graduated from Baldwyn High School in 1964.

can plant most of the hardy and half hardy vegetables this month and have a pretty good chance of making good harvests.

Some of the vegetables to plant include lettuce, both leaf and head, turnips, mustard, radish, cabbage plants, English peas, Irish potatoes, spinach and parsley. For a complete list, get your garden fruit and flower guide, available from this office.

Now is also a good time to get ready for later planting. Buy or arrange for the seed you will need. Plan a spring garden — not just in your head, but on paper. Plan what you want to plant and where and when to plant it.

Decide what insecticides to use and make sure they are available. Plan how much fertilizer you will need and make arrangements to get it. Get your bean and tomato stakes ready.

Have some rows ready to plant as soon as the weather warms up enough to really go ahead with the planting season.

HOME ECONOMIST'S NOTES

By C. AIRE T. ROSS, Extension Home Economist

Cold Damage To Landscape Plants

Ornamental landscape plants took a beating—so to speak—during the recent severe cold weather.

Perhaps the best general recommendation for pruning ornamental landscape plants is to wait until you are certain of the extent of the damage, then prune back to live wood. In some cases, this may be a matter of several weeks after the freeze. When it is evident that extensive damage has been done, the plant should be cut back to live wood.

A knife or the thumbnail can be used to scratch bark and determine if the shrub has been killed all the way down the main trunk or main stems. Often the damage is in the outside twigs and branches, and the plant will need only a light clipping back.

If the cambium layer, just beneath the bark of the stem or trunk, shows discoloration, this is a sign that the plant needs cutting back below such damage. Any bark which has split or cracked should be removed by cutting below the damage.

Crape myrtle, Anthony Waterer spirea, althea, butterfly bush and highbush cranberry are among the shrubs which bloom on this year's growth of wood. It is possible to prune this group after a heavy freeze and still have flowers from wood after it is evident. If the rose is of a vigorous variety, it will make sufficient growth during the summer even if it is killed back to the ground.

Evergreen plants as holly, pine, spruce and laurel usually are injured by sudden changes in temperature. In the earliest stages, freeze injury is evident as "scorching" of the leaves at the tips. On narrow-leaf evergreens the needles are browned entirely. The twigs are brittle and snap when bent.

If there is any doubt that twigs and branches have been killed, it is best to wait a few weeks until much damage will be easily seen. At that time, prune the plant back to live wood.

Annual and perennial flowers which have suffered cold or frost damage will undergo a dwarfing or crippled stage of growth. Some of them may remain permanently stunted. Such plants should be cut back at the tips, as soon as the extent of the cold damage is recognizable.

Future Farmers Of America Week

Future Farmers of America Week is to be observed during the February 19-26 period. And the theme that has been chosen for it—"Agriculture Is More Than Farming"—admirably points up the week's purpose and significance.

There is a term, "Agri-Business", which often is used in reference to all the occupations that are related to farming. The chain of agriculture starts with the suppliers to farmers—those who provide goods and services ranging from machinery and chemicals to insurance and technical services. Farmers, the producers of raw materials, are the center link. Then come marketing, processing, transportation and distribution. All in all, this agricultural complex employs many millions of people and is America's largest industry.

Vocational agricultural education in the high schools provides a start for boys to obtain the training needed to enter these occupations. Some will go on to college or technical schools. About a third will return directly to the farm, and they will have the knowledge that additional education is available to them in young farmer and adult farmer classes conducted by teachers of vocational agriculture.

The Future Farmers' organization supplements the regular school instruction by providing opportunities for leadership development. Its goal is to help train young men for a wide horizon of agricultural occupations. And this is a needed and invaluable work.

George Washington

George Washington was a remarkable man
Famous in history,
Revered in the hearts of our nation—
Father of his country.

As he labored to serve this young nation
A God-fearing leader was he,
And for his devotion to country—
We honor his memory.

As Commander-in-Chief of the Army,
He led us to victory,
And helped to establish America—
The land of the brave and the free.

He was honest and true to his country,
With courage to do and to dare,
And history records for the ages—
His crossing the Delaware.

With his men at Valley Forge
George Washington often was found
In prayer with his Master and Maker
As they knelt in the snow on the ground.

Let us cling to this faith of our fathers
That made our nation so great,
As each year George Washington's birthday
With reverence we still celebrate.

Letter To The Editor

Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.
1609 S. W. 14th Court
February 10, 1966

Dear Editor of Banner-Independent
Booneville, Miss.

Greetings from Sunny Florida.

I am writing you regarding a former native Prentiss County, who too is down here, and had the misfortune of falling and breaking his hip, during the breakfast hour last Sunday morning, Feb. 6. Mrs. Giffie Allen Babb was reared in Prentiss County within walking distance of Old Jacinto, but has been a resident of Florida, these past ten years, (and always a subscriber to the county paper until just recently, lending her ours until she could get in her renewal). I am sure there are many who would be happy to brighten her convalescence with letters and cards, and through your news media am sure they would like to know.

Her address is Broward General Hospital, Room 225, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Her age is about 74 and its still home in her heart for Northeast Mississippi, Prentiss and Alcorn County.

Yes, we are just wishing we could send you big bundles of this sunshine to counteract some of that frigidness you are experiencing. Keep the paper coming and the

Local Business

By S. S. TALBOT
Chairman, Dept. of Journalism
University of Mississippi

Advertising is not seasonal, even for seasonal products.

A manufacturer who supplies sports equipment for wholesalers—mostly ski and winter products—said recently, "If I waited until November to do my selling, I'd be out of business next year."

What the executive meant was that a good job of pre-selling must be done, especially in a business where most of the sales fall during a certain portion of the year.

The average retailer is not faced with a problem this drastic, but no matter what type of business he is in, there are upswings and downswings. His job is to keep sales as high and smooth as possible. The only way to do this is through advertising.

When the Great Depression struck in late 1929, many companies ceased advertising completely. Many went bankrupt. Those who weathered the storm successfully were not composed entirely of the "Giants" in our economy. Significantly enough, most successful businesses were those who continued to advertise.

Selling goes on all year. If advertising is to function as a sales aid, it, too, should be made to work all year.

Advertising certainly should be increased to take full advantage of seasonal demand. But "in-between" advertising makes seasonal promotion more effective.

By constantly using advertising, the local merchant may keep sales up through the year. He will be able to save his customers money by not charging higher prices to cover the extra cost of storing goods until a future sale comes along.

VA Answers Vets Questions

Q—I am receiving pension benefits from the VA and must report my income each year. How do I deduct the 10 per cent allowed on my Social Security. There is no space to do this on the questionnaire.

A.—The person reporting income does not take the deduction. The full amount of your income must be reported and the VA will allow the 10 per cent exclusion as applicable.

Q—I am a disabled veteran of World War I with a 100 per cent disability. I have a daughter who is going into her last year of high

MRS. ED JOHNSON

Catherine Morton loaned me a copy of an old Booneville Independent—in fact it's 30 years old. In it was the account of the tornado that swept through Booneville on April 6th, 1936, taking the lives of many well-known people.

It also had an article showing how Booneville had opened its heart to Tupelo which was struck, much worse. Fifty homes in Booneville offered to take in children that were injured or homeless. Also sent to Tupelo were 130 ladies' dresses, 37 girls' dresses, 42 children's dresses, 76 quilts, 300 towels, 36 gowns and blankets, etc.

It is touching to see that even while Booneville mourned for those injured or killed locally, they still thought of those in worse condition and lived up to their duty of, "I am my brother's keeper."

Also in that issue were advertisements for businesses which are no longer around—or which have changed names: Bina Sadler Shop, Rogers and Co., Bryson's Variety Store, City Market, Busy Bee Cafe, Home Ice Company, Booneville Ready to Wear, Fox Hotel and Cafe, Meh Lady's Beauty Salon, Moore Hardware Co., City Dry Cleaners, T. J. Harp, Broken Dollar Store, Perry's Dry Goods and L. D. Rinehart & Co.

But, yes, there are still some, which advertised in that issue, that are going strong (sometimes by sons), and were: Booneville Hardware Co., W. K. McMillan, Nunley Studio, John E. Price, Albert Feldman, Duckworth, Smith (Robertson), Ewell Insurance Co. and Brown Feed Store.

Mr. John Kellam sent me a copy of a magazine which had been mailed to him by Marion Barnett, formerly of Booneville and formerly associated with the Banner, who is now in Hollywood, California. The magazine, "Millionaire", is published at Long Beach, Calif. and Mr. Barnett is an Assistant Editor.

In the March, 1966, issue are two articles by Mr. Barnett, both excellently written. One, entitled "Starlet of Mystery" began: "The wail of air raid sirens; the probing fingers of searchlights; the dull thud of distant bombs—and the jarring crash of closer ones... flight through flaming streets... a sudden deafening roar... then gentle hands lift her from debris and carry her through a doorway. This was the beginning of life for one of the most beautiful women in the world. Who is she? She will never know. Memory began for her that violent night... before that, nothing."

Isn't that an interesting beginning for an article? The story concerns Starlet Gila Golan who eventually came to Hollywood... and who will soon become an American citizen.

Mr. Kellam said Mr. Barnett once said to him, "Every Man a Millionaire—and If He Isn't, Think So."

We congratulate Mr. Barnett and hope his association with the magazine proves rewarding. And thanks to Mr. Kellam for sharing it with us.

Emmons Turner, chairman of the Prentiss County Bloodmobile program, said he hoped Prentiss Countians would give at least 200 pints of blood on Monday, February 21st from 12 o'clock until 6 o'clock. He said response to the program has been much better throughout the area since part of the blood will be used for our wounded in Vietnam.

College students, many of whom will probably enter the service in the near future, have been especially generous.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Goodwin and daughter have received a letter from Tusculum, Ill. with this address: 135 Magnolia, 38829.

Now I'm trying to get up the nerve to write a letter and leave off the name of the city and state... just a friendly letter, not a business one, yet.

The three ages of man are youth, middle age, and "How well you are looking."

Ed and I spent the week end in Jackson on business—preliminary plans for the Althea Lodge expansion, a Board of Governors meeting of the Mississippi Press, and seeing about a pit plan for a press we have bought. Enroute home Sunday we visited Mississippi's Petrified Forest located at Flora, Miss. and were pleasantly surprised with the museum and the tour itself. If you are in that vicinity, you might also enjoy visiting a state landmark.

A.—The son or daughter of a veteran who is rated with a 100 per cent disability on a permanent basis may be entitled to an educational allowance of $110 a month while attending school beyond the high school level. The maximum entitlement is 36 months. An eligible child may file for this benefit by completing VA Form 21E-5490.

Q—I read in the newspaper that my monthly compensation rate will be higher because of a law recently signed by the President. Do I have to apply for this increase?

A.—No. The increase authorized by this recent legislation will be adjusted automatically by the Veterans Administration.

Dr. Ramsey Pollard Is Guest Speaker At First Baptist Loyalty Dinner

Wednesday evening, February 9, a large gathering of members of the First Baptist Church here in Booneville, together with a number of visitors, gathered in the church's fellowship hall to celebrate the annual loyalty dinner.

At 6:30 p.m. the crowd entered fellowship hall and after the invocation by President Harold White of Northeast Mississippi Junior College, the crowd (not a chair was vacant) sat down to eat a delicious meal arranged, prepared, and served by the ladies of the church.

Some forty minutes later, H. H. Daws, Chairman of Deacons and master of ceremonies for the occasion, rose and directed those who had finished their meal to make their way to the church auditorium while those who had not finished continued eating. Before long the crowd had assembled in the auditorium and the further activities started.

During the course of the evening the congregation sang several especially appropriate songs very ably led by D. H. Prichard, one of the deacons of the church. Early in the program, Mayor M. W. Smith was asked to recognize those who had anything to do with the program which had its emphasis on stewardship. Mr. Smith did this in his usual delightful manner. Mr. Smith also gave words of welcome to those in attendance and a special welcome to the guest for the occasion. Among these were Mrs. Ramsey Pollard and Mrs. Sidney Robinson of Memphis.

Other items on the program were special numbers by Mr. William Highbaugh, music instructor at Northeast, the junior trio, the youth choir, and a duet by Misses Gaye Roden and Ellen Bryson. Mr. Daws expressed the church's great appreciation for its youth and asked the congregation to give a standing vote of its appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harvey To Visit 1st Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Harvey of the First Baptist Church of Bemis, Tenn., will visit with the Booneville First Baptist Church on Saturday and Sunday, Mr. Harvey is the prospective Minister of Youth, Education and Music.

The adult choir of the First Baptist Church will rehearse on Saturday evening at 7 p.m. The youth choir will meet on Sunday at 4:30.

Mr. Harvey will lead the singing and render a solo at both services.

3 Local Students On Honor Roll At Ole Miss

UNIVERSITY, Miss. — Three Booneville students are among the 321 University of Mississippi students listed on the honor roll for the first semester of the 1965-66 session, according to registrar Robert B. Ellis.

Of the total, 68 students scored perfect 4.0 (A) scholastic records. Ole Miss regulations provide that a student must score a minimum of 3.50 out of a possible 4.0 to make the honor roll listing.

They are: Robert L. Farrar, Jr., 3.80; Sandra Kay Houston, 3.60; and William Ellis Summers, 3.56.

message was stewardship. When Mr. Daws had taken the speaker's stand again, he turned to Dr. Pollard and said, "Let me say for our people, we appreciate your message and the challenge of it." Then he turned to the congregation and said, "If we accept this challenge we will do what we did last Sunday and more. We will meet and go beyond our budget for every Sunday in the year."

At the close of the service, Mr. John Curlee came to the pulpit and gave the benediction.

The spirit of the evening was great and after the service it seemed every one lingered to speak with friends and to greet Dr. and Mrs. Pollard and Mrs. Robinson from Memphis.

The Steering Committee, Nelson Baldwin, Chairman and the Pastor, wish to thank all the committees who worked so faithfully to prepare the decorations, called the people and served the food, and took care of the children.

Social Security News Notes

"If you have reached 65 and are not receiving social security benefits and have not signed up for Medicare, now is the time for action," Hugh Tigrett, Social Security District Manager in Tupelo, stated today.

He explained that almost every older person in the Nation is eligible for health insurance under the new law passed by Congress last year. "The major part of hospital charges and doctor bills will be paid for those people 65 or older who sign up for the health protection," Tigrett said.

"We are especially trying to reach two groups of people right now. One group includes those over 65 who have not applied for social security retirement benefits because their earnings are too high to permit cash payments. These people will have Medicare protection by applying for it.

"The second group we need to get in touch with may have been little or no work under social security," Tigrett explained. "If they are 65 or older they can get the health protection by enrolling for it.

Tigrett reminded all people who are already 65 that they have only until March 31st to sign up for this medical insurance protection under Medicare. Anyone 65 or older who does not sign up by March 31st will not only have to wait two years before they can get this protection but the monthly rate will be higher if they wait and sign up later. Anyone 65 or older and not drawing social security will want to sign up for the hospital insurance regardless, because this will not cost the individual anything. The $3 monthly payment is made only if a person enrolls in the medicare insurance which pays for doctor bills and other medical expenses. Tigrett said that health insurance benefits begin next July. "I cannot overemphasize the importance of prompt action by all those who are eligible," he said. "This applies to several hundred people in Prentiss County.

A representative from the Social Security Office is in the City Hall in Booneville each Monday. If for any reason a person cannot meet this representative, Mr. Tigrett announced that the District Office in Tupelo will be open every Saturday until the March 31st deadline. The Social Security Office in Tupelo is located in Room 211 in the Federal Building. The telephone number is 842-6211.

Clyde Jones Is Texaco Consignee

Effective February 1, 1966, Clyde Jones of Booneville became the new Texaco Consignee for Booneville and Prentiss County.

Mr. Jones was born in Prentiss County in the Zion Rest Community and was reared on a farm. He is a graduate of Marietta High School, Northeast Mississippi Junior College and Delta State Teachers College. He taught school for one year before entering service in 1954.

After returning from service in 1956, he taught school at Como, Miss. for one year and then became a partner and operated the Belmont Gin Co. in Belmont, Miss. for three years.

For the past five years he has been employed by Continental-Moss Gordon Gin Co., Prattville, Ala.

Mr. Jones is married to the former Helen Murphy and they have an adopted daughter, Sandy, two years old. Clyde is a member of the First Baptist Church, Booneville.

He wishes to thank the people of Prentiss County for the business given to Texaco in the past years and will appreciate business in the future. His greatest aim is to serve the people of Prentiss County, which he says are, "the greatest people in the whole world."

While world population is increasing, so is the consumption of meat. In 1962, a 44 per cent gain was recorded, largest on record.

Watch That THUMB!

Peter loves to "fix things," even though he sometimes gets hurt in the process. Yesterday he pinched his finger with the pliers. Today, he'll probably end up by banging his thumb with the hammer. But tomorrow he'll be right back at it again . . . learning the hard way!

From childhood, we learn best by personal experience. Our natural curiosity makes it difficult for us to accept advice from others. We want to find out for ourselves . . . and life has some hard lessons to teach us. Among other things, we have to discover that material possessions are no guarantee of happiness . . . and that money can't buy love, or health, or peace of mind.

Religious faith is another aspect of life that must not be left unexplored. Christianity has been tested by time . . . and it stands ready to be tested by YOU. Don't miss the greatest experience of all. Visit the church of your choice this Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Prentiss ASCS County News

By CHARLES E. CALVERT, Office Manager

Wheat May Substitute For Feed Grains Under Diversion Program

Under the 1966 wheat and feed grain programs, farmers may plant wheat on feed grain acres as one of the options available for maximum flexibility in individual operations.

Those farmers who decide to exercise this option will sign up in both the wheat and feed grain programs. The sign-up period for the program is now under way at the ASCS county office and ends

April 1.

A farmer with a 100-acre wheat allotment and a 100-acre feed grain base, for instance, who decided to produce the maximum acres of wheat under both programs by substituting wheat for feed grains would follow these provisions: After signing up, he would divert to conservation uses other cropland equal to 15 per cent of his wheat allotment. In addition, he would devote 20 per cent (20 acres) of his feed grain base to conserving uses. He would then have 180 acres (the wheat allotment plus 80 feed grain acres) that could be devoted to wheat. He would be eligible for 100 per cent of parity for the projected yield production on as much as 45 per cent of his wheat allotment, or 45 acres. In addition, he would be eligible for a price support loan of $1.25 per bushel on all the wheat produced on the 180 acres — or he could sell the wheat on the open market if he desired.

1966 Feed Grain

Program Change

The 1966 Feed Grain sign-up will continue through April 1, 1966. We received a change today concerning the Feed Grain Program that will be of interest to all farmers in the county. This change involves the Price Support payment. Prior regulations required that the permitted acreage of cover be planted in corn before the price support payment could be paid. This is the change — under present regulations a farmer can substitute soybeans for corn on his permitted acreage and earn the price support payment just as if the corn was planted. Example — a farm has a feed grain base of 25 acres and rents 10 acres. This leaves a permitted acreage of 15 acres to plant. This farmer can elect to plant the 15 acres in soybeans and earn the price support payment just like it was planted to corn. We want to emphasize that soybeans CAN NOT be planted on the diverted acreage. This change in regulations DOES NOT permit the diverted acreage to be planted in soybeans.

SLAUGHTER POUNDS RISE SIX PER CENT

Total pounds of state livestock slaughtered in 1965 rose six per cent. Slaughter of hogs declined, but cattle and calf slaughter more than made up the difference. In 1965, Mississippi slaughtered 1,379,300 head weighing 601,798,000 lbs. liveweight, compared to 1,353,800 head and 568,217,000 lbs. the year before.

MMA INDUSTRIAL TRAINING COMMITTEE TO SUPPORT VOCATIONAL AND TECHNICAL TRAINING IN MISSISSIPPI

The Industrial Training Committee of the Mississippi Manufacturers Association will support vocational and technical training through three sub-committees during the current year's work program, according to O. T. Robinson of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., Jackson, committee chairman. Mr. Robinson was named to head the committee by M. F. Hubbard of the General Electric Plant, Jackson, MMA president.

The three sub-committees include Vocational Education, Technical Education and Institutions of Higher Learning.

Assisting Mr. Robinson on the full committee will be Dr. Martin Stegenga of the University of Southern Mississippi, vice-chairman, and sub-committee Chairmen Frank Oakes of the Southwest Mississippi Development District, McComb, vocational education; William H. Presley of Vickers, Inc., Jackson, technical education; and H. N. Worley of G. & O. Manufacturing Co., Jackson, institutions of higher learning.

In the areas of vocational and technical education the committees will continue to work with the State Department of Education, vocational education division, and the Junior Colleges of the State. These agencies have made significant progress and have ambitious programs for the future. MMA also is encouraging and endorsing the vocational and technical training programs for high schools, which is expected to be expanded greatly during the current year.

The sub-committee on Institutions of higher learning has pledged its cooperation with the Inter-Alumi Council, which represents our state institutions, and the Liaison Committee of Higher Education Facilities Act, which helps in the administration of federal funds for building purposes on the campuses. This group also plans to publish a booklet, "College Opportunities," for distribution to high school students, and to continue working toward the creation of industrial councils for the institutions of higher learning. Efforts will be made to cooperate with the colleges and universities during Mississippi Employer Days.

Members of the Industrial Training Committee for MMA, other than President Hubbard, Chairman Robinson, Vice-chairman Stegenga and sub-committee Chairmen Oakes, Presley, and Worley, are MMA Vice President Fred Morgan of Johns-Manville Corp., Natchez; Ken Ainsworth of Johnston Lawn Mower Corp., Brookhaven; R. A. Allen of General Electric Co., MTF, Bay St. Louis; Jim Bader of Emhart Corp., Clarksdale; Al Benton of Miss. Power and Light Co., Jackson; Joe P. when taking the 35 per cent diversion choice.

3. Adaptability of equipment available must be considered when any skip-row patterns are to be included.

4. Actual yields in 1966 will influence projected yields in 1968 and 1969. Therefore, it may be advantageous to select a combination of planting patterns which will result in higher yields.

5. The large producer will receive similar support payments and loan rate but is required to divert at least 12.5 per cent of his allotment. He can divert 25 or 35 per cent of his allotment and will receive diversion payments of 10.5 cents times projected yield times acres diverted.

6. Producers who receive a premium for cotton seed or planting seed, or where a ginning or oil processing operation is combined with the farming operation, may find a diversion rate of 12.5 to 25 per cent more profitable than the 35 per cent rate.

Others, before exceeding their domestic allotment, should check production costs, as well as the value of other production sacrificed to produce more cotton, against government payments. All cotton producers must sign up to qualify for these government payments. However, each producer should give considerable thought and study to the choice before signing his intentions to divert in the local ASCS office.

Judy Baggett Elected Valentine Sweetheart

MISS JUDY BAGGETT

In a contest held at Jumpertown High School last week, Judy Baggett, a pretty, blonde senior, was elected Valentine Sweetheart of 1966.

Competing with Judy for the honor were Linda Nichols, representing the Junior Class; Connie Lancaster, representing the Sophomore Class; and Jo Ann Green, representing the Freshman Class. Although there was only one winner, they all proved to be "Sweethearts."

All four girls had campaign managers who also deserve recognition. They were: Mary Ann Geno, manager for Judy Baggett; Mozelle Michael, manager for Linda Nichols; Joyce Sweeney, manager for Connie Lancaster; and Barbara Windham, campaign manager for Jo Ann Green.

Results Of New Detailed Economic Study Available From County Agent

STATE COLLEGE, Miss. — The results of a new detailed economic study to help Mississippi cotton growers make their individual decisions about diversion rates, planting patterns and other factors affecting the 1966 crop are available at each county agent's office.

"Each grower should be able to find a situation similar to his in the extensive data that has been assembled for cotton farms. The analysis should then help him to determine the most economical alternatives," stated W. M. Bost, director of the Cooperative Extension Service, Mississippi State University.

Under the cotton section of the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965, each cotton producer must visit his local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office before April 2 and declare his diversion intentions for the 1966 crop year.

The study, "An Evaluation of Alternatives Under the New Cotton Program," was conducted by the Mississippi Agricultural Experiment Station with the aid of electronic computers. It is authored by Dr. Thomas E. Tramel, assisted by Fred T. Cooke and Arthur M. Heagler. Cooperating closely are economists of the Cooperative Extension Service, A. L. McLaughlin and Dr. Rupert B. Johnson. Here are some highlights:

1. Except under unusual circumstances, the 35 per cent diversion rate will be the most profitable. Cotton produced by cooperators on acreage in excess of the domestic allotment (65%) will only be eligible for a loan rate in 1966 estimated to be about 21.75 cents (middling 1 inch average Mississippi location) per pound of lint. This excess production would also eliminate the 10.5 cents per pound diversion payments on projected yields for the acreage involved.

2. Reduction in acres planted will permit greater selection of land to be planted to cotton and the use of more skip-row planting. Both can mean more profits this year, while increasing the projected yield for future years.

3. Due to the "penalty" placed on 2x1 planting, it is best used in combination with 4-row skips which provide the diverted acreage required. The 2x2 skip-row system was considered in the programming but it did not appear in any of the optimum combinations of planting patterns.

4. Where good cotton land is plentiful to the extent of 2 acres or thereabouts for each acre of cotton allotment to be planted, the 2x4 pattern in combination with solid or 2x1 is generally more profitable. 5. As a general rule, the more profitable planting systems included 4-row skips (either 2x4 or 4x4) at least sufficient to provide the diverted acreage required in these skips.

The economists remind farmers of other considerations to keep in mind:

1. Without actually diverting any acreage the small producer, 10 acres or less, will receive diversion payments of 10.5 cents per pound times projected yield times 35 per cent of his allotment that can be diverted. He has the choice of planting his full allotment or diverting 12.5, 25, or 35 per cent of his allotment. If he diverts, he will receive additional diversion payments of 10.5 cents times projected yield times the acres actually diverted within his choice.

2. The small producer (less than 10 acres) with somewhat limited cropland can also make use of 4x4 skip-row pattern to good advantage

Mr. Duckworth explained that each Rexall magazine ad contains a number, and that the customer need only to compare the number in the Rexall ad with the prize number on a Super Plenamins display card to find out which prize he has won.

"We feel that this is one of the most exciting promotions we've ever run," said Mr. Duckworth, "and we know our customers will be thrilled to have a chance to win the exciting new Oldsmobile Toronado or any of these other great prizes. However I do urge everyone to come into our store as soon as possible for complete details, because the sweepstakes closes April 10, 1966."

GOOD FISHING FOR YOUR POND

A recommendation has been made to fertilize now for good fishing next summer. Proper fertilization of fish ponds, beginning in February, will easily provide 150 pounds of fish per acre this summer. If a pond is stocked heavily, it will need fertilizing 8 to 10 times a year. Begin fertilizing in February unless excess water is flooding the pond. If this happens, wait until late March to begin fertilizing. Under certain conditions, farm ponds should not be fertilized. Ponds that stay muddy all the time should not be fertilized as the mud prevents sunlight from penetrating the water so that desirable plants will not grow. If undesirable fish dominate the ponds, do not fertilize as it will benefit the fish that are not wanted to grow.

Punch with cake squares and toasted nuts was served from a crystal bowl on a mirrored plateau, outlined with a garland of pink camellias and English ivy. The den featured a beautiful collection of African violets, and potted plants. The many gifts were on display in this area.

He bears the distinction of serving as the sixth president of this well known senior liberal arts college, and is only the second president in its history NOT to be a member of the Lowrey Founding Family.

The following distinguished and illustrious men have served the College as president: General M. P. Lowrey, founder, 1873-1885; Dr. W. T. Lowrey, 1885-1898; Dr. B. G. Lowrey, 1898-1911; Dr. W. T. Lowrey, a second term, 1911-1925; Dr. Lawrence T. Lowrey, 1925-1960; Dr.

Mrs. Lewis E. Perry Reviews Life Of Varina Howell At U.D.C. Meeting

The D. T. Beall Chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy held a very enjoyable, as well as, an instructive meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chase on Fifth Street. Due to the unfavorable weather conditions, the meeting was not held until Wednesday evening, February 9th.

Mrs. Chase, the president, led the group in a pledge of allegiance to the United States Flag and a salute to the Confederate Flag. The ritual, which is a prayer of thanksgiving for their noble Southern heritage, was recited by the members.

Highlighting the meeting was a paper given by Mrs. Lewis E. Perry on "The President's Wife — The Rose of Mississippi, Varina Howell Davis." Mrs. Perry gave a very thorough biographical sketch of the wife of Jefferson Davis. She said, Varina Howell was a true example of Southern womanhood from the cultural background of the Natchez district in Colonial days. She had charm, beauty and rare intelligence.

She was only 18 years of age when she married Jefferson Davis, a widower, who enjoyed national fame as a soldier.

Mrs. Perry said it was fortunate for the South that the Natchez belle became the bride of the President of the Confederacy. She was by nature endowed with unusual beauty, charm and understanding. She was a loyal wife, deeply in accord with the ideas and ideals Jeff Davis had for his beloved Southland.

It was unusual for one so young to have such sound judgement. From the very first Varina Howell Davis was an ideal wife for the man of destiny, Jefferson Davis. As the wife of a Mississippi plantation owner, she drew friends and neighbors to the causes her husband so earnestly sponsored. As the wife of a Congressman, Senator, she with her grace and charm soon had the National Capitol social set at her feet. As the first lady at the Capitol of the Confederacy, she was gracious and drew many people to the Confederate banner.

Mrs. Perry said biographers are agreed that as a military genius Jeff Davis had no peer. He was a man who gained peoples respect and admiration but he was not a down to earth person as was his wife. It was Varina Howell Davis, who made the close personal friendship the family enjoyed.

Mrs. Perry pointed out that when the shadows of the war between the states began to gather, Jefferson Davis resigned his post in the United States senate and with his wife left the glamor of Washington society to come back to Mississippi. Varina Howell Davis had no regrets for her state needed her and her husband and her beloved Southland was in need of strong able men and noble women.

Through the dark days of war, through the bright days of Confederate successes, as the first lady of the Confederacy in Montgomery, Alabama, Varina Davis moved as a gracious figure. Even in the days of grief after the death of their son, Joe Davis, she was a brave helpmate and mother. With many other noble women of the South she bravely awaited the return of Jeff Davis from prison. Mrs. Perry said she exhibited her true greatness when she, with a smile and gracious attitude faced the hard uncertain day of the reconstruction.

In conclusion, Mrs. Perry said that all true daughters of the South should forever enshrine in their memory the image of Varina Howell Davis, a true Southerner and that every loyal daughter of our state should strive to keep alive for future generation the deeds of Varina Howell Davis, The Confederate President's Wife, the Rose of Mississippi.

At the social hour the hostess, Mrs. Chase served a dessert plate. The D. T. Beall Chapter was happy to welcome into membership Mrs. W. V. Kemp. A special guest of the occasion, was Little Miss Elaine Ruherford, a great, great granddaughter of the Confederacy.

Tax Refunds Are Not Automatic

You will not receive an automatic refund of tax withheld from your wages unless you file a tax return, said Mr. J. G. Martin, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Mississippi.

Many taxpayers believe that when the tax withheld is more than the tax liability, the overpayment automatically will be refunded to them by the government.

Although no tax return is required when the gross income received during the year is less than $800, Mr. Martin said that a return must be filed to obtain a refund of the tax withheld.

This advice is particularly applicable to students and other taxpayers who worked only a part of the year.

Forms 1940 or 1940A must be filed by everyone under 65 years of age whose gross income for 1965 is $600 or more. If the taxpayer is 65 years

SPRING SIGNS ALREADY

Those delightfully alluring flower and garden seed catalogues are arriving again, and the bright, warm sunshine is conducive only to added impatience. Thumbing through the catalogue, though, stirs in many the urge to go check on the garden tools, wonder when it will be possible to spade up the garden plot, and jot down the list of things to try again this year. It doesn't cost anything to enjoy pictures of winning vegetables displayed in the catalogue, and the tongue-twisting names of flowers and shrubs are muscle-toning.

Asbestos is found in Canada.

Counce Paper Firm Plans To Award Two Merit Scholarships

COUNCE, TENN.—During March, 1966, many high schools in this area will be administering National Merit Scholarship Corporation Qualifying Tests that could lead to a college scholarship award for students in 1967.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation, a nonprofit educational organization, will administer the qualifying tests through the local high schools to first semester seniors and second semester juniors. Each year hundreds of scholarships are awarded to students who are classified as "finalists" in the testing program.

In the spring of 1967, it is anticipated that the Tennessee River Pulp & Paper Company of Counce, Tennessee, will award two scholarships to male students who take the test this March. Each scholarship is for four years of study and has a maximum of $6,000. The amounts of the Merit Scholarships are determined by NMSC based on the financial needs of the recipient. Students can only become eligible to compete for the Tennessee River Merit Scholarships by taking the qualifying test.

Local students are urged to ask their high school principal or guidance counselor about participation in the 1967 testing program.

Foods Are Readied For Demonstration In Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. — More than seven million pounds of U. S. Department of Agriculture donated foods have already been shipped to warehouses at Jackson and Hattiesburg for use in a statewide demonstration project designed to make more food available to needy families.

The project will help as many as 500,000 persons from low income families in the state, and is being made possible by a $1.6 million grant from the U. S. Office of Economic Opportunity, Miss Evelyn Gandy, Commissioner of Public Welfare, said.

She pointed out that the program is designed to expand distribution of USDA donated foods in the state for a period not to exceed six months. It will allow distribution in counties which currently do not have a food assistance program, expansion in counties where distribution is limited to welfare clients only, and expansion in counties with programs lasting less than six months.

Miss Gandy announced inauguration of the program last week. Gov. Paul B. Johnson has approved the food demonstration project and has named a nine-member Advisory Committee to work with the Welfare Commissioner in implementing the program in such a manner as to provide the food to all of the State's needy citizens at the earliest possible date.

Foods used in the expanded distribution program are provided by USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service. The commodities include corn grits, cornmeal, flour, rolled wheat, split peas, canned chopped meat, dry milk, margarine, peanut butter, shortening, and rice.

Synthetic furs are now being produced.

Name Approved For Local Dairyman

Dalton G. Garner, Booneville, will have the exclusive use of the prefix "Lavaca-Acres" in naming all Registered Holstein dairy animals bred in that herd.

Use of this prefix name has been granted by Holstein-Friesian Association of America; it also becomes a part of official breed records at the national headquarters in Brat-tieboro, Vermont.

Nearly 1,500 prefixes are reserved for Registered Holstein breeders each year. More than 42,000 are now on file for use in giving distinctive names to home-bred cattle. Reservation and use of these prefix names became an active membership requirement in 1965.

In using an exclusive prefix name for his animals, the purebred Holstein breeder establishes a "trade mark" which is used in all published information concerning the performance of his dairy animals.

The origination of prefix names often stems from farm names, family name combinations, or unique geographical or historical features of the farm operation. Thus, the exclusive nature of each prefix is preserved in selecting a "one and only" term.

Col. Harry Jones Is Guest Speaker At Woman's Club Meeting On Thursday

The Woman's Club met at the Town Motel on Thursday, February 10, with Mrs. Emmons Turner, Jr., Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Mrs. J. W. Hollandsworth, and Mrs. Emmons Turner, Sr. as hostesses. There were seventeen members and three guests present.

A St. Valentine's Day motif was carried out in the decorations and the refreshments. The center arrangement was a masterpiece of net, valentines, and driftwood. Dainty heart-shaped and decorated open-faced sandwiches were served with spiced tea. A box of Valentine candy was enjoyed.

The program was presented by the Public Affairs Department and was directed by Mrs. S. C. Galloway. Mrs. Jack Dubard accompanied Miss Dianne Freeman, who sang "Oh, God, Our Help In Ages Past." Col. Harry Jones, Instructor at Northeast Mississippi Junior College, spoke on "The Historical and Revolutionary Background Responsible for Woman's Role in Politics Today." He began by stating that the earliest move for woman suffrage took place in 1848 and because of a good many changes which came about in this country in the following decades, woman was aided in achieving the vote.

Among the changes discussed were:

1. The Six-Shooter and Barbed Wire. The West was first to grant women the right to vote, probably because of the unique and glorified place that women occupied there.

2. The Typewriter. Because women could better operate this new invention, they came to be granted a new place in offices, and eventually a new concept of their abilities was realized.

3. Rural Free Delivery and the Mail Order Catalog were new areas of communication which pulled people together and brought about an exchange of ideas.

4. The First Woman's Magazine. In 1883 this new development unified the thinking of American women in discontent.

5. Highways. With improved roads women could get out of the home and become aware of what went on outside.

6. The Open Saloon. Frances Willard organized the W.C.T.U. in 1889 and more and more women knew that removal of the saloon depended on the right to vote.

7. Then came to the Telephone!
8. Colleges. As Colleges and Normal Schools were established, women became educated and proved their capability in voting.

Mrs. Cleveland presided at the business session, which followed the program. She welcomed Mrs.

Wall from Drew, who attended the meeting with her daughter, Mrs. Mize.

The 1965-1966 Scrapbook had been completed by Mrs. Cleland, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Crowe, and Mrs. Mize and was on display. It tells beautifully the Club Story in green and white with special emphasis on the Diamond Jubilee Theme of the Year's Work in Federation.

Mrs. Turner, Jr. announced the Corinth Regional Library has been awarded the Dorothy Canfield Fisher Award for the year.

Mrs. John Mahaffy, Mrs. S. C. Galloway, and Mrs. B. G. Horton were elected to serve as the Nominating Committee for 1966-1967.

The club voted to act as a co-sponsor of the Joint Meeting on Beautification, Conservation and Safety, to be held on February 24 at the Power Building.

The club voted to change the meeting date of the March meeting to the first Thursday in the month. A special celebration will be planned in observance of the Federation's Diamond Jubilee Day, which is March 3.

The Booneville Woman's Club will conduct a memorial service at the District Meeting to be held in Houston on March 17.

Donations were given to the two projects for February, the Girl Scout Troop and the Congressional Medal of Honor Grove at Valley Forge.
