For Burglars

Restaurant Break-Ins Produce Little Cash

An unknown number of burglars broke into six fast food restaurants in Booneville and the Prentiss County Vocational Technical school early Saturday morning. However, for all the effort of burglars, they were able to get away with only a relatively small amount of money.

Booneville Police Chief W.W. Stacy said the break-ins occurred sometime after 1 a.m. Saturday.

In addition to the Vo-Tech building, Stacy said break-ins occurred at New Orleans Fried Chicken, Sonic Drive-In, McDonalds, Coleman's Bar-B-Q, Pizza Hut and Kentucky Fried Chicken. All of the establishments, except the Vo-Tech, are located along Highway 45 North in Booneville.

The burglars apparently just went down the line of fast food restaurants, one after the other.

Chief Stacy said that the burglars broke into the Vo-Tech, taking an oxyacetylene torch. The torch was dragged through the woods for about two city blocks to McDonalds Restaurant, where the burglars attempted to burn their way into the safe.

However, the burglars were unsuccessful and the torch was found near the unopened safe the next day. Chief Stacy said that nothing was apparently taken from the restaurant, but the safe was damaged and there was some damage caused by the forced entry.

Jim Fisher, manager of Sonic Drive-In and New Orleans Fried Chicken, said that the break-ins caused little damage at his two restaurants. He said that, during the break-in, papers were scattered around on the floor while the burglars apparently looked for money. However, Fisher said that the only money there was about $10 in rolled pennies in each store, but the burglars did not take them.

Fisher said that he has been operating the Sonic for about two-and-a-half years and this is the first time the store has been broken into.

Holiday Closings Announced

The holiday season is here again and most schools and businesses will be taking some time off next week due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Prentiss County Superintendent of Education Lex Cain said Monday that the county's schools would dismiss at noon Wednesday, Nov. 21, to observe the holidays. Classes will not meet Thursday or Friday, but the regular class schedule will resume Monday, Nov. 26.

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College will hold classes only Monday and Tuesday of next week, giving students and teachers Wednesday, Thursday and Friday for the holidays. Regular classes will resume Monday, Nov. 26.

The Booneville City Hall will be closed Thursday and Friday for the holidays, but the Prentiss County Courthouse will close Thursday only.

The Booneville Post Office, as well as the three local banks, The Peoples Bank and Trust Company, The Bank of Mississippi and The First Mississippi Bank of Commerce, will all close for just one day, Thursday.

Marshall Dickerson, of the Uptown Association said that, although they have not formally met to discuss it, he feels sure that most of the local merchants will close Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, but will open on Friday.

Wright Says

Check Envelopes

Before Mailing

Postmaster Jack Wright said Tuesday that customers of the Booneville Post Office should check the size of their envelopes before mailing Christmas cards. Effective last July 15, envelopes must be at least 3 1/2 inches high and 5 inches long to be accepted for mailing.

The new standards, first announced three years ago, are designed to speed up the flow of mail by reducing jams caused by small envelopes during processing by high-speed automated equipment.

Early Paper Next Week

Banner-Independent Publisher Paul Miller said today that, in order to allow the employees time off for the Thanksgiving Holiday, the newspaper will be published one day early next week.

This means that local subscribers will be receiving their papers in the mail Wednesday instead of Thursday.

Miller stressed the importance of all correspondents getting their copy to the paper as early as possible in order for it to be included in next week's paper.

The Banner-Independent office will be closed Thursday, but will open for regular business hours Friday. The paper will resume normal publication the following week.

Murray Davis Appointed To Jumpertown Board

Jumpertown Mayor Bobby Smart and the Jumpertown Board of Aldermen have appointed Murray Davis to the city's board.

Davis, who is retired from a job with the highway department, was appointed Oct. 9 to fill the unexpired term of Claude P. Keenum who passed away Sept. 26. Davis will serve in that position until a new alderman can be officially elected.

A special election has been scheduled in Jumpertown for Dec. 18 to elect a new alderman to the board. In order to be able to vote in that special election, Jumpertown residents must be legally registered to vote at least 30 days prior to the election.

Those residents who have not already registered have only Thursday, Friday and Saturday to do so at the Jumpertown Town Hall.

The town hall will be open only until 1 p.m. Saturday.

A spokesman at the town hall urged all those who have not registered to do so before the deadline in order to have a vote in the coming election.

PRIZE WINNER—Mrs. Rose Cook (right) was the winner of $25 given away by the Banner-Independent in connection with the newspaper's annual Holiday Cook Book. Mrs. Cook's name was drawn from those submitting recipes to be included in the book. Office manager Norma Michael presents Mrs. Cook with her prize. For a collection of taste-tempting holiday recipes, please look for the Holiday Cook Book inside today's Banner-Independent.

Cartwright, East Booneville Baptist; Mrs. Mildred Horton, Grace Methodist; Mrs. Sherion Jones, Free Will Baptist; and Mrs. Ruby Ashcraft, First Pentecostal.

After The Election

McCauley

Says Will Honor Campaign Pledges

Prentiss County Sheriff-elect John McCauley said Tuesday that, when he takes office, he plans to do just what he said he would do during his campaign.

"I haven't changed from my campaign platform," he said. "I'm looking forward to what I can do for the county."

McCauley said that his top priority will be to enforce the law. "The main thing," he said, "is to catch the thieves and try to control the illegal distribution of drugs in the county. I plan to use everything available to me to do so."

However, McCauley admits that he will be hindered in his efforts by the fact that he will only be allowed three deputies. "Consider the size of the city of Booneville and the number of patrolmen the police department has to patrol it," he said, "and then look at the size of the county, which has to be patrolled by only three deputies and myself."

Although McCauley says that the county needs more deputies and higher salaries for those deputies, he says that the county will still be patrolled on a 24-hour basis.

McCauley said that the decision to run for sheriff of Prentiss County was a spur-of-the-moment decision. "If someone had asked me 12 months ago if I was going to run," he said, "I would have said he was crazy."

However, he says that he has something to prove. "I want the people to know that I can run the sheriff's office in an honest and friendly fashion," he said. "I hope to have more friends when I leave office than I did when I went in."

McCauley said that he would be happy if he could go into the sheriff's office and not make an arrest. "I would be happy as long as people did not violate the law," he said. "You can get more done through friendship and it usually lasts longer."

However, he did not intend for people to believe that he would be a pushover. He says that he is realistic about the matter. He

Break-Ins

Ricky Bryant, assistant manager of Pizza Hut, said that nothing was taken from there, either. He said that the burglars caused heavy damage to the door and door casing when they broke in. They also broke the handle off the restaurant's safe while attempting, unsuccessfully, to open it.

Bryant said that the cash register was open and there was some change in it, but the burglars did not bother it. He said that they were apparently after some "heavy stuff," instead of small change.

Bob Strickland of Kentucky Fried Chicken said that he could not find any damage or anything missing at his restaurant.

However, he said the back door was standing open when they opened the restaurant Saturday morning. "We were sure it was locked," he said, "but there was nothing done what-so-ever to the restaurant."

The only place where something was actually taken, as far as can be determined, is Coleman's Bar-B-Q. Chief Stacy said that approximately $350 was taken there.

Merrill T. Cartwright, director of the Prentiss County Vocational Technical School, said, that the burglars were apparently just after the oxyacetylene torch when they broke into the school.

"There were several belt sanders and other equipment they could have taken," he said, "but they didn't touch any of them."

He said they damaged a couple of doors, breaking out a window and breaking a lock. The torch they took was recovered from McDonalds.

"They apparently ran out of oxygen in the torch before they could cut through the safe," he said.

Cartwright said that he felt the school was very lucky that no more damage was done and that nothing else was taken. Stacy said that the break-ins are still under investigation by the police department.

Such jams can destroy mail or force costly manual handling of mail.

Wright said that if a person attempts to mail a letter smaller than three-and-one-half by five inches, the post office will return it to the sender or, if there is no return address, send it to the dead letter file.

The Booneville postmaster also stressed the importance of putting the correct address, complete with zip code, on the letter. Each letter, or Christmas card, should also have a complete return address on the face of the envelope, he said.

Last July, a seven-cent surcharge was also placed on First-Class Mail weighing one ounce or less, and single piece Third-Class Mail of two ounces or less that measures more than six-and-one-eighth inches high, eleven-and-one-half inches long or one quarter inch thick.

"Most card and envelope makers are only manufacturing the allowable size today, but there may be some older stock still for sale," Postmaster Wright said. We don't want any disappointed customers during the holidays."

Wright said that, according to the schedule at the Post Office, it may be too late to mail some surface parcels overseas and have them arrive in time for Christmas. "It really depends on where the package is going," he said.

He also stressed the importance of mailing Christmas cards and packages for delivery within the continental United States as soon as possible.

"We need your help so we can deliver every greeting card in time for the holidays," Wright said.

Talmadge Finch Returns From Training Session

Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) District Director Talmadge Finch of Booneville has recently returned from an agency training session in San Antonio, Texas, held to discuss policy changes in managing the U.S. Department of Agriculture's major credit program for rural areas.

The six-day conference centered on training the FmHA representatives in methods of working with other federal, state and local agencies to get the maximum effect from tax dollars invested in rural development. FmHA district offices have recently been restructured to coincide, where possible, with sub-state planning districts.

According to Mr. Finch, the directors also received instruction in putting into effect the agency's "targeting" policy, by which funds are channeled to individuals and communities most in need. The training session emphasized the development, in cooperation with other agencies, of management plans that fulfill targeting goals.

Over 100 district directors from nine southern states attended the session, one of three being held across the nation. FmHA rural development programs administered on the district level include loans and grants for multi-family housing and community facilities. Over $6 million was invested for these programs last year in Mr. Finch's district, which includes, Alcorn, Benton, Marshall, Prentiss, Tippah, and Tishomingo Counties.

said that he knows he will have to make arrests and that he will not hesitate to enforce the law, because that is his job.

As a matter of fact, he said that "all deputies will be told if I know of one letting my son go free for something the deputy has arrested someone else for, that deputy will be fired."

McCauley said that his favorite people are children and old people. In keeping with that and his policy of friendship, McCauley plans to appoint young people from all over the county as honorary deputies.

McCauley stressed that "these honorary deputies will in no way be used to enforce the law."

He said that the purpose of appointing the honorary deputies is to acquaint the young people with the law enforcement agency.

"I want the teens to know that law officers are their friends, not their enemies," he said. "I want to sit down and talk with them, rather than having to arrest them."

McCauley said that this kind of program could possibly turn a teen around. "It might put a boy that would have wound up in the pen in a government office, such as the sheriff's office, instead," he said.

The sheriff-elect said that he would like to appoint two honorary deputies from each of the 40 voting precincts, plus a few special ones.

McCauley said that appointing the honorary deputies was going to cost him about $800 out of his own pocket to purchase badges for the young people.

McCauley also said that one of the first things he plans to do when he takes office is to set up a complete filing system for the office's records as he promised in his campaign.

He said that Joe Shackelford, an accountant who lives just south of Frankstown, will be put in charge of all records.

"I'll have nothing to do with it," he said.

McCauley said that Edwin Coleman, sheriff of Alcorn County and a former FBI man, has the best filing system in Mississippi. He said that Coleman has agreed to explain his system to Shackelford.

"Joe is going to copy Coleman's records and improve on his system, if he can," McCauley said.

"Not every common drunk will be photographed and fingerprinted," he said, "but anyone we feel we could need a record on, will be. We plan to keep as accurate a file as possible."

McCauley also said that the sheriff's office will keep a jail docket and that everyone charged and brought to jail will be in the docket.

The future sheriff said that Shackelford will not be just a file clerk, he will also be one of the three deputies. "He will work in the field and also be in charge of the office," McCauley said.

McCauley said that he has not yet hired his other two deputies and he says that he will not take just anyone.

He said that before he will hire someone for the job, that person must be willing to submit to a lie detector test, stating that he will not take a bribe.

McCauley said that he will not ask his deputies to do anything that he would not do, so he plans to take a lie detector test in Tupelo before he is sworn in. He said that he would let his deputies ask him anything they want while he is taking the test.

Another area in which McCauley plans to be strict is on the matter of drunk drivers.

"They can't make the law too strict on drunk drivers," he said. "I picked up dead people for 20 years while working for the highway patrol because of drunk drivers. It would be all right with me if they made it a one year prison term for the first offense of drunk driving."

Concerning thefts, McCauley said that he would like for everyone in the county to keep a record of the serial numbers of anything they have that might be stolen, especially guns. He said to hide the numbers in an inconspicuous place.

That way, if something is stolen, the serial number can be checked with the serial numbers of recovered goods which are sent out from other counties over the state teletype network, he said.

McCauley said that he has talked to most of the sheriffs in the surrounding counties and "they all seem eager to cooperate and put forth a joint effort to catch the thieves that go from one county to another. If we can cooperate in the counties in north Mississippi, it will be about a ten-to-one ratio against the criminals in eliminating this situation."

As for another term after he completes his first one, McCauley says that he does not want to run again.

"I won't say that I will not run again," he said, "but if someone runs who I think will do a good job, I will not run."

FREE STEW—Despite the fact that burglars broke into the VFW building sometime Sunday night and made off with the ingredients for the planned stew, the VFW was able to purchase more and have the free stew right on schedule Monday in honor of Armistice Day. Sheriff Ralph Martin said that the burglars used a bolt cutter to cut the lock off the front door in order to gain entrance. The VFW reported a large turn out Monday for the occasion.

Jumpertown Water Association FmHA Loan Approved

A $91,000 Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) Loan has been approved from the Jumpertown Water Association, Congressman Jamie Whitten said Tuesday.

The FmHA funds will be used to make improvements to the present water system by providing a new water well, controls and chlorination facilities, Whitten's office reported.

Eddie Mauney, chairman of the board of the Jumpertown Water Association, said that the money will be used to add a much needed second well to the system.

The Jumpertown system had been operating two wells previously, but the health department shut one of the wells down because it was pumping too much sand into the system, Mauney said.

"With the 360 customers we have in the system, you almost have to have two wells," he said, "so we are going to have to drill another one."

Mauney emphasized that association is not expanding at this time, just upgrading the present system.

"We are not adding any lines," he said, "just the well, the pump and the lines to tie it into the system."

However, Mauney said that when the new well is in operation, the system will be in good shape and should be able to handle any newcomers to the system.

Personnel Management City Grant Approved

Booneville Mayor Charles Crabb said Monday that a federal grant for a project designed to help the city upgrade and improve its personnel management capabilities has been approved.

The $4,760 grant was obtained under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA) and is the second grant the city has received for the project.

The objective of the project, according to the application filed by the city to obtain the grant, is "to provide within one year sound personnel policy, a base whereby city employees will be thoroughly familiar with governmental operations (and will be able) to deal expeditiously and efficiently with problems which may arise in the future."

"Specifically," the application continues, "these objectives include publishing policy manuals for current and future employees, and, on a quarterly basis, providing seminars or training sessions on particular complex aspects of the personnel program (i.e., insurance, benefits, etc.)."

Using the funds from a $3,000 grant received last year, the city composed a personnel policy and procedure manual designed to "address all aspects of personnel management, from absenteeism and discipline to responsibilities and benefits."

The city's application for the second grant states that the development of this manual is a good first step, but is not the only step to be taken.

"City employees must have a good understanding of policies from the outset. For this reason, seminars on governmental policies and monthly printouts informing employees of new policies are needed to complement and complete the manual in its first year of use," the application states.

In order to implement such a system, the city applied for the second grant to purchase needed equipment.

The equipment the city plans to purchase with the funds from the new grant include one projector, $650; one table, $30; one lectern, $500; one binder machine, $500; protective coverings, $30; one safe, $300; one electric typewriter, $750; and one copy machine, $2,000.

Jury Finds For Brumley

In Aberdeen last week, a federal court jury found that former Tishomingo County deputy sheriff Farrell Brumley did not use excessive force in arresting Edward "Boots" White on a misdemeanor charge Aug. 5, 1978.

In a law suit filed in federal court, White had claimed that Brumley and Tishomingo County Sheriff Chester Dawson had violated his constitutional rights.

Attorneys for White attempted to prove that Brumley used unreasonable force by shooting White in the leg and beating him several times with a blackjack during an attempt to arrest him on a family disturbance charge.

Brumley's attorneys claimed that the defendant acted in his official capacity while attempting to execute the warrant and only used additional force when White tried to flee from the scene.

Brumley testified Thursday that White had threatened him. He claimed that he had to strike White in order to take his gun away.

White's attorneys attempted to prove that the injuries he received from the incident prevented him from working for approximately three months, and entitled him to compensation for medical bills and loss of wages.

Perils Of Pot

The debate will not be concluded, but there is growing evidence that marijuana is not the harmless potion its proponents would have us believe.

Dr. Robert DuPont, former director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse and now head of the Drug Dependency Section of the World Psychiatric Association, reports:

— Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC), the chief toxic element in marijuana, lodges in the fatty tissues of the body, in the brain and in the reproductive organs, and remains there for a month.

— Recent studies show that a substantial intake of marijuana lowers the male hormone level in men, reduces sperm counts, affects mental processes and slows the body's production of lymphocytes — those blood cells which fight infection.

Peter Bensinger, chief of the Drug Enforcement Agency, adds his bit: Marijuana has been proved to affect motor skills, respiratory functions and attitude.

As the Johnson City (Tenn.) Press-Chronicle has observed: "The medical and scientific evidence continues to mount against marijuana. Common sense should dictate to users that the drug is not harmless."

All this is not going to prevent defenders of pot from continuing their quest for legalization of the drug. But it ought to strengthen the resolve of those who believe, correctly, that marijuana is something more than a puff of pleasure.

Industrial Arts Education Week

November 12-16 has been proclaimed National Industrial Arts Education Week. Approximately 100 school districts in the state offer industrial arts programs and 25,000 junior high and high school students are enrolled.

Industrial arts education provides students the opportunity to develop knowledge, skills, creative thinking, career exploration, scientific investigation and industrial awareness. Learning experiences involve activities such as designing, constructing, evaluating, experimenting, and using tools, machines, materials, and processes.

A new dimension has been added to industrial arts education by the organization of a student association. The Mississippi Industrial Arts Student Association received its charter early this summer and there are now 10 chapters in the state. The student organization and the industrial arts programs are sponsored by the Vocational and Technical Division of the State Department of Education.

The 275 industrial arts teachers in the state are urging the public to visit industrial arts programs in area schools during the observance of National Industrial Arts Education Week.

Letter To The Editor

Canal Treaty, Salt II Absurd

Editor,

President Jimmy Carter promises us that the United States will possess the technical means to monitor the military activities of the Soviet Union and to verify carefully the Soviet compliance with the requirements of the Salt II Treaty.

Those who are not naive realize that the Carter administration concluded the Salt II Treaty with the Soviet Union on terms very favorable to the Russians at a time when intelligence reports on the Russian garrisoning combat soldiers in Cuba were coming in. Informed persons likewise realize that the same administration deliberately suppressed intelligence reports to help promote ratification of the Panama Canal treaties.

Those facts show us that the Carter administration has lost any responsibility, common sense, and confidence of informed citizens. Detente has become a Russian one-way street. Therefore, ratification of the Salt II Treaty would now amount to absurdity, regardless of what the Russians do with their troops in Cuba. Communist war criminals respect and understand only force.

Therefore, informed persons should urge the Congress to appropriate the necessary money to rebuild the military superiority of the United States. They should likewise do their best to achieve the defeat of President Jimmy Carter and all those senators, who voted for ratification of the Panama Canal treaties and who will vote for ratification of the Salt II Treaty, in the elections of 1980.

Sincerely yours,
Dr. Alexander V. Berkis

Ag Money Bill Good For Consumers

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Jamie L. Whitten, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, announced last week that the Congress has adopted the fiscal year 1980 Agriculture Appropriation Bill.

The Congressman called on the President to sign the Bill, which is $1.6 billion below the President's budget, saying, "The Bill will treat agriculture as an equal partner of industry and labor. This bill will serve to the advantage of consumers and producers alike. It will help assure the quality and wholesomeness of our foods and drugs, and protect our valuable natural resources which are the ultimate basis of our standard of living. This bill will provide that our schoolchildren are fed properly; that the weak, elderly, and the economically disadvantaged can avail themselves of a nutritious diet."

Congressman Whitten said he was pleased by the overwhelming vote in favor of the Bill, which cleared the House of Representatives on Friday, October 26, by a vote of 304 to 25. The Congressman said he felt the support the Bill received was due in large part to programs he had initiated through his Committee that were widely supported by the Members of Congress from the big cities.

"These programs include the development of wholesale markets in cities such as Boston, New Orleans, Los Angeles, New York and Baltimore. Funds have also been provided for 4-H type work in the cities to assist low-income people in dietary matters, a program which my Committee initiated 10 years ago. The bill also provides funds for the Urban Gardening program which has received widespread support in the larger cities of the country," he said.

"The Bill includes $861 million for the agricultural research and cooperative extension programs, including the work done at the land grant colleges and universities and provides an overall increase in the research and development budget over comparable 1979 figures. This is crucial in view of such challenges facing agricultural research as the leveling off of productivity increases, the loss of prime farmland, and the continuing pressures of population growth on global food supply.

"The Bill includes $300,000,000 for grants to small towns for water and waste disposal systems and provides that 30 percent of the funds should be used for the expansion of existing systems.

"The Bill funds the work of the Soil Conservation Service and includes $250,000 to expedite work now underway on the bank caving foothill erosion research project now underway in the 1st District.

"The Bill also funds the Farmers Home Administration and includes over $3 billion for housing loans and $868,000,000 for rural rental housing loans and provides $870,000,000 in farm ownership loans and $875,000,000 in operating loans," Whitten said.

The Congressman's Bill includes $50,000,000 for an experimental rural clean water program to be operated by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. These funds are provided to aid those areas of the country with severe conservation problems that have not made full use of the Agricultural Conservation Program.

The Congressman said he had pointed out to the Department of Agriculture that: "Foreign sales of U.S. agricultural commodities are an essential means of recouping our dollars from overseas and play a major role in helping to offset our balance-of-payments problems. We need to move our surplus production into world trade. Our agricultural exports are our best dollar earner and they are needed by the world. Increased agricultural exports are our best opportunity to secure a lasting peace in the world. I believe we must use the sales manager of the Department of Agriculture to assure that a maximum effort is being made by the grain companies to sell U.S. commodities, and if they are not making that effort, then we should use the Commodity Credit Corporation to accomplish that goal."

The Congressman said he had received the assurances of the Secretary that he would use CCC, if necessary, to maintain our share of world markets.

Education Week

State Superintendent of Education, Dr. Charles Holladay, says American Education Week (Nov. 11-17) is the perfect time for parents and other concerned citizens to visit their schools. "Education is and has to be a joint effort between the schools, parents and the community," he said.

Holladay noted a "back to the basics" movement in education today and says Mississippi has already begun steps to insure that school children receive a sound, basic education.

"I believe that Mississippi will give new emphasis to improving student achievement in the fundamentals of education—reading, writing, speaking and mathematics," he said.

Holladay says he recently signed an agreement with former U.S. Commissioner of Education Ernest Boyer to implement a Basic Skills Program in Mississippi.

"I'm especially interested in this project," he said, "because I believe that every citizen must have the skills required to be self-sufficient and to participate effectively in society. All students should master the skills of formal education. The development of these skills has been and will continue to be a top priority of the schools."

Under the plan, some $8.25 million dollars would be distributed to states on the basis of population. Holladay says if Congress appropriates the monies, some $100,000 is expected to be made available to Mississippi. Half would go to state-level leadership; half to local projects.

Holladay says programs such as this will help the state, not only during American Education Week, but year round to meet the educational needs of all Mississippi children.

Mississippi Economic Council Schedules Statewide Forums

Members of the Legislature, other state officials, and Mississippi Economic Council members will talk about major issues facing the new administration and the 1980 legislative session in a series of five Council forums scheduled in late November and early December.

The forums, held every four years with the election of a new governor and a new Legislature, are scheduled for Jackson, Greenwood, Tupelo, Biloxi, and Hattiesburg.

Invitations have been extended to every legislator, to every elected state official, to all MEC members, and to all local chambers of commerce.

Each meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. and conclude with a luncheon. The governor-elect has been invited to address each of the sessions. The lieutenant governor-elect is also scheduled to take part in the meetings.

The Legislative Forums will be held as follows: Tuesday, November 27, Holiday Inn Downtown, Jackson; Wednesday, November 28, Ramada Inn, Greenwood; Thursday, November 29, Ramada Inn Convention Center, Tupelo;

Tuesday, December 4, Broadwater Hotel, Biloxi; Wednesday, December 5, the Commons University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg.

"One of the objectives of the Council is greater citizen participation in government," emphasized MEC President Benton Cain of Jackson.

"And these forums give us an opportunity to become involved in our government," said Cain. "We will discuss major issues facing our state with lawmakers and pass along to them MEC's recommendations for dealing with these problems."

"Discussion areas," Cain said, "will include Mississippi's business climate, state and county government, education, taxation, and highways."

Yazoo City industrialist Gene Triggs, who chairs MEC's special committee on county government, will discuss the Council's plan for model county government, which was developed in his committee after a year of study.

Lewis Whitfield, a Tupelo banker and chairman of MEC's committee on state and local government, will identify weaknesses in Mississippi's public employee personnel system. He will outline these weaknesses along with the need for state government reorganization.

Hinds Junior College President Dr. Clyde Muse of Raymond will discuss some of the needs of education in Mississippi. Dr. Muse is a veteran, professional educator, and a recognized educational leader in the state.

Cleveland CPA William S. Boswell, Jr., will speak on the state's tax structure and will discuss MEC's tax recommendations. Boswell has appeared before legislative committees over the past several years in support of MEC policies on property and income taxation. He is a past chairman of MEC's Committee on Taxation.

Consulting engineer G.B. Beard, former mayor of Forest and a former president of the Council, will outline MEC's policies and recommendations for highway finance. Beard is a veteran MEC leader whose speciality has been in the field of transportation.

Cain, who will chair all the meetings, will tell about the state's business climate.

There will be a registration fee of $5.00 for MEC members and others which includes the luncheon. All state officials and legislators will be guests of MEC.

The Bottom Line

Candid Answers To Your Questions About Advertising and Business Topics.

By S. GALE DENLEY

Associate Professor of Journalism University of Mississippi

Inflation is eating us all alive and you advocate more spending for advertising—which I consider the main culprit in spiraling prices. Why don't you get your head straight? We Are Paying Too Much.

Dear WAPTM: I'm sorry about your plight, but as you well know, you have lots of company.

There are quite a few theories on the causes of inflation, and while yours might have limited merit under very special circumstances, it is simply, as a general rule, not true.

As a matter of fact, advertising, quite to the contrary, may be one of the few alibis you have in the struggle with inflation.

By carefully shopping the ads in your local newspaper you can find special sales and promotions featuring your needs, thus stretching your shrinking dollars.

Your short term benefit will be immediate savings, but by patronizing the shops that advertise you further aid them in their quest to sell at lower prices.

They will be enabled to buy in volume and the savings thus generated in the future will be shared with you through lower prices.

Furthermore, the increased volume of sales will allow the managers to maintain a margin of profit with lower markups. This will also benefit you in lower prices in the future.

If you want to blame someone for inflation, you might select workers who demand more pay without a subsequent increase in productivity or performance. For this is a real cause of spiraling costs.

Some select the service industries, like advertising, as the villains because they produce no real goods.

But the test of this accusation must be if the services they provide aid the process of production—for example, health care that may increase workers' output, and advertising that helps to move increased production.

Any wage or salary increase should be a recognition of an increased ability to perform in a certain job, be it teaching or making cars.

Time in grade, alone, is no reason for pay hikes—only productivity.

To be sure there are quite a few non-economic reasons for increased production costs, but they should be recognized as such.

But back to your premise, I feel you have been grossly misled, and are thus attacking what could be one of your few friends.

I hope you will re-evaluate your position and in the future refuse to accept irrational conclusions. Read the ads and save your money.

Brenda Gail Roberts Marries Larry Dean Barron

The Wheeler Baptist Church was the setting on Aug. 24, at 7 in the evening for the wedding that united Miss Brenda Gail Roberts and Mr. Larry Dean Barron in holy matrimony. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wiley Gann of Rienzi in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

As the guests arrived, they were directed to the registry presided over by Mrs. Earl Barron of Baldwin.

Glowing lavender tapers, held aloft in brass candelabra entwined with greenery, made a beautiful background for the wedding party. The altar was defined by two tall baskets holding lavender gaidias and mums and flanked by brass standards with candles. The white prayer bench was decorated with cushion pom-pom mums as was the small stand holding the unity candle, which the couple lit at the conclusion of the ceremony.

The bride entered the sanctuary escorted by her father, Mr. Billy Roberts. She wore an original gown fashioned by her mother of white quiana crepe, with an empire waistline and softly flowing A line skirt bordered with a deep ruffle of lace.

A wide berth of chantilly lace enhanced the high round neckline. The long sleeves of lace ended in soft ruffles over the hands. Her three-tiered cathedral veil of bridal illusion was arranged halo style and fitted to the head with a soft white bandeau. Her only jewelry was a pearl and gold necklace, a gift from the groom.

She carried a cascade bouquet of all silk daisies, baby's breath, lily-of-the-valley and rose buds centered with a yellow-throated orchid. Love knots fell from the cascade which was arranged on the brides white Bible and featured a white lace handkerchief which had belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Otie K. Wesson.

Miss Roberts was attended by her three lovely sisters. Mrs. Charles Wescot of St. Louis, Mo., served as matron of honor with Mrs. Junior Cockrell of Baldwin and Miss Beverly Roberts of Wheeler as bridesmaids. They wore identical formal gowns of lavender floral minuet fashioned like the bride's gown and carried nosegays of silk daisies made by the bride.

Little Miss Robin Roberts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Roberts of Baldwin, was the charming flower girl. She carried a white lace basket filled with lavender silk flowers and wore a short white organdy frock featuring an overskirt with dainty lace trim. This was the same dress worn by the bride herself in a wedding when she was four years old. Both flower girl and the bride's attendants wore halos of silk flowers.

Terry Scott of Booneville served as best man. Earl Barron, brother of the groom of Baldwin, and Ricky Gillentine of Booneville were groomsmen. The brides brothers-in-law, Charles Wescot of St. Louis, Mo., and Junior Cockrell of Baldwin were ushers.

All the male members of the wedding party wore tuxedos by After Six in Silver Regency trimmed in black. The groom was attired in a silver tuxedo. Master Scott Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thompson, was the ringbearer.

Mr. And Mrs. Larry Dean Barron

Mrs. Billy Roberts, mother of the bride, wore a formal gown of almond pink interlock. Mrs. Bill Barron, mother of the groom, chose a formal of blue interlock. Both mothers wore white orchids.

A program of traditional and sacred music was furnished by Mrs. Mike Anderson, organist, Mrs. Ted Hill and Paul Reed, soloists. Preceding the entrance of the wedding party, Mrs. Hill sang "There is Love," and Mr. Reed sang "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

As the bride took her place at the altar, Mr. Reed rendered "Whither Thou Goest," and after her father gave her in marriage, the bride and groom sang "The Twelfth of Never" to each other.

Following the impressive ceremony, Mrs. Hill sang "The Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the prayer bench. They left the church to the strains of the traditional recessional played on the organ by Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Lee Roberts of Baldwin directed the wedding.

RECEPTION

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Roberts honored the newlyweds with a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The table was overlaid with an embroidered white linen cloth from Hong Kong. The centerpiece was made up of lavender and white cushion mums flanked by lavender tapers.

The punch bowl holding grape ice punch was placed at one end of the table with the three-tiered bride's cake at the opposite end. Mints and nuts in attractive containers completed the appointments of the table.

The large bottom layer of the white cake was encircled with mounds of lavender daisies tied with wide ribbons that fell in streamers from the table and decorated with love birds. The second layer had a draped garland of small lavender flowers. The anniversary layer, also garlanded with lavender flowers, was topped by three white satin bells framed in small beaded hearts.

Mrs. Lee Roberts, Mrs. Gerald Thompson and Mrs. Butch Stephens served the cake and punch. Mrs. Leland Roberts, Mrs. Gerald Hodges, Mrs. Bill Fleming and Mrs. Brownlee Glover were floating hostesses.

The dainty Rice Girls were Misses Melissa Scott, Renae Scott, Laura Gann and Christi Roberts. They wore lavender gingham checked dresses with square white eyelet collars. Their flowers were wrist corsages of white and lavender silk flowers. Each carried a basket of white and lavender rice bagstied with ribbons and adorned with golden rings.

Bud Davis at the piano played soft background music throughout the evening. For going away, the new Mrs. Barron chose a one piece dress of rosy plum calature. Following a short honeymoon trip, the couple are now at home in the Hopewell Community.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barron honored their son and his bride with a buffet dinner in the fellowship hall of the Wheeler Baptist Church. Places were laid for thirty-four members of the wedding party and special guests.

WHITE BIBLE CEREMONY

The WMU of Wheeler Baptist Church honored Miss Roberts and Mr. Barron with a White Bible Ceremony intitled "Use Me, Lord."

After commissioning the couple to be on mission for the Lord in their life together, the gift of tradition, a White Bible was presented to them.

SHOWERS

Miscellaneous showers honoring the bride were given in the home of Mrs. Robert Stevens and at the Wheeler Baptist Church. She received many nice and useful gifts.

The bride was also honored with a rice bag party in the home of Mrs. Lee Roberts in Baldwin.

Directory Assistance service is not free. It never has been, although many people seem to think it is. In fact, South Central Bell customers in Mississippi will pay more than $12 million for Directory Assistance service this year. Even though you don't see it itemized on your monthly bill, it is part of the amount you pay for basic telephone service.

Directory Assistance costs have been increasing at an alarming rate in recent years—considerably faster than growth in the number of telephones. These rising costs, in turn, increase the company's cost of providing your basic telephone service.

But, 85 percent of the calls to Directory Assistance in Mississippi are for numbers listed in the telephone directory. This means that 96 million of the estimated 112 million Directory Assistance calls in the state this year could be avoided if everyone were to use the directory. And that would reduce costs substantially.

Directory Assistance costs could be further reduced through a new way of pricing the service. With Directory Assistance Repricing, customers who use the service more would pay more for it.

With repricing, customers could make a certain number of calls to Directory Assistance each month without an additional charge, and they would be billed only if they exceeded this allowance. Persons unable to use a directory—for example, those with physical or visual handicaps—would not have to pay any Directory Assistance charges.

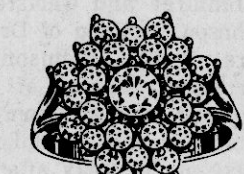

Actual experience in areas where similar plans are in effect shows that each month 90 percent of customers do not have to pay any additional charges. And in Alabama, only 8.6 percent of customers currently are billed for additional Directory Assistance calls each month.

We believe that repricing Directory Assistance would provide a better way for customers to pay the costs of the service. It would require only the heavier users of Directory Assistance to pay more.

GODDARD'S JEWELRY

Miss Palmer Marries Mr. Green

The Booneville Church of Christ was the setting for the beautiful candle-lit wedding ceremony of Miss Patricia Ann Palmer and Mr. Ricky Dale Green Saturday, Sept. 22, at 6:30 in the evening.

As the guests entered the foyer of the church, they were registered by Mrs. Deanna Burress. The table was covered with a white eyelet cloth and a memory candle embossed with 'Pat and Ricky' was placed on the table.

Miss Lori Deaton and Miss Shauna Eaton presented the guests with programs of the ceremony.

The vows were exchanged before an arched candelabra entwined with greenery. Spiral candelabras and candlesticks were placed on both sides. Palm trees at the foot of the altar completed the setting.

Mr. Mike Arnold and Mr. Dale Jumper lighted the candles after the mother of the bride and the mother of the groom had been seated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of chiffon with romantic styling. The lifted bodice of alercon lace was defined with a double row of pearls and featured a scalloped sabrina neckline and butterfly sleeves. The soft flowing skirt extended into a chapel train. Her full length mantilla of silk illusion was embroidered in seed pearls.

For something old, the bride wore her maternal grandmother's wedding ring on a gold chain.

The bride carried a bouquet of white silk roses and lilies of the valley, accented with tiny orange and yellow flowers.

Miss Pam Palmer, sister of the bride, served as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Bradley of Tupelo; Miss Mitzi Arnold and Miss Angela Arnold of Booneville, cousin of the bride; and Miss Patti Green, also of Booneville, sister of the groom.

The bridesmaids wore formal gowns of Quiana, which were knitted in Tahiti. The scoop necklines were designed with a cape which dipped in the back. The skirts were fashioned of crystal pleats.

The bridesmaids carried straw fans accented with silk Tiger Lillies, fern leaves and tiny yellow flowers.

Miss Elizabeth Wroten and Miss Tara Green were flower girls. Their dresses were apricot dotted-swiss with ruffles edged in lace. They carried white baskets filled with flower petals.

Mister Christopher Johnson was the ring bearer.

Terry Green served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Gerry Green, Jackie Green, and Kenneth Green, brothers of the groom and Ricky Ford, all of Booneville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Palmer chose a two-piece beige dress with embroidered cut-work edging on the sleeves and around the bottom of the hem.

Mrs. Green selected a mint green dress with a matching lace jacket.

Mrs. J.O. Deaton, maternal grandmother of the bride, chose a street length dress of mauve Quiana.

Mrs. Travis Palmer, paternal grandmother of the bride, chose a dusty-rose dress.

Each of them wore a double white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Joyce Morgan directed the wedding.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents invited the guests to a reception in the annex of the church.

The entrance was decorated with a wrought iron settee and chair. A large fern with love birds resting on top was placed in the center.

As the guests entered the reception area, resting on an easel to their left was a portrait of the bride.

The bride's table covered with a white eyelet cloth was centered with a four-tiered bride's cake. Cupids were placed between each tier.

Atop the bride's cake were the same miniature bride and groom statuettes that were used in the wedding of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Vernell Arnold. On each side of the cake were candelabras with burning tapers entwined with ivy.

Mints were served from silver compotes. The cake was served by Mrs. Vernell Arnold and Mrs. Peggy Wroten.

The punch table was of yellow wrought iron with a glass top. The legs of the table were decorated with ivy. Orange punch was served from a crystal punch bowl by Mrs. Annette Deaton and Mrs. Jo Ann Davis.

Two large ferns sat on the hearth of the fireplace directly behind the punch table. Burning white tapers were located on each end of the mantle. Two figurines or orange mallard ducks were placed around a smaller fern in the center of the mantle.

A gold cloth covered the groom's table. The groom's chocolate cake was topped with a brass cricket box, from which frosted red and white grapes cascaded.

A silk floral arrangement of colored roses and baby's breath served as a centerpiece for the table. Mints and nuts completed the setting.

The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Betty Adair and Mrs. Linda George, sisters of the groom. Coffee was served by Mrs. Martha Eaton from a silver coffee server.

Floating hostesses were Mrs. Sylvia Salts, Mrs. Ann Green, Mrs. Julius Lee Morris and Mrs. Helen Jones. Tea girls were Miss Melissa Price, Miss Melanie Floyd and Miss April Gooze.

Rice girls were Miss Molly Price, Miss Michelle Morgan, Miss Jennifer Morgan and Miss Amy Tyra.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy wrap-around dress. She wore a silk orange double rose corsage.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The groom's parents invited the wedding party for a dinner at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant. The bride and groom presented their gifts to the attendants on this occasion.

Mr. And Mrs. Ricky Dale Green

BRIDAL PARTIES

On Aug. 18, a miscellaneous Bridal Tea Shower was given by Mrs. Durelle Alexander, Mrs. Katherine Arnold, Mrs. JoAnn Davis, Mrs. Ann Green, Mrs. Helen Jones, Mrs. Evelyn Billingsley, Mrs. Julius Lee Morris and Mrs. Alma McCoy.

A rice party was given on Aug. 20 by the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Arnold.

On Aug. 25, a Lingerie Shower was given by Mrs. Vicki McMillan and Mrs. Loretta Tennison in the home of Mrs. Opal Martin.

On Aug. 27, a Kitchen Shower honoring the bride-elect was given in the home of Mrs. Joyce Morgan. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Margaret Gooze, Mrs. Peggy Wroten and Mrs. Christine Pike.

A Linen Shower was given in the home of Mrs. Kathy Green on Sept. 1. Co-hostess was Mrs. Marty Green.

On Sept. 15, a Bridesmaids Brunch was given by Mrs. Peggy Wroten. Mrs. Alloyce Pickett assisted Mrs. Wroten.

Saturday Night In Laurel

Tigers Face Jones In State JUCO Playoffs

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Tiger football squad has their biggest test of the year coming up this Saturday night when they face Jones Junior College in the opening game of the 1979 State Junior College Playoffs.

Northeast Tiger head football coach Bill Ward said he would take 69 football players, five coaches, three managers several bus drivers, the band, cheerleaders and a whole heap of fans and try his dead level best to come away from there with a victory.

"This is do or die situation for us," the Tiger head mentor said. "Jones is probably the best team in the state and then some. They're strong. They're quick and they're just plain good."

The game will ifield a 7:30 kickoff and will be played at Laurel instead of Ellisville due to the recent damage of Hurricane Frederick.

Ward said, in all honesty, that Jones would have to be one of the best ifnot the best teams in the state. He said the defense they will use could be tricky. Jones will run a 50 standard along with a 4-4 and a 5-3 and use a 6-2 or a 6-5 on the goal line.

"This is what we have to do is read their defense and their defensive stunts," Ward said.

"If we can do this then we stand an excellent chance to beat them."

The Tiger head coach said he didn't know of much the Tigers would change in both their offensive and defensive sets. He said they'll stick with the same type offense with the exceptions of a a few wrinkles thrown in.

"What we have to do though is stop the big plays and make some big plays," he added. "This is what wins football games. And this is what it takes against a team like Jones."

Ward said the ends and cornerbacks would have to be extremely sharp on defense. He eluded to fact that Jones head coach Sims Cooley knew what the game of football is all about and added that he always has a good defensive football team.

"They're good in almost every position," he said. "On offense they have, probably again one of, if not the, best quarterbacks in the state and also some fine receivers and runningbacks. I think most of the fans saw this when they played here a couple of weeks ago."

When asked if the Tigers had any surprizes for the Jones squad, he said, "Oh man we always have some of those. Probably some of the rinkles we'll add will be where we put three receivers to one side, maybe a few reverses and try

PREPARE FOR BIG GAME—Lana Coker, left, NE cheerleader and Rhonda Crowe, right, NE Tiger dancer, are all set to root the Tigers on when they face Jones in the opening of the State Playoffs.

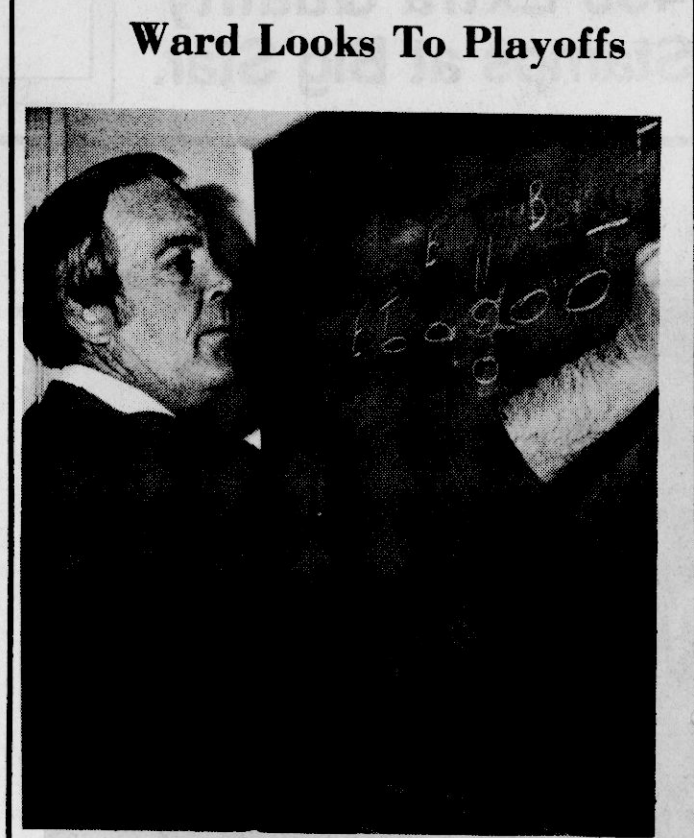

RHONDA CROWE—Rhonda, a Booneville High School graduate, is one of some 35 Tiger Dancers in this year's 1979 NE Tiger Band. This is the first year for Rhonda to be a dancer and she joins the Banner-Independent in urging everyone to support the Tigers in Saturday's playoff game against Jones.

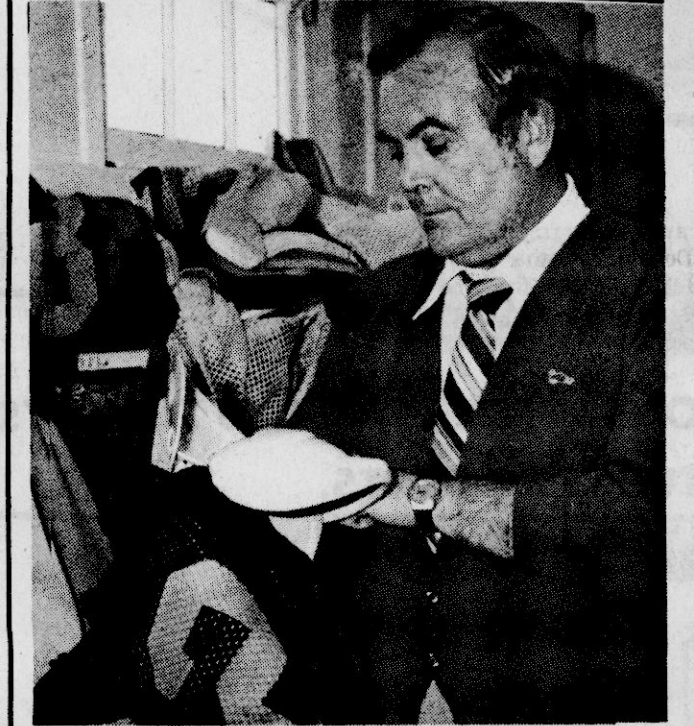

LANA COKER—Lana, from Baldwin, is also in her first year as a NE Tiger Cheerleader. Lana graduated from Baldwin and was one of three new cheerleaders added to this years squad. Lana will be at Jones Saturday night. You be there too.

Only One Team Favored In State College Action

Only one of the State's three major college football teams will take the favorite seat this weekend in college gridiron action.

Southern Mississippi's Golden Eagles will be a 21.3 favorite over Arkansas (according to kickoff guide) but both the Ole Miss Rebels and Mississippi State Bulldogs are underdogs.

Tennessee's volunteers take the nod over the Rebels by a 26.0 point spread while LSU's Tigers is a solid 15.2 choice over Mississippi State.

All three of the schools are coming off losses last week.

The Rebels lost to Tulane while State lost to Auburn and Southern Mississippi dropped their outing to Bowling Green.

Two of the games are home encounters. Ole Miss will host Tennessee in Jackson while the traveling squad, Mississippi State will face LSU at Baton Rouge.

McDonald Shines: Tigers Drop Devils 34-0

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

Ripley runningback Phillip McDonald did everything except run the clock here last Saturday night and paced Ripley's Tigers to a 34-0 romp over Booneville's Blue Devils in the season finale for both ballclubs at Tiger Stadium.

The Tiger runningback, one of top gridsters in the Tombigbee Conference, led all runners rushing for 191 yards a... lit up the scoreboards with three touchdowns.

McDonald's touchdowns came on runs of five, one and 20 yards and he carried the ball some 26 times on the night.

The Devils, who finished the 1979 football season with a 4-7 overall record and a 4-4 conference mark, held the powerful Tigers (10-1 overall) to just 14 points in the first half but Ripley followed with 20 more in the final two frames to coast to an easy win.

The Tigers scored the first six pointer early in the opening period. Booneville fumbled the football just shy of their own 15 yard line and Ripley's Gary Parsons jumped on it to give Ripley a first down at that point.

Two plays later McDonald plunged over right guard almost untouched for the touchdown. The extra point followed and the Tigers held an early 7-0 lead.

The Devils came back after this and their defense stiffened just a bit. Booneville failed to move the ball and punted to the Tigers. But the Devils didn't falter this time. The Devils stopped the Tiger drive on a second down tackle by Toy Pharr and third down tackles by Carlton Calvert and Bill Morris.

Ripley punter Gary Parsons punted the ball into the end-zone and the Devils took over at their own 20 yard line.

The Devils again however failed to move the ball and had to punt for the third time of the night. Buddy Hall booted the ball to the 47 yard line and just minutes later Ripley had their second tally of the night.

McDonald went to work from here. He carried the pigskin for five yards and then followed with a burst off right tackle and carried to the Devil 25 for a first down.

Three plays later McDonald scored his second tally of the night on a five yard burst. The pat followed and the Tigers held a 14-0 lead with seconds remaining in the 1st period.

The Devils still had some life left in them when they came back after this with their most impressive drive of the night.

Following the kickoff the Devils took over at the 28 yard line. Braddock Miller and Greg Oakley shared running duties and gave the Devils a first down at the 39 yard line.

Hall then went to work from there. He carried the ball a number of times and shared duties with Ed Caveness, Oakley and Miller. The big play in the impressive drive came on a big third and 17 situation where Hall found freshman end Larry Mackin for a first down at the Ripley 25 yard line.

Things looked bright for the Devils at this point but it was just not on the cards for the Devils. On the first play after this at the 25, the Devils bobbled the football and the Tigers recovered which proved to be the turning point of the ballgame.

The Tigers, leading 14-0 at the half, came back with their third score of the night in the third period. After McDonald had carried the ball a number of times in the first drive of the third quarter and spotted the ball at the 20 yard line, the Tiger speedster slipped off right tackle for the third tally of the night.

Tiger quarterback Greg Hamby added a touchdown in the third period and Vince McLemore scored in the fourth quarter. Add that to a safety scored against the Devils and you have a 34-0 victory for the Ripley Tigers who finished the '79 season with a 10-1 overall record and a bid to the Crossroads Bowl in Corinth to face Southaven.

Booneville Blue Devil receiver Larry Mackin was injured in the Saturday night encounter and had to be taken to the hospital to be treated. Mackin was sent to Tupelo where he was later released with sprained ligaments.

Booneville's 1979 Blue Devils ended the season with a 4-7 overall record and a 4-3 record in Conference play. Wins this year came over Kossuth, Alcorn Central, Iuka and Okolona.

The Tigers jumped off to a 33-0 lead at the intermission and coasted the rest of the way to win their third consecutive Tombigbee Conference crown.

Northeast Drops Columbia

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Tigers and Tigerettes opened the season up with a bang here last Saturday night with a double-header victory over Columbia State at the Bonner Arnold Coliseum.

The Lady Tigers took a 98-51 decision in the opening game while the Tigers notched the Columbia squad 94-79 in the nightcap.

Paula Garrison, Helen McDonald, Martha Ashmore and Deborah McKinzie led the Tigerette scoring brigade with 12 points each while Sharmon Cley followed closely behind with 11 and Shelia Edgeston had 10.

The Tigerettes jumped on the Columbia troop early and never looked back. Coach Millard Lothenore said he was pleased with the performance of the Tigerettes and added that overall game play went well.

Northeast's ladies jumped out to 56-31 lead at the intermission and followed with a 42 point performance in the second half to post their first victory of the '79-80 season.

In nightcap action, Gary Hill led the Tiger scoring charts with 26 points followed by Booneville's Mike Cartwright with 18, Charles Conrad with 16 and Dale Groves with 10.

The Tigers hit on 31 of 63 from the floor for a 49.2 percent average and hit on 32 of 44 free throws for a 72 percent clip.

Columbia State hit a 43 percent average from the floor and a 41 percent mark for the foul line.

An amazing statistic, the Tigers pulled down 54 rebounds compared to 28 for Columbia with Charles Conrad leading the way with 17 rebounds followed by Gary Hill with 9 and Jackie Leach with 8.

Mark Buskirk led the Northeast men with eight assist and three steals.

Both the Tigers and Tigerettes will play tonight when they host Northwest Alabama tonight at the Bonner Arnold Coliseum.

The Tigers also play Monday night in the IJC series at Itawamba.

Wheeler Tournney Set

The 37th Annual Wheeler Turkey Tournament will get underway here Tuesday night Nov. 20 and continue through the finals Saturday night Nov. 24 at the Wheeler High School Gym.

The Wheeler event is noted each year for some of the top notch basketball action in the area. Teams from this tournament always advance high in state competition and several of these teams advance to the top spots in their respective brackets.

Action gets underway Tuesday night at 6 p.m. and will continue, with some three games per night, through Saturday's (Nov. 24) finals which begins at 7 p.m.

A host of schools will participate in this year's event including, in the boys bracket, Southaven, Thrasher, Mooreville, Jumpertown, Baldwin, Houllka, and Wheeler.

Competing in the girls' brackets are, Jumpertown, Wheeler, Mooreville, Thrasher, Baldwin and Houllka.

A new champion is assured this year in the boy's bracket with last year's champion Booneville's Blue Devils dropping out this time around. The Devils took top honors last year with a 61-56 overtime victory over Wheeler's Eagles in one of the most thrilling games in the history of the tournament.

Wheeler's host Eagles led most of the way in last year's thriller and appeared to be headed for the championship but Booneville's Dale Groves hit an eight foot jump shot with 12 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime. So, as you can, see the tournament is filled with plenty of excitement.

Baldwyn's Lady Bearcats, last year's girl's winners, will be on hand again this time around to defend their title of a year ago. The Lady Bearcats took first place honors last year with a 56-40 victory over Jumpertown's Cardinalettes.

Officials for this year's tournament are Lawrence Meeks and Stanley McAnally and admission has been set $1.00 for students and $1.50 for adults.

Plenty of exciting basketball action...Local teams competing...Make your plans to attend...

Roundball Action

Wheeler Drops

New Site

Wheeler High School took a roundball double-header from New Site last Friday night in local basketball action held at the Eagle Gym.

Wheeler's Eaglettes dropped the Royalettes 54-29 in the opening game while the Eagles checked the Royals 74-53 in the nightcap.

Tangie Miller, Brenda Crump and Regina Holland all canned 14 points in the Wheeler attack while New Site's Vicki Shockley led all scorers with 17 points. Wheeler was up 20-11 at the half.

Terry Ballard tossed in 22 points to lead the Eagles to their victory. Harry Gamble had 20 and Bubba Miller added 13. Miles had 15 for the Royals who trailed 38-22 at intermission.

Did any of you see who was riding shotgun with "Hauler" this week? We heard he had a secretary. Some said from what they could see she was well built and blonde, but "Hauler" wouldn't let anyone talk to her. What about that "White Girl?"

"Little Princess," has a little girl. She was born Saturday, Nov. 10. She weighed 5 lbs. 12 oz. and was 18 inches long. Mother, baby, and father are all fine. "King" and "Queen," are still on cloud nine.

Sunday, Nov. 11, was the coffeebreak in Columbus. Several club members attended the dance Saturday night and then the break on Sunday. I hear they had a good time and won a few prizes.

"Letterman," got caught in the kissing booth Saturday night at the dance. It seems like he and "Lady Birdhunter" had a really good time. Everybody you see now is hunting themselves a quarter for a kiss.

Happy birthday to "Texas Ruby," "Angel," "Little Miss Buffalo," and to "Thrasher Star." Hope each of you have a nice day and have many more wonderful days to look forward too.

Officers meeting will be Thursday night, Nov. 15, at "Upholstery Man's," at 7. Our regular business meeting will be Tuesday night, Nov. 20, at 7:30 at the community center. Please keep these days in mind and attend.

A big event this Friday night, Nov. 16, at 7 at Oak Hill Baptist Church—"Kid Sister," will be married. Good luck and best wishes to both of you. Everyone is invited.

"Sparrowhawk," is at home now. "King," had to visit the doctor again. "Lady Q." has been back to the doctor—doesn't have to report back for 4 months. "Sidekick," is laying up in bed listing and a grinning. "Pinetree," is keeping up and talking more now. "Ole Blue," has been on the sick list this week.

We hope everyone is feeling better and that all are able to enjoy life a little better. Get ready for the turkey.

Hope everyone has a good week. Stay well, be happy, and attend the church of your choice.

4-H Alumnus

Next time you're with a group of friends or acquaintances, try a little experiment. Ask if any in the group were once 4-H members.

You'll be surprised at the results. No matter where you go, you're bound to find former 4-H members everywhere, active in all walks of life. And that's not surprising as roughly one out of every six Americans is a 4-H alumnus.

Some 33 million strong, 4-H alumni represent a vast pool of potential volunteer leaders and talent which may be enlisted to help current 4-H boys and girls "learn-by-doing."

4-H alumni provide youth with living examples of dependable, purposeful citizenship. Their continued dedication to 4-H includes service as volunteer leaders, resource persons, special interest group leaders and in other ways which further the program, its projects and activities.

Former 4-H members are invited to get involved in local 4-H programs and activities, and to give today's 4-H members opportunities to learn from their talents and expertise.

Prentiss County 4-H would like to form a 4-H Alumni Association. If you are a 4-H alumni and would like to get involved in this, please contact us at the 4-H office at 404 East Church Street or call us. Our telephone number is 728-5631.

Libraries Receive Autism Books

A public awareness project of the Mississippi Chapter, National Society for Autistic Children, has carried books on autism into 200 branch libraries and 38 administrative library units across the state. Also receiving the book, "Autistic Children: A Guide for Parents and Professionals" by Lorna Wing, are 40 libraries in institutions of higher learning and 10 learning resource centers.

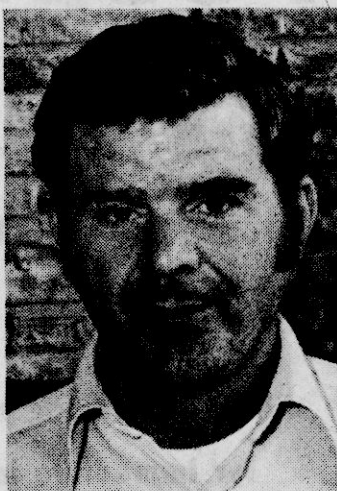

Nine library units have been presented a set of current books and published papers of the subject of autism, reports chapter president Bill Colvin of Pearl.

The awareness project of the chapter was funded through a matching grant from the Developmental Disabilities Planning Council of the Mississippi Department of Mental Health. Division of Mental Retardation under Public Law 95-602.

Two educational films about autism, a rare, severely handicapping communicative and behavioral disorder, were also obtained under the grant and are available for showing to civic organizations and other interested groups through requests to Miss. NSAC, P.O. Box 54092, Pearl, MS 39208.

The chapter is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization chartered in Mississippi in February 1978, and dedicated to the education and welfare of children and adults with severe communicative and behavioral disorders. The chapter now has more than 100 members in nearly 30 counties. Colvin pointed out. Membership is open to parents, professionals, and others who want to help promote better diagnostic and evaluation methods, educational programs and research in behalf of the autistic.

Abused Often Become Abusers

JACKSON, MS—Holiday gifts to the United Methodist Children's Home is a primary way of "breaking the chain of child abuse," according to a leading Jackson bone surgeon, Dr. William C. Warner.

Dr. Warner explained that "Abused children grow up to be parents that abuse their children, thus a child abuse cycle or chain is created." Warner, who serves as President of the Board of Directors and Trustees of the United Methodist Children's Home, made the statement this week in connection with an annual appeal for Holiday fits for the child-care institution.

According to Dr. Warner, "Thousands of children each year feel the sting of child abuse." He said, "Physically abused, neglected, unwanted and misguided, these children must face some of the most difficult and perplexing problems." "Broken homes, alcoholism, drug addiction and many other adult problems are their inheritance," he added.

The Jackson physician believes that one of the primary missions of church-related child care institutions is to break this chain. "Through love and care in a Christian environment, the wounds heal and the children become Christians," he said. "This makes a new chain-Christian parents have Christian children," according to Dr. Warner. "What a difference! There is love and affection," he added.

Dr. Warner was joined by the Rev. J.H. Morrow, Jr., Executive Director of the United Methodist Children's Home, in the annual appeal for holiday help. "With an inflation rate of more than 14 percent for the current year, we must receive very generous special help during November and December in order not to have a sizeable operational deficit by the end of the year," he said.

Also joining in the annual appeal for gifts were Mrs. Jim Buck Ross, Secretary of the Board, the Rev. J.H. Wiggul, Vice President of the Board and pastor at Eupora, and H.V. Allen, Jr., Mrs. Sid worthy and W.R. Smith, all of the Board of Advisors of the Home.

Gifts may be sent to the home at P.O. Box 36, Jackson, Ms. 39205.

Cards Of Thanks

The family of Ravanelle Green would like to express our appreciation to all our many friends and neighbors for all the kindness, food, flowers, and thoughtfulness shown to us in our time of sickness and death. A special thanks to Brother James Adams for the comforting words and McMillans for their kindness. May God bless each and everyone of you.

The Orville Green family

IN MEMORY OF MELISSA LIVINGSTON

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead-
She is just away!
With a Cherry smile,
And a wave of the hand,
She has wandered
into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be,
Since she lingers there;
So think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of there
As the love of here;
Think of her still as the same, I say;
She is not dead-
She is just away!

Her two grandmothers,

Have you ever put off writing a letter to a friend or loved one until it was too late. I have. Edgar Guest has written a poem entitled "The Intended Letter" that tells the story very well.

This could be a lesson, to you and me.

The Intended Letter

At him I do not mean to scoff,
But these were his excuses slight
That always kept him putting off,
The letter that he meant to write:
Because no postage stamp he had

And would to-morrow buy a few.
Because the pen and ink were bad.
Because he'd something else to do.
Because a friend dropped in to call
And visiting had stayed, too late."

Nor have I named the reasons all
He let me cheering letter wait.

To send it now there is no need
Because his soul has taken flight,
That friend of his will never read,
The letter that he meant to write.

This is the first of a series of articles that will appear weekly to the Banner-Independent. The sole purpose of this column is to acquaint the readers with the now hidden aspects of the productive activities of the religious, family and club functions of the Sunflower Community and the people who initiate them.

We hope to bring to you, the readers, an interesting and informative column that will add to your reading pleasure. We solicit your help and cooperation to accomplish this goal.

This will not be a gossip column, but will enter any newsworthy material of individual or community accomplishments submitted.

The pastor of the Pleasant Grove M.B. Church, the Rev. Pounds, was speaker for our morning worship services Sunday. He brought along with him, his choir and most of his members. His message, "Clean up your temple," was inspirational as well as spiritual and the fellowship afterwards was very gratifying.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. Oneal were conducted Sunday afternoon. She was a member of Spring Hill M.B. church. Her presence will be greatly missed from our services for she was a faithful member and attended regularly when her health permitted. Our deepest and sincere sympathy goes out to all the family during their time of sorrow.

I am very happy to report that there has been some improvement in the condition of Mr. Marshall Shields, though he is still in the hospital. We of the community, wish Mrs. Shields to know that our prayer are still as one with her and the family for his complete recovery.

As one of the features of this article, we would like to pay tribute to one or more of the leaders of our community, and for this week the person we have selected is Mr. R.B. Jones. He is a member of the Spring Hill M.B. Church, husband of Mrs. Addie Mae and father to the entire community.

In a very quiet but effective way he has done much to promote the growth and progress of this area. As Sunday School superintendent for many years, he was an integral part of most of the community children during their formative years. He strove constantly to mold and cultivate the character of many who are adults today.

Through his efforts, many learned a lasting respect for discipline outside the home, pride of participation and achievements in proper perspective, loyalty and dependability in all areas of participation, and a proper respect for the house of worship and religious activities.

Through him many parents learned the art of patience with a temperamental child. His concern has not been limited to church and religious affairs, but he is actively involved in all phases of activities throughout the community.

His generosity is unlimited. He is available at all times to assist no matter what the case may be. His home is always open to all, and many have found there comfort and loving concern from both he and his wife.

On behalf of this community, I wish to express our sincere thanks to you Mr. Jones, for your dedication and untiring efforts to make this a better community.

Til next week.

Food Tips For Teens

Food Is Important
Now...

Are you pleased with yourself? Eating the right foods can help make you the kind of person you'd like to be. Have you heard "You are what you eat?" Though you may not accept this statement literally, there is a lot of truth in it. The foods you eat actually do become parts of your body. They help regulate your body and furnish energy for its operation.

Most of the time you decide for yourself what you will eat. Your food decisions are very important because food plays a big part in controlling how you look, feel, react, and even your kind of personality! All of these factors help make you the person you are.

If you're like most teenagers you want lots of friends, good looks, pep, energy, popularity and ability to take part in teenage activities. GOOD HEALTH is necessary for all these things. And only YOU can build and protect your health by making wise food decisions.

Eating is much more than a matter of staying alive or satisfying hunger pangs. By eating food you furnish materials that your body uses to carry on vital life processes within and to make possible outward body movements.

Scientific research tells us that the human body requires certain types of nutrients. No substitutions can be made for these.

GIFT WRAPPING DEMONSTRATION—Mrs. S.A. Downs (above) will be demonstrating the fine art of gift wrapping during the Holiday Fair being co-ordinated by the Prentiss County Extension Service. In addition, there will be demonstrations on how to make festive decorations and gifts, and a display of holiday goodies. The fair is being held today, Nov. 15, in the fellowship Room of the First United Methodist Church.

4H SELECTION—A part of 4-H livestock shows is selection of animals. 4-H purchased these animals for 4-H members to select. 4-H'ers drew numbers in order to select their animals. Anyone interested in selecting animals for the spring livestock shows should purchase these animals by December, since this is the deadline. CHECK YOUR KNOWLEDGE
OF COOKING TURKEY
BY TAKING THIS
TRUE/FALSE QUIZ

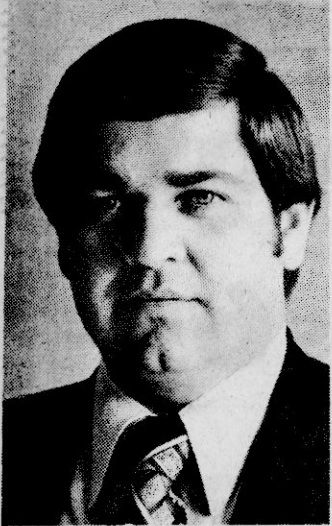

Jerry Ford
Attends School

Jerry A. Ford of Booneville recently completed the leadership school offered by the Liberty National Life Insurance Company of Birmingham, Ala.

Designed to help agents further develop their leadership and sales skills, the school covered a wide variety of subjects including leadership principles, communications, decision making, interviewing, motivation, goalsetting and the psychology of selling.

The four-day school was conducted at the company's home office in Birmingham. It was the first part of a six-month program in which Ford is currently enrolled. The last part of the program, which is administered by Liberty National's Field Training Department is conducted on a self-study correspondence basis.

Ford, a representative of Liberty National's Corinth office, is married to the former Anne Marie Floyd and they have one son, Shea McCarthy.

Jerry Ford

Whether you're a first-timer or have been handling the family Thanksgiving and Christmas feasts for years, you may find some surprises in this quick quiz on the subject of turkeys and how to roast them.

1) You can cook turkeys breast-down, as well as breast up.

True_False_

2) Doneness temperature is the same for breast, thigh and dressing.

True_False_

3) You can use either a deep or a shallow pan for roasting turkeys.

True_False_

4) A big bird requires more cooking time than a small bird in direct proportion to weight.

True_False_

5) A room-temperature bird (65 degrees-75 degrees) cooks faster than a refrigerated (40 degree) one.

True_False_

6) The most popular and generally accepted temperature for cooking turkeys is 325 degrees.

True_False_

7) A 25 degree variation in oven temperature can cause up to a 20 percent variation in cooking time.

True_False_

8) An oven film covering permits faster cooking than a foil tent.

True_False_

9) A cooking-time chart is all you need to turn out a perfectly-done bird every time.

True_False_

ANSWERS

1) True. The breast-down method isn't widely used but it works, permitting well-done thighs without overdone breasts. It requires slightly longer cooking time than with an uncovered, breast-up bird. However, this is not recommended for pre-basted turkeys.

2) False. When proper doneness is reached, the deepest part of the breast should be at 190 degrees, the deepest part of the thighs 185 degrees and the center of the dressing 165 degrees.

3) True. The shallow pan is coming into wide use—include a V-rack if you use it. A foil tent ensures the most uniform doneness but the turkey can be roasted uncovered as well. A deep pan requires slightly longer cooking times to get thighs done and usually requires a cover or foil tent during part of the time to get uniform breast and thigh doneness.

4) False. A big bird does require more cooking time than a small one, all right, but not in direct proportion to weight. A bird size cooking time chart like the one below is a better guide than "minutes per pound" cooking instructions.

Cooking times given are for thawed, room temperature (65-75 degrees), stuffed (75 degrees), stuffed turkeys baked in conventional gas or electric ovens at 325 degrees. Subtract 1/2 hour for unstuffed turkeys.

4-8 lbs. Uncovered-2-1/2 to 3-1/2 hrs., covered with foil tent-3 to 4-1/2 hrs.

8-12 lbs. uncovered-2-3/4 to 4 hrs. covered-3-1/4 to 5 hrs.

12-16 lbs. uncovered-3 to 4-1/2 hrs. Covered-3-1/2 to 5-1/2 hrs.

16-20 lbs. Uncovered-3-1/2 to 5 hrs. Covered-4 to 6 hrs.

20-24 lbs. Uncovered-4 to 5-1/2 hrs. Covered - 4-1/2 to 6-1/2 hrs.

5) True. The difference may be 30-45 minutes for a full-size turkey.

6) True. 325 degrees wins by far, though 375 degrees is sometimes used for cooking stuffed birds from frozen. Higher temperatures than 325 degrees also have been used to cook birds wrapped entirely in foil.

7) True. On a big bird, that time difference could amount to one hour or more which certainly could cause serving problems!

8) True. Cooking is very fast with oven film, slower with foil tents. Both help retard dryness and browning—in fact, you may want to use a glazing or browning agent with an oven film covering.

9) False. As you may have gathered from the other answers, many variables are involved in roasting the "perfect turkey." A chart can serve only as a guide to approximately when your turkey will be done. Many processors insert pop-up temperature gauges in their turkeys to give consumers assurance of when the birds are roasted to proper doneness. When the stem pops up, the turkey is ready to remove from the oven.

NOTE: Don't forget the HOLIDAY FAIR, Thursday, November 15, 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., at the First Methodist Church.

County Agent's Reports

By W.H. HADEN
County Agent

Stop Internal Parasites

Dairy cattle grazing on short grass or grass in low-lying areas may get internal parasites. These parasites or worms settle in the cow's intestine and rob the animal of nutrients. Early symptoms are a rough and shaggy coat. Cattle also do not respond well to feed. Young animals are especially vulnerable.

To prevent worm infestations, treat animals before pasturing them. Don't overcrowd pastures. Rotate animals every six to eight weeks. Eliminate wet, low areas and separate young animals from older cows. Worming treatments should be given twice and, on heavy infestations, three times.

Small Grains

You still have time to plant wheat for grain and make normal yields. Planting should be completed by the end of November, however. Fertilize according to a soil test, or apply nitrogen, phosphate and potash at the rate of 20-40-40 per acre if no soil test is made. Apply additional nitrogen as a topdressing in February or March.

Cows Need Salt

If your dairy cows have a rough coat, loss of appetite or haggard appearance, they may not be getting enough salt.

Salt is vital to the dairy cow, and lack of salt will cause rapid loss of weight and a decline in milk production.

Either the salt provided in rations or supplemental salt should be trace-mineralized, but not both. Animals in high production or later in gestation usually require more salt.

Farmweek

Chain saw maintenance and safety will be the feature topic on the November 19 edition of Farmweek. Farmweek reporter John Winfield will talk with Extension Forestry Leader Dr. Robert Parker about how to maintain a chain saw properly and safety procedures to use when cutting firewood.

Farmweek host Tyson Gair will also report on the Mississippi Insect Control Conference held November 14-15 at Mississippi State University. Broadcast time is 7:30 p.m. on November 19 and 7:30 a.m. on November 20 on the Mississippi Educational Television Network

Veterans' Questions And Answers

Q-My former wife is still paying premiums on my insurance policy. Must I still keep her as beneficiary or may I name my present wife as beneficiary?
A--You may name your present wife as beneficiary.

Although insurance may be kept in force with premiums paid by a third party, the insured retains all rights under the contract. They include changing beneficiaries without knowledge or consent of a prior beneficiary.

Q-How soon after discharge from service must a veteran apply for a GI home loan?
A--There is no time limit. All veterans who were ever eligible for this program are still eligible.

Q-How long can a veteran go to school under the GI Bill?
A--The maximum is 45 months of full-time attendance. This amount is earned with 18 months or more of military service.

Intent Of The Law Is Often Avoided

AG AFFAIRS
By ED BLAKE

Just as a butcher may be accused of weighing his thumb time and again to tilt his scales in his favor, so can responsible elements of American government tip the scales of justice by selecting which laws will be enforced and to what degree. And later, the latitude of sentences meted out by the judicial folks too can thwart the intent of law and annul serious legal restraints provided by law.

The American system of checks and balances between the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government are basic to our way of life in the United States. We, the American people, believe it to be the best, safest and fairest form of self-government. Yet, unless we as citizens remain alert to what it is all about and make a contribution to see that it works, its flaws can get out of hand. The legislative branch makes the laws--both in the national Congress; and in state legislatures. Legislators are elected representatives of the people and promise generally to make laws that reflect the wishes of the people they represent, yet affected to a degree by their statesmanship as reflected in honest concern for the public interest. That's a lawmaker, a legislator, inside his bubble of idealism.

The executive branch consists of the President and his cabinet and aides or the governor and his aides who are charged with seeing that the laws of the land are competently and fairly administered for the general well being of the population. They give state of the state or union addresses to the state legislatures and the national Congress at their respective levels and usually head up a party platform representing their campaign promises which always go beyond their responsibility for administering laws already passed. We as a state or nation usually indulge these administrators and permit them to use their powers of office to invade the legislative branch which constitutionally is off limits but popularly accepted. The President also has authority to issue certain executive orders in mostly emergency situations as head of state or head of the armed forces.

The judicial branch has to do with enforcing the laws of the land which, loosely interpreted, includes law enforcement and sentencing by the courts as the last word in criminal prosecution.

Again, hoorah for the system! It works better than any other system, or so we, as Americans, believe.

But again, the system itself works out either in town or on the back forty no better than the people who bring it there.

As an example, a local sheriff, a highway patrolman, a police officer, a justice court judge, a member of the United

State Supreme Court, each may and often do annul the laws legislators make and governors and Presidents administer by the many variables at their level of responsibility.

The rise in crime in the United States, as an example, over-extends these local officials. According to FBI data recently for the nation as a whole, one murder happens every 43 minutes. One rape case every 19 minutes. One aggravated assault every two minutes. One car snatched every 48 seconds. One larceny, stealing $50 or more, every 30 seconds. One burglary every 20 seconds.

Criminal law enforcement is in competition with civil enforcement. For instance, does a lawman try to check an active felony crime, or chase down the guy who tossed a beer can on the roadside where it is unlawful to litter? So, we have selective law enforcement--and selective law annulment.

Minimum sentences for criminal acts too tend to annul the laws of the land.

Regardless of the reason, many Americans, especially in the agricultural areas, live virtually beyond the practical application of law enforcement. Others, in town, find they are victims of local agencies own selectivity of law enforcement.

In this way, America's bubble of self-government leaks pretty badly in many places and times. This is a point to ponder the next time you head for the polls.

Good Lighting Is Important

In The Home

MISSISSIPPI STATE -- Good lighting is important in any home, says Frances Fortenberry, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service housing and equipment specialist.

The problem is how to have the light needed and practice energy conservation at the same time.

"It is important to maintain levels of light to eliminate safety hazards. It's a case of penny wise and pound foolish to dim the light on stairs or steps and end up with a broken hip or leg," she adds.

There are places in the home where the wattage can be lowered, but select them with care. The wattages in straight hallways and closets can be reduced without creating hazards.

Ample lighting, however, should be provided for steps, stairs, outside walks, medicine cabinets, kitchen sinks, lavatories, kitchen counter tops and other places when good vision is important to safety.

It is far wiser to turn off lights not in use than to reduce the wattage in critical areas.

Fluorescent tubes produce more light per watt than incandescent bulbs, so keep this in mind as you select new fixtures, says Miss Fortenberry.

Glare from an unshielded bulb is blinding, so eliminate it by selecting lamps and fixtures that shield bulbs. Select new lighting devices carefully so the shielding does not absorb or rob light you have paid for and need.

Conserve energy used in lighting your home, but don't sacrifice your ability to see easily and safely, she cautions.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Prayer: Luke 11:1

By Charles L Potts

"And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples:

Have a hard time praying? Does prayer sometimes seem unnatural and unreal to you? Have we not all felt at times like the disciple who asked, "Lord, teach us to pray?"

Perhaps "conversational prayer" could give us some real answers...and thus a more rewarding and complete prayer life. Jesus seemed to make prayer such a natural experience...so let us follow his lead. Begin now to practice personal conversational prayer...the idea here is to talk with Jesus as "God-in-person" right next to you, as you were with a friend.

Malcolm Boyd's feelings flow naturally in his prayers that help (and often jolt) many of us. For instance, one of his prayers reads like this: "I'm scared, Jesus! You ask me to do something I don't think I can do. Why did you ask me to do this?"

In another prayer he said: "I told you I'm afraid to stand up and be criticized, Jesus. I feel naked in front of everybody and I can't find any place to hide..."

And again "Jesus, I wish you would just leave me alone today, but if this is what you think is best, I'll try. But I don't want to. Pray for me, Jesus."

When oil executive Kieth Miller had all that he could stand of self in his struggle against God...he pulled his car off the roadside to pray. Seated at the steering wheel, he said, "If there's anything you want in this stinking soul of mine, Lord, take it!" Honesty and openness help us to grow closer in prayer...for which Christ we can "call it like it is" for He knows anyway.

Practicing this everyday nearness of God need not reduce our ultimate respect for Him at all. If saying "Thee" and "Thou" and "Thy" are helpful, continue to use these terms. Addressing Him some say "God," some "Father" and others "Jesus" or "Christ" or "Lord" or "Holy Spirit." Some address...all three persons of the Trinity. It might be good for us to check ourselves to see if we are using what for us is "flowery language" to separate us from a close fellowship with God. Since He accepts us as we are...we don't have to try to deceive Him. Being natural, honest and forthright in prayer can be of invaluable assistance as we seek to grow toward God.

Prayer will not make us perfect...as Christians we are conscious of how far we are from perfection...but practicing the presence of God helps me to grow toward perfection.

Let our prayer be: "Lord Jesus, help us to be so open and honest and natural with you that you become our closest friend. Thank you, Lord. Amen."
