In Shotgun Slaying

County Man Sought For Murder

A 23-year-old Prentiss County man was still being sought Wednesday morning in connection with the Friday night shotgun slaying of a Booneville man just over the Prentiss-Tippah countyline.

At approximately 6:15 p.m. Saturday, some 17 hours after he was shot, Ricky Padgett, 27, Route 3, Booneville, died at the North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo of a gun shot wound to the head.

Officers said Padgett had been hit by one pellet in the right forehead from a double "0" 12 gauge shotgun blast. Another pellet struck him in the right upper arm, Tippah County officers said.

The Tippah County Sheriff's Office has issued a warrant for the arrest of David L. Berryhill, 23, of Prentiss County, on a charge of murder in connection with the shooting, a spokesman for the Tippah County Sheriff's department said Sunday.

The shooting took place about 11:30 p.m. Friday at Padgett's home on Dry Creek Road near the Prentiss-Tippah county line, according to Tippah County Deputy Sammy Flake. There were four others in the house at the time of the shooting, officers said.

Deputy Flake said following the shooting three empty 12 gauge shells were found on the road in front of the house about 30 to 35 yards away.

Witnesses told officers that Padgett was standing at the front door when he was hit by the blast from the shotgun. They told investigators that Padgett had asked Berryhill to leave the house after an argument in which Padgett reportedly hit Berryhill.

Deputy Flake said witnesses told the officers that Berryhill left the house, got in his car and pulled into the road.

He said that the witnesses recalled that two shots then rang out and Padgett looked around the door. They said that was when Padgett was hit by the blast, the officers said.

Flake said that eight pellet shots from the blast were found in the side of the house and that four penetrated the wall inside.

He said that no gun was found inside the house near the door.

The original warrant of attempted murder was changed to murder, following the Saturday death of Padgett. A statewide alert for Berryhill was issued by the law enforcement agency. He was described as being five feet, eight inches tall, 210 pounds with brown hair and blue eyes.

The house on Dry Creek Road, which Padgett was renting and which was the scene of the shooting, burned early Monday morning.

A spokesman for the Tippah County sheriff's department said a neighbor discovered the charred remains of the house.

The Jumpertown Fire Department responded to the call at about 8:15 a.m., but the house was already totally destroyed, it was reported. Firemen said they believed the house burned sometime between 12:30 and 8 a.m.

The spokesman for the sheriff's department said that he did not know if the fire was related to the shooting incident.

The slain Padgett was a Tippah County farmer.

Funeral services for Mr. Padgett were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Dec. 31, from the McMillan Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Wilburn Sharpe officiating. Burial was in the Jumpertown Cemetery.

Survivors include his grandparents, Mrs. Gertrude Padgett and Mrs. Mattie Thorne, both of Booneville; his parents, Howard Padgett of Route 3, Booneville, and Mrs. Edward Eaton of Lyons, Ill.; two sons, Bruce Padgett and Shea Padgett, both of the home; one daughter, Lori Padgett of the home; one half brother, Eddie Eaton of Lyons, Ill.; and three half sisters, Sheene Eaton Jackson of Booneville, Sherree Eaton and Lisa Eaton, both of Lyons, Ill. McMillan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Update On The School Situation, A Statement From Lex Cain

Prentiss County Superintendent of Education Lex Cain released a statement to the Banner-Independent Wednesday morning concerning the county school situation.

A spokesman for Mr. Cain's office said that the purpose of the statement is to bring the people up to date on what is happening in the school system since the approval of a separate school district for the city of Booneville.

Mr. Cain's statement follows in its entirety:

"During 1979, a group of Booneville citizens decided to form a Separate School District. The ordinance creating this district stated that it would include only the city limits of Booneville.

"The County Superintendent of Education, in a letter to the Editor, stated his concern about exclusion of the approximately 1,000 students who live outside the city limits who now attend Booneville schools.

"The County Superintendent of Education and Board of Education were told by Dr. Lovell of EFC and by the Chairman of the Separate School District Board of Trustees that these children (those outside the city limits) were of no concern to them, that these students were the concern of the County Board of Education only.

"The Prentiss County Board of Education submitted a long range plan for consolidation of the schools into three high schools, eliminating the New Site center.

"EFC considered this plan at the same time they considered the request for Booneville's Separate School District. EFC approved the separate district.

"The Prentiss County Board of Education submitted another long range plan, this time eliminating any reference to the four Booneville Schools, and calling for two high schools in the county.

"EFC has refused to act on the county's long range plan, giving as the reason that they want to wait and see how many students the county will have and how many the city will have. Even though neither EFC nor the Separate School District had any concern about the students outside the city limits at the time they formed their separate district, drawing its boundaries at the city limits. They have now become very interested in these students.

"The Prentiss County Board of Education, through its attorney, has requested opinions on numerous questions concerning transfer of property, release or non-release of students, etc. from the Attorney General.

"On December 13, 1979, the Mayor of the City of Booneville called the County Superintendent of Education and stated that the Board of Aldermen and Trustees of the Separate School District wanted to meet with the

Booneville Native Returns, Opens Medical Practice

DR. CLIFF CARTWRIGHT

Booneville has a new doctor. Dr. Cliff Cartwright, a Booneville native, has returned to set up practice in Family Medicine. His offices will be located on Washington Street in the old nurses home across from the Northeast Mississippi Hospital.

Dr. Cartwright is a 1971 graduate of Booneville High School. He attended Northeast Junior College for 15 months and then transferred to Mississippi State University, which he attended for nine months.

Cartwright was accepted at the University of Mississippi School of Medicine in Jackson only two years after graduating from high school. Spending four years in the program, he graduated from medical school in 1976.

For the past three years, Cartwright has been serving in the University of Tennessee Residency Program at the Madison County General Hospital in Jackson, Tenn. While in the Residency Program, he received experience in dealing with many varied types of medical situations.

Doctors who practice in the field of Family Medicine, such as Cartwright, have training similar to that of General Practitioners, except for the period of internship following graduation from medical school.

General Practitioners are only required to have one year of internship following graduation. A Board Certified Family Practitioner must complete a three year residency program and then go before a certification board. Recertification is required every six years.

The practice of Family Medicine is a specialty field, just like surgery or any other specialty, Cartwright said.

Technically and legally, Cartwright could have begun the practice of medicine three years ago, but he said he feels the residency program has better prepared him for his own practice.

The Family Medicine program is a relatively new program, Cartwright said. The program in which he participated is only about five years old, he said. The oldest programs are only about seven to 10 years old, he added.

Dr. Cartwright is the son of Merrill T. and Laura Cartwright.

New Director Named To Regional Library

Elizabeth Cranwell Conaway of Corinth has been named the new director of the Northeast Regional Library system, which serves Alcorn, Tishomingo, Prentiss, Tippah and Benton counties with some 15 libraries.

The announcement of the appointment was made by Mrs. Emmons Turner of Booneville, chairman of the Library system's Board of Trustees.

Mrs. Conaway succeeds Walt Browne who resigned the post earlier this month. She holds a Masters of Library Science degree from Peabody College in Nashville and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.

A native of Florence, Ala., Mrs. Conaway was head of the cataloging department at the Memphis Public Library and Information Center before moving to Corinth with her husband, Wallace W. Conaway. He is an attorney and a native of Burnsville.

Prentiss County Officials To Take Oath Monday

Swearing in ceremonies for Prentiss County's newly elected officials has been set for 9 a.m. Monday, Jan. 7, in the courtroom of the Prentiss County courthouse, according to Chancery Clerk Gene Gray.

The giving of the oath to the officials will be the last official act of Gray, who did not seek re-election to that post in the recent elections.

Prentiss County Sheriff-elect John McCauley has asked that school teachers in the county excuse from classes Monday morning those students who have been chosen as honorary deputies. McCauley said that he wants them to attend the swearing in ceremony and that they should not miss more than a half day of school.

McCauley said that almost 100 honorary deputies, ranging in age from five years old to teenagers, have been selected from around the county and have been invited to the ceremony. He asked that they all be at the courthouse by 8 a.m. Monday.

Among those to take the oath of office Monday are: John McCauley, Sheriff; Phillip Cole, Chancery Clerk; Travis Cox, Circuit Clerk; Danny Childers, Tax Assessor and Collector; James H. Horn, Coroner and Ranger; Lex Cain, Superintendent of Education; John A. Hatcher, County Attorney; Larry Barron, Supervisor District 1; Jimmy Moore, Supervisor District 2; J.P. ## Rienzi Man Charged For Corinth Thefts

Charles Newman of Rienzi was charged in Corinth for the theft of several items in Corinth over the Christmas holiday weekend.

According to Corinth Police Chief M.W. Baggett, Newman, who is free on probation for other larcenies, is charged with the theft of tapes from several cars, and expensive Western hat, numerous games and clothing, plus the purse, coat and Notary Public seal of a Savannah resident. The police indicated there may be other charges pending against the man, dating back over a period of several months.

Newman went before Corinth Municipal Judge James Dean Friday morning, Dec. 28, for a preliminary hearing. Trial is expected to be before Judge Neal Biggers in Circuit Court at Iuka sometime after the first of the year.

Correction

A story on the front page of last week's paper stated that a broken crossarm on TVA's Burnsville to Tupelo 161,000 volt transmission line interrupted power to the area served by the Prentiss County Electric Power Association on Christmas Eve.

In actuality, the power failure occurred at 1:15 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 22, instead of Monday, Dec. 24, as reported. The power was restored to the Booneville area at 1:27, although it took longer to restore the power to some of the other areas affected.

The Banner-Independent regrets this error and is happy to make the correction.

Three Fires Friday

The Sammy Miller residence in the Hopewell Community was totally destroyed by fire around noon Friday, Dec. 28, according to a spokesman for the Booneville Fire Department.

The cause of the fire at the mobile home has not been determined, he said. The Marietta Fire Department also responded to the blaze.

The Hazel Hopper residence, 108 Anderson Street, received some fire damage later the same day when a fire started in the attic around the chimney shortly after 5 p.m.

The damage to the chimney and ceiling was minor, the fire department reported.

A third fire the same day occurred at about 9:25 p.m. at a house on Route 4, Booneville, being rented by Jane Barnes from owner Jerry South.

The mobile home, which is located near the Tommy Strange Dairy Farm, received only minor damage, it was reported.

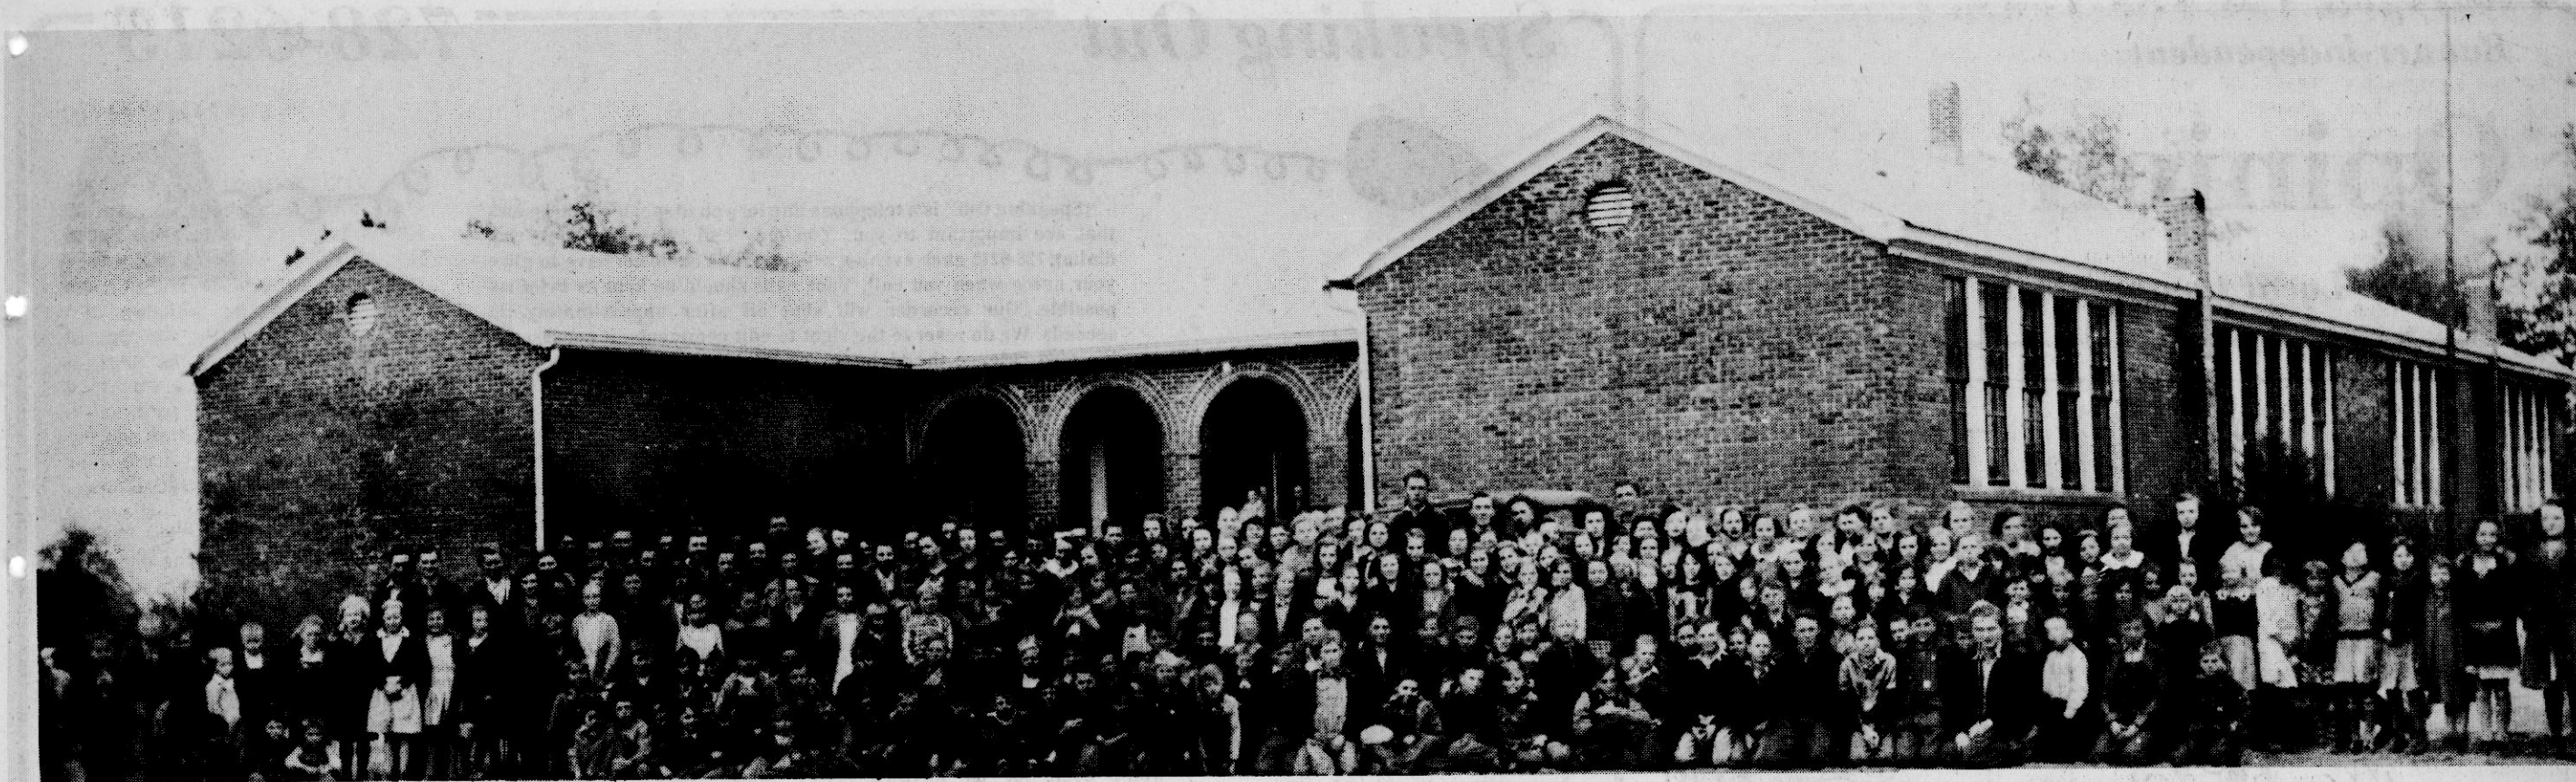

The fire started in the north end of the home, possibly from an electric heater which may have been too close to a couch, the fire department reported.

Wheeler Fire Department assisted in extinguishing the blaze.

FACES FROM THE PAST—Gazing at the camera lens from more than four decades ago is the entire student body and faculty of the Jumpertown Consolidated School in a photograph made in 1938. Milton T. Pardue, superintendent of the school, is leaning against the column at the rear of the group. Many prominent Mississippians and Prentiss Countians of today are shown in the group, which, at the time of the picture, was facing the realities of the Great Depression but had yet to confront such events as World War II, Korea, Viet Nam and the turbulence of more modern times. No one in the picture had ever imagined television, experienced air conditioning, or worried about environmental pollution or energy shortages. The atomic age was yet to come;

the airplane little more than a toy. Few in the group had ever used a telephone, and the nearest paved road or power line was almost ten miles from the school. It was a time of hardships and deprivation, yet forgotten delights. Many readers may enjoy finding themselves or a relative in the group. This picture was recently sent to the Banner-Independent by Robert Pardue of Singer Island, Fla. He is one of the small boys in the front row and a son of Superintendent Pardue, who retired from school administration in 1961 and was a resident of Booneville until his death in 1968.

For State Colleges

New Admission Standards Set

JACKSON—New admission standards for Mississippi's eight state-supported universities have been approved by the College Board. The new standards will become effective with the summer term of 1980.

In addition to general admission standards, new regulations have been set for first-time entering freshmen foreign students. In addition to the Board's requirement for foreign students of a composite score of 20 on the ACT (American College Test) or a comparable score on the SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test), foreign students must obtain a score of 525 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).

"We want to make sure these students have the competency in the English language to satisfactorily complete their work and will not create a situation which might hold a class back due to their incompetency in English," said W.M. Shoemaker of Meridian, chairman of the Instruction, Administration, and Policy Committee of the Board.

Separate requirements were set for individual institutions. Jackson State and Mississippi Valley will require a minimum of 10 on the ACT. Delta State, Mississippi State, MUW, USM, and Ole Miss will require a minimum of 15. Alcorn State will require a minimum score of 13 on the ACT.

In terms of special considerations, Alcorn may, in addition to the composite of 13 on the ACT, enroll five percent of the previous year's freshman class enrollees to accommodate talented and/or high risk students with an ACT composite score of nine. Delta State, Mississippi State, MUW, USM, and Ole Miss, which require a composite score of 15, may enroll five percent of the previous year's freshman class enrollees or 50 students to accommodate talented and/or high risk students with an ACT composite score of nine and up.

A remedial program applying to all institutions stipulates that all students who score below 12 on the English and/or mathematics portion of the ACT must enter and satisfactorily complete a Board of Trustees approved developmental program in the area(s) of deficiency.

"Admission standards have been a very deep concern of the Board for quite some time because we want to make an educational experience available to all Mississippians who exhibit the capabilities to perform in a satisfactory manner," Shoemaker said.

Court System In Need Of General Improvement

Mississippi's Justice Court System, as it exists today, is outmoded and badly in need of general improvement according to the Mississippi Economic Council.

MEC President Benton Cain of Jackson explained that the justice court system, as constituted, had its justification in earlier days when Mississippi was a rural state with a small, widely scattered population. "At the time of the 1890 Constitution, it was important that there was some sort of court system which would decide disputes—without delay and inconvenience—between neighbors involving small matters of property or minor crimes," he said.

Cain pointed out that these advantages have vanished and there is widespread dissatisfaction with the deficiencies of the system.

"The system is marked by an absence of legal training and experience by most of the judges," said Cain. "The jurisdiction of the justice court requires that a judge have ability to decide whether evidence is admissible, to instruct juries, and to interpret the statutes. Litigants frequently are unwilling to let the ultimate decision rest with a judge in whose legal ability they have little confidence."

The results of a comprehensive court finance study conducted by the Mississippi Judicial Council over the past year recommends abolishment of the justice court system and creation of a Magistrate Division of the Circuit Court with enactment of minimum qualifications. The study found that there is a definite need to upgrade the state's lower court system and make it more efficient and responsive to the public.

The Mississippi Judicial Council is a 16-member agency created by the Legislature in 1977 to conduct a continuing study of the administration of justice in Mississippi and make recommendations.

"MEC supports upgrading of the legal form and procedures in the state's lower court system," said Cain. "MEC recommends amending the state constitution to permit the Legislature to either continue to prescribe additional qualifications for the office of justice court judge or replace the justice court system with another system of lower courts."

State Unemployment Up For November

JACKSON, Miss.—The unemployment rate in Mississippi for November was 5.9 percent, a six-tenths percent increase over the October rate of 5.3 percent and three-tenths percent over the national rate of 5.6 percent for November, according to Mississippi Employment Security Commission Executive Director Edgar C. Lloyd Jr.

The 5.9 percent jobless rate for November was lower than last year's rate of 6.4 percent. MESCC figures showed 920,100 persons employed during the month of November and 57,900 unemployed out of a civilian labor force of 978,000. Initial unemployment insurance claims totaled 16,219.

Six counties had unemployment rates of over 10 percent. These include Jefferson County with 12.1 percent unemployed; Montgomery with 10.6 percent; Noxubee and Wilkinson had 10.2 percent; and Attala and Grenada Counties had an unemployment rate of 10.1 percent.

Five counties had unemployment rates under four percent for November. Rankin County had the lowest rate with 2.3 percent; Oktibbeha had 3.2 percent; Lafayette had 3.5 percent; Hinds had 3.7 percent and Clarke had 3.9 percent unemployment rate. Only 10 counties had decreases in the unemployment rate for November while three counties remained the same. Sixty-nine counties reflected increases in the rate of unemployed.

Mississippi's JP System... Straight Out Of The Middle Ages

By BILL MINOR
Columnist
JACKSON, Miss.—Mississippi's peculiar system of "roadside justice" as delivered by its Justice of the Peace courts is facing another showdown with reformers, and it could be one of the greatest legislative battles of the 1980's in this state. Straight out of the Middle Ages, the JP system embodies the idea that lay men can best deal with problems of citizens at the lowest level of the judicial process. But it also embodies, in the Mississippi

JP court concept, payment of compensation by fees and a combining of the role of judge and prosecutor.

While practically every other state has gotten rid of the Justice of the Peace as a lay person dishing out justice from the kitchen table, or some little out building in the middle of nowhere, Mississippi has held on to it.

Some might say it's this state's devotion to the old British Common Law. The JP goes back to the Magna Carta which had said in 1215: "We will not make men justices, constables, sheriffs, or bailiffs, unless they are such as know the law of the realm, and are minded to observe it rightly."

But the question of "knowing the law of the realm" is one reason why reformers in Mississippi say the system of lay judges untrained in the law has to go.

There have been some cosmetic changes made by the Mississippi Legislature to "upgrade" the JPs in recent years, such as changing the name to "Justice Court Judges," and requiring that henceforth (after 1976) all JPs must at least have a high school education and take a three-day training course.

But 1976 high school education requirement blanketed in all those already in office, whether or not they had any formal education, and many of those are among the 420 justice court judges still sitting.

Until a few years ago, when the U.S. Supreme Court came down hard on any form of criminal jurisdiction in which the judge had a pecuniary interest in the conviction of an accused, Mississippi JP's were paid fees according to whether there was a conviction or acquittal. Now they get a flat fee from the county for every criminal case heard, and of course, the more such cases—largely traffic arrests brought in by highway patrolmen or local law officers—they get, the better their income.

This latter possibility has led to numerous situations around the state where highway patrolmen have their own "pet" JPs who get the bulk of the traffic ticket business.

But the JPs have other significant powers, handling civil matters up to $500 (that's a recent increase from $200), performing marriages, issuing search warrants, plus a variety of misdemeanor charges. An almost incredible 400,000 cases a year go through the justice courts.

Going back at least a quarter of a century, reform movements have been launched to do away with the JP system in Mississippi and replace it with a system of magistrates who would be required to have professional legal education and hold court in a fixed, central location with a proper judicial setting.

For years, the Mississippi Economic Council pushed the idea of the magistrates and six years ago, a state judicial study commission came up with similar recommendations to replace the old cracker-barrel JP system.

Now the Mississippi Judicial Council, an official arm of state government created by the legislature in 1977 to make a continuing study of the administration of justice and propose improvements, has come forward with its year-long study to abolish the Justice Courts and replace them with a magistrate division of the Circuit Court in every county.

Magistrates would have to be attorneys, placed on a fixed salary, with a fulltime court clerk (something JP's don't have), and located in the county courthouse. Because of the fear of immediate legislative opposition, the Judicial Council opted to make the Magistrate post an elective office, as JP's are now.

The Judicial Council backs up its proposals both as a method of vastly improving the lower court system, but also a way to save more than $1 million that now goes into the pockets of JPs. It says the Magistrate system can be operated with judges getting paid approximately $24,000 in most counties (scaled down to parttime service in small counties), plus the fulltime clerk for $3,206,973 while the present JP system costs $4,215,442.

But as the Judicial Council bills are prepared for introduction at the 1980 Legislature, the JP lobby has already begun to crank up its counter force. In the past, the JPs have been quite effective in warding off reform because of the rural orientation of the legislature.

This is going to be a vital test of whether or not the state's first single-member district legislature is more inclined to urban thinking than its predecessors. All kinds of little traps are being set for the JP court reform, however, including one charge that it has racial undertones, since more blacks have been elected to Justice Court posts.

People Represented

"Educationwise, all people in Prentiss County and in every district are represented by a school board member, elected by the people. Those people should be running our schools."

A Good Example...

"I would like to know how you expect us to be fine, lawabiding citizens when half the police in Booneville don't even signal. Four times today I followed one policeman through town and he didn't even signal when he made four right hand turns."

New Money...

"Why do they keep saying the public refuses to accept the two dollar bill and the Susan B. Anthony one dollar coin? Have they asked the public or have they asked only the stores and the sales people? The real reason the stores dislike these items is because the cash registers have no place in the drawers for them. The two dollar bill will not mix with the ones and fives; the Susan B. Anthony's will not mix with the quarters. Thank you."

Decorations...

"I am very upset with the fact that Booneville has taken down all the Christmas decorations. They used to wait at least 'til after New Year's. I thought it was 'Merry Christmas and have a Happy New Year.' Even some stores have gotten out their Valentine's Candy. I mean, they won't even let us have a Christmas vacation without bringing out other business and other holidays. Thank you."

Liked The Article...

"The article by Bettye Brandon about Cecil and her family was beautiful. Thank you, Bettye."

Health Is Wealth...

"This isn't an issue, but anyone having good health or fair health and able to work are very rich and may not understand it. They should smile and give thanks to God for their good fortune, because good health could end overnight."

Sore Losers...

"You know that Mr. Cain was elected by a majority of the voters. But there are some sore losers who won't accept the will of the majority. They continue to try to degrade, harass and confuse the efforts of this fine man who has devoted his life to education. Where were they during all these years? I can tell you, most of them were making their fortunes in other fields. If they will get behind Mr. Cain, we have a real chance to unite our people for consolidation. Let's give it a chance and stop the harassment."

Read It All...

"If your hot line contributor of last week had read Mr. Cain's entire statement, he would have known that Mr. Cain said that he certainly would not expect to run for county Superintendent of Education if he could not vote for that office. Give us credit. Some of us in the school district have intelligence, too. We at least can read an article all the way through."

Oops! We Goofed...

"Your front page story says the power was out in Prentiss County on Christmas Eve, when actually it was out on Saturday, the 22nd. This is what gives local newspapers a bad name, inaccurate reporting such as this. Please say something about this in your next issue. The power was not out on Christmas Eve. OK? Thank you very much."

EDITOR'S NOTE: You are correct. The power was not off Christmas Eve; it was off on Saturday, Dec. 22, from 1:15 to 1:27. The information in the news story, including the error, was taken from a newsrelease given to the Banner-Independent by the Prentiss County Electric Power Association. As a spokesman for the Association said, over the holiday weekend everyday seemed almost like Christmas Eve. The press release was not delivered to the newspaper until Wednesday morning, just before press time; however, we should have realized the error and corrected it. We regret that we let it slip by.

WORKING FOR UNCLE

American workers today are making more but taking home less than ever before and probably wondering where it all goes.

Economists at the Tax Foundation, Inc., in Washington, D.C., have taken the average American worker's eight-hour work day and calculated how long it takes to pay for items in the family budget.

According to the calculations, the first two and three quarter hours on the job belong to federal, state, and local tax collectors—from 8 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.—which represents 34 percent of the workingman's day and is the largest item timewise. Broken down, the worker puts in an hour and 47 minutes to pay federal taxes and 58 minutes for state and local taxes.

The remaining five hours and 15 minutes in the workday belong to him and his family and look like this:

--63 minutes, food and beverages
--23 minutes, clothing
--87 minutes, housing and household operation
--30 minutes, medical care
--42 minutes, transportation
--19 minutes, recreation
--51 minutes, all other expenses to include personal care, personal business, private education, and savings.

Taxpayers should take a close look at what they are paying, but more important, they should take a close look at what their tax money is being used for.

The Mississippi Economic Council believes in a continuous program of careful scrutiny of federal expenditures always seeking reductions where possible.

And, if it is possible to reduce overall federal expenditures and taxes, first consideration should be given to moderating the progressive income tax rates both on individuals and corporations.

Our Christmas morning was made even more meaningful by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Willie B. Chambers and family which turned into a very spiritual reunion. They were here together with his sisters, Miss Juanita Chambers from Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Hattie Lee Chambers from New York City to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Booker T. Chambers.

Mrs. Lillian Childers is very much improved from her recent illness and was present at our annual Christmas supper on D-1 Dec. 23. We were very happy to see her and hope that she will be back with us soon on a permanent basis.

Harry is home again from the hospital. His condition is about the same, but we wish to express our appreciation to all of you for your help and your concern for his safety. Your phone calls and your visits were greatly appreciated.

After working a full eight hour shift on 11-7, Mrs. Charylene Strange and Mrs. Ann Windham motored to Memphis, Tenn., on Dec. 22 for pre-Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Clinton W. Windham. And on Dec. 24 and 25. She visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Ann Windham of Tupelo. Mrs. Strange is one of my favorite people, a special person, deserving of all the good things life can offer. We pray this will be true throughout the new year.

The pastor and members of Spring Hill M.B. Church were the guests in a special program at Wolf Creek M.B. Church Sunday afternoon, Dec. 30, in which the Rev. Shumpert brought a very inspiring message. The message and the fellowship was enjoyed by all.

GRATITUDE

Mrs. Earlene Taylor, Mrs. Carolyn Cleveland, Mrs. Loretta Johnson Mrs. Inez Harper, Mrs. Betty Cole, Mrs. Tommie Todd, Mrs. Lucille Gann, Mrs. Dianne Strange, Mrs. Virginia Moorman, Mrs. Gwendell Thompson, Mrs. May Rowland, and Mrs. Robin Gann. These are the people who make up the staff of the Booneville Head Start Center, a group of people worthy of our everlasting gratitude and consideration.

LORD, make me an instrument of thy peace
Where there is hatred, let me sow love
Where there is injury, pardon
Where there is doubt, faith
Where there is despair, hope
Where there is darkness, light
Where there is sadness, joy.

As we proceed into the year of 1980 my prayer is that the same spirit of happiness, unselfish love, and goodwill that existed during the holiday season will continue throughout the year.

Every new year brings about individual resolutions with the motivating factor being a sincere desire to be more effective in that which we failed to achieve in the past years. I make no new resolutions, for I know that I am still committed to those made in the last year, having fallen short so many times to fulfilling them.

But I do inter into this year with the above prayer and a heart filled with thanksgiving and gratitude for all things; for friends both old and new, for it is through association with them that I have a greater love for and faith in my fellowman. Realizing that life is just one step from birth to death, we try to live the span between as bravely as we can, trusting in the strength and power of our heavenly father to daily lead and guide us along the way. Faith in our fellow man and, above all, our heavenly father has brought us this far. Let us continue for a happier and more prosperous new year.

Santa's visit was the highlight of the Christmas program on Dec. 23, at Spring Hill M.B. Church. Adults and children were delighted by this unexpected visit as well as the gifts he passed out among the congregation.

Miss Sylvia Pierce, her daughter, Rena, and sister, Sandra, were home for the holidays from Houston, Texas, and spent an enjoyable holiday visiting with friends.

The course consists of selected clinical experiences in general and regional anesthesia. Also included are cardiopulmonary resuscitation, physical assessment and respiratory therapy, with rotation through pulmonary function, recovery room, labor and delivery room, emergency call, and management of an anesthesia department, as well as teaching of other medical personnel.

Miss Elder Honored With Bridal Tea

Guests arriving at Chris-Cliff Farm, the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill T. Cartwright, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15, from 2 until 4 p.m. for the Miscellaneous Bridal Tea Shower honoring Miss Marsha Elder, bride-elect of Larry Jones, found their way marked on the mail box with Wedding Bells tied with holly and red ribbons.

The Cartwright home was picturesque, both inside and outside, featuring beautiful Yuletide Decorations.

Joining Mrs. Cartwright as hostesses for this lovely occasion were Miss Susan Barron, Miss Sandy Coats of Dumas, Mrs. Travis Cartwright, and Mrs. Cliff Cartwright in absentia.

Guests were greeted in the den by Mrs. Cartwright and presented to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Roy Elder, and her aunt, Miss Doreene Elder. Here a glowing fire, stockings hanging on the mantel, and the family Christmas tree helped to create a spirit of congeniality as the guests lingered in the room.

Mrs. Roy Neil Elder presided over the Guest Register in the Family Room. A beautiful red carnation graced this area.

The round refreshment table in the dining room, covered with gold satin overlaid with a gold net cloth ornated with sequined candles and potted plants, was centered with an artistic arrangement of red carnations in an antique bowl and held a silver Revere punch bowl surrounded by holly and red berries, from which Miss Barron poured cranberry punch. Pitted fours topped with a Christmas motif were served by Miss Coats from the table.

Mrs. Johnny Allen of Corinth and Mrs. Travis Cartwright presided in the gift room, where the numerous gifts were attractively displayed, and intermingled with the original holiday decorations.

Everybody must have been better than they thought, for Santa seems to have brought all something. Its great to know most of our folks and families were able to share the blessings of a real Christmas.

It seems like I missed a wedding ceremony over the C.B. the other night. Someone said that "Fury III," and "Pebbles," were married over the air. How about it "Fury III," are you not telling us something important?

Happy birthday to "Little Rusty," "River Queen," and "Backwoods Annie." Hope each of you have a nice day and have many more to look forward too.

Its blazing orange everywhere you look. Most all the fella's are in the woods with their guns. "Beaver Pleaser," and "Apple Jack," both had good luck. "Pleaser" got a spike and "Apple Jack," got a five point. I'll bet that "Charly," and "Apple Blossom," can live with those two next year.

We, the Northeast Mississippi C.B. Club, hope all of our friends everywhere have a most prosperous New Year.

"Wilaway," has been in the Veterans hospital, but is at home. He got a good report, so he doesn't have to go back for awhile. "Lady Termite," and "King," have had a virus that is going around. We sure hope them and anyone else who has been sick is feeling better.

Saturday night, Jan. 5, is our regular social at the community center at 6:30. It will be pot luck. We will be entertained by the Singing Echoes. Everyone come and enjoy the good fellowship.

"Twitty Bird," sure had a good picture in the paper where she was dancing with Santa Claus. Said next year she was gonna sit on his knee.

Everybody is making his or her New Year's resolutions now. Most of us need to go on a diet. Everyone trying to settle back into routine after two many Sundays in a week.

"Little Miss Buffalo," has been visiting with her grandparents in Arkansas. She returned home this weekend to get back to school. Hope everyone had good holidays.

Goodbye 1979, hello 1980. Stay well, be happy, and attend the church of your choice.

News From Oak Ridge

By BERYL COATS
Correspondent

The year 1979 is history and we have entered the New Year. It is hoped that many have made meaningful resolutions and will strive to keep them.

It is deplorable that there have been people in the area who were intent on committing theft and vandalism. Their values need to be adjusted so they could become good citizens.

Visitors at services recently included: Jerry Coats from Celina, Tenn.; David Shook from Wheeler; Mrs. Ken Wilson and boys from Decatur, Ala.; Wayne Coats from Mt. Juliet, Tenn.; Johnny Ballentine from Guntown, and Jeff and Joel Frame from Smyrna, Tenn.

It was good to see Mrs. Pearl Green (Ma) at services Sunday, Dec. 30.

Several mothers were absent Sunday morning due to the illness of their little children. These children were Mike Coats, Misty and Cristy Dees, Tanya and Michelle Coats. Let's hope their sickness is of short duration. Mrs. Pearl Barnes was absent too, due to illness.

Get-well wishes are extended to Aunt Myrtle Harris who is sick at home; to Donald Tigrett and Marsha Pace who are patients in the Baldwin Hospital and to Mrs. Elsie Putt, sister of Zana Floyd, who is in room 525 of the N.M.M.C. in Tupelo.

Our shut-ins continue to be about as usual; perhaps Mama Coats is some better.

Sincere sympathy goes to Mrs. Bill Page and other relatives of Fairrel Gray who mourn his passing. Sympathy also to the family of Walter Davis of Rienzi and to the Doss Family also of Rienzi.

It was so good to have all our eight children with their families with us for a time on Christmas day—enjoying a luscious dinner and opening gifts. Later all gathered in the den to blend their voices in songs from the church hymnal.

Jerry left on Thursday to return to Celina to resume preaching and teaching duties—also to resume classes at Tennessee State to work on a degree as an Educational Specialist.

We're all proud of Regina Corbin who received the B.S. degree at Mississippi State, making the President's list. She will now be working toward the Master's degree. Good luck, Regina!

Teaching Handicapped Offered On TV

"Mainstreaming" the handicapped student into the regular classroom is a big step forward for the nation's public school systems. But, are our educators prepared to appropriately manage this transition?

"Teaching The Young Handicapped Child" is a college credit telecourse being offered this spring by Northeast Junior College which will prepare teachers and parents to better cope with this responsibility.

Registration for the course, which is made available by the Appalachian Community Service Network, is Tuesday, Jan. 8, in Room 58 of Hines Hall on the Northeast campus at 6 p.m. The class meets each Tuesday night from 6 until 9 p.m., beginning January 15, and ending April 8. Subscribers on the Booneville Video System may register for home viewing on Channel 2 from 6 until 7 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 7, and from 9 until 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 8.

Nine units of study and four seminars are presented in 12 hour long television programs. A study guide links the test and programs and provides comprehensive learning and application activities to augment each unit.

Topics covered in the course include: (1) Early Childhood Special Education Overview; (2) Informal Observation; (3) Classroom Integration; (4) Planning for Individualized Education; (5) Techniques for Meeting Special Needs; (6) Parent Involvement; (7) Developing Social Skills; (8) Language and Speech Development; and, (9) Language and Speech Activities.

Though the course content is directed toward children, ages 3-8 years, the methodology is useful with many other age groups.

For more information on Teaching The Young Handicapped Child, contact Mrs. Opal B. Melvin, ASCN Site Coordinator, at 728-7751 or Toll Free 1-728-7759, ext. 231.

Library Notes

By LEE DAVIS
Correspondent

All agree that a good beginning is a happy circumstance.

To begin the new year, the Allen Library is encouraging everyone to return all past-due materials without penalty by dispensing with any fines for the period Jan. 3 through Jan. 12.

This fine-free period means that you may return books with even every large fines and no payment will be requested. If every such book came back to the library during this time, every patron's record would be entirely clear; no reminders by mail or phone would be required; people waiting for materials would find them available; and the library service would be as complete as we can make it.

It's an idea only you can put into action and a dream you can help make come true.

Reference service at the Allen Library has received a boost with some new gifts now on the shelves. You will find there the latest Webster's unabridged dictionary, the latest "Who's Who in America," "Webster's Biographical Dictionary," "The International Geographic Encyclopedia and Atlas, 1979," "The Statesman's Year-Book, 1978-1979," and a new "Roget's Thesaurus."

Students will recognize these as useful tools for research papers. We appreciate having them updated and hope you will find them valuable in helping to meet your information needs.

THIS CHILD SHOULD NOT BE ALONE—This is just one of the topics discussed in a new television course, "Teaching The Young Handicapped Child." Scheduled to begin Tuesday, Jan. 15, the course is offered for college credit by Northeast Junior College. For more information, call Mrs. Opal B. Melvin, ASCN Site Coordinator at 728-7751.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Forgiveness Matthew 18:22b "... until seventy times seven"

By C. L. Potts

Forgiveness is often the key to new life and hope. It is perhaps the most seldom given and yet the most universally needed ingredient of personal relationships. The following may serve as a parable...pointing out for us some of the characteristics as well as some of the results...of forgiveness.

The attractive young housewife suddenly found herself involved in an affair with one of her husband's best friends. It had begun innocently...almost accidentally. But now she was so deeply involved that there seemed no way out of the web in which she had become entangled. The guilt was overwhelming. Her life was falling apart because she had violated certain principles that she had always held sacred. What could she do about the unfaithfulness?

Finally, when the guilt could no longer be endured...she ended the affair with her lover. Then...she made her confession to her husband and begged him to forgive her. He was stunned. His world came to a standstill. What could he say? Before the evening was over the couple had called their Pastor...hoping he could guide in the crisis. He came and before the evening was over...the young husband...in great pain...finally volunteered, "I love you. I forgive you. Let's start all over again."

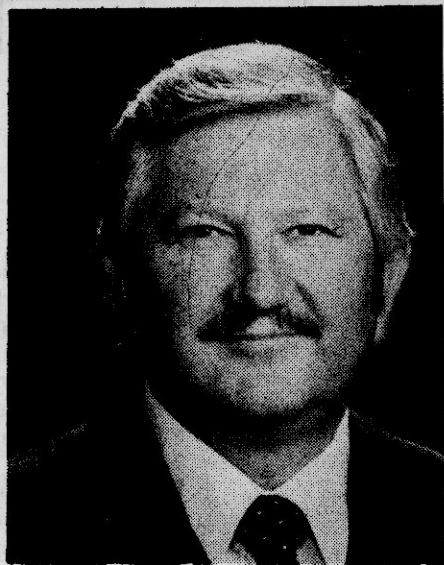

A new beginning was made...but only a partial beginning. Although her husband was willing to forgive her...she was, for many months, unable to receive his forgiveness. She was unable to forgive herself. Her failure as a wife had really seemed unforgivable to her. Now...what does this experience tell us about forgiveness? How can her story help us to understand the dynamics of a crucial need in all of our lives?

1. Forgiveness is a necessity. She became aware that she could not live with the guilt of her misconduct. How often we labor under a load of guilt for our wrongs. Fear, anxiety and lack of direction make our lives miserable when we are victims of unresolved guilt. And only forgiveness can perform the miracle of guilt removal. Forgiveness is a necessity.

2. Forgiveness is available. How often we hesitate to confess our sins because we have been so sinful that we cannot be forgiven. A young...broken-hearted husband demonstrated that where there is love...there is also the power to forgive. It's tragic when we fail to ask, accept and feel this kind of relief...which is available from a God who loves us.

3. Forgiveness is for giving. She finally understood the power of forgiveness when she was challenged to consider the love that it took her husband to forgive. She learned...that there is no power in forgiveness that is not practiced. Forgiveness is for giving! And when it is not given it has no effect. New beginnings became a reality when she gave forgiveness to herself. Guilt was finally overcome. Guilt...Jesus knew and taught...becomes powerless in the face of forgiveness. And he taught that we should forgive without number limit, that is, be as forgiving to others as God is to each of us.

Tax Changes For 1980 Noted

MISSISSIPPI STATE—Several changes that will affect many taxpayers were made in the Income Tax Law that became effective in 1979, says Dr. Johnnie Sartor, agricultural economist, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

Personal exemptions were increased to $1,000 per exemption in 1979. This $1,000 per exemption applies to the taxpayer, the spouse and all dependents. The $1,000 exemption also applies to individuals who are 65 years of age and older and also to persons who are blind.

For example, if a taxpayer is 65 years of age or older, he will qualify for two exemptions amounting to $2,000. If the taxpayer is 65 years of age and also blind, he will qualify for three exemptions for a total of $3,000.

The double and triple exemptions apply only to the taxpayer and spouse; other dependents qualify for only one exemption even though they may be 65 and blind, adds Dr. Sartor.

"The zero bracket amount, formerly known as the standard deduction, increased from $2,200 to $2,300 for a single person and unmarried head of household; from $3,200 to $3,400 for married couples filing joint returns; and from $1,600 to $1,700 for married couples filing separately," he explains. "These increased zero bracket amounts will now make it possible for more taxpayers to file the short form—Form 1040A."

Earned income credits increased to $500 for tax year 1979. Earned income credit is 10 percent of the first $5,000 of earned income which allows a maximum credit of $500. The maximum credit remains the same for earned income form $5,000 to $6,000. Once earned income reaches $6,000, the earned income credit is reduced by 12.5 percent as income increases. The tax credit will be reduced to zero once earned income reaches $10,000.

Persons who maintain a household for a dependent child and have an earned income less than $10,000 may qualify for this earned income credit. Even though a family may not have earned enough money to be required to pay income taxes, if it qualifies for earned income credits, it should file a tax return and receive a refund the same as it would for overpaying taxes.

"The tax changes for tax year 1979 now permit individuals to make more money before they are required by law to file a tax return," says Dr. Sartor. A sizable increase in each category is based on the marital status and age of taxpayers.

Tax credits for political contributions increased 100 percent in 1979. The tax credit will be one-half of the contribution up to a maximum credit of $50 for single persons and $100 for joint returns. In 1978 the taxpayer had the option of claiming political contributions as a tax deduction or tax credit. In 1979 political contributions can be claimed only as a tax credit.

In 1979 taxpayers will pay income taxes on only 40 percent of capital gains. To qualify for capital gains, the property must have been held for at least 12 months at the time of sale.

When a person's automobile or truck is used for business, the standard mileage rate for income tax purposes is now 18.5 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles and 10 cents per mile for all mileage over 15,000. Individuals can use this mileage or use actual expenses which include depreciation, gas, oil, tires and insurance.

Starting in 1979, taxpayers can no longer claim the state and local gasoline taxes as a deduction when tax returns are filed. The general tax credit is no longer available either, points out the economist.

"There are many other minor changes," he adds. "Use qualified professional help or study the available materials before attempting to file your return," he advises.

Quake Center Tells Changes

Dr. Arch Johnston, director of the Tennessee Earthquake Information Center (TEIC) at Memphis State University, has announced two major developments at the Center.

"First of all, the seven station Memphis regional network, which was begun two years ago, is now complete, and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC), the funding agency for the network, has approved the Center's operation for a third year," Dr. Johnston said. "This agency has become the principal source of federal support for seismological research in the eastern United States."

"Secondly, the Center has proposed and been awarded a second NRC contract to set up additional seismic stations to monitor earthquake activity in the East Tennessee region," he said.

The NRC approved the contracts for both networks on a five-year plan, subject to renewal each year. The Memphis network of seismic stations receives an average of $65,000 a year for its operation, and the East Tennessee network was awarded $72,000 for its first year of operation.

The first four seismic stations are expected to be installed in the spring or summer of 1980 in East Tennessee. The network, which will center around Knoxville, will eventually consist of 15 stations, monitoring activity in the eastern part of the state, and around the North Carolina, Georgia and Virginia borders.

"The NRC concurred that this East Tennessee network was essential to accurately locate earthquake activity in that area," Dr. Johnston said. "many faults are located in mountainous regions, such as East Tennessee. The network there will help determine which of those faults are active and which are inactive." Dr. Johnston said that earthquake risks in Middle Tennessee, from around Jackson to the east side of Nashville, are slim.

"The Memphis network covers the area most likely to experience quakes—Northwest Tennessee, Eastern Arkansas and North Mississippi. This region includes the southern portion of the New Madrid seismic zone. One of the main objectives of the Memphis regional network is to determine the southernmost extent of the zone, a fact presently uncertain."

The TEIC began its operation July 1, 1977 with an initial state appropriation of $75,000. It receives a yearly operating budget from the state. Also, federal funds from the NRC have been awarded each year for the continuation of the Center's operation. The Center was established to provide accurate, immediate reports of earthquake activity and to research the causes and consequences of earthquakes.

News From The ASCS

By C.E. CALVERT
County Executive Director

Farmers Urged To "Plant the Best— And Save the Rest"

There will be no set-aside or diversion program next year for cotton, wheat, or feed grains, according to recent announcements by Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland. This means that farmers will not be required to idle acreages of farmland in order to be eligible for price support and other program benefits. This is good news to many farmers who can now plan their 1980 plantings without any acreage restrictions.

Secretary Bergland and other national leaders have expressed strong concerns that farmers not remove "fragile or marginal lands" from conservation as a result of this decision. Accordingly, the Secretary is encouraging all farmers to "plant the best—and save the rest."

Here in Prentiss County, many acres have been put into conservation uses. This has been done at great expense to individual farmers and in many instances with assistance from the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service and other agencies.

Six years ago "under full production" 9 million hard-to-protect acres were plowed up in this nation. As a result, farmers lost an extra 60 million tons of soil from these acres. Many farmers are still trying to cope with the washouts and erosion problems which were caused by putting "fragile lands" into crop uses.

For these reasons, the Prentiss County ASC Committee joins with Secretary Bergland in strongly encouraging farmers of Prentiss County to plant only those acreages which are best suited for crops. Let's not plow up the conservation practices which have been established on the steeper or marginal lands. The long-term conservation problems which could result from putting these acreage to the plow, in many cases will more than offset any short-range profit which might be derived.

Census Bureau Survey Of Farm Energy To Be Taken In January

Report forms for a farm energy survey to provide current data on agricultural energy consumption and needs will be mailed to farmers and ranchers early in January by the Bureau of the Census, U.S.

Department of Commerce.

The survey is a follow-on part of the 1978 Census of Agriculture conducted last year. A sample of 30,000 farm operators was drawn from the nationwide census mail list for the survey.

Data on gasoline, diesel oil, electricity and other energy consumption by farmers will be collected. The survey is being conducted at the request of the U.S. Departments of Agriculture and Energy.

Census Bureau officials say the information requested by the Departments of Energy and Agriculture will provide the basis for timely and adequate distribution of fuel to farmers. Data for 1979 derived from the survey will be published for use by farmer and business organizations, the Congress, and Federal and State Agencies.

Survey questions also will be asked on energy conservation practices and expenditures, fuel sources, crop drying and curing facilities, farm building heating, air conditioning and water heating, acreage owned or leased, crops produced and sold, and sales of livestock, poultry and their products. The data will be published in early 1981, as part of Volume 5, Special Reports of the 1978 Census of Agriculture.

MEETING THE GAS SHORTAGE A LONG TRADITION OF SERVICE

United Gas has a long tradition of meeting problems head-on.

And an even longer tradition of service to the Gulf South.

In the early 40's it pioneered new techniques in bringing gas transmission lines through marshes and across rivers and lakes. It laid down a vast delivery system that formed the base for the Gulf South's industrial expansion.

During the seventies, United Gas was affected by a shortage of natural gas on its system, just as were all major interstate pipelines in the United States. Despite United's on-going program to add new reserves to its system, the problem persisted throughout most of the decade.

Today, availability of natural gas is improving. More is coming ashore from the prolific Gulf. Future supplements to United's supplies lie in other areas of the lower 48 states and in Alaska, Canada and Mexico.

And just as important, because of Congressional action, producers of natural gas are now permitted to charge higher, market-oriented prices for gas delivered into interstate commerce. Because of this new incentive more gas is expected to be available to pipelines like United Gas.

The company's vast gas acquisition effort is another chapter in the story of its commitment to the Gulf South. Today this commitment is stronger than ever.

Home Economist's Notes

Wax on a carpet or rug from a dripping candle should not cause any undue concern as it can be removed. Due to the nature of the wax, it is not essential that it be removed immediately; however, the waxy surface will hold onto dirt and make the spot soil faster and the area will become unsightly.

There are four different methods used to remove wax. Each is effective to a certain degree and each has dangers or drawbacks. The four methods are: scraping, freezing, melting and solvents.

A rounded spoon or the dull back of a dinner knife can be used to scrape over the waxy area. This will shave off some of the wax. If wax is only on the surface, repeated scraping will remove a large portion of the wax. Great care must be taken to prevent cutting and fuzzing of carpet fibers and yarns. The small fibers encased in the wax can be broken or pulled out. Excessive scraping will result in a distorted, fuzzed area. This method is most effective in removing wax on the surface of dense loop pile constructions.

Ice cubes, dry ice and Freon gas may be put in contact with wax in order to freeze it and make it harder. Then the wax is broken into small pieces and pulled out of the carpet. Once again, great care should be used as pulling the wax which encompassed the fibers will produce a lot of unsightly fuzzing. This procedure is most satisfactory for wax just on the surface of very dense constructions; for larger quantities deeper in the pile or a soft textured carpet, it should not be used.

The fastest method of removing wax is to apply heat to melt the wax and, at the same time, absorb the liquid wax out of the pile. This can be accomplished by placing a white paper or cloth towel over the wax and touching the spot with a warm iron. If this is done properly, heat from the iron will melt the wax and, at the same time, it will be picked up by the towel.

To eliminate the possibility of damage to carpet fibers, a low setting on the iron should be used and the iron should always be held in your hand and not placed on the towel. Only the point of the iron should be touched against the towel. The iron should be lifted as soon as the wax melts.

It is easy to tell when wax melts as the point of the iron will sink into the towel and carpet. If the amount of wax is large, the process should be repeated after a clean area of the towel is placed over another portion of the wax.

All of the wax can be removed by this process without fuzzing the pile. As long as the hot iron is not placed on the pile, no damage should occur by this method.

Dry cleaning fluids slowly dissolve candle wax and can be used to remove wax. Many department stores, groceries and carpet dealers sell dry cleaning fluids or solvents which can be used to remove tars, greases and waxes.

Local basketball action will resume tonight beginning at 6 p.m. when the 1979 Booneville Invitational Tournament gets underway to continue through the finals slated for Saturday at the Booneville High School Gym.

Action starts tonight with Booneville and New Site girls going at it at 6 p.m. followed by Baldwin against New Site boys at 7:15 and the finale will see Booneville's Blue Devils clash with Jumpertown at 8:30.

Friday's action kicks off at 7 p.m. with Baldwin's Lady Bearcats meeting Alcorn Central's girls followed by Alcorn Central's boys, who received a bye, facing the Baldwin-New Site winner in the Friday finale at 8:15.

Winners of semi-final action will advance to Saturday's finals which gets underway at 7:00 with the girls championship followed by the boys game at 8:15.

A new champion is assured in the girls bracket since last year's champion Thrasher's Rebelettes will not be around for this year's tournament.

Booneville's Blue Devils will be on hand to defend their title from a year ago in the boys bracket.

The Devils knocked off Thrasher's Rebels 45-41 in last year's championship to take the boys title while Thrasher's Lady Rebels took the girls title with a 51-50 win over the Booneville Devilettes to win the girls crown.

Booneville coach Rickey said he looked for an outstanding tournament this year and added that the event should be more evenly balanced this time around.

Officials for this year's tournament are R.C. Tubbs and Danny Hooker and admission has been set at $1.50 for students and $2.00 for adults.

For the best in high school basketball action, attend the Booneville Invitational Tournament this week.

—Local Independent Team Wins—

OXFORD—Booneville's Independent basketball team took first place honors last week in the finals of the North Oxford Tournament with a 60-37 victory over Amory.

The local team, who has posted a 13-1 overall record this season, defeated Harrisburg 48-36 and Amory again 48-38 to advance to the finals.

Buddy Hall paced the Booneville attack with 19 points in the final game followed by Bryan Lester with 12 and Mark McCoy with 10.

In the Hattisburg contest, Dan Huggins led the Booneville charge with 12 points while Lester followed with 10.

The local team lost only to Jumpertown this year for their only setback.

USM Staff Contracts Extended During December Meeting

JACKSON—Contracts for the athletic director, head football coach, and eight assistant coaches at the University of Southern Mississippi were approved by the College Board during the December meeting.

Athletic director Roland Dale and head football coach Bobby Collins received renewals for three years, beginning January 1, 1980 and ending December 31, 1983.

Dale joined USM as athletic director in 1974. In recommending the new three-year contract for Dale, USM president Aubrey K. Lucas said, "Our athletic program has made great strides under the leadership of Coach Dale. Tremendous improvements have been made in scheduling, and the addition of new sports for both men and women has made our overall program very progressive."

Collins, in his fifth year at USM, has a 30-25-1 record, including a 6-4-1 season in 1979. His teams have won over Mississippi State three consecutive years and have won two of the last three games against Ole Miss. "Coach Collins and his assistants have formed a nucleus of leadership that continues to produce outstanding results in coaching, recruitment, and other phases of the football program," said Lucas.

Eight assistant coaches received one-year contracts. The assistants and number of years on the Golden Eagle staff are as follows: Jeff Bower, three; Jim Carmody, three; Ron Cheatham, five; Bill Clay, three; Thames Coleman, three; Whitey Jorday, eight; P.J. "Bootsie" Larsen, two; and Milo McCarthy, six.

Happy New Year

RECENT ACTION—Action like this will return to full form tonight when the Booneville Invitational Tournament gets underway along with a host of area regular season action.

"BACK" TO ACTION—Yes, basketball season kicks again tonight for the second half of the 1979-80 season. The roundball campaign has been delayed due to the Holidays but will now return to full form.

attack; Anthony Anderson had 21 and Collin Billingsley made 10.

Lambert's Entry Wins At Ripley

RIPLEY—Cecil Lambert of Booneville had the first place entry in the annual Dixieland Beagle Club's Dr. J.T. Alston Memorial Two Couple Pack Trials here Saturday.

This is the oldest beagle event in the state.

Fourth went to D.A. Childs of Ripley.

Eight packs competed, each working 15 minutes during the competition.

Next beagling event in the neighborhood is the Natchez Trace Beagle Club's AKC licensed event on Jan. 5-6-7-8.

Cage Campaign Returns To Full Swing

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

Area basketball teams are taking a few weeks off for the Christmas Holidays but will return to action in early January. The area schools just completed a host of games scheduled during the early part of the season including a number of tournament contests.

Thrasher's Rebels appears to be the top boys team in the area as they continue to dominate league competition and remains unbeaten through the first three months of the season.

Booneville's Lady Blue Devils have improved greatly and would have to be considered the best possible choice in the girls bracket.

The Lady Devils, under head coach Rickey Ford, had some early problems but overcame those and just recently took the County's top girls position with a first place victory in the Prentiss County event.

A few tournaments remain after the holidays for some of our county teams. Among those are the Booneville Invitational and the Tombigbee Tournament which both are tabbed as two of the best in the North Mississippi area.

Playoffs are not that far away and it's time to start thinking slightly about what our chances are to advance to higher competition.

Thrasher's Rebels, under newly elected head coach Jacky Rowsey, looks to be a solid choice to represent this area with the best record and folks, from what I've seen of the Rebels, they appear to be just as good as their record indicates.

We don't want to leave out any of our teams. All of the County teams have improved greatly since the season started and I think we have more balance this year than ever before. Booneville, Thrasher, Jumpertown, New Site, Wheeler and Baldwin in both the boys and girls brackets, have some top notch athletes and coaches and believe me, come playoff time, our area teams are going to give'em fits.

ONE OF THE BEST TEAMS

To pick a best team in the state so to speak, would be a hard task since the season is still in the early stages and some two months still remain on the schedule. But from where I stand, Tupelo's Golden Wave is one of the better teams in the area and are definitely going to be the team to beat in 1980.

I've seen them play a couple of times and they are an aggressive and a well coached basketball team and appears to be headed for a state playoff berth.

What makes them so good? They are scrappy and they play an aggressive brand of basketball. In one of the games I saw them play, they completed a number of fast breaks effectively and had more steals than Lou Brock of the St. Louis Cardinals.

I think if any of our County basketball beats the Golden Wave, then they can honestly say they are a great basketball team.

County Has Good Fan Support

In most of the games played in the first few months of the basketball season, our Prentiss County fans have turned out in droves in support of their favorite team and we don't want to put a damper in this after the second half gets underway.

As stated earlier, several tournaments remain in the latter part of the roundball season along with a host of regular season games and top support is needed for a winning season.

So remember your favorites and keep up the good work.

Northeast Junior College Teams Improving Also

Yes the Northeast Mississippi Junior College Tigers and Tigerettes are improving greatly with every game also and the two new roundball executives, Noel Akins, in men's basketball and Millard Lothenore in the ladies bracket, are doing an outstanding job with the two squads.

Both the Tigers and Tigerettes have shown that they can play with just about anyone and they're going to hold their own for the remainder of the season as well.

Both the NE men and women play an exciting type of basketball (run and gun) and the local fans have plenty to cheer about when they attend the Northeast games.

Joke of the Week

Two guys meet. One says, "Golly Tom, I haven't seen you in years. Gosh, you've changed. You used to be fat, now you're skinny; you used to have hair, now you're bald; you never had a moustache, now you have a moustache; you were short, but now you seem taller—Gee whiz, how you've changed Tom!"

The other guy says, "But my name isn't Tom!"

And the first guy replies, "Oh! You've changed your name too?"

Duck Stamps Must Be Signed

JACKSON—The Mississippi Department of Wildlife Conservation is reminding waterfowl hunters that one easy way to avoid a costly citation is to sign their state and federal duck stamps.

The $2 state stamp is required by anyone hunting waterfowl in the state between the ages of 16 and 65. A $7.50 federal duck stamp is required by waterfowl hunters 16 years of age and older.

According to bureau of fisheries and wildlife director Benny Herring, agency law enforcement officers have been writing an excessive number of tickets because of unsigned stamps. The minimum fine for any game or fish violation is $25.

Devils, Devilettes Drop Walnut Twice

WALNUT—Booneville's Blue Devils and Devilettes continued their winning ways here last Saturday night with a two game sweep over Walnut in cage action held at the Walnut High School Gym.

The Devilettes, who continue to improve with every game, took a 52-16 win over Walnut's girls while the Devils, who just keep on winning, stopped Walnut's Wildcats 70-69 in the nightcap.

Diane Harris led the Devilette scoring brigade with 16 points on the night while Tina Gardner and Debbie Brooks counted 10 points each. Linda Rutherford netted eight for Walnut.

In nightcap action, Bill Groves paced the Blue Devil scoring column with 22 points on the night while Cris Williams followed with 17.

Dave McMillian led all scorers with 26 points for Walnut.

In girl's action, Booneville Walnut had a 33-20 margin at the intermission.

Buskirk Ranks Second In Region Seven Assists

Northeast's Mark Buskirk, a 6'0 freshman performer from

Ingoma currently ranks second in assists in the Region Seven Standings of the National Junior College

Athletic Association according to a press release from the Region Seven committee.

Buskirk has some 84 assists and hold the second place tilt with a 8.4 per game average.

The talented Ingomar performer, one of the contributing players of the 1977-78 Falcon State Championship squad, has a personal goal in trying for some eight assists per ball game.

Northeast Tiger head coach Noel Akins said he was pleased with Buskirk's goal. "This gives some extra desire in all our ballgames," Akins said. "I like it when a guy like Buskirk has a personal goal to achieve."

"Buskirk is a talented player," Akins continued. "He is an overall player that can do several things with the basketball."

Buskirk ranks second behind Steve Herzog of Hiwassee who holds the number one spot with a 9.1 assists per game average.

Buskirk holds the edge over the Hiwassee star with 84 assists to Herzog's 82 but falls just shy of the per game average.

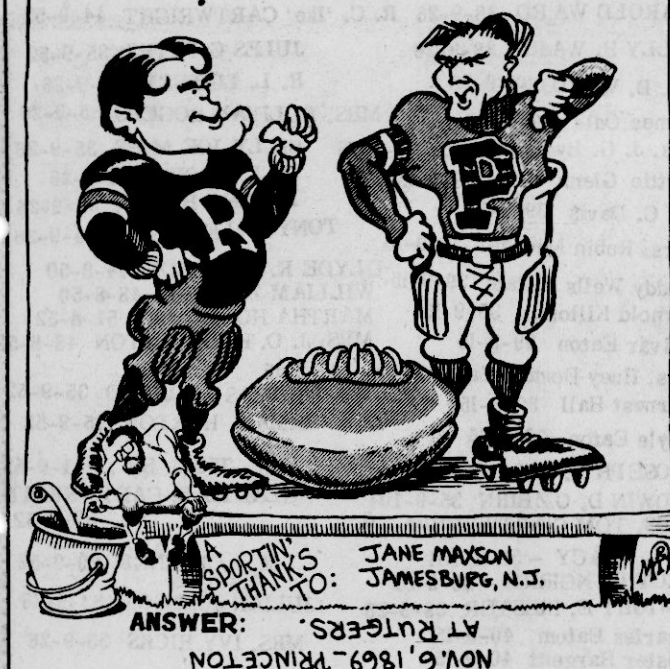

In other news from the Region Seven Committee, (release dated Dec. 12.) Northeast ranks 15th in overall standings and holds the 19 spot, out of 29 teams, in scoring averaging some 80.8 points per game.

Hiwassee holds both the top spots in standings with an undefeated 9-0 mark and ranks first in scoring with a 100.9 point per game average.

The Tigers also rank 13th in defensive starts allowing opponents 79.4 points per game falling behind the number one defensive team in the Region Seven, Prentiss Institute who holds the top spot with a 67.9 average.

A GOOD ROOF IS AN IMPORTANT FACTOR IN THE PROTECTION OF YOUR BUILDING INVESTMENT. YOUR ROOF REPRESENTS ABOUT THREE PERCENT OF YOUR BUILDING INVESTMENT, YET IT'S VALUE IS OUT OF ALL PROPORTION TO IT'S COST, FOR A ROOF ACTS AS A GUARDIAN OF YOUR BUILDING AND ALL CONTENTS. DAY AFTER DAY, YEAR AFTER YEAR, IT MUST PROTECT AGAINST RAINS, SNOW, CUTTING SLEET, EXPANDING ICE AND BLISTERING HEAT. JUST AS YOU TAKE INVENTORY OF ANY POSSESSION PERIODICALLY, SO YOU SHOULD CHECK UP ON YOUR ROOF. LET US EXAMINE YOUR ROOF FREE OF CHARGE. WE MIGHT FIND THAT IT'S IN GOOD CONDITION READY FOR MANY YEARS OF SERVICE. WE MIGHT FIND DEFECTS THAT CAN EASILY BE REMEDIED, BUT WHICH, IF NEGLECTED MIGHT SOON DANGEROUSLY WEAKEN YOUR ROOF.

Security Advice

By Robert L. Bigsby
Certified Locksmith

What is the most 'Cost Effective' way of securing an Average door?

A tubular deadbolt lock with a one inch throw used with a passage latch, will give you the best security for the least amount of money. Security-wise, nothing can beat a deadbolt lock, properly installed, on a strong door, with an equally strong door frame, for the money involved.

The knob operated latch, which has no locking function, is used to hold the door closed while a key is used to operate the deadbolt. With this arrangement, you only use one lock, one key and cannot get locked out accidentally, because you must have the key in your hand to lock the door. Most key-in-the-knob locks, on the other hand, lock by simply closing the door, often with keys left inside.

If both a deadbolt lock and a key-in-the-knob lock is used together, people will often use the more familiar, but practically worthless, key-in-the-knob lock, reserving the secure deadbolt lock for extended absences.

For a small charge, locks made by the same manufacturer, can be keyed alike, allowing one key to operate both locks, but you still have two locks to open and close, when only one lock is really needed. If the locks are made by different manufacturers, you'll have two different keys to keep up with.

A 5/8 inch throw, (how far the locking bar extends from the lock) deadbolt locks sells for about the same price as the superior one inch design.

How Can You Lower Your Grocery Bill?

Jitney Jungle

Buy Our Brands!

Cut The Cost Without Cutting Quality.

If you're searching for a way to save money and still be proud of the meals you serve your family, discover our own brands. The Topco symbol on the label assures you of the finest quality. All our products are processed under our careful supervision, with strict quality specifications, field quality control, constant laboratory inspection, and kitchen testing. If it meets our standards, it'll meet yours.

We guarantee the quality, but we sell our brands for less. How? By buying in large quantities. By purchasing direct from the source. By lowering the costs of distribution, since our brands are shipped direct to our own warehouse without a "middle man." By eliminating the cost of expensive national advertising.

If you aren't buying our brands, you may be paying too much.

National Brands

Your favorite nationally advertised brands enjoy their popularity because they are products of very high quality. They taste good and look appetizing. But they may not be the best buy for your budget, because national advertising is very expensive. Our own brands give you the same high quality without the same expense.

Our Own Brands

For fine quality plus outstanding value, we recommend that you try our brands.

Our Food Club, Top Frost, Top Fresh, and Topco

brands are "as good as the best but cost a lot less." And, for the extra-thrifty shopper, the Gaylord brand is an even more economical buy. For consistent quality at consistent savings, count on our brands.

Compare The Quality!

Prove it To Yourself!

Buy one or more of the national brand items listed on this page...we'll sell you our own comparable brand for half as much!

1/2 Price!

TEST IT YOURSELF IN YOUR OWN HOME...
