Armed Robbery Monday Night At Local Service Station

Local and state law enforcement agencies are presently looking for suspects involved in an armed robbery Monday night at the Savings Service Station (formerly the Royal Service Station) on Highway 45 North in Booneville.

Police Chief W.W. Stacy said the robbery occurred about 9:45 Monday night. As the last car pulled out of the station, five or six black males pulled into the station in what was identified only as "an old blue car."

The occupants of the car bought some gas and one of them came to the attendant, Wester Hargett, apparently to pay for it.

While Hargett was making change, the man pulled what Hargett said looked to be a .25-caliber pistol and pushed it into his face, officers said. The man demanded that Hargett open the safe, Stacy said, but Hargett told him that he could not open it. The man then forced Hargett to lie down on the floor while he cleaned out the cash register. He pulled the telephone loose from the wall and left, with Hargett still on the floor.

When Hargett got up, he saw the blue car turning west on George E. Allen Drive, the police chief said.

Chief Stacy said the city Police Department, the Prentiss County Sheriff's Office and the Mississippi Highway Patrol set up road blocks in the area but were unable to turn up the suspects.

"We had very little identification to go on," he said.

Hargett apparently saw only one of the men up close.

He was said to have his hair in "corn rows," according to one report. Stacy said the man reportedly had pink ribbons in his hair.

Hargett was alone at the station when the incident occurred, Stacy said. "The last customer had just pulled out," he said.

The investigation into the incident is continuing, he added.

Eight Charged In Drug Raids

A series of drug raids last week by the Booneville Police Department and the Prentiss County Sheriff's Department resulted in the arrests of eight persons who were subsequently charged with possession of controlled substances.

The Booneville Police

Department raided a house at 505 Adams Street Saturday afternoon and arrested six of the occupants on felony charges of possession of Class 2 drugs with intent to resale, according to law officers.

According to records at the Prentiss County Sheriff's Office, those arrested were Mike Keller, 27, and his wife Margaret Keller, 19, both of 505 Adams Street; Tim Keller, 20, and Kevin Keller, 22, both of 101 Adams Street; Kenny Goddard, 19, of North Road, Booneville; and Arnold Tory Seawright, 22, of 202 Davis Street, Ripley.

Police Chief W.W. Stacy said that approximately $3,000 worth (street value) of Class 2 drugs were confiscated during the raid on the home. "Several were flushed down the commode," he added.

Stacy said the raid on the Adams Street residence came after the police department received a tip about activity at the location. However, he said the police department had been watching the residence for some time.

All six of those arrested were charged with possession, he said. Kevin Keller was also charged with destroying evidence.

Stacy said that beer and wine were also discovered during the raid, along with marijuana pipes, roaches and paraphernalia.

Stacy said the six arrested were booked, placed in the city jail, and later turned over to District II Justice Court Judge Dexter Cadle, who set bond at $5,000 each.

Stacy said the six will have a hearing and, if the hearing warrants, will be turned over to the grand jury.

All six are reportedly out on bond at this time.

In addition to Chief Stacy, Booneville officers participating in the raid were Capt. Bill Ingram, Sgt. Larry Finger, and patrolmen Jerry Barnes, Joe Whitehead and Steve Bell. Stacy said state narcotics agents also assisted.

In another raid Saturday night by the Prentiss County Sheriff's Department assisted by the Booneville

Thanksgiving Through Younger Eyes

Mrs. Veda Southward, teacher at the Booneville Middle School, recently asked her classes to write stories about the first Thanksgiving. Printed below are the ones selected to represent each class.

GIVING THANKS By TRACEY BURNS Fifth Grade

Long ago Pilgrims came to America. They were happy and thankful. So they had a day and they called it Thanksgiving.

One thing they were thankful for was a good harvest. They had pumpkin pie and corn and lots of other stuff.

Now on Thanksgiving, think of all the people that were on the Mayflower and before you eat a bite of turkey, remember the people that first came to America.

THANKSGIVING DAY By BILLY WILEMON Sixth Grade

Once upon a time there were some Pilgrims on a ship called the Mayflower. They settled from England to America.

When they got to America they went exploring. There were Indians in America. The Indians helped them plant their crops. At harvest time they picked corn, pumpkins and killed some turkey.

The women made pumpkin pie and roast turkey. When all the food was on the table, the Pilgrims gave thanks for their food. They ate corn, pumpkin pie, turkey and deer. So that's how it became Thanksgiving Day.

City's Special Election Changed To Dec. 27

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

The date of the special election to fill the seat vacated by the recent death of Booneville Alderman J.W. Timbes has been changed from Thursday, Dec. 30, as reported last week to Saturday, Dec. 27, in order to comply with apparently conflicting statutes which govern such elections.

Section 21-11-9 of the Mississippi Code of 1972 says, "At least 30 days notice of such election shall be given." However, Section 21-11-11 of the same Code says the election shall be held in not less than 21 days, nor more than 30 days, according to City Attorney Eugene Gifford.

This apparently means the election can only be held on one day which will satisfy both statutes—30 days from the publication of the legal notice by the city (excluding the date of publication), Gifford said.

"This would not cause any problem in a city with a daily newspaper," Gifford pointed out Monday.

With a daily newspaper, the city could publish the first notice on any day of the week they wished and the election would fall on the pre-determined date 30 days later. However, in a city with a weekly newspaper, the day of publication automatically sets the day of the election.

Gifford said he talked to the State Attorney General's office Monday and Assistant Attorney General S.E. Birdsong helped him work out the procedure to follow.

"We checked it out," Gifford said, "and to reconcile the two statutes, this procedure has to be followed."

Gifford said Birdsong told him this problem has come up in other communities recently. He said the Assistant Attorney General told him the Attorney General's office plans to suggest a legislative amendment to clear up the problem in the future.

As of press time Tuesday, one candidate had qualified to run for the Alderman-at-large post. City Clerk June Hutcheson said Willie D. "Dice" Jumper has qualified to run in the special election.

Mrs. Hutcheson pointed out that today (Wednesday) is the last day to register to vote in the election. In order to be eligible to vote, city residents must have been registered at least 30 days prior to the election, she said.

Candidates in the special election are required to qualify at least 10 days before the election in the same manner as if the election were a general election.

According to Section 21-11-9 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, if nine days prior to the

Regional Project

EDUCATION—Joyce Johnston, a Health Educator with the District II State Board of Health, was at New Site High School Friday to present a program to students. Ms. Johnston and other Health Educators are visiting schools in both the Booneville and the Prentiss County school systems as part of a project designed to lower the state's infant mortality rate. Mississippi has the second highest infant mortality rate in the nation. This means the newborn baby has less chance of surviving to the age of one.

High Infant Mortality Rate Fought Through Education

The state of Mississippi has the second highest infant death rate in the United States exceeded only by Washington, D.C.

This means that infants born in Mississippi are more likely to die before they reach one year of age than infants born in any other state.

At least one attempt is currently being made to reduce the state's infant death rate. (An infant is defined as a child up to one year of age.)

As part of a project sponsored by the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Appalachian Regional Commission, and the District II State Board of Health, three Health Educators—Joy Purcell, Joyce Johnston and Gail Cherry—will be covering the Prentiss County area in an effort to provide education, stimulate local awareness and to give information to schools, civic organizations, churches and other local groups regarding infant mortality.

A recent study by the ARC targeted 16 counties in Appalachia Mississippi because their infant mortality rate is significantly higher than the national average. Prentiss County is one of the 16.

One of the most cited reasons for the high mortality rate is the great number of teen-age mothers. In 1977 Prentiss County recorded four births to mothers under 15 years of age and 85 births to mothers 15-19 years of age.

Statewide, 12,500 women under the age of 14 became pregnant in 1975. The death rate for mothers in that age group is 60 percent higher than that of mothers in their 20s. Also, the infants of these young mothers stand a greater risk of low birthweight and birth defects.

Causes of infant mortality are numerous, but the most common causes cited are low birthweight and birth defects.

In Mississippi, more than 2,500 infants per year are born with physical or mental damage, resulting in Mississippians paying more money per capita than any other state in the nation in caring for physically or mentally handicapped individuals.

The estimated cost of caring for mentally or physically handicapped individuals can be as high as $400,000 in state institutions.

Mississippi's infant death rate is also affected by

To Fraud Charges

MAP Area Director Pleads Not Guilty

The director of the Prentiss County Head Start Program pled not guilty recently to charges of conspiring to defraud the federal government, according to published reports last week.

Tommy Travis Palmer of Booneville, along with Malcolm D. Guyton of Corinth, another area Head Start director, and Jackson businessman Harold M. Foreman, was arraigned in federal court in Jackson two weeks ago. The three men were indicted Oct. 31 on charges of conspiring to defraud the federal government and of making false claims to an agency of the federal government.

All three men pled not guilty Thursday, Nov. 13, and were released following their arraignments on $1,000 recognizance bonds.

The indictments were reportedly a part of a statewide investigation into alleged corruption in the federally funded meals program operated by Mississippi Action for Progress.

The indictments by the federal grand jury charges that Guyton and Foreman conspired to "falsely represent that certain food items had been delivered to MAP Area Nine." The indictment alleges that not all of the $13,061 worth of food reported to have been bought by Guyton for the centers was delivered. Guyton reportedly purchased the food from Foreman's Skywood Wholesale Foods.

Foreman is also under indictment for allegedly overstating the amount of food delivered to Palmer between July 1977 and June 1978. Palmer reportedly purchased $17,405 worth of food from Foreman's Jackson business during the period.

Guyton heads the Head Star centers in Alcorn, Tiptah and Tishomingo counties. Palmer is in charge of the Head Start Centers in Prentiss, Itawamba and Union counties.

Also reportedly included in the statewide investigation is Irvin Moore Jr. of Philadelphia. He was indicted on conspiracy to defraud charges in August and October.

City Tax Collections Still Below Last Year

Sales tax collections for Booneville continued to drop during October as compared to the same period one year ago, according to figures from State Tax Commission Chairman A.C. "Butch" Lambert.

The figures show that Booneville reported total tax collections of $37,324 for the month of October 1980. For October 1979, the city reported collections of $39,646.

However, statewide tax collections (sales and income taxes) for the year, which began July 1, are up more than nine percent compared to last year.

In his monthly report, Lambert said the state's collections so far this year total more than $443.5 million. Last year, revenue of $406.5 million was reported during the corresponding period.

Collections during the month of October totaled more than $116.1 million statewide, compared with $105.2 collected during October 1979.

The state's sales and income tax provided the largest amount of October revenue for the state, Lambert said. Sales tax collections totaled $55.5 million, compared to $49.2 a year ago. Income tax collections totaled $20.3 million, compared to $19.6 million a year ago.

Collections for the state's general fund, following disbursements, totaled more than $304.4 million so far this year. This compared with collections of $266.9 during the same period a year ago.

Following are some of the municipal collections from selected cities in the state. The 1979 figures are shown in parenthesis.

Amory $52,605 ($45,494); Baldwyn $17,524 ($18,044); Booneville $37,324 ($39,646); Corinth $96,207 ($106,518); Fulton $21,975 ($26,616); Holly Springs $35,932 ($31,270); Iuka $25,150 ($24,822); Jackson $1,431,880 ($1,080,655); Kosciusko $46,571 ($45,054); Laurel $289,323 ($204,801);

Meridian $331,940 ($300,597); New Albany $50,601 ($44,471); Okolona $13,625 ($12,185); Oxford $82,230 ($78,643); Pontotoc $34,277 ($35,460); Ripley $32,107 ($31,030); Senatobia $36,255 ($36,687); Tupelo $276,587 ($239,444); West Point $44,190 ($45,198).

State's Unemployment Rate Remains Constant

Mississippi's unemployment rate for October remained the same as September's 6.8 percent jobless rate, according to Mississippi Employment Security Commission Executive Director O.H. Simmons. Last year's October unemployment rate was 5.1 percent.

The 6.8 percent for the state was lower than the national rate of 7.1 percent for October. MESC figures showed 69,900 unemployed and 965,000 employed out of a civilian labor force of 1,034,900. The initial Unemployment Insurance claims totaled 18,493 for October.

The counties having the highest unemployment rates were Alcorn, with a rate of 13.2 percent; Jefferson Davis, with a rate of 12.8 percent; and Jefferson, with a rate of 12.5 percent.

Rankin, Issaquena, Lafayette, Oktibbeha, and Yalobusha counties had the lowest jobless rates for October. Rankin had a rate of 3.8 percent, Issaquena, Lafayette, and Oktibbeha had a rate of 4.1, and Yalobusha had an unemployment rate of 4.3 percent.

Forty of the state's 82 counties showed an increase in their unemployment rates for October, while thirty-six counties reported decreases. The jobless rate in six counties remained the same.

State's Fuel Prices Increase

Fuel prices dropped slightly in Louisiana for the third month in a row, while in Mississippi a small increase is reported, according to the American Automobile Association.

Information gathered by AAA in its monthly Fuel Gauge Survey of more than 250 stations also indicates that availability of fuel in both states remains more than adequate for the upcoming Thanksgiving holidays. No shortages are expected in either state during the next four weeks.

In Louisiana, the average cost of gas is $1.214 per gallon, a drop of .4 cents a gallon since last month. In Mississippi, the average price is $1.318, an increase of .7 cents per gallon. In the survey done last month (October), a Mississippi's prices went down by .6 cents per gallon and Louisiana's decreased by .2 cents.

Nationally, the average cost of gasoline was $1.257 per gallon, the same as last month. Fuel supplies throughout the nation for the holiday and the next four weeks are expected to be good. No shortages were reported along major U.S.

travel routes or in major cities.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, In Heb. 11, I read the phrase "By faith"; what does this include?

WARD HOGLAND

ANSWER: The answer is found in Hebrews eleven itself. It is a chapter on saving faith. The text says, "By faith Abel-offered. By faith Enoch-walked. By faith Noah-prepared (the ark). By faith Abraham-obeyed. By faith the children of Israel-crossed the Red Sea. In the case of Abel justification included the offering of his sacrifice. In the example of Enoch, it included his life of walking with God. In the statement about Noah, he obtained the righteousness, which is by faith, when he prepared the ark as God had commanded. In the case of Abraham it specifically states that he obeyed Cod. "By faith" means to do what God has commanded. The Lord has said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." So we must have enough faith to be baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38).

Following the shooting, local authorities have been called back to the house twice due to reports off breaking and entering at the home.

However, officers said this week that the first reported breakin, which was reported a few days after the shooting, was a false alarm. They said one of the Brinkleys' sons had been in the house, not an intruder.

In the other incident, Brinkley (the father) reported this past weekend (Saturday) that some windows in the house had been broken out. Prentiss County Deputy Jack Terrell said Monday that he and Sheriff John McCauley investigated the incident, but found nothing inside the house disturbed.

'Cuban' Robbery Attempt Foiled By 70-Year-Old

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

Richardson Grocery, on Osborne Creek Road about 6 p.m. Thursday, walking the short distance to their house. As they approached the house, the daughter went ahead.

When she got on the porch, she heard a strange mumbling sound and turned around and ran back.

Mrs. Richardson said she asked her daughter, "Oh, is there someone at the house?" she replied, "There's someone mumbling there." "I listened and I said, 'Oh, that's just those little ole puppies of Hoyle Eaton's (a neighbor),' " Mrs. Richardson said.

Mrs. Richardson said the sound started coming closer and suddenly a man stepped out into the road. He had a mask over his head and a gun in his hand.

Mrs. Richardson said, "You better get yourself away from here." He just kept on mumbling incoherently.

She said, "Just who are you anyhow?" In a funny accent he said, "I'm a Cuban, Cuban."

"When he said that, I told my daughter, 'Let's go back to the store,'" Mrs. Richardson said.

"Go to the store; go to the store," the man said.

"No we won't go to the store," Mrs. Richardson said, "We'll go across over there to that house and call the law to you." But she knew there was no one at home at that house.

"I didn't know what on earth I was going to do," Mrs. Richardson said. "I thought the Eatons might be out with their dogs or something, so I screamed real loud and hollered 'Help! Help!'" The man ran up to her.

He must have thought she had a gun, she said, because "I kept threatening him and telling him 'Don't you come no closer.'"

The man threw his arms up "like he was afraid I was going to shoot him." His elbow hit the box Mrs. Richardson was carrying and tilted it. He grabbed the box.

"When he pulled one way, I pulled the other," she said. He finally managed to get the box away from Mrs.

Richardson, but not before most of the contents had spilled out.

"He didn't wait to pick up anything," Mrs. Richardson said. He ran off into the woods.

Mrs. Richardson and her daughter picked up the spilled contents after the man was gone. All he got for his trouble was some scrap paper, she said.

Mrs. Richardson said that at no time did the man actually point the gun at her or her daughter, nor did he ever actually touch either of them.

However, Mrs. Richardson does have one loss as a result of the incident. "I had a dozen eggs and they were pretty well smashed in the road," she said.

The incident is currently under investigation by the Prentiss County Sheriff's Department. Mrs. Richardson said the officers do not believe the man was really a Cuban.

Aletha Lodge Review Rescheduled For Dec.

A review scheduled for Thursday of last week of an application for the purchase of stock of the Aletha Lodge Nursing Home in Booneville has been tabled until next month so that further information can be obtained.

A Louisiana physician, Dr. Prentiss Smith of Baton Rouge, has filed the application to purchase the stock from NuCare Inc., the present owners at an estimated cost of $477,900. In other action at their Nov. 20 meeting, the board of directors of the Mississippi Health Systems Agency Inc. approved an application for the construction of a new $364,000 Alcorn County Health Center. It is to be funded partially with county funds and partially with a Public Health Services Grant (Hill-Burton).

Twelve health care applications from around the state were reviewed at the meeting.

Eight Charged

Edwin W. Keeler Sr., 54, of 101 Adams Street, was arrested by county officers in another raid earlier in the week on similar charges.

Chief Stacy also said Monday that quite a few attempts are being made to pass forged prescriptions at local drugstores. He said that last weekend Cynthia Byars, approximately 21, of Birmingham, Ala., was arrested in Booneville in connection with a forged prescription. He said she was charged and sent to a state hospital in Birmingham.

The Police Chief said state narcotics agents are helping to work on cases involving forged prescriptions.

Prentiss County Deputies Jack Terrell and Hubert Kitchen said that the recent raids by city and county law enforcement agencies are part of a series of continuing raids planned.

"The county and the city are working together to try to hat the drugs that are flowing through the city and the county," Stacy said.

Dump Henson Move Underway

By BILL MINOR
Columnist

JACKSON, Miss.—Although the evidence is still in the speculative stage, this column is convinced that Mississippi's Republicans are planning to dump Cong. Jon Hinson and find a new horse to run for the Fourth Congressional District seat two years from now.

Some well-placed Republicans in both the arch-conservative Reagan wing of the Mississippi GOP, as well as the more moderate wing which largely controls the state party machinery, are privately letting the word out that they expect the new two-year term to which Hinson was just re-elected to be his last.

Evidently, the shock of the stunning disclosures about Hinson's past life which closely linked him to homosexual behavior has just fully set in with some of his backers who more or less were left with no alternative than to stick with him in the Nov. 4 general election in order to keep the Congressional seat in Republican hands.

"He came out with these things about his past life after the Republican primary and we couldn't do anything about it...this time," one leading Republican figure told this column. "But next time we can," he added.

Even though Hinson managed to win re-election in a three-way race this time, Republican strategists saw enough evidence in the Nov. 4 returns that questions about Hinson's personal life can be a liability in the next go-around if the Democrats field any sort of a formidable candidate.

Particularly the Republican leadership realize if the black Democrats reconcile themselves to the idea that fielding a black independent is futile and join a coalition to back the white

Democratic candidate, Hinson's apparent loss of a significant base of white voters over the homosexual question would make it impossible for him to survive in 1982.

On the surface, at least, some of Hinson's biggest initial financial backers such as Jackson oilman Billy Mounger, aren't saying if they are thinking about dumping Hinson.

Mounger will admit now that Hinson's admissions in August regarding two homosexually related incidents in which Hinson was involved around the Washington area a couple of years back left him "dead neutral for about three weeks." But Mounger later again rallied behind the young conservative congressman.

Still, Mounger has intimated to some that he is now going to concern himself with other aspects of Hinson's career than just his voting record.

State Republican

Chairman Mike Retzer, who also had rallied behind Hinson following the August disclosures, is said to have private doubts that Hinson can any longer be an effective representative of the Republican Party.

When Hinson told a reporter following the Nov. 4 election that he may write a book about his bizarre experiences in the political arena, Retzer told one source that the GOP congressman might be "encouraged" to do just that, but not as an officeholder.

Meantime, it has been learned that state Republican leaders have already begun some small strategy sessions to plan on how and what campaigns will be funded the next three years, and where the GOP will place its greatest emphasis.

The main GOP push, it now appears, will be for a United States Senate seat of Democratic Sen. John C. Stennis in 1982, and the governor's office in 1983. Where the future of Jon Hinson fits into those plans hasn't been made clear. But some sources close to the planning of the Republican course in Mississippi during the upcoming Reagan years indicate Hinson is not part of that picture.

Obviously, the most critical way the Republican Party could deliver the message to Hinson that he was being put off the team would be to withdraw campaign funding from him, as was done in the case of Cong. Robert Bauman in Maryland recently. Even the, Bauman polled 48 percent of the vote while losing his re-election bid.

A political drama would unfold here should Hinson decide to buck the tide of a GOP dumping move two years from now and seek re-election on his own. Incumbency is still a strong drawing card for a congressman in Mississippi, and by then Hinson could be too entrenched to oust.

State Farmers Count On Reagan

By ED BLAKE
Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation

ON CHANGING THE HANDLE

A bit of back forty philosophy concerning broken farm implements is in order now that a lot of U.S. citizens apparently have felt that their government has broken down in its ability to perform in the modern world as compared with the past.

Farmers have a way of putting pithy wisdom into easy-to-understand terms which reminds us of an old rural axiom that would advise the inexperienced woodsman not to throw away the axe when the handle becomes broken—but to replace the handle.

A rather large proportion of Mississippi farmers went against tradition in the recent landslide election of President-elect Ronald Reagan as though they felt our government had lost its cutting edge and its handle in the form of the Presidency and needed replacement.

Their disenchantment with a declining status quo had been evident for some time. Not since 1972 have Mississippi farmers had what could be considered a reasonable profitable crop year. Of course government was only partly to blame at first; moreso later on. Floods commencing in parts of the state during the '72 harvest were the harbinger of worse things to come. The Mississippi-Yazoo basin flood of 1973 was critical for a lot of lower delta producers—an act that has been repeated to alarming degrees each year since then.

In fact some farmers have felt that government actions through the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers have compounded their problems more than they have alleviated them, and the authority and policies of that government arm inflicted some wounds that have been hard to heal regardless of party politics.

Grain embargoes under both the Republicans and Democrats have hurt farmers. And today while strategists may argue that the hurt to farmers is worth it just so long as you can hurt the Russians too, this philosophy is no balm to farmers whose fortunes have crumbled significantly during the past decade in the face of double digit inflation and crippling regulations that most of them deem excessive and beyond the intent of Congress due to their proliferation by bureaucrats unanswerable to the people.

While Carter's background was solidly southern agricultural, his Administration often belied that in the minds of farmers by the hundreds of thousands across the South and nation.

Farmers were well represented among those who helped cast away the old government handle, and they too are on the spot today whipping out their drawknives to fashion a tight fit for the new one before a new farm program is fashioned.

The new handle, their policies would indicate, should be used to provide the political leverage needed to whack off government excesses in bureaucracy and politically inspired giveaway programs for the masses. One shouldn't be surprised if they carved the trademark 'austerity for all' on the new handle as a reminder to keep on swinging even when the chips begin to fly hardest in the direction of the chopper.

American pioneers were skilled at using the axe or adze, a similar instrument, for shaping logs—bevelled or squared—for a tight fit so the construction would withstand all manner of pestilence.

As the new administration starts trimming the new national budget—even as the bark, knots and softwood begin to fly—it appears that President-elect Reagan will have no small measure of the popular regard of Lincoln, another handyman with an axe, as far as a lot of affected farm people are concerned.

Cheaper To Repair Roads Than Tolerate Their Poor Condition

Mississippi motorists, reacting to the climbing cost of motor fuel and to the wavering availability of world oil supplies, are doing our best to use less gasoline. We are driving more fuel efficient cars at slower speeds; we are depending on public transit when we can; we are carpooling to save fuel. But, we are ignoring one of the largest sources of fuel waste in the state: our worn and obsolete roads.

A recent study by The Road Information Program (TRIP) showed that about one third of Mississippi's main roads are rated "substandard" by national engineering criteria. Driving on those worn roads causes Mississippi motorists to waste 214 million gallons of gas, worth $279 million, every year.

Bad roads waste fuel in several ways: Uneven road surfaces prevent good traction and cause repeated acceleration and deceleration. Potholes, ruts and bumps require stops and starts. Roads that are old and narrow create traffic jams. All are serious wasters of fuel.

But there is a surprising solution to the problem: the cost to repair Mississippi roads is cheaper than the cost of tolerating them.

The cost of repairing our substandard roads is estimated at $202 million per year, over ten years, or $125 per driver. But, driving on these roads now wastes $279 million per year in fuel alone, or $170 per driver.

To put it into perspective, we burn one dollar for every five gallons of gas we buy. And as the price of gas increases, even more of our money will go up in smoke. Driving on worn roads burns money in other ways, too.

It causes added wear on tires, brakes, shock absorbers and other automotive parts, causing them to be replaced more frequently than usual. We may not notice it as readily, but nonetheless, it is money wasted.

The reason behind Mississippi's highway problem is lack of money. As we use fewer gallons of gasoline, the revenues generated for maintenance are decreasing. At the same time, maintenance costs are on the increase. Our road system, simply, is wearing out faster than money can be generated to repair it.

Repairing roads is expensive. But, ignoring them is even more expensive. Ben Franklin wasn't referring to Mississippi roads when he said, "A stitch in time saves nine." But, he could have been.

Engineering data shows that rebuilding costs are four to five times higher than repair costs. So postponing corrective action will only increase the cost of the solution and allow us to continue to waste money and fuel by driving on deteriorating roads.

We need to protect our huge investment by preserving our state's highway system. We cannot afford not to tackle this serious problem of a lack of permanent, long range highway funding.

It's Nice To Dream At 76

The following poem was written by Alma B. Jackson on Oct. 13, her 76th birthday. Although it was not necessarily intended as a Thanksgiving poem, we feel it is very timely to print it in our Thanksgiving issue.

MY MEMORIES
By ALMA B. JACKSON
Oct. 13, 1980
My 76th Birthday

As I sit alone in my old rocking chair, memories come back to me,
Of days and years of long ago.
Memories come and go.
Of home and school, of work and play, of growing up with Mom and Dad, and all the family.
We romped and played and laughed and sang,
But some were pretty serious times, as it was meant to be.
Then, all grown up at last and time to settle down,
We each, the nine of us, began to look around.
We shopped around a bit I'm sure, then chose our mates.
Or they chose us-- and only once around.
We sailed out on adult life, with all its ups and downs.
Our children were our greatest joy as they came along.

Now, as age is creeping up on us, I guess we're 200 strong.

I'm thinking of the days of yore and of our children three--

Two golden-haired, one curly brown.
I'd sit up in the big barn loft, a bit of work to do,
And lose myself in dreaming, as I was want to do.
A rocking chair was sitting there, a relic stored away.
It's just the thing I'm looking for--I'd rocked my babies in that chair.

The years have flown away.
I call to mind my blessings.
I was a millionaire.

And, as I dreamed and old Tom slept, we whiled the time away;

And, to be sure, the hens had nests deep-hidden in the hay.

But wait a bit!
I think I heard a little chicken peep; I think I'll look and see.

Oh, there you are, you pretty thing.
You slipped one up on me.

In life, there's lots of slip-ups. That's as it should be.
Some happy ones, some sad ones, too.
Life's sorrows come to all of us, as we are sure to see.
I've many loved ones gone before, whom I have hopes to meet.

They've crossed death's river, deep and wide;
And there they wait on the other side.
With joy we'll meet, and friends we'll greet;
And meet our loved ones on that day-- one happy family be.

To dwell in that celestial land, throughout eternity.

I'll leave my rocking chair, I think,
And face reality.

It's nice to dream; I hope you like it, too.
I'm 76 years young today;
And kinda feel it, too.
But I'm enjoying my old age; let's not sit down and wait.
There's things to do, and we're not through til we are called away.

There's some who need our cheering up, and we need their's, as well.

So when we're down and out in mind, and don't know what to do,

It's kind of nice to have a friend to share our burdens, too.

So help a friend along the way;
You'll need help another day.

And, Please, do look to God above, who sees the sparrows fall.

He cares much more for us, you see.
Let's return it willingly.

Mrs. Joyce Booker, the Rev. Terry Booker's wife, has been in the hospital. We hope she'll be home soon.

A trip to Booneville provided us time for a visit to the hospital to see Bob Phiffer and Mrs. Meg Bryant. Mr. Phiffer was some better at the time of our visit. We hope he will continue to improve so that he can get back home. Aunt Meg is much better also. She will leave the hospital Tuesday if she continues to improve.

Aunt Meg's son and daughter-in-law, Harold Dean and Letha will look after her when she is home. We hope both Mr. Phiffer and Aunt Meg will have speedy recoveries and be up and around soon.

Mrs. Sybil McDougal was in the Tupelo hospital last Monday. She had surgery on her foot. Her stay in the hospital was a short one and she is home now adjusting herself to the crutches she has to walk with.

All her children were home Sunday to help her with the dinner. We hope the crutches won't keep her down and she'll soon be able to get around without them.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cox, along with other members of his family, attended the funeral of Larry's grandfather, Arthur Cox, in Kentwood, La., last week. Mr. Cox passed away at 1 a.m. Nov. 18 in Spring Creek, La.

National Education Week

Henderson Addresses Local Pilot Club

The November program meeting of the Pilot Club of Booneville was held at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 20, in the George E. Allen Library with Mrs. Nelwyn Murphy, president, presiding.

In observance of National Education Week, Troy H. Henderson, Superintendent of the Booneville Municipal Separate School District, was guest speaker. He was introduced by Mrs. Robbie McDaniel.

As his subject, Henderson chose "Education on the National, State and Local Levels." He said that the Phi Delta Kappan magazine had recently reported that Gallup polls have been taken to ascertain the major problems confronting the national public schools in 1980.

The five major problems cited by the polls were lack of discipline, use of dope and drugs, poor curriculum and poor standards, lack of proper financial support, and integration or busing.

He said that one of the main objectives of the Department of Education in the state of Mississippi was to implement the AIM program, which is Accountability in Institutional Management.

Henderson placed great emphasis upon humanizing education and said that every effort is being made to update the curriculum in the Booneville Schools to provide the best educational opportunities available. He extended an invitation to the public to visit the schools at any time.

Miss Cindy Cheny, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Hureon Cheny, was presented as the Good Citizenship Girl of the Month by Mrs. Annise Charwood, Patriotism Area Leader.

Mrs. Dollye Hodges, a past Chaplain of the club, was recognized as Pilot of the Month.

"Thankfulness"

First among the things to be thankful for is a thankful spirit.

Some people would grumble at the accommodations in Heaven if they ever got there. They take their blessings here so much as a matter of course, that even a day of general thanksgiving once in a year is more than they feel any need of. And if their personal blessings in any measure fail, gratitude for what they have had or still enjoy is the last thing they think of.

Another class really desire to be thankful, but they are naturally despondent. Their sky is as dark with clouds as though a special Old Probabilities were employed to keep it full. They go through the world in a deprecating spirit, hoping things may turn out well yet fearing for the worst.

We always feel glad for this class when Thanksgiving Day comes around. They then have an official warrant for gratitude. If their own hearts do not formulate blessings, they can listen to the sermon, or look to the President's proclamation.

How different with the thankful heart! What a gift it is to be born with an outlook toward the bright side of things! And not so by nature, what a triumph of grace to be made thankful through a renewed heart! It is so much more comfortable and rational to see what we have to be thankful for and to rejoice accordingly, than to have our vision for ever filled with our lacks and our needs.

Happy are they who possess this gift! Blessings may fail and fortunes vary, but the thankful heart remains.

The happy past, at least, is secure--and Heaven ahead.

Copied.

ONLY GOD

On this Thanksgiving Day I'm sure that all of us can truthfully say that there has been much within our lives this year for which we are truly thankful. I cannot begin to count the ways in which God has enriched my life this year directly and indirectly, but I want to share with you a few of those that brought about a stronger conviction and deeper more abiding faith and for which I am so very thankful.

Through this article, I have gained an abundance of friends who constantly assure me of that friendship and give me that much needed encouragement to continue. In my home, heartache has been turned to joy and despair has been turned to hope that is renewed daily. Worry and concern for loved-ones and friends who were ill were soon relieved as they each regained health and strength and continued to improve. Only God could so completely fill the life of one person and still have more to give.

Within the community, when the tempest was raging, in answer to many prayers, God took control and peace was maintained. Within my church (Spring Hill), in answer to the prayers of many, the Holy Spirit visits often. There is a greater attendance and active participation; there is less division; there is a visible spiritual growth among the members in knowledge and in spirit and only God could work such wonders as these.

As you gather with your families this Thanksgiving Day, remember this and thank him for these particular blessings and pray that they will continue, for only God can and does supply our every needs. Have a safe and happy Thanksgiving.

Funeral services were held at Beckley Chapel C.M.E. Church on Sunday afternoon for Roy J. Garner, brother of Mrs. Velma Johnson and Charlie James Garner. Our heart-felt and deep sympathy is extended to both Velma and Charlie James and their respective families during this time of sorrow.

The Rev. James Eckford, pastor of Oak Hill M.B. Church, and the Rev. B.J. Cummings, pastor of Wolf Creek M.B. Church, were both honored in separate programs of appreciation held at their respective churches on Sunday afternoon. It is reported that each event was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The Rev. Lewis Ragins was speaker at a church in Sallito, Miss., on Sunday afternoon. He was accompanied by his wife Marsha and the Rev. Nathan Triplett.

We continue to pray for our sick and shut in this week and wish for all of them a day of complete enjoyment, free of pain, surrounded by those you love and who love you in return. God bless you. Visitors to the worship services on Sunday morning at Spring Hill M.B. Church were Mrs. Bertha A. Thomas of Tupelo, Ms. Gail Sanders of New Albany, the Rev. Nathan Triplett and students from Northeast Junior College, the Rev. John Pounds, Thomas Gillan and Monroe Brown, all of whom remained for dinner and fellowship immediately following the service.

The praise meeting held at Spring Hill on Sunday afternoon was a very enjoyable and spiritual event, so much so that it seemed to end just as it was really beginning. Those of you who've ever been to an old fashioned praise meeting will know what I mean. Mrs. O.D. Stites, who is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints was present for the program as a guest of Mrs. Debra Williams.

Mrs. Earline Pams

It is with great respect and admiration that we recognize Mrs. Pams this week, for she is fast becoming another of the community's strong influential Christian leaders.

She came to this community 14 years ago from Socooba, Miss., with her husband and six children, five girls and one boy. They immediately became a part of this community, the school and the church. Mrs. Pams and her family attended the church regularly but she was never actively involved in any of the activities.

Although she preferred to remain in the background, she encouraged her children to participate and supported them in every constructive way. The death of her husband in March 1979 completely changed her way of life and forced her to accept a different role, one in which she discovered a strength and courage within herself that she did not know existed.

She says that she could have packed up and gone back home, but that would have disrupted the lives of her children even more and she would have had to give up too much that she and her husband had worked hard to acquire. So the decision to remain here was an agreement between the entire family.

She says that she now looks to God as the complete head of her household and is secure in the knowledge that as long as he guides their lives, everything will be all right.

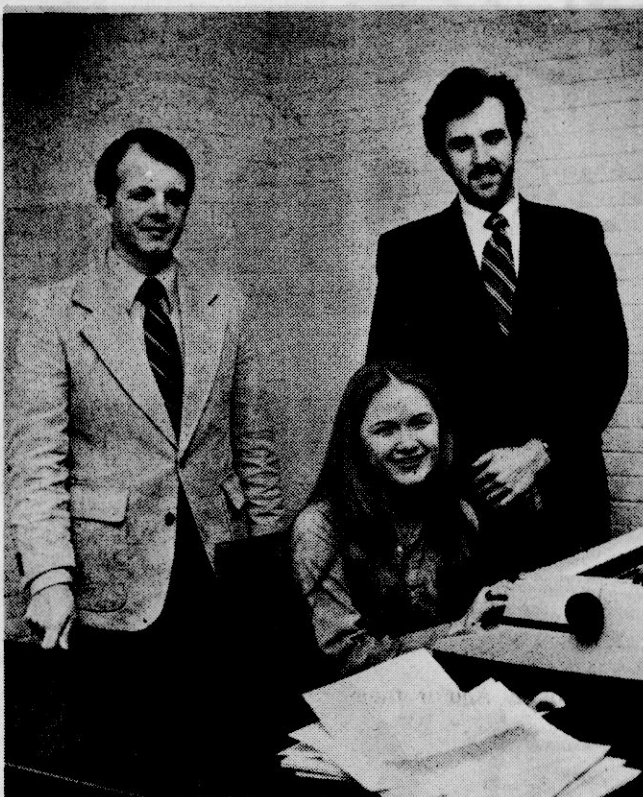

Mrs. Pams became a member of Spring Hill shortly after the death of her husband and immediately became active in many of the activities. She is presently working with the young people as director of the Junior Choir and in this position she is constantly striving to instill within them the principles of good Christian conduct and a deeper respect for the house of worship and the position that they fill. This is done in such a way that they respond to her leadership with respect and complete obedience.

Her relationship with her family is one of mutual respect and love. The two oldest daughters, Betty who finished high school in 1977, and Shirley who finished in 1979, are both now living in the city. Of the four left at home she says that they are a great source of comfort and help to her, especially in their willingness to accept the many sacrifices that has to be made at this time.

Mrs. Pams is a very young woman with a beautiful personality and a smile that will warm the coldest heart. We admire tremendously her courage and determination and, most of all, her faith in God that allows her to face and accept so great a challenge.

Thought For Today: Though another may have more money, beauty, or brains than you; yet when it comes to the rarer spiritual values such as charity, self sacrifice, honor, nobility of heart, you have an equal chance with everyone to be the most beloved and honored of all people.

Till Next Week.

Library Notes

By LEE DAVIS
Librarian

Young people really enjoyed Saturday afternoon's Thanksgiving program. The Junior Auxiliary Members performed a play of early Pilgrim days adapted by Mrs. William Hatfield from Longfellow's "Courtship of Miles Standish." Included was authentic Indian music on recordings.

Their Christmas program will be on Saturday, Dec. 20. Boys and girls will certainly want to be at the library for that!

A very beautiful book recently received is "N.C. Wyeth: the collected paintings, illustrations, and mural." Newell Convers Wyeth's paintings are truly American and some of these are beautifully reproduced in color in this collection.

Best sellers now available include "The Key to Rebecca," by Ken Follett and Erich Segal's "Man Woman and Child." Popular too, are the crime club novel, "Who Steals My Name," by James Fraser, and "The Devil on Horseback," by Victoria Holt.

Be sure to check out reading materials for those quiet, leisure moments during the holidays. Have a Thanksgiving brimming with good things, especially a happy heart.

Mailing Deadlines Told

With the Christmas mailing season just ahead, Booneville Postmaster Jack Wright is offering some tips for customers to make sure their cards and packages arrive on time and in good shape.

In addition to shopping early, Postmaster Wright urges customers to properly address cards and packages with the name street number and name or post office box number, and the city, state and ZIP Code reserved for the last line.

It's also a good idea to put a slip of paper with the recipient's name and address and your return address inside parcels. Be sure to include your return address including your ZIP Code on all envelopes and packages.

Postmaster Wright also reminds customers to check the size of their envelopes before mailing Christmas cards. Letter size standards which went into effect last year require envelopes to be at least 3-1/2 inches high and 5 inches long to be accepted for mailing.

The Postal Service is also asking its customers to put an ounce of extra care into preparing packages for mailing. Parcels will arrive at their destination in good shape if mailers follow a few simple instructions:

(1) Make sure the contents are well-cushioned and there is no empty space in the box. Use crumpled newspaper around the item, on the bottom, the sides and on top of your gift. Foamed plastic shells and air pocket padding also are good cushions.

(2) Brown wrapping paper and twine cord are not necessary. Wrappings can rip off, and twine can get caught in processing machinery.

(3) Use sealing tape to close off and seal the box. Three types are recommended: pressure-sensitive tape, kraft paper reinforced with nylon or glass and filament-reinforced pressure-sensitive tape. Don't use masking tape or cellophane tape. They're no longer recommended due to past poor performance.

(4) Mail early in the month and mail early in the day to avoid the rush.

the large number of mothers in lower socioeconomic groups who do not seek or receive early prenatal care.

It is estimated that 25-35 percent of all birth defects could be prevented with adequate and early prenatal care. Adequate prenatal care plus delivery is estimated at around $1,000.

Of the 43,000 births in Mississippi last year, 48 percent were born to mothers who live at or below the poverty level. Thirty percent of these births were to teenage mothers. Just over half of all mothers received prenatal care and attention.

Mississippi's infant mortality rate is 18.2 deaths per 1,000 births. The national average is 14.7. The United States ranks 16th in the world among nations who keep such records.

Reduction in infant mortality rate is 18.2 deaths per 1,000 births. The national average is 14.7. The United States ranks 16th in the world among nations who keep such records.

Reduction in infant mortality can be obtained in a number of ways and the Health Educators now working in Prentiss County will be emphasizing these factors in their presentations. Early prenatal care is first and foremost.

Public awareness and education regarding infant mortality can help reduce the high rate and can help Mississippi save its most valuable resource-people.

The Infant Mortality Reduction Team will be available to any local group. For more information, call the District II State Board of Health at 842-4966, or contact the Prentiss County Health Department.

ASCS Report

By C.E. CALVERT
County Executive Director

Farmers Urged To Vote In ASC Committee Election

The election of farmers to serve as ASC community committee members for the 1981 calendar year is underway. Election ballots were mailed on November 21 to every Prentiss County farmer of record. Ballots must be returned to the county ASCS office in person or postmarked not later than Dec. 1.

In Prentiss County, there are five ASC communities. Three regular members and two alternate members will be elected in each of these communities. One of the most important duties of the community committee members is the election of the county committee.

Newly-elected committee members from all of the communities will meet on Dec. 11 in a county convention. At that time, a member of the county committee will be elected to serve a three-year term and also two alternate county committee members will be elected for 1981.

Community committee members serve other important functions in addition to electing the county committee. Community committee members are furnished detailed information concerning new and revised programs and regulations in order to pass this information on to their neighboring farmers.

Also they are called on to assist the county committee in making various decisions relative to the administration of farm programs within the county. Major programs in the county for which ASCS is responsible are Agricultural Conservation Program, Price Support Programs, Production Adjustment Programs and Compliance Program.

All farmers are encouraged to vote in these important elections. Each farmer should read carefully the instructions which were furnished with the ballot in order for the ballot to be valid and for the identity of the voter to be secret.

Persons who believe they are eligible to vote but who did not receive an election ballot in the mail should contact the county ASCS office promptly.

Long Attends Conference

Howard Long, principal of Anderson Junior High School in Booneville, attended the National School Association Conference held Nov. 12-15 in Nashville, Tenn. The emphasis at the conference was placed on grades 5-8.

The many diverse interests and needs of students at this age group were discussed at the conference. Those attending gained new information, skills and inspiration that will enhance educational performance for this age level, Long said.

Held at the Opryland Hotel Convention Center, the conference was attended by over 2,000 administrators and teachers representing 44 states and four foreign countries.

Speeches were made by keynote speakers Dr. Art Garner and Dr. Dudley Flood. There were also multiple mini-sessions each day for participants to choose from. Over 500 people in 42 states were involved in presenting them.

Eight special sessions were also available throughout the conference on topics relating to children 10-14 years of age, and to education in general.

In addition to 73 exhibits at the conference, special entertainment was provided by the Shelby Singers of Memphis and Opryland Country Music USA. Next year's conference is scheduled to be held in Miami Beach, Fla.

Conservation News

By DON JONES
Soil Conservation Technician

Much of the rugged terrain of Prentiss County is too steep for cropland. It is better suited for woodland and wildlife. One of the most sought after animals is the whitetail deer. Mississippi has only one native species of deer: the whitetail. This is the same deer that is native to most of the Eastern United States. The average Mississippi buck will weigh from 160 to 190 pounds. When alarmed, the deer's tail becomes erect exposing the white underside, hence the name whitetail. A few years ago deer had all but disappeared from Prentiss County due to relentless hunting, and habitat destruction. With the restocking program carried out by the Game and Fish Commission, protection and management, deer are now present in a huntable number in our county. In order to continue to have a huntable population we need to manage our deer herd. Deer herd management consists of maintaining an adequate year-round food supply, protection (from man and free ranging dogs), and regulations to assure an adequate harvest. Deer are ruminants, that is, they have a four compartment stomach. Like cows, they feed and later "chew their cud." They feed on a wide variety of vegetation chiefly in the form of tender shoots, twigs, leaves, mast, and fruits. Some forest browse plants of importance are flowering dogwood, yellow poplar, honeysuckle, sassafras, greenbriers and maple. Many other plant species are also eaten. Now is also the time to think about green food plots. Pvt. Gargos Completes Training Private Rickey D. Gargos, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gargos of Route 7, Booneville, recently completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. During the training, students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

they will serve to supplement the diet and hold deer within a local area during winter. Although such plantings will do little toward increasing a deer herd over what natural range conditions will support. The two key factors to a good deer population are good protection and ample food supply while a herd is building up to the carrying capacity of the range. Then an adequate harvest to keep the deer numbers within what the range can support.

Firefighting Funds Available

The Mississippi Forestry Commission expects to have approximately $50,000 in Federal funds available soon for small matching grants to rural communities to assist them in obtaining needed firefighting equipment, according to an announcement this week by State Forester Dick Allen. The grants will be issued under the Rural Community Fire Protection Program (RCFP) as authorized under PL 95-113. This will be the sixth year Mississippi has received funds for such grants which are limited to a maximum of $2,000 per community. "Communities or fire departments interested in securing one of the RCFP grants would be well advised to take prompt action in this regard," says Tom Hardage, Chief of Forest Protection for the Commission. Rural communities of under 10,000 population are eligible for the funds. Application forms may be secured from Tom Hardage, Chief, Forest Protection, 908 Robert E. Lee Building, Jackson, MS 39201, or from Commission District Offices at Tupelo, Philadelphia, Bay Springs, Wiggins, Brookhaven, Rolling Fork and Elliott. Completed applications must be returned to Hardage by 5 p.m. Feb. 6, 1981. All grant monies must be spent and materials must be in the purchasers legal possession by August 31, 1981. For further information, contact your local County Forester by calling 728-6835 or come by the office located in the back lefthand side of the Bank of Commerce in Booneville.

HEALTH TIPS
Destructive Force of Worry Explained

By Dr. Michael J. Ream

Worry is a predominant emotion today. People worry about death, loneliness, poverty, war, inflation, disease etc. Disease is one worry that you can help dissipate. It has been said that when once the cause of a disease is known you are half way to the cure.

In conversation with a successful business executive several days ago, he suggested that we write an article on "worry" because of his own experience. For years he devoted himself so completely to his business that suddenly and without warning, his health began to break so fast that he began to worry constantly of a complete collapse. He spent several months at the beach, by orders of specialists, all of whom prescribed rest. But rest alone could not restore him and he returned home. Although he knew nothing of Chiropractic, he decided to consult a Chiropractor through the insistence of a neighbor.

When thorough examination as completed, explanation of the cause of his breakdown so completely allayed his "worrying" that half of the battle for health was won. Following his first adjustment he felt a change taking place in his body. The tension in his previous system began to relax, his peace of mind was restored and he is gaining strength daily.

The modern Chiropractor finds that many patients are worried and nervous mainly because they have been unable to find anyone who can locate the cause of their sickness. Usually a simple explanation of the cause of their sickness and Scientific adjustments administered to correct the cause dissipated their fears and health returns in a natural manner. (One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. Michael J. Ream whose office is located at 208 First Street, Booneville, MS., Tel. 728-8456.)

Volunteers Needed For VITA

JACKSON, Miss.—Volunteers are needed to help others with their tax returns as part of VITA, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service, according to the IRS.

In the VITA program, volunteers are recruited to provide free assistance to taxpayers unable to pay to have their tax returns prepared. VITA volunteers, frequently college students, members of professional business or social organizations, receive training in basic income tax law and return preparation, the IRS said.

VITA instructors and training materials are provided free by the IRS. Training is conducted at a location convenient to volunteers and instructors, starting in mid-December.

VITA volunteers assist taxpayers, often lower income or handicapped individuals who need explanations of the special credits and deductions for which they may qualify.

VITA programs can be sponsored by local civic or fraternal organizations, educational institutions, churches and social groups. For the convenience of taxpayers who cannot travel to an IRS office, most VITA volunteers provide assistance in their own neighborhoods at schools, shopping malls, and libraries.

Persons or organizations interested in the VITA program, should contact the Taxpayer Education Coordinator at 960-4520.

Tax Refund Checks Wait To Be Claimed

JACKSON, Mississippi—Undelivered refund checks for last year and prior years are waiting to be claimed by 582 Mississippians.

IRS District Director, Merle Heye, has issue a list of names of Mississippi taxpayers to whom refund checks were mailed during the past four years, but were returned to the IRS as undeliverable. "These refunds total $158,619 and range from $1.60 to $2,597.12 with the average being $272.54," Heye said.

The director stated that it is not necessary for anyone whose name appears on the list to consult or engage the service of a "locating" or "searching" service, or anyone else to obtain information with respect to their refund check. "One need only establish his or her identity and right to receive the check," Heye added.

This can be done by addressing a letter to the Internal Revenue Service Center, Refund Inquiry Unit, Atlanta, Georgia 31101 which includes the following information:

- (1) The name and address exactly as shown on the tax return;
- (2) The present name and address if different from that shown on the return;
- (3) The tax year for which the refund is believed due;

(4) The social security number;

(5) The amount of refund claimed, and any other pertinent information needed to verify the claim;

and

(6) The signature (not printed). If it is a joint return, both should sign.

Heye added that some Mississippians do not receive their refunds for various reasons such as moving and leaving no forwarding address, errors on returns, death of the taxpayer, etc.

For further information, contact the IRS District Office, 100 W. Capitol St., Suite 504, Jackson, MS 39201.

'Retail Sales Power' Offered At Northeast

Have you ever been frustrated about the way your sales clerks handled customer problems or how a person suspected of shoplifting was approached? Have you ever wondered why, despite an even greater sales volume, your profits were reduced because of shoplifting? If you have, then you have a lot in common with other retail merchants.

In order to assist merchants with these problems, The Northeast Mississippi Junior College in cooperation with the Appalachian Community Service Network is offering a course entitled "Retail Sales Power" which is especially designed for retail sales clerks. This course is a fast-paced, one-night session which will teach employees how to improve customer relations and how to spot potential shoplifters.

"Retail Sales Power" will be taught on Tuesday night, Dec. 9, from 5:30-9:30 p.m. in Room 207 of Patterson

Hall on the Northeast campus. This is a highly structured course which includes a 30-minute videotape and supporting activities which were developed by Professional Development Inc. The cost of the course is $10 per person which includes all materials.

Each participant will receive a Certificate of Completion from Professional Development Inc. and a CEU (Continuing Education Units) Certificate from The Northeast Mississippi Junior College for four contact hours.

This is an excellent opportunity for local merchants to provide their employees with professional training at a minimal investment.

Since space is limited to 30 participants, pre-registration is encouraged.

For more information or to pre-register, contact Opal Melvin, ACSN Coordinator, at 728-7751 (or toll-free 1-728-7759), Extension 303.

Coach Sam Richey: Wheeler's Key To Success..

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

Wheeler's Eagles are flying high again in 1980 and one of the main reasons for this is because they have one of the best directors in the business behind them on the coaching side.

Winning basketball games is nothing new to Eagle head coach Sam Richey. The Wheeler mentor, now in his 14th year in the coaching ranks, has guided the powerful Wheeler squad to a perfect 14-0 record this season and a third place ranking in the State.

The job he and his players did last year was almost astonishing. Posting one of the top records in the state (35-10), the Eagles made a shambles out of the State B Tourney and took championship honors with ease, waltzing over their opponents in almost every phase of the game.

How can a team completely dominate the state tourney with the type competition they had to face? Well, for one thing, coach Richey had the team motivated to the point that they could have played with almost anyone.

This is the mark of a good coach and coach Richey is certainly one of the best at this.

As stated earlier, winning isn't new to this local coach.

A graduate of Wheeler High School, the Northeast Mississippi Junior College, and Mississippi State University, Coach

Richey started his coaching reign in the late 1960's and his success started from that point.

In 1969 Richey led the Jumpertown Cardinals down Jackson way in what several basketball observers said was quite a coaching feat in that era.

His squad lost to New Site's Royals in State B action but one could plainly see that you would be hearing more of this local mentor.

Well more you did. Back again he brought the Cardinals in 1971 and this time he took home the marbles in the Class B competition with a very high respectibility in the state.

He came to Wheeler High School during the 1973-74 season and has made the Eagles what they are today.

The job he and the Eagles did last year would certainly rank among the best in the state and the State B Championship trophy proves this.

EAGLES 1980-81

How does Coach Richey feel about the Eagles' chances this year? "We have a fine basketball team," he said, "I just hope we can equal the feat we accomplished a year ago and we're on the right track now."

The Wheeler mentor said right now he feels good about this year's Eagle squad. Comparing the Eagles' strong and weak points, Coach Richey said the strong point of this year's team would be, of course, the overall depth they have, along with a balanced scoring attack and added that one of their weak points would be in the height department.

"What I like best about this year's squad is that the team plays the 'whole' game together. This is what it takes to have a winning basketball team."

"We have a good fast break offense and all our players are unselfish," Coach Richey added "This makes us a very balanced squad."

The Wheeler mentor said he enjoyed coaching and, when asked what he likes best about his profession, he said, "that's kinda hard to answer, but mainly I enjoy the competition."

The 1980-81 Eagles are off to a fast pace start on their bid to defend their State B Crown. The local troop, composed of two seniors, Tim Keesler, and Kennedy Gamble; seven juniors, Bubba Miller, Terry Ballard, Jim Davis, Steve Lindsey, Benny Fredrick, Danny Hatfield, and Roy Crump; and two sophomores Richey Chandler and John Burruss, have a perfect 14-0 mark going into this week's Wheeler Tournament which is the milestone or turning point for some clubs every year.

Being undefeated can put some pressure on some ball clubs due to the fact that the opposition wants to knock them off in the worst way.

Coach Richey said this didn't seem to bother his ball club. "I know there is some pressure on them but our players don't seem to let this bother them. They know the job they have to do and right now they're taking it all in stride."

Coach Richey has seen quite a few basketball games come and go and when put on the spot and asked what was the best game he had seen his teams play, he said, "One of the best would have to be last year's game against East Kemper. We had it all going for us in that game."

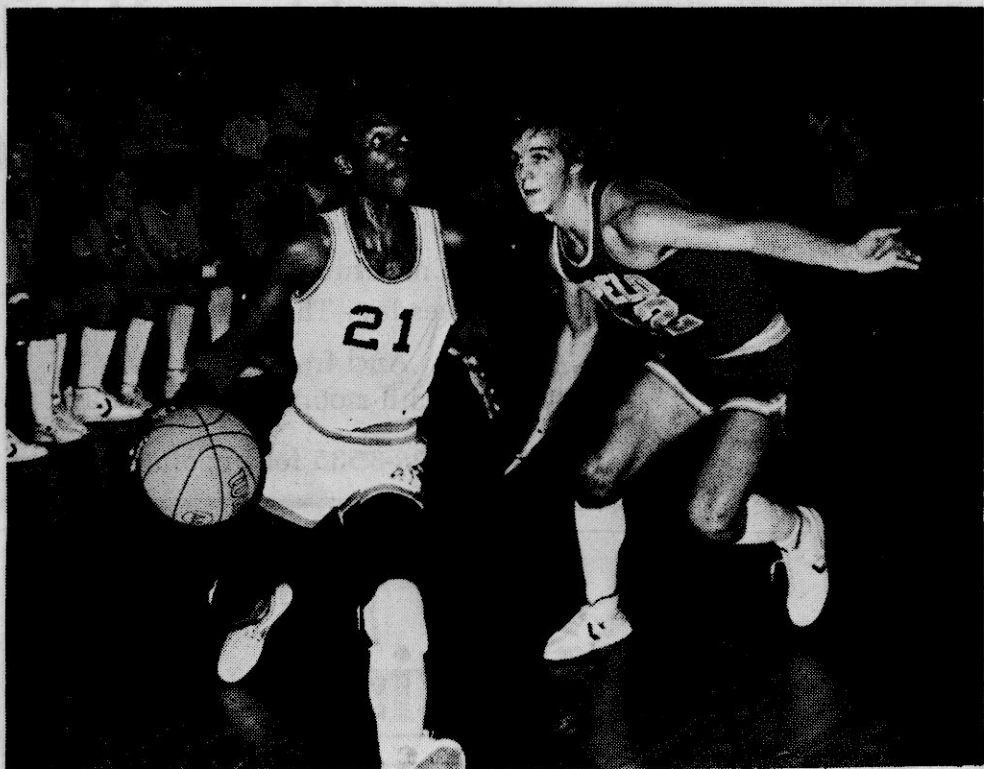

Different coaches have different coaching techniques and Coach Richey in describing himself said, "I just try to use basic coaching standards, fast breaks, good defense, etc., and just go out and do the best we can."

He said he tried to play the Same game with the exception of a few wrinkles here and there. Does he change his coaching strategy when he is coaching against a veteran coach rather than one of the younger coaches? "Not a whole lot. Anyone can beat you these days," Coach Richey said. "Oh, we might use a different defense now and then but mainly we just go out and play the game."

Well, play the game his players have. Whether the Eagles cart off another State B Crown or maybe even win it all is unknown, but one thing's for certain, with Coach Richey at the helm, they have a great shot at it.

Etheridge d/b/a Western Auto, plus interest at 8 percent from June 17, 1980, which judgment has been enrolled in the Judgment Roll of the Circuit Clerk's Office; and

WHEREAS, the said judgment and costs being unpaid and no payment having been made thereon, Travis Cox, Clerk of said Court, issued an execution on said judgment, which execution is dated November 25, 1980, and has been placed in my hands for service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BY VIRTUE OF SAID EXECUTION, to me directed by the said clerk on the judgment aforesaid, I will, on the 22nd day of December, 1980, at the West front door of the Prentiss County Courthouse in the City of Booneville, Prentiss County, Mississippi, within legal hours of sale, offer for sale and sell to the highest and best bidder for cash, all title, right and interest of the said Hollis S. Thence run West 301 feet to the West boundary of said Quarter Section to the North line of said Quarter Section, a distance of approximately 209 feet; thence run East along the North line of the South Half of said Quarter a distance of 301 feet; thence South to the point of beginning.

Part of the South Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 25, Township 5 South, Range 7 East, bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on the Booneville and Bay Springs Highway where the said Highway crosses the North line of the said South Half of said Quarter Section. Farm Market Report

Soybean Production Down

Compiled by Marketing Specialists
Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service

SOYBEAN SITUATION: The soybean production estimates for 1980 are 22 percent lower than last year and November supply-demand estimates project a carryover on Sept. 1, 1981, of 180 million bushels.

OUTLOOK: Marketing Specialist Truett Bufkin said a short Russian grain crop, a rumored short Soviet sunflower crop, the U.S.-China grain agreement and the short bean crop in the U.S. are bullish factors on this commodity market.

ADVISORY: "Continue to sell old crop beans on a scale-up basis and evaluate the 1981 November futures," Bufkin said. "Farmers could lock in a profit on a portion of their crops early."

COTTON SITUATION: Cotton production estimates for November surprised the industry and created several days of upward price activity. A supply-demand report, which followed the production estimates, suggested that the decrease in production will be offset by a similar decrease in exports.

Marketing Specialist Dr. O.A. Cleveland said exports are projected at 5.7 million bales and domestic consumption at 5.9 million bales.

OUTLOOK: Dr. Cleveland said prices are expected to remain under pressure from the threat of December deliveries.

"There is no shortage of cotton today," Dr. Cleveland said. "The shortage will come in March, April and May. While prices remain under pressure in the short term, we may very well test contract highs in the spring

Local UM Students To Begin Student Teaching

Martha Botts and Mary Holley, both of Booneville and students at The University of Mississippi, will soon begin student teaching, the final phase in teacher education at Ole Miss.

Education students participating in the student teaching program are assigned to a public school and assume responsibility for planning and teaching the course under the direction of a cooperating teacher.

Ms. Holley will begin teaching speech therapy at Lawhon School in Tupelo of 1981."

RICE SITUATION: Marketing Specialist Truett Bufkin said November crop production estimates for rice have placed this commodity at about 11 percent above last year.

OUTLOOK: "Rice prices should improve in the market year," Bufkin said. "The 1981 projected U.S. carryover of rice is 25.5 million hundredweight as compared to 25.7 million last year. World carryover is projected at 24.4 million metric tons as compared to 24.3 million last year."

WHEAT SITUATION: Wheat acreage estimates will be released on Dec. 23, and Marketing Specialist Truett Bufkin thinks this will reflect record U.S. acreages. He said prices should decline somewhat after the December announcement.

OUTLOOK: Bufkin said reduced export potentials on the part of other wheat exporting nations; the U.S.-China grain trade agreement; lagging winter grain plantings in Eastern Europe and Russia; and Reagan's announcement that he will lift the grain embargo; all spell a bullish future market for wheat.

ADVISORY: "Continue to evaluate the July 1981 wheat futures and watch for basis improvement. Anytime you can lock in a $5 or better price, begin selling 1981 crop wheat on a scale-up basis," Bufkin said.

CATFISH SITUATION: An abundant supply of "on-flavor" fish; an expected seasonal sales slump and the sluggish national economy are putting downward pressure on catfish prices.

OUTLOOK: "Farm prices remain at the 67.5 cent per pound level," Marketing Specialist Dr. Michael Jones said. "But, a slight break downward in price is possible between now and the new year."

Dr. Jones said this is a traditionally slow period for fish sales, and prices should push upward to at least the mid-seventies early next year.

BEEF SITUATION: Marketing Specialist John Wilson said pressure from higher interest rates and feed costs has become evident in the beef markets during the last month.

OUTLOOK: Wilson said the demand for grass by the end of the year by a more limited supply of calves is expected to provide an incentive for prices to move up again. But, he said that incentive may be blunted to some extent by increased grain costs and interest rates through the end of 1980.

ADVISORY: "Proudgers, especially those carrying stocker animals through the winter, should continue to follow changing market conditions closely and evaluate the need for any forward pricing decisions that might benefit them," Wilson said.

HOG SITUATION: Slaughter levels in October increased seasonally as expected, but slaughter has continued to average well under the levels suggested in the most recent Hog Inventory Report. Slaughter levels have averaged just under year-ago levels and prices have been maintained at the upper $40 level.

OUTLOOK: "Hog slaughter is expected to decline sharply compared to year-ago levels, beginning in December," said Marketing Specialist John Wilson. "Production is expected to average 7 percent less during the first quarter and 10 to 12 percent less during the second quarter of 1981."

Wilson said prices for producers should be breaking into the mid-$50 range late this year with more improvements early next year.

UM PRECEPTORS' CONFERENCE—Attending the recent Clinical -Preceptor's Conference in Jackson sponsored by The University of Mississippi School of Pharmacy included (from left) Dean Wallace Guess of the Ole Miss pharmacy school, Fumi Ikemori-Doorenbos of New Albany, Shirley Clark of Corinth, Jim Tiggrett of Booneville and Jimmy Bennett of Corinth. Preceptors are practicing pharmacists who provide on-the-job training for Ole Miss pharmacy students.

Museum Group To Conduct Indian-Pilgrim Program

Thanksgiving Saturday, the Museum Association in Corinth will celebrate its first anniversary with a day-long program featuring American Indian and Pilgrim traditions.

Two Indian dance presentations will be made by Senior Scouts from Pellissippi Lodge, Knoxville, Tenn. Saturday morning, the dancers, who specialize in Plains Indian Dances and music, will give a demonstration of the styles of dance, music and outfits used by traditional and contemporary Indians.

In the evening, the group will host a formal Powwow. Highlights will include a Flag Song and several dances in which the audience may participate.

Saturday noon, at the Curlee House, there will be a food tasting of dishes served by the Pilgrims at the first Thanksgiving, as well as a large sampling of traditional American Indian foods. Many of the foods that now feed the world were originally grown by American Indians. There will be a 50 cents admission charge for the tasting.

Scouts, troops, Cub Packs or other organized groups planning to attend should contact the Museum for further information. The Curlee House is located at the corner of Jackson and Childs Streets in Corinth.

This program is sponsored by the Northeast Mississippi Museum Association. You may get further information by leaving a message at 287-8267 or by writing NEMMA, Box 993, Corinth, MS 38834.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK :

A Thanksgiving Prayer

By Tom F. Rayburn

Praise The Lord! I Will Give Thanks To The Lord With All My Heart! Ps. 111:1

Our power is shut off, and suddenly we become thankful for electricity.
Our garbage is not picked up, and suddenly we become thankful for the garbage collector's weekly stop.
A good friend dies,
and suddenly we discover how much he meant to us.
Our water becomes too polluted to drink, and suddenly we appreciate pure water.
Why is it, Lord,, that we take for granted the uncounted blessings of life until they are removed from us?

We take for granted,
the mind you have given us,
the beauty of the earth around us,
the rain and soil combining to produce our food,
the love of family and friends surrounding us.
Today we thank You for being patient with us,
for not forgetting us when we forget You,
for loving and forgiving us,
for music and singing,
for rest and leisure,

for those who understand us,
for laughter and joy,
for being with us now.
Most of all we thank You for not withholding the blessings of life from us even though we take them for granted.
Take us from worship into the world where we turn words of thanksgiving into deeds of service.

Amen
