

Two Days Of Events Scheduled

Boone-Hill Festival Starts Tomorrow

Two full days of fun and festivities are in store for Booneville residents and visitors during the second annual Boone-Hill Festival Friday and Saturday.

The festival starts Friday at 9 a.m. with an art show, crafts show, and clowns on the street. It concludes with the selection of Miss Boone-Hill at the beauty pageant Saturday night.

Most of last year's events are returning and several new ones have been added. One new attraction that should create excitement is the dunkin' booth sponsored by the Booneville Jaycees.

Jaycee president Lanier Thompson said they hope to have a line-up of local dignitaries "you would most like to see all wet."

Among those who have agreed to sit still for the dunking are coaches Bill Ward, David Carnell, Riley Presley, Leroy Brooks and Willie Jackson, plus Booneville businessmen Manfred Saylor and Marshall Dickerson.

Several young ladies have also agreed to participate, sponsors say. Pressure is being applied to other prominent citizens to get them to volunteer.

The crafts show and sale in the uptown area Friday and Saturday will be sponsored by the Uptown Association. Craftsmen from throughout the area will have booths.

The B&PW club will have clowns on the streets throughout both days, and will also sponsor a street dance on Main Street Saturday night.

The library will feature an art show displaying the works of local artists, and the Junior Auxiliary will sponsor a pet show and a puppet show Saturday.

The Rotary Club's antique auto show Saturday will be preceded by a parade of the classic cars starting on the Northeast campus and ending at the People's Bank where they will remain on display for two hours.

The Organization for Handicapped Mississippians (OHM) will use the festival for one of its major fundraising projects. It will operate refreshment booths both days in addition to its Miss Boone Hill Pageant at Hargett Hall Saturday night.

Other church groups and civic clubs are participating by sponsoring refreshment and handicraft booths.

According to Mrs. Sarah Cummings of OHM, each participant in the Miss Boone-Hill Pageant will receive a participant's trophy. Trophies will also be awarded to all winners and to each first and second place alternates, she said.

There will be a "top 10" selected in the pageant, Mrs. Cummings said. A practice session for the pageant will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday. Registration for the 5,000-meter, run, sponsored by Shackelford Shoes and The Banner-Independent, will begin at 8 a.m. Saturday, and the run will start at 9 a.m.

For the pairings and times for the Shrine Club's softball tournament, please turn to the sports section in today's Banner-Independent.

At least two other events which are not specifically a part of the Boone Hill Festival activities are expected to draw large crowds.

The Lions Club is sponsoring a fish fry, auction and political rally at the West Side Park Saturday starting at 5 p.m.

The Northeast CB Club will present a program at the West Side Community Center Saturday night at 7 to acquaint citizens with the work being done by the Baddour Memorial Center in Senatobia. The program will consist of a film and a special appearance by the Miracles, a singing group from the Center.

Prentiss County Prisoners

Escapees Find Freedom Short-Lived

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

Three inmates who escaped from the Prentiss County jail last week found their freedom short-lived. They were re-captured less than 24 hours after their escape.

According to chief deputy Carl Sartin, Thomas Kesler, 18, of Wheeler; Charles Wayne Ross, 25, of Ripley; and Anthony Lewis, 20, of West Virginia escaped from the county jail about 7 p.m.

Wednesday.

The prisoners reportedly escaped through the jail's rear fire exit door after managing to get a key to the door.

"Somehow they managed to get a key off a key ring," Sartin said.

None of the prisoners had the key in their possession when they were apprehended and it is still missing, Sartin said.

To aid Prentiss County authorities in searching for the three men, three officers and bloodhounds from the State Department of Corrections came up from Parchman Wednesday night.

Along with county authorities, they were able to track the escapees south along the ICG railroad tracks toward Wheeler.

Lewis, who had been in the county jail awaiting a hearing on a charge of breaking and entering, was the first of the three men to be recaptured. He was apprehended Thursday morning near Wheeler.

At the time of the escape, Kesler was in jail awaiting transportation to the state penitentiary in Parchman to serve a seven year term for convictions of breaking and entering and grand larceny.

He was recaptured about 1 p.m. Thursday at his mother's home near Wheeler, Sartin said.

Prior to the escape, Ross was in the county jail after being picked up for a parole violation on an earlier grand larceny conviction, the deputy said. He was apprehended about 5 p.m. Thursday on the railroad tracks.

All three men are currently back in the county jail, Sartin said. Both Kesler and Ross are being held for transfer to Parchman.

Student Release Forms Now Available

Forms are now available in the Prentiss County Superintendent of Education's office in the courthouse for county students who plan to request a release from the county school system for the 1981-82 school year.

Parents will not be required to appear personally before the county school board this year on routine transfer requests, a spokesman for the superintendent's office said.

These forms should be completed and taken or sent to the county superintendent's office. The school board will act on requests at their next regularly scheduled meeting, the spokesman said.

It is the policy of the Prentiss County Board of Education that, once school has started, releases will be granted only during the first week of any semester, the spokesman said.

Few Leads Discovered In Recent Sniper-Murder

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

Authorities still have few leads in the sniper slaying last week of a Prentiss County man as he apparently drove into Booneville to work.

Willie Henry Hurd, approximately 52, died Tuesday, April 21, after being shot once through the head by a shotgun slug. The shooting occurred about 6:45 a.m. as he was driving southbound on U.S. 45 near the Prentiss Drive-In Theater.

A 12-gauge shotgun, thought by some authorities to be the murder weapon, was found on U.S. 45 by a passerby sometime after the shooting. It was discovered about four miles north of the murder scene, just across the Alcorn County line near the Renzi crossing.

Authorities speculate the shotgun may have been thrown from a car toward a creek, but hit a bridge bannister and bounced back into the highway.

One live shell, a German-made slug especially designed to increase accuracy, remained in the gun. Another live round that had been run over by a car was also found on the highway.

The serial number on the shotgun had been filed off, and, according to Prentiss County Chief Deputy Carl Sartin, state investigators are still trying to determine the number by applying acid and other techniques to the gun.

Sartin admitted there is "no way we can say for positive" that the gun found was the murder weapon, but, "I think so," he added.

Authorities are also still looking for a white Lincoln Continental reported by residents to have been in the area prior to and after the shooting occurred.

Residents of the area reported seeing two black men park the car at three different locations along U.S. 45 before the shooting, one investigator said.

One of the suspects, who still have not been identified, is said to have been standing near the car with a shotgun in his hand. The second suspect was reported to have been squatting beside the car.

Authorities have received conflicting reports as to whether or not the Lincoln had license plates and, if so, which state they were from.

Hurd was a truck driver and mechanic for Murphy's International in Booneville.

Investigators have been unable to establish a definite motive for the slaying.

Letters To Reagan Suggest Problems Of 'Families'

"Getting jobs and food" is just one of many ideas suggested to President Reagan by members of the Accelerated Intellectual Movement class at Hill's Chapel School as the biggest problem facing families today.

This suggestion was made by Ron Walker, 10, in a letter which was written in recognition of Save the Children Day '81, a national event which focuses on the needs of children around the world.

"We need more factories today for people to work in," Ron said in his letter. "They will get paid, so they can buy their food."

The international assistance agency, Save the Children, has asked children all over the country to write the President on the theme: "This is the biggest problem facing families today—and, here's what should be done about it..."

All letters will be presented at a children's hearing with government leaders in Washington, D.C., on May 1, Save the Children

Day, according to Mrs. Mary Bostick Childers, AIM teacher at Hill's Chapel.

Following is a sampling of other letters written by the Hill's Chapel students:

Jay Lowrey, age 12: "I think something should be done about world starvation. Send more food and supplies to the world's needy people."

"If the governments of the world were more thoughtful, this would be a better place to live. Political differences and supplying starving and helpless people are entirely two different things, as in Iran."

Tommy Hoard, age 10: "Places should be formed where people can learn to live without drugs. They should also help family members deal with problems instead of taking it out on other family members."

Keith Smith, age 13, cited the problem of dealing with Russian aggression. His solution: "If possible, to first try to establish peaceful diplomatic relations with Russia and all the nations in the Communist Bloc."

"If, and only if, this fails, we should then warn Russia of possible actions on our part in response to any major military movement affiliated with invasion or attempted invasion of any peaceful country."

According to Kimberly Armstrong, age 10, the solution to drug and alcohol abuse is the "banning of all ingredients to make drugs, and only drugs prescribed by the doctor should be sold, and the banning of alcoholic beverages in the U.S.A."

"For any person caught using either, the sentence should be capital punishment," she wrote.

Lack of "togetherness" was the problem cited by Gichelle Akers, age 12: "Families spend less time together and are farther apart than ever before. Parents and guardians take out things on their children and abuse them."

"This doesn't happen in all homes," she continues, "but it does in a majority of them. I guess I'm luckier than most. I have good parents who spend a lot of time with my three sisters and I, and they have also given us a good home in which to live."

"But, I know some who aren't quite so lucky. And I think this is what should be done:

"(1) Having more places families can go; (2) having shows on television that the whole family can watch; (3) having more places abused children can contact during emergencies."

This is the fourth consecutive year Save the Children has asked youngsters to join a national letter writing campaign. Last year more than 20,000 letters from children in almost every state were presented at a hearing in Washington before the U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Child and Human Development according to Mrs. Childers.

The letters are being tallied by Save the Children and the leading concerns will be summarized in a Children's Agenda for Action, according to Caroline Brady, National coordinator of Save the Children day '81.

meeting everyone and working with our many customers."

Milton has already purchased a home in Booneville, but it will probably be sometime in June before his family joins him here, he said.

Smith, an executive vice-president with the Peoples Bank organization, said it will probably be around May 1 when he moves to Tupelo.

He became Booneville branch manager on May 1, 1977, succeeding long time Booneville Banker Marion W. Smith.

Speaking for his family, Smith said, "We have tremendously enjoyed friendships and relationships here. We will be back in the area occasionally and will certainly stay in contact with our friends here."

During his four years as bank manager in Booneville, Smith has been very active in local civic affairs and community development projects.

SS Payments Hit $1 Million In County

Social security and supplemental security payments coming into Prentiss County each month will be pushed well above the $1 million mark by a 1981 cost-of-living increase which will take effect in July, according to Hugh Tigrett, manager of the Tupelo Social Security District.

The much talked about cost-of-living increase that social security and supplemental security beneficiaries will receive in 1981 is 11.2 percent, Tigrett said.

"The 11.2 percent increase will raise the amount to more than $1 million 200 thousand a month," he said.

This cost-of-living increase represents the increase in the consumer price index for the period April 1, 1980, through March 31, 1981, Tigrett said.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

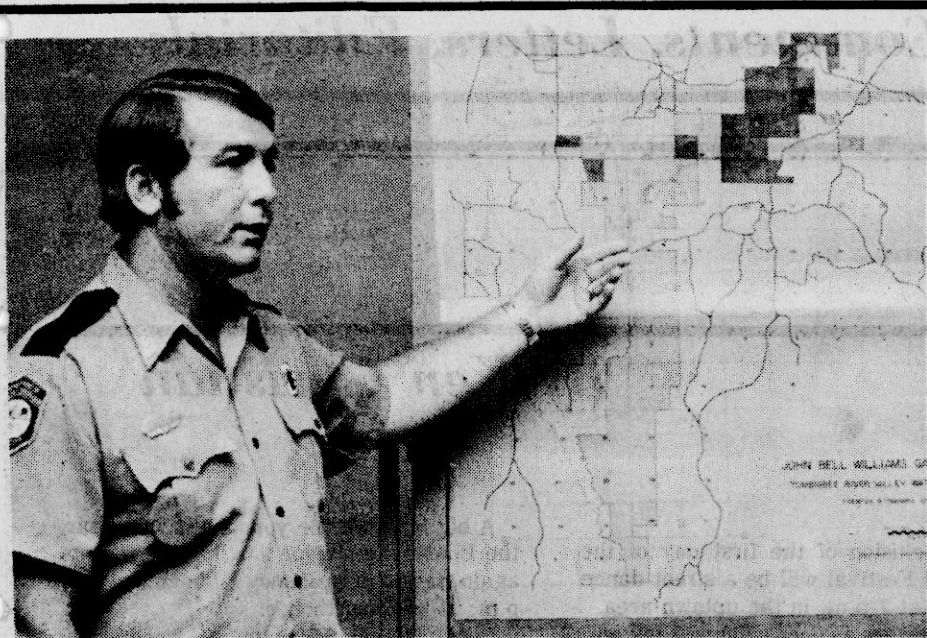

WARD HOGLAND

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, does the Bible say the only planet in which we find life is on the earth?

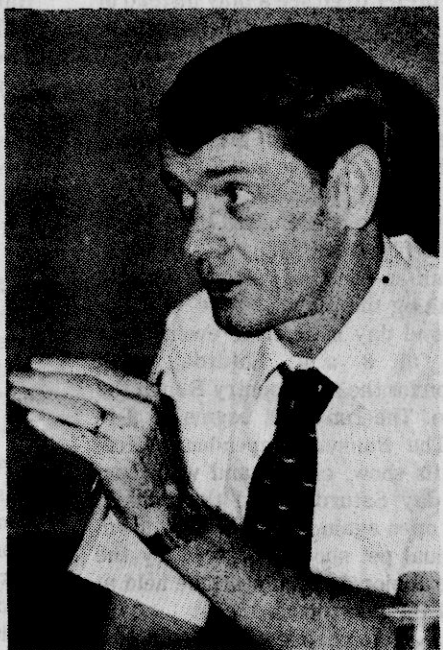

ANSWER: No, the Bible does not say that. The Bible does say life is on the earth but it does not say "Life is found on earth ONLY." For example, the Bible tells us one is saved by faith, but it does not say one is saved by faith ONLY! I doubt that any person knows this answer for sure. However, there is a strong indication that the earth is the only place which contains life. You remember when Neil Armstrong first stepped onto the surface of the moon, in July of 1969, that so many people including most of the scientific community, thought some kind of life would be found, but to their dismay NONE was found. When nothing visible was found it was then thought that some kind of microscopic life was there. This caused the astronauts to go through a long quarantine when they came back to earth. However, this was fruitless because NO life was found on the moon. When the Bible says "God created the heavens and the earth" the implication is that the earth is the only place in which God created life. However, this is by implication and not by explicit statement.

WILDLIFE MEETING— Bobby Wilson (above), a biologist with the Mississippi Department of Wildlife Conservation, points out the John Bell Williams Wildlife Management area on a map at a meeting last Friday. Benny Herring (right), MDWC director of wildlife and fisheries, said he would report information obtained at the meeting to the state commission as soon as possible.

At Meeting Friday

Help Requested For Local Wildlife Area

The John Bell Williams Wildlife Management area, located in Prentiss and Itawamba counties, is being destroyed by year-round flooding, Mississippi Department of Wildlife Conservation representatives were told Friday by area sportsmen and elected officials.

Benny Herring, MDWC director of wildlife and fisheries, met with Northeast Mississippi outdoor sportsmen Friday at the Northeast Junior College and later toured the Wildlife Management Area located adjacent to the construction of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

Spokesmen for the Northeast Mississippi group told of drainage problems which limit access to the 11,128-acre project. These drainage problems are also causing substantial losses in timber and other resources, they said.

MDWC biologist Bobby Wilson told the group there is an abundance of game within the area.

"There are deer, ducks, squirrels, quail and raccoon," he said. The area has been stocked with wild turkeys in the past, he added, but most that have survived have wandered out of the area.

Hunter use of the area is low, Wilson said.

"We could have a lot more activity under the right conditions," he said. "It is just too difficult to get into the area."

It was pointed out that there are only two access roads into the area now. Other roads which once provided access are now under water.

Although they did not blame the Tenn-Tom Waterway for creating the drainage problems in the John Bell Williams Wildlife Management Area, sportsmen said the waterway is compounding the problem.

Further development of the waterway is expected to increase water problems in the area, they said. MDWC officials said $15,000 to $20,000 a year is currently being spent by the department on the area.

Herring said he saw little possibility of a major increase of funding for the wildlife area in the future.

"Our budget increases are minimum as compared to inflation," he said. "We can't keep up with inflation."

In responding to the improvements asked for at the meeting, Herring said, "You are talking about $100,000 to $120,000 to upgrade the area. Even if someone donates $100,000 to the agency strictly for the Williams area, we couldn't touch it until it is authorized by the Legislature."

Prentiss County Development Association director Doug Mansell responded by telling Herring, "We feel like we have been neglected. Many other areas of in the state have a lot of things you won't find around here. We can't help but compare highways, 16th section lands, and other allocations." Dalton G. Garner, chairman of the Prentiss County Soil and Water Conservation District Commissioners, hosted the meeting at the college.

The John Bell Williams Wildlife Management Area was launched in 1971.

As they were preparing to view the area by helicopter, Mansell told Herring of the condition of the area: "It'll break your heart if you have any feeling for wildlife at all."

City Sales Tax Collections Are Up

For the second consecutive month, sales tax collections for the city of Booneville showed a marked increase over collections for the same period a year ago.

Sales tax collections reported for Booneville in March increased by more than $5,500 over the same month a year ago, according to the State Tax commission, an increase of almost 17.5 percent.

For several months Booneville's sales tax collections had been falling behind that collected during the same period a year ago.

In January 1981 the collections pulled up almost equal to that reported in January 1980, and in February 1981 the collections were up by more than $1,700 (more than 5 percent) from what was reported in February 1980.

In January 1980 collections reported for Booneville were $50,255, and down slightly to $50,237 for January 1981. In February 1981, the city's sales tax collections were $36,983.51, up from the $35,203.67 reported in February 1980.

Collections reported by the city for March 1981 were $37,355.44, compared to $31,810.54 reported in March 1980.

A look at the sales tax collections for March 1981 of other selected municipalities, with collections for March 1980 in parenthesis, includes:

Ashland $4,597.62 ($4,095.95); Baldwin $16,848.05 ($16,239.79); Corinth $88,966.48 ($86,872.61); Fulton $24,299.28 ($20,099.72); Hickory Flat $1,337.93

Water Fails Standards Test

During the January-March 1981 grading period, the Wheeler-Franktown Water Association water system did not meet the bacteriological standards of the federal and state Safe Drinking Water Acts, association president Winfred "Wimp" Caldwell said last week.

"The coliform bacteria average was 9.87 for the period," he said. "The standards require an average of no more than 1.0 coliform bacteria."

Caldwell said there was only one bad sample taken during that period, but it was so bad it caused the average for the entire period to be above the standard.

The bad sample was taken while the association's chlorine system was out of order, he said.

"There was no chlorine in the system at all (when the sample was taken)," he said.

The chlorine system has been repaired and is back in operation, he added.

Although the system is currently meeting standards, he said he is still required to notify Wheeler-Franktown Water Association members that the system did not meet the standards during the last grading period.

Ferrell To Perform With Lions Band

Liz Ferrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Ferrell, has been selected to perform with the Mississippi Lions' All-State Band.

More than 550 students participated in auditions for the Lions' Band. From these, judges selected 126 members.

The band will train June 7-13 to prepare for competition to be held in Phoenix, Ariz., at the International Lions' Convention.

The Mississippi Band will perform a special public concert June 14 and will leave June 15 for Phoenix to compete in the International Parade. The band will also be presented in a special "Lobby Show"—a tribute to Lionism.

Liz, a sophomore at Booneville High, began band in the sixth grade at Booneville Middle School and has been a dedicated band member for all of her years in the Blue Devil Band.

She has participated in the Delta State Honor Band and the Northeast Clinic Band, and has also participated in solo and ensemble contests for the past three years, receiving all superior ratings.

Trace Sniper Found Guilty

Ronald Glenn Shaw, charged with the December 1980 sniper death of a 9-year-old Texas boy on the Natchez Trace Parkway, was found guilty of premeditated murder last Thursday night in U.S. District Court in Oxford.

After less than four hours of deliberation, the nine-man, four-woman jury returned a guilty verdict against Shaw in the death of Terrell Johnson Jr. of Houston, Texas.

Terrell, his sister LaChelle, his mother Linda Johnson, and her fiancée Kenneth Brinkley (formerly of Booneville) and Brinkley's son were in route to Booneville for a Christmas holiday visit with relatives when the shooting occurred about 1:10 a.m. Dec. 26.

Terrell, who was hit in both legs, died at the Webster County General Hospital in Eupora later the same morning. His sister, LaChelle, now 13, was also grazed in the hip by a bullet.

Following the shooting, Shaw was arrested in the area on suspicion of drunk driving but was later held as a murder suspect after beer cans, napkins and cigarette butts found inside his truck were matched with those found at the site of the shooting.

In addition to murder, the jury found Shaw guilty of a charge of receiving a firearm in interstate commerce after being convicted of a felony and of two counts of using a firearm to commit a felony.

Sentencing will be in 30 days.

Editorial:

Now, It's Up To You!

All the planning and recruiting of events for the Boone-Hill Festival is over. All that is required now to make the festival a success is your attendance.

A dedicated group of Booneville citizens have taken it upon themselves to promote the festival, and we feel they have done a good job.

The promoters have done all they can—even changed the date from August (when it was held last year) to May so that it will be more comfortable and convenient for you to attend.

Don't let the promoters down. Whether you want to be entertained and have a good time, or whether you just want to show your community spirit, come out to the Boone-Hill Festival. You—and you alone—will make it a success, or a failure.

Browns Appreciate Help

Dear Editor:

To all of our friends in Prentiss County:

You will never know how much your prayers, contributions, food donations, and time have meant to us.

Each prayer and act of thoughtfulness will be forever remembered.

prayers throughout the duration of Steven's disappearance.

The Dwight Brown Family

(Editor's note: Fifteen-year-old Steven Brown of Falkner mysteriously disappeared March 23 and has not been heard from since. He was last seen by friends about 6:30 that afternoon after he had returned from a hunting trip.

Friends and neighbors have raised $8,500 which is being offered as a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any persons who might be responsible for the disappearance of the youth.)

Wildlife Hearing Set May 5

By REP. BILLY MCCOY

I wish to remind the sportsmen of Alcorn and Prentiss Counties of the public hearing to be held by the Department of Wildlife Conservation in Tupelo on May 5 at 7 p.m.

The meeting will be in the community center at the fairgrounds.

The legislators from extreme Northeast Mississippi have promised and sought a meeting such as this for our immediate area.

Since there will be only three of these major hearings in the state this year, Tupelo was chosen for North Mississippi as the hearing site.

This will be an opportunity for all hunters and fishermen to express their own opinions on any aspect of a sport in which they have a particular interest.

Hopefully, within the next few months we will be able to secure a hearing with top Department of Wildlife Conservation officials that can be held even closer to Alcorn and Prentiss Counties.

Senate Report

By Bill May

Senator District 5

Itawamba, Prentiss and Tishomingo

(Editor's note: In his column this week Sen. Bill May continues to describe major legislation passed by the 1981 Mississippi Legislature.)

H.B. No. 1343: This bill revises the justice court system of the state.

Until April 1, 1982, with the exception of Hinds County, the justice courts of the state will operate essentially as they did prior to the federal court's decision with one major exception, the venue in civil cases is restricted to the district where the defendant resides to prevent the objectionable forum shopping that occurs under the present system.

Until April 1, 1984, all cases in Hinds County, with the exception of traffic violations, will be assigned by a justice court clerk appointed by the board of supervisors.

The clerk will file and record actions, receive money and issue all process necessary to conduct business in the justice courts.

The clerk will assign cases to the justice court judges in the district where jurisdiction and venue is proper on a rotating basis to insure equal distribution among the judges in the district.

Traffic violations will be assigned according to the ticket number. Odd-numbered tickets will be assigned to the judge designated as "Justice Court Post No. 1" and even-numbered tickets will be assigned to the judge designated as "Justice Court Post No. 2."

After April 1, 1982, the justice court judges of all counties will have countywide jurisdiction and venue in civil and criminal cases.

The board of supervisors of each county will appoint a person who will serve as a clerk of the justice court system of the county. The board may also appoint other necessary employees. Each justice court clerk is empowered to file and record actions and pleadings, to receive money and to issue all process necessary for the operation of the justice court.

All civil and criminal cases are commenced by filing the necessary papers with the clerk. The clerk then assigns the cases to the various judges of the county as nearly as practicable on a rotating basis.

Until Jan. 1, 1984, justice court judges will be compensated on a fee basis. Individual counties may go on a salary system at an earlier date.

Prior to Jan. 1, 1984, by order on its minutes evidencing the fact that a petition has been filed with the board and signed by a majority of the justice court judges of such county requesting that all the justice court judges of the county receive an annual salary, the board of supervisors of such county may place the justice court judge of the county on a salary.

If a county goes on a salary prior to April 1, 1982, the jurisdiction and venue of justice court judges of that county would become countywide at such time as the salary system is instituted.

At that time the board of supervisors will be required to appoint a justice court clerk who would have the duties described earlier.

In counties that decide to go on salaries prior to Jan. 1, 1984, a special fund called the Justice Court Support Fund will be set up in the county general fund.

All fees that are collected are placed in this fund to pay expenses incurred in complying with this act.

The chancery clerk is authorized to make disbursements from the fund. This fund is abolished on Jan. 1, 1984, at which time all fees will be placed in the general fund, and all expenses and salaries incurred in complying with this act will be paid from the general fund.

After Jan. 1, 1984, the number of justice court judges will be reduced. The number of judges a county will have depends upon the counties' population according to the latest federal decennial census.

The number of judges is determined as follows:

County population of 35,000 and less, two judges; more than 35,000 and less than 70,000, three judges; more than 70,000 and less than 150,000, four judges; and more than 150,000, five judges.

After Jan. 1, 1984, all justice court judges will be compensated on a salary basis depending on the population of the county. Salaries will be as follows:

County population of more than 200,000, salary of $30,000; more than 150,000 but not more than 200,000, $27,500; more than 75,000 but not more than 150,000, $25,000; more than 49,000 but not more than 75,000, $22,500; more than 35,000 but not more than 49,000, $19,375; more than 24,500 but not more than 35,000, $17,500; more than 16,000 but not more than 24,500, $10,000; more than 8,000 but not more than 16,000, $6,250; and less than 8,000, $2,500.

This will also be the salary scale in counties deciding to compensate their judges on a salary basis prior to Jan. 1, 1984, with the following exception: the salary may be set by the board of supervisors at a lower rate but in no event lower than the total amount of fees collected by the justice court judges of the county during the preceding year divided by the number of justice court judges in that county.

After Jan. 1, 1984, the justice court judges will be required to take basic and continuing education courses conducted by the Mississippi Judicial College.

The basic course shall consist of 32 hours of training and the continuing education course, which shall be conducted annually, shall consist of at least 18 hours of training.

Reflections

Reflections

By Ken Christian

How many times have you heard it said, "There's nothing to do in Booneville"? Have you ever said it yourself?

If you have, then, boy, do we have a weekend for you.

There is enough going on in Booneville this weekend to exhaust even the hyperactive by trying to keep up with everything.

For starters, there is the Boone-Hill Festival which kicks off at 9 a.m. Friday with the opening of the arts and crafts booths in the uptown area, an art exhibit at the George E. Allen Library and clowns performing in the streets.

There will also be a "moon walk" beginning at 9 a.m. I'm not exactly sure just what that is and I'm afraid to hazard a guess, but I'm sure it will be interesting.

At 11:45 a.m. Friday, the Booneville High School Band will give a concert on Main Street.

At 5 p.m. Friday is the event I'm looking forward to the most—the dunkin' booth. I understand several of our prominent citizens stand the chance of getting a good soaking during this event.

The Prentiss County Shrine Club will also be sponsoring a softball tournament Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the West Side City Park. Northeast Athletic Director Bill Ward is coordinating the tourney.

The conclusion of the first day of the Boone-Hill Festival will be a street dance beginning at 7 p.m. in the uptown area.

But, if you are as uncoordinated as I am, you might prefer to go see a play instead of making a fool of yourself in the streets of Booneville.

Although it is not a part of the festival, the Junior Class and the Speech Class of Booneville High School will present a two-act comedy, "Bend, Tear and Spindle," at 7:30 p.m. in the BHS auditorium.

If you are more coordinated than I am, (which is highly likely), you can still get in almost half-an-hour of street dancing before making the play.

The second day of festival events gets underway at 8 a.m. Saturday with registration for the Hill Country Run at the courthouse. The run itself begins at 9 in front of The Banner-Independent office.

The crafts show, clowns and walk continue all day Saturday and the dunkin' booth will open again at 1 p.m. downtown.

The annual pet show sponsored by the Booneville Junior Auxiliary will be held at 11 a.m. at the courthouse.

An antique auto parade will start at 1:30 p.m. at Northeast Junior College, followed by an antique auto show from 2 to 4 at the Peoples Bank.

A big hit with the youngsters last year, the Booneville Junior Auxiliary will once again stage a puppet show. It begins at 2:30 p.m. at the courthouse.

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. at Northeast's Hargett Hall, the Miss Boone-Hill Pageant will conclude the second day of the festival. The pageant is sponsored by the Organization for Handicapped Mississippians.

In addition to the festival events, there are other activities scheduled Saturday night.

The Booneville Lions Club will hold a fish fry and auction Saturday night, beginning at 5 p.m. at the city park. Candidates for offices in the May 12 city election have been invited to speak between the fish fry and the auction. (A limit of two minute each has been established for the candidates' speeches.)

Also on Saturday night, the Northeast Mississippi CB Club is sponsoring a free concert by The Miracles, a singing group from the Baddour Center in Senatobia. The performance, which will also include a film about the center, will be held at the West Side Community Center beginning at 7 p.m.

Do you still think there is "nothing to do" in Booneville?

Eyes On Mississippi

Allain Test Could Alter State Government

By BILL MINOR
Columnist

JACKSON, Miss.—Atty. Gen. Bill Allain is at it again. He keeps insisting that the peoples' business be conducted in public, and walking out when state boards or committees try to close their doors.

Doesn't he know, no elected state official in Mississippi has ever acted that way?

The other day, Allain almost brought to a halt the initial meeting of the joint legislative committee created to revise the state's five Congressional districts and the 174 districts in the Mississippi Legislature as a result of the 1980 census.

Allain was asked to sit in with the committee on its hiring of outside legal counsel to advise the committee during preparation of its redistricting plans and assist in getting its recommendations cleared at the federal level. When the committee started to go behind closed doors to make its decision, Allain said he would have to leave.

The lawmakers promptly did a little back peddling and decided to stay in open session to discuss with Jerris Leonard and Champ Terney their employment as the committee's counselors.

Leonard, now a Washington lawyer, was the old Justice Department civil rights chief during the Nixon administration who is high in Republican Party circles, while Terney, from Indianola, Miss., happens to be Jim Eastland's son-in-law.

This is not the first time Allain has insisted that the peoples' business be done in public. Back last year, he first stunned the newly created Mississippi Housing Finance Corporation board, and its legislatively-dominated Oversight Committee, of which he was made a member by the law, by walking out when it went into executive session.

What did the lawmakers on the Housing Finance Corporation Oversight Committee do? They proceeded to dump him off the committee by rewriting the law in the recent 1981 legislative session.

But the lawmakers even went further in their rewrite of the Housing Finance Corporation law, giving the Oversight Committee voting power rather than merely advisory power, in the decisions of the corporation.

Since there are 10 lawmakers on the Oversight Committee and only nine laymen on the corporation's board, the new setup appears to be another invasion by the legislative branch into the executive functions in the state.

Allain's attitude on openness in government and his disinclination to worship at the legislature's shrine: has apparently not gone unnoticed around the legislative halls. For the second session in a row, Allain asked the legislature to create a white collar crime task force under his office to deal with public officials' corruption.

It was given rather serious consideration last year by the lawmakers, but this year, the legislature didn't even give his proposal the time of the day.

There may be, some Allain insiders say, a major collision coming down the road between the surprisingly independent Attorney General and the wide-ranging power of the Mississippi legislators.

Allain, it is known, is very concerned over the practice that has grown in the last 20 years of legislators' "double-dipping" by serving on state boards and commissions which operate in the executive branch of state government. Some Allain-watchers say he could become the key figure in at last bringing down the double-dipping practice.

In the mid-1960's, then Atty. Gen. Joe T. Patterson was on the verge of instituting quo warranto proceedings to oust two lawmakers appointed to the State College Board from their legislative seats. It caused such a stir in the bastions of the legislature that the two legislators were prevailed upon to back down before Patterson took the issue to court.

Patterson died not long after and the confrontation with the legislative incursion into executive functions of the state was dropped by Patterson's successor, A.F. Summer. Meantime, the legislature has moved more and more of its members on to state boards.

Allain is now making a test which could become a turning point in state government here, by entering the Mississippi Power & Light rate case before the Hinds County Chancery Court as the advocate on behalf of the public, rather than the Mississippi Public Service Commission which under the law he is supposed to represent.

The Public Service Commission had agreed to give MP & L $48.3 Million rate hike, but Allain is seeking to cut it back to $22 million in the public interest. Now the court will have to decide if the Attorney General is entitled to serve as the public's advocate instead of merely defending actions of state governmental bodies and officials.

If Allain gets the clearcut decision he is seeking to represent the public again—a governmental agency or official, Allain intimates believe he will move further into the area of public advocacy.

One of his primary targets, these sources say, will be putting an end to the double-dipping by legislators on boards in the executive branch.

That could rattle the rafters around the State House like they've never been rattled before.

Talented Queen Pageant Is Planned

Members of the Development Club are currently making plans for the eight annual Talented Queen Pageant to be held in May at the East Side Community Center.

The Development Club first began in 1973 under the name B.T.A. It was composed mainly of interested young people who had attended school together and who felt the need for an organization that would foster and develop pride in its community, according to a club spokesman.

The group, B.T.A., strived to provide an outlet of expression for the youth in the community by sponsoring activities to meet these needs, he said.

A scholarship fund was provided for students interested in attending a neighborhood college, the spokesman said. The scholarship was awarded based on academic standing and financial need.

Although B.T.A. changed its name to the Development Club in 1977, its goals remain the same, the spokesman said.

In 1973 the first Talented Teen Pageant was held at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College. The first winner was Mae G. William, who was sponsored in the state pageant in Jackson.

Other winners of the local pageant since then include Lisa McGee, Lynette McGee, Janice Grizzard, Mary Warren, Gladys Hurd, Vanessa Shumpert, and, last year's winner, Beverly McGee.

Fifteen girls, ages 13 to 16, have already signed up for this year's pageant, the clubs spokesman said.

Participants are judged in three categories: personality and achievement, talent, and evening gown competition.

Applications will be taken through May 16, the spokesman said. Anyone wishing to participate should meet with the coordinators at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, May 2, at the East Side Community Center in Booneville.

"We are planning to make this year's pageant the event of the year," he said.

"Benjamin McGee, Charles Warren, and LaHear Harris have already promised to lend their singing and acting talents for that evening's guest talent and commentator slots," he said.

"We hope to add other names to that list."

Glover, whose funeral was conducted last Sunday, April 26.

I want to thank the doctors and nurses at North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo. I was a patient there April 21-23 for x-rays and tests. It helped to receive cards and calls. I was thrilled to see Bro. Haskell Sparks, who was once our minister here at Oak Ridge. A special thanks to a good friend who gave me a lovely rose-colored gown.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Miller who live in Booneville were visitors at services on Sunday, morning, April 26. They were accompanied by their daughter, Carolyn.

Visitors are always welcome.

The George Coats family was happy to have some of Senitta's relatives to visit recently. They were her brother, Dexter Brady, and family of Blue Mountain and her sister and family of Booneville. They all enjoyed a bountiful meal together with much reminiscing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Wilson of Tishomingo were visiting us last Saturday. They also stopped enroute home to check on Aunt Myrtle Harris. A call revealed that Aunt Myrtle is not well as usual—her days and nights are mixed up.

Other visitors we had were from Sheffield and Florence, Ala. It was good to see my sister, Mrs. Fay Mann, and her son Steve. He was home on vacation from San Francisco where he works for the IRS. It was a double pleasure for we had not seen Steve for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barnes and Jack had relatives to visit them Sunday, April 26. They were delighted to have Mrs. Joan English and small daughter, Darla from Booneville.

There's to be a wedding tonight at 8 p.m. A report will be given later.

STUDENTS OF MONTH—BPW Club students of the month are (from left) Deanna White, Booneville, April; Darlene Sweeney, Jumpertown, March; Terina Hatfield, Wheeler, February; Monte Hare, Thrasher, January; Becky Sims, New Site, December; and Cindy Chaney, Booneville, November. Blanche Carter (seated) is chairman of the club's award committee which will select the student of the year from data obtained on each of these girls. The girl selected will be honored at the May meeting of the BPW Club.

Library Notes

By LEE DAVIS
Librarian

Paintings and works of artistry are now being put into place for the art exhibit at the library on Friday and Saturday.

We invite you to pay us a visit to enjoy this display when you are taking part in the rest of the Boone-Hill Festival. The beauty, variety and interest of the exhibit will reward you in pleasure.

"Neighboring Lives," by Thomas M. Disch and Charles Naylor, is a new historical novel that those with an interest in English literature will especially enjoy. It is a re-creation of the private and working lives of many of the 19th century's greatest artists and writers.

Action set within a few square blocks along the River Thames makes the reader part of the lives of Carlyle, Leigh Hunt, John Stuart Mills, Rossetti, Lewis Carroll and others.

Other new novels include "Getting Even," by Edward Behr, and "Death Mask," by Hugh Pentecost.

A book with something new to offer non-fiction readers is "The Crocheter's art: New Dimensions in Free-Form Crochet." The subtitle very aptly describes its contents.

Another is "The Way Things Work, Book of Nature," by John Gauthbert Brown. It treats a wealth of topics. One of them might be just what you are seeking.

Larry Floyd Is Assigned

Airman Larry D. Floyd, son of George H. Floyd of Booneville and Ann L. Hisaw of Route 1, New Site, has been assigned to Lowry Air Force Base, Colo., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations. In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the intelligence field.

Pat McFerrin of Booneville has sent her favorite pizza recipe to share with all you pizza lovers out there. Try it because it is really good! Thanks, Pat, for taking the time to share it with us.

Scratch Hamburger Pizza

Crust: 1 pkg. active dry yeast, 3 cups sifted all purpose flour, 1½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup warm water, 2 tablespoons soft shortening. Dissolve yeast in warm water. Mix in half the flour with salt and shortening. Beat until smooth, then mix in remaining flour gradually. Cover and let rest 10 minutes. Divide dough in two parts. Dip fingers in oil and pat dough onto greased baking sheets making two 11-inch rounds, keeping edges a little thicker than center.

Add toppings and bake at 375 degrees until nicely browned (about 30 minutes). Toppings: 1 lb. hamburger meat (brown & drained), 18 oz. can tomato sauce, 1/3 cup chopped onion, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon oregano, ½ lb. shredded cheese. Mix all ingredients together except cheese. Spread onto crusts. Top with cheese. There are many other ingredients that can be added on this pizza. For pizza supreme, I added chopped green pepper, sliced mushrooms and chopped up ham. Perhaps you prefer other ingredients that could be added. When it comes to pizza, anything goes! Have fun and enjoy, but watch out for the calories. Happy birthday wishes are extended to Scotty White on May 2, Glenda Newborn on May 3, and Tommy Hopkins on May 5. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strawberry Time!

Fresh strawberries have become such a familiar springtime fruit, it's hard to believe that they were once surrounded by superstition. At one time, the berries were thought to have considerable medical value, by some. One early writer called them a "surprising remedy for jaundice of children." Another recommended their use for bilious fevers.

However, during the Middle Ages, they were considered quite unhealthy if eaten with supper or late meals.

Handle with care—proper care begins at the supermarket. Make strawberries one of your last purchases then hurry them home. Sort and discard any soft or spoiled berries and refrigerate the rest, unwashed.

Just before using, wash gently and quickly in cold water. Do not let the berries stand in water. They quickly lose color and flavor.

After the berries are clean and dry, remove the caps and they're ready for eating or further preparation. The quickest and easiest way to pinch the cap off is with your fingertips, but if you feel better about it, you can use a clean, sharp knife.

Add a bit of sweetening if you like and then you have a real treat to enjoy.

Fresh, strawberries arrive at the time when fresh oranges and grapefruit are on the decline. This is good, for strawberries can help supply the Vitamin C we get from these citrus fruits.

This is not only good to eat, but good for us. A cup of strawberries contains enough Vitamin C for an adult's daily needs at the cost of only 55 calories per day.

You can freeze strawberries whole, sliced or crushed in sugar syrup, in dry sugar or without sugar. Sweetened berries keep quality better than unsweetened ones, but unsweetened packs are best if you want to use non-calorie sweeteners when you serve the berries.

For the sugar pack, mix ½ to ¾ cup of sugar with each quart of clean, ripe, crushed, sliced or whole berries. Place in moisture-vapor resistant containers, leaving ½ to 1 inch headspace. Label with date and type of pack; seal and freeze.

You may freeze whole:

berries with nothing added, but flavor and color keep better if you cover them with water to which you have added ascorbic acid. Crushed or sliced berries keep quality fairly well without addition of either sugar or ascorbic acid, but, either one helps to retain flavor and color.

To make frozen jam without added sugar, wash and cap one quart of ripe strawberries. Crush the berries in a heavy saucepan. Stir in three to four teaspoons of liquid sweetener (½ teaspoon equals one teaspoon of sugar), a 1-¾ ounce package of powdered fruit pectin, one teaspoon of lemon juice, and as much red food coloring as desired.

Boil mixture for one minute, stirring as needed. Remove from heat and continue to stir for two minutes. Pour into freezer containers, seal, label, and freeze. Thaw before serving and refrigerate after opening.

Strawberries 'n Cream Salad

1 (6 oz.) package

strawberry flavored gelatin
2 cups boiling water
2 cups sliced strawberries
1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
2/3 cup salad dressing
mayonnaise
2-½ cups cold water, divided
1/3 cup toasted slivered almonds
1 (2 oz.) package cream cheese, softened
¼ teaspoon almond extract

Dissolve strawberry-flavored gelatin in boiling water. Add 1-½ cups cold water; chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in strawberries and almonds. Pour into an 8-inch square pan; chill until set but not firm.

Soften unflavored gelatin in 1 cup cold water; place over low heat, stirring until dissolved. Combine salad dressing and cream cheese, blending until smooth; stir in unflavored gelatin mixture and almond extract.

Spoon over strawberry gelatin. Chill until firm. Cut into squares to serve. Yields 8 to 10 servings.

To those who find the way confounding and who walk with fear,

Offer a strong and steady hand in understanding.

Pause to dry the tears of one who weeps alone in sorrow and despair.

Throughout the long and silent night.

The hours, the days, the years fly by so swiftly—never to return, and the twilight curtain descends. Before we are aware that the show is over.

Oh then, make haste to be kind and to love.

There is so little time, there is so little time!

Copied

"There is so Little Time"

O, make haste to love! There is so short a time between the rising sun and the twilight star.

Make haste to speak in kindness to a troubled heart, Before the moment passes and is forever lost.

For Phone Service

Free Numbers Announced

Effective this week, South Central Bell is providing its Booneville business customers two toll-free numbers to use to discuss their telephone service.

"All applications for initial service, changes in existing service or requests for assistance concerning improvements in communications systems, can be handled by calling 1-960-3014," local District Manager T.H. Bailey said. "To discuss a business bill our business customers should dial 1-960-3010."

Specialized groups of service representatives have been established to answer the two numbers.

"Since communication needs of Mississippi businesses are becoming more sophisticated and complex, this move will enable us to better equip ourselves to meet these demands in the business market," Bailey said.

Both numbers will be listed in 1981 telephone directories delivered after April 27. Also the number to call for billing questions will be shown on the front of each future bill.

The new procedure will not affect requests for repair service from business customers.

"All repair calls should continue to be made to the repair number listed in the directory," Bailey said.

"We believe this new arrangement will provide the total business community faster, more efficient action on customer requests," Bailey said.

Miracles To Appear In Musical Program Here

Two Prentiss Countians, Dianne Gann and Tommy Buchanan, will appear in a special musical program at the West Side Community Center in Booneville Saturday at 7 p.m.

Dianne and Tommy, residents of the Baddour Memorial Center at Senatobia, are members of the Miracles, a singing group from the Center that has made personal appearances throughout the country.

The group was formed in 1979, and after only six months of training has made more than 100 appearances in schools, churches and before civic groups. During 1980 the singers travelled more than 30,000 miles and performed before 42,000 persons, including a performance at the White House.

The Baddour Memorial Center is a residential community for mildly and moderately retarded adults. It is designed to promote maximum growth mentally, spiritually, physically emotionally and vocationally.

Twenty residents, which include Dianne and Tommy, are selected to travel as Miracles and to serve as ambassadors for the Center. The group's engagements are in addition to their regular jobs, which range from sewing and woodwork to horticulture and heat transferring on T-shirts.

The local appearance of the Miracles is sponsored by the Northeast CB Club to give Prentiss Countians an opportunity to learn about the work being done by the Baddour Memorial Center.

People of our community are happy to see the improvements made at the Blackland Community Center. The lighted ball field has really had a lot of interested people working. Some work on the building has been done and bathrooms installed. Several things have been planned to raise money to pay bills for the work already done and for other improvements.

Recently a softball tournament was sponsored over the weekend. Winners were Johnny Johnson's Furniture, first; Sell Rite Furniture, second; and Wheeler placed third.

On May 11, at 7 p.m. at the Blackland Community Center there will be a drawing for the positions in the bracket of the Women's softball tournament. For further information call 728-5042 or 728-6630.

ASCS Report

By C.E. CALVERT

County Executive Director

Farmers Certify Wheat

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service is currently accepting acreage reports for the 1981 farm program. Since there are no set-aside requirements or normal crop acreage limitations, all farmers who file an accurate acreage report will be eligible for program benefits.

Farmers have until May 1 to report the sizes and intended uses of their wheat crops. The report should be as accurate as possible. The more accurate the report, the less trouble farmers will have to qualify for deficiency and disaster payments.

ASCS will randomly check farms to verify that acreage reports are accurate and also make aerial photographs available for farmers to identify their fields.

Farmers who have not certified their fall-seeded program crops are urged to do so as soon as possible. The Prentiss County ASCS office is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

1981 Peanut Acreage
Set at 8,000 Acres
In Mississippi

Farmers in Mississippi intend to plant 8,000 acres of peanuts in 1981, which is 7 percent more than in 1980, according to a January survey taken by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Peanut supplies for the current marketing year total 3 billion pounds, about one-third less than the previous season and the smallest supply in 11 years.

USDA officials say dry weather caused the 1980 crop to drop 42 percent below the 1979 crop. Peanut exports were the second highest on record last season but the short crop will limit this season's activity.

Farmers averaged about 23.5 cents per pound for their 1980-crop peanuts.

According to USDA officials, late season prices were sharply higher, but more growers had already sold their crop and were not able to realize the sharply higher prices.

The national peanut acreage allotment for 1981 was increased by 8 percent to 1,739,000 acres while the poundage quota was decreased by the maximum 5 percent to 1,440,000 tons. The increase in the acreage allotment was needed to provide an adequate supply for the domestic and export markets. The increase is also reflected in planting intentions with expected peanut acreage to total 1,608,800 acres, 4 percent more than in 1980.

For 1981, quota peanuts will be supported at $455 per ton and additional peanuts at $250 per ton.

Our deepest sympathy to the "Round Lady's" family in the passing of her sister, Mrs. Johnny Glover, and to the "Walking Cane's" family in his passing last week (W.C. Cagle). Our sympathy to both families.

Don't forget this weekend, our members have work to do. Please be at town Saturday morning at 8:30 in full uniform.

We have to work about 2-3 hours, and then we will need someone to help in the booth. So we need your help.

Also Saturday night, don't forget we will be having the benefit for the Baddour Center. We will have a very busy weekend.

We would like to invite each and everyone to the Community Center Saturday night. We think you will enjoy yourselves and to know you are helping someone else.

Some of you have asked what we in the C.B. Club do and what our main goal is. We are a group of people from all walks of life with a C.B. radio and with a desire to help other people, who in sometimes of their lives need a helping hand.

Since March of last year: in the month of March we gave $200. to a cancer victim; in the month of July we had two wheel chairs repaired for two children for $314.80; in September our scholarship for Northeast was $200, also at benefit for a family in which we gave $901.

In November we paid $200 on a family drug bill; in December we had a road block for the Rehabilitation Center in Tupelo and raised $1,569.34.

We invite a group from our county to our Christmas social and give them all gifts. We gave a small baby's family $200. on their expense, and another $50. on another family's drug bill.

In January 1981 we purchased two wheel chairs and one bed for a total of $1,500. We paid part of having a phone installed for a family $75.

In the month of February we held a benefit for a family and helped to raise $1,200. Also we purchased two more wheel chairs. In April we paid $500. for an artificial leg, and, as of last Tuesday night, we helped three families with $300 each.

We hope that this will help each of you and us to know we are trying to help others. We all enjoy doing what we do.

We had nine members out at Jumpertown Friday night at their benefits. They enjoy being with them.

The "Upholstrey Man," "Tweety Bird," and the "Chipmonk," were in Atlanta over the weekend for the wedding of her kin. They had a very good time.

"Yo Yo," and I went to Jackson with county science fair winners. We are very proud of our county winners from Wheeler and Thrasher, also Mitzi Johnson from Booneville, placing in the State. We are very proud of these young people.

We would like to wish a happy birthday on Sunday to the "Pine Tree," and the "Round Lady." Hope each of you had a good day.

We will be looking forward to seeing you this weekend. Go to the church of your choice, but go.

USE OUR NEW blood pressure teller

TO CHECK YOUR BLOOD PRESSURE

High blood pressure is the leading cause of heart attack, stroke and kidney failure. It's called the "silent killer" because the only way to know you have it is to check it — regularly. We make it easy for you — because we want to do everything we can to help you ENJOY your retirement years in prosperity and good health.

High blood pressure is NOT a disease of old age — this myth developed because the devastating consequences of the disease — heart attack, stroke, kidney failure — usually occur in older people. That's only because elevated pressure was not detected and controlled when they were younger and "felt great". High blood pressure the "silent killer," rarely gives any symptomatic warnings, but quietly and consistently overtaxes your cardiovascular system, progressively causing damage to many vital organs.

EVER MILD HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE, UNTREATED, CAN MEAN ACTUAL LOST YEARS OF LIFE . . . for example a man 35 years old with an average pressure of 150 over 100 may reduce his life expectancy by sixteen and one-half years! Yet high blood pressure can be treated and controlled after consulting with your physician — often with only simple adjustments in lifestyle.

SEC Briefs

BIRMINGHAM, AL (Sp)—Mississippi State made its move in Southeastern Conference baseball last weekend and moved right to the top of the Western Division. The Bulldogs smashed season-long leader Alabama in three games—8-4, 5-3, 13-5—for a 15-5 SEC record to the Tides' 12-5-1. State, with a 1½-game lead, is 34-10 overall with Alabama 33-10-1.

The Eastern leader, Florida, fought a pair of challengers for the full week to re-establish superiority. Playing Tennessee at Knoxville Wednesday and Thursday, the Gators lost two of three (9-11, 04-10-7), but back home Saturday-Sunday they trimmed Vanderbilt three times, 7-6, 2-1 and 11-2. Florida is now 14-6 SEC and 29-13 overall. Kentucky is next on 9-8 and 33-13.

Tennessee moved on to beat Georgia two of three (1-2, 16-10, 13-7) and Auburn tagged LSU two of three (4-3, 2-3, 12-4). In the new standings, Tennessee is now third in the East, then Vanderbilt and Georgia, while in the West Ole Miss is third, then Auburn and LSU. In the West, anyone but LSU may, by mathematical possibility, attain second place and a place in the SEC championship tournament May 15-16-17, and in the East any team, period, may do so.

This Saturday-Sunday Alabama hosts Auburn in the 3-game set while Ole Miss visits LSU in the West.

The East has Kentucky hosting Georgia and Tennessee visiting Vanderbilt. SEC teams were 13-8, with others last week to total 160-77 for the season so far, or 67.5 percent.

Junior College for the past two years, has been named to be head coaching spot at Northeast Mississippi Junior College, President Harold T. White announced today.

Mathis, who has coaching experience, on the high school, junior college and university level, will be replacing Noel Akins, who resigned earlier this year.

A graduate of Southeast Lauderdale High School and East Mississippi Junior College, he received his B.S. and M. Ed. degrees from the University of Southern Mississippi.

While attending USM, Coach Mathis played guard for the late Lee Floyd. He later served as graduate assistant under the former USM coach Eugene Clark.

Before accepting the head men's coaching position at East Mississippi, Mathis served as assistant to the men's coach in 1975. For the next three years, he continued to assist in men's basketball and served as head women's coach, leading them to a 2nd place finish in the National Tournament in 1979.

Coach Mathis holds an overall record of 70-37 while coaching in the public school system and a 90-44 overall college record.

Commenting about his new position, Coach Mathis said, "I look forward to working at Northeast; it is a modern, vibrant educational institution that has traditionally made a strong commitment to a winning basketball program."

"We are pleased to have a man of Coach Mathis' caliber join our athletic staff and we look forward to working with him in the coming season," Coach Bill Ward, athletic director said.

Mathis, who will be assisting with the summer athletic camps for both junior and senior high school athletes, commended both the area players and coaches for their fine talent. "Northeast Mississippi is known for its consistent high quality athletes and I hope that many of them will be persuaded to play their first two years of college basketball, here at Northeast," he added.

"Coach Mathis brings to Northeast experience and success in the junior college program," President White said. "Because we were able to secure his professional services, we feel that we will be able to continue our commitment to present a quality athletic program," he added. "We are pleased to welcome Coach Mathis, Mrs. Mathis and their children to the Northeast family."

Bailey Howell To Assist At NE Camps

Former professional basketballer Bailey Howell will be one of the guest instructors in the Annual Northeast Basketball Camps scheduled to start in Mid May.

Howell, who has assisted in the camps before, plans to make a return engagement this year along with several coaches from the five county area added two the Northeast basketball staff.

At presstime only the basketball camps are scheduled which includes the junior high boys, the girls and the senior high boys.

The Junior High Boys camp kicks the summer camps off scheduled May 24th through May 29. The girls camp then follows set for May 31-June 5 with the senior boys camp slated for June 7-12.

A large response is expected for all three camps according to athletic director Bill Ward. Ward said he hoped as many or even more would attend this year as last year.

The purpose of the camp is to teach skills in fundamentally sound basketball and to improve abilities in the finer points of the game. With these goals in mind, Northeast strives to develop the future athletes' ideas in sportsmanship, leadership and citizenship.

Campers can either stay on campus for the week or commute with a $90.00 fee set for over night campers and a $70.00 tuition has been set for the day campers.

The week long event will be climaxed with an Awards banquet to be held giving awards to Most Improved, best freethrow, one on one competition, Most Valuable Player, and Sportsmanship.

An All-Star game will also be held with the best of the bunch matching each other to end the week long event. Additional information concerning the entire camp program may be obtained by contacting the Northeast athletic department at 728-7751.

Strict 'Lee' Speaking Coaching Chatter: Will He Or Won't He?

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

Basketball coaches talk is now the big topic of conversation around town and at the coffee shops.

Topics like is Gerald Caveness going to New Site? Will Booneville hire one coach or two? Who is going to Northeast? Etc., etc.

How would one answer these questions? Only time will tell.

Don't bet your farm on it either way. Net Site's fans have been busy this past weekend trying to get Coach Gerald Caveness back to his old stomping grounds and at presstime Wednesday New Site Principal Larry Morgan couldn't confirm a position for the current Alcorn Central mentor but rumors have it that Caveness will indeed be the new coach at Royal Country.

The Prentiss County native has been at Central for the past two seasons after serving a very successful tenure at Booneville High School and of course everyone knows the record he had in his earlier years at New Site.

New Site is certainly not the only school that has their eye on Caveness. With this man's record he could almost write his pay check at the school of his choice.

Who will get the Booneville job? Well, since Bobby Knight is almost assured his position back at Indiana the Booneville job appears to be up for grabs.

Booneville High School principal Mac Curlee said Monday that they hoped to have a new coach by the end of the new week.

Curlee said the school had several responses for the job but just couldn't tell as of now who the new coach would be.

Both jobs are vacant at Booneville. And it appears Two Coaches will be hired to serve both positions although this isn't final either.

Northeast has filled both their positions now and that speculation is over. But as far as the Booneville and New Site roundball positions go, it looks as though we'll just have to wait and see.

Will Gerald Caveness go to New Site? Will Caveness go to Booneville? Will John Wooden come out of retirement to accept one of the County positions? These and a few more questions will be answered in the continuing drama of "Pick a Coach"...Don't miss it....

Final Date To Register

Friday May 1st is the deadline for a team to enter the Booneville City League Softball Association it was announced by a spokesman Monday.

The league will hold a final registration date Friday night May 1st at 6:30 p.m. at the Booneville West Side Park Pavilion for both the mens and womens leagues to register.

A representative from each team must be present to have a team in the league. League membership is $150.00.

TIMBER TIPS

By Lanny Autry
In 1977, the Mississippi Legislature passed the Foresters Registration Act as a safeguard for landowners by regulating the practice of forestry and requiring that persons practicing forestry as a registered forester actually be registered. This Act assures the landowner that a forester is registered in this state and is bound by a strict code of ethics to practice a high standard of forestry. It also assures that he is professionally qualified to offer his services. Always use a registered forester.

The 4-H Market Pig Project For 4-H Youth

It's that time of year again to be thinking and considering the 4-H livestock shows.

You have heard, I am sure, of the long-time television celebrity, Arnold Ziffel. The name may not be familiar at the moment, but I bet if I further describe him as the little white pig on the television series, Green Acres, you will recall him immediately.

Arnold is a very intelligent "person." Maybe I should say pig, but can any pig do what Arnold does? Arnold is extremely well-mannered for his species and unlike his pig cousins, he can perform almost any human task.

Of course, Arnold has been taught these acts much the same way you learned to walk, ride a bike or ever speak. That sounds almost unbelievable for a pig.

We usually think of pigs as being those ignorant, lowly animals whose appetite never seems to end, that enjoys the simple things of life like rooting, playing in the mud, and sleeping in the sun. We also immediately associate members of this species with one of the most obnoxious odors we have ever known.

If this is true, how then can a pig be as clean, well-mannered, and clever as Arnold?

Actually, all pigs are very intelligent, and pigs of today live under more pleasant conditions than we once thought. They have many conveniences that we do not have and can be easily trained to perform much the same way you would train your dog or horse.

You could have a pig like

Arnold, that you could yourself train and become attached to like you do with your dog. You might not be able to teach him to watch television or even turn the channel, but you could teach him to perform properly as a "show" pig.

Have you ever heard of showing a pig? Well if you participate in the 4-H swine project, you will have the opportunity to train and show your pig in the 4-H swine shows.

The 4-H swine project is for boys and girls, ages 9-19, who have an interest in animals, and who desire to learn more about them. This project presents you with the challenge of accepting responsibility, developing your abilities of dependability and improvement of character.

It gives you the opportunity to work with and become friends of many other young people enrolled in this project as well as learn how to care for your very own pig and finally show him in the many 4-H swine shows.

There is no thrill that can compare with that of exhibiting your animal on show day and receiving ribbons, trophies, and prize money for your efforts.

If you are interested or would like to know more about this 4-H swine project, get in touch with your Extension 4-H Youth Agent today. Who knows what you will be able to train your pig to do. You may even teach him some things that Arnold doesn't know. After all, Arnold was once an ordinary pig.

If you do, then your pig may become famous and you could name him Arnold—or Lester—or Edgar—or Homer—or whatever.

If you need help or would like to enroll in the pig project, call 728-5631.

Compare Yields

What you harvest is the thing that really counts when it comes to producing soybeans. Variety, of course, is one of the many factors that influence yield.

No single soybean variety is always the best yielding in all areas and under all conditions. A variety that produces the most in sandy loam soils may not be the highest producer in clay soils and vice versa.

In comparing yield results of different varieties, look at several years of yield performance at research stations similar to your own soil and location. To get an accurate picture, compare performance of varieties of the same maturity grown at the same location under similar conditions.

For the latest information on yield results in your area, contact the county Extension office.

More Food For Thought

Farmers receive an average of 37 cents for every $1 spent in grocery stores for U.S. farm-grown food. The remaining 63 cents goes for marketing food products from the farmer to the consumer.

It may interest you to know the farmer's share for specific farm products. They receive 61 cents per $1 for choice beef; 58 cents for a $1.05 half-gallon of milk; 4.6 cents for the wheat in a 51-cent loaf of white bread; and 36 cents per 87 cents spent for frozen concentrate orange juice.

Manage Grazing

If you overseeded ryegrass on permanent pastures last fall, you'll need to manage the grazing carefully to insure the most production from both grasses.

As overseeded pastures produce more grazing than cattle can eat, add more cattle to keep ryegrass down and allow the permanent grass to grow. By concentrating cattle on overseeded areas, you can save some grazing planted on a prepared seedbed for hay.

Ryegrass makes good quality hay if it is harvested no later than the dough stage. But quality drops fast as the grass matures.

VOTE YES FOR CHIEF W. W. STACY

W. W. STACY

I would like to thank you for your help and support in the past and would like to ask for your continued support. As you know I have always tried to enforce the law as it is written...equally for all citizens without regard to any special interest group.

We have a good town here. We have had some problems with drugs, but it isn't as widespread as in other places. My officers and I are working constantly to protect our children from this problem. In this fight against drugs, the parents are our most important ally.

I would like to see our town with a juvenile corrections program and a drug counseling program. However, at this time we do not have the funds for such programs. So we are having to do the best we can with the facilities available.

In the last 16 years, my office has always been open to the citizens of Booneville and I will continue this policy. I will be available at any time to talk with anyone concerning law enforcement problems they may have.

Your vote and influence in my race for re-election as Chief of Police will be greatly appreciated. Be sure to vote on Tuesday, May 12, 1981.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Fraidy Cat

Scripture: Galatians 6:7-8

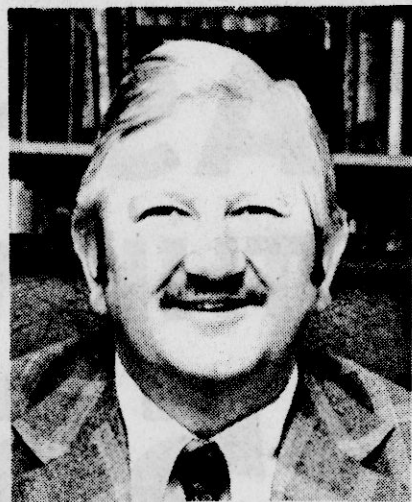

By Charles L. Potts

Don't be misled; remember that you can't ignore God and get away with it: a man will always reap just the kind of crop he sows.
If he sows to please his own wrong desires, he will be planting seeds of evil and he will surely reap a harvest of spiritual decay and death; but if he plants the good things of the Spirit, he will reap the everlasting life which the Holy Spirit gives him.

Each morning we rise to see. We look through the den window or from the carport. The trees now leafing out so fast it often takes a second glance before we can see the soft white kitty perched some 35 feet up. It's now day seven. Neighboring dogs have sent kitty up different trees before...but 7 days with no water and food!

Now there is a real lesson here for all "FRAIDY CATS". Its not the fear of physical danger that we speak. It is the spiritual "FRAIDY CAT" that is also "up the tree." People live day in and out...forming habits and styles of life they know to be sinful and wrong. To tell them they are filled with fear...well, they would not understand. The fear of allowing God to change ones life is very real for it cuts across social expectations, habits, and "rut living" that have been formed over a period of time. And although our life style may result in the loss of our life...our soul, those out of God's will are so by choice...and are afraid.

"Choice"...yes, the cat has the equipment...claws to come down immediately. However, so much like we, the cat wants to do this "head first." We just cannot reason our way to God alone...it takes total commitment. And if...only once that cat finds that the backing process is the only way; then we will win our beautiful cat back. Equally so with the lost sinner. If the first real step is taken the choice becomes much easier, and the accompaniment of God empowers us onward. We too have the equipment...the choice to accept what God has done for us in Christ Jesus our Lord. This alone is our freedom from fear.

Tombigbee District Boy Scout Camporee

Camping: A Little Work... A Lot Of Fun!

The Tombigbee District Boy Scout Camporee was held at the Booneville City Park for scouts in Prentiss and Itawamba counties for the first time this past weekend. According to Jimmy Russnogle, area scout executive, 58 boys and 17 leaders attended.

After a day of competition Saturday, troops were awarded ribbons for first and second places.

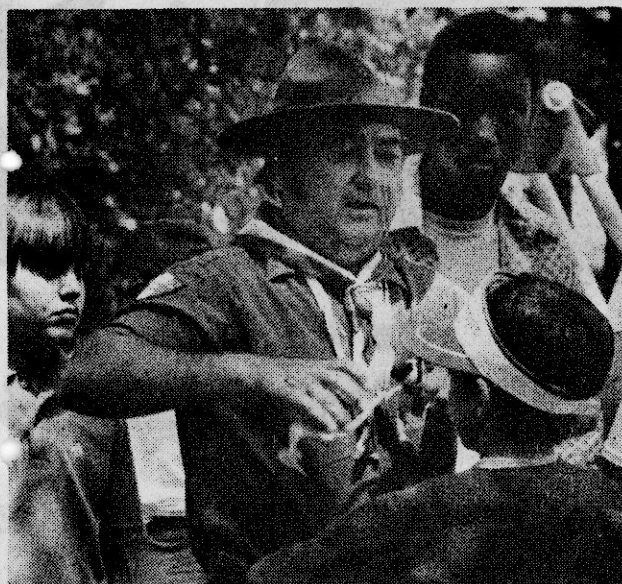

Receiving first place ribbons were Troop 15, sponsored by the Mantachie Lions Club; Troop 79, Brown Shoe Company; Troop 107, Hill's Chapel School; and Troop 49, Fulton First Methodist Church.

Second place ribbons went to Troop 37, Booneville First Methodist church; Troop 96, Booneville Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; Troop 57, Oak Hill Church; and Troop 92, Jumpertown School.

In the inter-troop softball tournament held Saturday afternoon, Troop 57 took first place, Troop 96, second; and Troop 37, third.

Judges for the various events were Emmons Turner, Bill Murphy, Horace DeVaughn, Will George, Hal Willcoxon, Gary Lindsey, Lanier Thompson, and Randy Moffitt.
