After Midnight Chase

Alcorn Escapees Captured At Frankstown

Two escapees from the Alcorn County Jail were recaptured in Prentiss County near Frankstown Tuesday morning after a harrowing chase by Booneville police officers down U.S. 45 the night before.

The two men, James Austin, 20, and William Abbey, 20, both of Tupelo, reportedly escaped from the Alcorn County Jail Sunday night and apparently worked their way down the ICG railroad tracks from Corinth to Booneville.

When the escapees arrived at SCP Inc., a Booneville plastics factory located adjacent to the railroad, they apparently stole a pickup from the parking lot in an attempt to get to Tupelo.

A worker at the plant called the Booneville Police Department about 12:20 p.m. Tuesday and reported that he had just seen two men drive off in a pickup owned by Tim Gann of SCP.

Although no description of the vehicle was given on the radio, Booneville policeman David Wesson said that, as he and officer Eddie Miller approached the red light at the Northeast Mississippi Hospital, he spotted a 1979 maroon pickup heading south on U.S. 45. He said he recognized the pickup as belonging to Gann.

The two officers immediately gave pursuit and radioed for assistance, he said.

The officers chased the two men down the highway toward Frankstown, firing approximately 20 rounds at the truck in an attempt to shoot out the vehicle's tires, Wesson said.

As the vehicles approached Frankstown, another Booneville officer, Gurley Williams, passed both vehicles in another patrol car in an attempt to get far enough ahead to block the road at a bridge, Wesson said.

When Williams got in front of the pickup and saw that he could not get to the bridge in time to block it, he hit his breaks, Wesson said.

"They (the fugitives) thought he was going to lock it up, and swerved off the highway," Wesson said.

The pickup left the road between the last two bridges before reaching Frankstown and flipped over three times, Wesson said. Neither of the patrol cars were damaged, he said.

When the officers arrived at the scene, the fugitives had already gotten out of the pickup and had run off, Wesson said.

"They probably were thrown from the truck when the windshield broke out," he speculated.

Wesson said that, apparently due to the age of the pickup, the chase never exceeded 80 mph.

To help search for the two men, other law enforcement agents were called in, including members of the Prentiss County Sheriff's Department, the Alcorn County Sheriff's Department, the Mississippi Highway Patrol, and officers and dogs from Parchman prison.

The escapees were finally located about 10:45 Tuesday morning hiding beneath some underbrush at a creek a short distance from where the pickup wrecked.

Austin and Abbey, along with two other prisoners, had reportedly escaped from the Alcorn County Jail

No May 12 Election For Marietta

There will be no May 12 election at Marietta.

According to a spokesman for the Marietta City Hall, the May 12 primary election will be dispensed with due to the fact that only five candidates qualified for the five available positions on the board of aldermen, and only one candidate qualified for the office of mayor.

Tommy Harris and Hershal Pharr Sr., along with incumbents Hollis Pharr, C.T. Moore and Kenneth Moreland, qualified for the five positions on the board of aldermen. Incumbent James C. Pharr is the only candidate to have qualified for mayor.

Marietta will hold the general election on June 2, the spokesman for the city said.

Municipal Primary Elections Will Be Held Next Tuesday

Prentiss County residents who live in Booneville, Baldwin and Rienzi will have a chance to cast their votes for city officials in the cities' primaries Tuesday.

Both Jumpertown and Marietta have announced they will not hold primary elections, only general elections on June 2.

There will be 19 candidates on the ballot in Booneville. Mayor Charles Crabb is unopposed, but 13 candidates are running for alderman and five for chief of police.

All five incumbent Booneville aldermen—Bluford Allen, Jack Arnold, Wade Lambert, Charles Steen and Norman Young—are seeking re-election.

They are being challenged by Willie D. "Dicey" Jumper, Jimmy Jones, James C. "Jack" Kendrick, Perry Henderson, G.T. Pharr, R.G. Houston, L. Christian and Stanley Downs.

In the race for Booneville Chief of Police, incumbent W.W. Stacy is being challenged by John O. "Bob" Lambert, Franklin Nolon Oswalt, R.C. Calton and Johnny Lee Nichols.

City Clerk June Hutcheson said the polls for Booneville's election will open at 7 a.m. Tuesday and will close at 6 p.m. All votes will be cast at the City Hall in Baldwin, incumbent

Former School Teacher Files Suit Against City

A former Booneville school teacher, who did not receive a job with the Booneville Separate School District when the city schools separated from the Prentiss County School System last summer, has filed a federal suit in U.S. District Court in Aberdeen seeking $250,000 in damages.

Eddie Jumper, a black, taught math and science for four years at Anderson Junior High School while the city schools were still in the Prentiss County School system.

He lost his job when the Booneville schools split from the county school system in July 1980 to form a separate school district, the suit claims.

Named as defendants in the suit are city supt. Troy Henderson, Dr. William H. Preston Jr., president of the city school board, and school board members Betty Anderson, Richard Coggins, William Morgan, and R.B. Prichard.

In his suit, Jumper says he was recommended for re-employment before learning Anderson Junior High School would become a part of the separate school district.

The suit says that Jumper and other teachers at Anderson received notices from county supt. Lex Cain in late 1979 stating the school would join the Booneville district on July 1, 1980, and that his contract would not be renewed with the Prentiss County School District for the next school year.

The federal suit maintains that Jumper and other teachers received letters from the board of trustees of the Booneville district on March 21, 1980, inviting

Trespassing Charges Against Sheriff McCauley Dismissed

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

Charges of malicious trespassing, filed last month by a Booneville woman against Sheriff John McCauley, his son, and a sheriff's department radio operator, were dismissed "without prejudice" during a pre-trial hearing in the Prentiss County Courthouse Friday morning.

Mrs. Myra Tyra of the August Circle Apartments had filed the trespassing charges on April 11 with second district Justice Court Judge Dexter Cadle.

She claimed that Sheriff McCauley, his son Ralph, and radio operator Jim Newby had entered and searched her apartment illegally on the afternoon of April 8 while looking for her husband, Ed Tyra.

She said she had known that an arrest warrant had been issued for Tyra in Lee County, but that since she and her husband were separated and in the process of getting a divorce, she had not seen him for some time.

After questioning Mrs. Tyra under oath at Friday's hearing, defense attorney Thomas Keenum moved that the charges be dismissed.

He contended that, although they did not have a search warrant, the sheriff and the other two defendants had acted according to the law since they had entered Mrs. Tyra's apartment in pursuit of a suspected felon for whom a warrant had been issued.

Since Mrs. Tyra had not engaged an attorney to serve as a special prosecutor, County Attorney John Hatcher acted in his normal capacity as prosecutor.

However, he agreed with Keenum and declined to

Burglars' Getaway Attempt Foiled By City Policemen

The alertness of a Booneville Police officer prevented thieves from getting away with about $45,000 worth of merchandise and equipment from the Prentiss County Co-Op Saturday night.

Assistant Police Chief Bobby Jones, accompanied in his patrol car by off-duty policeman Sam McGee, was on routine patrol about 11:30 Saturday night on Lake Street in the Sunflower community when he met a spreader truck owned by the Prentiss County Co-Op.

"I wondered what the Co-Op truck was doing out so late at night," Jones said later. "And as I got closer the driver leaned over so that I couldn't see who it was."

The officer said he made a U-turn and pulled in behind the truck.

When he did, the driver of the truck opened the door and jumped out, leaving the truck rolling down the road without a driver while he ran off into the woods.

Luckily the truck didn't hit anything and came to rest in a field, Jones said.

Police officers immediately started a search for the driver of the truck, but he managed to elude them.

Further investigation revealed that the spreader truck was loaded with nine 5-gallon cans of Treflan and 80 cases (400 gallons) of Basagran, all taken from the Prentiss County Co-Op.

The Booneville Police Department reported the total value of the fertilizer and the truck the burglars attempted to take from the Co-Op to be $45,000. All of it was recovered, the department reported.

Booneville Police Chief W.W. Stacy said that, prior to the break-in, the spreader truck was parked inside a wire fence at the Co-Op with the keys in the ignition.

The burglar cut the wires to an alarm on the building and then built a blind to shield themselves from the road, he said.

"They cut the wire, crawled through the fence, and broke out a window to get inside the building," Stacy said.

"They raised the door just high enough so it wouldn't show, and pushed the Treflan out and loaded it on the truck," he said.

After the truck was loaded, the burglars cut the chain on the gate and drove the truck out. "That's when Jones met him," the chief said.

Because of the blind built by the burglars, "you would have to be behind the building to see what they were doing," Stacy said. "You couldn't see it at all from the road."

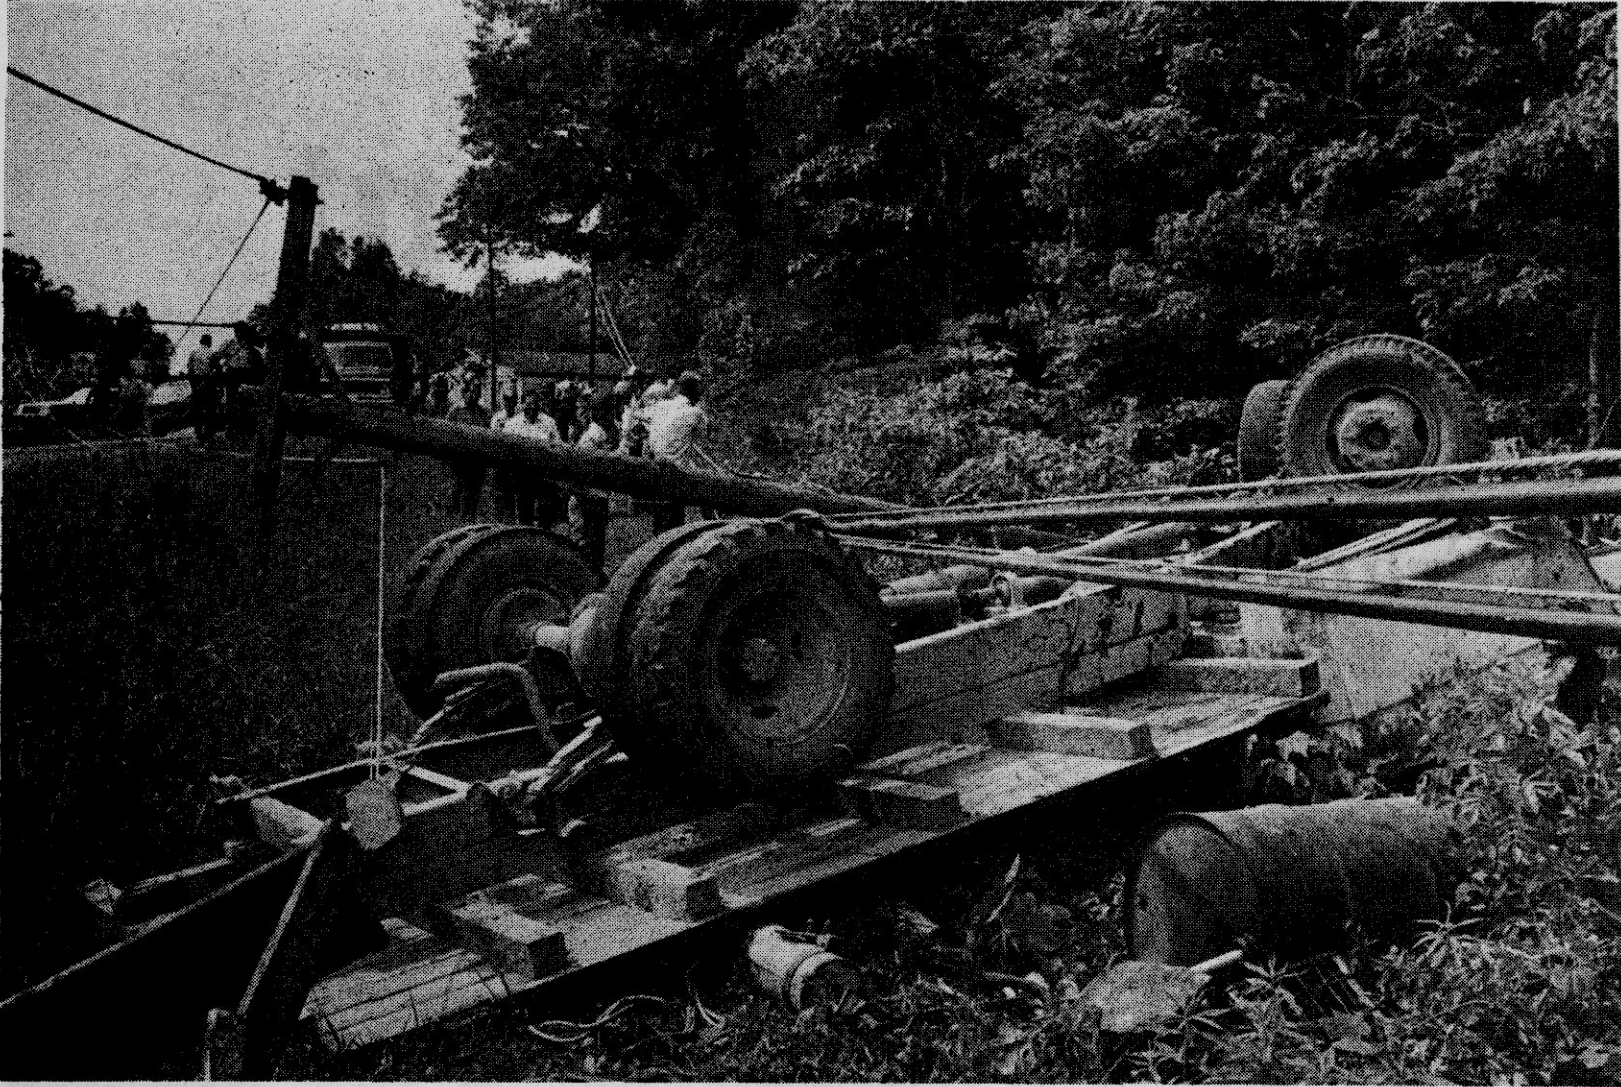

Although there was only one person in the truck when it was spotted by Jones, Chief Stacy said there were probably more than one person involved.

"We have some prospects," he said. "It is being thoroughly investigated by state and local investigators."

STOLEN MERCHANDISE—Approximately $45,000 worth of merchandise and equipment were taken from the Prentiss County Co-Op by burglars Saturday night after they cut the wires to the store's burglar alarm. Nine 5-gallon cans of Treflan, 400 gallons of Basagran, and a spreader truck were taken but were later recovered by Booneville Police.

CLIPPED POLE—A logging truck driven by Tillman Hall of Prentiss County veered out of control, left the road and broke an electric power pole about 3 p.m. Friday on Highway 4 near Hobo Station. Hall escaped with only minor injuries, but electric power service in the area was interrupted for some time while Prentiss County Electric Power Association workers cleared the debris and replaced the pole. Traffic was also blocked for some time because of wires stretched across the road when the pole fell.

Alcorn Escapees

Arrest Report

The Booneville Police Department reports a total of 16 arrests during the period of April 26 to May 2. Charges placed in connection with those arrests include: DWI, 5; reckless driving, 2; possessing a concealed weapon, 2; driving with suspended license, 1; family disturbance, 2; disturbance, 1; simple assault, 2; driving without a driver's license, 1; public drunkenness, 4; tampering with TV cable, 1; and illegal TV hook-up, 1. A total of 25 traffic accidents were investigated by the police department during the month of April, it was reported.

Alcorn County, according to Alcorn's chief deputy Terry Doles. Austin and Abbey have also been charged with grand larceny by Prentiss County authorities in connection with the theft of the pickup from SCP. Three Corinth men, Berome Luster, 19, Jerome Luster, 24, and Andre Spears, 21, have been arrested and charged in Alcorn County with aiding and abetting the escape.

prosecute the case. "Based on my research of the law," he said, "I feel the sheriff acted within the law." Hatcher quoted section 99-311 of the Mississippi Code, which says an officer may, without a search warrant, forcibly enter a residence to make an arrest of a person on whom an arrest warrant has been issued, even if the officer does not have the warrant in his possession. Judge Cadle dismissed the charges, saying, "Where the State does not wish to prosecute, I have no choice but to dismiss." The charges were dismissed "without prejudice," which Hatcher told Mrs. Tyra means that if she feels she has grounds to proceed with the case, she may appeal it to the Grand Jury or may take civil action against the defendants. The action taken Friday was not a trial, but a hearing on a motion to dismiss the charges. Under questioning from Keenum prior to the dismissal of the charges, Mrs. Tyra, who was the only person to testify, the alleged illegal search occurred between 2 and 2:30 p.m. April 8. In answer to Keenum's questions, she said she is married to Edward Tyra, but that their divorce should become final in May. She testified that he is the father of two of her three children. She also admitted that, prior to the incident on April 8, she knew Lee County had an arrest warrant for her husband and that he had previously pled guilty to other charges in Lee County. She told Keenum that when she answered the door for the sheriff, "He asked where Ed was at. I told him I didn't know and that he wasn't there."

Keenum: "Did you tell him not to come in?" Mrs. Tyra: "No. I thought he might have a search warrant."

After the questioning by Keenum, Hatcher asked Mrs. Tyra to tell in her own words what happened. She said she called Booneville attorney Joe Ray Langston while the sheriff was still in her apartment and he told her that if they did not have a search warrant she should ask them to leave. Hatcher: "Did you ask them to leave?" Mrs. Tyra: "They told me they didn't have to."

Hatcher asked Mrs. Tyra if he had not previously informed her of section 99-311 of the Mississippi Code. She responded with an emotion outburst, "If you want to dismiss it, go ahead," and ran from the courtroom. While Mrs. Tyra was being returned to the courtroom, Keenum moved that the charges be dismissed and Hatcher concurred. Judge Cadle made the ruling and, when Mrs. Tyra came back, informed her of what had taken place. She was advised by Hatcher that she could appeal the ruling to the Grand Jury or could take civil action against the defendants. Keenum was assisted in the defense of the sheriff by Booneville attorney Greg Keenum.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX
QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, does the Bible actually say homosexuality is wrong? Would you comment on this subject.

WARD HOGLAND
ANSWER: Yes, the Bible does condemn this vile sin. I will give you the scriptures. The first time we read about this practice is in (Gen. 19:4-8), and it was practiced by men of Sodom; thus the term "sodomite" (Deut. 23:17; 1 Kgs. 14:24, etc.) It is rather clear from (Gen. 19:1-13) that the practice of homosexuality, or sodomy, was the very thing which brought about the destruction of the cities of the plains with fire and brimstone from the Lord. Further proof of this is in (Jude 7), where a warning is given: "Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and GOING AFTER STRANGE FLESH, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." Furthermore, we read in (Lev. 20:13) that the practice is an abomination unto the Lord. Then, if some doubt as to whether the Bible condemns this practice they should read (Rom. 1:24-27.) Paul says, "God gave them up unto vile affections; for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature; And likewise the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet."

SCIENCE FAIR WINNER—Tracey Gifford displays four trophies and three plaques she has won from her science fair project which looks at how white mice are affected by what they eat. Tracey plans to attend the International Science Fair May 10-16 in Milwaukee, Wis., as an alternate to the overall Mississippi Science Fair winner.

Tracey Gifford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. Gifford of Booneville, will attend the International Science Fair in Milwaukee, Wis., next week after placing as an alternate in overall judging at the State Science Fair competition. Tracey's project, entitled "How nutrition affects the behavioral pattern of musculus (white mice)," won first place in its division at science fairs at her school, at the Northeast Science Fair held at Northeast Junior College, and at the state science fair.

Tracey, who attends Thrasher High School, said she began her project three years ago. She tested seven white mice, each raised on a different diet. The mice with well-balanced diets proved to be much more healthy than the others, Tracey said.

She is the only student from Prentiss County to qualify to go to the International Science Fair, according to her science teacher, Mrs. Patsy Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson and Mitzi Johnson, who won third place in the state contest, will accompany Tracey to Milwaukee.

$5,000 ACTION Grant Approved

A $5,000 grant from the ACTION agency in Atlanta, Ga., has been approved to support a volunteer effort to help remove attitudinal barriers and establish suitable recreation for handicapped persons in Prentiss County.

The Organization for Handicapped Mississippians (O.H.M.) recently received notification that the grant has been approved.

The local volunteer program supported by the grant will be called M.A.R.P. (Mainstream Accessible Recreation Program), according to Mrs. Sarah Smith Cummings, president of O.H.M.

The original application for the grant was submitted in March 1980, Mrs. Cummings said. It has been revised and resubmitted twice since then.

The last time it was submitted, in January 1981, it was approved after two months of consideration by ACTION, she said.

"Grant funds of any kind are hard to get now, due to the federal budget reductions," Mrs. Cummings said. "It takes a lot of work to get an application approved now and we are very fortunate to have persons like Kay Old and Quay Michael who have the ability and professional talent to help prepare applications of this type."

Mrs. Old did the complicated technical arrangement and typing for the application, and Mrs. Michael, through the P.I.F. Committee of the Pilot Club of Booneville, provided community base support, Mrs. Cummings said.

"There are not many persons who have the professional skills to prepare an application like this and even fewer who will donate their time and skills, but we are very fortunate in having the help of very capable persons," she said.

"Mayor Crabb and other city officials have always been supportive of our efforts and we appreciate their support," Mrs. Cummings added.

Anyone interested in the program may contact Mrs. Cummings at 728-9862.

For Community Fund

Kickoff Breakfast Held

A Tuesday morning kickoff breakfast for the committee chairmen signaled the beginning of the Prentiss County Community Fund's 1981-1982 fund raising campaign.

Although the drive did not officially start until the Tuesday morning meeting at Northeast Junior College, the committees have already been working and several chairmen reported they have almost reached their goals.

The overall goal for this year's drive is $33,000.

Jean Ellis, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Tupelo, was guest speaker for the meeting.

She charged the committee chairmen with the increased importance of their jobs in helping the agency reach its goal.

"A variety of services are needed in every community, and many of them must be met through the 11 agencies receiving money from the Community Fund," she said. "With governmental budgets being cut it is more important than ever that these volunteer services be available."

"The Community Fund is people helping people," she said. "It is people needing a friend and being one."

Tommy Walden, overall drive chairman, reminded the committee chairmen to bring their progress reports to the Bank of Mississippi between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. each Friday during the drive.

The world is yours, Class of '81.

Some of you are ready to tackle it now and some will continue their education in hopes of being better prepared to solve the world's problems.

Every generation has different--and seemingly more--problems foisted onto it by the preceding generation. But remember, your problems are no more unique, no more numerous, and probably no more difficult than those inherited by graduates of previous years.

The job market has shrunk, and more and harder work will be expected by your employer. But the grads of the 30's faced far worse job problems than you.

The world situation is tense, but graduates of the 40's went to war. And graduates of the 50's faced cold wars.

Graduates of the 60's faced hot war again in some of the most brutal and senseless fighting ever faced by mankind. And graduates of the 70's had to contend with runaway inflation that eroded the value of their easy-to-earn bucks.

So, new grads, if you don't find the job you feel worthy of your talents, few ever do. But hopefully you won't have to go to war.

You are healthier, handsomer, taller and brighter than any previous generation. You can expect more years of pain-free, productive life than ever before. And there is still room at the top in whatever field you may choose.

But the road to the top has not been paved with gold, and it won't be easy.

We have, however, preserved for you a voting booth where you can cast your ballot for a change in secret. And a church door that is still open and unguarded. And sound technology based on two hundred years of freedom to choose your own course.

But most important, we give you opportunity. The opportunity to take your new broom and your new mop and use them to preserve, protect, defend, improve and pass on to the next generation what we give you.

Think you can do better than we have? Good. Show us.

Letter From NEMMA

Thanks For 'Revue' Support

Dear Editor,

The Northeast Mississippi Music Association (NEMMA) held its "Vocal Talent Revue 1981" at the Booneville Community Center on March 21.

The NEMMA is a non-profit organization. In making the music association a success, we hope to be able to help our area of music lovers to have the contacts in which to further their interest.

The association is here to aid anyone in their future plans of writing music, singing, playing an instrument, or whatever their choice may be. It is to benefit our Northeast Mississippi area in many ways.

We hope this opens the "door of opportunity" for many adventurous persons. Success is in trying to achieve a goal--and not giving up.

At this time, the NEMMA wants to take this opportunity to thank everyone involved for their support in making our "Vocal Talent Revue 1981" a success.

We want to give a special thanks to Mayor Charles Crabb for his support and the warm welcome he gave; photographers Larry Brasfield and Johnny Lambert of Jackson, Tenn. Sound engineer Mike Cunningham, members of O.H.M., last year's grand prize vocal winner Miss Lisa Stewart of Louisville, Miss., for entertaining and presenting awards, to our judges, Frank Chapin, Crossroads Theatre of Corinth, and Jim Kolb, of R.U.S.H. Productions, Sallito, and to the contestants for making this event possible!

Sincere Thanks
NEMMA
Nina Taylor, president

Minimum Standards Set For Law Officers

(Editor's note: In his column this week Sen. Bill May continues to describe major legislation passed by the 1981 Mississippi Legislature.)

By SEN. BILL MAY
District 5
Itawamba, Prentiss And Tishomingo Counties

S.B. No. 2191 (Signed by Governor): This bill creates the Board on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Training, which will have the authority to set minimum standards of education and training for law enforcement officers.

The board will consist of nine members. The Governor will appoint a member from each of the following categories: a chief of police of a municipality, a sheriff, a district attorney, and a representative of higher education.

The remaining members will be the Attorney General, the Commissioner of Public Safety, the chief of the Mississippi Highway Patrol, the president of the Mississippi Municipal Association, and the president of the Mississippi Association of Supervisors.

The board will certify officers as being qualified under the provisions of this act and the board's rules and regulations. In addition, the board will approve law enforcement officer training schools operated by the state or a political subdivision.

The Criminal Justice Planning Commission will provide administrative and fiscal support for the board.

Law enforcement officers already serving under permanent appointment on July 1, 1981, will not be required to meet the standards imposed by the board. Law enforcement officers employed after that date have one year from their date of employment to comply with the act.

An officer who does not comply with the act shall not be authorized to exercise the powers of law enforcement officers generally, and

Key Democrats Needed For Enactment Of Economic Program

By STAN PARRIS
Chairman
House Task Force on Economic Policy
U.S. House of Representatives

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The first major test of the Reagan Administration's ability to enact its economic program will come early in the month of May when the House of Representatives votes on a budget resolution that establishes targets for federal spending, revenue goals and projected deficits for the next fiscal year. No congressional roll call during the next two years will be more important.

There will be two different versions of the budget resolution before the House—one budget was drafted by House Budget Chairman Jim Jones (D-Okla.), Speaker Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill (D-Mass.), and the second budget was proposed by President Reagan and then revised slightly by Congressmen Delbert Latta (R-Ohio) and Phil Gramm (D-Tex.).

The second version of the budget will be offered as an alternative to the O'Neill-Jones proposal that was approved by the House Budget Committee. It has the full support of the White House because it reflects those actions President Reagan believes necessary to restore the nation's sagging economy, including a reduction in federal taxes, a cut in federal spending and elimination of needless government regulation.

Whether or not the budget proposal supported by the President and considered by the White House to be essential to his economic program is enacted will depend upon the votes of 62 conservative Democrats from 20 states, including Congressman Jamie Whitten of Mississippi.

In the past, most of these Democrats have always placed the best interests of America ahead of partisan considerations when voting on matters of critical concern to the nation. But there is concern in Washington that this time the pressure may be too great.

O'Neill and Jones have combined forces with those liberal organizations who oppose President Reagan's efforts to cut federal spending from social programs and with those groups angry about the President's attempts to increase spending for national defense in an effort to force these Democrats to support the budget proposal.

In an effort to make their proposal more palatable to the 62 Democrats who hold the key votes, O'Neill and Jones have labeled their budget "the conservative alternative" to the Reagan budget and pointed out that it potentially could result in a smaller budget deficit.

This is a masterful political smokescreen but it won't stand up to serious scrutiny.

The O'Neill-Jones proposal is a return to the business-as-usual policy that has allowed Congress to lead this nation to the brink of bankruptcy. O'Neill and Jones would reduce defense expenditures by $4.4 billion, increase appropriations for extravagant social programs by $45 billion over a three-year period, and reduce the President's proposed tax cut by $16.6 billion. Is there any wonder the net result of such a move would be a lower deficit? O'Neill and Jones plan to reduce the federal deficit by increasing taxes.

The Reagan budget proposal in contrast would reduce both individual and business taxes across-the-board to create a climate for industrial expansion and economic growth. It will stabilize our monetary supply, end the oppression of excessive government regulation and curtail the costly growth of the federal bureaucracy that is strangling our economy.

The O'Neill-Jones approach to economic policy is one of the reasons we have reached the point where more Americans receive checks from the federal government than pay income taxes. That is especially shocking when you consider that less than one half of the households receiving Medicare, Medicaid, subsidized housing or school lunches are classified as poor.

Can anyone defend the fact that the interest on the national debt this year will be $90 billion? We must stop this economic madness!

President Reagan proposes to do just that. But he needs help. The partisan ratio of the House of Representatives is presently 242 Democrats to 190 Republicans with vacancies for congressional seats in Ohio, Mississippi and Maryland. To obtain passage of the Reagan economic package at least 27 conservative Democrats must be persuaded to vote with a united Republican House membership.

It is a classic political struggle. But I am optimistic about the outcome. I believe the President's effort to turn the economy around has widespread support throughout the country, support that will encourage those 62 Democrats to sustain the President's budget proposal. Such a vote will go a long way toward redirecting the course of America's economy and providing a new beginning for all Americans by changing the fundamental course of our federal government.

Reflections

By Ken Christian

How do you feel about the way your city is being run?

Do you think there should be some changes? Or do you think that those in office are doing a pretty good job?

Whatever your opinion, this Tuesday is your chance to make it known.

For four years now all you could do was complain when you weren't happy with the city government, or brag on our city fathers when they did something you liked.

Except for any possible runoffs and the general election on June 2, the municipal election this Tuesday is the last time for four more years that you will have a chance to do something about your city government—either for it or against it.

For each candidate in the aldermen race and in the race for chief of police, you have three options: You can cast a vote in approval of those already holding that position; you can vote for a change in that position by voting for another candidate; or you can show you really don't care by staying away from the polls.

If you decide to choose the third option, then it is you who loses, not the candidates. Because then you are letting someone else decide who will run your city for the next four years.

In every election someone always says, "We don't have any real choice," or, "There's no one running that I want to vote for."

That's a bunch of hogwash. There is always one candidate who will do a better job than the others. As a citizen, it is your duty to try to pick out that candidate.

Even if you are wrong and the person you vote for doesn't live up to your expectations, you've still done your duty—all that you can do.

And if you should make a mistake, you will have a chance to correct it after four more years.

Eyes On Mississippi

Population Shifts To Play Political Role

By BILL MINOR
Columnist

JACKSON, Miss.—The first data coming out of the 1980 census as to the changing racial patterns in Mississippi foretell development of some new political strategies the rest of this decade by those in the public arena if they hope to survive.

Statewide, the percentage of blacks in Mississippi showed a slight drop in the census, from 37 percent in 1970 to 35.2 percent in 1980, marking the third straight drop since 1960 when blacks represented 42 percent of the population.

At 35.2 percent, that still makes Mississippi have the highest percentage black population of any state. Obviously, this state is nothing like the 50-50 ratio which many outsiders still seem to think it has.

What is significant about the 1980 census is that the outmigration of blacks which accelerated during the late 1940's and through the 1950's has slowed down now to a trickle. Even though the black percentage dropped a point or so over the last decade, the total number of blacks in Mississippi increased from 815,770 in 1970 to 887,206 in 1980.

The early indicators from the census data are that blacks are only leaving rural areas, not urban areas. In fact, there's good reason to believe that blacks are not only staying, but increasing, in the urban areas, making the city black vote more of a political factor.

A prime example of that is in Jackson, where blacks, according to the 1980 census, constitute 47 percent of the population, compared with 39 percent in 1970. What has obviously happened here is that whites have been moving to the suburbs that reach into Madison County on the north and into Rankin County on the east.

Madison county, which had a 62.5 percent black population in 1970, dropped to 56 percent black in 1980, largely because of the influx of whites from Jackson.

National Hospital Week Set May 10-16

"Looking Well Into the Future" will be the theme of Northeast Mississippi Hospital's celebration of National Hospital Week May 10-16.

"We think that our 1981 National Hospital Week theme fittingly describes the commitment of our hospital staff to improving the future health of our community," said Carl Barker, hospital administrator. "We devote our fullest resources to providing the best health care possible today. But we know that we have to look to the future to find even better ways to care as patients; and the community's needs change," he said.

Predicting the future is not always possible, but planning for it is, Barker said. Trends in the health care field in recent years provide indicators that help health care leaders and observers forecast hospitals' future in the 1980s. Trends and projections in health status also guide hospitals' planning and provide a benchmark for how health care needs and health care delivery are going to change, he said.

Major issues of the 1980s—hospital costs, legislation, regulations, and technology—likely will continue to be major concerns in the coming decade. Statistics show an increasing proportion of people over 65 years of age. People in this age category use four times as many hospital days as do younger people, thus hospitals likely will provide more care for chronic metabolic disease, cancer, and heart disease.

In 1900, the leading causes of death were influenza, pneumonia, diphtheria, tuberculosis and gastrointestinal infections, Barker said. The death rate was 580 for every 100,000 people. Today, barely 30 people per 100,000 die each year from these major acute diseases.

During the past decade, the anticipated life span for Americans has increased by 2.7 years. In the previous decade, it was increased by only one year.

A baby born in this country today can be expected to live more than 73 years on average, Barker said. A baby born in 1900 could be expected to live only 47 years.

Through new services, improved techniques, advancing technology, and the skills of health care personnel, hospitals are meeting and anticipating changing health care needs within and beyond their walls.

National Hospital Week is sponsored each year by the American Hospital Association and its approximately 6,000 members hospitals to foster better communication and understanding between hospitals and their patients, their employees, and the communities they serve.

"While at Northeast Mississippi Hospital we are committed to meeting our community's health needs, we feel the responsibility to help people reduce the need for hospitalization, wherever possible," Barker continued.

That responsibility must be shared by all of us, he believes, by getting proper rest, exercising, following a healthful diet, and limiting stress in our lives.

Barker points to better lifestyles as one of the contributing factors to today's healthier life statistics. For example, during the last decade alone, the expected life span has increased by 2.7 years. The average life expectancy projected for 1985 is 75.2 years.

"Our own hospital's contributions to these positive trends give us a bright outlook on the future, and we remind everyone that through their own efforts, they can begin to build a healthier future right now," he said.

Special activities planned locally for National Hospital Week include a Hospital Advisory Council Meeting, a Doctors' Appreciation Day, a Volunteer Award Banquet, election of the "Employee of the Year" which will be announced at the Employee Recognition Party, at Northeast Junior College, an Arts and Crafts Day, a Trustee-Physician Banquet, an Employee Appreciation Day, and, for the first time, a "Play Hospital" for area kindergartens.

Better Speech, Hearing Month Set

Mayor Charles Crabb signed a proclamation Monday declaring May as Better Hearing and Speech Month in Booneville.

The proclamation acknowledges the need for greater public awareness and understanding about problems with hearing and speech disorders.

In the proclamation, Crabb commends the efforts of the Northeast Mississippi Speech and Hearing Association to inform the public about these disorders.

He also says that this public awareness campaign encourages prevention, early detection, proper treatment and greater understanding of hearing and speech impairment.

The mayor points out that approximately 10 percent of the people of Booneville have some communication problem. They are part of the 20-plus million Americans nationally with a speech, language, or hearing handicap.

Local members of the Northeast Mississippi Speech and Hearing Association will be available at the George E. Allen Library from noon to 6 p.m. on May 30 to answer questions and provide free speech and/or hearing screening.

Parents who observe delayed speech in their youngsters, who find it difficult to understand what their children are saying, or who suspect a hearing problem, should bring their children to the screening at the library, a spokesman said.

The screening will determine if problems are present and the speech-language pathologists will make referrals and provide information of services available in this area.

Representing the Northeast Mississippi Speech and Hearing Association at the proclamation signing were Angela Via, Camille Galloway, Cathy Johnson, Harvey Vest, Marianne Holley and Martha Botts.

Better Hearing and Speech Month is a cooperative effort of many organizations involved in communicative disorders, including the Sertoma Clubs of America, the American Speech and Hearing Association, the American Council on Otolaryngology, Better Hearing Institute, the Alexander Graham Bell Association, and the Association of Service Programs in Communicative Disorders.

In Spelling Bee

'Scrimmage' Blocks Champ

Tracy Taylor "hoodwinked" her opponents at the Prentiss County Spelling Bee, but unfortunately she lost the "scrimmage" at the Mid-South Spelling Bee on April 24.

"Hoodwink" was the word Tracy spelled to win the Prentiss County Spelling Bee on March 27. "Scrimmage" was the word she missed at the Mid-South Spelling Bee to put her out of contention for the championship.

The Mid-South Spelling Bee was held April 24 at 6:30 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom of Memphis State University.

Tracy, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor and an 8th grade student at Thrasher School, was one of 60 students who participated in the spelling bee in Memphis. Her sponsor was Mrs. Margaret Goddard.

In addition to the competition, there were other activities for the participants of the Mid-South Bee.

"The president of Memphis State University spoke to us," Tracy said. "A member of The Press-Scimitar also spoke to us. (The Press-Scimitar sponsored the spelling bee.)"

"A Memphis State University golf instructor showed us how to play golf," she said. "Two of the student ambassadors gave us a tour of the campus, and the physics department had a show on magic. After that we had a buffet supper."

Tracy, who serves as treasurer of her class at Thrasher, lists reading, sewing and collecting stamps as her hobbies.

Basketball is her favorite sport and she says she wants to become a rocket designer.

TO MY FRIENDS OF THE CITY OF BOONEVILLE:

I am John O. (Bob) Lambert, Candidate for the office of Chief of Police for the City of Booneville. I am asking you to help elect me to office. I feel this is a most important job, one which the best qualified man available should be elected to.

I know I can do the job if you will elect me. I have been elected two terms as Fifth District Constable and have also served as deputy sheriff. So give a young man a chance. I want to use my skills at serving our city in BETTER law enforcement. I feel a younger man, interested in our youth and trying to clean up the drug traffic in our city—even our schools, would have a better chance to reach our youth. If you've read the papers through the past five years, I'm sure you've seen my picture with marijuana I've helped confiscate, being burned on the Court Square, in order to keep it out of our city and schools.

If elected to this very important job, I'll assure you I won't take it lightly. I'll devote my time and energy to trying to better protect our elderly on the streets as well as our youth. I'll try my best to have an officer available all over the city to stop house robbing, and to stop car thieves from breaking into our cars in our parking lots, and lots of other crimes too numerous to mention.

You, as well as I, know that our small city has a larger crime rate than the larger cities in North Mississippi. I'd like a chance to change this and make Booneville a much better and safer place to live. I appreciate those of you who have told me our present chief has had the job for 20 years and should retire. While campaigning four years ago, he told the people if they would elect him one more term he would have enough time in where he could retire.

I'm interested in our city. I want to help make it grow and become a respected place to live, to raise our families and our grandchildren. I have a grandson. I would like to make this a better place for him and all the other children that are growing up in the city of Booneville.

WHEN YOU GO TO VOTE ON MAY 12, VOTE JOHN O. (BOB) LAMBERT For Chief Of Police For the City of Booneville

Thank you.

Extension Homemakers Learn Art Of Pressing Flowers

Mrs. Jo Mullins of Nettleton presented a program on "The Art of Pressing Flowers" to the Extension Homemakers Clubs on Wednesday, April 29, at the Extension office in Booneville.

Nineteen members attended the meeting. The door prize, a framed pressed-flower picture made by Mrs. Mullins just before the program began, was won by Jo Ann Rowland.

"The art of pressing flowers is very simple, but takes sometime," Mrs. Mullins said. "The flowers must be pressed from one to two weeks."

Mrs. Mullins displayed pictures for the Homemakers ranging from casual to oriental.

She told of pressing everything from morning glories to Queen Anne's lace and had samples of each flower she mentioned. "They were breathtaking," Home Economist Claire Ross said of Mrs. Mullins' designs. "One would never expect to get such beauty from a few wild flowers, tissue and a couple of pieces of plywood."

After the program, an informal tea was served by Mrs. Ross, followed by an E.H. Advisory Council meeting.

Five members attended the Advisory Council meeting, where they discussed the National Homemakers Council coming up in June and the State Council meeting which is to be May 26.

The monthly program meetings of the Extension Homemakers Clubs of Prentiss County are open to the public and anyone who desires may attend, Mrs. Ross said.

PRESSED FLOWERS—Mrs. Jo Mullins of Nettleton displays some of the pressed flower pictures she has created. Mrs. Mullins presented a program on making pressed-flower pictures at the monthly meeting of the Prentiss County Extension Homemakers Clubs.

Home Economist's Notes

By CLAIRE T. ROSS Extension Home Economist

Silver can add an interesting touch to your flower garden.

"Only a few flowers offer the silvery-gray foliage that adds competition between flower colors," says Jim Perry, Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service horticulturist.

Dusty Miller (centurea) is generally available in seeds or plants. Its leaves are cut deeply into decorative lobes. Branches arch gracefully to form symmetrical mounds.

A certain amount of confusion prevails among the silvery plants, Perry says. Lychnis coronaria, usually called rose campion or mullen pink, is referred to occasionally as dusty miller.

Of all the silvery plants, rose campion or mullen pink, is referred to occasionally as dusty miller. Of all the silvery plants, rose campion has the most beautiful flowers in shades of crimson or white and furry, silvery leaves.

Wormwood, or artemesia, has shrubby, silvery-gray plants that will live through mild winters. English lavender and garden sage have silvery foliage, but they are upright and not as graceful as some of the mounded plants. One variety of pyrethrum has silvery-white leaves that look like lace.

If you have large areas to plant in flowers, consider growing plants of the silvery-foliaged species from seeds, he suggests. Common varieties are available in seed displays, but highly-bred dwarf plants usually must be ordered from catalogs.

Most of the silvery plants will survive where winters are mild, but will freeze elsewhere unless grown in a location with excellent drainage. They are deep-rooted and drought-resistant.

Seeds of the half-hardy perennials should be started indoors early in the spring, preferably under fluorescent lights. You can sprout seeds in a warm place, such as a sunny windowsill with south or western exposure, but the seedlings tend to be spindlier than those grown under fluorescent lights.

In general, start the seeds of silvery plants two to four weeks ahead of other flowers. The seeds often sprout unevenly, and plants grow slowly at young stages. If you start seeds early, the plants will be ready to set in the garden as soon as frost danger is over.

This is National Extension Homemaker Club week. And, this 50,000 strong group of women really deserve a lot of recognition and credit.

Essentially, these women are involved in education programs that are geared towards a full and rewarding homelife for themselves and their families. However, fun and fellowship are extremely important, too.

For instance, for a craft program just last week, Mrs. Jo Mullins of Nettleton Homemakers traveled to Booneville to present to Prentiss County homemakers, a program on the art of pressing flowers and making beautiful pictures from these.

If there is not a Homemaker Club in your community, you and your neighbors are the losers. Why don't you organize your own club? Call 728-5631 or come by the Extension Office for more information.

GOING TO CONVENTION—Members of the Booneville Junior Auxiliary who planned to attend the 40th annual convention of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries this week in Memphis are (from left) Marcia Cartwright, Martia White, Margaret Floyd, Dot Langston, Deanna Burress, Gloria Smith, Louise Coggin, and (not shown) Sandy West, Reba Burress, Nancy Cozort and Elaine Hatfield.

Miss Eleshia Geno
Geno-Jumper Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Paul Geno Sr. announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleshia Lambert Geno, to Danny Warren Jumper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jumper.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Geno.

The prospective groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Eaton and the late Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Jumper.

Miss Geno is a 1976 graduate of Jumbertown High School and received a B.S. degree in speech pathology from Mississippi University for Women in 1980. She is employed as a speech therapist with the Boone County Schools.

Jumper is a 1970 graduate of Booneville High School. He received a B.S. degree in marketing from Mississippi State University and is presently employed at Amper Oil Company in Booneville.

The wedding will be solemnized June 13 at 7 p.m. at Jumbertown Methodist Church. The Rev. James Perry will officiate and a reception will follow. No invitations are being sent locally, but all friends and relatives are invited to attend.

SHANE HALL

Sandy Jackson Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Hall Wheeler, celebrated his 1st birthday on April 7. He is the grandson of Jane Cook of Frankstown, Chester Cook of Wheeler, Jimmy Cook of Wheeler, and the late Cook Hall.

JA Members Attend Convention

Eleven members of the Booneville Junior Auxiliary are planning to attend all or part of the 40th annual convention of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries in order to better serve their community in the future.

The convention will be held at the Holiday Inn-Riverview in Memphis on May 6-8.

The 40th birthday of the association will be the theme of the convention, with workshops to be conducted by many talented leaders, according to Elaine Hatfield of the Booneville JA.

She said the three-day convention will feature workshops in many areas of the association's main field of work and interest: children.

"How to Set Up a Gifted Child Program," will be the subject of a workshop conducted by Jean Vandiver. "Teenagers in Transition" is the topic of Dr. Joseph Davis, chairman of the English Department at Memphis State University.

Other workshops topics include "Self Inc.," conducted by Jim Ford, director of the West Memphis office of the East Arkansas Regional Health Center; "How to Organize Parent Groups to Prevent Drug Abuse," conducted by Dr. Buddy Gleaton; and "Child Welfare Programs," by members of the national association.

Other meaningful subjects to be discussed include "Aging is a Creative Process," "How to Apply for Financial Grants," and "Assertiveness Training," Mrs. Hatfield said.

Speaking at the Thursday luncheon will be Mrs. Hillary Rodham, an attorney and the wife of an ex-governor of the state of Arkansas and founder and board member of Advocates for Children and Family.

A workshop on "The Art of Living" will be presented at the 1981 convention by Dr. LeDean Ebersole.

"Dr. Ebersole is one of the most outstanding speakers in our nation on learning disabilities and is internationally known for her work in this field," Mrs. Hatfield said.

Other guest lecturers and workshop leaders include Dr. Walter Kirkpatrick,

Department of Theater and Communication, Memphis State University; Dr. Robert

Copley, Department of Finance, Insurance, and Real Estate, Memphis State University; Dr. Wanda

Hartman, Memphis State University; and Allegra Brigham, Mississippi State University for Women.

News From Altitude

By BLINDA DUNAWAY
Correspondent

Garland Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green, had surgery recently at LeBonner Hospital in Memphis. He returned for a check up on Thursday and is doing fine.

I have just learned that congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hill of Tishomingo. They have a new daughter, Deanna Luchelle, who was born March 13, weighing 5 lbs. 10 oz.

Deanna has one older brother, Shane, who was 8 years old on March 19. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Houston McKinney, Mrs. Zoralee Hill and the late Junior Hill.

(Gene Wiginton of Memphis visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wiginton a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Brenda Crabb is reported to be home from the hospital and doing well following a heart attack. Best wishes for continued recovery for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dowdy of Memphis were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Armstrong and Gay. Saturday night supper guests of the Armstrongs were Mary Jane Armstrong and children of Snowdown, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Christian and baby of Rienz, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Pardue and children of Belmont. Mr. and Mrs. James Newman and Carla also came by for a visit.

Charlie Chase is still confined to the local hospital at the time of this writing. He was hospitalized due to pneumonia and high blood sugar. Glad to hear that he is feeling better and hopes to be home again soon.

Lisa Chase and friend, Dana White of Baldwin were lunch guests of Mrs. Bernice Chase on Thursday. Oudia Fritch of Musclev Shoals, Ala., was a recent visitor of Lucille Phillips, Jessie Mae Armstrong and other friends around the area.

Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Hitchcock from Utah and Millard Hitchcock have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ward, and other relatives and friends in our area.

Bryan and Stephen Burns were overnight guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Burns, on Tuesday night.

Eulalor Holder spent the weekend in Baldwin with her son and family The Thomas Holders.

The Harold Coopers of Burnsville visited family in Altitude on Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Newcomb and Melissa joined the Coopers in their home for supper on Friday night.

Milton and Frances Taylor from McMinnville, Tenn., were weekend visitors of Mrs. Estell Taylor.

Mrs. Wyviolet Tallent of Golden visited on Tuesday with Marie Burns and Myrtie Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Stone and children have moved back into our community. James Henry was among the graduates of Hill's Chapel Headstart Center last Thursday night.

Martin Hill Church was the setting for a bridal shower honoring Miss Becky Waddell, bride-elect of Donald McKinney. The couple are planning a wedding on May 15.

Wishes for a happy birthday are extended to Melissa George on May 7, Mrs. Leta Stockton and Dionne Rone on the 8th, Freddie Farr on the 10th, Mrs. Inez Bush on the 11th, and Lyla Stacy on the 12th. David Riddle doesn't seem to be having much luck these days when it comes to accidents. A few weeks ago he cut his foot with a chain saw.

Just when his foot seemed to be healing well, he caught his pants on fire and received second degree burns on the same leg as the injured foot. We hope that his accident days are over.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ward, along with their visitors Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Hitchcock and Millard Hitchcock, went to Belleview, Fla. There they attended the family reunion of the descendants of David and Ivia Taylor, grandparents of Mrs. Mary Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Hitchcock had the evening meal in the home of Emelene Jones on Thursday night. Then on Saturday they were entertained with a fish fry at Goat Island by Demp Jones and family.

The Hitchcocks were joined by James Stennett, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie White and children for a gathering on Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ward.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Eva Sims who passed away recently.

Bernice Chase spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Johnson. They attended The Boone Hill Festival, then on Sunday Bernice went to Baldwin with Mr. and Mrs. Troy Scott to visit with Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Chase and family.

They attended worship services with them at the First Baptist Church in Baldwin. They enjoyed a program of songs called "Kid's Praise" performed by the young people of the congregation.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie White and children on Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ward, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Hitchcock, Millard Hitchcock, and Colleen Stennett.

Mrs. Elvia Moorman spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tension in Marietta last week. We hope that Mr. Tension is feeling better following surgery. That he has had on his leg due to blood clots.

Carla McKinney and children went to Mantachie to attend the graduation of her niece, Jennie Farra, from the Headstart Center there.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hill and children of Tishomingo were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Houston McKinney. Also Mrs. Tammy Hutchens, Angie and Amanda came on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright of Joliet, Ill., were recently down in our area for a week. We hope they had a safe trip home.

Recent visitors of Nancy Bryant and children were Clois Wright of Berwin, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Randy Wright, Velma McCutchens and David Thompson.

CLOTHES LINES from.....

Mother's Day is May 10th so we're getting ready for her special day by reducing prices on special items she likes. All our blouses and tee shirts by Koret of California are now one third off... or one half price if you buy a skirt or pants to coordinate with it! These are bright, colorful and cool and sizes to 16 and XL. We'll even gift wrap for you, even though the price is reduced. (Anything for Mom!!!)

Also we have a big selection of cool, cotton, comfortable and pretty sleepwear. Mama would enjoy a fresh summer gown or robe.

You know we have all those wonderful Estee Lauder fragrances too — and can make up a "set" of as many items as you want. We call it a "stack-pack" because of the lovely gift wrap. Lots of fun to open, too.

The Clothes Pen and Reid Bros. are your "one-stop-station-for-graduation." We know most of the students, and can please them with their favorite brands and styles. Of course, they all like a gift certificate from us. That always fits.

Time to put the close-pen on these lines for now. You'll come!! to The Clothes Pen in Corinth.

Population Shifts

Rankin, meantime, already largely a white county, showed a further black percentage drop, from 28 percent in 1970 to 19 percent in 1980.

Even in such populous predominantly white urban counties as Harrison and Jackson, blacks can be seen to be migrating to the larger cities like Biloxi, Gulfport, and Pascagoula.

In Harrison County, for instance, the black percentage of the total population was up from 17.5 to 19.3 percent, and in Jackson County, from 16.4 to 18.7 percent, even while there was sizeable overall population growth in the two counties.

Black population shifts will no doubt play a role in the political picture starting with municipal elections statewide this month and early next month, and in the drawing of new congressional districts in time for the 1982 congressional elections, then in new districts the 1983 state legislative elections.

Right now, State Rep. Tommy Campbell of Yazoo City, who heads the joint legislative committee which will draw the new congressional and legislative district lines, is sitting on the hottest political information in the state.

Campbell has received from the U.S. Census Bureau the first tapes and maps that show the census tracts, block by block, as to racial composition of the 60,000 blocks in every city and county throughout the state.

Nothing could be more valuable to the 1000 or more candidates now running for offices in this month's municipal primaries around the state than that sort of information.

But Campbell has decided not to let it out of the committee for now because, he doesn't feel it is the committee's role to start furnishing census tracts and maps to persons who may be running for office. Later, the information will be made available through other channels, but not in time for the upcoming elections.

There'll be a lot more heard about racial demographics later this year when the Campbell committee makes its recommendations on how to redesign the state's five congressional districts to make them evenly balanced population wise.

A special session of the legislature is expected to be convened in September to draw the new congressional lines. One of the major fights will come over reconstituting a "Delta" district which would include 11 black-majority counties, a move that blacks realize is the only chance of putting a black in Congress.

However, unlike state legislative apportionment, which must reflect racial considerations, congressional districts are under no such constraints, as long as the population of each district is almost equal.

The prospect in the next round of state legislative elections, however, is for more blacks being elected to the legislature from urban areas as a result of the "single member" district concept Mississippi is under federal court orders to follow.

WHEREAS, on June 23, 1980, RALPH HARE executed a Deed of Trust to Thomas D. Keenum, Sr., Trustee, for the benefit of LUCILLE PHILLIPS, said Deed of Trust being recorded in Trust Deed Book 126, Page 414A-414B, in the Office of the Chancery Clerk of Prentiss County, Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, this Note and Deed of Trust is a second Deed of Trust on the real estate herein described, with the first deed of trust being held by The Peoples Bank & Trust Company, Booneville, Mississippi, therefore, this foreclosure is subject to the note and Deed of Trust held by The Peoples Bank & Trust Company, Booneville, Mississippi, and all bidders are to take notice thereof.

WHEREAS, default having been made in payment in the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust and the holder of the Note and Deed of Trust having requested the undersigned Trustee so to do, I will on the 22nd day of May, 1981, offer for sale at public outcry and sell during legal hours between the hours of 11:00 o'clock A.M. and 4:00 o'clock P.M. at the North door of the Prentiss County Courthouse, Booneville, Mississippi, for cash to the highest and best bidder the following described land in Prentiss County, Mississippi, to-wit:

TRACT 1:
A parcel of land located in the Southeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 9, Township 5 South, Range 7 East, of the Chickasaw Meridian at Booneville, Prentiss County, Mississippi, said parcel being more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the point where the Southeastly line of Front Street intersects the Northeastly line of Church Street, extended Southeastly; thence Southeastly along said Northeastly line of Church Street, extended, 125 feet to the Southerly most corner of a parcel of land conveyed by the former Gulf, Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company to the American Legion Level 8, Morton Post No. 123 by deed dated June 19, 1947; thence Northeastly at a right angle to the last described course, being along the Southeastly line of said American Legion property, 254 feet to the Southeastly line of Court Street, extended Southeastly; thence Southeastly along said Southwestly line of Court Street, extended 40 feet, more or less, to a line that lies parallel to and 10 feet Northwestly from the centerline of the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Company's house track (ICC No. 132); thence Southwestly along said parallel line, 125 feet, more or less, to a line that lies parallel to and 125 feet Southwestly from said Southwestly line of Court Street; thence Southeastly along the last said parallel line, 80 feet, more or less, to a line that lies parallel to and 25 feet Northwestly from the centerline of Grantor's Okolona District main track; thence Southwestly along the last said parallel line, 190 feet, more or less, to the Southwestly line of Church Street, extended Southeastly; thence Northwestly along said Southwestly line of Church Street 217 feet, more or less, to said Southeastly line of Front Street; thence Northwestly along said Southeastly line of Front Street 60 feet to the point of beginning.

Grantor, hereinafter called "Railroad" reserves unto itself, its successors and assigns, its trackage and a trackage easement 20 feet wide, being 10 feet in width on each side of the centerline of Railroad's house track as it lies over and across the premises herein above conveyed with reasonable right of entry to use, operate over and replace or remove said track and appurtenances for as long as required for railroad purposes and until abandoned and trackage removed.

Railroad, for itself, its successors and assigns, reserves an easement for the use of the loading platform as now located on the Northerly side of the premises hereinabove conveyed, together with reasonable right of ingress and egress for the continued operation, maintenance, repair or reconstruction of said platform.

Grantee, hereinafter called "Hare", agrees to maintain an unobstructed sight zone over and across a portion of the premises hereinabove conveyed to provide a clear view between rail, pedestrian and vehicular traffic approaching the existing crossing in Market Street. Said sight zone being described as that portion of the sale parcel lying Southeastly and adjacent to a line that extends Northwestly from a point on the Southwestly line of Church Street, extended, 50 feet radially distant Northwestly from the centerline of said main track. Railroad agrees present structures encroaching within this sight zone may remain until removed or destroyed. Hare agrees no alterations will be made to said structures causing a reduction in present sight restrictions. This covenant shall run with the land and be binding upon Hare, his successors and assigns for so long as the Railroad maintains rail service over said crossing.

Railroad reserves all minerals. Railroad reserves the right for the continued maintenance, replacement and use of all existing conduits, sewers, water mains, gas lines, electric power lines, wires and other utilities and easements on said premises whether or not of record including the repair, reconstruction and replacement thereof and Hare agrees not to interfere with the rights herein reserved

Disaster Provisions For Failed Acreages

Farmers whose fall-seeded wheat or barley was damaged by winterkill, drought or other disasters may qualify for payments under disaster provisions of the wheat and feed grain program.

Farmers are advised not to graze, hay or plow under their failed acreages because they could destroy evidence of the damaged crop before the acreage is released by ASCS.

Farmers with failed acreages of fall-seeded crops should notify our office as soon as possible.

Under the program, farmers may receive payments if a disaster destroys their crops and they abandon acreage or devote it to another use. They may also qualify for disaster payments if they carry damaged acres through to harvest but reap substantially less than a normal crop.

Corn, Sorghum, Soybean Loans Available Until May 31

Farmers have until May 31 to obtain price support loans on their 1980 corn, sorghum and soybeans.

Loan rates are $2.40 per bushel for corn, $5.06 for soybeans, and $3.81 per hundredweight for sorghum.

Farmers use the commodity loan program to obtain interim operating funds or to hold their grain for future delivery. The price support loans are available for approximately 10 months after harvest. The interest rate on 1981-crop loans is 14 1/2 percent.

To satisfy their loan obligations, farmers may repay the money before the loan matures or forfeit the crop to the Commodity Credit Corporation if prices at loan maturity are below the loan rate.

Farmers interested in obtaining loans on their 1980 corn, sorghum and soybeans should contact the county ASCS office before May 31.

Interest Rate, Down Payment Increased On Storage Loans

Recent changes in the farm facility loan program increased the minimum down payment, raised the interest rate, decreased the maximum loan amount and lowered the repayment term on new loans.

The program provides loans to farmers to help them buy, build or remodel on-farm storage facilities and to obtain drying and handling equipment.

To help cut federal spending, ASCS lowered the maximum loan limit from $100,000 to $50,000. The cash down payment was increased from 15 to 25 percent and the interest rate was raised from 12 1/2 to 14 1/2 percent. The agency also shortened the previous 8-year repayment term to five years.

These changes will not apply to facility loans already in effect. The 14 1/2 percent interest rate is also applicable to 1981 crop loans.

Storage needs will be based on one year's production instead of two years as before. All existing storage space will be considered in determining storage capacity.

In the past, space already in use to store grain under the farmer-owned grain reserve was not counted in figuring storage needs.

Changes in the farm facility loan program are expected to save the federal government about $29 million for the remainder of fiscal year 1981 and $145 million for fiscal 1982.

TIMBER TIPS

By
Lanny Autry

Many people feel that they can save money by selling their timber without advice and assistance from a professional forester. Far too often this isn't so. Time and again I've seen landowners who sold their timber for much less than its true value. Before you decide to sell timber, seek assistance from a consulting forester who can advise you concerning market conditions and help you get the best possible price for your timber.

Decorating Hints Help Conserve Energy, Money

A few, simple decorating hints can help you conserve energy and money year-round.

Members in the national 4-H home environment program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and supported by the S&H Foundation Inc. suggest the following guidelines for creating comfortable and carefree living spaces:

—Textiles, for example, can be used in the home to help maintain thermal comfort. Many principles that apply to fabric selection for garments also can apply to home decorating.

—Select fabrics with nap, texture or pile for cold weather because these will feel warmer than smooth fabrics. For hot weather, select absorbent fabrics, such as cotton blends, which have smooth surfaces that are cool to the touch. Non-absorbent surfaces, like plastic and leather, will not absorb perspiration and eventually will feel wet and sticky.

—Carpeting also plays an important role in energy conservation at home. Carpets and rugs keep floors warm in winter and cool in summer. For uninsulated floors above an unheated area, carpeting provides good insulation. The insulating ability of a carpet is determined by thickness and pile density, but a pad under the carpet can also add more insulation.

Boys and girls, 9 to 19, in the program apply energy-efficient techniques as they relate to housing, furnishings and equipment in the home. They also develop an appreciation of skills to care for and preserve old and new housing, furnishings and accessories.

More information on 4-H programs can be obtained from your county Extension office.

4-H Visual Presentation

A visual presentation is a teaching method used by 4-H to communicate an idea with help from visual aids such as posters, charts, flash cards, models, photography or actual objects. A visual presentation includes demonstration and illustrated talks.

When a 4-H'er develops and gives a visual presentation, he or she learns in several ways.

First, the 4-H'er selects a subject, researches and organizes the material in a logical order. After writing and gathering or developing visual aid material, the 4-H'er starts learning the most effective way of presenting the visual presentation.

Presenting a visual presentation teaches the 4-H'er to develop poise in speaking before a group. The 4-H'er develops self-confidence and a feeling of pride.

A 4-H member may write and present a visual presentation at a local 4-H club meeting, a countywide 4-H activity or at any 4-H activity.

To encourage 4-H'ers to write and present visual presentations, the 4-H program offers a visual presentation contest on county, district and state levels. The visual presentation contest, like all 4-H activities, emphasizes youth development through learning-by-doing experiences.

To develop a visual presentation, the 4-H'er should use publication 1096, "How To Do a Visual Presentation."

VOTE FOR ME, J.C.(Jack) Kendrick, ON MAY 12, 1981.

I, James C. (Jack) Kendrick urge the citizens of Booneville to consider me for Alderman in the upcoming election. It's of my opinion that Booneville has taken a back seat when it comes to industrial growth. Booneville has lost several factories and businesses to other cities in the past, there must be a reason!

With your support we can make Booneville a better place to live and work in the future. Help me to serve you, the people.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT—Students of Mrs. Jane Goodwin's Kindergarten class display a letter they received last week from President Ronald Reagan. The students had sent the President a huge "get-well" card while he was in the hospital recovering from an assassination attempt. The Card from the President read: "How delighted I was to receive your get-well message. It tells me of your friendship and makes me very happy. I know with so many young people rooting for me that it won't be long before I'm feeling much better. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for caring."

We certainly had a very busy week and weekend, but when all was said and done it was a very enjoyable time. For those who helped with the road block Saturday morning, we say a "Thank you." For everyone who helped in any way Saturday afternoon and night, we cannot thank you enough. The ones who missed the benefit for the Baddour Center Saturday night really missed a blessing. The "Miracles," will make anyone stop and count your blessing everyday. I would highly recommend their program to anyone. If and when they are back in our area, go out and see them. For those who gave us the punch, cakes and other refreshments, we again say "thank you."

The "Plow-boy" had emergency surgery in Tupelo last Wednesday. He is out of the hospital and doing fine. As you guessed, we got to keep our little granddaughter. We always have a good time when she is around.

The "Willaway's" daddy had surgery this Monday here at Booneville, we wish for him a speedy recovery. "Mrs. White," our president's mother, is still in the local hospital. We hope she is still improving.

If by mistake you got a new pie server Saturday night we would appreciate it if you will return it to the "Butterbean Lady," or any of the club members would see that she got it back. It was special to her.

I am very sorry I forgot a birthday last Saturday, May 2. We wish "Jesse James" a delayed happy birthday. Hope you have many more.

We would like to say hello to all of our members who we have not got to see lately. "Bedsprings Man," we hope you get out before long. "Mr. Songster," it sure was good to hear you on the radio the other night. To all of the others who have been on the sick list we say "Hello."

Hope each of you have a good week. Go to the church of your choice, but go.

With summer vacation from school fast approaching, the Allen Library is looking forward to serving young people's leisure reading needs.

New on our shelves for middle school students is a biography of teen tennis champion, Tracy Austin. Pointers from Tracy should improve your game!

Strictly for entertainment is "Cathy and Company and the Green Ghost," by Alice Schertle. "Planes," by Micahel Johnstone, will interest both young people and adults.

The trend toward eating natural foods has inspired some interesting writing. Organic John, John Calella, in his book, "Cooking Naturally," offers many recipes, new ideas and understandings of nutrition to his television program viewers and to any of us who want to be more creative in meal planning and cooking.

"End of the Rainbow," by Mary Ann Crenshaw, is her story of drug addiction through medication. There are no villains in this story but the reader shares the writer's happiness in overcoming tremendous odds and agonies. New fiction includes Stephen Greenleaf's "Grave Error," and Elizabeth Willar's "One Night in Newport." The first mentioned is a detective story chiller, and the latter a historical novel of the wealthy and the powerful in the early 1900's. Both offer intriguing and involved plots and characterizations.

I, Perry Henderson, am running for your City Board of Alderman.

Booneville is my home and I have lived here for the past 18 years. I am manager of Roger's L.P. Gas Company.

I want what is best for Booneville and I'm concerned about the progress of our city. I would like to see better schools, better job opportunities, and more industries. My goal is to strive for improvements for our city. This will help attract new comers to Booneville and help our city grow.

I will not say what I can or cannot do, not knowing the procedures of city government. But I will do everything in my power to do the things the people want and I will make myself available. You'll be able to contact me day or night, and I will take time to listen. I may not be able to do everything the people want, but I give you my word to try.

So if you want someone to voice your opinion in city government,

For Board Of Alderman

1'm not getting older I'm getting better. Times change and so do we.

Due to the President's cut on inflation and government spending, there will have to be changes made in City government and City spending. We have come through some pretty hard times in the past and we will survive this time. I would appreciate the opportunity to serve you for another four years as your alderman

Tupelo District Manager

Mother's Day means cards and flowers and, of course, thousands of long distance calls. Last year it meant so many calls that if your Mom lives outside of Mississippi you may have had trouble getting your call through.

Traditionally, Mother's Day is the second busiest day of the year for long distance calls. Mother's special day this year is Sunday, May 10, and we expect more people than ever to "Reach out" and call Mom. Why not call her early - on Saturday - this year and avoid the calling rush. By calling early when the telephone lines aren't busy, your calls can get through quickly.

You can call Mom (or anyone else) the One-Plus* way from 11 p.m. Friday until 5 p.m. Sunday and get a 60 percent discount** from the regular weekday rate.

Call Mom early - the One-Plus way - this year. You'll get through quicker and pay the lowest possible rate.

It's in the book. Names. Numbers. Addresses. Area Codes. Dialing instructions. Even ways to save money.

All sorts of valuable information is in the telephone book. And it's all yours.

Look in the book. The more you use it, the more valuable it is.

Did you know the ring can be adjusted on most telephones if it is too loud or too soft?

For desk phones, turn the little wheel or lever on the bottom of your phone (follow the arrow) to make the bell louder or softer. Wall phones have a side or bottom lever for the adjustment.

Make sure the bell on at least one phone in your home is turned up so you won't miss important calls.

*One-Plus rates do not apply to Zero-Plus dialed calls, operator-handled calls, coin telephone calls, calls from a hotel or motel, or calls to Alaska or Hawaii.

**On One-Plus calls, discounts apply to total charges. On operator-assisted calls, discounts apply only to additional minute calls.

In Shrine Tourney Finals

Sell Rite, Snap On Top Finishers

Sell-Rite's Furniture's ladies and Snap on Tools took first place honors Saturday night near midnight in the finals of the First Annual Shrine Softball Tournament held at the Booneville West Side City Park.

The two teams won their respected brackets with three wins each in the double elimination event.

Sell-Rite earned the first place trophy with a 6-5 win over Coca-Cola in the finals while Snap-On took their first place tilt with an 18-12 victory over Dan's Sporting Goods.

Coca Cola's girls took the second place trophy in the girls bracket with Sporting Goods placing third while in the men's bracket, Sporting Goods finished second with Sell-Rite placing third.

Sell-Rite's girls, one of the favorites of the tournament, won in other games 15-13 over Sporting Goods and also over Eatons Furniture.

teams around, beat Dan's earlier 14-9 and also Sell-Rite 4-3.

The tournament got underway last Friday night at 7 p.m. and played til near midnight Friday and then all-day Saturday and till the finals late Saturday night.

Bill Ward, local shriner and tournament director said the tournament was termed very successful and added that plans were already in the making for an even bigger event next year.

"Everyone of us had a good time with this tournament," Coach Ward said. "We're glad this first one was a success. Everyone we talked to really enjoyed this event."

The benefits for the event goes to aid burned and crippled children which is nationally known as the theme for all shriners.

This tournament was the official kickoff for the softball season. Several events of this type are planned for the summer months ahead.

Local High School Coaches To Assist At NE Camps

A host of area high school coaches have agreed to assist in the Annual Northeast Basketball camps to begin May 24th.

Newly elected head girls Rickey Ford will be in charge of the girls camp scheduled May 31- June 5th while Richard Mathis, Northeast boys mentor, will be in charge of both the Jr. boys camp May 24-29 and the senior boys June 7-12.

Assisting in the camps will be coaches, Johnny Knighton, West Union; Fred Stennett, Saltillo; Scott Dyson, Corinth; Wayne Byrd, Belmont; Shelia McCoy, Faulkner; Malcolm Kuykendall, Pine Grove; Gary Miller, Baldwin; Johnny Bolen, Iuka; Tom McKnight, Pontotoc; Myna McNair, Biggersville; and Harvey Childers, New Albany.

Bailey Howell, former professional player with the Boston Celtics, and former Mississippi State basketballer, will be the special guest instructor during the camps and Peggy Gillum, pro player of the Dallas Diamonds will also be on hand to help with the girls camp.

A host of area youngsters have already turned in applications for the camps which will run through a full week's schedule.

Campers may either stay on campus or commute for the week.

Wise Burns HCR Course With 16:20 Sprint Finish

Rudy Wise burned the Hill Country Run course with a blazing time of 16 minutes 20 seconds (16:20) here Saturday to easily win the third running of the Hill Country Run held as part of the Boone Hill Festival.

Wise, a sprinter from Florence, Alabama, easily led the field of 104 runners in Saturday's event while Shelia Taylor from Tupelo claimed the top overall position in the ladies brackets.

Taylor finished with a respectable time in her own right with a 16:20 clocking. Wise's timing, a new course record beat last year's top mark and overall mark by three seconds.

This year's event, sponsored by both the Banner-Independent and Shackelford Shoes, started some two months earlier than last year and the weather turned out to be ideal for the runners at the 9 a.m. starting time.

Other finishers taking first place honors include Brad Harrelson of Pontotoc, who won the 15 and under age group with an 18:40 time while in the men's 16-23 age group Booneville's Bill Loden finished first here and fifth overall with a 17:53 time.

Wise, the overall winner, also won his age group with a 16:20 time in the 24-30 age group while Mike Sexton of Tupelo claimed first place honors in the 31-39 bracket and in the 40 and over age group Joe Vickers of Tuscumbia claimed the top prize with a 17:57 time.

In the women's brackets, Lisa Griffin of Booneville won first in the 15 and under group while Rockie Gray of Booneville finished second. Griffin finished with a 26:36 time while Gray was 30:24.

Vicki Gray of Tupelo won the age 16-23 age group with a clocking of 22:23 while Donna Rinehart of Booneville finished second with a 23:28 time.

Taylor, the ladies overall winner, won her age group (24-30) with a 22:15 time while Carolyn Fowler of Tuscumbia won the 31-39 age bracket with a 22:32 clocking.

The women's 40 and over winning trophy went to Martha Dixon of Muscle Shoals with a 22:50 clocking.

This year's event was again successful and all proceeds will go to the American Cancer Society.

The Hill Country event is an official sanctioned race and is listed in "Runners World Magazine."

Wildlife Notes

JACKSON—Only a few more days before the Department of Wildlife Conservation begins taking recommendations from state hunters on upcoming fall and winter hunting season.

This year the agency will hold three public hearings before making final decisions on certain season dates and bag limits administered by its five-member Commission.

Hearings will be held in the following locations: Tupelo, May 5, the Community Center at the Fairgrounds; Jackson, May 6, second floor assembly room at the Woolfolk State Office Building; and Hattiesburg, May 7, at the National Guard Armory. At the Jackson hearing the Commission will hear recommendations from fishermen about hand grabbing on Ross Barnett Reservoir. Each hearing will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Hand Leaps To State Tourney

Booneville High School's Ryan Hand will leave here Friday where he will defend his State Pole Vaulting Championship after placing first last Saturday in the Northhalf Track Meet held at Grenada.

Hand, the states top leaper, has claimed every meet championship this season and holds the state top leap of 13'3".

Ryan has finished first this year in the Bulldog Relays at Aberdeen, Journal Relays at Tupelo, Gazette Relays at New Albany, plus the Bigbee, District and North Titles as well.

Hand, along with Booneville High School track coach Riley Presley will leave Friday for Jackson with the Booneville leaper scheduled to compete Saturday.

Hand took the top spot in Saturday's North Half Meet with a leap of 12'6".

In overall team scoring Leland took the class A girls title with 33 total points while Ruleville led the field in the boys Class A events.

In Class AA Gentry led the girls field with 37 total points while Grenada, the host school, paced the charts in the Class AA boys with 38 total points.

Hand was the only Booneville tracksters to qualify for State competition.

Saturday's meet ended the 1981 track season for Booneville who finished with one of their better seasons. The girls squad won this year's Tombigbee meet and several single performers registered first place finishes in a number of events.

Jaycee Jog Set At Jumpertown

The Third Annual Jumpertown Jaycee Jog has officially been set for Saturday May 16th beginning at 9 a.m.

The local event, which has increased in popularity year after year is again this year expected to field a number of local joggers.

Trophies will be awarded to top male and female finishers along with division winners and T-Shirts will be given to all entrants who participate.

Divisions for both male and female joggers include, 0-13, 14-21, 22-29, 30-39 and 40 and over.

Registration for the Jaycee Jog will start from 8:00 til 8:30 the day of the race with the race itself to begin at 9 a.m.

Joggers can however register prior to the race day. A $6.00 fee will be charged for anyone who registers on the day of the race while a $5.00 fee will be charged to anyone who pre-registers.

Additional information concerning the Third Annual event may be obtained from Frankie Lauderdale at 728-3662 or Archie Smith 728-9343.

Swinney Inks Delta State Pact

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

The area's top high school shooter has signed...

Thrasher's James Swinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Swinney of Booneville, has signed a basketball scholarship with Delta State, it was announced this week.

The Rebel gunner, known as one of the top shooters in the State, signed the Delta pact after completing a very successful tenure with Thrasher, under coaches Grandle Barron and for the past two seasons current coach Jacky Rowsey.

Swinney, who averaged 23.4 points per game along with 11.2 rebounds; his senior year, officially inked the grant Wednesday night and will play for the statesman under head coach Mel Hankinson.

Swinney's accomplishments stand along in the scoring department. The 6'3" 185 pound Rebel, burned the nets his junior and senior years for 1,675 points which ranks him among the top scorers in the state. He scored over 30 points on seven different occasions last year including three times against arch-county rivals Wheeler's Eagles.

When asked what his best game of his career was, the Thrasher star remembered this year's game against Tupelo in the semi finals of the New Albany Tournament played December 12th. He scored 30 points but coach Rowsey, who also agreed that it was the best game he played under him, said he was "hot as a firecracker."

Opposing coaches have been known as saying that Swinney was hard to guard. A number of North Mississippi mentors all said Swinney was at his best when he had two or three players guarding him.

Guarding him or not, he always scored around the 25 point barrier and several of those points came in crucial situations.

Swinney's career started as early as the sixth grade. Playing then under coach Bill Moore, he advanced to the junior and senior high ranks under former coach Grandle Barron and then his past two under current coach Rowsey.

His junior year would have to stand out as his most impressive performance. He received his top recognition that year and led the Rebels to a 34-6 overall record and a trip to the State Tournament in Jackson.

He received numerous awards including All-County, All-District, All-North Half and then All-State named as one of the top performers in the Magnolia State.

The Rebels that year knocked off arch rival Wheeler six of the seven times they play losing only to the Eagles in the District finals.

Swinney's top year, as stated earlier would be his junior one but indeed he paced the charts his senior year as well. Leading the Rebels to a 28-13 record, he was again named All-District and All-North Half and missed barely another trip to Jackson were he would have been assured another All-State pick.

After the season was completed this year. The Rebel performer took top honors in the one-on-one competition against seven of the State's top performers in Tupelo.

Swinney has paced the charts on the school's athletic awards as well. He has won every award in his categories including Most Valuable, the past two season and placing high on the statistic chart winning, best average, best freethrow etc.

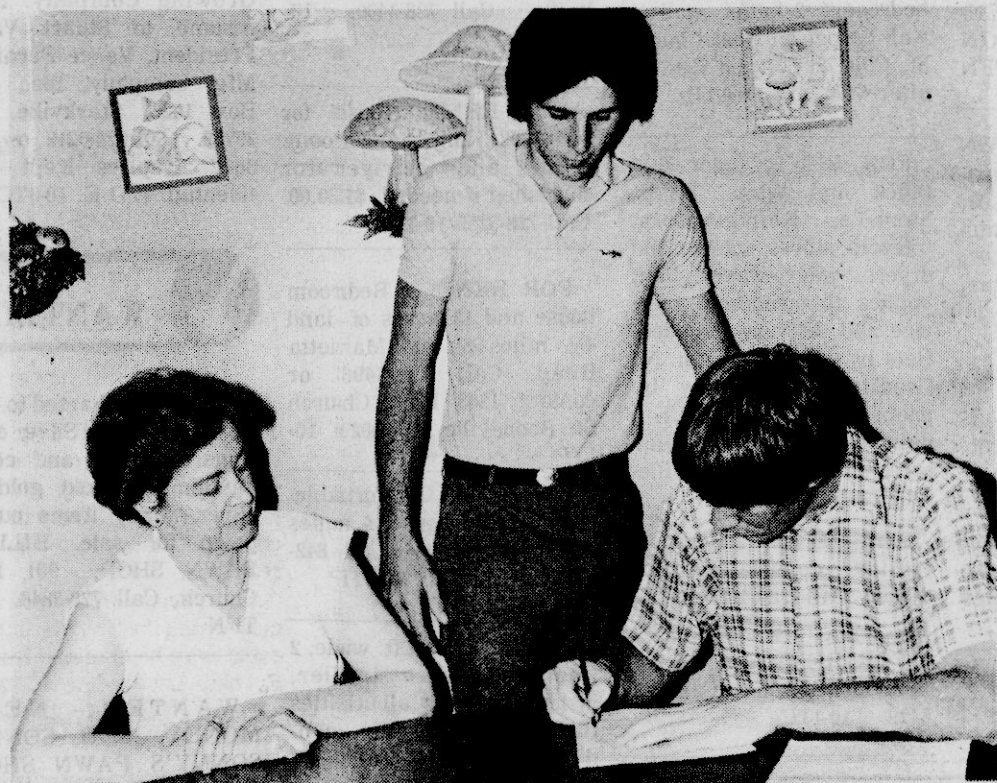

Delta State is one of many colleges that's had their eye on this county roundballer. Others showing interest include Northeast Junior College, University South Alabama, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Union University among others.

Why did he set his sites on Delta State? "I feel like it is a small school and I liked what I saw when I went down," he said. "I think it'll be a nice place to continue my career."

Swinney said he expects to play in the wing position as a statesman and according to head coach Hankinson he will be called a "shooting wing."

Thrasher head coach Jacky Rowsey called Swinney the money man. "He is just there when you need him," he said. "He's an outstanding shooter, a good jumper and a very physical performer," Rowsey added.

Swinney's name won't be on the county charts any more but if everyone's aspirations are correct you can bet his name will be at the top of the Delta State scoring chart as well.

Devils Win In Opening Bigbee Games

Action got underway here Monday in the Tombigbee baseball tournament scheduled at the Booneville West Side City Park.

Booneville's Blue Devils, Ripley's Tigers and Saktillo's Tigers all picked up opening round victories

Monday to advance to further competition.

The Devils, under coach Willie Jackson, dropped Okolona's Chieftans 4-2 while Ripley had an easy time of it against Alcorn Central winning 11-0 and Saktillo put Baldwin's Bearcats out of contention with a 6-2 win.

Rod Coggin took the win for Booneville on the pitching diamond and also chipped in with a triple while Bernard Coggins also had a triple.

The Devils were scheduled to play the Kossuth-

Nettleton survivor at 6 p.m. Tuesday night with results not available at presstime. Ripley was scheduled against Saktillo also Tuesday at 3:30 with winners to meet for the championship Wednesday.

Keith Jackson led Ripley

over Central Monday with a grand slam home run in the third inning while Darryl Rogers also chipped in with a triple.

In the Baldwin contest, Saktillo's Randy Webb was the big gun for the Tigers while Stan Scott and Greg Tucker paced the Baldwin attack.

Wheat Residue Enriches Soil

By WILLIAM C. JEPSEN
USDA, Soil Conservation Service
Jackson

Those who know say that 1981 is going to be a big year for wheat in Mississippi—into the hundreds of thousands of acres, they say. Well, after wheat, what? Many wheat farmers are thinking about planting soybeans the no till way. Dozens of farmers did just that last year. The big question, though, is what to do with that wheat residue. "Some say burn it, others say disc it under, but still others say leave it right there and plant beans the no-till way. The no-till way—let's talk about that.

If you farm a wheat crop, chances are you will have about two tons of residue per acre on the land after harvest. That residue contains things worth money to you.

For instance, each ton of wheat residue has 13 pounds of nitrogen, 23 pounds of potash, and three pounds of phosphate. The easiest thing to do is burn it—but wait, is that best?

If the residue is burned, most of the nitrogen is gone, so is the organic value of the residue, and you lose the cover that protects the soil from erosion.

Soil and water conservation districts and the SCS suggest leaving the residue as is and planting beans without land preparation or cultivation. It's a fact that this method will work if the proper herbicides are used and if beans are not planted in fields infested with johnson or other perennial grasses.

Of course, you have to use the proper planters and know something about the soil where you are planting.

If you plan to plant beans in wheat residue, a suggestion or two will be helpful.

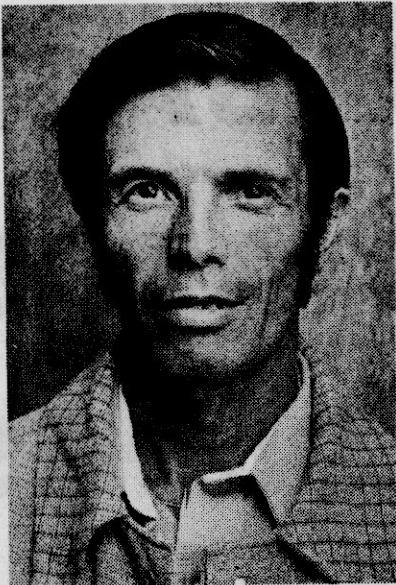

Set the combine to leave about 6 inches of wheat stalk standing. This will eliminate a lot of top residue that might get in the planter's way.

Put a shredder or at least a sprader on the combine. This spreads the residue on a larger area and keeps it from bunching up.

Another good tip is to look for weeds and grass after the wheat is harvested. When the sunlight hits the ground, these plants will begin to grow faster. This means you need to apply herbicides at planting or soon after.

It's a good idea to plant beans soon after the wheat harvest, the same day if possible. This allows you to take advantage of good moisture.

Well, if you are growing wheat and plan to follow with beans, making full use of that wheat residue can protect your soil and save soil and fuel. And chances are good that your profits will be better when you farm the no-till way.

I'm R.C. Calton and I'm running for Chief of Police. I'm 43 years old. I'm married to the former Esther Drake. I have 5 children and one grandson. I attended Thrasher High School and graduated in 1957. I have 3 children attending our city schools.

If elected I will control robberies, slow drug traffic, patrol our schools, churches, and local businesses. I will patrol all streets surrounding the private homes in the city limits. I will also keep an eye on our Senior Citizens.

I will employ qualified officers to serve the taxpayers of Booneville.

I will serve Booneville with the best of my ability. If the taxpayers, Board of Alderman, and the mayor, Charles Crabb, feel that I am not improving the conditions of Booneville, then the taxpayers and Board owe no salary. Your vote and influence will be appreciated. If any questions, call me at 728-5448..

Thank You,
R. C. Calton

1981 Seniors who are graduating with a special service Sunday.

Bill and Joy Kinard of Memphis were down Saturday for the day with Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hickey and family of Memphis and Mr. and Mrs. Spud Tollison of Booneville were Sunday afternoon guests of Mrs. Frank Windham and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Tollison.

Mr. and Mrs. James George and Sherry visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson English, Amy, Robbie, Betty, and Mickey of Biggersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hampton, Andrea and Amy of Memphis spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Flake Eaton. They were down to attend the Miracles, a singing group from the Baddour Memorial Center at the West Side Community Center in Booneville. Mrs. Hampton's niece, Dianne Gann is a member of the singing group.

Grady Moore celebrated his seventh birthday with a party Saturday at his home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore.

Recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goodger were Mr. and Mrs. David McCrory and Rusty of Columbus and Mike McCrory of Blue Mountain College. Mike, who is a sophomore, spoke at the Oak Hill Baptist Church Sunday morning and received many favorable comments on his message.

Mr. and Mrs. Lydell Bryant of DeRider, La., spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Koon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cristo and family attended the Pannell Reunion in Dumas Sunday.

Sunday is Mothers Day, a day that has been designated and set apart to pay visits, to pay honor and tribute and love to your mother, if she is still with you, and if she has been called to her eternal rest, to spend a little time recalling her love and tender care.

I would like to quote a favorite poem of mine by Dr. David E. Guyton of Blue Mountain.

MOTHER'S DAY

If I could find a rose as pure

As my own mother's love was sure,

I'd wear that rose of spotless snow

That those who saw it there might know

How much my mother meant to me,

How much she means eternally.

My mother's life was like a flower

That broke to blossom every hour.

I knew its fragrance as a child

When all the earth with beauty smiled;
And when the world was clad in gray,
It seemed to sweeten day by day.

My mother's name was little known
Beyond the circle of her own.

She never dreamed of pomp and place.

She chose to run a modest race,

Contented quite if she could cast

A breath of fragrance where she passed.

Ole-fashioned gardens held her heart,

Where humble blossoms bloomed apart,

Where many a sweet familiar thing,

Like those dear songs she used to sing,

Turned every commonplace to good,

Like her own winsome womanhood.

If I could find a rose as white

As my own mother's ways were right,

Despite my heart's eternal ache,

I'd wear that tribute for her sake.

I think that it would bring her joy

To see that flower on her boy.

I see her still through blinding tears

Beyond the border land of years.

She is not old and bent and gray,

But fair and young and lithe and gay.

When twilight ends my afternoon,

I hope to meet my mother soon.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

By Tom F. Rayburn

Train Up A Child In The Way He Should Go, Even When He Is Old He Will Not Depart From It.

Proverbs 22:6

A mother and her little daughter were in a service in which the preacher spoke about how obedience toward God is revealed in the manner in which one attends to the small duties of everyday life. He described how many parents neglect their spiritual duties in the home, how they retire night after night without praying for God's watchful care, and how in the morning they fail to thank Him for rest, protection, and the blessing of the new day. The little girl listened attentively, then turning to her mother, she whispered, "Mama is the preacher talking about you?" The simple question pierced the mother's heart. She said nothing, but before she retired that night, she knelt before her bed, confessed her sins, and asked God to help her to carry out her duties as a Christian mother.

Tom F. Rayburn, Pastor
First Baptist Church
Booneville, Miss.
