Tiger Stadium

Official Dedication Ceremonies To Be Saturday Night At 7

Formal dedication ceremonies for the Northeast Junior College's newly renovated Tiger Stadium will be at 7 p.m. Saturday, immediately prior to the Northeast-Hinds football game kickoff at 7:30, according to Northeast president, Harold T. White.

Replacing the wooden structure that has been in use at the college for a number of years, the new facility is made of rust-free aluminum with a galvanized steel understructure. The new grandstands are of a closed-deck design.

Seating capacity for the practically maintenance-free facility is 5,200, an increase of 2,200 over the former stadium.

The new stadium extends 26 rows high, as opposed to the old stadium's nine rows, giving a much better viewing position for Tiger fans. Also, between the seats and the field there are no posts or other obstacles which could hinder the view of the game.

Atop the homside (west side) of the stadium is a 72-foot long press box.

Unlike the older facility, the new grandstands load from the rear.

Another plus noted by President White is that "the stands may be added to in the future with no trouble as far as design and looks."

"This is something we have needed to do for some time," White said of the renovation of the stadium. "Our facilities were not at all satisfactory."

The cost of the completed renovation is near one-half million dollars.

touches on the stadium so that it will be ready for Saturday night's dedication ceremonies, which will be followed by the Northeast-Hinds football game. College officials are hoping for a near capacity crowd for this, the first game to be played in the renovated stadium.

A 'ROCKING' GOOD TIME—The M.Y.F. of the Carolina Methodist church held a rock-a-thon from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday in the parking lot of the First Methodist Church in Booneville. Each participant arranged for a sponsor to pay a certain amount for each hour rocked. Proceeds from the rock-a-thon will help pay for a trip to the Worlds Fair in Chattanooga.

For Using Ineligible Players

Booneville Schools On Athletic Probation

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor
Booneville High School has been placed on probation by the Mississippi High School Activities Association, it was announced last week.
Booneville city school superintendent Robert Griffin said he received the actual notification Tuesday morning. It states that the school system has been placed on probation from Sept. 21 until Dec. 4.

According to the official school's probation was due to ineligible players on the football team. These players live outside the school's district and have not established proper requirements, it said.

During this time of probation, the school's football team will not be eligible for any tournament play or any post season bowl games.

Booneville High School will also have to forfeit their win over Fulton. One of the ineligible players participated and had physical contact in that game.

According to the probation rules, three Booneville High School players will have to sit out the remainder of the 1981 season and will not be eligible to play any games through Sept. 21 of next year. The probationary period, which extends through Dec. 4, also includes Booneville's participation in basketball during this length of time. The school's basketball team cannot play in any tournament through the

First Change In 5 Years

Tags Now On Sale

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter
New automobile license plates go on sale today, Oct. 1, in Prentiss County.

Tax Assessor-Collector Danny Childers said Monday the county sells about 20,000 tags annually.

The new tags are a patriotic red, white and blue.

"If a person's tag expires in October or later he will receive a new license plate this year," Childers said.

About 5,000 tags are expected to be sold this month, he said.

"October is our heaviest month for car tag sales," he said.

All vehicle license plates were changed each October until five years ago. In 1976 the state altered the system to allow five year tags to be updated by decals.

Many of the cars on which tags were due in October five years ago have been traded off and now have tag expiration dates in other months, but it still hasn't evened out and the majority of tags are sold in October, he said.

The county revenue from tag sales in August was about $40,000.

"We sell more tags for used cars. Not as many people are buying new cars," Childers said.

The tax assessor-collector said the mailing system used in the past few years to issue decals will also be used to mail tags to Prentiss Countians.

The mailing fee for sending out tag renewal notices was raised from $.75 to $1 this month, Childers said.

"Postage costs us $1.20 plus we have to buy envelopes," he said. People picking up their tags at the courthouse are not refunded the $1 mailing fee.

"People don't get the $1 back, even if they come in to buy the tag," Childers said. Childers said that after a person receives the new license tag, the old tag should be destroyed.

Applications for personalized tags will also be taken at the tax assessor-collector's office beginning today.

Personalized tags will cost an additional $75 plus the regular fee paid for the tags. The State Tax Commission in Jackson will mail the tags to customers. Childers said about six weeks will be required for delivery of personalized tags.

Local Unemployment Rate Drops In August

Prentiss County's unemployment rate for August showed a decrease from the previous month. However, the overall state unemployment figure showed a slight increase.

The unemployment rate for Prentiss County in August was 6.9 percent, down .7 percent from the July rate of 7.6 percent, according to the latest figures from the Mississippi

Employment Security Commission in Corinth.

During August, MESC reports there were 9,620 employed in the civilian labor force in Prentiss County and 710 unemployed. This compares to 9,790 employed and 800 unemployed in July.

The county's total civilian labor force during August was 10,330, down 260 from the July figure of 10,590. The total civilian labor force is a combination of all those employed and unemployed in Prentiss County; that is, all those available for work.

The number of manufacturing job openings in Prentiss County in August was 2,870. The figure for non-manufacturing job openings was 3,570.

August Tax Receipts Indicate Increase In Local Sales

Booneville's sale tax collections from trade in July were up 13.1 percent over the same month last year, totaling $44,286, as compared to $39,155 in July 1980, figures released by the State Tax Commission show.

The report showed that general fund collections during the first two months of the new fiscal year were up more than $16 million.

Tax Commission Chairman A.C. "Butch" Lambert said collections between July 1 and Aug. 31 totaled $164.2 million.

Some of the area municipal collections with 1980 figures in parentheses are:

Aberdeen, $48,992 ($37,957); Baldwin, $19,533 ($19,049); Booneville, $44,286 ($39,155); Bruce, $17,434 ($16,187); Calhoun City, $17,016 ($12,682);

Corinth, $108,473 ($97,870); Fulton, $27,483 ($24,204); Houston, $28,159 ($26,527); Iuka, $42,240 ($27,271); Nettleton, $15,796 ($7,028); New Albany, $55,133 ($47,168); Okolona, $14,341 ($13,922);

Oxford, $82,194 ($74,183); Pontotoc, $36,016 ($30,632); Ripley, $36,037 ($33,850); Tupelo, $355,829 ($275,756); Verona, $22,473 ($8,205); and West Point, $53,235 ($49,304).

NEW TAGS—Prentiss County Tax Assessor-Collector Danny Childers is shown with the new red, white and blue automobile license plates that go on sale today. If a person's tag expires in October, or thereafter, he will receive a new license plate this year.

'First Bank' Begins Operations

Barring any unforeseen last minute delays, the First Citizens National Bank, based in Tupelo, was to finalize its purchase of the Booneville branch of the First Mississippi Bank of Commerce this morning and immediately take over operation of the Booneville banking facility.

Although bank officials say they will begin serving customers immediately, the grand opening of the new facility is scheduled for Oct. 12-21, with ribbon cutting ceremonies set for Monday, Oct. 12.

The purchase of the Booneville branch of the Walnut-based First Mississippi Bank of Commerce was first announced in May of this year. However the transaction was subject to the approval of several regulatory agencies and the bank's shareholders.

'Remember When' Is Here

Inside today's Banner-Independent you will find our second annual "Remember When" section.

Not only is it crammed with old photos of Prentiss County and stories of days gone by, but it also contains advertisements for "Old Fashion Sales Day" specials being featuring by many local merchants in conjunction with this special issue.

We hope you will take a little time to look through the section and do a little "remembering when" yourself.

MY BROTHER, THE EGG—These students in Tony Roberts' seventh grade Health and Science class at Wheeler recently undertook an unusual project to help them become more aware of their growing responsibilities as young people. Each student was expected to bring an uncooked egg, still in the shell, to school. They were instructed to treat the egg as if it were a little brother or sister. They each gave their egg a name and took it with them from class to class each day, caring for it. The real test of responsibility, Roberts said, was to check at the end of the week to see how many eggs remained unbroken. Starting with 62 students participating, only 28 eggs remained unbroken at week's end. The students pictured above are the ones who managed to keep their eggs safely for the entire week. "All in all, I thought the project to be a success, as well as being fun and a definite learning experience for the seventh grade class at Wheeler," Roberts said.

Arrest Report

Prentiss Sheriff's Department Reports Busy Week

The Prentiss County Sheriff's Department reports a total of 13 arrests during the period of Sept. 21-28. Charges placed during that period include:
False pretense, 1; receiving stolen property, 1; public disturbance, 1; family disturbance, 3; grand larceny, 4; breaking and entering, 2; and assault with a deadly weapon, 1.
A 1978 Ford F100 pickup

According to the Prentiss County Sheriff's Department, a 1980 GMC 1/2-ton diesel pickup belonging to Willard Chaffin of Route 1, Marietta, was reported stolen Sept. 6.
A western-type saddle belonging to Donald G. Stennett of 1201 East Church St. was reported stolen Sept. 1.

belonging to Larry Floyd of Route 6, Booneville was reported stolen Sept. 22.
A Daily Journal newspaper rack was taken from the Big V Grocery Sept. 25.
Law authorities issued a missing person warrant for Carol Darlene Shook of Route 3, Baldwin and her four-month-old son, Daniel, on Sept. 28. Authorities said while Mrs. Shook was in church Sunday at Prospect Baptist Church she left with her son before church services were over and has not been seen since.

Prentiss County authorities report they have been busy recovering stolen autos during the past several weeks.
A 1979 Grand Prix Pontiac, which was stolen from Tupelo on Sept. 17, was found burning about two miles east of Booneville on Sept. 20.

On Sept. 23, law authorities received information that a stolen 1972 Chevrolet truck was located at a residence south of the Prentiss-Alcorn county line. On further inspection, law officers found that the property owner's pickup truck was another 1972 Chevrolet but that the truck had a bed from the stolen truck. The front cap and front half of the stolen truck were found in the brush near by. A suspect was arrested and charged with receiving stolen property.
A truck stolen from Memphis on Sept. 12 was found by Prentiss County law authorities Sept. 24 near Jumpertown.

GMC 1/2-ton truck was burning southwest of Gaston Church. Further investigation revealed the truck was stolen from Hardeman County, Tenn., on Sept. 14. The truck was missing the front cap, engine, transmission, both doors, both windshields, the seat and rear bumper.
Officers recovered a 1977 Pontiac Firebird east of Booneville behind the Carter's Chapel Church of Christ Cemetery. The car had been stolen in Tupelo on Sept. 22. Nothing was missing from the car except the license plate, Deputy Bob Glover said Tuesday.

Officers report that Baldwin Middle School and High School were reported broken into Monday. Four typewriters and an overhead projector were taken from the middle school. Prentiss County Deputy Sheriff Carl Sartin said three of the typewriters have been recovered. Change was taken from a drink machine in the high school building. Sartin said a calculator and change were taken from an office in the high school. Two

Homecoming Activities Planned For Oct. 10

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College will host its alumni during homecoming activities Saturday, Oct. 10, at the college.

Activities will include reunions of the 1951, 1961, 1971, and 1981 classes. Registration and a coffee will be held from 3:30 p.m. until 5 p.m. in the Frank Haney Union.

From 5 until 5:45 p.m. the Alumni Association will meet for its official business meeting.

"All alumni are encouraged to attend this important meeting to further their involvement with Northeast," a college spokesman said.

Barbara Shackelford, incoming alumni president, has indicated that the country-western theme of this year's homecoming should provide a "bang-up" good time for everyone.

A special feature of this year's activities will be an outdoor barbecue on the east lawn of the Union. Northeast band members, under the direction of Naz Rhodes, and featured vocalists will perform some of the latest country and western hits. The presentation of the 1981 homecoming queen and her court will precede the 8 p.m. kickoff of the Northeast-East Mississippi football game in the newly renovated Tiger stadium. Immediately after the game, alumni and their families are invited to the Union for refreshments and to discuss the game with other sports enthusiasts.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, are people speaking in tongues today as they did back in Bible times?

WARD HOGLAND

ANSWER: The tongues of New Testament days were not mumbojumbo gibberish but languages that could be understood by the people born native to that tongue. The ones speaking in those tongues did so by the power of the Holy Spirit as is indicated in 1 Cor. 12:10. It must be observed that these gifts of the Spirit were given to confirm the word which was preached by the apostles and prophets of the New Testament (see Mk. 16:20). 1 Cor. 12 lists nine spiritual gifts. Chapter 13 tells how long the gifts would last and Chapter 14 tells the use of these gifts. Since the New Testament has been confirmed we do not have these gifts. Paul said "When that which is perfect is come" (1 Cor. 13:10). Notice he did not say "He who is perfect." People may claim to raise the dead, speak in tongues and give sight to the blind but they are only kidding themselves. The Greek word for "perfect" is "to-teleion" neuter, singular adjective used as a noun. The neuter cannot refer to a person. Therefore this verse could not be talking about the coming of the Lord as some contend but rather the perfect law of liberty as given by James (James 1:25).

'Talk O' The Town'

Street Opinion Poll

QUESTION: If you were a member of Congress would you approve President Reagan's new budget cuts?

RUTH MARTIN of 204 Davis St.: "Well, without specific knowledge of the budget cuts, some of the cuts I would approve, and some I wouldn't. I need more of a background of what our needs are."

DOUGLAS MILLER of 303 East Lake St.: "Some of the budget cuts don't seem logical to me but of course I'm not as smart as he is. Some of the cuts seem a little drastic in ways like cutting aid to states, like Headstart. There should be federal guidelines in some cases. And how are older people going to keep on buying if their pay doesn't go up?"

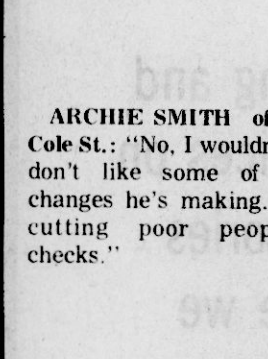

RANDY GANN of 207 Marietta St.: "Yeah, I would approve most of the budget cuts. Except I don't want him to cut social security on people who need it."

TESS STEVENS of Route 6, Booneville: "I don't know how to answer that. Some of the budget cuts I would approve and some I wouldn't. I watched the President's speech on TV the other night, but all I can remember is that I do agree with what he said about social security."

DORIS HOLDER of 103 Glendale St.: "No, ma'am. The cuts are too drastic for older people especially. There's lots of poor people that can't work and there's lots that can, but it's going to hurt those that can't work. That doesn't mean I condemn all of his cuts. I definitely believe in a strong defense."

ARCHIE SMITH of 113 Cole St.: "No, I wouldn't. I don't like some of the changes he's making...like cutting poor people's checks."

Reflections

By Ken Christian

I'm ashamed to admit it, but when I was in school I hated history classes. Too often they consisted of memorizing names, dates and places that really had no meaning to me—I couldn't relate to them.

But, as often happens in life, my attitude toward learning more about the past has changed. I have really enjoyed working on the "Remember When" section which appears in today's paper.

In particular, I enjoyed walking through the old, deserted Sutherland Clinic.

I would like to express my appreciation to Marshall Dickerson for allowing me to photograph the old clinic. Before I visited it, I knew it was there, but I couldn't imagine the atmosphere of the place until I had visited it in person. I was truly impressed.

I would also like to thank E. L. Moore for taking the time to talk to me about New Site. Mr. Moore is a very interesting man and he has learned a lot during his 75 years in Prentiss County. If we would just take the time to listen to him, we could all learn something.

And, finally, I would like to thank all those Prentiss Countians who contributed photos to be used in the "Remember When" section. But, I would like to apologize in advance for any mistakes we may have made in the names under the photographs. Many of the old photos are yellowed with age and it is often difficult to read the names written several decades ago on the backs of the photos.

I also don't want to forget our advertisers. If not for their support in this effort, we would not have been able to publish the "Remember When" section.

'Family Feud' Date Set

Booneville attorney Thomas Keenum told me this week that he has learned the Nov. 24 is the scheduled date for the showing of the taped "Family Feud" show on which he, his wife, Patsy, son Tommy, and his brother-in-law, Junior Geno, and his wife, Sharon, appeared.

Since Sharon and Junior arranged for the family to appear on the show, they appeared under the family name of Geno. They won a total of $10,301 during their one appearance on the show.

The show featuring the Geno Family is scheduled to be shown at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday night, on Nov. 24, Channel 3 in Memphis. Don't miss it.

New Stadium Is Impressive

If you haven't taken a close up look at the new Tiger Stadium at Northeast Junior College, Saturday night would be a good time to do so. The new facility is truly impressive.

Pre-game dedication ceremonies are planned for the first outing in the new facility Saturday night, and there will be plenty of entertainment on hand. Not only will there be a top-notch football game between Northeast and Hinds Junior College, but the nationally acclaimed Hinds Hi-Steppers are scheduled to perform at half-time.

It should be a night you won't want to miss.

Eyes On Mississippi

By BILL MINOR
Columnist

JACKSON, Miss.—If Eudora Welty is looking for some choice names and characters for another serio-comic novel about Mississippi life, there's no better place to find them than in the state's political spectrum.

No doubt about it, Mississippi politics is afflicted with a terminal case of Good Old Boyism, with names to match. Perhaps we tend to overlook the built-in absurdity about our politicians because it is the only act in town.

But if taken seriously, the political scene in our state could make you laugh, or cry, depending on how much you expected the system to accomplish.

Let's look at the names. To an outsider it would seem that Miss Welty, or perhaps William Faulkner, had written the entire script. For instance, that the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and possibly the most powerful person in state government, is a 60-year-old man called "Buddie."

Or that his top lieutenant and a key person in deciding what or how much taxes Mississippians will pay is a 50-year-old man called "Sonny."

Naturally, any Mississippian knows your're talking about House Speaker C.B. "Buddie" Newman of Valley Park, and H.L. "Sonny" Merideth of Greenville, the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

Or if there is a serious matter to be taken up with the legislature about laws affecting the state's financial community, you must go to a Senate committee headed by another "Buddy" (note the difference) whose actual name is Sen. J.K. Gresham of Greenville.

Over in the powerful Senate Finance Committee, headed by Sen. Ellis Bodron of Vicksburg, a blind man, the person who reputedly influences Bodron the most is a 50-year-old man named "Son." He, anybody in the legislature quickly knows, is Sen. W.C. Rhodes, a roly-poly fellow from Van Cleave, who serves as the perpetual secretary of the Senate Finance Committee and Bodron's seeing-eye person.

Even at the Congressional level, the Good Ole Boys are well represented in Cong. G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery, of Meridian, the 61-year-old bachelor who made a career out of visiting Vietnam at Christmas time as long as America had any interest over there.

Not only do nicknames give Mississippi politics a special Southern-fried flavor, but something must be said for the double name syndrome, which for awhile seemed to be dying out, but now seems to be coming back in vogue.

There had been a distinguished Mississippi congressman and later senator back around World War I named John Sharp Williams. In 1946, the name similarity helped lift John Bell Williams from political obscurity in the town of Raymond to the United States Congress for 20 years and, eventually, to the Mississippi governor's chair.

For years, until he finally stepped out two years ago, George Payne Cossar was a power in the Old Guard of the Mississippi House, and the consummate Good Ole Boy who led cheers for Ole Miss just like he had done almost a half century earlier.

Before he went back home to Charleston, Cossar saw to it that his double name memory was perpetuated by getting a commitment from the State Building Commission to name a state park for him.

If one thinks of agriculture in Mississippi, the first name that comes to mind is, of course, "Mr. Agriculture" himself, Jim Buck Ross. For years, Jim Buck has been on the verge of parlaying his Good Ole Boy name into becoming governor of the state, but he never did, continuing to enjoy the unbelievable amount of perks he has developed in his years as the state's Commissioner of Agriculture.

Some who broke into state-level politics in recent years with just one front name, have joined the double name brigade, apparently in hopes it will add some good old Mississippi magic to their careers.

For instance, Secretary of State Ed Pittman came into office simply known as Edwin Pittman, or to his speaking acquaintances around the political scene, Ed. But not any longer.

Now he is calling himself "Edwin Lloyd" Pittman and trying to get everybody else used to the double handle. That, capital political observers agree, is a sure sign Pittman has higher political ambitions.

At least one double name figure on the state political scene, former Land Commissioner John Ed Ainsworth, found out the double name syndrome isn't any absolute guarantee of political security, however. After stepping out of the post he helped to eliminate, John Ed tried for lieutenant governor last time, and didn't make it.

Maybe what it is going to take is a combination of the double name and nickname syndrom for a guy to carve a niche in Mississippi politics in the future. Or to wind up in one of Miss Welty's novels.

AND WRITE A LETTER TO THE EDITOR!

OPENING SHOTS

Ponderings

By Angela Smith

A Letter

Something very unusual happened to me Monday. I received a letter addressed to this column. (What a relief to know that I am not the only person who reads my column!)

The letter I received was not from one of my relatives but was actually from a woman in Brandon, Fla.

Now you may or may not be saying, "so what's the big deal about getting a letter?" Just this.

It is the first and only letter I have received since I've been working at The Banner and that letter made my day.

(In fact, when I left work Monday, my head was so big I could barely squeeze through the door!)

Of course, Banner Editor Ken Christian wasn't as impressed with my letter as I was.

He hinted the woman probably had me confused with Pigskin Pete. He said it would be a natural mistake since Pigskin and I write so much alike.

Now I'll tell you about the type of letters Ken claims to receive. On Monday he said he received an invitation to attend a press conference at the White House.

And that's typical of the mail an editor gets. Because when you're editor you can claim Pigskin Pete's important letters as your own!

That's Incredible

Word has reached me from a high placed source that Elaine Stevens of the Tusculum community solved the Rubik's Cube in seven minutes.

I don't know how she solved the puzzle, but congratulations to her for her ingenuity.

Are there other Prentiss Countians who have discovered the secret of solving that maddening little cube?

If so I'd like to hear how the solution was arrived at. And if the solution sounds logical and relatively easy I might try to retrieve my Rubik's Cube that I tossed out the window several weeks ago.

Autumn Leaves

Monday and Tuesday were such beautiful fall days that I just had to leave my car windows rolled down.

And both days my car filled up with leaves. I'm probably the only person in Booneville who has to rake leaves out of the car.

But that's okay. I love leaves.

That is why it is against my philosophy and lazy nature to rake leaves in the yard. I like to see the yard covered in multi-colored leaves, even if it means I can't find the house.

Unfortunately my parents don't share my philosophy. At least not entirely. Although they love leaves, too, they love to see me rake leaves even more.

Idumie School

In the "Remember When" section of the Banner-Independent today there is a picture of Idumie (pronounced I-doo-me...not I-dummy) School which was located near the Snowdown Community. I would like to learn the history of the school. Can anyone give me information about the school?

Miss Liz Goodwin And Mr. Ronnie Phillips Are Wed

The wedding ceremony of Dora Elizabeth (Liz) Goodwin and Ronnie H. Phillips was solemnized at 4 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 8, at Gaston Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jane A. Goodwin and Harold G. Goodwin of Booneville. The groom is the son of Mrs. John Caveness of Booneville and the late Harold Phillips.

The Rev. Milton Koon officiated the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Louise Peeler, who directed the wedding, greeted the guests in the vestibule of the church where Mrs. Dennis Gillentine and Miss Amy Perrigo presided at the registry table.

Guests were seated by groomsmen Kenneth Goodwin of Jackson, Ronald Michael and Michael House of Booneville.

The music was presented by Mrs. Jerry C. Stone of Iuka. A flute solo was presented by Miss Karen McGreger as the mothers were seated. Each mother was presented a single long-stemmed silk rose.

Miss Ladye Love Long of Iuka presented musical selections.

Given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Goodwin, the bride wore a white peau de soie gown overlaid with chiffon featuring a Victorian neckline. The finger-tip veil of tulle featured matching lace. She carried a portrait bouquet of white silk flowers accented with mauve flowers and satin and lace ribbons.

The bride was attended by Miss Lark Stone of Jackson as Maid of Honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth Goodwin, and Mrs. Hans Van Oekel, cousin of the bride, of Meridian. Miss Deanna Duckworth of Booneville was junior bridesmaid.

They wore formal gowns of mauve bastiste accented with white eyelet lace. They carried mauve bouquets of silk and dried flowers tied with satin ribbons, and wore baby's breath in their hair.

Miss Jennifer Kelly, niece of the bridegroom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kelly of Corinth, and Miss Trisha Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Browning of Clinton, were the flower girls.

Tommy Cole of Booneville served as bestman. Jason Frost, nephew of the groom and son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Frost of Forest, was ring-bearer.

Mrs. Harrison Arnold, grandmother of the bride, wore a quina gown accented with an emerald green jacket. Mrs. Goodwin, mother of the bride, chose a gown of seafoam green chiffon for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Caveness, mother of the groom, wore a pastel green gown with a matching jacket. Both mothers wore white corsages of silk flowers.

Reception
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duckworth entertained with a reception in their home immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Louise Peeler greeted the guests. Serving as hostesses were Mrs. Herschel Morgan and Mrs. Vicki Hastings. Mrs. Jerry Hester served pink lemonade. Other hostesses were Mrs. Don Eubank, Mrs. Doug Holland, and Mrs. Charles Johnson. Mrs. Pat Browning and Miss Elaine Bridges served at the registry table.

The bride's table featured multi-colored roses from the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Baldwin. Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. Eugene Michael of Tupelo, and Mrs. Derryl S. Scott and Mrs. Billy T. Jones, both of Booneville.

Mr. And Mrs. Ronnie Phillips

Serving at the groom's table were Mrs. Keith Kelly, Mrs. Billy Frost, and Miss Rena Frost, niece of the groom.

Tea girls were Misses Catherine and Carrie Johnson, and Misses Kelley and Sabrina Scott. Presenting the guests with rice bags were Misses Ellen and Amy Kirk, Miss Angie Hester, Miss Nancy Eubank, Miss Molly Crow and Miss Carmon Holland.

Doug Holland, pianist, presented background music throughout the receiving hours.

After a short honeymoon trip, the couple are making their home in Booneville.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

On June 6, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson gave a barbeque at their cabin in Windbush Hollow in honor of the engaged couple. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Goodwin of Jackson and Miss Kim Davis of Nashville.

The home of Mrs. Doug Holland was the scene of a neighborhood coffee given in honor of Liz Goodwin on June 17. Guests were greeted by Miss Carmon Holland.

Mrs. Inez Mahaffy and Mrs. Hattie Dilworth entertained Liz Goodwin with a luncheon in her home on June 24. Guests were served by Mrs. Mahaffy and Miss Carmon Holland.

Mrs. Jerry Hester entertained with an Odds and Ends shower in her home on June 27. Miss Angie Hester greeted guests.

Liz Goodwin and several of her friends were entertained with a rice bag party given by Mrs. Lynette Browning, Miss Elaine Bridges, Mrs. Debbie Gillentine, Miss Amy Perrigo and Mrs. Gladys Rowland in Mrs. Rowland's home on July 11.

Miss Goodwin was honored with a miscellaneous shower on July 28, at First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Herschel Morgan, Mrs. Hubert McDaniel, Mrs. R.J. Bonds, Mrs. Webster Cleveland, Mrs. Dwight Johnson, Mrs. David Budlowe, Mrs. Harold Morgan, Mrs. Don Eubank, Mrs. Richard Coggin, and Mrs. Louise Peeler.

Mrs. Derryl Scott, Mrs. Don Eubank, Mrs. Jerry C. Stone, and Miss Lark Stone entertained with a bridesmaid's luncheon in Mrs. Scott's home on Aug. 7.

Mrs. John Caveness, mother of the groom, entertained the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner on Aug. 7, in the Activities Building at Gaston Baptist Church.

Miss Dodds, Mr. Hannon Exchange Vows

East Booneville Baptist Church was the setting for the June 26 wedding of Vickie Dodds and Mickey Hannon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Dodds and Mr. and Mrs. James Earl Hannon. Grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Burt Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dodds, Mrs. Irene McCoy George and the late Roland McCoy and the late Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Hannon of Booneville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza with chantilly lace trim featuring a Queen Anne neckline, chantilly bishop sleeves and bodice overlaid with chantilly lace and scattered pearls.

A matching fingertip veil of silk illusion trimmed in chantilly lace fell from a lace bandeau cap accented with pearls.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, baby's breath, ivy and pink rose buds.

Phyllis Tolar served her sister as Matron of Honor. Denise Horn served as Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Lisa Dodds and Becky Dodds, cousins of the bride, and Alicia Sparks and Regina Newman.

They wore identical floor-length soft-pink dresses. They carried a cascade of cotton candy glads and ivy.

Miss Melissa George, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. Her dress was of white organza with pink trim. She carried a basket of apple and peach blossoms, pink rose buds and ivy.

James Hannon served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Rickey Hannon, brother of the groom, Kenny Clunch, Bob Arnold and Mike Kelly.

Brian George, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Misses Candy Lambert and Carla Newman presided at the guest registry. J.W. Jacobs and Dennis Horn served as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Sutton, cousins of the bride, were vocalists. Pianist was Clint Carroll and Mrs. Cathy Johnson was organist. The Rev. Don Sparks and the Rev. Wayne Foropoulos performed the double-ring ceremony.

Ms. Ona Smith served her niece as honorary grandmother and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Woodard also served as honorary grandparents of the bride.

Mrs. Oma Christian directed the wedding.

The Reception

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained the wedding party and guests with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Misses Susan Gooze and Rebecca Manness served at the bride's table.

Miss Rebecca Thornton and Mrs. Camille Wilson served at the groom's table. Rebecca Perry served punch and Jill Brooks served coffee.

Serving as floating hostesses were Mrs. Lettie Daniels, Mrs. Brenda Jacobs, Mrs. Brenda McCarty, Ms. Ella Stutts and Ms. Peggy Griffin.

Tea girls were Misses Kim and Shannon Holley, Kristi Jacobs and Lee Ann Stewart.

After a trip to Tennessee, the couple are at home at the Campus Garden Apts. Hannon is employed at Schweiger Industries and Mrs. Hannon is employed with the Photo Hut.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harber of Houston, Texas; Mrs. Billie Lowrey, Carey and Pam, Mr. and Mrs. Adair Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. James Regel, Mr. and Mrs. Rebus Waddle, all of Memphis;

Mrs. Jo Ann Jackson and Anita Jackson of Dalton, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reed of Tupelo, and Mr. and Mrs.

Harley Campbell of Stuttgart, Ark.

Rehearsal Dinner

On June 25, the groom's parents entertained the wedding party with a rehearsal dinner in the church fellowship hall. Pink roses, candles and pink wedding bells accented the room.

Library Notes

By LEE DAVIS
Librarian
George E. Allen
Library

Display cases at the Allen Library exhibit plates delicately carved from solid Incolay stone by Gayle Bright Appleby. They are her interpretations of lines from often quoted British poets.

All demonstrate the subject of the first I shall describe, "A Thing of Beauty Is A Joy Forever."

The line comes from a 4000-line epic, "Endymion," by John Keats. The story is taken from the legend of Endymion, a mortal, and Cynthia, a goddess.

The carving depicts the moment of Endymion's awakening from a dream of Cynthia, a vision so real to him that he sets out to find her.

Keats, who died at 25, develops in the poem the idea that youth and beauty find immortality in spiritual maturity.

The series of plates is entitled "The Romantic Poets Collection," and the aim of those in the group usually included was to make the reader feel more vividly the joys and sorrows of life.

"She Walks in Beauty" is based on Lord Byron's poem by that title. The plate is carved into the image of a serene and graceful woman-the "woman of the mind" that Byron sought so unsuccessfully all his life. Miss Appleby says "...It is this image that I set out to create in my sculpture."

A third plate is a cameo vision of Percy Bysshe Shelly's poem, "To a Skylark." In it is shown a young girl, hair unbound, her billowing skirts gathered and arms outflung as if wishing that she, too might fly.

Her eyes are lighted with delight in the skylark's song.

The plates were made by the Incolay Studios of California and are from the collection of Dan Wylie. Other very beautiful plates in metals from his collection are also on exhibit for you to share.

Home Economist's Report

Don't Be An Overshopper

By CLAIRE T. ROSS
Extension Home Economist

If you or members of your family are overeating, you may be overshopping.

When someone in the family has a tendency to overeat, extra food around is a great temptation.

You are what you eat and you're also what you buy. By being well organized and knowing the food needs of your family you can save time and money and calories...and, avoid being an overshopper.

Here are some Do's and Don'ts you should observe: Do—by all means—make a list! And don't leave home without it. Keep paper and pencil posted on your refrigerator to write down the items you'll shortly be out of.

Do check newspaper ads for supermarket "specials," before completing your list, but don't buy anything fattening simply because it's on sale. Do the same with discount coupons; if it's fattening, who needs it!

If you're a compulsive coupon clipper, Do trade coupons with noncalorieconscious friends.

If possible, do equip your kitchen so you can stock up on good buys: ample freezer space is well worth having if your shopping time is limited. Don't crowd your freezer with bulky items of relatively little worth so there's no room for more valuable bargains.

(If you load up on day-old bread or hotdog rolls, there won't be room for a great buy on sirloin tip roast or round steak!)

Don't shop when you're hungry or tired. Not only does everything look more tempting, you won't have the mental energy necessary to cope. It's a jungle out there! Supermarkets are designed to entice your purchases.

Don't shop with a neighbor, your sister or mother-in-law, either.

Do look for low-fat dairy products that can save you butterfat calories but beware the "no butterfat" cheeses, dips and coffee creamers made with vegetable oil (just as fattening!)

Do shop several supermarket chains to have access to the widest variety of calorie-saving products; no one store carries them all.

Wildfire Season Beginning

By JOHN STUART
County Forester

With the season for wildfires only a few weeks away, the Mississippi Forestry Commission is urging woodland owners in the county to begin making preparations to protect their valuable timber from the destructive enemy.

According to a Forestry Commission spokesman, Mississippi's wildfire season traditionally begins each fall and continues until mid-April. It was during this period last year that well over 200,000 acres in the state burned in the worst fire season the State has seen in 10 years.

Wildfire is the foremost destructive enemy of the forest. In only minutes a wildfire can destroy years of timber growth and untold profits for a landowner.

Protection against wildfire is essential for successful profitable timber management, and it is relatively simple and inexpensive to provide.

The best and cheapest insurance against wildfires is a firelane. A lane six feet or wider around a timber stand usually is sufficient to secure the area from fire, and it can be constructed by simply plowing or discing.

Firelane construction is a service the Mississippi Forestry Commission makes available to local landowners at a minimal fee. Landowners needing this service should contact the County Forester's office or the local lookout tower. The phone numbers are: office, 728-6835; fire tower, 728-4214.

BUYING YOUR GLASSES

Buying a pair of glasses is an important expenditure. That's one reason why you should take your time in selecting the glasses you like best.

For starters, glasses won't be worth much unless the prescription is accurate. The lens has to be professionally made to your doctor's exact specifications.

You can look for bargains. That may save you money initially. But if your glasses aren't comfortable, if you have to select from only a few styles, or they are not well-made, that's no bargain. You want glasses you can wear in comfort for a long time. Something so important that you use every day at work or at home deserves very careful consideration. Appearance is important too. You want them to look good on you.

So when you go for new glasses take your time in choosing the frames. Make sure you really like the style and color. And, most importantly, be sure they fit securely and comfortably.

For answers to your specific questions regarding vision, Dr. White invites you to call his Booneville office

Hinds Junior College Hi-Steppers Prepare For Stadium Dedication Ceremonies

Hinds College Hi-Steppers To Appear At Stadium Dedication

In conjunction with the dedication ceremonies of the newly renovated Tiger Stadium, Northeast Junior College has invited the Hinds Junior College Hi-Steppers to perform during half-time Saturday night when Northeast and Hinds play the first football game in the new stadium.

Dedication ceremonies for the stadium begin at 7 p.m. with the ballgame getting underway at 7:30.

Organized in 1950, the Hi-Steppers are a precision dance team, comprised of approximately 90 members.

In 1952 the troupe came under the direction of Mrs. Anna Bee and since then they have performed all across the United States and Canada.

They have performed at every Eagle football game half-time as well as in such places as the Gator Bowl in Florida, the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, the World's Fair in New York, and even before the United States Congress.

In 1962, the Mississippi Legislature proclaimed the Hi-Steppers as Goodwill Ambassadors for Mississippi.

They help with the Heart Fund and United Way and have been connected with the East Seal Telethon for the past 15 years.

For the past 20 years the Hi-Steppers have been an attraction at the annual Neshoba County Fair.

County Agent's Report

Good Management Brings Good Yield

By W.H. HADEN
County Agent

Start Wheat Right

Interest in planting wheat is high again this fall. No doubt the record crop last year still lingers in the minds of a lot of farmers, but we can't expect those kinds of yields every year. But we can make good yields regularly if we use good management.

Start by selecting the right varieties. Variety trial results are available at the county Extension office. We have some good varieties available, but we need to consider several factors in making a choice, including disease resistance.

Diseases weren't a major problem in our wheat last year, but we certainly don't want to ignore disease resistance. In a year when rust problems are severe, some varieties can't be expected to perform as well as other varieties that have better resistance. Septoria also can be a serious disease problem.

All varieties may need a fungicide to produce highest yields. Fungicides to control seed rots and seedling diseases increase seedling emergence and survival rates by 10 to 15 percent. Instead of treating the seed, some farmers simply increase the planting rate. This may or may not make up for seedling disease losses. The best way to solve this problem is to treat the seed.

Arrange for your seed beforehand so you'll be sure to get the variety you want. But don't plant too early. Wait until October, preferably after October 15 in most of the state, to plant to reduce fall insect problems.

Manage Forages

Producing good forage crops is expensive, and it takes good management to reproduce a profit. That's why you need to consider soil testing, lime and fertilizer, legumes and proper grazing in your forage program.

Without a soil test, you have no way to know the lime and fertilizer needs of your soil. And with the high cost of both, this free service can save you money. Our office has the materials you need.

Using 300 pounds of 13-13-13 is not a cure-all in producing forages. In fact, the newer 0-17-34 and 5-15-30 ratios often fit soil test needs better. And, you can plant legumes to furnish additional nitrogen. Some legumes produce 100 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre annually, which is used by the legumes and grasses growing with the legumes.

Poor grazing techniques can offset previous management practices. Overgrazing often injures forage, but too little grazing wastes forage and reduces the quality of grazing. Good grazing practices help provide young, tender, regrowing plants, improve forage quality and help animal performances.

Water Quality Program To Start

From The USDA Soil
Conservation Service
Booneville, Miss

"A big job for a lot of people," says Ray Beckham on how the Agriculture Water Quality (208) program will be implemented in Mississippi.

Beckham, of Leland, is chairman of the Mississippi Soil and Water Conservation Commission. This management agency is responsible for planning and implementing a program to reduce agricultural non-point pollution as called for in Section 208 of the Clean Water Act.

Beckham said that no one agency has the authority or expertise to carry out a water quality program in Mississippi.

The agricultural portion of the State Water Quality Management Plan received conditional approval in 1980. Conditional approval keeps the statewide water quality program in a continuing planning process which sets the stage for team work throughout Mississippi's agricultural programs.

Beckham said, "more assessment and monitoring work is needed to further identify water quality problems that exist."

The Soil Conservation Service is already collecting information in the Mississippi Delta that will help locate problems and identify means for solving them. As funds become available, other areas of the state will be assessed.

Ralph Redditt, chairman of the Mississippi Association of Conservation Districts has been involved in pollution abatement since 1935 by carrying out soil and water conservation programs in every county in the state. An effective soil and water conservation program will reduce water quality problems significantly. Local districts with the assistance of the Soil Conservation Service will provide technical assistance for installation of best management practices.

Redditt also said that additional information for the control of non-point pollution is needed. The Mississippi Agricultural Forestry Experiment Station and Agricultural Research Service are involved in water quality work. The Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service is working with farmers to improve the application of pesticides in a way that will not harm the environment.

Larry F. Milner, Water Quality (208) Leader for the Mississippi Soil and Water Conservation Commission says, "My most frequent asked question concerns financial support. Who will pay for the installation of the best management practices to improve water quality?"

Low annual appropriations through the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) for this special project provide financial support for implementation. ASCS also administers the experimental Rural Clean Water Program intended to help implement the State Water Quality Plan (208).

A few states have received funding for Rural Clean Water Projects, but no money was appropriated for Mississippi. Milner thinks the lack of implementation funds has put more emphasis on the team approach to solving water quality problems with the voluntary soil and water conservation program that Mississippi has.

Bike-A-Thon Set For Oct. 18 At Jumpertown

Area residents are being asked to participate in a bike-a-thon to help raise money for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

St. Jude Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas, and operates primarily from public contributions.

Jumpertown bike-a-thon chairman, Betty Phillips, said Tuesday that the "Wheels-For-Life" bike-a-thon will be held Sunday, Oct. 18.

"Volunteer riders are needed for the bike-a-thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center and its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases," she said.

Ms. Phillips said this year's ride is being dedicated to "Terry," a leukemia patient at St. Jude.

"By riding for Terry, we'll really be helping all stricken children since research is the only way these illnesses can be conquered," she said.

"We're looking for people who will contribute some of their time and energy to help children live," she said. "We really need bike riders, since they are the ones who can make this bike-a-thon successful."

In the bike-a-thon, riders enlist sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed. Riders who raise $25 will receive a St. Jude T-shirt. Those who raise $75 will receive a jacket.

There will also be prizes for the two riders raising the most money.

Sponsor forms are available at the Jumpertown Supermarket.

For more information, contact Ms. Phillips at 728-6964 after 5 p.m.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

By Larry E. Hill

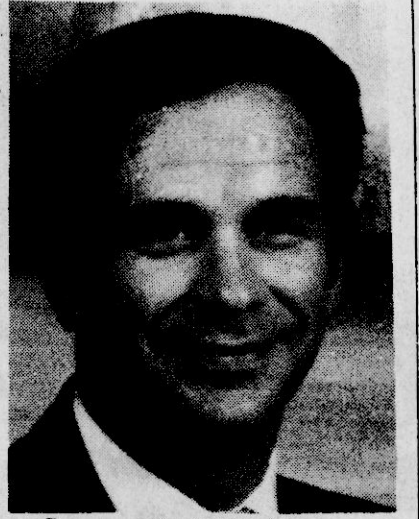

"Wait On The Lord, Be Of Good Courage, And He Shall Strengthen Thine Heart."
Psalms 27:14

If we take the latin word cor and substitute its meaning "heart" for the English word courage here, we should see a new shading of truth, for the scripture would then read, "Be of good heart, and He shall strengthen thine heart." God always allies Himself with human striving for spiritual adequacy. As the physical heart is strengthened by exercise, so moral courage is improved by accepting every challenge to its fullest.

Courage puts fear, the greatest single enemy of faith down. It is the outward manifestation of hope, self-reliance, lofty purpose, purity of heart, and clarity of mental and moral vision. It acquires strength to meet the great crises of life by meeting bravely a countless number of seemingly small, routine, daily tests. Spiritual valor is not born in a day any more than physical bravery. It is developed by waiting for God's directives and obeying them to the best of our conscience.

Many a trial and burden we bear because we shrink from tackling unpleasant duties. Once a farmer plowed around a large rock in his field for five successive seasons. During those years he lost the use of the ground occupied by the stone, lost precious time avoiding it in sowing and reaping, lost his temper at the occasional damage it did to his plowshares. He thought it too big to move alone, but one day in testing it with a crow-bar, he found it so light that he could lift it into a cart and haul it away. It proved to be some sort of porous rock, movable without help.

Indecision is the greatest ally of discouragement. He who fails to invoke the powers of the almighty is lost. Tackle that obstacle to spiritual advancement today, whether it be timidity, adversity, physical deformity, past failures, or what not, and prove the Lord's promise, "He shall strengthen thine heart."

Booneville Happenings

By JESSIE PRESLEY

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Oliver Eaton of Jumbertown. Mr. Eaton passed away last Thursday.

Visiting with Mrs. Rozie Miller and Mrs. Verna Mason, patients at the Lee Manor, Inc. Tupelo, one day last week were Mrs. Eric Barnes, Mrs. Ola Harris of Thrasher, Mrs. J.C. Copeland, Mrs. Hattie S. Sause and Liz Burris. We send our love and best wishes to Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Mason.

Friends of Mrs. Buck Moore wish to extend their sincere sympathy upon the loss of her sister, Mrs. John Flora. Mrs. Flora passed away last week.

Mrs. Laura England of Jackson, Miss., and her social worker, Mrs. Parker, spent three days last week with her two sisters, Mrs. Jean Downs and Mrs. Tom Bailey. They spent one night on an outing at Pickwick Landing and another day at the Jacinto Courthouse, where they enjoyed the Blue Grass Festival, which was in progress. Buddy and Kay Bain, with Mrs. Leola Mills and husband were among the entertainers for the event. Mrs. England and Mrs. Parker returned to their home in Jackson on Monday.

Mrs. Quinn Johnson of Jackson, Tenn., is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Butch Caldwell and Jessica and other relatives. Van Saylor of Oklahoma City passed away last Wednesday. Van is a native of Prentiss County, having been born in the Blackland Community 66 years ago. He is the brother of Mrs. Bill P. other. We extend our deepest sympathy to her and all other relatives.

Mrs. Patty Ross has had a short stay in the Corinth hospital, but is now home. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Mason, Amanda and Davis of Joliet, Ill., spent several days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. James Mason and other relatives. On Saturday evening Sept. 20, about 35 people met in the back yard of the Murphy's for a family picnic and to celebrate the birthday of Mr. Aubrey.

The food was delicious and the fellowship was great. Those attending with the Murphys were Mr. and Mrs. Wade Mason, Amanda and Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Murphy, Donna and Heather, Mr. and Mrs. Luther McKissack, Mrs. Eula Peaks, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hall, Ginger and Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins and Steve, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Murphy, Chris and Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Albritton and Luke, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Reeves and Bobby D.

Friends are concerned about the illness of Mrs. Clyde Glover of Wheeler. She will undergo heart surgery in Tupelo Friday. Your prayers will be appreciated.

We are glad to know that Mrs. Dora Arnold is out of the North Mississippi Medical Center, Tupelo after several week's stay. We wish her a complete recovery.

The patrons of East Circle Senior Citizens Center of Mimosa Drive made the most of a beautiful autumn day and trekked over to the Northern part of our state to see sights of interest last Tuesday. Twenty-five people boarded a van and two cars and away they went. Our first stop was to view (from a high peak) the project of the Tenn-Tom waterway near Iuka. Everyone should see this handiwork of man. Many talents of man are being used as this great waterway shapes up.

Our next place to visit was the Tishomingo State Park. Walking on the swinging bridge and picking muscadines on one of the trails beyond the bridge was an enjoyable treat. We next found the building in which the Senior Citizens meet in Tishomingo and had fellowship with them and toured their building. Between 50 and 60 meet there each day for lunch and recreation. We found friends we once worked with and met new ones.

Suddenly, we realized it was dinner time. We spread lunch on the porch of one of the cabins which over looked a great ravine. The lunch consist of picnic sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and iced cold drinks furnished by our "Council for the Adging."

After resting awhile we toured more the the camp site, walking many of the trails seeing beautiful sights of nature, such as large and small bolders and trees of many colors.

The last stop on the way home was the Jacinto Courthouse. I must tell you the history of this place. Jacinto was established as the county seat of Old Tishomingo County in 1836. The present solid brick-walled courthouse building was completed in 1854 at the cost of $6,798. At one time it boasted a hotel, numerous taverns, a male academy, a newspaper, doctors, lawyers, a telegraph line, numerous merchantile establishments, and a stage coach line running three stages per day.

It was an early political and cultural center. Then the railroads came, but not for Jacinto. In 1870, the large county was divided into the present Alcorn, Prentiss and Tishomingo Counties. The town began to die. The courthouse was used as a school house until 1908 and as a Methodist Church until 1960.

In 1964 it was restored and refurbished by the Jacinto Foundation Inc. and is now supported by Prentiss, Tishomingo and Alcorn.

There was a visit made to the Souvenir Shop and with a treat of ice cream, we headed for home and arrived safe and sound, but tired and happy. Our thanks go to the Council of the Adging, John Hanley, Claude Wright of Northeast Mississippi Junior College for packing such a nice picnic lunch, Mrs. J.T. Tidwell, supervisor of the center, Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, Gene Witt and Ruby Lee Moore for driving the van and cars.

Patrons enjoying the trip were Charlene Roberts, Alice Tidwell, Thelma Rogers, Alta Walker, Kate Wren, Clarence Deaton, Elizabeth Garner, Bob Cappleman, Paul Strange, Mr. Hall, Lawrence Rickett, Althea Morgan, Willie Pearl Vandevander, Walter Nunley, Jessie Presley, Ruby Lee Moore, Mattie Bell Livingston, Hazel Bolt, Mildred Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. Stokes, Tiffany Johnson, Evelyn Johnson and Gene Witt.

Mrs. Johnny Faye Fogarty has returned to her home in Truth or Consequence, New Mexico, after a two weeks visit with her cousin, Mrs. Vera Windham.

Thought for the week:

I suppose these days we hear the word "Cancer" everyday. We can't help but shudder when we think of our many loved ones and friends who have cancer and others who have gone on. I'm sure everyone who reads this column has been touched by this terrible disease in some way.

Often we think of days passed. The diseases of TB, typhoid fever, polio and heart trouble have been conquered to a certain degree, and then we wonder about cancer. Why has there not been more progress made.

While reading "Baptist and Reflector," a news journal of Tennessee Baptist Convention, the other day, I found a written prayer that should challenge us to pray for the conquest of cancer. Let's dedicate ourselves right now to pray daily for this cause. Below is the prayer I read in the paper.

"Our Lord, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, we thank Thee that Thou art a God of love. "From the gift of our lives to the moment we return to Thee, we are in Thy loving care. We turn to Thee in times of joy and in times of pain.

"We are concerned for those in pain, those who suffer from cancer, and for those who care for them.

"Bless, we pray, those who minister to the victims of this dread disease. Give them a skill and knowledge that cures may be wrought.

"Heal, we pray, those who suffer that their pain may be replaced by joy.

"Give, we pray, a discovery of the cure for cancer and the knowledge of how to prevent it.

"Increase, we pray, Thy ministry of healing through all who labor in the research and the health professions, that one day we may rejoice in a world free from the scourage of cancer in which all my may live out their span of life in useful service to thee and Thy children.

"To Thee we shall give the praise! Amen."

Livestock Show Winners Named

By Edward L. McWhirter
Extension 4-H
Youth Agent

The Prentiss County Livestock Show was held Saturday, Sept. 12, at the county feeder pig barn on Highway 45 North.

Congratulations to the county livestock winners are in order. In the swine show Brent Mauney won Junior Showmanship and Champion Market Hog. Also showing in the swine show were Bobby Thompson and David Johnson.

In the Beef Show Mark Johnson won the Junior Showmanship. In the show the Champion and Reserve Angus Bull and Heifer went to Mark Johnson.

The Champion Polled Hereford Bull went to Dalton Guy Garner and the Reserve Champion went to Jerry Kendrick. The Champion Polled Hereford Heifer went to Dalton Guy Garner and Reserve Champion went to Eric Morrow.

In the Dairy Show the Champion Junior Jersey went to Delbert Morgan. Reserve Champion Junior Jersey went to Melissa Taylor. Keith Cox had Gurnsey Champion and the Junior Showmanship.

Senior Dairy Showmanship went to Royce Taylor. Congratulations to Keith Cox, Melissa Taylor, Royce Taylor, Delbert Morgan for their outstanding work at the Newton and Philadelphia Livestock and Dairy Shows.

Now is the time for youth and parents to start thinking about livestock projects.

We will be selecting swine projects for those youth who need swine on Oct. 8 at the feeder pig barn.

If you would like to select a project for you, call 728-5631 for more information.

Attending the Central Mississippi Fair at Kosciusko September 24 were Delbert Morgan, Royce Taylor, Keith Cox and Melissa Taylor. Congratulations on an outstanding show.

Thank You
And Welcome

National 4-H Week, October 5-11, is the time to say thank-you to all of you who support the Prentiss

County 4-H program. 4-H members, teen leaders, adult leaders and numerous donors and sponsors make the 4-H program go in this county.

As we say thank you, we hope you will say thank you to each other. The 4-H program belongs to you. The program is coordinated by the Extension Service, but you pay the county, state and federal taxes that fund the Extension Service.

National 4-H Week is also a special time to say welcome to others who are not involved in youth programs. As you have been welcomed, we hope you will welcome other youth, adults and sponsors into 4-H.

Just as you have brought new ideas and actions into 4-H, so can others.

The new 4-H theme is "Pathways to the Future." Thanks again to all of you who are lighting the path and welcome to those of you who are interested.

There is room for all in 4-H.

You know the saying "You never get too old." Well its true. The Senior Citizens of Mimosa Circle Center all went on a picnic thru Bay Springs and Tishomingo Park last Tuesday.

It just so happened that it was "Butterbean Lady's" birthday and, would you believe that she had never gone across the seeking bridge! And she said it was because there were muscadines on the other side!

We want to make an apology to "Red Ryder" and "Lady Red Ryder" for missing their anniversary date. Belated anniversary wishes to both of you and hope you enjoy many, many more.

"Upholstery Man," you better watch out with "Twitty Bird," out of town and all those invites out for meals. You'll get fat.

We have had a lot of sickness in our club. "Running Bear," has been in the hospital; "Miss. Shorty" has been in bed most of time; "Mrs. Songster" has been having blood clots in her legs; "Texas Ruby," has been down with arthritis; "Sunshine" is still having problems with her broken arm; and "White Dove," has a real bad summer cold, "Lame Duck," is not feeling up to par yet; "Letterman" is feeling some better, and "Thrasher Star" is having tendonitis in her elbow. Hope we haven't missed anyone and each of you are well on the road to recovery.

We, the "Blue Surf" family, want to say thank you to "No Hands" and to "Paper Doll" for helping us move furniture recently. Also to "King" and "Queen" for their help, and to the "Termites" for helping us build a shed. It sure is great to have friends.

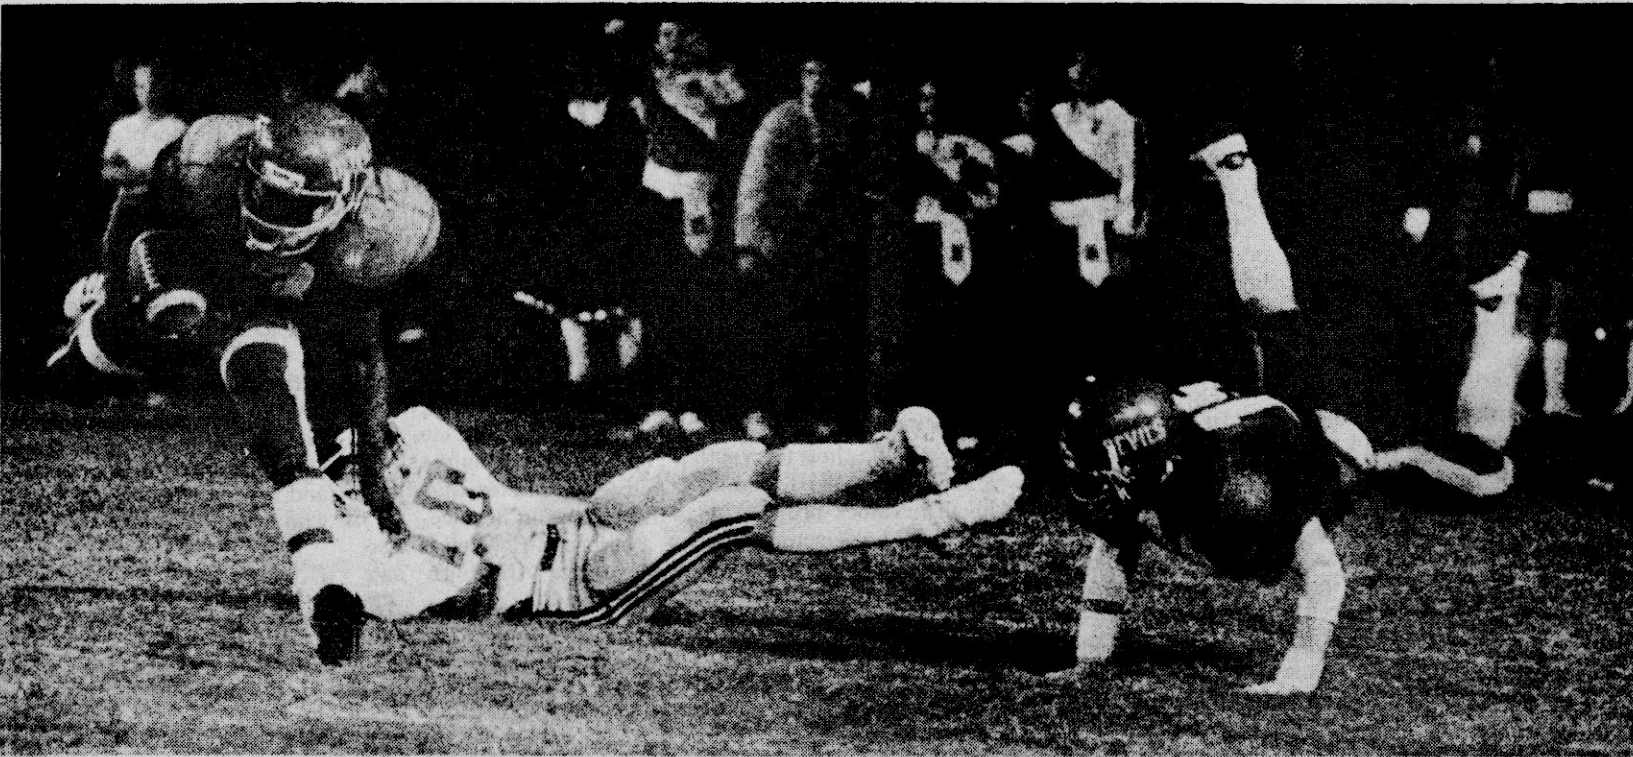

Our social will be Saturday night, Oct. 3, at 7:30 at the Westside Community Center. We will have a band. Everyone bring plenty of food for our guests. Happy birthday to "Lady Hippie" on the 30th, "Little Wrecker" on the 30th; and to "Whitedove," on the 3rd. Hope each of you have a nice day and enjoy many more.

Our C.B. Club is taking orders for cords of wood to be cut and sold and also quilts. For more information contact our president, "White Girl," at 728-6095.

Happy anniversary to the "Hilltopper" and to "Lady Hilltopper" on Sept. 29. Hope you have a nice day and enjoy many more together.

Until next week stay well, be happy, and attend the church of your choice.

Devils Drop 21-0 Decision To Houston Friday

BALDWYN—Booneville's Blue Devils dropped their third outing of the 1981 season here Friday night with a 21-0 loss to the hands of Houston Hilltoppers.

The Devils, now 1-3 on the 1981 campaign, did little against the much improved Hilltoppers who were tabbed as one of the top teams in the Class A Division.

Houston's defense, said by several to be a strong deep squad, were loaded with senior performers and stopped most of the Devil attempts.

The Devils, during the first half of action only penetrated the Houston resivation on one occasion and had very limited chances to score.

Houston jumped out to a 14-0 margin in the first half and the Devils were fighting a downhill battle from there.

Hilltopper back Keith Huggins started things off for the Hoston squad with a one yard run while he also added the point after to give Houston a 7-0 lead.

Huggins scored again, this time on a second quarter touchdown from two yards out to up the count to 14-0.

The final tally of the night for the Hilltoppers came in the third quarter when Sammy Ford burst up the middle on a 52 yard sprint. Huggins' extra point upped the count to 21-0 and the Devils just couldn't overcome that.

Booneville had several offensive threat going but just couldn't get the offense in gear and put any points on the board.

The Devil defense rose to the occasion however in many points of the ballgame and stopped some key Houston drives but the senior improved Hilltoppers were strong enough to pick up the Class A victory.

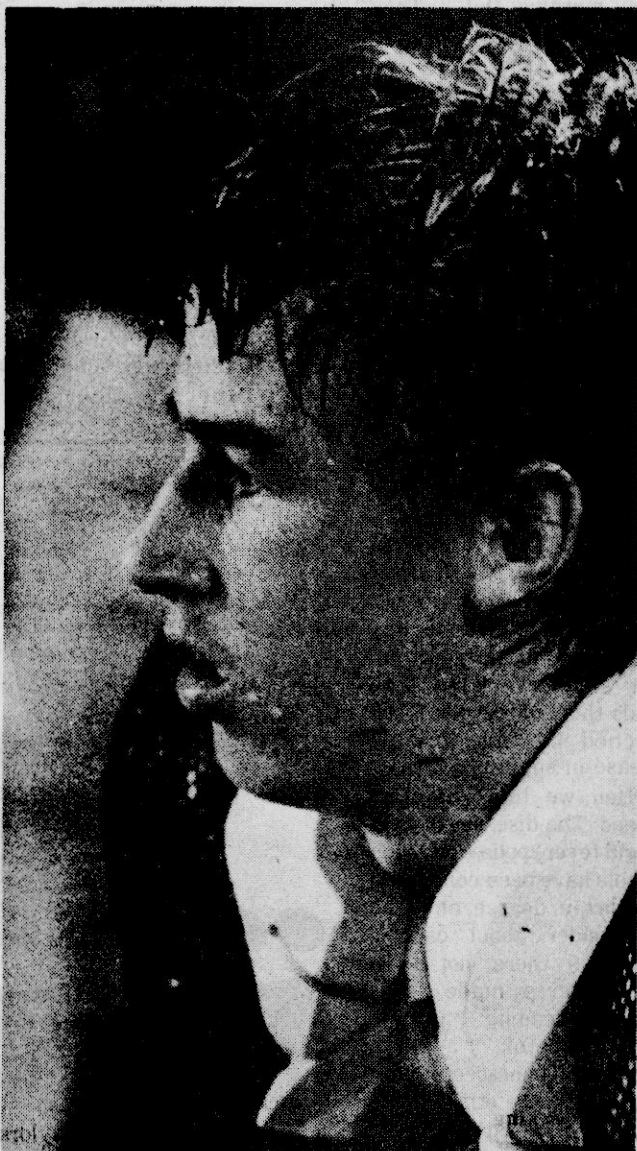

The Devils will have still their toughest test of the 1981 season Friday night when they travel to Saltillo to meet last year's Tombigbee Conference champions Saltillo Tigers.

Saltillo is 3-0 on the 1981 season and has litterly walked over every one of their opponents this year.

Gametime for tomorrow's clash has been set at 7:30.

McVey, with anxious anticipation, looks on. The Devils dropped a 21-0 decision last Friday to Houston.

Dedication Set Saturday Tiger Stadium Second To None

By LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

Talking about nice..Well, folks if you want a definition of the word nice then the newly constructed Northeast Tiger Stadium would be considered nice indeed...

I don't think the average person really knows just what we're talking about when we say nice. This stadium will be as well equipped as any stadium in the mid-south and better (by far) than most.

The stadium (at presstime) was almost completed and without a doubt, barring no severe complications, the stadium will be used this Saturday night when the Tigers host Hinds Junior College with a 7:30 kickoff.

With these stands, the area fans will be sitting in the lap of luxuriary at every game. Complete with some seven off ramps, high rise seats, concrete walkways and much much more, the newly constructed stadium will seat some 5300 fans with the best of seating arrangements similiar to those used in a college stadium.

According to S&J contractor Doug Jumper, the new stadium is almost a duplicate of the Texas A&M Stadium which is a senior college construction.

The people in Northeast Mississippi now have a stadium they can be proud of and, without a doubt, there's none finer in the state.

I'll also have to brag for the press as well. The stadium will have a 72 foot long pressbox and will be fully carpeted, have central heat and air and will have a view which will be second to none.

Northeast president Harold T. White, the Junior College Board of Trustees and the people of the five county area who have helped fund the project are to be commended for this fine construction.

Also a tip of the hat goes out to Mr. Jumper and the construction crew that worked long and hard hours to get this ready for this Oct. 3rd outing.

Mark this Saturday night on your calendar and be present for the dedication of the new stadium. It's quite a sight to see...

Weeks Paces Thrasher Win

Thrasher speedster Pete Weeks scored two touchdowns to lead the Thrasher eighth grade to a 22-6 victory over Pine Grove in the Junior High opener for the Prentiss County School.

One of Week's runs came on an 85 yard sprint. Also chipping in to aid in the victory was Tracey Lawson who added another six pointer while he also added a two point conversion. The other two pointer came on a pass from Bobby Lowery to Shaun Jourdan.

In other action on the day Thrasher's seventh grade lost a 14-0 decision.

The local troops, under head coach Willie Jackson will battle Hills Chapel today at 4:30 and will then travel to Biggersville Tuesday night in a 7:00 kickoff.

Anderson Wins

Tigers Fall To Holmes At Goodman Showdown Thursday

GOODMAN, MS—Holmes Junior College cranked up an offense of some 372 total yards here last Thursday night waltzed to a 27-7 North victory over Northeast

Mississippi Junior College Tigers in a North Conference clash at Goodman, Mississippi. Holmes, the pre-season pick as the North's number one team, jumped on the Tigers just minutes after the kickoff and never looked back from that point. The Bulldogs were loaded with sophomores (the most in fact in the entire league) and took advantage of this situation since the Tigers only had a limited amount of sophomore gridsters and scored at almost every conceivable opportunity.

Northeast head mentor Bill Ward said before the Thursday outing that this indeed would be one of the toughest tests thus far for the Northeast pawmen. "Oh they were loaded with talent," Ward said. After the outing, "I knew even before the season started that Holmes would be one of the teams to beat in the North division."

The Tigers only score of the night came in the fourth and final period on a 37 yard run by Rickey Cannon on a handoff from quarterback Buddy Hall. Mathis' extra point gave the Tigers their only seven points of the night.

Ward said the Holmes squad had one of the top sophomore defenses anywhere around. "They block hard, hit hard and tackle hard..." Ward said. "They're just a good physical ballclub."

Tigers Open In New Stadium

The Tigers will return home Saturday night for the first time this season when they battle Hinds Junior College in the new reconstructed Tiger stadium.

Hinds is winless on the 1981 campaign but still has a much better team than their record indicates, and will give the Tigers a battle.

Scoring Summary

Keep the whole pie. Earn $2,000 tax-free.

Starting October 1st, you can earn 12.61% interest tax-free.

Our All Savers Certificate could be your best investment. It lets you earn up to $2,000 non-taxable interest on a joint return ($1,000 on an individual return). It's a one year certificate of deposit that is fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. With our All Savers Certificate, you get to keep all the pie at tax time.

Convert your 6-Month Certificate with no penalty.

Now you can convert your existing 6-Month Money Market Certificate into a tax-free All Savers Certificate with no interest penalty on your existing certificate. Even if it has several months until maturity. Your principal and every cent of interest you've earned to date can be converted to an All Savers tax exempt certificate.

What 12.61% Tax-Free can mean to you.

If your taxable family income is:	Your tax bracket probably is:	The interest rate you'd have to receive to net 12.61% after federal income tax is:
$50,000 or more	50%	25.22%
$35,000	40%	21.02%
$25,000	30%	18.01%
$20,000 or less	25%	16.81%

Figures above are approximate and based on 1981 tax tables. Interest of 12.61% is equal to 70% of average investment yield on one year U.S. Treasury Bills as of September 3rd. This yield will be paid on All Savers Certificates purchased prior to October 5. Rate changes monthly. First change will be October 5, 1981. The rate at time of purchase is guaranteed for 12 months.

It could be your best investment.

Our tax-free All Savers Certificate beats most other forms of investment. Especially if you're in the 30% or higher tax bracket. You'll get a higher after-tax return than you can get with other certificates. There's none of the risk associated with today's volatile stock market. Because it's fully insured by the F.D.I.C. The yield is higher than most highly regarded Municipal Bonds. And there are none of the brokerage fees, commissions and other charges associated with money market funds.

The minimum investment in our one year tax-free All Savers Certificate is $500. The tax exemption is lost if you cash your certificate before maturity. And there is a penalty for early withdrawal.

But you can earn up to $2,000 tax-free in our All Savers Certificate. And you won't have to serve Uncle Sam a piece of the pie on April 15th.

A Photo Album Of Old Prentiss County

Plus
Special Old Fashioned Values From Your Progressive Booneville Area Merchants

This is the way the Prentiss County Court House looked before it burned in the early 1920's. Some of the businesses in the photo are Cartwright's, The Princess Theatre, the Post Office, Booneville Garage and Cox & Key Drugs.

A Special Feature Of The Banner-Independent

'Who's Who And Why' In Prentiss

(The following article appeared under the heading, "Who's Who In Prentiss County And Why," in the Dec. 19, 1930, edition of The Booneville Independent.)

Mrs. John Ellis was a member of one of the first half dozen families settled in Booneville.

Booneville. She was a Norwood, her father having been a prominent tobacco planter in Kentucky until the time of the Civil War, when he was greatly reduced and his slaves freed.

At the close of the war, he moved his family to Mississippi, locating in Booneville.

Booneville, then a village of scarcely half a hundred white inhabitants.

Mrs. Ellis remembers little about the actual trials of war. Her father collected food and clothing into a commissary to be dispensed to the soldiers. She was quite young when her family came to Booneville.

She had four sisters and three brothers, none of whom are still living. One of her brothers died a short time after moving to Booneville, and was the first citizen buried in the plot of ground then set aside for the cemetery.

Ida Norwood, when she was 22, married Mr. John Ellis, then postmaster. But with the change of administration, he was forced to turn to farming and other means of maintaining his family.

He established a mercantile business in Ripenz and moved his family there.

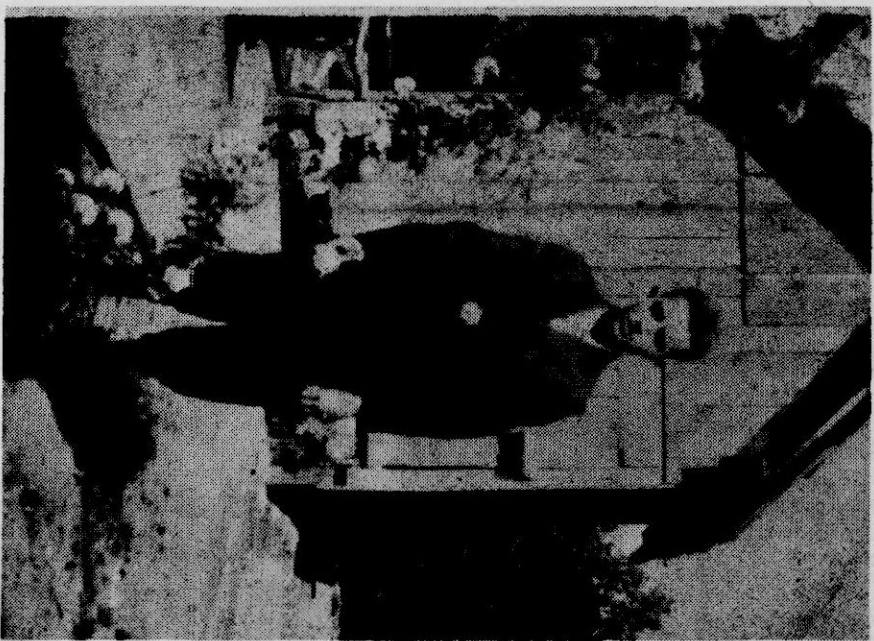

But Mrs. Ellis, now the mother of a daughter, had three sons, was suddenly left with all the care of rearing her children, and on very small means. Her husband died 29 years ago. Despite her hardships,

Mrs. Ellis brought her children up to meet responsibility early and well, for she herself considers the best compliment she ever received was that said by a friend, "If I could only raise boys like you!"

Mrs. Ellis lives now with her daughter, Mrs. Clark. One of her sons is cashier of the Ripenz Bank, another is farming, and the other is a county demonstrator.

Wyninger President Of Board Of Supervisors

We herewith present the likeness of Thos. J. Wyningar, president of the Board of Supervisors. He has successfully steered the board through the trying times of the past few weeks in the matter of tax reduction.

He has had the hearty cooperation of the other members of the board. No county in the state has a more conscientious board than this county.

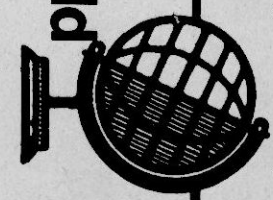

Mr. Wyningar is the member from the Booneville district; R.B. Smith of Osborn, the Second District; C.C. Coggin of Baldwyn, the Third District; Hardie Moore of Martetta, the Fourth District; and W.A. Burcham, the Fifth District.

The people of the county express their appreciation for the careful consideration given them in securing a reduction of around $80,000 in the amount of taxes to be collected this season.

JOHNSON BROTHERS

Reunion Is Annual Event At Burcham School Site

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

Burcham School was located about six miles southeast of Jacinto, in what was one of the oldest settlements in Prentiss County.

It was founded before old Tishomingo county was divided into the present day counties of Alcorn, Prentiss and Tishomingo.

No one knows exactly how the 1-8 grade school came to be called the Burcham School. The Burchams owned much of the land in the vicinity and are thought to have built the community school.

In those days, schools were built about three miles apart so children wouldn't have to walk more than three miles to go to school. There was also a school at Jacinto.

When Jacinto was the county seat of Tishomingo County, civilization only went out 6-8 miles around the town.

Over a long period of years there were three schoolhouses built at the Burcham School site.

The first building, which is said to have been a 12 x 16 foot log building, was built about 150 years ago.

The building burned about 25-30 years after its construction. Local historians say about 15 students attended school in the first building.

The second building is said to have been built before the Civil War. This building was enlarged to a 25 x 30 foot pine log building to accommodate 35-40 students. Benches were made out of logs that had been split open.

The second building burned about 125 years ago. Then a third schoolhouse was constructed. A curtain divided the rooms in the school building. About 75 students attended school then.

At first the school term was four months. Then the term was lengthened to six months as money allowed. In later years, teachers were paid $20 a month. There was only one teacher at Burcham School during the last two years the school was open. Up until that time there had been two teachers.

Among the subjects taught at the school were arithmetic, spelling, reading, geography and civics. Burcham School served as more than just a school. The Missionary Baptist, Church of Christ and the Freewill Baptists in the community used the schoolhouse to hold church services in. And district court was also held at the schoolhouse.

As years passed people began to move away from the area.

In 1927-28, Burcham School and Piney Grove School were consolidated with New Candler. Then, school wagons were used to carry children to school.

When the Burcham School closed, the building was torn down. The lumber and benches were taken to New Candler. The lumber was used to build a lunchroom at New Candler. A few years later the lunchroom burned.

Several years ago the Burcham community constructed a block building to use as a place to hold reunions. The last schoolhouse was located just behind the present-day building.

Every summer the Burchams, former Burcham School teachers and former students hold a reunion—an event that makes the old school site come alive once again.

Some of the teachers who taught at Burcham School were Melissa Yerber, Sarah Johnson, L.A. Johnson, Gabus Garrett, Sid Gallaher, Maggie Sims, Elmer McCoy, Clint Robinson, Wilodene Kemp, Masfield Newborn and Ruth Browning Cadle.

Some of the names of students attending Burcham School were Carpenter, Burcham, Jones, Garrett, Lambert, Beard, Massey, McAnally, Newborn, Davis, Smith, Willis, Cadle, Rhodes, Rogers, Barnes, Yerber, Tye, Gann, Lee, Brimingham, Wayne and Pollard.

Elvis Presley

1955 Concert Features

'Hillbilly' Artist

(The following article appeared on the front page of the Jan. 13, 1955, edition of The Booneville Banner.)

When the rhythmic beat of "That's All Right, Mama," "Blue Moon of Kentucky," and other Elvis Presley favorites fill the air at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College auditorium on Monday, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m., the fastest rising country music star in the nation will be performing in his own top-notch manner.

And it's a good bet that folks will leave the show as full-fledged fans for Elvis Presley.

With his sidekicks, Scotty Moore and Bill Black, Elvis has made a number of appearances in the South. He's one of the top favorites of the Louisiana Hayride, where the audience often just won't let him leave the stage.

A good-looking, single lad, Presley, a recent graduate of Humes High in Memphis, made his first record only about 6 months ago. But since that time, he's captured the hearts of the young and old with his unusual style of singing.

Presley has made three "Sun" records. They are

"That's All Right, Mama," b-w "Blue Moon of Kentucky," "I Don't Care If The Sun Don't Shine" b-w "Good Rockin' Tonight," and his latest release, "You're a Heartbreaker" b-w "The Milk Cow Blues Boogie."

The sister and brother team of J.E. and Maxine Brown also star on the Hayride, and their first record release, "Looking Back to See," was one of the top sellers of 1954.

There'll be other favorites from the Hayride Show, as well as Bob Neal of WMPS in Memphis, along with Presley and the Browns on the great Country Music Jamboree Monday, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m. in the junior college auditorium.

The show will be sponsored by the Booneville Kiwanis Club. Proceeds from the show will be used by the club to promote its county-wide projects.

EAST PRENTISS SCHOOL 1930-31—East Prentiss School was built around the early 1920's and was located about 15-20 miles west of New Site. There were approximately 120 students in the four-room school house during the years of 1930-31. The school building burned in October 1950. The next year a block building was constructed. Consolidation with New Site school forced the first through eighth grade school to close a few years later. Some of the students shown in Miss Leila Cummings fourth and fifth grade class in 1930-31 are (top photo) Jewel Denson, Otis Denson, J.P. Wright, Lorene and Erlene Pounds, Merrow Crow, Lactress Crow, Faye Turbeville, Arlis Moore, Blake Moore and Columbia Gann. Some of the students shown in Miss Lula Cummings first grade class in 1930-31 are (middle photo) L.C. Wright, Syble and Maxine Denson, Chester Eaton, Mae Hall and Lorene Denson, Richard and Rastel Denson, Ruth Denson is among those pictured in Miss Lorena Akers second and third grade class (bottom photo). Principal Jim Wright taught sixth, seventh and eighth grades during the 1930-31 term.

Now Deserted

Clinic Remains As A Silent Memorial

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

Even if you are not old enough to remember when the Sutherland Clinic was open, a trip down the now deserted hallways seems to bring back memories.

As you stand in the middle of the empty hallway, you can almost hear the ancient hustle and bustle of doctors and nurses looking after their patients. You can almost hear the murmurs from the waiting room out front as Prentiss Countians of years gone by sat patiently awaiting their turn to see the doctor.

And you can almost hear the complaints of some at having to climb the four flights of stairs.

But most of all, you seem to sense the dedication of Dr. W. H. Sutherland who ran the clinic.

Sutherland, often called the father of medicine in Prentiss County, was born Feb. 18, 1873, near New Site.

After first practicing medicine in Wheeler, Dr. Sutherland and his family moved to Booneville in 1915.

Shortly thereafter, he built a small clinic near the present day location of the Booneville City Hall.

In 1916, he renovated an old jail into a 15-bed hospital so that he could perform surgery. This was the first hospital in Northeast Mississippi. It, too, was located near the present City Hall.

In the 1920's Sutherland built the four-story building on what is now College Street to house his clinic. At that time, it was known as the Sutherland Building.

Still standing today as the tallest building in Prentiss County, it currently houses the Dickerson Furniture Company's showroom on its first floor. The upper three floors are vacant and remain relatively unchanged from the days of the clinic.

The building has much history. One of the middle floors was the original home of the Prentiss Manufacturing Company. The building has also housed such establishments as the Holley Brothers Dry Goods, A.C. Wheeler Dry Goods, Clark-Brewer Hardware and a welfare office.

The Sutherland Building is believed to have contained the first elevator in Prentiss County. It is still operative today.

It is said that Dr. Sutherland wanted privacy for his medical practice, so he put it on the top floor of the building because it was far from the noise of the streets.

There was plenty of room

Corinth and Tupelo.

In December 1949, the first staff of that hospital current Northeast Mississippi Hospital opened. Although there is some controversy about it, most people agree that this Booneville hospital was the first to be built under the Hill-Burton plan.

Dr. Sullivan served on the first staff of that hospital. After serving as a physician in Booneville for more than 50 years, Dr. Sullivan died on Dec. 1, 1959. But the Sullivan building stands today as a monument to the man and his faith in Booneville.

GINNING COTTON—Aubry Murphy is shown ginning cotton at the Booneville Cotton Gin in 1984. Murphy, who worked there for 33 years, was head ginner. The old Booneville Gin, which opened in 1930 and closed in 1970, was located next to Western Auto. The Booneville Gin was originally called The Hiawatha Gin Co. The Hiawatha Gin Co. closed during the Depression.

Levi Helped Bring Prosperity To The Prentiss County Area

(The following article appeared under the heading, "Who's Who And Why In Prentiss County," in the Dec. 26, 1950, edition of The Booneville Independent.)

LEVI M. PHILLIPS

Levi Phillips is one of the most common household names in Booneville and Prentiss County. Mr.

Phillips is just a bit advanced in years, but he is young in mind and spirit, and in activity. He first saw light on June 14, 1858, about four miles northwest of Corinth. His father was a "country doctor" and knew well the trials, hardships and difficulties of the family physician of those days, the days of the war between the states and reconstruction.

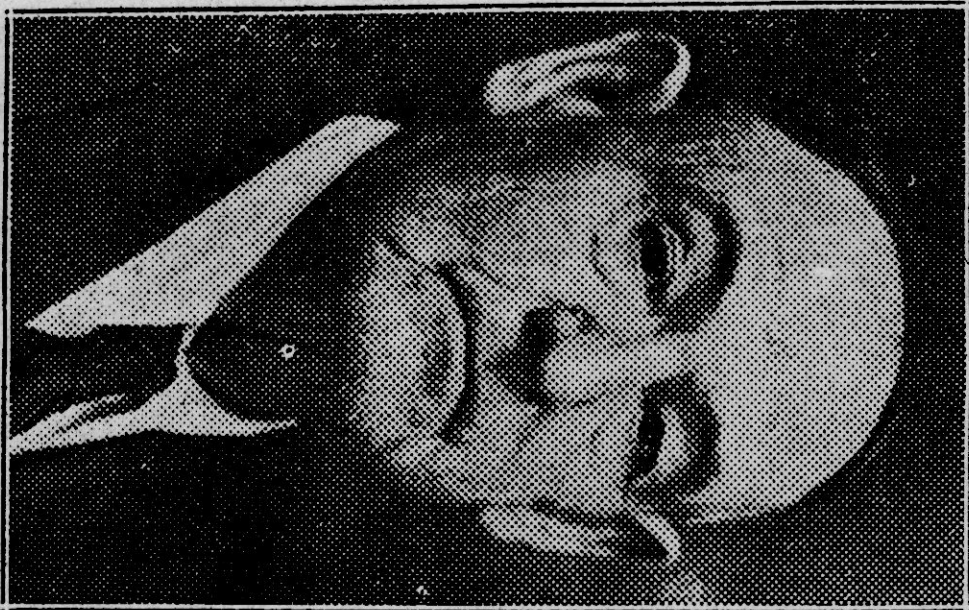

Levi Phillips was the second boy. The son Levi went to school at Corinth and to the Male Academy at Blue Mountain.

Mr. Phillips came to Booneville in 1888. Soon after this, he made his luckiest deal. He married Miss Eva Ray Street, the daughter of Capt. A.M. Street, a member of one of the most distinguished families of the entire state.

He had a big heart; he was in sympathy with the farmers and could not keep from giving them the highest price possible. Members of the firm at times thought Phillips paid too much because he was "a little foxy"; farmers thought at times they got a price beyond the market.

Major Phillips first engaged in business with his brother here and later with his brother-in-law, Clovis Hinds. And then the firm became known as the famous Phillips-Rinehart-Taylor Company.

But the law of compensation came in and the farmers spent liberally with the firm. Thousands of dollars came to Booneville and was standing as a cotton market. Mr. Phillips rendered a service that meant more to Booneville than almost anyone has dared to estimate.

Marietta Built Around

'Healing' Springs

Taken From THE BOONEVILLE BANNER September, 1956

Marietta is the oldest town in Prentiss County and has a very colorful history. Its past centered around the 13 mineral springs found there which here nine different types of water within a 20-foot area.

Legend has it that there was a purple shell which contained miraculous healing powers. The shell was called the Nemo-Akim and the sick could be healed by drinking from it.

But during the past few months hundreds of volunteer workers have cleaned the area with bulldozers, picks and shovels and the once famous Nemo-Akim and other springs are again attracting people in this area.

The Indians, searching for the shell, discovered that the Nemo-Akim had imparted its healing power to the spring water.

The first white man to settle at Marietta was James Williams who came from Georgia.

Then other settlers came and in 1881, a resort hotel was built at the site and the place became famous.

A tornado hit the town in 1913, and blew down the hotel and the resort was left to grow up in weeds and trees.

1906 SNOWDOWN SCHOOL STUDENTS—According to the legend, when Snowdown School was being built, it was snowing so hard, the people named the school "Snowdown." There were actually four different Snowdown school buildings. The first was built around 1899-1900. One school burned and one was torn down. The last school building closed about 1936. Some of the teachers at Snowdown were Phillip Bridges, Wayne Sutherland, Edna Morgan, Masfield Newborn, Miss Jessie Billingson, Vernon Yarbrough, Lillie Harris, Houston Crabb, L.A. Johnson and Joe Woodruff. Pictured in front of the Snowdown schoolhouse around 1906 are

'My grandfather settled here a good bit over 100 years ago. My mother lived to be 93 years old and she was one of his family. What I know is the history she gave me.'

tradition.

Moore, the son of Levi Jackson Moore and Sarah G. Moore, is the grandson of Billy Denson, who is believed to have been the first person to settle in the New Site area.

Moore himself remembers using mules to haul cotton and lumber into Booneville. That was when the town's streets were still unpaved.

Leaning back in an old straight-back, cane-bottomed chair in the front of the general merchandise store that he has operated at New Site for 45 years, Moore recently took time to reflect on the beginnings of the New Site community.

"My grandfather settled here a good bit over 100 years ago," he said. "My mother lived to be 93 years old and she was one of his family. What I know is the history she gave me."

"You've read history books where people settled this land years ago; well, my grandfather was one of 'em," he said.

"He settled in or near this road here," Moore said, indicating Highway 4 which passes in front of his store. "As far as I know, there wasn't anyone else living in this area. The government could have owned some land. I don't know. Everything sold real cheap back then."

He said his grandfather also named the town.

"This is a new place to me," he says. "I like it around here; it looks good." So he named it "New Site."

Moore said, "It's been going by that ever since."

"I believe that's the beginning of this place here," Moore said.

The tradition of working for the U.S. Postal Service also runs deep in Moore's family roots.

His grandfather, the one who founded the town, also started the first post office. Moore's mother carried on the tradition, and Moore himself served as New Site postmaster and as a rural route carrier for a total of 30 years. He retired from the postal service in 1970.

Moore has also been active in community affairs that concern both New Site and Prentiss County.

"I've served in a lot of capacities since I've been around here," he said. "I've tried to be a good life; I've tried to be a leader out here (at New Site) in helping to do things for the good of New Site and Prentiss County."

In addition to serving 30 years with the postal service, Moore also served for 20 years on the board of the Prentiss County Electric Power Association. He was on the board when the present PCEPA building was constructed.

Also, commissioned on Sept. 3, 1936, by then governor Hugh White, Moore served for 24 years as a Prentiss County Election Commissioner.

"I have a lot of people come by and say, 'How old are you?' And I'll say, 'Well now start countin' and I'll give you a little history on a few things that I've done,'" he said.

"I've been in this store 45 years. I stayed on the rural route 30 years. I served 20 years with the Prentiss County Electric Power Association; and I served 24 years as an Election Commissioner," he said. "And when they go to counting all them years, they say, 'Well, we've done got over 100!'"

Moore was also involved with the building of Northeast Mississippi Junior College and the Northeast Mississippi Hospital. "I always felt more like building things up instead of tearing them down," he said.

In his lifetime, Moore has received several honors. He appeared in the 1974 edition of "Who's Who in Mississippi," and he was nominated to appear in "Outstanding Americans in the South" in 1975.

Although he did not serve in the armed forces during World War II, among his prized possessions is an award for selling U.S. Bonds to help finance the war effort.

Moore married the former Grace Modena Langford, originally of Union County, and they have two daughters, Syble Lavelle and Minnie Ravenelle.

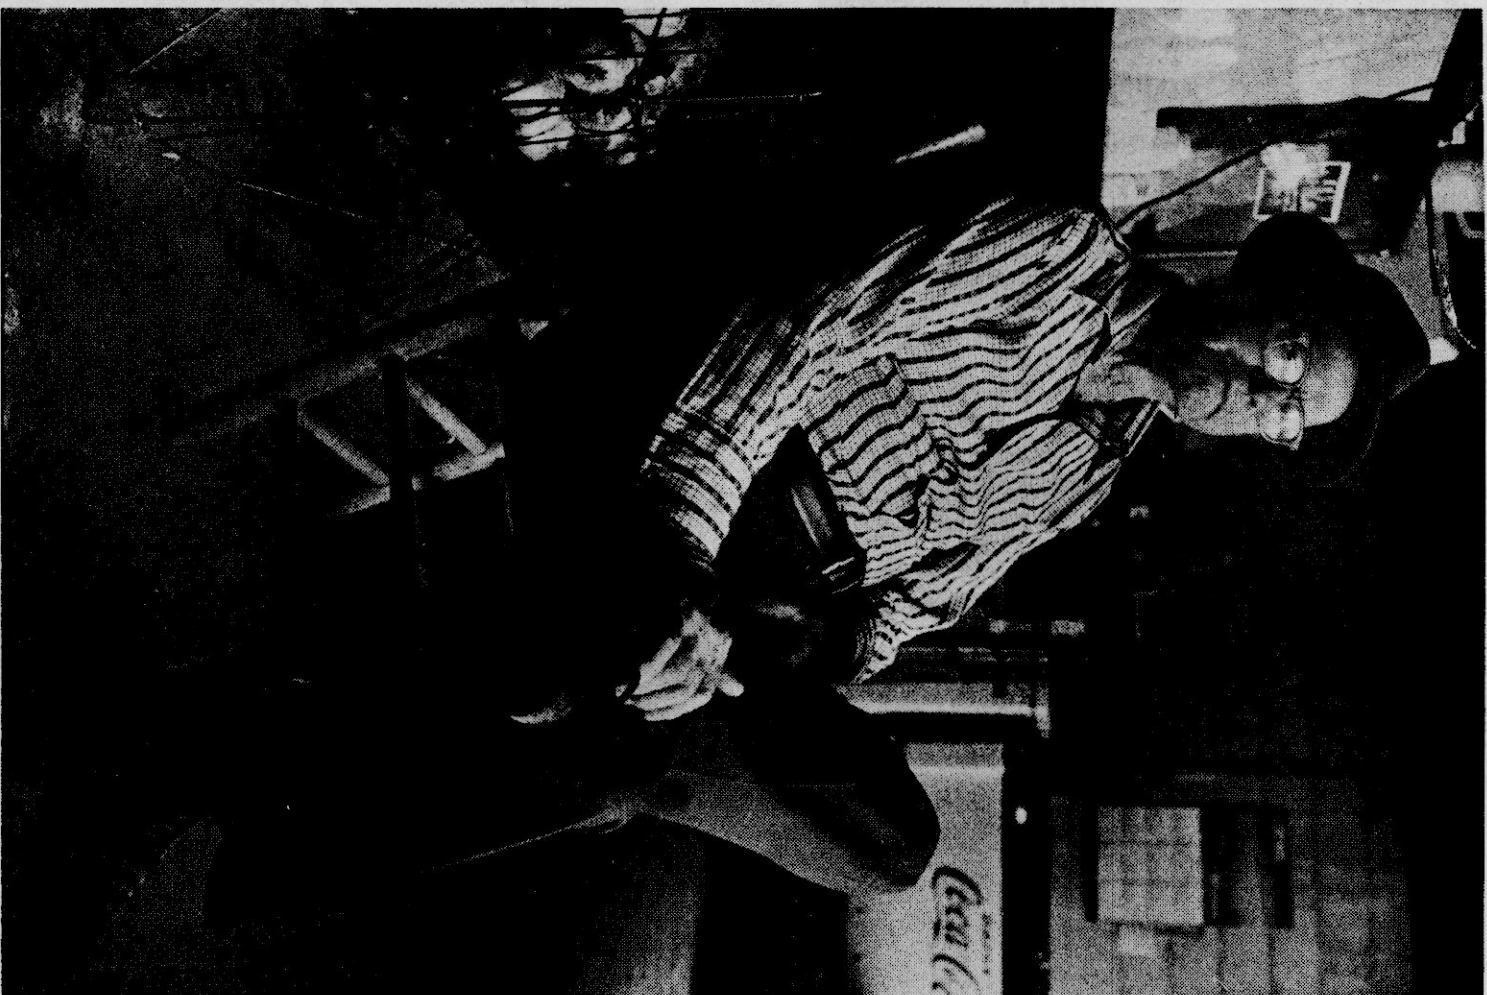

Moore credits his family as being a big help to him over the years. "I have a precious wife," he said. "My kids were very helpful, too. They helped my any way they could."

His two daughters are now married, and, with families of their own, are carrying on the tradition--both girls and their families live at New Site.

Lavelle's husband, Boyd Riddle, is carrying on the tradition of serving as a mail carrier. Ravenelle is married to Ray Johnson, who is a farmer and a salesman.

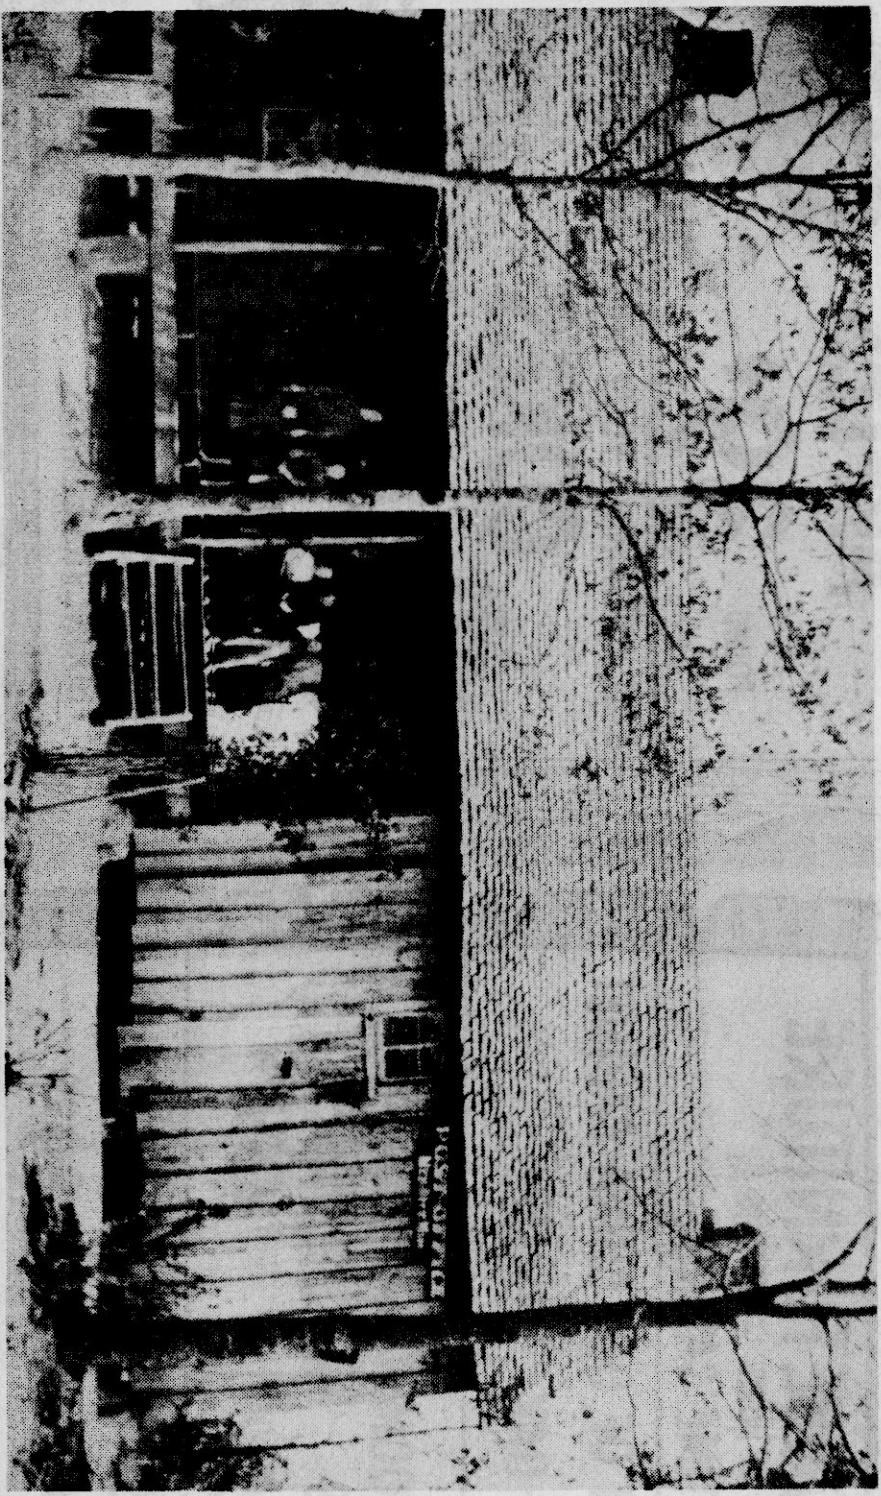

Moore also has four grandsons, four great-grandsons and one great-granddaughter.

"I've had a good life," Moore said. "I wouldn't want to call back anything because I'm looking for a better world. I'm looking for a better world and for me to call back things wouldn't be natural, would it?"

A comparison of the two photos above shows that little has changed at E.L. Moore's general merchandise store at New Site in approximately 30 years. Even the 'Butterfinger' boxes are upside down in both pictures!
