Elizabeth Ward, Miss America 1982, talks to reporters.

It's All Part Of Being Miss America

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

There's more to being Miss America than just looking pretty.

As Miss America, Elizabeth Ward has to contend with press conferences, making 4 to 5 public appearances each week, signing autographs, and constantly being in the public's eye.

Miss Ward, who provided entertainment at Northeast Mississippi Junior College's Most Beautiful pageant Tuesday night, said Tuesday afternoon that coming to Northeast was different from her usual appearances because it gave her the opportunity to be around people more nearly her own age. "I feel right at home," she said.

"People are always saying to me, 'How do you smile so much?' I tell them I'm happy with myself and my situation," she said.

Miss Ward, a 20-year-old University of Arkansas accounting major, said that after her reign as Miss America is over she plans to attend law school. She hopes one day to become a full partner in a major law firm specializing in corporate law.

She said she chose to enter the Miss America Pageant because it was a scholarship pageant. Prior to the Miss America Pageant she had entered six beauty pageants. She entered her first Miss America preliminary at the age of 18.

The 5-foot 9-inch brown haired, brown eyed Miss America estimates that she travels about 20,000 miles a month. "I enjoy traveling so much,"

she said. "It's one of the most exciting things I've ever done."

Miss Ward noted that she has met many celebrities since she was crowned Miss America. She has also appeared on television programs such as "Family Feud," "The 700 Club," and "Nashville Palace."

She said that, given her choice, she would most like to meet President Reagan, David Stockman, and Phyllis George. She had been scheduled to meet the President on Valentine's Day, but the meeting has been cancelled. She said she does not know if it has been rescheduled.

Miss America 1982 said she supports equal rights, but that she is not in favor of the equal rights amendment. "I'm grateful for the movement - although they did give the pageant a lot of flack - but my rights are guaranteed by the constitution," she said.

Miss Ward said she feels it is possible for a woman to be married and also have a career. "Women have to adjust their priorities as they go along, and organize their time," she said.

Concerning scientific creationism, she said she did not feel that it should be taught in schools.

"I believe we were created, but there are so many different views in religion. I don't want someone to teach my child their version. I think my child should learn from me. I guess basically I'm against it. I'm a Christian, so that is kind of contradictory," the Russellville, Ark., native said.

Prentiss County Earns 'Key Community' Award

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

It's official. On Friday, Jan. 22, Prentiss County became the 14th community in the state to successfully complete all the requirements of the "Key Community" program.

At that time a team selected by the State Department of Economic Development reviewed a presentation by the local industrial development team designed to interest prospective industries in locating in Prentiss County.

Immediately following that review, local officials were notified that Prentiss County had successfully qualified for "Key Community" status.

Gov. William Winter is expected to present the "Key Community" award to local officials at the Prentiss County Development Association's annual membership banquet which begins at 7 tonight in the Frank Haney Union at Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

ADMINISTERED BY the State Department of Economic Development and the Mississippi Research and Development Center, the Key Community program was established last year through the governor's office to help communities in Mississippi prepare for industrial growth.

State officials have said that those communities which meet the requirements of the program will be given priority when industrial prospects contact the Department of Economic Development for recommendations on possible locations for industries.

The Prentiss County Development Association was responsible for getting Prentiss County involved in the Key Community program and coordinated the county's efforts in successfully meeting the program's requirements.

However, Doug Mansell, PCDA executive director, gives much of the credit in accomplishing the program's goals to the various officials throughout Prentiss County.

"This is another step forward for Prentiss County," he said, "resulting from the cooperative efforts of the cities' and the county's elected officials."

ACCORDING TO Mansell, achieving Key Community status for the county involved the achievement of specific standards in six different areas:

- The establishment of a non-profit development organization;
- Preparing a community information library, containing such facts about the

For PCEPA Customers

Heating Bills May Be Highest Ever

The record cold temperatures during January will undoubtedly lead to record heating bills for Prentiss Countians.

Prentiss County Electric Power Association manager Janes W. Abernethy this week is advising customers who use electricity to heat their homes to plan their budgets in anticipation of the highest winter heating bills ever.

"No one wants to be the messenger of bad news," Abernethy said, "but we do want to try to prepare people. Electric bills for most electric heating customers are sharply higher this billing period because of the much colder weather."

And even those who do not use electricity to heat their homes can expect their electricity bills to be higher than the same period last year due to rate increases adopted by TVA since last winter.

As an example, Abernethy said power association residential customers using 2,000 kwh per month now pay $87.81 compared to $74.15 last winter. This is an increase of about 18 percent.

To help counter these costs, Abernethy urges customers who have not done so to request a free home energy survey to set suggestions as to how they can make their homes more energy efficient.

This free survey can be obtained by calling the Prentiss County Electric Power Association office. A trained energy advisor will make an on-site survey of the home and make recommendations for weatherization improvements.

Electric heating and cooling customers will probably be eligible for interest-free loans to help them weatherize their homes, Abernethy said. Measures eligible for financing include insulation, storm windows, weatherstripping and caulking.

New Trial Granted In Assault Case

A Prentiss County man who was convicted of aggravated assault during the October session of Prentiss County Circuit Court has been granted a new trial on the grounds that the defense attorney representing him had a conflict of interest.

Circuit Judge Thomas Gardner ruled Tuesday that Robbie Storey, 19, of Route 3, Rienzi, should be granted a new trial on the same charge of aggravated assault on the grounds that Storey's attorney, Tommy Cadle, was representing the prosecuting witness, Melody Strange, in a civil suit at the same time.

Judge Gardner ruled that because Storey's attorney had a conflict of interest it was a denial of the defendant's constitutional rights.

The charge of aggravated assault against Storey stemmed from an incident involving Storey and Miss Strange that allegedly occurred in September 1980.

During the October 1981 term of Prentiss County Circuit Court a jury found Storey guilty of aggravated assault.

At that time Judge Gardner sentenced Storey to serve eight years at the State Department of Corrections.

Storey's second trial on the charge of aggravated assault is scheduled to be the first case heard when the February session of Prentiss County Circuit Court opens on Monday, Feb. 15.

Storey will be represented by attorneys Tommy Comer and Ed Jenkins.

Booneville Balloon Reaches New Mexico

"This is a story of a 25 cents balloon, which made for itself a record which we doubt will ever be broken.

"Our readers have doubtless followed the accounts of balloon marathons, endurance flights, non-stop flights, et cetera, but for the amount invested -25 cents-compared to the thousands of dollars necessary to put on the big events that have held the spotlight for months past, we declare W.L. Nunley and party the undisputed winners of all contests in this line.

"On Saturday night, Dec. 28, they sent up a paper balloon to which was attached a note which read 'Dec. 28, 1929, 9 p.m. Sent up by W.L. Nunley and party. Tell us where and when you found this. Address W.L. Nunley, Booneville, Miss.'

"On January 9th, Mr. Nunley received a letter post-marked Melrose, New Mexico, Jan. 7, which read: 'Dear Sir; I found a balloon near the highway Sunday morning. It was almost covered with sand. This slip of paper was in the balloon. Found Jan. 5, 1930, near Melrose, New Mexico. Yours truly, W.C. Pratt, Melrose, New Mexico.'"

Elvis

"When the rhythmic beat of 'That's All Right Mama' - 'Blue Moon of Kentucky,' - and other Elvis Presley favorites fills the air at the Junior College Auditorium on Monday, Jan. 17, at 8 p.m., the fastest-rising country music star in the nation will be performing in his own top-notch manner. And it's a good bet that folks will leave the show as full-fledged fans for Elvis Presley.

"Presley, a recent graduate of Humes High in Memphis made his first record only about 6 months ago. But since that time he's captured the hearts of the young and old with his unusual style of singing."

Young Farmers Have Social

"The Young Farmers Club met Thursday night in the Agriculture Building of the Booneville High School for a get-together and supper. The food was prepared and brought by wives of the members.

Cache of Stolen Parts

"Members of the Prentiss County Sheriff's Department got results from their recent investigations into area auto thefts when they uncovered a stolen auto parts cache early Friday morning in the old Southern Express Restaurant Building on Hwy. 4 West at Jumpertown.

"Working in conjunction with Prentiss County law officers, the Union County Sheriff's Department arrested four Prentiss County men at 7:30 a.m. on charges of grand larceny.

"The four Prentiss Countians were arrested when they arrived at Kennon's Auto Parts on Highway 30 West in Union County with several hundreds of dollars worth of stolen auto parts in their possession. The automotive parts were loaded on a pick-up, a bob truck, and in two cars.

"Upon searching the Southern Express Building, officers of the Sheriff's Department and State Highway Patrolmen found what Sheriff Ralph Martin estimated to be approximately $10,000 worth of stolen parts. The building, he said, contained mostly truck beds, fenders, front cabs, and at least one motor."

community as geographic location, climate, population, etc.;

- The existence of an industrial park which is rated by the R&D Center at a minimum of 7 on a scale of 1 to 10;

- The establishment or existence of some type of community appearance program;

- The establishment or existence of an on-going existing industry committee to work with local industries and to show the community's appreciation for the jobs these industries provide; and

- The establishment of an industrial development team, composed of individuals in the community who are knowledgeable in the fields of city and county government, education, engineering and industrial incentives.

Meeting the first of the requirements was easy since the existence of PCDA itself fulfilled the requirements.

Fulfilling the second requirement involved basically the gathering and documentation of various statistics about Prentiss County and the cities within the county's borders.

Prentiss County already had an industrial park in Booneville, but to fulfill the third requirement, the park had to receive a rating of at least "7" from the R&D Center.

Thanks at least in part to the completion this past summer of a new industrial park access road, the Booneville-Prentiss County Industrial Park received a "9" rating when a team from the R&D Center inspected the park in December.

Out of a total of 231 sites listed by the Center, only 12 others had received a "9" rating - none had received a perfect "10."

Hal Walters, industrial analyst with the R&D Center, told The Banner-Independent at that time that he felt the Prentiss County industrial park "ranks in the top five in the state."

The requirement of establishing a community appearance program was accomplished in cooperation with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Office in Booneville, Mansell said.

The establishment of an industrial development team was the final requirement. This requirement was successfully completed Friday when the industrial development team established for Prentiss County passed the review by the committee from the Department of Economic Development.

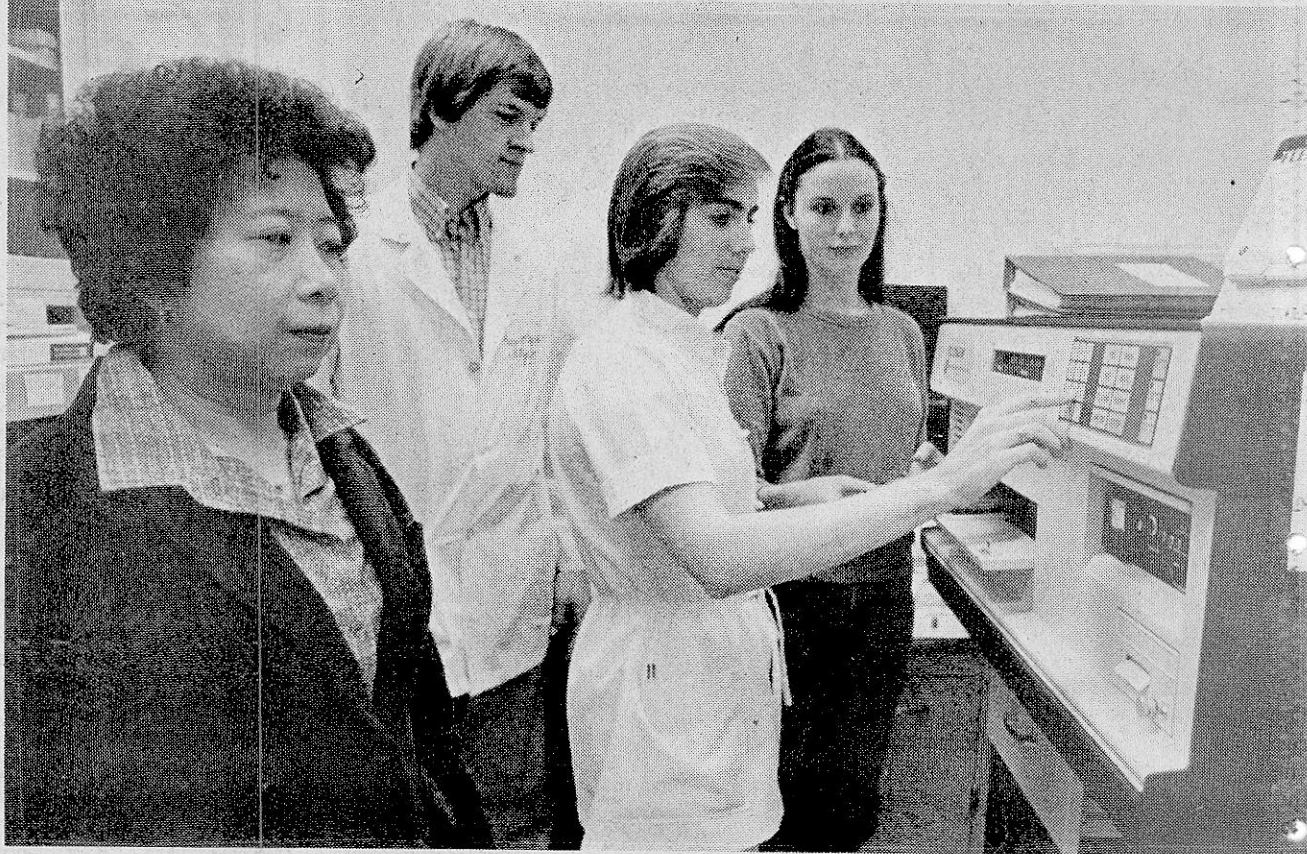

The local industrial development team is composed of Charles Crabb, Booneville mayor; J.P. Davis, president of the Prentiss County Board of Supervisors; Gene Gifford, city attorney; Sam Milton, of the Peoples Bank; Hale Aust, director of Vocational Technical Training at Northeast Junior College; David Moore, of G&E Engineers; and Mansell, PCDA executive director.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, I notice you are a believer in God, just what makes you so sure and why do you believe in Him?

WARD HOGLAND

ANSWER: One of the reasons I believe in God is Psalms 14 which says, "The fool hath said in his heart there is no God." The first verse of Psalms 19 says, "The heavens declare the glory of God." It does seem strange to me that one could profess not to believe in the existence of an intelligent, eternal personal First Cause. The Bible calls him GOD. Step outside some starlight night and look up. While standing please remember you are standing on a little planet called earth which makes an annual journey around the sun of about 558 million miles, traveling at the rate of 63 thousand miles an hour; that this little planet is one of nine that make up our solar system, and they too revolve around the sun. Our earth makes it once a year, but it takes Neptune 164½ years to make its journey. Pluto about 248 years. Remember too, these planets have their satellites which revolve around them. The moon is our only satellite, but Jupiter has about 12. Then after you have comprehended the magnitude of this solar system, the space required for it and the perfect timing with which it operates, please remember ours is only one of about 300 million. Our sun is so large if it could be hollowed out like a coconut and leave a shell of 100 thousand miles thick one could put the earth and moon inside and keep them separated by their distance of 240,000 miles. Remember too, there are other suns that makes our look infinitesimal. If you still believe this earth is the result of blind chance than don't smile if some fellow tells you that Hamlet was not written by Shakespeare, but was the result of an explosion in a print shop.

The Junior Auxiliary is now taking nominations for the Outstanding Citizen Award which is presented annually at the JA-sponsored Charity Ball.

Junior Auxiliary members are encouraging all civic organizations and individuals to nominate a deserving citizen for this award, which will be

The Outstanding Citizen Award will be presented to a Prentiss Countian in recognition of his or her humanitarian service, a club spokesman said. The criteria in selecting the winner are:

In Prentiss County

Unemployment Drops To 7.7 %

Unemployment in Prentiss County dropped to 7.7 percent in December, down 1½ percentage points when compared to the 9.2 percent unemployment rate in November.

According to the Mississippi State Employment Service, the main cause of the drop in unemployment was the fact that factories had experienced temporary mass layoffs for a week or two and now those factories have returned to work.

The civilian labor force was estimated to be 10,540, 40 below one month ago.

The number of Prentiss County residents employed was estimated to be 9,730, as compared to 9,610 employed in November.

Manufacturing employment in Prentiss County was estimated to be 2,820, compared to 2,860 in November. Non-manufacturing employment, estimated to be 3,790, remained the same during both November and December.

Although the county's unemployment rate declined slightly, the state's unemployment rate rose to 9.3 percent in December, an increase of two-tenths of one percent compared to November's revised jobless rate of 9.1 percent, according to Mississippi Employment Security Commission Executive Director O.H. Simmons. The December 1980 unemployment rate was 7.4 percent.

Charles Smith, manager of the Employment Service in Corinth, noted that employment in the four-county area of Alcorn, Prentiss, Tippah, and Tishomingo totaled 41,090 at mid-December, up 2,400 from one month ago, but down 140 from one year ago. There were 4,610 unemployed in the area in December, down 2,460 from last month but up 150 from one year ago.

The estimated rate of unemployment for December was 10.1 percent of the civilian labor force, compared to 15.3 percent last month and 9.8 percent one year ago. The number of individuals in the civilian labor force was estimated to be 45,700, compared with 45,660 last month and 45,700 in December 1980.

Unemployment for the other counties in the area were estimated as follows: Alcorn 13.3 percent, Tippah - 7.8 percent, and Tishomingo - 10.2 percent.

Manufacturing employment in the four-county area was estimated to be 14,840 at mid-December, which indicated an increase of 1,900 from one month ago and an increase of 370 from one year ago. Non-manufacturing employment, estimated to be 19,480, dropped 90 from the previous month's figure and 880 from one year ago.

Alcorn County, which at 27.9 percent had the highest unemployment rate in the state during November, had a more comfortable 13.6 percent figure for December. However, even with the slide of 14.6 percentage points, Alcorn still had the highest jobless rate in Northeast Mississippi, both for the month of December and for 1981 as a whole.

The 9.3 percent unemployment rate for the state was higher than the 8.3 percent national rate for December. MESC figures showed 95,300 unemployed and 927,600 employed out of a civilian labor force of 1,022,900. The initial Unemployment Insurance claims totalled 44,061 for December.

The counties having the highest unemployment rates in December were Yalobusha, with a rate of 22.3 percent; Jefferson, with a rate of 19.7 percent; and Sharkey, with an unemployment rate of 18.1 percent.

Oktibbeha, Rankin, and Issaquene counties had the lowest jobless rates for December. Oktibbeha had a rate of 4.7 percent, Rankin had a rate of 5.0 percent, and Issaquene had an unemployment rate of 5.2 percent.

Fifty-one of the state's 82 counties showed an increase in the unemployment rates for December, while 27 reported decreases. The jobless rate in four counties remained unchanged.

In Sunday Morning Fire Couple Narrowly Escape Flaming House

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

The sound of windows breaking very possibly saved the lives of Mr. and Mrs. M.C. Saylor of the Tusculum community.

The Saylor's house on Jacinto Road caught fire Sunday morning, and the intense heat caused the windows and mirrors to break. The sound of glass shattering was what caused the Saylor's to awaken around 6:30 a.m. And luckily they awakened in time to escape before their home was engulfed in flames.

"We just barely got out," Mrs. Saylor said Tuesday.

"If it had been another 2-5 minutes, we wouldn't have gotten out."

Although the Saylor's escaped in the nick of time, they did receive burns.

Mr. Saylor received third degree burns from his waist up and Mrs. Saylor received burns on her left arm, shoulder, and hand, plus cuts and scratches.

Upon discovering the house was on fire, Mrs. Saylor said her husband attempted to open the door in the living room - but that was the room where the fire apparently started, and that was how he came to be burned so badly.

"I started in the front room to wrap a blanket around him but he knocked me back and said, 'Don't come in here.' Then I told him, 'Come on, let's get out this bedroom window.' He put a pillow over his face and jumped through the window. And then I went out.

"The smoke was horrible. After I got out I had to lay on the ground for a good many minutes before I could even get up. I didn't even know I was burned. But I knew he was and I knew I had to get him to the hospital.

"By the time we got to the front of the house and I got him in the car to bring him to the hospital, the whole corner of the house had fallen in," Mrs. Saylor said.

Mrs. Saylor thinks the fire was caused from a wood burning heater.

The Saylor's did not have time to save anything in the house. "The only thing I got out was the gown I was wearing," Mrs. Saylor said.

It appears they lost more than their house and household possessions. Their dog was in the house at the time of the fire. "I don't think he could have gotten out of the house. And if he did, we can't find him," she said. "He was an old dog that we'd had since the kids were babies."

Mrs. Saylor said Tuesday morning that her doctor had not yet told her when she would be released from the hospital but that her husband had been told he would remain at the local hospital for at least 10 days.

Mrs. Saylor said although what happened was bad, she is nonetheless thankful.

"The girls were worried about me going out there and seeing where the house burned. I told them I don't think it will bother me to see it. I'm just so thankful that we got out because I know how close we came to not getting out. It might bother me when I get back out there, but right now I feel like it won't."

CHEAP SUNGLASSES NO BARGAIN
If you merely want to shade your eyes from the sun while driving or playing tennis, cheap sunglasses may seem to do the job.
But you get what you pay for. Good sunglasses are recommended because they have better quality lenses and sturdier frames. They'll wear longer and give you better vision than cheap sunglasses. If you want less distortion, better sunglasses are the better buy.
People who wear eyeglasses or contact lenses to correct vision problems often like to wear sunglasses, too, especially on hot, bright summer days when the light is intense. No problem here. Your optometrist can prescribe the same correction to be used in sunglasses as you use in your regular glasses. It's done all the time.
Don't be fooled into thinking that over-the-counter sunglasses will cure any vision problems you may have merely because they reduce the glare of the sun. They won't. If you experience blurriness, eyestrain or headaches, you should have an eye examination to find out why. Don't take a chance with your eyesight.
For answers to your specific questions regarding vision, Dr. White invites you to call his Booneville office

'Talk O' The Town'

Street Opinion Poll

QUESTION: What do you think the Prentiss County Development Association - and the community as a whole - can do to attract industry to locate here?

MARSHALL DICKERSON of 105 College St., Booneville: "I think our highways and school facilities need improving, but our community is presently very attractive to industry if we will fund the association at a level that will allow aggressive pursuit of prospects."

DOROTHY SAPPINGTON of Route 2, Booneville: "The PCDA is doing a very good job and we all should get more involved in the development of our town. A good school system, hospital, good work force, and the general appearance of the town all help to encourage industry to locate in our town."

RICKEY TAYLOR of Route 6, Booneville: "I'd say have a better water system than what they've got and have better paying jobs. A large part of the county people are working out of town. I think a certain interest group is manipulating whether industries locate here or not."

E.P. SLOAN of 205 North Lake St., Booneville: "I thought people searched out places for factories. They've got plenty of room for several new ones here. So many people are just working half the time and some not at all. If a factory came here they should produce a different kind of material because it will give more people jobs."

CATHY DODDS of Route 6, Booneville: "I wish we had more new industries. I don't know why we don't get more. It seems like when they try to get a new industry, the industry doesn't go through with locating here."

DONNY TRANTHAM of Route 3, Rienzi: "Expand, because Booneville is so little. They could build more apartment complexes and shopping centers. I think that would attract more people here and that will lead to more industry."

(Editor's note: "Talk O' The Town" is not intended as a scientific poll of public opinion. Rather, it is simply intended to give Prentiss Countians an opportunity to voice their opinions on particular issues and topics. Maybe we'll ask you next!)

Eyes On Mississippi

Court, Legislature Battle For Turf

By BILL MINOR Columnist

JACKSON, Miss. - With all of the other problems facing the Mississippi Legislature this session, the lawmakers are evidently going out of their way to create a major fight of their own with the State Supreme Court.

Still bruised by the boldness of the Supreme Court, or at least a somewhat shaky majority of the court, in proceeding to issue a statewide set of rules of civil procedure without getting the legislature's okay, the lawmakers suddenly are launching their counter-offensive to now overrule the Supreme Court.

That should take some doing. Nonetheless, the legislature in the next few days will be going through a routine of passing legislation, as well as a proposed constitutional amendment to say that it, not the State Supreme Court, has the last word on which rules of civil practice and procedure will be followed in state courts.

All of this wouldn't really be important to the average citizen in Mississippi, if it weren't for the fact that it is, at least to several thousands of persons who are engaged in civil cases now pending before the courts in the state.

Since Jan. 1, there has been a new set of rules on how civil cases must be tried and what rights and opportunities persons with civil grievances have in bringing redress to those grievances. Those rules were put into effect after being issued by the Supreme Court on a 6 to 3 (or some say, a 5 1/2 to 4 1/2) decision last May.

What the legislature is proposing to do now in the next few days is declare those rules null and void, that is, roll them back, as though they never existed.

Once they are rolled back, say the legislators, then we will start all over again: the Court can adopt rules, but we will have the power to veto them.

This, of course, is an unprecedented battle for turf in the spectrum of Mississippi government. Never before, ironically, has the legislature been on such a defensive. Not only over the Supreme Court having the audacity to prescribe rules of procedure in lower courts, but also in defending itself against the audacity of Atty. Gen. Bill Allain, who says that lawmakers must get off boards and commissions in the executive branch of government, or they forfeit the right to serve in the legislature.

The rules fight with the Supreme Court has created some of the best comical backstage maneuvering ever seen around Capitol Hill. Two sort of innocuous lawmakers, Sens. Charles Pittman of Grenada, and W.L. Rayborn of Brookhaven, neither of whom is a lawyer, threw the fat in the fire by proposing a resolution to hold impeachment proceedings against five of the members of the State Supreme Court for ignoring the legislature and issuing the new civil rules.

Last week, Lt. Gov. Brad Dye, who is a lawyer, and who privately is quite partial to his legal friends in opposition to the new rules, suddenly found the Pittman-Rayborn resolution had an amazing, and potentially quite embarrassing, amount of support.

So rather than run the risk of having a ridiculous kangaroo court for Supreme Court justices on his hands, Dye moved forthwith to relieve the pressure by pushing for passage of the bill and constitutional amendment seeking to nullify the rules adopted by the court.

The great irony, of course, is that any bill passed by the legislature would inevitably wind up before the same court the lawmakers were seeking to chastise. Where Gov. William Winter, an ardent believer in the orderly processes of government, would stand on such a law if handed to him to be signed is yet another hurdle the lawmakers would have to clear.

Some of the better legal minds in the legislature obviously want to avert any sort of a constitutional crisis with the Supreme Court, and privately they are hoping the legislative activity will bring about some negotiations with the court leading to voluntary suspension of the rules pending submission of the constitutional amendment to the people.

This thinking is predicated upon the belief that the delicate majority on the court has shifted with the replacement of Justice Stokes Robertson by Justice Dan Lee earlier this month. Robertson had been one of the solid backers of the rules while Lee is believed to be opposed to them.

Now a serious question could arise: is it possible for the court to rescind the rules after they are already in place?

If the lawmakers get into a legal hassle with the state's highest court, who will they hire for a lawyer? They've already gone outside to engage one private attorney to oppose Bill Allain on the ousting of lawmakers from executive boards.

More fun we have never seen around Capitol Hill.

Majority Of Citizens Favor Limited Federal Powers

A recent national survey reveals that a plurality - 31 percent to 49 percent - of Americans favor adding an economic Bill of Rights to the U.S. Constitution.

Such an amendment would limit government's authority in various ways, including limiting the federal government's power to tax and to spend; prohibiting federal and state governments from regulating or controlling wages and prices; restricting freedom of entry into any industry, occupation, or profession; and removing government-imposed "fixed prices" on goods and services.

A majority of Americans also believe that government has increased in size and power so greatly in the past 20 years that it threatens the freedom to own and use property, use and enjoy income, and operate a business.

These opinions, along with others revealed in the survey, indicate a widespread mistrust of government. The survey also reveals public sentiment toward laws to protect the public from government.

These principles have long been recognized. Woodrow Wilson once said, "Liberty has never come from the government. . . The history of liberty is the history of the limitation of governmental power, not the increase of it."

Legislative Report

By Billy McCoy

Representative District III
Prentiss And Alcorn Counties

During this, the third week of the Legislative session, the Legislature is beginning to show signs of life.

The first week was spent simply starting, and the second week was mostly wasted due to bad weather with many Legislators and employees having trouble reporting to work.

The only positive note of the second week was Gov. Winter's second appearance before a joint assembly of the House and Senate to deliver a more detailed description of his long-range proposals to bring Mississippi forward economically and educationally.

Gov. Winter, in my opinion, delivered one of the most forceful and persuasive messages ever given by a governor to a joint assembly.

Of course, the key to the governor's program is an increase in the severance tax on oil and gas being pumped from wells within Mississippi, and this increase being put into a trust fund with only the interest being spent for economical and educational needs. I met with Gov. Winter personally again this week, and I was one of the first co-authors of bills and constitutional amendments to make this possible.

If these measures pass the Legislative battles ahead, it will be due to the priority the governor and Speaker Newman have placed on the need for more emphasis on vocational and technical education.

Speaker Newman has indicated the only tax increase he favors would be one with the proceeds being used to place highly skilled technical and vocational training as its top priority.

I have introduced one bill which would exempt citizens over 60 years of age from having to secure a photo driver's license. They could instead, at their option, have their licenses mailed to them as has been done in the past.

I have introduced another bill which would allow people who have retired early and who have been in a group hospital insurance plan for at least five years to be able to continue as a member of the group at their own expense. They would pay the same rate as other group members until they become eligible for Medicare.

Ponderings

By Angela Smith

A Press Conference

I knew I was going to have problems at my first "press conference" when I walked into the Black and Gold Room in the Frank Haney Union at NEMJC and I couldn't decide which young lady was Miss America.

Finally, after several minutes of observation, I shrewdly concluded Miss America must be the one signing autographs.

College students and photographers stepped on each others toes as they clamored to get pictures of Miss America.

Miss Ward continued signing autographs, posing for photographers, and smiling. For a brief instant she sat down. As she did a small child rushed up to her and thrust a piece of paper at her requesting an autograph.

No doubt this was a repeat of numerous other receptions that had occurred and would occur again across America involving Miss America.

As I waited for the "press conference" to begin, I struck up a conversation with a student who told me he had eaten lunch just "two tables away" from Miss America. He described how "neatly" Miss Ward ate her lunch. He seemed disappointed that she didn't dribble catsup on herself.

The student then told me one of his friends mustered up enough courage to walk over to Miss Ward and ask for her autograph while she was eating lunch. "I know it's supertime, but getting your autograph is a once in a life time thing!" the young man explained to Miss America.

Within a few minutes the press was ushered upstairs to the Magnolia Room for Miss Ward's "press conference."

The "press" consisted of TV media represented by Channel 3 from Memphis and Channel 9 from Tupelo and the "print" reporters from Tupelo, Baldwin, Corinth, and me.

Having never been to a "press conference" I was almost overwhelmed with the monumental decision facing me as I entered the Magnolia Room: I could not decide where to sit. (Being a Baptist, it was only natural for me to sit toward the back!)

After Miss America entered the room and sat down, the TV cameramen began setting up their equipment and photographers began snapping pictures. Other than the sound of shutters clicking, the room was strangely silent for a "press conference."

No one told us we could begin the questions. Everyone stared at Miss America. And I stared at everyone staring at Miss America.

The silent seconds ticked.

The cameraman from Channel 3 wryly observed, "No one is in charge here." Miss America joked, "What are we supposed to do? Play cards?"

Miss Ward's traveling companion, who had come in and sat with the reporters, said matter of factly, "The press is supposed to ask questions."

The editor of the Baldwin newspaper broke the ice by asking Miss Ward how old she was when she entered her first beauty pageant.

From then on Miss Ward was asked questions about her musical training, her advice for girls entering beauty pageants, which three people she would like most to meet, her plans 10 years from now, and her hobbies.

Although I knew I would be attending the "press conference," I had not been able to come up with any real thought provoking questions. So I enquired about her views on the ERA and scientific creationism. Neither of which subjects I really understand myself. But Miss Ward was never at a loss for words on any question.

My favorite question came from a reporter who asked Miss Ward what brought her to Booneville. (This was obviously a trick question) Miss Ward replied, "The beauty pageant at Northwest." Well, she was close.

After the press conference ended, a reporter dashed up to Miss Ward to tell her they had a mutual friend. Pictures continued to be snapped. Miss Ward listened to the reporter and asked her to say "hello" for her to their mutual friend.

Then Miss Ward stood up and began eating some food. Another reporter whispered to me, "This will make a great picture. It will show she's human." The reporter stepped on my toes as she rushed to get a picture of Miss Ward eating.

As I left the "press conference" I wondered if Miss Ward didn't get just a little weary of the sometimes silly way people, including the "press" behave toward her.

Now that would have been a good question.

Miss Lambert And Mr. Cole Wed

Miss Nadara Lambert and Johnny Cole were married Oct. 11, at the Liberty United Methodist Church. The Rev. Bert Harper officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lambert, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cole, all of Booneville.

Miss Candi Lambert, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Vicki King, Miss Karen Robertson, Miss Velda Cole, sister of the groom, and Miss Judy Long. They wore gowns of blue crepe overlay, featuring shawl collars which accented the rounded necklines. They carried bouquets of blue and burgandy silk flowers, interwoven with ivy and matching ribbon.

Little Misses Natalie Rinehart and Erin Cousar, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They wore floor-length dresses of white chantilly lace and circlets of blue and burgundy flowers interwoven with ivy and ribbon in their hair. They carried baskets filled with rose petals.

Rusty Cole, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Greg George, cousin of the bride, Danny King, Tony McCreary, and Tim Cole, cousin of the groom. They wore black tuxedos with black and gray striped ascot ties.

The Bride
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza and re-embroidered chantilly lace. The bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and full gathered shadow sleeves sprinkled with motifs of lace with tiny seed pearls and sequins. The fitted waist, outlined with lace, held a full flowing a-line skirt, sprinkled with lace appliques with a row of scalloped lace encircling the hemline.

The bride's aunt, Martha George, and the bride's mother, fashioned her satin shoes with lace motifs, seed pearls and sequins to match her dress. A halo of silk flowers fashioned her headpiece which held a triple-tiered-waltz veil of imported silk and stephonotis centered with a white orchid. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls belonging to Liz Kingsley.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length dress of orchid silk with a handkerchief hemline. The mother of the groom chose a street-length dress of aqua crepe. Both mothers wore white orchids.

Wedding music was provided by Bud Davis, pianist, and Mrs. Linda Dunaway, soloist. Mrs. Dunaway sang "Sweet, Sweet Spirit" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The Reception

Following the wedding ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at their home.

Serving at the bride's table were Mitzi Arnold and Laura Burchell. Punch was served by Carrie Rinehart and Pat George. Janice Cole and Hilda McDougal served at the groom's table. Finger sandwiches were served from silver trays to the guests by Mrs. Genie Toye Mincey.

Mr. And Mrs. Johnny Cole

Rice girls were Brendy Sweeney and Leah McDougal. Floating hostesses were Jane Cousar, Peggy Rinehart, and Martha George, aunts of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple is residing in Gallatin, Tenn., where the groom is employed.

"Glad to be back at work" was the response from a majority of the people after being off due to bad weather conditions.

Although many roads were still icy Monday morning, the Lord yet blessed us to get back at work without any accidents. We're just so glad that the weather is so much better now-although for several mornings the fog was pretty heavy.

Visiting our fair city over the weekend were the Rev. Elvester Keeton, his sister, Nettie Lou, and nephew, Willie George Keeton.

Mrs. Hoselene Campbell and her two children, Gary and Tonya, of Canton, Ohio, were guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Archie Miller. We always enjoy them, so whenever they come. We pray God's blessings on them as they travel the dangerous highways on the way back.

The Rev. James Welch of Youngstown, Ohio, was visiting here on the weekend.

Our sympathy and prayers are extended to the family of Mrs. Hattie Mae Keeton who was buried on Sunday at Mt. Olive M.B. Church.

Whenever we loose our loved ones at that point it seems that our whole world is black, especially when one's mother dies-our best friend leaves us. But one thing we can rely on is Jesus. He said he will be closer than a mother or father and he will never leave us or forsake us and the assurance we can live for the rest of our lives.

Little Nita Sullivan was honored with a birthday party on Sunday. Many children attended the party. Happy Birthday, Nita!

The highlights of Sunday night services was one of unspeakable joy. The Rev. Charles Ray and Lizzie Tyes of Durant, formerly of Booneville, were there to grace our services.

The Lord was pouring out his Spirit and three souls were saved and that was worth it all. Sometimes we just don't value a soul like it should be valued.

Mrs. Sara Miller is home from the hospital. So glad to know she is well and doing fine.

Jodie Miller has recently returned to Memphis hospital. We pray that he will return home doing fine.

Thought for the week - God is whatever you need him to be.

Till next week.

Booneville Woman's Club Hears Anti-Shoplifting Report

The Booneville Woman's Club met Thursday, Jan. 21, at 3 p.m., in the Marion W. Smith Room of the George Ed Allen Library. Mrs. J. Curlee Ross, president, presided.

Twenty-four members attended and were served cherry pie and coffee as they arrived by the hostesses, Mrs. Joe Childers, Mrs. Sam Milton, Mrs. Richard Cogging and Mrs. Robert Griffin.

Monthly or annual reports were presented.

Mrs. Lewis Earl Perry, chairman for the Crime Prevention Committee, gave a report on the prevention of shoplifting. She said that consumers absorb such losses, and education, commitment, and cooperation were needed to prevent shoplifting.

Mrs. Emmons Turner Jr. gave some pertinent information on the Federation's role in a free enterprise economy.

Mrs. S.C. Galloway, chairman of the International Affairs Department, explained that the Mississippi Federation of Women's contribution to Care this year would be sent to Bangladesh in Southeast Asia to be used to give doctors at the Rehabilitation Institute and Hospital for the Disabled vital training in orthopedic disorders and plastic surgery. The Booneville Woman's Club contributed $36 to this project.

The club voted to contribute $25 to the Mississippi School for the Deaf, another project of the Mississippi Federation of Women.

In cooperation with the Prentiss County Development Association's efforts to have Prentiss County acquire the status of a Key Community in Mississippi the club members filled out a rating sheet on community appearance. Mrs. Ross is chairman for this project.

By DR. JIM DAVIS
"SHOOTING PAINS"
If you're a victim of sciatica, you know what "shooting pains" are all about. The sometimes excruciating pain of sciatica frequently affects the hip, thigh, and back of the leg. The ankle and foot are sometimes affected, too. But that's not where the problem is.
The sciatic nerve, the largest nerve in the body, extends from the lower spine to the back of the thigh and knee. Then it divides. One nerve goes down the front of the lower leg, the other goes down the back of the leg.
It's the inflammation of the sciatic nerve that causes the pain. This can be triggered by an irritated nerve root. What causes the irritation? The cause may be traced to a misalignment of the spinal column that's putting abnormal pressure on the roots of the sciatic nerves as they pass between the vertebrae.
Through x-rays and other procedures, the doctor of chiropractic can locate misaligned vertebrae. Using, gentle adjustment, he can align it properly again to help eliminate the cause and the pain.

Isn't the sunshine lovely? Those dark gloomy, rainy days make us appreciate this brightness.

Attendance was better today, Jan. 24. Those reported sick were Mrs. Arthur Barnes who remains in room 107 of the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Booneville; also Robbie Copeland was ill - will have surgery Jan. 25.

Dilbert Dees had improved sufficiently to be at worship services.

Many of us have been concerned about Aunt Myrtle Harris who is in a serious condition in room 164

N.M.M.C. in Tupelo. I have called and talked to her son-in-law every day. Today, I didn't reach Dayton but my brother, M.L. Sandy Sr. called me to let me know that he had called to check on Aunt Myrtle. He was told that she seemed slightly better - had better color. Let's be praying that God will give Cleo strength and courage for whatever lies ahead.

Cherry Lynn Coats is visiting relatives in Orlando, Fla. She will be telling us about Disney World and other attractions when she returns.

Mrs. Gladys Gardner is feeling better. Also Delma Frame has improved. She and sons, Jeff and Joel, enjoyed visiting in the home of her brother, Lester B. Coats, and worshipping at Mayfield where he is the regular minister.

Sympathy is extended to the relatives of Adrian W. Shook who died in Birmingham, Ala., last week. He was the oldest of seven children of Edna Harris Shook, my mother's sister. Sympathy goes out to all others who are mourning the loss of loved ones.

I failed to mention anything about Mrs. Marie Lindley in the last report, but I called and we chatted quite a while. She said she is feeling better.

Crystal Carol Coats

celebrated her birthday on Jan. 23 - she had a sleep-in party for her cousin, Michelle, and the other little girls.

Michael Robert Coats (Mike) will have a birthday on Jan. 27. Best wishes to these two grandchildren.

It was announced today that there will be guest speakers for the next two Wednesday nights. They will be James Wroten and Tim McCarter.

Congratulations to Ronnie and Betty Jo Lindley who are entertaining their first child - John Ross - who arrived Dec. 18.

MYSELF
I have to live with myself and so

I want to be fit for myself to know.

I want to be able as days go by

Always to look myself in the eye.

I don't want to stand with the setting sun

And hate myself for the things I've done.

I never can hide myself from me

I see what others may never see,

I know what others may never know,

I never can fool myself and so

Whatever happens I want to be Self-respecting and conscience free.

Colder Temperatures Are Expected

Mississippians can expect colder temperatures and less rainfall than normal from mid-January to mid-February, according to the National Weather Service in Stoneville.

The weather outlook distributed by the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service says the next 30 days usually show the first hints of rising temperatures. Day length also is increasing gradually. Agrometeorologists at the Mid-South Farm Weather Service in Stoneville say daily highs in north Mississippi usually range from near 50 to the mid 50's from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15. Lows climb from the low to mid 30's.

Weather experts warn that the state currently is in a cold weather pattern, and the outlook indicates this may be a generally constant condition for the upcoming month. Dry weather should be relatively persistent.

Producers are cautioned that at least some precipitation is likely. With expected cold temperatures, it may be snow or freezing rain.

Cold weather during the next 30 days will increase nutritional needs of cattle while reducing forage production. Poultrymen may have to use extra fuel.

Both cattle and poultry producers should remain alert to sharp temperature changes that often occur in this season, as well as for storm systems that may bring rain or frozen precipitation.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

THROUGH THE EYES OF LOVE

By C. D. Edge

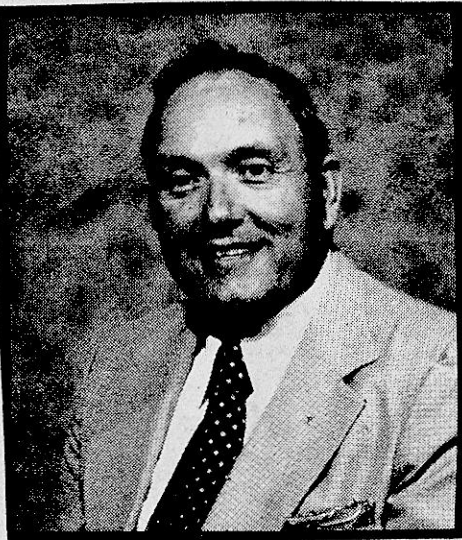

One of the best ways to check out our love for others is to analyze the first thoughts that come to mind when we think of a particular person.

Several years ago an article appeared in a newspaper about a small boy who went to the lingerie department of a store to purchase a gift for his mother. Bashfully he told the clerk that he wanted to buy a slip for his mom, but he didn't know her size. The clerk explained that if he described her it would help - was she thin, fat, short, tall or what? Well replied the youngster SHE'S JUST ABOUT PERFECT. So the clerk sent him home with a size 34. A few days later the mother came to exchange the gift. It was too small. She needed a size 52. The little fellow had seen her through the eyes of love which didn't take into account the exact dimensions of the tape measure.

We should ask God to help us see through the eyes of love. Someone has truly said, love sees through a telescope not a microscope.

I JOHN 4:20 - IF A MAN SAY, I LOVE GOD, AND HATETH HIS BROTHER, HE IS A LIAR: FOR HE THAT LOVETH NOT HIS BROTHER WHOM HE HATH SEEN, HOW CAN HE LOVE GOD WHOM HE HATH NOT SEEN?

Soil Conservation Report

Conservation Practices Need Proper Management

By TONY THOMPSON
District Conservationist
USDA, Department of Agriculture
Soil Conservation Service

Proper maintenance of your conservation practices is just as important as proper maintenance of your tractor.

If you don't follow the maintenance schedule recommended by your tractor's manufacturer, you will sacrifice many, many hours of tractor operation. In the same way, conservation practices will fail before their time without periodic maintenance checks and the work needed to return them to their original condition.

Work that is needed will depend on the practice, since each one has its own needs. Terraces, for example, can lose their capacity as a result of one year's improper tillage operations (plowing over the terrace instead of with it).

The result is storm water overtopping the weak sections. Grassed waterways may develop bare spots due to drought, intense traffic, or a tractor operator who forgets to raise the implement when the waterway is crossed.

Terraces with underground pipe outlets need to be checked for damaged risers and debris blocking the risers.

Subsurface drainage systems are not immune to failure when maintenance is neglected. Outlets may become blocked by debris or sediment deposits. Check animal guards to insure small animals can not invade the system and cause problems.

Drains should be checked to insure peak operating efficiency.

Open channels and field ditches should be checked for blockage. Debris and sediment causing blockage should be removed.

Undersirable vegetation can also cause serious problems. Channel vegetation should be evaluated at least annually and treated as needed to provide designed channel capacity.

Conservation practices constructed of soil such as ponds, lagoons, and sediment basins should be checked. Be sure spillways are free of trees, brush, and are capable of carrying the water. Repair ruts on the fill, remove woody vegetation from the dam, and repair bare spots with suitable grasses. If rodents have invaded the earth dam, they should be removed, and their habitation areas repaired.

Now is a good time to make these checks and make plans for making needed repairs before crop planting time. If technical assistance is needed, contact us at the Soil Conservation Service office, 107 College Street, or phone 728-3544.

Science Fair Preparations Are Now Underway

School children across the nation all have one thing in common about this time of year - they are all busily preparing for the annual science fairs in March and April.

The 1982 competition schedule has just been released through the University of Southern Mississippi by Lawrence J. Bellipanni, executive officer of Mississippi science fairs.

As in the past, the regional science fair competition for Region 4, which includes Booneville and Prentiss County, will be held at the Northeast Mississippi Junior College in Booneville. Registration deadline for participation is 5 p.m. March 10. Dr. Eugene Doran is director.

Bellipanni listed the following guidelines for students, their science teachers and parents:

- Only Class 3, 4, and 5 exhibitors placing first through fifth at the regional fair can participate in the State Fair at Jackson State.

- Regional honorable mention winners can not participate. No class 1 or 2 projects may exhibit.

- No substitutions are permitted for those unable to attend.

- One or two students will be selected from Classes 4 or 5 (grades 9-12) to participate in the 33rd International Science & Engineering Fair in Houston, May 10-15, 1982. ISEF changes for 1982 are available from fair directors.

- Class distribution of projects by the student's grade are: class 1-grades 1 to 3; class 2-grades 4 to 6; class 3-grades 7 to 8; class 4-grades 9 to 10; class 5-grades 11 to 12.

- Class allows group projects, made by 2 to 3 students, in addition to individual entries. All other classes are limited to individual projects.

- Categories for classes 1-3 (grades 1-8) are: behavioral-social sciences; math, computers, earth & space; botany & micro biology; chemistry and biochemistry; physics and engineering; zoology, medicine and health.

- Grades 9-12 may enter all of the above for classes 1-3 in addition to environmental sciences.

Students in Prentiss County planning to enter 1982 science fair competition should obtain registration forms from their science teachers or write Dr. Eugene Doran, Northeast Mississippi Junior College, Booneville, MS 38829 (phone 728-7751).

MSAC Helps Local Agencies Improve Their Records

A Mississippi city police department recently solved the case of a burglary ring credited with more than 100 break-ins.

Surprisingly, this was accomplished "off stage" by two members of the department's records section. These two individuals were able to cross reference pawn shop records and lead officers to the burglars.

This is among hundreds of examples of better law enforcement being made possible by the Mississippi Statistical Analysis Center (MSAC) of the Governor's Office of Criminal Justice Planning, a division of the Governor's Office of Federal-State Programs.

MSAC helps law enforcement agencies improve their record-keeping systems and crime statistics analysis. It also is a centralized information center for Mississippi crime statistics. MSAC analyzes these statistics and provides meaningful criminal justice information to the governor, the Legislature, state and local government agencies and the public.

Beyond making it more difficult for criminals at the local level in Mississippi, MSAC also helps to increase apprehension prospects for state-to-state criminals by providing the FBI with monthly crime reports. These reports are used for crime prevention planning.

MSAC has assisted various Mississippi cities through the state Integrated Criminal Apprehension Program (ICAP) which upgrades law enforcement record keeping. By using computers, law enforcement agencies now can obtain important criminal information in minutes.

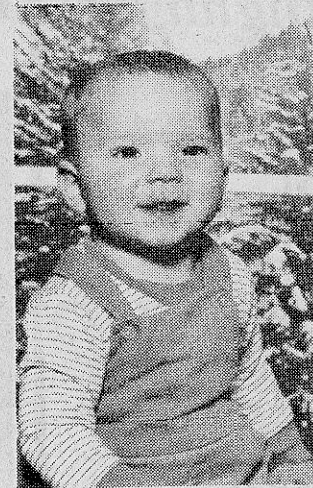

The center assists small departments in upgrading mechanical record-keeping systems.

"MSAC assistance on the statewide level includes providing statistics on court caseloads to the House Judiciary Committee," said Gordon Skelton, MSAC director. "By having this information, the committee can balance the caseloads of courts across Mississippi by reassigning personnel. MSAC statistics also are made available to the Legislature to consider when passing criminal justice legislation.

"As a result of MSAC assistance, we hope police departments across the state will be able to reduce opportunities for crime and increase the effectiveness of apprehending criminals," Skelton said. "We are doing everything in our realm of operation to make Mississippi less appealing to the criminal."

Earn Weekend Victories

A host of action was held this past paper week on the local scene with our Prentiss County teams involved.

WHEELER DEFEATS INGOMAR

Wheeler's Eagles dropped Ingomar's Falcons 71-66 on their home court last Thursday night.

Terry Ballard paced the Eagle scoring brigade with 16 points followed by Steve Lindsey with 15.

Terry Oats netted 29 points to lead the Ingomar attack.

BOONEVILLE DROPS BURNSVILLE TWICE

Booneville's Devils and Devilettes got the best of Burnsville twice last Friday night with the girls winning 72-23 while the varsity boys won 70-55.

Vanissa Groves led the Devilette scoring brigade with 15 points followed by Dianne Harris with 14 and Kunshinge Sorrell with 11.

In boys action, Ronnie Elam netted 14 for the Devil boys while Chris Williams followed with 13 and Jim Stubbs and Rickey Leach had 12 each.

BALDWIN SWEEPS TWO GAME STAND

Baldwyn's Bearcats and Lady Bearcats took both ends of a roundball double-header with Saltillo last Friday night. The Lady Bearcats won 57-27 while the Bearcats checked the Tigers 60-55.

Melissa Harvell led the Lady Bearcat charge with 21 points followed by Ruby Tyes with 13 and Sharon Stone with 10.

Baldwyn's Roscoe Taylor led the Bearcat charge with 20 points followed by Clark Richey with 18.

Tigers, Tigerettes Split Weekend Road Games

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Tigers and Tigerettes shared action on Thursday and Monday of the current paper week in two key matchups in junior college action.

On Thursday night of last week both the Tigers and Tigerettes took a twin-bill from Itawamba Junior College with the ladies winning 85-81 and the men took a 74-65 victory.

On Monday night of this week, in yet two other key games, both the Northeast men and women dropped a double header to again arch rivals Northwest's Rangers and Rangerettes. The girls lost 96-66 in the opener while the Rangers checked the Tigers 59-56 in the nightcap.

In men's action, Maurice Stafford continued his hot shooting pace with a 20 point performance followed by Anthony Anderson with 16, Ralph Griffin with 13 and Tim Kesler with 10.

Mike Barnett netted 18 to lead the Itawamba attack followed by Cermake and Wells with 14 each.

In ladies action, Brenda Mayes paced the Tigerette scoring brigade with 22 points followed by teammates Ann McBrayer and Monte Hare with 17 and 14 respectively.

The Thursday victories gave the Layd Tigers a 9-8 overall mark and a 3-4 record in division play while for the Tigers it moved their mark to 15-3 overall and 5-2 in the North.

Action on Monday didn't please everyone as much as the Thursday's outings did. The Tigers lost their fourth outing of the year while the Tigerettes dropped their ninth.

In scoring Northeast's Donna Rinehart led the Tigerettes with 18 points while Brenda Mayes had 14. For the top rated (1st in the nation) Rangerettes Maxine Tucker and Mary Douglas had 24 points each to lead the Northwest girls.

In men's action, Stafford netted 21 points while Stanley Carter had 12 to pace the Tigers while Larry Hunter had 14 for Northwest.

The Tigers are now (at presstime) 15-4 overall and 5-3 in the conference while the Lady Tigers are 9-9 overall and 3-5 in the league.

Northeast will return home tonight against East Mississippi at the Bonner Arnold Coliseum and then be at home again Monday night hosting Coahoma.

Tombigbee Tourney

Now Underway

NETTLETON— The 1981 Tombigbee Tournament got underway Monday night in local action held at the Nettleton High School Gym.

Booneville and Baldwin are the lone Prentiss County representatives in the tournament which will end this week.

In Monday's action Kossuth's Aggies and Aggiettes, along with Baldwin's Lady Bearcats picked up opening night victories.

The Aggiettes dropped Saltillo 68-14 while Baldwin's Lady Bearcats tagged Okolona 51-26 in a walk and then in the nightcap it was Kossuth's boys dropping Saltillo 64-62.

Booneville's Blue Devils were scheduled to compete against Ripley on Wednesday while the favored Booneville Devilettes will be in action tonight.

Booneville's Devils and Devilettes are the defending champions of the Tombigbee event and both are again expected to be strong contenders for repeat winners.

In a very exciting finish last year the Devilettes battled tooth and nail with Baldwin's Lady Bearcats and won in a close one 34-33 while Booneville's boys pulled out a somewhat upset and nipped favored Alcorn Central 59-56 in a thriller from start to finish.

More of the same is expected this week and teams appear to be even more balanced this year than last.

Finals are slated for the weekend.

Williams Edges Ellis in SEC Scoring, 21.6 to 21.5

Birmingham, Al - Florida sophomore Ronnie Williams and Tennessee junior Dale Ellis improved their scoring average by a tenth of a point to retain the first two spots in SEC scoring. Williams, at 21.6 points per game has 134 baskets and 76 free throws for 346 points. Ellis has scored 140 field goals and 64 free shots for 344, 21.5 per game. Both are in the NCAA's Top 20.

Mississippi State's Jeff Malone was the high point man last week, tallying 28 against UT.

Barkley Rebounds To Top of SEC List

Auburn's Charles Barkley outdid himself in rebounding last week, totalling 29 on LSU and Georgia, increasing his average from 9.6 to 10.2 to overtake Eddie Phillips as number 1 in the SEC. Barkley, a freshman, is followed by Bama's Phillips and Florida freshman Eugene McDowell who each have 154 rebounds for a 9.6 per game average. McDowell's 15 against Bama helped him move up a spot from last week.

Assist Ace Tuohy Is Best in SEC History

Senior Sean Tuohy, who has consistently led the conference in assists since his matriculation at Ole Miss, dished off five against Vandy to become the career record holder in that category. He surpassed Volunteer Johnny Darden's 715 by two, but added seven more against Mississippi State, raising his mark to 724. Paul Daniels of Auburn follows Tuohy in assists, 6.6 per game to the Rebel's 6.8. Bama freshman Ennis Whatley has 6.4, Kentucky's Dirk Minniefield 6.3.

Steig Outshooting Ellis From Field, 64.2 to 64.7 Percent

Junior Roger Steig of Ole Miss barely outshoots junior Dale Ellis of Tennessee, 64.7 percent to 64.2, for the SEC lead in field goal accuracy. These figures rate the NCAA first 15. Freshman Bobby Lee Hurt of Alabama hits 62.9 percent to the 62.8 of Ole Miss junior Carlos Clark and the 60.6 percent Kentucky sophomore Melvin Turpin.

Phil Cox, Another Freshman, Takes SEC Lead in FT Shooting

Freshman Phil Cox of Vanderbilt, who made 12 of 12 free throws against Ole Miss Wednesday, then five for five at Kentucky Saturday, eased past last week's leader, freshman Rob Harden of Florida to take the top of the SEC accuracy list. Cox hits 91.5 percent to Harden's 90.3, with sophomore Vernon Delancy between them on 91.4 percent. Jim Master, Kentucky soph had 40 consecutive connections, second best string by an SEC player to the 43 by Paul Smith of Miss. State in 1965, before missing against LSU Monday and dropping to fourth at 89.7 percent. Cox hit 37 straight before missing one Jan. 16, then started a new string, which is now at 17.

SEC 18 Game Stand Set

Second Round of 18-Game Schedule Starts Saturday

Birmingham, Al - Tennessee, a team thought to be badly crippled after losing two starting guards in December, approaches the halfway point of the Southeastern Conference double round-robin schedule still undefeated. The Volunteers topped Mississippi State and LSU by ten-point margins last week, 54-44 and 77-67, to reach an 8-0 record. If they beat Georgia Wednesday in Athens, they will have taken every other SEC team on the first round.

The second half of the 18-game championship race starts Saturday, after Alabama at Auburn, Kentucky at Miss. State, Ole Miss at LSU and Florida at Vanderbilt, along with Tennessee-Georgia. Each year the teams truly contending for the title usually split the two home-and-home games. If that holds true, Tennessee will find big trouble at Alabama, Kentucky and LSU.

MHSAA Sets Sites For District Playoffs

In a Tupelo meeting last Wednesday the Mississippi High School activities association officially set the dates pairings and sites for the upcoming District Playoffs slated for mid-February.

Our area Prentiss County teams are all involved in the District events in three different classifications.

Northeast Mississippi Junior College will again serve as host for the District 1 Class A tournament with Booneville's Devils and Devilettes tabbed as the lone Prentiss County team there.

In class BB action with New Site, Thrasher and Baldwin of the County represented, the teams will play at Saltillo High School while in the Class B division with defending champion Wheeler's Eagles and Jumpertown's Cardinals competing there, groups here will head for Itawamba Junior College who will serve as host for this event.

At presstime brackets had been drawn out but not officially released for publication. The brackets will be published in the Banner-Independent.

The County's chances for advancement this year appears to be much stronger than in the past with all six of our Prentiss County schools expected to field strong teams into the District events.

There is a possibility that five County schools could advance to the Northhalf which would almost assure that one or more teams would go to state.

Of course there are some big ifs in this. In order for this to happen two county teams would have to advance to the finals of their respected events to accomplish this.

A team must reach the finals to advance to the Northhalf. Two teams go from the District to the Northhalf while three teams advance from there to the State Tournament in Jackson.

BATTLES FOR THE BALL — These Thrasher and Biggersville girl basketballers battle it out here in Tuesday night action at the Thrasher Gym. Biggersville's girls won 44-33

Anderson Shares Games

Anderson Junior High School split action with Ripley last Tuesday night in local action.

The Anderson eighth grade boys dropped the Baby Tigers 29-27 while the Anderson girls went down in defeat 18-13.

Clay Johnson netted 18 points to lead the eighth grade boys while Cherie Walden had 5 points to pace the eighth grade girls attack.

Cardinals Upset Wheeler's Eagles

In one of the more exciting Prentiss County contest Jumpertown's Cardinals dropped arch rivals Wheeler's Eagles 78-77 in the nightcap.

A huge crowd turned out for the affair which was indeed an upset since the Eagles were ranked as high as fifth in the State.

The Cardinals, who have been one of the more improved teams in North Mississippi, held on throughout the contest after leading at the intermission by a three point count 44-41.

Kevin Simmons led the Cardinal attack with 27 points on the night followed by Freddie Anderson just next in line with 23 followed by Perry Perrin with 14.

Bubba Miller led the Eagle brigade with 23 points while Terry Ballard and Jim Davis followed with 18 points a piece while Rickey Chandler netted 10 points on the night.

Jumpertown's Cardinalettes made it a clean sweep on the night winning the opener 62-42.

Lynette Miller led the Cardinalette scoring attack with 36 points on the night followed by Tracey White and Marti Moore who had 12 and 10 points respectively.

Regina Holland led the Eaglette attack with 11 points on the night. Jumpertown led 34-22 at halftime.

WHEELER'S 3rd LOSS

The loss for the fifth ranked Eagles was only their third of the year and now moves their record to 24-3 on the season while for the Cardinals it moved their record to 18 and 13.

Both these schools will represent Prentiss County in the District 1-B Tournament to be held in Fulton.

Strict 'Lee' Speaking

BY LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

Talking about envy. Well there's some guys in town that should be arrested for their efforts last week.

Knowing that people like me who are stuck in a day after day working position those guys, journeyed to Detroit last weekend to attend the 1982 Superbowl game and according to an interview conducted after their trip they really had a great time.

To start things off they attended what most folks go a lifetime without doing, the Superbowl in itself, then to top things off after the game they were invited (as guest of punter Jim Miller of Ripley) to the victory celebration at the Sheraton which according to Dan Arthur of Booneville was indeed the highlight of their life.

The celebration drew such famous celebrities as former pro O.J. Simpson, California Governor Jerry Brown; singer superstar Diana Ross and That's Incredible's Kathy Lee Crosby just to name a few.

Arthur said the Booneville bunch felt somewhat out of place but just to be there Arthur said was quite an honor.

"We did began to mingle and have pictures taken with celebrities but just to look up and see O.J. Simpson and Diana Ross standing across the room talking was a treat in itself," Arthur said.

The group left last Friday and ran into some trouble getting there with the inclement weather and all but according to Arthur the only unpleasant part of the whole trip, other than having to come back home, was the walk from where they had to park to go to the stadium.

"It was really cold," Arthur said. "We had to walk at least a mile or more and folks it was cold in Detroit." How cold was it? Well, we won't get into that...

When asked about the trip's highlight, all agreed that the victory party was indeed the most popular event of the trip but they also said the game along was worth the trip.

The Booneville gang were all friends of Miller and according to the group he really went out of his way to make accommodations for them.

All in all Arthur and company had a very enjoyable trip and indeed if San Francisco is back again next year I'm sure this group will make every effort to attend.

PLAYOFFS TO START

Basketball is now winding down to it's finals stages for 1982 and the District Playoffs are only a couple of weeks away. All our area teams in my opinion have an excellent chance to advance to further competition and are now preparing themselves for the upcoming events.

The North Half Tournament which follows the District event hasn't set their sites to date but word on this is expected soon.

IT'S CALLED SQUIRRELING AWAY

Nearly everyone has heard about "squirreling away" — conservation for times of greatest need. And, of course, it comes from the squirrel, one of nature's smartest creatures, who methodically stores food for the winter.

So, too, at United Gas we annually have been squirreling away a different kind of vital necessity. During the warm season, when the demand is lower, we inject billions of cubic feet of natural gas into the porous limestone of storage formations. Here it is held safely until the winter demand goes up.

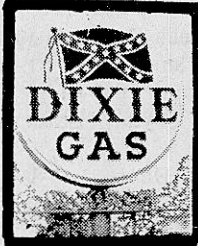

It's another way United Gas' foresight and investments of millions of dollars have helped keep the gas flowing during critical times. The lesson comes from nature, but our commitment to Gulf South energy puts it into practice.
