City Adopts Policy On Brush Pickup

Due to a reduction in the number of employees in the Booneville Street Department, pickups of brush, leaves and other such debris from the fronts of homes in the city of Booneville will be handled differently this year.

The city board of mayor and aldermen voted Tuesday night to limit such trash pickups to only that debris cut and piled for pickup by the property owner in each case. All brush and limbs cut by someone other than the land owner will not be hauled off by the city.

Alderman Wade Lambert, who serves as Street Commissioner, said that the Street Department is not going to be able to give the same service to city residents this year as it has in the past due to the loss of six or seven employees. These employees were cut at the start of this fiscal year when the city made cuts in all departments in an effort to maintain a balanced city budget.

Since the city does not plan to haul off brush cut by anyone other than the landowner, Alderman Lambert urges those who hire this work done to make the price high enough that the worker will also haul the brush off.

Unemployment Was 11.2 Percent At Mid-January

Prentiss County's unemployment rate rose to 11.2 percent at mid-January, representing 1,200 workers unemployed, according to figures released by the Mississippi State Employment Service.

Compared to figures revised according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics requirements, this represents an increase of 3.6 percent from December 1981, and sevenths of a percent over the January 1981 estimate.

The total labor force for the county was estimated to be 10,700, to 200 above the estimate for one month ago and 190 over the estimate for one year ago. Employment of Prentiss County residents dropped to 9,500, compared to 9,700 in December 1981 and 9,410 in January 1981.

Manufacturing employment in the county, estimated to be 2,770, experienced a loss of 50 from December but rose 90 above the figure for January 1981. Nonmanufacturing employment at 3,530 also experienced a decline from the previous month and a slightly larger decline from one year ago.

School Board Suit Dismissed

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

A federal district judge in Aberdeen last week dismissed a lawsuit filed by the Prentiss County Board of Education against Prentiss County Tax Assessor-Collector Danny Childers.

The Board of Education filed the federal suit against Childers in November 1981, charging that he refused to collect $137,408 in taxes to which the county school district claims it was entitled.

Citing lack of jurisdiction, Judge L.T. Senter Jr. dismissed the lawsuit against Childers Wednesday, Feb. 23.

Senter ruled that the Prentiss County Board of Education, in their suit in federal court, did not state a cause of action under Sec. 1983 of the U.S. Code and the 14th Amendment, according to Booneville attorney Thomas Keenum. Keenum represented Childers and his bonding company, the U.S. Fidelity and Guarantee Company, in the suit.

Judge Senter dismissed the suit with prejudice, meaning that the suit cannot be filed again in the same court. However, this does not prohibit the county school board from filing with another court.

Prentiss County Superintendent of Education Lex Cain said Tuesday afternoon that the school board will meet with their attorney, Roy Parker of Tupelo, at a later date to decide whether or not to file the suit in another court.

THE SUIT STEMMED from the separation in 1980 of the Booneville Municipal Separate School District from the Prentiss County School System and involved funds that the county school board says should have been collected in 1980.

Following the filing of the suit, a spokesman for the county school system cited a state law which says that any taxable real property must be made a part of a school district prior to June 1 of any year for that school district to be entitled to the taxes for that year.

Since the Educational Finance Commission ruling which established the Booneville separate school district did not take effect until July 1, 1980, the county school board claimed that the county school system is entitled to the taxes that should have been collected from city residents in 1980.

In their suit, the school board was seeking $137,408, plus 8 percent interest from Jan. 1, 1981, and attorney's fees.

In the reply to the suit, Childers also maintained that Supt. Cain and the county school board knew he was not required to tax property within the newly-formed Booneville Municipal Separate School District.

Childers maintained that millage assessments on property owners made by the Prentiss County Board of Supervisors in September 1980 specifically excluded county taxpayers living within the Baldwin and Booneville city school districts.

This shows that county school officials "knew they were not entitled to receive the taxes collected on the property within the city of Booneville for 1980," the answer to the suit states.

In dismissing the suit last week, Judge Senter ruled only on the jurisdiction issue. He did not address any of the other issues of the case.

Mayor Says

City Expenses Down From Last Year

Efforts on the part of the city of Booneville to cut expenses have been largely successful, according to a report given by Booneville Mayor Charles Crabb during the regular monthly city board meeting Tuesday night at City Hall.

Citing statistics from the first five months of this fiscal year, Mayor Crabb said expenses in each city department are down from the same period last fiscal year.

Expenses for the police department during the first five months of this fiscal year were $106,115, he said, compared to $108,079.05 for the first five months of the last fiscal year.

In the fire department, expenses for the first five months of this year total $82,001.36, compared to $98,470 for the same period last year.

For the care and main-tainence of public property, expenses for the first months of this year were approximately $22,000 for the first five months of this year, compared to $26,600 for the first five months last year.

In the street department, expenses this year are at $95,000, compared to $107,000 for the same period last year.

"In every department, you are doing a good job," the mayor told the aldermen.

The mayor also said that the problems encountered with the conversion of city vehicles to operate on natural gas have apparently been solved. He said that last month there was roughly a 60 percent savings in the cost of fuel to power the city's vehicle as compared to the month before.

Reappraisal Contract Awarded

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

Prentiss County will move forward with mandated reappraisal by April.

The Prentiss County Board of Supervisors last Thursday signed a consultant contract for $353,350 with Donald Ford, property reevaluation consultant, for mapping and reappraisal of the county.

In 1980 the state supreme court ordered all 82 Mississippi counties to reappraise and tax property uniformly, based on true value, by June 1, 1983.

Deed research for this project will begin April 1, according to J.P. Davis, president of the Prentiss County Board of Supervisors. This involves checking every deed to see that it is correct.

The actual reappraisal of property will not begin until toward the end of the year, Davis said.

At that time property appraisers will go door-to-door to seek information from residents concerning the number and type of rooms in the house, the type of heating and cooling system, age of the dwelling and other structural data, he said.

Supervisors noted that property appraisers will carry identification to identify themselves as appraisers to the residents of Prentiss County.

Local people will be hired to assist with reappraisal, Davis said.

The supervisors have a contract with the state of Mississippi to take the aerial photos necessary for mapping the county. The maps should be ready by April, Davis said.

Danny Childers, county tax assessor noted, "The purpose of reappraisal is not to raise taxes - it's for equalization. In some cases taxes may go down. In other cases taxes may go up. We won't know what effect this will have on taxes until it's done."

Last September the supervisors added two mills to the county budget to cover reappraisal.

"That will pay for it for awhile at least," Davis said. "Now we don't know what the end results will be. Maybe in the end results we'll sell bonds and borrow money for reappraisal, but right now, as far as this year is concerned, we plan to pay for the reappraisal with the two mills."

The equipment purchased for use in reappraisal will not be discarded, it will be used to maintain reappraisal, because once the reappraisal is completed it will have to be kept up-to-date.

Although the court order for complete reappraisal of all county property came in 1980, Davis said the supervisors waited this long to start because "we weren't 100 percent sure of how we wanted to handle it. We wanted to find the least expensive route to go. This is what we feel like we've done."

NE President Honored

Northeast Mississippi Junior College President Harold T. White has been selected as Administrator of the Year by the Mississippi Association of Educational Secretaries (MAES).

The award will be presented at the association's annual spring conference Tuesday, March 16, at the Holiday Inn Downtown in Jackson.

A noted leader in the progress of secondary education in Mississippi, President White was selected to receive the award based upon his education, his personal contributions to education, his professional activities and his continued support of local and state MAES programs.

A graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi, White holds both Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees. He has also completed advanced graduate studies at Mississippi State University.

White's career in education began at Perkinston High School where he taught for four years.

In 1951, he joined the staff at Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College, where over a 14-year period he served in the capacities of teacher, football coach, athletic director, dean of men, director of student personnel and administrative assistant.

Since coming to Northeast in 1965, White has been committed to the growth of the school's physical facilities and to broadening the range of academic, technical and social offerings.

Last year, President White's secretary, Mrs. Lynn M. Vuncannon, received a similar honor, being named State Educational Office Employee of the Year by MAES.

She later advanced to competition on the national level and, competing against contestants from 26 other states, was named National Educational Office Employee of the Year by the National Association of Educational Office Personnel.

percent of Mississippi's food stamp recipients if they all show up to get it.
A new set of guidelines have been developed for the second distribution of cheese, according to Prentiss County Welfare Director J.B. Hill.
Food stamp households who did not receive an allotment of cheese in February will have first priority, he said.
Households with five persons or less are eligible for one 5-pound block of cheese. Households with six or more persons are eligible for two 5-pound blocks of cheese.
Food stamp households who received an allotment of cheese during the February distribution will have second priority. Those households are eligible for one 5 lb. block of cheese.
The cheese will be distributed March 17, beginning at 8 a.m. at the Food Stamp Office.

Households with first priority can pick up their allotment of cheese in the morning. Those with second priority can pick up their allotment in the afternoon, Hill said.
Only food stamp recipients are eligible to receive the cheese. No cheese will be distributed to persons who do not have a food stamp identification card, he said.
The cheese is being distributed to food stamp recipients because of the accumulation of millions of pounds of cheese as a result of federal price supports.
The government donated 30 million pounds of cheese nationwide on Dec. 22. The cheese is currently being distributed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Service through state distribution agents who customarily handle commodities for schools and institutions.

Unemployment

Charles Smith, Manager of the Employment Service, stated that the civilian labor force for the four-county area of Alcorn, Prentiss, Tippah, and Tishomingo experienced a substantial increase in January from the revised figures of one month ago and one year ago.
The labor force was estimated to be 48,530, compared to 47,530 in December 1981, and 47,530 in January 1981. Unemployment also experienced substantial monthly and yearly gains of 2,170 and 950, respectively.
The rate of unemployment for the four-county area was 13.1 percent, compared to 9.6 percent last month and 11.4 percent one year ago. The employment segment of the labor force dropped some 810 workers from last month to reach 42,160. However, compared to one year ago, a rise of 150 was noted.

A total of 14,560 workers were employed in manufacturing industries in the area at mid-January, a decrease of 450 from one month ago but 60 above the estimate for one year ago. Nonmanufacturing employment had 19,570 workers at mid-January compared to 19,860 in December and 20,320 in January 1981.

City Expenses

IN OTHER action Tuesday night, Prentiss County Sheriff John McCauley appeared before the board to ask that the city consider passing an ordinance pertaining to pawn shops.

Mayor Crabb told McCauley that the city attorney, Gene Gifford, would get in contact with the Tupelo city attorney to discuss their ordinance and report his findings to the board. The board will then consider such an ordinance, the mayor said.
Attorney Gifford also told the board that the sale of industrial revenue bonds for Prentiss Manufacturing Company's planned expansion is in the final stages.
Gifford said that Mercantile Trust of St. Louis, Mo., has expressed a desire to purchase the $1.5 million in industrial revenue bonds. He said Prentiss Manufacturing will pay an interest rate of 65 percent of the prime rate on the bonds.
The board voted unanimously to pass the bond resolution and sign the lease agreement.
The board also voted to pay the interest and renew a $50,000 note on the city which is due at the Peoples Bank. The mayor said this money was borrowed by the city last year for use in the general fund.

BED-WETTING

Many children are punished for bed-wetting when this condition is actually beyond their conscious control. Medication may help temporarily, but the chiropractor realizes that the muscles guarding the opening from the bladder are weakened and may be the cause of this problem. Through careful, gentle spinal adjustments, normal nerve supply is restored to these muscles. Removing nerve interference of irritation will allow healthy tissue and muscles to function properly as nature intended-without medication.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, my question is from 1 Cor. 7:10 & 11, which says, "Let not the wife depart from her husband. But and if she depart let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband." For what reason does the Bible give her to depart?

ANSWER: This chapter discusses the unbeliever living with the believer or (Christian). Paul, does not encourage either the wife or husband to depart from the other. However, he makes it clear that if the unbeliever is hardened that it is impossible (in the eyes of God) to live with such a person that the believer may depart. One must keep in mind that Paul did NOT allow the one departing to get married again. Many people misunderstand this text and come to the conclusion that departing is the same as getting a scriptural divorce and marrying another person. This is not so. The text says, if one departs he or she must remain unmarried or be reconciled to their companion. Matt. 19, discusses marriage, divorce and re-marriage not 1 Cor. 7. In answering your question, the Bible does not give a list of things for which one might depart from another but does give a general answer which I have given above. Please read the text and it will answer your question.

Many of Brown's friends and relatives were present for the occasion. It has been said that Brown's name automatically goes along with bird dogs and field trials. He has worked diligently through the years with every club within his reach and has been especially instrumental in the Northeast Mississippi area where bird dogs and field trials are household words in most homes.

In Highway Network

Budget Could Cause 'Gaps'

From THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI

Approval of President Reagan's initial budget proposal without additional revenues for state and local governments may cause "gaps" in the nation's vital network of highways, says one of the county's top executives in highway transportation management.

Federal budget cuts could cause problems in several Southern states, especially Mississippi, Alabama, and South Carolina, said Francis B. Francois of Washington, D.C., executive director of the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials. Francois was guest speaker at the 1982 Highway and Transportation Management Institute at The University of Mississippi.

The meeting drew transportation agency administrators from 17 states and Canada.

"The President's current thinking is that federal assistance to highways should be limited to the completion and preservation of the interstate highway network, and that states and local governments should be responsible for all other highways," Francois said.

However, he commented, under the Interstate Commerce clause of the Constitution, Federal assistance should cover at a minimum those elements of the primary and secondary systems that carry interstate traffic.

"There are those who believe much more should be included, particularly cities and counties who receive some federal assistance to meet their local highway needs," he added. Because of the pressing need to maintain an adequate national highway network, the President's initial proposal will not be accepted, Francois predicted.

Cutbacks also will affect bridge maintenance, he said. "There is currently a federal aid program to assist our states and local governments in replacing or rehabilitating substandard bridges. There is a total national need for about $400 billion for bridges, and most people believe that states and local governments cannot do that job alone."

Congress probably will act to maintain some federal support for the bridge program, Francois said, but he expects some turnbacks of highway programs, forcing the establishment of a clearer line between national and state responsibilities.

"If we turn back to states the responsibility for maintenance of their portion of the national highway network, some states will not be able to do the job because of small populations and a limited tax base. Unless these states receive help, gaps will quickly develop in the national network. For local roads, it is probable that in some states the quality of the system will drop sharply unless significant new revenues are raised."

Citizens are paying for good transportation whether they get it or not, he pointed out.

"Where there are potholes or traffic jams, people pay a high price in required repairs to vehicles, increased fuel consumption and lost time."

The primary problem facing highway designers is the "mix" of traffic on the roadways, Francois said. "Changes in the mix of vehicles are going to increase greatly the highway safety problem unless we learn to respond," he commented.

South Central President Says

Phone Company Will Operate Effectively After Split

In testimony before the House subcommittee on telecommunications in Washington on Feb. 23, Wallace R. Bunn, president of South Central Bell Telephone Company, said that he has "full confidence" his company can operate effectively in a divested environment and that South Central Bell is currently in "sound financial condition."

Bunn was one of five local telephone operating company presidents appearing before the telecommunications subcommittee on the future of the local telephone company under the terms of the 1982 modification of the 1956 Consent Decree.

South Central Bell is one of 22 local exchange companies which will be divested by AT&T as a result of the agreement. The company operates exchanges providing telephone service to 6 million customers in the states of Alabama, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee. At present, the company has $10.5 billion in assets, 58,000 employees and last year received revenues of $4 billion.

Commenting on the Consent Decree agreement, Bunn said that divestiture is "not a thing" he would do "from choice" but that he has "full confidence" South Central Bell can operate effectively in a divested environment.

"I think as a System we work better than the various parts will after divestiture," he said. "But I recognize that Congress, the Courts, the FCC and others have made it pretty clear that the present system will change a great deal. Under those circumstances I believe the Consent Decree establishes a reasonable arrangement and I think it will work."

Bunn noted that due to effective planning processes, South Central Bell is currently in "sound financial condition" and that it will be divested in very good posture, both financially and organizationally.

"We will have a strong position in a very dynamic market," he said. "The Decree gives us a right to charge competitive interexchange communications companies for the use of our facilities, subject to commission approval. I anticipate that these access charges will be fixed by regulatory authorities giving significant consideration to the subsidy that long distance provides for local rates. This should assure us of a substantial revenue stream in addition to the charges for local exchange service."

The South Central Bell

president said that other revenues will be available through the company's opportunity to participate in newly emerging communications technology.

"New entrepreneurs are entering the market for communications equipment to be located in homes and offices," he said. "They are selling such things as energy control systems, videotext, automatic ordering and selling-by-telephone devices, home computer applications and office of the future operations. These will be in addition to the already thriving terminal equipment market in word processing, security systems, meter reading and time share computer access."

In a few years there will be widespread use of fiber lightguides, bringing transmission rates in the megabit-per-second range, he predicted. The steadily increasing capability of microprocessors, or computers on a chip, promises to bring far more intelligence into the network, facilitating store and forward message transmission, packet switching, code compression and expansion, variable data rate services, and many other things. Development of these digital capabilities will provide greater and more flexible capability to move information.

"These developments will stimulate use of telephone company facilities, particularly local facilities. Our local distribution capacity will be essential to the efficient development of this exciting new market."

Bunn concluded his testimony by reiterating his confidence in South Central Bell's ability to remain strong following divestiture.

"To succeed, however, we must be permitted to establish reasonable charges for carrier access to our facilities; be permitted to price our services properly; and be free to use our technology to its best advantage," he said.

"Right now none of these conditions requires any change in the Consent Decree. Whether they require additional legislation will depend on what happens. It is my hope and expectation that we will be able to work with the Department of Justice and our regulators and make this work. After all we all want the same thing. Good service, improving technology and affordable prices. I think we can do it."

Farm Computer Seminars Set

Mississippi agriculture is on the verge of a new technological revolution. The new revolution will bring the computer age to the farm.

Recent technological advances have made microcomputers relatively inexpensive, and the machines are beginning to appear on Mississippi farms.

To allow more Mississippi farmers to get in touch with the new technology, Dr. James Carpenter, director of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, has announced two farm computer seminars. These seminars will be held at the Research and Development Center in Jackson on March 10, and at the Washington County Convention Center on March 12. The meetings will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Farmers will have an opportunity to learn about computer equipment and its use, programming, and purchasing guidelines.

Microcomputers have a wide range of farm uses. Basically, a computer can expand and improve the information available to make numerous farm management decisions.

'Talk O' The Town'

QUESTION: Do you think Booneville city officials have taken sufficient steps in the investigation of the four city policemen accused of wrong doing, or do you think further investigation is needed to determine if there actually was any wrong doing?

TANA SHOUSE of Route 4, Booneville: "I think further investigation is needed because if the policemen committed a crime I don't think they should be allowed to get away with it."

COLLEEN WARD of Route 6, Booneville: "I don't think the city officials have taken sufficient steps concerning the investigation. From what I've heard and seen it appears the city fathers are trying to make everyone think everything is rosy and that there isn't any wrong doing. Whether there is wrong doing or not the situation needs to be investigated further to find out the truth."

BEULAH HUGHEY of East Circle Apartments, Booneville: "I think further investigation is needed. If the wrong doing is true, it needs to be investigated."

LOUISE ROBINSON of Route 3, Rienzi: "I feel if they are not satisfied with what they have found they should investigate further."

CATHERINE ASH-CRAFT of 302 Magnolia Dr., Booneville: "I really don't know that much about it. It seems odd that this has been so long ago since this incident was supposed to have happened and nothing was said and when other problems arise this comes out. I really don't know whether there should be more investigations or not."

VEDA SOUTHWARD of 502 Jefferson St., Booneville: "I think further investigation is needed. I just don't think right now they have enough evidence to know whether the policemen are guilty or not."

Reflections

By Ken Christian

Editor

Once again the Prentiss County Board of Education has precipitated a lawsuit as a direct result of the separation of the Booneville Municipal Separate School District from the county school system. And once again the county has come out the loser.

Although the first suit resulting from the separation was not filed by the county school system, the city school system filed it (in July 1980) only after county school officials refused to hand over property within the city limits to the newly-formed separate school system.

After this court action went in favor of the city system, county system officials vowed to appeal the decision and instigated action to do so. However, this appeal, after quite some expense to the school system to file it, was eventually dismissed as a result of lack of action on the part of the county school officials and their attorney.

Then late last year, the county school board filed a suit against Tax Assessor-Collector Danny Childers, claiming he had not collected more than $130,000 from city residents which they claimed was owed to the county school system.

Apparently this suit was filed in the wrong court. Last week federal Judge L.T. Senter Jr. dismissed the suit due to a lack of jurisdiction.

Will the county school board try again with this suit in another court? That remains to be seen, but we urge them to seriously consider this matter before making a decision.

The separation of the schools and the resulting conflict created many hard feelings among city and county residents. It almost seemed like some thought the city of Booneville had seceded from the county.

But, like it or not, Booneville is a part of Prentiss County and will continue to remain so. And one cannot advance without the other. If there are any strides to be made in the improvement of the quality of life for people in either, then both the city and the county must work together.

And this continuous battle in the courts is not helping to build harmony.

Enough is enough. It's time to put this behind us, act like responsible adults and get on with the business of educating the children of Booneville and Prentiss County.

If a lawsuit from either school system is justified, then they should file that lawsuit. But first they should examine their motives for doing so and ask, "Is this really the best thing for all involved?"

Legislative Report

Property Classification Amendment Is Needed

By REP. BILLY McCOY
Prentiss And Alcorn
Counties

Last week the House of Representatives voted on two very important concurrent resolutions which had already passed the senate. Both of these resolutions call for constitutional amendments to be presented to the voters of Mississippi for their approval or disapproval in November 1982.

Senate concurrent resolution No. 506 would amend the constitution to revise the membership and duties of the State Board of Education.

Under present constitutional provisions, the State Board of Education consists of the Superintendent of Education, the Secretary of State, and the Attorney General. All are elected and the Superintendent of Education serves as the Chief Executive officer to administer all educational programs from grade one through junior college.

SCR 506 as passed by the senate would have provided for a five-member lay board of education with one member being elected from each of the state's congressional districts. This elected board would then appoint the State Superintendent of Education.

This resolution was amended by the House to provide for a nine-member appointed Board of Education. The Governor would appoint five members, the Lt. Governor two members and the Speaker of the House two members.

Board members would serve staggered terms of different lengths initially, but with the expiration of each initial appointment, the new term would be for a nine-year terms. The House version also provided that the Board would appoint the Superintendent of Education.

While I do not disagree with the concept of a lay Board of Education, I did not vote for this resolution as passed by the House. Education is without a doubt, one of the most important services provided by our state and has a budget of over one half billion dollars per year.

I believe the service is too important and the expenditure of funds too great to remove entirely from the voters of Mississippi. Under this proposal it is possible, and very likely, that North Mississippi would have only one member on this board. I do not believe this to be in the best interest of the educational needs of our area.

Since becoming a member of the Legislature, I have reported to you many times concerning the need for classification of property for Ad Valorem tax purposes and my efforts on behalf of this most worthy cause.

Last week the House passed Senate concurrent resolution No. 519 calling for a constitutional amendment which would place property in different classes for tax purposes. For example, there would be a class for homes and farms, one for business and commercial property, one for automobiles, and one for utility property.

While the amendment would not set specific assessment figures, it does specify that no class of property can be assessed at more than twice the percentage of the lowest assessed class. In other

Ministers Support Chief

(Editor's note: The Prentiss County Ministerial Association asked that the following letter to Booneville Police Chief John O. (Bobby) Lambert be printed as an open letter in the Banner-Independent.)

To:
Mr. Bobby Lambert
Chief of Police
Booneville, Miss.

Dear Mr. Lambert,
The Prentiss County Ministerial Association, representing various churches throughout the city of Booneville and the county, upon lengthy discussion of the events of the past months, voted unanimously to send to you this letter of support and encouragement for your efforts as the Chief of Police of our fine city.

We support any endeavor to improve the quality and competency of law enforcement and law enforcement officers in our city.

For any improvement in law enforcement to take place, there must be support from three elements of the population: (1) law enforcement officials must want it; (2) the city fathers must want it; and, (3) the people must want it.

We also pledge to you personally our prayers and our support as you work within the law to make Booneville a safer place to live.

Sincerely,
The Prentiss County Ministerial Association,
Luther Gibson, President
Wayne Foropoulos, Secretary

Sheriff Appreciates Help

Dear Editor,

I would like to express my appreciation for the help received from the various law enforcement agencies for the progress we made during the last term of Circuit Court. I would also like to praise the members of those organizations for doing a good job.

I also praise the members of my own department for the work they did. I appreciate their efforts.

We still need a lot more space in the jail here. If the jail had been empty this morning, we could have filled it up by tonight with people that we need to pick up. We have to wait until we turn someone loose before we can pick someone else up.

However, I have been very well pleased with the progress that has been made considering the facilities we have to work with.

We appreciate the help from the state investigators, the Narcotics Bureau, and the city police department. It has been a pleasure working with them and seeing the progress that has been made.

I would also like to praise our last term of Circuit Court. I thought the judge did an excellent job in seeing that justice was done.

Old Debts

Mrs. Maureen Crow of Booneville brought a "charge account" ledger by the Banner office this week.

The interesting thing about this ledger is that it is dated 1855. The book contains names of people who charged merchandise and the items they charged at the Beaty and Brooks General Store in Jacinto in 1855. Part of the year 1861 is also included in the book.

Mrs. Crow borrowed the ledger from one of her friends. It seems Mrs. Crow's friend purchased a trunk and the ledger happened to be tucked away inside it.

The charge account book is in excellent condition even though it is a little over 126 years old. The book contains 480 pages and only a few of the pages have been torn out. More than one person entered names in the ledger because the writing is different. The writing, which is fancy with many flourishes, is written in brown ink.

A child appears to have written in the book because such sentences as these are found on some of the pages: "Pretty is as pretty does," and "Always do your best. Angels can do no more."

In 1861 a Civil War uniform cost $14.50 at the Beaty and Brooks General Store in Jacinto.

A bottle of hair restorer cost $2; a bottle of ginger wine was $2; and a cradle sold for $3.

Other items were priced as follows:

A Bible, $2.25; a table cloth, $1.25; an umbrella, 90 cents; a wreath of flowers, 40 cents; seven yards of military flannel, $3.80; one pound of shot, 12½ cents; buck shot, 8 cents;

One lead pencil, 10 cents; a shovel, $1; one pair "fine" boots, $6; one pair boots, $4.50; a pair of shoes, $1.30; a cravat (tie), $2.25;

Men's socks, 40 cents; a belt buckle, 20 cents; a book entitled, "Elements of Mythology," 50 cents; Webster's Dictionary, 40 cents; one quire of paper, 50 cents;

Tabacco, 20 cents a pound; a bottle of ink, 10 cents; a bucket, 90 cents; one skien of silk, 10 cents; five yards of Linsey (material), 40 cents a yard; ½ yard of velvet, 48 cents;

A dress pattern (that must have included material already cut), $9; a broom, 25 cents; three fish hooks, 25 cents; a paper of needles, 10 cents; one pound of candles, 30 cents; a box of matches, 10 cents; ½ bushel of meal, 50 cents; Two pounds of "roap," 50 cents; a "violand" (violin) string, 10 cents; and a bottle of pain killer, 15 cents.

Just a few of the names listed in the book are Charles George, A.F. Whitehurst, Dr. S.N. Walker, John Taylor, J.B. Smith, John Rinehart, Josiah J. Reynolds, Porter Walker, A.J. Holley, Charles Chase, Alfred Moore, W.T. Cobb, John Walden, "Eligah" Brown, Henry Grimes, "Joshaway" Whitmore, and William Nixon.

The "Tishomingo Rifles" charged some items at the general store. Mrs. Crow said the "Tishomingo Rifles" was a group of men who fought in the Civil War.

The Jacinto Chapter of the Masons also charged several items.

Mrs. Crow said most of the debts appeared to have been settled one way or the other, either by cash, hauling merchandise for the store or by swapping farm products such as meat and eggs for the purchases.

Although the ledger gives some insight into what life was like 126 years ago, it nonetheless leaves some remaining questions to be answered. Such as where in Jacinto was this particular store located and what were the first names of Beaty and Brooks?

Count Calories In Beverages Too

By CLAIRE T. ROSS
Extension Home Economist

BEVERAGES COUNT TOO!!!

Our total daily nutrient and caloric intake is determined not only by the food we eat, but by the beverages we drink. Beverages—tea, coffee, soft drinks, beer, milk, lemonade—are foods we drink.

Some beverages, like iced tea, have almost no calories. Other beverages, like milk shakes, have as many calories as desserts, but provide some important nutrients. Alcoholic beverages are high in calories but low in nutritional value. A beer contains as many calories as a glass of 2 percent milk, but provides few essential nutrients.

It's easy to drink beverages with or between meals and not think of the number of calories you're eating. You might have passed by dessert at dinner, but the glass of lemonade you drink later explains why there was no change on the scales.

Suprisingly enough, all beverages do have some nutritional value. All beverages contain some water, and water is the basic component of our bloodstream and many body tissues.

Our bodies are from 50 to 60 percent water. This means we have a daily need for water in our diets. Usually six to eight glasses of water or a beverage high in water are needed each day.

Water is one of the best thirst quenchers. On a hot day when more water is lost from the body, we get thirsty sensation and reach for a glass of water or another favorite beverage. The quench ability of beverages depends on their water content. The more water, the better the quench-ability of the beverage.

In addition to water, most beverages contain foods or flavors, and some contain alcohol. These other components can add calories to the non-caloric water base.

The beginning of the week brought some beautiful weather. Some people just wanted to plant gardens, clean yards, etc. But the latter part of the week things began to change—colder temperatures. There are many sick people. The flu is almost an epidemic.

We sincerely hope that all who are at home ill will soon be feeling much better very soon.

We just want to extend our sympathy to the Miller family whose brother, James Curtis Miller, was buried on Friday.

Well, Monday will start a new day for us. We'll be back at work. We sure did enjoy our week off. We were able to rest our tired weary bodies.

Happy birthday wishes go out to Katherine Jumper, Bernadine Rowan and Martha Rowan.

Bro. Jerry Christian was the guest speaker for 11 o'clock worship services at Reuben Chapel. Sure wish we could have been able to have heard him.

On the second Sunday in March, at 2:30 p.m. Mt. Olive M.B. they will have annual Choir Day. Everyone is cordially invited to go out and be with them.

On March 7, at 7:30 the Rev. Archie will be the guest speaker along with his choir at Wolf Creek M.B. Everyone is cordially invited to go out and be with them.

The other day I had the opportunity of listening to a warning from one of our well known senior citizens. We attended a funeral on Tuesday and Wess Shinault made an announcement that the Lord had told him to warn us that we ought to get ready to meet Jesus, for we know not the day or the hour when the Son of Man will come after one of us.

We were sorry to hear about Mrs. Virgie Crockett who was ill and a patient in the North Mississippi Medical Center in Tupelo.

But we are glad to know she is much better now and is out of the intensive care unit.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Jodie Miller. We're asking the Lord to watch over his children, wife and brothers and sisters.

We express our deepest sympathy to the Betts family in the loss of their brother, Vernon. We pray God's blessing upon them and that he will carry them through.

Thought for the week: I want to be ready when Jesus comes after me. What about you?

'Peter Pan' Visits Booneville Friday

"Second to the right and then straight on till morning..."

With those directions the Nicolò Marionettes will take the children of Booneville to Never Land with their production of "Peter Pan."

Sponsored by the Booneville Pilot Club, "Peter Pan" will be presented Friday, March 5, at the Seth Pounds Auditorium at Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

From the opening curtain to the final bows the production features characters from James Barrie's ageless classic. These include the Darling children, Peter himself, the fairy Tinker Bell, the villainous Captain Hook and his crew of pirates, the lost boy, the crocodile and many others.

Nicolò's staff of artisans have designed sets true to Barrie's whimsical and imaginative story -- from nursery of the Darling home in early 1900 to the pirate ship buffeted by waves off the island of Never Land.

The elaborate production is crowded with tricks, illusions and fantasy, intended to delight children of all ages.

Three performances of "Peter Pan" will be given in the Seth Pounds Auditorium Friday. The curtain will rise at 9:15 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and at 1 p.m.

Tickets are 75 cents each and are available for all three shows. Groups can secure tickets for the 1 p.m. show.

For more ticket information, contact any Pilot Club member.

Aspiring young artists may enter their work in the painting, pottery design or drawing divisions, with a first, second and third place award presented in each category. Students may enter a maximum of three art pieces which were completed between Jan. 1, 1982 and the present.

Deadline for entering the competition is 3 p.m. March 10. The art forms will be exhibited in Hines Hall.

All drawing and designs must be matted and covered with acetate to be considered for judging, Mrs. Curlee said. Paintings must also have suitable frames and wires for hanging. Art work may be reclaimed during school hours April 12-16.

In addition to the award winners, there will also be a $100 art scholarship presented to the high school student who displays exceptional talent.

For additional information, interested persons are asked to contact Mrs. Curlee at 728-7751, ext. 229.

Deadline April 16

Acreage Reduction Program Sign-Up Underway

By C.E. CALVERT
County Executive Director

ACREAGE REDUCTION PROGRAM SIGN-UP UNDERWAY ON 1982 COTTON, RICE, FEED GRAINS AND WHEAT

A sign-up period began on Feb. 16, and will continue through April 16, during which producers of cotton, rice, feed grains and wheat have the option of signing up to participate in voluntary acreage reduction of 1982 plantings.

The voluntary reduction program for each of these crops was implemented by Secretary of Agriculture Block. The authority for these reductions is contained in the Agriculture and Food Act of 1981 which was signed into law on Dec. 22, 1981.

Participation in the reduction program is voluntary. However, producers must participate in order to be eligible for program benefits such as target price protection, and Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loans. Reduced acreages must be placed in conservation uses. Producers are not required to participate on all crops. A cotton and rice producer could, for example, participate in the reduction program on cotton and not participate on rice. Furthermore, a producer may participate on one farm and not participate on another farm. There are no offsetting or cross compliance requirements.

For cotton the reduction is 15 percent of the established base. Generally the base is the higher of the 1981 cotton acreage or the average of the 1980-81 acreages. Participation would make the farm eligible for target price protection at the 1982 level of 71 cents per pound and for CCC loans at $7.08 cents per pound (for the base grade).

The reduction level for wheat is 15 percent of the established wheat base. Generally the farm base is the higher of the 1981 acreage or the average of the 1980-81 acreage. Participation would result in the farm being eligible for target price protection at $4.05 per bushel, and CCC loan at $3.55 per bushel. Wheat could also be entered into the farmer-owned grain reserve at $4.00 per bushel.

For feed grains two bases will be established, one for corn and sorghum and one for oats and barley. Generally, the base will be the higher of the 1981 base or the average of the 1980-81 bases. The reduction level of 10 percent is required for target price protection and CCC loan eligibility.

Target prices per bushel are: corn $2.70, sorghum $2.60, barley $2.60, and oats $1.50. Loan levels per bushel are: corn $2.55, sorghum $2.42, barley $2.08, and oats $1.31.

Grain placed under CCC loan will be eligible for entry into the farmer-owned grain reserve at levels higher than for regular CCC loans.

The reduction level for rice is 16 percent from the established base. Generally, the base is the higher of the 1981 rice acreage or the average of the 1980-81 acreages. Only producers who participate will be eligible for program benefits.

Producers of any of the crops eligible for voluntary reduction should contact their local ASCS office for program details.

FOREIGNERS REMINDED TO REPORT U.S. FARMLAND INTERESTS

Foreigners who own or have an interest in farmland in Prentiss County are reminded to report ownership to our office. ASCS county offices across the Nation have the job of keeping track of how much farmland is owned or controlled by foreign individuals or interests.

The reporting requirement stems from the Agricultural Foreign Investment Disclosure Act of 1978, which requires all foreign owners of U.S. agricultural land to report their holdings, acquisitions, dispositions, leases (over 10 years) and land-use changes.

Farmland owned by foreigners before February 1979 should have been reported by August 1979. Those who have acquired or disposed of farmland since that time are required to report these transactions within 90 days. Those who fail to report or who are late in reporting face possible fines. In FY 1981, USDA had assessed 707 penalties for late filings, amounting to $417,361.

For reporting purposes, agricultural land is defined as any tract of more than one acre now in agricultural, forestry, or timber production. This includes land in agricultural use when purchased as well as land later converted to agricultural use.

Interest means any right, title, or legal share of ownership in farmland, such as partnership, trusts, estates, or shares in a corporation that owns farmland.

County Agent's Report

Agriculture Day Celebration Scheduled For March 18

By W.H. HADEN
County Agent

AGRICULTURE - IT'S YOUR HEARTBEAT
Agriculture, this nation's number one industry and inflation fighter, becomes first in the hearts of Americans as citizens everywhere celebrate Agriculture Day on March 18.

Using the theme, "Agriculture: It's Your Heartbeat, America," Agriculture Day recognizes agriculture's success in providing the world's most abundant and highest quality food supply. Since 1973, Agriculture Day has saluted those who produce, process, transport and sell American's abundant food supply.

As American's number one industry, agriculture has assets of all manufacturing corporations in the United States. More than 23 million people are employed in the American food and fiber system.

One U.S. farm worker supplies enough food and fiber for 78 people, three times the output of 1960, an unequalled productivity record. Farm exports - about $45 million in 1981 - are the simple most positive factor in our balance of trade.

Because of increasing productivity, the world's largest and highest quality food supply also is a better buy. For example, Americans work only about 16 minutes for a one-pound steak, compared to 60 minutes in the Soviet Union and 174 minutes in Japan.

We in Prentiss County are proud of our tremendous record of agricultural achievements. It's an important part of what makes America a great country.

STOP WEEDS IN LAWNS

Now is a good time to start thinking about controlling weeds in the home lawn. By starting now, you can get an early jump on weeds and have a better chance for a more beautiful lawn this summer.

Lawn grasses like bermudagrass, centipede and St. Augustine are dormant, or inactive, at this time. Many undesirable winter grasses and weeds are active. That means you can use herbicides to selectively control the undesired weeds and grasses, provided you make application before your lawn grass "breaks" dormancy.

Several herbicides are available to control weeds in dormant lawns. You'll have to be careful to prevent overlaps and skips. For recommended herbicides, rates and applications methods, contract the county Extension office.

Conservation Aid Available

By DON JONES
Soil Conservation Technician, USDA Soil Conservation Service Booneville Field Office

Now is the time to start thinking about installing conservation practices on your farm. The Soil Conservation Service here in Booneville will help you with your conservation problems.

Some of the areas and practices with which assistance is available are ponds, the location of a suitable dam sites, the layout and design of the levee and also the type soil. Another area would be terraces, assistance with location and layout in the field, the type terraces you may need; broadbase farmable terraces, pipe outlets, or standard grassed down terraces.

Other areas are diversion locations and design, drainage ditch location, disposal lagoons for dairy farms or hog operations, minimum tillage or no-till farming, fish pond management and wildlife habitat management.

They can also develop with you a conservation farm plan to help guide you in carrying out your conservation practices. This plan would consist of a map showing your farm boundary lines.

It would show individual fields that are in pasture, cropland or woodland and the number of acres that are in each. It would contain information on proper fertilization rates to obtain most grasses for your cattle, proper cropland treatment to help control erosion and save valuable topsoil.

If you have woodland, it would give information on proper time to harvest your timber to obtain best growth. The plan would also contain a soil map describing your soils and what they are capable of.

All of these services are free for the asking. Anyone who has a question about a conservation problem or any service offered by the Soil Conservation Service should contact us at 728-3544 or come by our office located in the North Mississippi Savings and Loan Building.

Devilettes Drop Overtime Loss In State Tourney Opener

JACKSON — What a team works for the entire season came to an end for Booneville's Lady Blue Devils here Thursday night when the local girls, who had one of the best records in the state (27-1) dropped a 51-49 overtime loss to Stone County in the opening rounds of the State A Championship at the Jackson Coliseum. The Devilettes were indeed favorites to capture State laurels, and the loss was almost too hard to bare for many BHS fans who have seen their squad work hard for the past three years now only to lose in that all important State opener. Winning just seemed to come easy for the Booneville girls this year. The local troop, under head coach

Steve Jobe, who has led the girls to their first State appearance since way back when, didn't know the meaning of the word lose and according to some observers the squad might have been just a bit tense in Thursday's game.

Several tears rolled Thursday at the final buzzer when a host of Devilette fans saw Lady Devil performer Dianne Harris' last second desperation shot from one end of the court to the other hit the rim and fall off.

A huge silence fell over the many Booneville supporters that made the 200 mile journey to the State's basketball capital when the final horn went off.

The third quarter did the Devilettes in some what. Leading by four 22-18 at the intermission, the Lady Devils appeared to be headed for that all important State finals on Saturday but things then went rotten for the local squad when Stone County sent a surge of points across the scoreboard.

The Devilettes scored only six points in the third quarter to Stone County's 15 which proved to really be one of the deciding factors.

The fourth quarter had to be one of the most thrilling frames in the history of high school basketball. After Stone County got the big lead, it looked as though the Devilettes were finished for the night. The big guns for the South Mississippi squad turned on the steam and rallied their squad scoring almost at will.

But the Devilettes showed that they had too much pride to stop here and rallied back from there to make it a photo finish.

Booneville gunner Kunshinge Sorrell, who has been the high point leader all year, scored nine straight points to trim the margin to a single point with a second on the clock.

The game was actually won at the charity stripe a little earlier but Booneville did have one last attempt by Harris that came close but — no cigar — and the Devilettes had lost.

Climaxing the season would take quite a bit of space. The local girls definitely have nothing to be ashamed of. The Devilettes took it to everyone throughout the year and won a host of area tournaments including the Booneville, The Baldwin, the Prentiss County and the Tombigbee Tournaments.

Coach Steve Jobe stands to be commended for his efforts as well. He led the local squad to their first State Tournament trip since way back when and posted one of if not the best records in the entire history of the school.

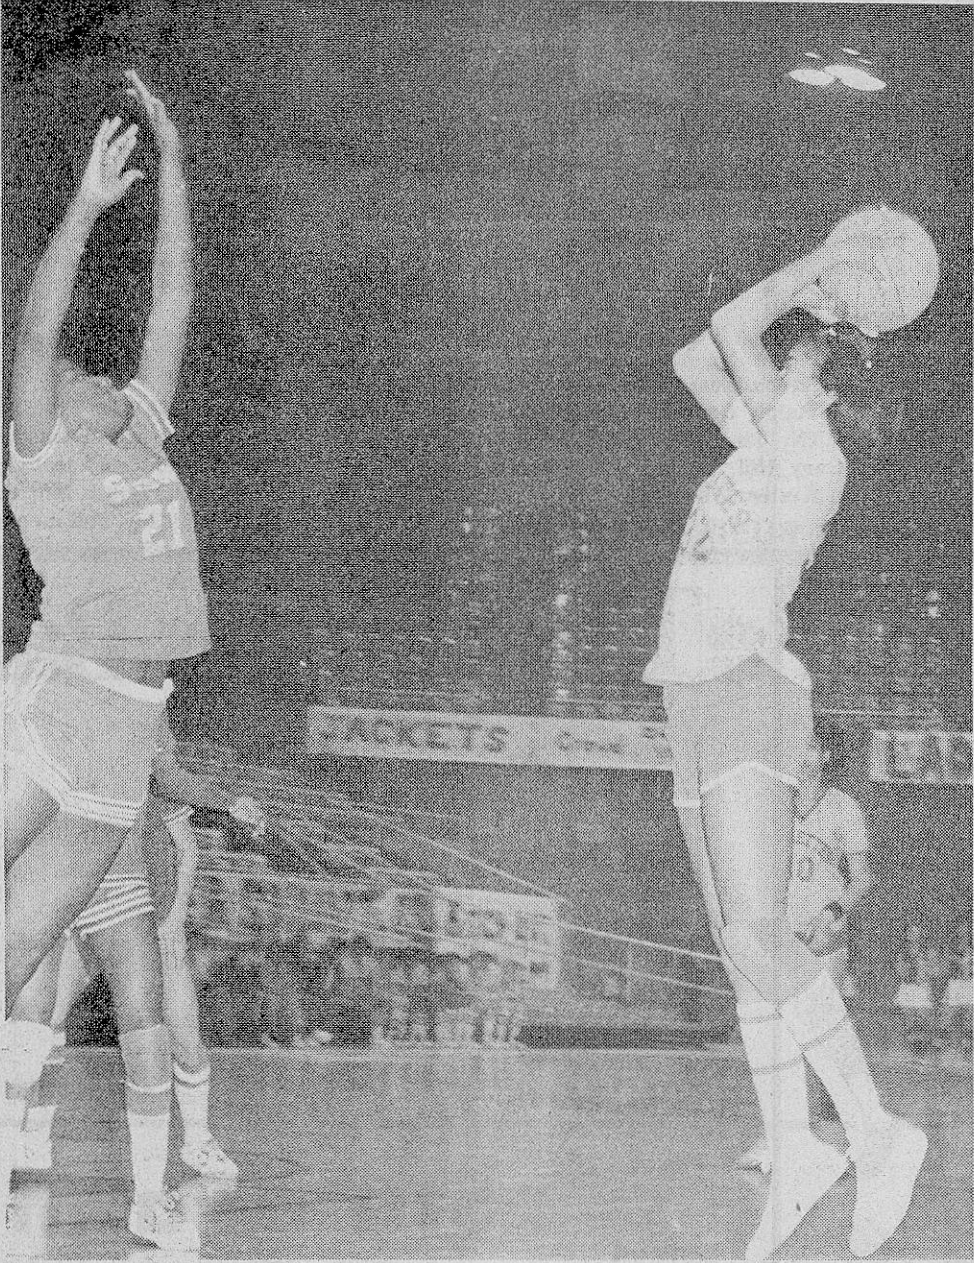

Winning and losing is something that sometimes is almost too hard to take.

This one was certainly one of those times but it just wasn't in the books for the Devilettes to win.

In Thursday's scoring column, Kunshinge Sorrell led the Devilette scoring brigade with 21 points on the night followed by Vanessa Groves with 12. Pam Wilson netted 17 points to lead Stone County followed by Alisa Jones with 17.

Stone County went on in Saturday's finals and was defeated by Lafayette 42-38 for the Championship.

TIP OF THE HAT
Congratulations Devilettes on a job well done...

JUMP SHOT—Booneville's Kunshinge Sorrell (32) fires this jump shot against this Stone County performer in last Thursday's action in the State Tourney in Memphis. The Devilettes dropped a 51-49 decision in overtime.

Devilettes, Eagles Hold Rankings

The boys State rankings remained the same after this week's voting while there were a few changes in the girl's rankings following last weekend's State Tournament in Jackson.

Warren Central, after going the entire season without a defeat, lost to Harrison Central in the finals of the AA Championship and gave up their number one girl's spot.

Booneville's Lady Blue Devils, even though they lost to Stone County, still holds a top ten spot with a 27-2 record and currently ranks ninth in the state.

In the boys bracket Wheeler's Eagles, holds the number four spot in the state and will make their bid on the State B Championship this Thursday night when they battle in opening round action in the Jackson Coliseum.

The Eagles, under head coach Sam Richey, have been on the State chart all year long and should indeed be a favorite to chart off the State B crown.

Eagles Play Tonight In State Tourney Premiere

BY LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

JACKSON -- Wheeler's Eagles will open their bid for the State B Championship here tonight (Thursday) at 7 p.m. when the opening rounds of the State Basketball Tournament starts at the Jackson Coliseum.

The Eagles, under head coach Sam Richey, are in their Jackson home for the third straight year and are looking for a repeat of their Class B title they won two years ago.

The road to the State trophy won't be an easy one.

Wheeler ranks fourth in the State and will be a slight favorite in the B event but some old familiar faces will be around in the coliseum with some not so fond memories behind them.

Hickory Flatt, the team the Eagles defeated in overtime last week at Baldwin in the North Half Tourney, will be on hand ranked as the number two team from the North and will be a tough competitor while another arch rival or sorts, West Lincoln are back again classed as the number one team from the South and they play almost a similar brand of basketball that the Eagles play and certainly Wheeler's has seen them before.

I'm sure the Eagles are aware of this however. Wheeler head mentor Sam Richey has been this route before and certainly knows the type of competition he's up against.

Wheeler would be the slight favorite due to their State ranking and have three year's State Tournament experience behind them.

GAMETIME SET AT 7 P.M.

Wheeler will open their 1982 bid tonight at 7 p.m. when they meet the winner of the East Flora-Obannon game who played yesterday (Wednesday) with results of the game not available at presstime.

Opening round action of the State Tournament gets underway as early as 9 a.m. Wednesday when East Flora and Obannon collide followed by Lafayette and Southeast Lauderdale of class A matched next at 10:30.

The afternoon matchups Wednesday features Benton and Ashland of BB at 2 followed by South Jones and Amanda Elzy of AA at 3:30.

The night sessions Wednesday are, Hickory Flatt and Pelahatchie facing off at 7 in B action followed by New Hope and Mendenhall of Class A next at 8:30.

In Thursday's action, East Union and Benton of class BB faceoff at 9 followed by Hernando and Harrison Central of AA at 10:30.

In the afternoon it's West Lincoln vs the Hickory Flatt-Pelahatchie survivor at 2 p.m. followed by Waynesboro meeting the New Hope-Mendenhall winner at 3:30.

In night action Thursday (tonight) Wheeler's Eagles tipoff against the Obannon-East Flora winner at 7 p.m. in class B followed by New Albany meeting the Lafayette-Southeast Lauderdale victor at 8:30 in Class A.

ONE WIN WILL SEND 'EM TO THE FINALS

Wheeler only has to win their opener to advance to the finals of the State B event. A win tonight would put em in the finals with a 1:30 tipoff Saturday afternoon.

A host of Wheeler fans left both yesterday and this morning coming down and some special tee-shirts were printed for the Wheeler roster.

The Eagle fans are hungry for a victory and of course the Wheeler troop has been here before as has coach Richey and it just might be the Eagles year in '82.

Last Second Shot Downs Tiger Hopes In Region 7 Tourney

BY LEE GENTRY
Sports Editor

MEMPHIS, Tenn. -- The 1982 basketball season came to a close for the Northeast Tigers here Tuesday night when, on the verge of a last second shot, dropped a 57-56 loss to Aquinas College in opening round action of the Region Seven Basketball Tournament held at Shelby State College in Memphis.

The Tigers, who under the direction of head coach Richard Mathis, have registered their best roundball record in quite some time played tooth and nail with the Tennessee squad throughout the contest and to see the hopes of a possible Region Seven crown go down the drain was indeed quite a shock to all the Northeast players, coaches, cheerleaders and fans in attendance.

Freethrows is the name of the game when it comes to basketball and the Tigers blew a golden opportunity late in the contest that could have iced the win but failed to capitalize on it and came away empty handed.

A host of Northeast supporters were stunned when Aquinas' sharp shooter Dwayne Johns hit the 15 foot plus jump shot and a complete silence fell some 30 seconds before they realized the game was actually over.

"That's the toughest loss I've ever had to bare," one Northeast fan put it. I'd rather lose by 20 points than to lose like that."

Well the Tigers lost the game but they have a list of accomplishments on this season that puts that loss to shame.

The Tigers did what is almost the impossible in the Junior College league and that's to win both a North Championship Crown and a State Tournament Championship as well.

Certainly the Northeast pawmen wanted to win this one but they can most definitely boast about their accomplishments in '82.

So much in fact that this year's squad would probably rank among the top teams in Junior College League play across the entire region.

5 County Jr. High Tourney Underway

The 1982 Five County Junior High Basketball Tournament got underway Monday at Northeast's Bonner Arnold Coliseum and ended last night (Wednesday) when the finals were held.

Due to an early press schedule results of the Tuesday and Wednesday games were not available at press time.

Representing Prentiss County in the tournament are Wheeler's eighth grade boys and girls, Baldwin's eighth grade girls, Thrasher's eighth grade boys and New Site's ninth grade boys.

At presstime the only results we had were in eighth grade girls action, Falkner defeated Alcorn Central while West Union knocked off Wheeler's girls and Baldwin defeated New Albany's eighth grade girls.

In boys action Corinth defeated Ingomar while Thrasher knocked off Alcorn Central.

In ninth grade action, New Site defeated Biggersville while Corinth knocked off Burnsville.

In Tuesday's action Falkner was scheduled against Kossuth and West

Union met Baldwin's eighth grade girls for the two eighth grade girls outings and in the eighth grade boys bracket, Wheeler's boys faced Corinth while Thrasher and New Albany collided.

In ninth grade boys action Tuesday, New Site and Blue Mountain met and Corinth and Falkner faced off.

There are only two ninth grade girls teams and they meet Wednesday at 7 p.m. Teams are Biggersville and Walnut.

Results of the Tuesday games were not available at presstime. Finals were slated for Wednesday night and they were not available.

The sad part in this game is that several key players will graduate. Northeast has some solid performers on this year's ballclub and their presence will indeed be missed next year.

In Tuesday's scoring column Northeast and Region Seven scoring leader Maurice Stafford paced the Tiger Brigade with 17 points followed by Ralph Griffin with 13, Stanley Carter with 12 and Anthony Anderson with 10.

The Tigers finish the '82 season with a 26-5 overall record and a host of accomplishments almost too numerous to mention.

CARD OF THANKS IN APPRECIATION

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of her that day.
Perhaps you prepared some tasty food,
Or maybe furnished a car.
Perhaps you rendered a service,
Unseen near or from afar.
Perhaps you said a lovely prayer
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a card or flowers,
If so they were appreciated there.
Whatever you did to console her heart
We thank you so much what ever the part.
A special thanks to each doctor, nurse, minister and McMillan Funeral home.
May God bless each and every one of you.

By LADY BLUE SURF

Our sympathy goes out to Blue Lady and Hauler due to the death of Lee Cunningham.

Tobacco Man says to never wave at someone on stage when they wave at you during an auction. You might find yourself with an $11 cake!

Happy birthday to the Bull on March 1 and to Tic Tock on March 3. We hope each of you have a nice day and enjoy many more.

All members who have vests that are not monogrammed should bring their vests to the next social. White Girl can get them monogrammed for $12.50 each.

Telephone Man's family, Blue Surf's family, Termite, Brass Monkey and Butterbean Lady all enjoyed a night out at Passeur's Fish Houses.

Happy Anniversary to Hauler and White Girl on March 1, and to Double R and Lady R on March 2. We hope each of you had a nice day and enjoy many more

At FLBA Meeting

Prichard, Smith Elected To Offices

Dr. Frank Pollard, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio, Texas, was the featured speaker at the annual meeting of Stockholders of the Federal Land Bank Association of Tupelo.

He spoke to 275

stockholders who attended the meeting held at the Ramada Inn Convention Center Friday, Feb. 26.

D.H. Prichard of Prentiss County was re-elected to the Association's board of directors to serve a three-year term. Ralph Smith of Prentiss County was elected as a stockholders representative and Mike Mask of Lee County was chosen as an alternate.

Billv Campbell of Itawamba County, Frazier Coleman of Alcorn County, and Glen Harris of Lee County were elected to serve as the nominating committee for the upcoming year. Amy Burks of Tippah County and W.H. Martin of Itawamba County were elected to serve as alternate members of this committee.

The FLBA of Tupelo has $59,135.39 outstanding in long-term mortgage loans to farmers and rural home owners in the counties of Alcorn, Lee, Itawamba, Pontotoc, Prentiss, Tippah, Tishomingo, and Union.

Loan funds are obtained from the Federal Land Bank of New Orleans, a participant in the bond sales to the investing public.

Dr. Simpson Attends Meeting

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Simpson of Booneville attended the Southern Council of Optometrists' Educational Congress at the Atlanta Hilton in Atlanta, Ga., on Feb. 24-28.

This is said to be the world's largest optometric meeting. There were more than 2,000 optometrists in attendance to hear educators from all over the United States and several foreign countries.

With the theme, "Excellence in Education, Pride in your Profession," the Southern Educational Congress of Optometry keyed on the critical issue of continued proficiency in the vision care field.

Lecturers indicated that optometrists, in meeting the challenges of the future, must not only enhance their ability to provide the best health care, but their training and education must also outfit them for advancement into new areas of expertise that arise daily through scientific and technical advances.

Dr. Simpson attended courses on the latest developments in the contact lens field, as well as lectures on the newest methods of prescribing prisms in eyeglasses for school children with focusing problems.

Mrs. Alloyce Simpson attended ladies' auxiliary functions, visited exhibitors and studied frame styling in conjunction with other fashion fields such as hair styling, cosmetics and textiles. The theme was "Being Attractive, Staying Attractive."

from the office of:
JOHN R. WHITE, O.D.

SEEING AND LEARNING

Vision is never more important than in the first 12 years of a child's life. According to professionals about 80 percent of all learning in those years is accomplished through seeing. The child has to be able to see well to study the world around him, to read, and to protect himself.

How can you tell if your child has a problem with his vision? Does he tilt his head to one side when looking at someone or something? Maybe he is seeing better with one eye than the other. Does he put his head close to a book when he's reading? This may be a sign of near-sightedness.

Have you noticed him blinking often or rubbing his eyes? Does he complain of headaches? These are telltale signs that he may be having problems with his vision. And remember, mom, it's pretty hard to come home with a good report card if you can't see the blackboard.

For answers to your specific questions regarding vision, Dr. White invites you to call his Booneville office

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Peace Found In A Dedicated Prayer Life

By Larry E Hill
Scripture: Isaiah 1:13-16

Beautiful concepts have been written about prayer and its meaning, its obligations, and its privileges. There is scarcely a devotional book that does not dedicate some portion of its discussion to the theme. Poets have described it in its mystical aspects as climbing the altar stairs through the darkness up to God. Philosophers have called it the breath of the soul. One housewife in a practical sense said it was walking with God among the pots and pans. Another said "Prayer is the key in the hand of faith to unlock heaven's storehouse." And yet books, and poems, and prophecies idealizing prayer notwithstanding the professed christian world, is suffering from spiritual-nearsightedness.

The trouble is that what the human heart needs in these days of stress and strain is not so much DEFINITION of PRAYER as PRACTICE of IT. The oriental religionist writes his prayer on a scrap of paper and twirls it in a prayer wheel, hoping for forgiveness of his sin through mechanical repetition. The adherent to modern ritualistic religion pays his money that prayers might be said for him, thus putting his soul's good on the basis of barter and exchange. The busy, respectable, professing christian says his hurried prayers morning and evening, after reading a certain number of bible texts, and puts his trust for salvation in a sort of religious calisthenics. But prayer as a mere form is exceedingly offensive to God, as are all other examples of insincerity in the life.

This is not the way of peace. Jesus demonstrated the path to peace and power in the regularity of his seasons of prayer. After long hours of secret devotion, he came forth in the power of the spirit.

A successful prayer life costs something. We cannot have spiritual health if we bolt our prayers any more than if we bolt our food. Spiritual weakness will surely be the result of hurried prayers that are only incidental instead of fundamental to the life. A true prayer experience makes his will our will.

In prayer from the heart, not words only, but the heartbeat of a person, will open the windows of heaven to the believer. "Ask and ye shall receive." We ask through prayer.
