Fire Hydrant Vandals Waste City Water

About 623,000 gallons of water has been wasted in Booneville because vandals opened fire hydrants in the city and left them running.

According to Booneville Mayor Charles Crabb, this is not only costly to city residents, but also dangerous. After one of the incidents, water pressure was almost nonexistent, he said. "If there had been a fire, I don't know what we would have done."

The first incident occurred Dec. 22 at fire hydrants on Wickwood Drive and on Third Street. Some 273,000 gallons of water was wasted, according to the city water department.

The most recent incident happened Monday night of last week on Dogwood Stand Road. About 350,000 gallons of water went through the fire hydrant before it was turned off by city officials.

"It's expensive to treat the water to begin with," City Clerk June Hutcheson stressed Wednesday. "It also endangers people's lives and property because if there had been a fire there wouldn't have been enough water pressure."

City officials say that unauthorized subjects opening city fire hydrants will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Crabb said the city is following up some leads on the earlier incidents.

Low Power TV May Come To Booneville

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

A new Booneville TV station could soon be a reality, if everything goes according to the plans of a Laurel businessman who operates a company that has applied to the Federal Communications Commission for a permit to construct a low power television station in Booneville.

Vincent Casey, general manager of Free State Broadcasting of Laurel, Miss., confirmed to The Banner-Independent Tuesday night that "we are going to put in a low power TV station in Booneville as soon as we get the construction permit." Exactly when that approval may come is another matter. "That's between the good Lord and the FCC," Casey said.

Ever since the FCC began accepting applications for low power TV stations, there has been a backlog of applications from around the country, causing approval to usually be long in coming.

But, Casey appears optimistic. He says approval "could be tomorrow."

"There was a cutoff date Jan. 14," he said, "and we've been anticipating hearing from the FCC momentarily."

He added that the Booneville application should be "up front there somewhere." The application was filed May 22, 1982.

'There's no question about getting one. It's just a question of when.'

"One of our associates is handling 76 percent of the low power television applications in the country," he said. "And they've never had a refusal, so there's no question about getting one. It's just a question of when."

"The seed money is there," he continued. "It (the permit) is paid for; the venture money is promised; so we're about ready to go as soon as we can."

According to the permit filed by Free State Broadcasting, the Booneville station, if approved, will operate on Channel 53 with a transmitter power of 100 watts.

Casey said the station should have a range of up to 40 miles, depending on terrain.

"Actually 'low power' is very deceptive," he said. "Even high power stations have limitations. The FM signal is a horizon signal and you lose audio unless you put in translators. That's the reason some of the high power stations are getting out a littler farther -- because of their translators."

Casey declined to discuss specifics as to what type of programming would be available if the station should begin operation.

"That's a confidential matter, because we do have competitors that are interested in our programming concept," he said. "I can tell you that we have secured 18 hours of programming, have committed for it, and it'll be entertaining. And, we are going to be community minded."

If channel 53 becomes a reality, it will be Booneville's second TV station. WMAE, an affiliate of Mississippi Educational Television, currently broadcasts on channel 12 in Booneville.

However, there is no local programming on Channel 12. It serves as a relay station for educational programming originating in Jackson, Miss, and through the Public Broadcasting System.

Teachers, Classmates Are Seeing Double

If Doublemint gum needs twins for their chewing gum commercials they should visit New Site High School. There are four sets of twins attending high school there.

Three of the sets of twins are identical -- the other set is fraternal.

The identical twins are Bonnie and Connie Hunter, seniors, daughters of Bonnie and Jim Hunter of Route 5, Booneville; Delinda Carver, a sophomore, and Peggy Carver Wisniewski, a junior, daughters of Betty Johnson of Burton and the late Curtis Johnson; and Darlene and Dawn King, freshmen, daughters of Christine Pharr of Marietta and Travis King.

The fraternal twins are Jerry and Terry Peeks, a sophomore and a freshman, respectively. They are the sons of Walter and Ruby Peeks of Route 5, Booneville.

When meeting the twins in person it is easy to understand why some people think they're seeing double when they see the high school students.

The youngest set of twins, Darlene and Dawn, look the most alike. The fraternal twins, Jerry and Terry, bear the least resemblance to each other.

The Hunter and Carver twins say their personalities are so different they can't fool many people. One of the Carver twins, Peggy, is married.

The Hunter twins said that when they were the same age as the King twins they resembled each other more than they do now.

Having a look-alike affords them many opportunities to "trick" people -- teachers included. Darlene and Dawn have been known to switch study halls occasionally.

But sometimes people confuse Dawn and Darlene with each other by accident. There are times when even their boyfriends get them confused, they said.

"Sometimes people have told me I'm stuck-up because I didn't wave at them. But it was really Darlene they saw and she didn't know who the person was that was waving," Dawn said.

All the twins agreed they are accustomed to being called the wrong name. "We answer to anything -- from 'Hey you' to 'Hey twin'," laughs Darlene.

"Being called the wrong name doesn't bother you after while," Dawn added. "But sometimes after being called 'Darlene' so much I wonder if my name really isn't 'Darlene'."

Connie and Bonnie, who are both cheerleaders for the New Site Royals, say they are so much alike that

Sunday Morning Fire Takes One Life

E.E. Gambill, 83, of Route 4, Booneville, died Sunday morning of smoke inhalation after a couch in his bedroom caught fire from an electric heater, according to Deputy Joe Shackelford.

A large electric heater was turned facing the couch and resting against the couch in Gambill's bedroom, Shackelford said. The couch apparently ignited and began burning, he said.

Although the couch was burned badly the room never ignited, he said.

"The bedroom was scorched and the paneling and ceiling were blistered," Shackelford said. "A picture above the fireplace mantle had melted and the window shades had melted.

"It was the strangest thing I ever saw," Shackelford commented. "I can't imagine why a room had so much heat without bursting into flames."

The bedroom door was closed, he said.

A wall clock which had fallen to the floor had stopped at 5:45, the deputy said.

Gambill lived alone. He was found by his son, Edward, who extinguished the couch fire, Shackelford said.

Gambill was found sitting on the edge of his bed, slumped over, facing the wall, he said.

A coroner's inquest determined that Gambill died of smoke inhalation, Prentiss County Coroner James Horn said.

Gambill was a Baptist and a retired farmer.

Services were held Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 1 p.m. at McMillan Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. James Strange and Bro. Tamar Davis officiating. Burial was in Hodges Chapel Cemetery. He is survived by a son, Edward Gambill of Booneville; three sisters, Mrs. Buena Hathcock of Guntown, Mrs. Emma Kate Edge of Booneville and Mrs. Dollie Gumm of Baldwin; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

For Area To Prosper

Economist Calls For High Technology Training

By KEN CHRISTIAN
Editor

Speaking to a group of Northeast Mississippi bankers at Northeast Junior College Tuesday night, an economist with the Mississippi Research and Development Center reiterated what many other state leaders are predicting: If Northeast Mississippi -- and the rest of the state -- are going to grow economically, then more high technology training is going to have to be made available to the people of the area.

In his economic forecast to members of the Northeast Mississippi Chapter of the Bank Administration Institute, Phil Pepper, manager of the Economic Analysis Division of the Mississippi R&D Center, said that, because of the present state of the economy, he does not foresee any significant growth in manufacturing employment in Northeast Mississippi for a couple of years.

After that time, he said, things should improve. But, he added, Northeast Mississippi "needs to get away from the more intensive labor industries and look at high technology areas." The reason for this, he said, is that the United States cannot compete with many foreign countries when it comes to providing cheap labor.

Japan can provide cheaper labor, he said, but most of Japan's high technology is imported from the U.S.

PEPPER SAID there are three broad stages of economic development: first comes agriculture, then manufacturing, and finally the service oriented industries.

"We (Mississippi) came out of the agriculture stage in the 1960's," he said, "and are now in the manufacturing stage. During a recession, manufacturing is hurt the most."

Twenty-eight percent of the jobs in Mississippi are in manufacturing, Pepper said. Nationally, the figure is 21 percent.

"We've been hurt more by the recession than the rest of the nation," he said. And, Northeast Mississippi has been hurt more than the rest of the state, he added.

The R&D Center economist predicted that for the next three years Mississippi will continue to have an unemployment rate higher than the national rate. He also forecast that Northeast Mississippi will have a higher rate than any other region in the state.

However, he said, once recovery begins, Northeast Mississippi should recover faster and have a higher growth rate than the rest of the state.

IN LOOKING AT the state's economic picture, Pepper said, you also have to look at the outlook for the nation as a whole. He said the nation has been in a recession since July 1981 and has not really shown any significant economic growth since 1979.

He said the recovery is slow in coming because of three things: high interest rates, lack of consumer spending, and a decrease in exports.

In recessions of the past, "consumer spending has pulled us out," Pepper said. "But now people are saving money instead of spending it."

"Everything is in place for the consumer to spend us out of the recession," Pepper said. But, despite the fact that prime lending rates have dropped recently, "the consumer is looking at the real cost of borrowing money."

Pepper says he thinks there will continue to be a trend on the part of consumers toward more saving. This means the nation will be slower in coming out of this recession than was the case during recessions of the past.

On the other hand, stock market activity and housing starts preceed a recovery, he said, and this trend is currently underway. "I think recovery is underway now, but it will be slow this time," he said.

He predicted that by 1984 growth in the Gross National Product will only have reached 4-5 percent and that unemployment, currently around 10 percent, will still be in the 9 percent range.

"Interest rates are a critical point for Mississippi," Pepper said. "I'm looking for the interest rates to drop one-half percent at a time. I'm looking for the prime interest rate to bottom out at 10 percent in June-August of this year."

Inflation has dropped from a high of 13 percent to the current rate of about 5 percent, Pepper pointed out. As long as inflation remains low, he said, interest rates should continue to drop or at least remain constant.

However, he said, if the inflation rate starts back up, interest rates will also probably begin to rise again.

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland, my pastor told me that in Acts 2:38 where you have the pronoun "ye" and the pronoun "every one of you" that these pronouns refer to different people because one is plural and the other is singular, is this correct?

WARD HOGLAND

ANSWER: Your pastor is correct in saying one of the pronouns is singular and the other is plural. However, he is incorrect in saying they do not refer to the same people. Peter said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins." It is true that "ye" is second person plural and "every one" is third person singular. However, you must understand that "every one of you" includes the same number of people as "ye". As a matter of fact "every one of you" is used in apposition to "ye". The expression "every one of you" is from the Greek ekastos and according to Joseph Henry Thayer one of the great lexicographers of our time this word ekastos, "When it denotes individually, every one of many, is often added appositively to nouns and pronouns and verbs in the plural number." (page 192, Greek English lexicon). So Mr. Thayer says "every one" is often added appositively to plural pronouns! So the phrase "for the remission of sins" modifies both verbs. It is sometime argued that one group had to repent and another group had to be baptized, this is incorrect. These people were told to BOTH repent and be baptized for the remission of sins.

Baldwyn Hospital To Be Part Of 'Swing Bed' Demo Project

Thanks to a $86,750 grant to the North Mississippi Medical Center, the Baldwyn unit of the hospital should soon become one of four hospitals in Mississippi and one of 25 nationwide to serve as demonstration projects for something called the Swing Bed Program.

The Swing-Bed approach to hospitalization allows the hospital to "swing" a portion of its acute care beds to a lower level of medical nursing supervision.

This will allow some of the beds to be utilized for care similar to that received in nursing homes. If the need for nursing and medical supervision should change, services could be provided again at the acute care level.

According to Eddie Foster, assistant administrator of the North Mississippi Medical Center, the Swing-Bed program will permit a patient to remain close to home and still receive needed skilled nursing services. He said the program will complement nursing homes in the area.

"It will provide a transition between acute care and nursing home care, as well as enhance the transition between acute care and discharge back to the patient's home," Foster said.

"This will promote continuity of care for the patient," he said. "This program will benefit many elderly patients, the Baldwyn hospital and the community."

The $86,750 grant to NMMC was awarded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

"The intent of the swing-bed concept is to increase long-term care services in rural areas where a shortage of nursing home beds is often paralleled by vacant hospital beds," said Dr. David E. Rogers, president of the Johnson Foundation.

"By enabling hospitals to care for long-term patients, elderly patients and their families can avoid the inconvenience of dislocation that result from being forced to find care in distant communities," he said.

"The swing-bed program will allow the rural hospitals to improve the utilization of their inpatient beds, which can improve their financial picture which is important to their communities economically as well as medically."

According to Foster, only hospitals of less than 50 beds are eligible for a Johnson Foundation grant.

The grant money will be used to enhance the social services function of the Baldwyn unit, implement a volunteer services program, enhance the physical and rehabilitative services by acquisition of additional physical therapy equipment, and provide comprehensive training programs for the entire staff which will be delivering services to the elderly patients, he said.

The program at Baldwyn will begin Jan. 17 with employment of a project director, Foster said. The first patient will be admitted after certification is received from Medicare, is anticipated around March 1.

Interest Rates Reduced

TVA has lowered from 14 percent to 11.5 percent the annual interest rate charged to residential consumers for new interest-bearing loans under "The Energy Package" for home weatherization, heat pumps, wood heaters, solar water heaters, and heat pump water heaters. The change is effective Jan. 15.

The program still allows TVA power distributors to provide consumers up to $1,200 interest free. After the first $1,200 in loan funds are used, consumers may borrow up to an additional $3,800 at TVA's average cost of money.

"The reduction reflects our lower cost of borrowing money," said Robert C. Steffy Jr., TVA Director of Energy Conservation and Rates. "The lower rates should be a further incentive for consumers to conserve electricity."

Commercial and industrial customers installing energy conservation measures through TVA's Energy Management Program also can obtain loans at 11.5 percent.

TVA periodically reviews the interest rates which apply to conservation loans and adjusts them to reflect actual and anticipated interest rates TVA incurs in borrowing money.

For additional information on the TVA energy conservation program contact the Prentiss County Electric Power Association.

they even think alike. They say that when a teacher asks a question in class they will often respond with the same answer.

On one occasion Bonnie and Connie wanted to stay out late. Connie called their mother to tell her they would be home a little later and then in a few minutes, Bonnie called their mother, too, without knowing her twin had already called.

The senior twins and the freshmen twins are close friends. The older Hunter twin and the older King twin even seem to have similar personalities as do the younger twins in both sets, Bonnie says.

The Hunter twins were born four minutes apart; the Peeks twins, three minutes; the Carver twins, two minutes; and the King twins, six minutes apart.

The twins' birth was quite a surprise for Darlene and Dawn's mother, they said, because the doctors had not told her she was going to have twins.

When the Peeks twins are asked who is the oldest, Jerry grins, "I say I'm the oldest but Terry was born first."

But there is one thing all the twins agree with - they definitely like being a twin.

'Talk O' The Town'

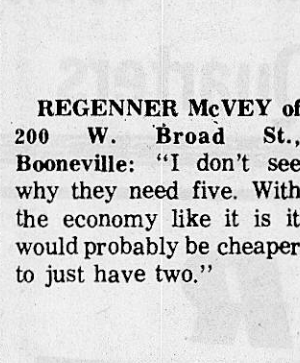

Street Opinion

QUESTION: Do you think it will be better having two justice court judges instead of five?

NOEL BUMPERS of 200 Chambers St., Booneville: "They should keep the number they have. I think it's better having five but I really haven't thought much about it."

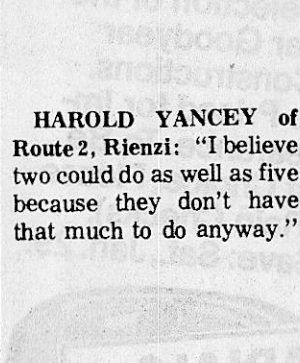

NELMA ADAMS of 101 Cole St., Booneville: "Five justice court judges seems like too many to me - a waste. I think having two will be better. It will cut down on their pay."

REGENNER McVEY of 200 W. Broad St., Booneville: "I don't see why they need five. With the economy like it is it would probably be cheaper to just have two."

MIKE ADAMS of Route 3, Rienzi: "It depends on whether two justice court judges can do the job of five. I don't see why we should have five if two can do the job."

HAROLD YANCEY of Route 2, Rienzi: "I believe two could do as well as five because they don't have that much to do anyway."

WADE OAKS of 105 N. Fifth St., Booneville: "I think it's better that we have two justice court judges. I don't think we have enough business for five."

(Editor's note: "Talk O' The Town" is not intended as a scientific poll of public opinion. Rather, it is simply intended to give Prentiss Countians an opportunity to voice their opinions on particular issues and topics. Maybe we'll ask you next!)

Hands Down

I guess I'll always miss the Kuhn's and Ben Franklin's stores.

Sure Booneville has other nice stores, but every now and then when I walk down Main Street or West Market Street where those stores were located in uptown Booneville, I wish they were still open.

But that can't be. The Kuhn's and Ben Franklin's stores of Booneville are gone forever. All that's left are the memories of the merchandise those stores contained.

It probably wasn't true, but I always liked to believe that the first Ben Franklin store was opened by that great American of the same name who liked to fly kites in stormy weather.

The Ben Franklin store had one item I'll never forget - a rubber hand which looked life-like. It was so gruesome looking it even scared me.

Now why would anyone want something like that? I didn't know either until some friends and I purchased one.

We took it back to Thrasher School and hid the hand in our English teacher's desk drawer.

For some reason when Charlette Williams opened her desk drawer she was extremely surprised to find a hand laying on top of her grade book.

If you happened to be outside Prentiss County that day you probably heard her when she saw the hand.

But I have to admit she was a good sport about it. We only had to read "The Scarlet Letter" four times.

Now I don't know for sure, but I always suspected Mrs. Williams was secretly relieved when Ben Franklin's closed. Then she knew her students wouldn't be buying anymore "hands."

The Prince Cemetery

The Banner-Independent recently received a letter from Lois Prince of Las Vegas, Nev., telling us the history concerning the Prince Cemetery.

The Prince Cemetery is located seven miles northwest of Booneville on what is now the L.A. Tigrett farm.

During the Civil War William Prince and his wife, Mary Patton Prince, sat down to rest under an oak tree. He told his wife that when he died he wanted to be buried underneath that oak tree.

When Prince died his wife followed his wishes and buried him there. Other members of the family buried there include Frank Prince, Adline King Prince, Mrs. Francis Ann Prince Lauderdale and Mary Patton Prince.

Unfortunately in 1920 the big oak tree was blown down during a storm. But, Mrs. Prince writes, there are still many cedar trees at the Prince Cemetery.

Gas Tax Funds May Be Hard For This Area To Get

By BILLY McCOY
District III
Prentiss and Alcorn
Counties

The week of Jan. 10 saw the pace of legislative progress began to quicken for the 1983 session. Several important bills were passed by each the House and Senate and sent to the other body for consideration.

Both the House and Senate passed their own versions of an Open Records Law for public bodies in Mississippi. These bills provide access by any person to the records of all public bodies of government and require that standard procedures be established by all such bodies by which persons may become aware of their rights to examine and copy public records.

However, there is a substantial list of exceptions to the records which must be made public. Exceptions such as individual tax payments, individual hospital records, academic test questions and answers, personnel records and applications for employment by public bodies, are among the many stated exceptions to the law.

With the inclusion of these exceptions I was able to vote for the bill. Upon final passage of an Open Records Bill, Mississippi will remove from itself the stigma of being the only state without such a workable law.

As a member of the House

Highways Committee, I attended a joint meeting of the House and Senate Highways Committees in which we were given a briefing concerning additional highway money Mississippi will receive due to the recent five cents per gallon increase in Federal taxes on gasoline.

Apparently Mississippi will receive well in excess of $200 million during the next four years with about $60 million coming during the next fiscal year.

These new funds have been earmarked by the U.S. Congress with different amounts going to specific highway funds.

Bridge repair and renovation of the interstate system is high on the list. Despite the fact the increases will come to the primary highways and rural secondary roads, North Mississippi (especially Northeast Mississippi) will again be hard pressed to secure its share of these additional dollars.

The reason is simple - we have no interstate roads to repair. It is ironic that with the priority system now existing in the Mississippi Highway Department, we find four-lane highways in other areas of the state being resurfaced and widened for additional lanes before Northeast Mississippi has one complete four-lane highway.

The chairman of the House Highways Committee is Rep. John Pennebaker of New Albany and serving with him are several other Northeast Mississippi Representatives. So far as the influence of this committee is concerned we are doing our best to see that the highway needs of Northeast Mississippi receive their fair share of all available revenue.

There is substantial support in the Legislature this year to increase the penalties for driving under the influence of alcohol. I have co-sponsored some bills which speak to the ever increasing problem of drunk drivers.

Hopefully this session will produce a bill which will further deter those who insist on drinking and driving.

Brown Family Expresses Thanks

Dear Editor,

My family and I would like to express our deep appreciation for all the help and kindness shown us over the past 21 months by the people of Prentiss County. We thank everyone for the prayers, food, flowers, money and cards.

With love,
Steven V. Brown

(The body of Steve Brown was discovered by a hunter last month in a gully in a wooded area near Falkner. An autopsy report indicated Brown was killed by a bullet to the head. A massive campaign had been launched by family and friends to discover what had happened to the youth, who had disappeared 21 months earlier. A former companion of Brown's has been arrested in connection with his death. - Ed.)

'IT'D BE CHEAPER TO BUILD A FENCE AROUND EVERYBODY THAT'S NOT A CRIMINAL!'

Local Involvement Is Key To Better Education

By PAUL MILLER
Publisher

You don't have to be an avid football fan to have absorbed enough of the recent hullabaloo over Bear Bryant's retirement from Alabama to know that he was the winningest football coach of all time.

But what you might not know unless you are a devoted fan and over 25, is that only a dozen years ago there was a movement among alumni to fire Bryant because he had just completed his two most disastrous seasons since returning to coach at Alabama in 1958.

Bryant was unhappy and knew some drastic changes must be made.

He discarded the pass-oriented offense, installed the wishbone formation, and the rest is history.

Alabama became the winningest team of the 1970's and the only college team to ever win more than 100 games in a single decade. It also allowed Bryant to achieve his "unattainable" record of 323 lifetime victories.

Prentiss County (and the state of Mississippi) are now facing a dilemma similar to the one Bryant faced some 12 years ago. If we are to prosper in the future, changes must be made now.

Harry Martin, executive secretary of Tupelo's Community Development Foundation, spelled out some of the area's problems in an address to the Booneville Rotary Club recently.

Martin says we are at a historical crossroads and must make changes in the educational process now to provide the skilled people any industry coming into our area will need.

According to Martin, qualifications for an industrial job only a few years ago were: he is good old boy, he is a family man with children, he needs a job to support his family, and he has high moral standards.

But this is no longer true, Martin says. The service and industrial communities are now in the midst of a technological revolution and specific skills are required for most jobs on today's market.

According to Martin, all industry is now saying, "We must have different products in human resources than is being delivered. What are you going to do about it?"

And Martin says educators will say, "You are against us. We have some of the best educational programs in America."

True. But the programs are still not what they must be, because we haven't assumed the responsibility of giving education what it needs to train people the way they must be trained. Our greatest liability is our inability to train people for the jobs they must do. And according to Martin we are now, for the first time in our history, graduating students from high school who are less skilled than their parents.

So what is needed to reverse the trend?

First, all children must be taught the basics - how to read and write so we don't continue to offer the job market college graduates who are functionally illiterate.

Second, more and better instruction in math and the sciences must be available to all students during every school term.

And third, we must offer more technical training and make it available to all students wanting it.

A start has been made. The new state education bill could help with the basics. But state and federal agencies cannot do the entire job. Most of it must be done locally.

And a start has even been made there. The Prentiss County Vocational School now has in operation six micro-computers to train its students. And the most encouraging note is that only one of these computers came from the state of Mississippi. The other five were bought and paid for with funds raised locally by the staff of the school.

YOU became involved. YOU helped buy those computers because you knew they were necessary to train our young people for today's job market.

That's a start, but more must be done.

Martin thinks the present 11 percent unemployment rate goes deeper than an economic recession. It is his opinion that we are in a technological and human resources recession that is causing us to lose jobs to foreign countries. Not just because of cheap labor, but because those countries are offering the skills needed in today's marketplace.

And, he says if the trend continues, the unemployment rate might never drop below 10 percent.

But he's wrong about Prentiss County. The desire, the leadership, and the resources are here to make Prentiss County a winning team. All it takes is leadership and total local involvement.

What was good enough for you might be good enough for your children, but without the education they need and deserve, we will be giving them far less than we ever had.

Let's give them more computers to teach our kids a skill. And more of whatever else it takes to prepare them to earn a living the only way they will be able to do it in today's tough world.

Let's give them ourselves by becoming involved in improving their opportunities in Prentiss County.

Mrs. Peeler Addresses Local UDC Club

The D.T. Beall Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy met Wednesday, Jan. 12, at 3:30 p.m. in the Hospitality Room of the Frank Haney Union at Northeast Junior College. Mrs. Richard Kemp and Mrs. Patsy Johnson were hostesses. They served dessert during the social hour.

Mrs. A.L. Tidwell, president, opened the meeting with the UDC ritual followed by the pledge to the flags led by Mrs. Allie Miller Isbell.

Mrs. Kemp introduced Mrs. Louise Peeler who was the speaker for the program. Mrs. Peeler spoke about Lieutenant General Thomas Johnathan "Stonewall" Jackson.

Jackson was born Jan. 21, 1824, in Clarksburg, Va. He was of English and Scots-Irish stock. He was from a family who had an independent spirit, devotion to family and sense of duty. This combination of traits earned him the title of "Stonewall."

He played an important part in the War Between the States and participated in many of the battles during the struggle.

He married Elinor Jenkin. She died 14 months after their marriage in childbirth which was a great loss to him. He was a very devout man in the Presbyterian faith and accepted the loss of his wife as God's will. He later had a second marriage to Mary Anne Morrison. They had one child, a daughter who brightened his life and especially the later part of it. General Lee especially appreciated the leadership of Jackson as did Congress when they officially recognized his brigade as the "Stonewall Brigade."

Jackson died from pneumonia and is buried in Lexington Cemetery in Virginia.

Mrs. Eugenia Fareese was a guest at the UDC meeting.

Junior Auxiliary Is Planning Four 'Super Saturdays'

The Booneville Junior Auxiliary says it has the answer for those students with the "nothing-to-do-on-Saturday" syndrome.

They are sponsoring four Super Saturday sessions dealing with topics of special interest to students in that age group.

The sessions will be from 10 a.m. to noon in the George E. Allen library on four consecutive mornings beginning Jan. 29. Each will feature a guest speaker and refreshments.

On Saturday, Jan. 29, Mrs. Frances Green will present a program on babysitting. Mrs. Sarah Hunt Martin will give a program on cake decorating the following Saturday, Feb. 5.

On Feb. 12, Mrs. Deanna Burress's program will be on speed reading. Doug Holland will speak of the "Pros of Pageantry" at the final session, on Feb. 19.

Co-chairmen of the Super Saturday Committee are Angie Via, Cindy Lott and Cathy Hatcher.

County Agent's Report

By W.H. HADEN

PIMIENTO PEPPER PROGRAM

Pomona Products Company of Griffin, Ga., has for several years offered contracts to Prentiss County people to grow pimiento pepper. The company has changed its policies for the past growing season and for this year. The company has imposed a limit on how many acres of pimiento pepper Prentiss County people can grow. There were more requests for acres than was available last year and will probably be the same this year. At this time, I have had no contact from Pomona products.

All decisions on who gets a contract, how many acres they can grow are made by company people. For further information contact Hoyt Stricklen at 427-8289.

Your county Extension office can give you up to date information on production practices, insect control and assist you with fertilizer recommendations.

CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE

Sometime around the end of the year or early next year, you may be receiving a 1982 Census of Agriculture form. Don't throw it away -- response to this census is required by law, and it's confidential.

Every household in Prentiss County which conducts agricultural operations will receive a copy of the form which requests information about basic agricultural items. Another 20 percent will receive additional questions with the form.

The last agricultural census was taken in 1978. Although the census is usually done every five years, officials have moved it up a year to put the census on the same cycle with other economic censuses starting in 1982.

The information asked for in the census is vitally important. It is the sole source of uniform agricultural data available for the nation's 3,100 counties. The information from the census is used in almost all agricultural planning and decision-making.

Information in the census will provide a detailed account of the situation facing American agriculture and the troubles of the U.S. farm population. The information is important to the nation's policymakers, farm supply and marketing firms as well as farmers themselves.

Information from individual farmers will be kept confidential. The information will be summarized for each county, state and for the entire nation. The forms are to be returned by mid-February, and the results are expected to be available by next fall.

TWENTY HINTS FOR 4-H CLUB OFFICERS

4-H officers can be the most important people in a 4-H club. They set the tone for a club that carries through to the newest member.

In general terms, the duties of a club officer are:

(1) to guide and encourage fellow members, (2) to help plan club activities, and (3) to attend all meetings and help fellow members (or leaders).

How to be a successful club officer:

Respect the feeling of others. Their help is not only desirable but it's vital for the club's future.

A word of praise or thanks goes a long way.

Greet everybody (by name, if possible) whether they are members or guests. If you're being introduced to someone, repeat his name. You'll be sure to remember the next time you meet him.

Be a good listener. You may solve problems before they get started and people will appreciate your interest.

Take all the opportunities you get to represent your club at meetings of other clubs or other organizations.

Be sincere in your actions and sympathetic toward the problems of your club members.

Maintain your enthusiasm. Don't be disheartened by disappointments.

Ask "Will you...?" instead of ordering fellow members around.

Keep your temper. If you lose it, you've lost control of the situation.

Encourage and invite suggestions from members. Encouraging personal interest in the club makes everyone feel responsible for the club's success.

Encourage pride in the club. You are the best advertisement for 4-H.

Keep the public aware of your club's activities.

Discourage complaints and gossip by encouraging members to air their views at club meetings.

Be on time for meetings and try your best to attend all of them.

Give special attention to new members. Make sure they meet people and are encouraged to take part.

Plan the club program well in advance and in detail. Give every member a part to play in carrying it out.

Keep meetings short and bright.

Be familiar with the purpose and objectives of your club. Do you know why you're a member? Could you explain it to someone else?

Handle all of your correspondence as soon as possible to keep your organization running smoothly.

Recipe For Pizza: Get The Stuff Out And Cook It

It's always interesting to find out how children think their favorite recipes are prepared. The children at Jane Phillips' kindergarten were recently asked "What is your favorite food and how do you fix it?"

Jason L. -- Spinach and spaghetti and rolls. Spinach is my favorite. The way my mother fixes it -- boil it -- just boil it. That's all.

Raegan -- Spaghetti. Open package. Get spaghetti out of it. Cook it and put sauce on it.

Becky -- Cupcakes. Bake them and put icing on them. Then put them in an ice cream cone.

Malone -- Pizza. Put dough, cheese, meat and onions on dough. Put in the oven. Cook it and then eat it.

Jennie -- Cupcakes. I would put little dots on it and put glitter on it. Then put some frosty on it.

Shawn -- Cake. Strawberry cake. You are supposed to cook it. I would get some stuff and pour it in and cook it. Then put some icing on it and probably eat it.

Julie S. -- Cupcakes. I would put M&M's on it, and icing and cook them and eat it.

Jamie -- Hot dogs. Put water in it and put it on the stove and cook it.

Wesley -- Chicken. McDonalds.

Derrick -- Biscuit. Get the dough and roll it around and cook it. Eat with jelly.

Karla -- Carrots. Peel them up in little circles. Cook them and eat them.

John G. -- Pizza. Get the stuff and cook it.

Michelle -- Apples. Cut and cook them. Add cinnamon.

Bonnie -- Hotdogs. Boil them in a pan. Then you put them on the stove and get them off the stove and put them in a bun.

Stephen -- Apples. I eat them raw.

Michael -- Apples. Peel it and eat it.

Christopher -- Hot dogs. Pickles and mustard. Get the bottle and get it out of the jar. Put it in a little bit of water.

Tom -- Oranges. Cut it and eat it.

Lisa -- Pizza. First I would cut it up in little triangle-like shapes and then I'd cook it. It would already have the stuff on it.

Vince -- Oranges. Slice it. Eat it.

Chris M. -- Beans. Get a bowl and put them on the table.

Jessica -- Kinds of meat and stuff. First, get it out and take it out and put in a pan and cook it in the stove. Take it out and eat it.

Amy -- Green beans. I would put salt and some kinds of stuff in it and start to eating.

Georgiana -- Soup. Make it. Put water in it. Eat it.

Chris O. -- Pizza. I don't know.

John E. -- Eggs. Well, I eat them with a fork. My mama helps me. When Mama puts them on the table, I eat them.

Nancy -- Macaroni. Cook it with cheese. Eat it.

Lin -- Potatoes. Put it in oven. Cut it. Put butter on it and eat it.

Willie -- Peanut butter sandwich. Get two pieces of bread and a knife. Get a little bit of peanut butter and spread all around the bread.

Elizabeth -- Grapes. Wash them. Eat them.

Shelly -- Teacakes. You get some dough and roll it up and you put it in the oven and they get done.

Julie N. -- Carrots. Cook in a pot. Eat them.

Britt -- Cookies. Bake them. Then bring them to school.

Jason P. -- Peanut butter and jelly. Put jelly on and peanut butter and two pieces of bread.

Kelly -- Macaroni. Get it out and fix it.

Tracey -- Fish. Fix it crispy and with beans and peas. Make them soupy.

Hayden -- Macaroni and cheese. Make it the way it's supposed to be. Put some water in a pan. Pour the macaroni in and put it on the eye. I don't know what else.

GRAND OPENING -- Manager Paul Tronsor (above) was on hand to welcome customers to the grand opening last week of Worlds of Fun, a video arcade located at 715 N. College Street near Northeast Junior College. The owners say the arcade will offer a variety of strictly supervised family entertainment for all ages. One feature of the arcade will be Report Card Week when students will receive two free tokens for each A and one free token for each B on their report cards. Each token allows one free game on the video machine of their choice.

Devilettes Sport 19-1 Record

By CLIFF LONG
Sports Writer

Booneville High School's basketball teams have seen plenty of action since the county tourney.

The Devilettes have won all four of their games, giving them a 19-1 record thus far this season.

In boy's action, the Blue Devils have won only one game, dropping three close games.

Booneville's girls won a critical game Tuesday night, defeating Kossuth on their home court, 45-36. Although each team had only one loss going into the game, the Devilettes were considered underdogs.

Booneville's Kunshinge Sorrell was high scorer, dropping in 18 points. Sovena Harris and Michelle Young added 11 points each for Booneville, while Kim Bullard scored 17 for Kossuth.

The Booneville boys were not so fortunate against Kossuth. Booneville lost 60-55.

Coach Randall Downs attributed the loss at least in part to free throws. "They made 26 points from the free throw line and we only made three," he said.

Booneville's Larry Mackin and Kossuth's Keith

Mitchell tied for high score honors. Each dropped in 20 points. Booneville's Bernard Anderson scored 14 points and Victor Gardner 10.

Last week as the Blue Devils traveled to Ripley, the girls grabbed their 18th win of the season by whipping the Tigerettes, 54-41.

In their last confrontation with Ripley, the Devilettes escaped with only a two-point win, but with the help of Kushing Sorrell's 27 points, Booneville showed former coach Steven Jobe who was boss.

Ripley's Tigers overcame a four-point deficit with 30 seconds left on the clock to beat Booneville in boy's action, 55-50. With the help of a questionable charging call against Bernard Anderson late in the game, Ripley was able to escape with the win.

Larry Mackin hit 20 points and Victor Gardner 18 for Booneville. Booneville had a 25-22 halftime lead.

Pontotoc came to town on Friday and came up empty on both ends as the Devilettes won by a narrow 44-42 and the Blue Devils took a 51-50 edge.

Kushing Sorrell and Sovena Harris scored 18 points apiece to help Booneville hold on to the win by a slight two-point margin. Larry Mackin had 25 points to lead the Blue Devils to a one-point win over Pontotoc. Booneville led 24-18 at halftime, but Pontotoc picked up the pace in the second half and made a close call of it.

Senior point guard Bernard Anderson had 14 points in that game.

Booneville traveled to Alcorn Central Saturday night. The Devilettes had some trouble with Central, but, led by Kushing Sorrell's 29 points, Booneville was able to pull off a 41-36 win.

In boy's action, a very physical game saw Booneville lead until late in the game when Central went ahead and then put it in the freezer for the win.

Central won, 55-49 in a heated match-up between the two teams. Central coach Gerald Caveness said after the game that the officials allowed the game to get rough. He commented that he "was afraid somebody was going to get hurt."

TAKING TWO -- Surrounded by Aggiettes, Booneville's Sovena Harris tries for two points against in action Tuesday night in Kossuth. Harris and Michelle Young each scored 11 points for the Devilettes, who were paced by Kunshinge Sorrell with 18 points. (Photo by Cliff Long)

Baldwyn Was Winner

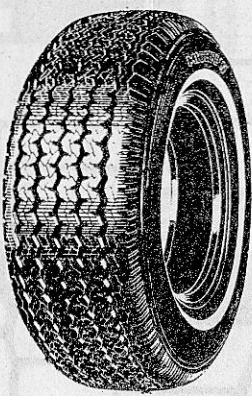

The headline on a story in last week's Banner-Independent about the Prentiss County Tournament incorrectly stated that the Booneville girls won top honors in the tournament.

As the story stated, Baldwyn's Lady Bearcats defeated the Devilettes 33-31 to take the county championship.

Roundball Roundup

Tourney Seedings Are At Stake

Victories will be precious commodities for the Prentiss County roundball exchange this week. On Saturday, the local coaches will meet in Tupelo to draw the district tournament brackets.

If the local clubs can add wins to their respective records this week, then it could make a big difference in the seeding situation.

Sam Richey, Wheeler mentor, explained, "We're 17-10 right now with three games to go before we draw up the brackets. There's a world of difference between 17-13 and 20-10. So, the games this week are very important."

Wheeler and Jumpertown, the top two clubs in 'B' last year, will play their district tournament in Amory. The 'BB' setup, featuring Baldwin, New Site, and Thrasher, will be played in Fulton at Itawamba Junior College. Baldwin and Thrasher finished one-two last year.

JUMPERTOWN (B)

The Cardinals improved their mark to 24-4 with a tough 64-56 verdict over hosting Wheeler. Jumpertown, for the second time this season, earned votes in the Jackson Clarion-Ledger's Top Ten basketball poll this week.

Perry Perrin, threw in 21 points, including 14 in the first quarter, to pace the Jumpertown attack. Ricky Burruss and Kevin Simmons added 14 points each to compliment a balanced Card attack.

The Lady Cards, despite 14 points from the versatile Tracie White, fell to 1-20 for the year in a 43-33 setback to their hosts.

Jumpertown figures to be the top seed in the district setup, as their overall mark leads the remaining district rivals. "It's going to be a tough district tournament," warned Guyton Wilkerson; whose club finished as the runner-up last year.

"Wheeler has won the district for the past couple of years and they will be tough," Wilkerson concluded, "West Clay played us tough last year and I hear Houlika and Hamilton have their best clubs in recent years."

Jumpertown plays Potts Camp at home on Tuesday night before hosting New Site on Friday night. A Saturday night home matchup features a visit from Burnsville to complete a busy week for Jumpertown.

NEW SITE (BB)

The importance of this week cannot be overemphasized in New Site's case. The Royals are sitting 9-14 as of the beginning of the week.

New Site hosts Pine Grove on Tuesday night before visiting Jumpertown on Friday night. On Saturday, the state's eighth-ranked team, Alcorn Central will play host to the Royals.

"We could help ourselves by winning this week," admitted Mackie Smith, New Site coach. "Right now, we could pick from the fifth position to the seventh position in a nine-team tournament."

Despite losing a 50-48 heartbreaker to Tishomingo, the Royals figure to have major input in the district war at Itawamba Junior College.

"The teams to beat are Belmont, Thrasher, Mooreville, and Baldwin," figured Smith. "Then, after those clubs, I think everybody else is just about even. So, we would like to have the fifth pick right now; but we need to win this week to do that."

The Lady Royals, behind Chris Frost's 10 markers, stopped Tishomingo, 35-30. The win gave New Site a 9-13 mark and left them in the same situation as their male counterparts in the district draw.

THRASHER (BB)

The Rebels swept Kossuth, Biggersville, and Baldwin this week to improve their overall mark to 17-11. There is a possibility the Rebels could finish as high as second place in the 'BB' setup.

"Belmont is 17-1 and they are going to be first," explained Thrasher's Jacky Rowsey. "But, we would like to finish ahead of Mooreville, Baldwin, or Hatley and pick second on Saturday."

Thrasher faces a tough slate this week since they visit Mooreville for a Tuesday night matchup. On Friday night, top-seeded Belmont will visit in one of the season's biggest games. On Saturday night, pesky Corinth completes a tough week of action for the Rebels with a visit.

The Lady Rebels, now 7-17, showed fine play in spots, despite losing to Kossuth, Biggersville, and Baldwin. Phil Worley's club figures to finish just behind New Site in the record chase before Saturday's draw.

In the Rebel sweep, a plethora of players hit double figures: Danny Ramsey, Calvin Davis, Bill Windham, James Leslie, Keith Trimble, and Paul McCutchen.

"It's a very important week for us," admitted Rowsey. "There are so many ways this thing could go. But, the best thing we could do would be to win this week, and I believe we are getting better."

WHEELER (B)

As noted earlier, Sam Richey's club could help themselves with a three-game sweep before Saturday. The Eagles, 17-10, will host Tishomingo on Tuesday night to open the slate.

The Booneville Tournament will provide action from Thursday through Saturday, to round out the busiest week of any of the county schools. The Eagles would love a three-game sweep for twenty wins before Saturday's draw.

During the previous week, Wheeler took a twin killing; losing to visiting Saltillo and Jumpertown. The Lady Eagles, now 12-12 for the year, swept both of those opponents to significantly improve their chances of a better district draw.

"I'm not sure, but we could pick anywhere from second to fourth," figured Richey. "We could definitely improve our position if we could win this week."

In the girls race, Smithville and Houlika figure to be the top clubs. However, Wheeler could be the darkhorse, depending on the draw for Billy Shelton's ladies.

Richey explained, "I'd rather be playing someplace besides Amory. But, there are more clubs in the south half of the district, so they carried the vote to play down there."

"Jumpertown has been the best club so far. But, West Clay is dangerous and I hear Houlika looks pretty good, too. I think it's a balanced field and some of the other clubs have played at Amory, too. So, that should help them."

(through 1-16-83)

Tigers Continue Winning Ways

By CLIFF LONG
Sports Writer

The Northeast Tigers have seen quite a bit of action since the Christmas break. The Lady Tigers, who are now 15-4, have played four games since the semester break and are 3-1.

The Tigers, who sport a 12-7 record, have won two and lost one since the break.

The Lady Tigers defeated Coahoma 93-86 on Jan. 8. Brenda Mayes and Dianne Harris led the way for Northeast. Mayes had an impressive 34 points, while Harris hit 29.

After a 43-42 halftime lead, the Lady Tigers were defeated by Holmes Junior College, 85-72, on Jan. 10. Brenda Mayes scored 27 points in the ball game, but Holmes' second half scoring was too much for the Lady Tigers.

The Lady Tigers got a win at home over Mississippi

Delta last Thursday night. Northeast won the game, 79-60. Three NE performers hit in double figures. Brenda Mayes scored 20 points, Dianne Harris 19, and Ann McBrayer 12 for the Lady Tigers.

Northeast also had an impressive win over Mary Holmes on Saturday night. Thanks to Harris' and Mayes' 21 points apiece, the Lady Tigers were able to take a 78-53 victory.

The Lady Tigers also defeated Meridian Monday night of this week, 88-75. Brenda Mayes dropped in 31 points and Dianne Harris added 25.

IN MEN'S ACTION, the Tigers are currently 13-7, a record coach Richard Mathis says he is pleased with. Mathis said that his team had the same conference record that they had at this time last year and that his team was really playing hard.

The Tigers began the second half of the season with an 85-81 loss to Coahoma Junior College Jan. 8. Anthony Anderson led the Tigers with 34 points on the night, but after being down five points at halftime, the Tigers weren't able to catch Coahoma in the end.

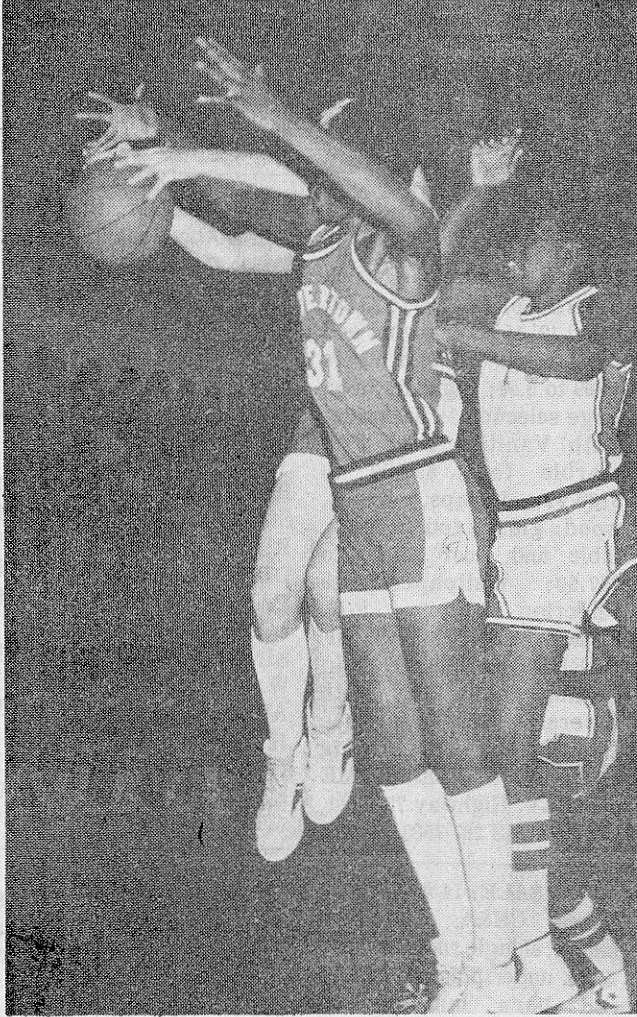

The Tigers came back Jan. 10 with a 62-56 win over Holmes. Anderson came through for the Tigers with 26 points, while Rafael King had 16 and Tim Kesler 10.

Northeast recorded a victory on their home court last Thursday night with a 74-67 win over Miss. Delta Junior College. Former Prentiss county star Tim Kesler poured in 24 points to lead the Tigers in scoring, while Anderson hit 18.

Anthony Anderson was the big story in Saturday's game against Mary Holmes. Anderson poured in 46 points to lead the Tigers to a 101-91 victory. Along with Anderson's 46, Kesler had 14, Darryl Hatfield, 12, and new addition Marlon McGaughy had 16 for the Tigers.

The Tigers were once again victorious Monday night, beating Meridian 86-51. Tim Kesler was the high scorer for the Tigers, with 18 points. Anthony Anderson added 14 and Rafael King, 13.

Tiger Leaders

The Northeast Tigers have two performers at the top of their respective scoring lists.

Northeast freshman Dianne Harris of Booneville leads the ladies' division of the Region 23 conference.

Harris has an average of 25 points per game.

In the men's division of the Region 23, Northeast stand-out Anthony Anderson leads all scorers with 25.5 points per game. Anderson is in his second year on the Tiger squad.

Use Scout Cookies To Make Delicious Desserts

It's the time of year for Girl Scout Cookies. Girl Scouts in Booneville have been out in full force this week taking cookie orders.

Seven varieties of cookies are available - chocolate Thin Mints, Shortbread, Chocolate and Vanilla Sandwich Cremes, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Peanut Butter Patties and the new Nutty Chocolate Chip.

Famous Foods of Virginia, Prairie Council's supplier for thirteen years, will again be the official baker of Girl Scout cookies. They have prepared recipes for using the cookies.

Easy Peanuttty Brittle

10 Girl Scout Peanut Butter Sandwich Cookies
2 tablespoons margarine
1½ cups granulated sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Cut cookies into large pieces. (Using a cutting board and cut each cookie into thirds and then into thirds again.) Melt margarine in a heavy skillet. Add sugar, salt and vanilla. Cook over low heat stirring constantly, until sugar is melted and smooth. (Sugar will turn a golden brown.) Do not overcook. Remove from heat and add cut up cookies, mixing to coat them. Pour immediately into a well greased 9 x 13 inch pan. Cool thoroughly. Break brittle into pieces.

Brownie Pie

14 Girl Scout Thin Mint Cookies
3 egg whites
dash of salt
¾ cup granulated sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped nuts

Roll cookies to crust. (If cookies are warm and chocolate soft, chill slightly before rolling.) Beat together egg whites and salt until soft peaks form. Fold in cookie crumbs and nuts. Pour into a greased 9 inch pie pan. Spread evenly. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) for 35 minutes. Remove from oven and cool completely. Serve with whipped cream garnished with chocolate bits, or shaved chocolate.

8 servings.

Black Forest Pie

1 - 9 inch unbaked pie crust
1 - 21 ounce can cherry pie filling
½ teaspoon almond extract

10-12 Girl Scout Chocolate Sandwich Creme Cookies
1 cup whipping cream

½ teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon sugar
1 or 2 crushed Girl Scout Chocolate Sandwich Cream Cookies

Into the pie crust, spoon 1/3 of the cherry filling. Add the almond extract to the remaining filling, in the can and mix well. Arrange whole cookies on top of the cherry filling in the crust, covering filling. Spoon remaining filling over the cookies, smoothing top. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) for 25-30 minutes, until filling is bubbling and crust is well browned. Remove from oven and allow to cool completely. Whip cream with vanilla and sugar. Spread over cooled pie. Sprinkle crushed cookies over the top. Serves 8.

Heavenly Cream Cake

1 cup heavy cream
½ cup instant cocoa mix
dash of salt
½ cup instant coa
½ teaspoon vanilla
48 Girl Scout Shortbread Cookies

Whip cream, adding cocoa mix gradually. Beat in salt and vanilla until mixture is quite thick. Using about half of the cream, spread some of the mixture on each cookie and stack together side by side in a roll, placing on a platter or serving dish. Frost roll with remaining cream covering all of the outside. Store in refrigerator several hours or overnight. (Dessert improves, the longer it stands.) Slice diagonally. Serves about 8.

For variety, add 1 teaspoon instant coffee to make a mocha flavor. For a heavenly dessert using Girl Scout Assorted Sandwich cookies, try this: 1 cup heavy cream whipped with 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Spread whipped cream on each sandwich cookie, vanilla, chocolate or a combination of both. Stack 24 cookies in a roll, side by side. Cover with the remaining cream and allow to chill several hours or overnight. (The longer, the better!)

Instant Cookie Trifle

12 Girl Scout Vanilla Sandwich Creme Cookies
1 - 1 pound can apricot halves
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 3¼ ounce package instant vanilla pudding
2 cups half and half
1 teaspoon almond extract

Arrange cookies to line bottom and sides of 6 cup serving dish or bowl. Drain apricots and reserve ¼ cup of juice. Add the lemon juice to reserved juice and pour over cookies. Cut apricots into smaller pieces and spoon over cookies, on bottom of dish, reserving some to decorate top. In a medium size bowl, mix together pudding and half and half. Beat on low speed, or with a rotary beater for 2 minutes. Stir in almond extract. Pour over cookies and apricots. Arrange reserved apricot pieces on top to decorate. Allow to chill several hours before serving. (Additional cookies may be used to top dessert, if desired.) 6-8 servings.

For a less rich dessert, milk may be substituted in equal quantity of half and half.

NOW U.S. SAVINGS BONDS OFFER OPPORTUNITY WITHOUT RISK.

The biggest improvement in 40 years.

A message from Donald T. Regan, Secretary of the Treasury.

New Variable Interest Rate.

Finding the ideal investment is something everyone dreams about. For most, that might be one with a variable interest rate. One that lets you share in the rates offered in today's securities market.

But it must be safe. A plan where you can never lose principal and where rates can't drop below a certain level.

That kind of opportunity may sound too good to be true. But it is available now to everyone, even the saver with as little as $25 to invest.

It's the United States Savings Bond. A vastly improved Bond that has become one of the most unique savings instruments you can buy today.

On November 1, 1982, the Savings Bond interest rate changed from fixed to variable. And there is no limit on how high the rate can go. Now virtually every Bond holder, present and future, has a chance to enjoy a return previously available only to those with much more money to invest.

A Guaranteed Minimum.

Of course, interest rates will fluctuate. But the new variable rate guarantees you'll "never lose."

Because, no matter how low rates may go, you're protected by a guaranteed minimum.* If you hold your Bonds to maturity, you'll absolutely double your money. And you may even do better!

So take another look at Savings Bonds—through the Payroll Savings Plan, for gifts, or for yourself and family. There's never been a better time.

Donald S. Regan

Take stock in America.

*Series EE Bonds purchased on and after 11/1/82 and held 5 years or more will earn 85% of the average yield on the 5-year Treasury securities rate. Bonds held less than 5 years will earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale—5.5% after 1 year to 7.5% at 5 years. Bonds held at least 5 years will earn a minimum guaranteed rate of 7.5% per annum, compounded semiannually, to the 10-year maturity.

YOUR HEALTH

By

Dr. Jim Davis, D.C.

Every day, Americans swallow literally tons of aspirin tablets in an effort to get relief from pain... usually headaches. Such self-treatment offers only temporary relief. When headache results from a spinal misalignment, chiropractic treatment is usually effective. If a spinal segment is displaced in a manner that results in compression or irritation of the upper spinal nerves, chiropractic procedures are indicated, to correct the cause of the pain.

A chiropractic spinal examination reveals any spinal distortions which may be causing pain and discomfort, so that corrective treatment is possible. Phone for an appointment.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

‘Ring The Bell’

I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward Him. 2 Cor. 2:8

Adapted from Our Daily Bread by Richard W. DeHaan

Many people today are missing out on the happiness and joy that might be theirs if they only knew they were loved and appreciated. They go on day after day without ever realizing that there are those who do care for them and are grateful for their lives.

In his book David and His Friends, Louis Albert Banks tells the beautiful story of a king who had a silver bell placed in a high tower of his palace early in his reign. He then announced that whenever he was happy his subjects would know of it by the ringing of this bell. It would never be rung except for that one purpose, and then only by the king's hand. Eagerly the people listened for the joyous sound of that silver bell, but it remained silent. Banks goes on to say that "days passed into weeks, and weeks into months, and months into years; but no sound of the bell rang out. . . to tell that the king was happy." At last the king grew old and gray, and he lay on his deathbed in his palace. Then as some of his weeping subjects gathered around him, he learned that all through the years he had really been loved by his people. Finally he was happy. Just before he died, in his joy he reached up and pulled the rope that rang the silver bell. Think of it - a lifetime of unhappiness because he didn't know he was warmly accepted by his loyal subjects.

Like that monarch, many lonely souls live out their days without the joy of knowing they are loved by others. Do you know of people who need an encouraging word? If so, tell them how much they mean to you. It's what's needed to "ring the bell"!
