Charge Dismissed

Rape charges against a Booneville man have been dismissed without prejudice. Tommy Pannell, 29, of Sunflower was arrested April 15 and charged with statutory rape after he allegedly raped a 9-year-old girl at her residence in Sunflower.

City Judge George Via said that Monday when the case was heard that he did not make any finding of probable cause and the case was dismissed without prejudice.

"This means the city can still present the case to the grand jury if they think it's warranted," Via said Tuesday.

Rick Moore, city attorney, said that at this point the case will have to be investigated further before it is decided whether or not to present it to the grand jury.

Cheese Giveaway

May commodities for Prentiss County households will be issued on a "first come, first served basis" at the Food Stamp office Thursday, May 24, beginning at 8 a.m.

Low income households where no one receives food stamps may make an application for commodities before issuance date at the welfare office, and if they are found eligible they will be issued a commodity voucher.

If there is a change concerning the distribution date, it will be announced over WBIP radio station.

Bus Drivers Needed

Applications are being accepted at this time for Prentiss County School bus drivers. "Please come by the County Superintendent's office to file application," said J.W. Greene, County Superintendent of Education.

Bay Springs Lock & Dam

Estimated 10,000 Attend Dedication

By ED WOODWARD
Managing Editor

An estimated 10,000 people converged on the Bay Springs Lock and Dam Sunday afternoon to witness the combined dedication of that facility and the Divide Section of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

"We printed 8,000 programs and we ran out an hour before the ceremony began," said Cynthia Drew of the Public Affairs Office, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Nashville District.

Spectators packed both sides of the 110 foot wide, 600 foot long lock, and stood atop the 120 foot high rockfill dam to observe the historic event.

Dignitaries arrived aboard the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers towboat, "The Motor Vessel Mississippi," the first craft to officially "lock-in" at the facility.

By prearrangement "The Mississippi" was followed from Paden, through the newly filled Bay Springs Lake by a flotilla of smaller pleasure craft.

Press representatives and Corps employees were invited aboard for the return trip to Paden after the dedication ceremonies.

Dignitaries attending the event included U.S. Congressman Jamie Whitten, who served as master of ceremonies; Alabama Governor George Wallace, chairman of the Tenn-Tom Waterway Development Authority; ex-TTWDA Chairman and former Mississippi Governor William Winter, former Mississippi Governor and State Supreme Court Justice J.P. Coleman, U.S. Senators John Stennis and Thad Cochran, U.S. Representatives Jack Edwards, Alabama, Don Sundquist, Tennessee, and John Myers, Indiana, former Congressman Tom Abernathy and Tenn-Tom Waterway Development Authority Director Glover Wilkins.

Also present were three U.S. Army generals, two U.S. Coast Guard admirals and four former commanders of the Corps' Nashville District.

Conspicuously absent was Mississippi Governor Bill Allain, who remained in Jackson "to confer on the extended legislative session."

Also unable to attend was Representative G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery, who was serving as an observer at the El Salvador elections at the request of President Reagan.

Comparing the Tenn-Tom with the St. Lawrence Seaway, Whitten said the waterway "represents a recognition by our generation that investments must be made if we are to provide future generations with the proper tools to maintain a prosperous and healthy economy."

Rep. Whitten pointed out that the approximate $1.5 billion cost of constructing the waterway, frequently cited by critics as a "porkbarrel boondoggle" is actually "less than half the cost of one nuclear aircraft carrier."

Sen. Stennis said the Tenn-Tom is the most valuable thing for the people of Mississippi to occur

'I feel like I'm settling in ...'

Sheriff Reflects On His First Four Months In Office

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

Prentiss County Sheriff W.V. Horn describes his first four months as sheriff as having been "real busy."

Although his department has been busy, Horn says "It feels like we haven't accomplished nearly as much as we need to in theft and drugs. But we're doing everything we can with the amount of help we have."

"I started off working 14-18 hours a day for awhile. But I had to cut back some because I couldn't stand up to that seven days a week."

"There were several days when the deputies worked 24-hour shifts," he added.

The first two months he was in office Horn said he put 7,000 miles on the sheriff's car. "And that was during two weeks of circuit court, too." Since he has received his new sheriff's car, a 1984 Ford LTD, he has put about 9,700 miles on it since March 8.

There is a possibility that after reappraisal the sheriff's department will have more funds to hire another deputy next year, Horn said.

Sheriff Horn has also looked into the possibility of hiring another deputy from funds provided by the Corp of Engineers. However, this was not possible, he said.

"Although the Corp of Engineers is paying for an additional deputy in Tishomingo County because of the Bay Springs area, they said they didn't have enough funds to pay Prentiss County for hiring a deputy."

Sheriff Horn believes that having Neighborhood Watch programs have helped cut down on crime.

"Nothing will be 100 percent,"

Horn said. "A neighborhood watch is only as good as the people make it."

Currently there are watch programs in effect in the communities of Hills Chapel, Blackland, Burton, Cairo, Jacinto, Marietta and Tusculumbia.

The five constables, Gayle Floyd, Billy Brasel, David Livingston, Bud Michael, and Tommy Smith, have also been provided with radios so they can keep in contact with the sheriff's office.

The constables have county-wide jurisdiction and can serve papers in all districts. They have county-wide jurisdiction in both criminal and civil matters, he said.

Since the county has done away with the garbage dumpsters and implemented a new garbage pickup system, the sheriff says there have been several instances of garbage being thrown on public property.

In fact, he said, two bags of garbage was even put in the driveway at Liberty Cemetery.

There are some cases when law authorities knew that teenagers were responsible for moving the garbage after it had been placed outside to be picked up by garbage men.

"But the law states that I've got to catch them or see them dumping the garbage or the evidence won't hold up in court," Horn said.

If someone is convicted of dumping garbage on a state or public road, the fine is $50 plus all court costs, according to Justice Court Judge Dexter Cadle.

Horn has also found that since he took the oath of office as sheriff, he has had to deal with calls concerning family disturbances.

"People really need to come in and sign papers if there is a family disturbance," the sheriff said. "In extreme cases we can go to the home and ask them to stop their fighting or whatever. But we really can't do anything unless we see something."

And when it comes to 'catching criminals,' "It doesn't work like on TV," Horn said. "We're not gangbusters. Even if we know in our own minds that someone is selling dope or stealing, we've got to have a search warrant and show probable cause. We've got to have everything documented or they'll laugh us out of the courtroom."

"I feel like I've settled in the office," Horn continued. "I appreciate the people's help, the information, cooperation and consideration they've given me. Any information they give me is kept confidential."

"I'd like their continued support and help. We'll try to answer their calls as fast as humanly possible."

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: Mr. Hogland does the word "perfect" as used in the Bible mean that we are sinless?

ANSWER: The word "perfect" is used in different senses in the Bible. Sometimes it does mean "sinless" but not always. For example Paul uses the word in two senses in (Phil. 3). In verse 12, he says, "Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect." Then he says in verse 14, "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." There is a difference in absolute perfection and perfection in attitude. Paul denies that he had reached a spiritual plane of non-development. He had made great progress in that direction but still has that goal before him. However, in verse 15, he tells us that we are perfect. So in one verse he says we are not perfect and in the next he tells us we are perfect. This means that the word is used in different senses in the Bible. In (1 Cor. 2:6) Paul said, "We speak wisdom, however, among them that are fullgrown (perfect KJV)." The word perfect also conveys the idea of "complete" or full grown as compared to babes in Christ (see Heb. 5:12). We should be perfect now in condition and attitude, but are longing for that final perfection. It should be noted that no person is perfect in the sense of being absolutely sinless (see 1 Jno. 1:10).

Winter Waves Education Banner In Senate Race

By ED WOODWARD
Managing Editor

In an informal question and answer session with a Baldwin High School history class Friday, former governor William Winter indicated that he intends to continue waving his tried-and-true education banner during his campaign for Thad Cochran's U.S. Senate seat.

Stressing the fact that improved education will cost money, Winter indicated that he would push for federal funds to help Mississippi and other states implement their educational reform programs.

"For several years I have seen the percentage of federal funds sent to the states decline," Winter said.

"The federal government is spending a lower percentage of educational money. And the burden is being put squarely on the local and state level," he said.

"It is good economic sense to invest in education," the former governor said, pointing out that Mississippi, the first state to legislate education reform, is the poorest state in the country.

"We must receive a proportionate share to finally reach national parity," Winter said.

As an illustration of how far he feels the state has progressed in education during his lifetime, Winter told the students that he had grown up in a predominantly agricultural area and had attended a one-room school where students automatically dropped out when they were old enough to begin working on their family's farms.

"I am the only person in the history of that school to have graduated from high school," he said.

When Winter first asked the students for questions, none were forthcoming. So he asked the class what they felt was the most important problem presently facing the country.

After a moment, one student replied, "Apathy."

Winter agreed, once again stressing the need for improved education as a possible solution.

A student asked Winter his opinion of the school prayer controversy.

Winter said he could have voted for the school prayer amendment that was recently before the U.S. Congress because it treated prayer as a private, personal matter.

He pointed out that, though he had been raised a Presbyterian, he had no right to expect everyone to think as he did or to pray in the same manner.

He said he believes we need a strong defense for the country's safety, but feels it can be done without further increasing military spending.

"Our first line of defense is not so much massive weaponry as educated citizenry," Winter said, returning to his favorite theme.

"We can't expect to have sophisticated weaponry without giving our citizens the basic educational background necessary to operate it," he said.

Sheriff's Report

The Prentiss County Sheriff's Department reports a total of seven arrests during the period of May 1-7. Charges placed by the sheriff's department during that period include:

False pretense, 2; assault, 1; aggravated assault, 1; family disturbance, 2; DUI, 1; contempt of court, 1.

Approximately $1,500 worth of lumber was stolen from Johnson Home Builders May 3. The lumber was stolen from the residence of Eddie Cooper on the Blackland-Jumpertown Road. The lumber was found the next afternoon on an old road going to Cox Lake, west of the building site. No arrests were made, according to Deputy Dan Wilson.

Dave Bearden of Route 1, Booneville, reported the theft of $5,000 worth of tools from his shop May 1. There are suspects in the case, but no arrests have been made, Wilson said.

The sheriff's department recovered a stolen three-wheeler at a residence in Jumpertown May 5. The three-wheeler had been stolen in Alcorn County about two weeks ago. The Alcorn County Sheriff's Department is investigating the case.

Last Friday evening the sheriff's department made a raid in the northwest part of the county, Wilson said. About nine cases of beer were confiscated. Louie Eaton was arrested in connection with the raid.

Henry J. Tyes of Airport Road was arrested May 5 and charged with family disturbance and aggravated assault after he allegedly cut Robert Burrell, also of Airport Road, with a pocket knife.

The incident was reported to have occurred last Saturday night at Burrell's residence after the men had allegedly been arguing over a child, Wilson said.

Wilson said Burrell was cut on his chest, arms, shoulders, and side. Burrell was taken to the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Booneville and treated. Wilson said that later that same night, Burrell was reportedly arrested in Baldwin for public drunkenness.

WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD FOR YOU?

No one can foresee or predict the future with any degree of accuracy. The only sense in which we can know what the future holds is through the revelation God has given, the Bible. According to the Bible, there are at least five future events.

The whole human family faces the reality of death. (Heb. 9:27) We may not know when, where, or how, but death is certain for all. (Eccl. 9:5) Death was passed on the human family as a consequence of sin. (Rom. 5:12) James describes death as a separation of the body and spirit. (James 2:26)

The second event in our future is the coming of Christ. The New Testament mentions the coming of Christ over three hundred times. The coming of Christ will be at an unexpected time. (2 Peter 3:10)

The third event in our future will be the resurrection from the dead. The resurrection is an unconditional promise for all men. (John 5:28-29) Our resurrection is dependent upon the resurrection of Christ. (1 Cor. 15:16-18)

The fourth event in our future will be the judgment. Every person who has ever lived will be present for the judgment. (Matt. 25:31-33) Each one will be individually judged by Christ. (2 Cor. 5:10, Acts 17:31)

The last event in our future will be eternity. All will live eternally after the judgment in Heaven or Hell. The two destinies will be of equal duration.

The purpose of life is to prepare for the future. Only those who are prepared can look forward to the future. Have you made adequate preparation for the future? What does the future hold for you?

Eyes On Mississippi

By BILL MINOR
Syndicated Columnist

JACKSON, Miss. -- The defeat of Aaron Henry for National Democratic Committeeman by rising new black political figure Bennie Thompson is far more than an instance of the young challenger whipping the tired old champ.

For Mississippi politics, it represents the beginning of a new black political structure, built around a much younger, more aggressive leadership that believes the 60s style of black leadership must now be replaced.

This is not an overnight phenomenon on that has taken place in the black community. It is something that has been developing for at least 10 years, since the demise of Charles Evers as the consummate black spokesman became evident.

But the catalyst for the change has come from the candidacy for the Rev. Jesse Jackson, who has sparked a political revolution among blacks not only in the South, but nationally, that is as historic as the civil rights movement of the 60s.

Jackson created a whole group of new black political activists in Democratic Party politics by giving them a chance to rally behind a black whose impact upon the national political process is unprecedented.

What Jackson did also was to articulate issues from the black perspective -- barriers in the political system -- in the way that they have never been presented.

Some black leaders in Mississippi say complex political questions such as the dual city-county voter registrations, and the runoff primaries could never have been made into issues that everyone understands if Jackson had not reduced them to everyday language.

The partial result of that has already been seen in the usually hard-to-move Mississippi Legislature, which suddenly has passed a new law doing away with the two-step registrations.

If Jackson had not raised it as an easily understood problem for blacks, lawmakers would never have done anything about it.

Thompson, the 36-year-old Hinds County supervisor and former Bolton mayor, has been one of the bright new figures on the political scene for several years. But until recently, he has been reluctant to attempt to overthrow the old guard black leadership of Henry on a statewide basis.

Most of Thompson's fights had been rather parochial, battling and winning against the local black power brokers who represented Henry's forces in Hinds County.

But the lines started being drawn when Thompson's allies in the black community chose to openly back the Jesse Jackson candidacy for president and Henry's forces went for Walter Mondale.

Thompson had already established his political credentials along statewide lines by becoming one of the early backers of Gov. Bill Allain in last year's gubernatorial campaign and getting a number of black elected officials at the county and municipal level to support Allain from the beginning.

When the Jackson forces decided to challenge Henry's traditional role of presiding in the Second Congressional District Caucus in April, Thompson was the consensus choice to lead the charge. To their surprise, Thompson was an easy victor.

That whetted their determination to remove Henry from the top echelon of the State Democratic Party, in which he has been a national figure for 16 years. But to unseat Henry as National Committeeman, the Jackson forces needed to have significant white Democratic support among the Uncommitted and even the Mondale forces in the state convention.

Initially there was some fear outgoing State Chairman Danny Cupit would seek to rally around Henry because of his long-standing identity in National Democratic Party circles, or that Governor Allain might send word not to oust Henry. It became evident once the state convention started that there was no way Henry could be saved, even if the outgoing leadership wanted to save him.

School teacher forces of the Mississippi Education Association who were widely represented among the state convention delegates evidently had passed the word that Henry is a part of Buddie Newman's forces in the Mississippi House which oppose a more progressive public education program. In the showdown vote late Saturday night, Thompson won by a two-to-one margin with heavy backing from white delegates.

Blacks such as Henry, say those behind Thompson are "not in line with" the new objectives that the black community needs to pursue. Henry, said one of the new leaders, "is no different from the establishment, and thus he is part of our problem."

They see Henry as the symbol of those who have used their standing as black leaders to gain commercial or political recognition from whites for themselves at the expense of other blacks.

"We have not had the voice in the political sphere in this state that we should," said a Thompson backer, "and we believe it is because those like Aaron Henry were willing to settle for tokenism as long as they controlled the pie."

Ponderings

By Angela Smith

Staff Reporter

It's Wednesday morning and the sun is shining. At least I think that's the sun I'm seeing. It's been so long since I've seen sunshine that I'd almost forgotten what it looks like.

What few rare rays of sun there have been have always fallen when I have been here slaving away. (Perhaps this is why we have had so much thunder and lightning since I tell such tall tales).

I hate to complain (although I am very good at it) but the weather we have been having has been depressing. Of course, you probably realized that, too.

Someone mentioned yesterday that it had rained for the last 13 weekends.

Here's a bit of information you'll probably want to save. I've been mowing my yard either on Thursday or Friday for the past few weeks. When Saturday rolls around it rains and causes the grass to grow so by Monday it doesn't look like my yard has been mowed. But the yard is so muddy I couldn't walk around in it anyway.

And to say I need to start working on a suntan is the understatement of the year.

Monday I went uptown and three women screamed when I walked in a store. They said they thought I was a ghost.

SPRING IS my favorite season. It doesn't seem to me like spring has ever sprung. So here's a question for all you weather watchers. Have we been having blackberry winter? Or is it dogwood winter?

I've been thinking so much about the rain lately, it's hard for me to stop thinking about it.

Here's a grim statistic for you. Most people don't wear raincoats when it's raining.

I know there's a lot of things I could be worrying about instead, but it really bothers me that people don't wear raincoats when it's pouring down rain.

They act like if they run instead of walk while it's raining they won't get wet. I've tried this myself and it doesn't work.

If there has been one good thing about all the rain, and this isn't all that good but I'd like to end on a positive note, it's been my car has stayed muddy and no one has complained about my not washing it.

Bill For Local Hospital Funding Passed

By SENATOR JOHN WHITE

One of the most important bills to pass the Mississippi Legislature this session, so far as Prentiss County is concerned, was a local and private bill that passed both houses last week and was sent to the Governor for his signature. I was particularly pleased with the passage of this legislation.

The bill allows the Prentiss County Board of Supervisors to borrow the money for the construction of our new hospital in Booneville and re-loan it to Baptist Hospital.

By allowing the county to sell the bonds (as opposed to the hospital itself), a much lower interest rate can be obtained resulting in lower hospital charges for those hospitalized in Baptist Memorial in Booneville.

To my way of thinking, the most attractive provision of this act provides for the selling of "revenue" rather than "general obligation" bonds and, therefore, the only collateral pledged is anticipated revenue from the daily operation.

In order to give proper consideration to a mammoth bill which provides for a major reorganization of state government, the Legislature voted to extend the session with final adjournment targeted for May 18. However, we hope to be in session for only one day during the extension which should not be too costly.

The Mississippi Administrative Reorganization Act of 1984 reorganizes several areas of state government because of a court order requiring legislators to be removed from state boards and commissions. Work on the reorganization proposal has been ongoing steadily since the court order in November.

The result is a 349-page bill, the largest we believe to have ever been filed. The extension of the session was felt to be necessary to give proper consideration to all facets of this bill by the Senate, the House and

Legislative Report

House Studying Reorganization Bill

By REP. BILLY MCCOY

The 1984 Legislature voted last week to extend our session for a few more days to consider two very important unfinished matters -- state revenues and reorganization of state government.

The House took the lead in extending the session to give revenue leaders another chance at working out a compromise revenue extension to help fund our fiscally unstable state agencies.

Although an earlier tax proposal died when House and Senate negotiators failed to reach agreement, many in state government feel we need additional revenues for vital service agencies. Chief among those agencies are the Department of Mental Health and Department of Education.

Our state mental health director said many of the state's mental patients will have to suffer from insufficient services if that department's budget is not increased. House members were looking at a bare bones tax proposal to help these departments at week's end.

The massive, 359-page government reorganization bill came to the House Friday, and members began the detailed work on finding a method to form a workable state government operation.

The bill was initiated by a lawsuit from Governor Allain when he was Attorney General. That suit removed legislators from executive boards and commissions.

Since the session began, lawmakers have been deliberating methods for resolving this involved constitutional question. We are now working on a bill that we hope will be a compromise between the House and Senate and Governor Allain.

Another major piece of legislation received final House and Senate approval last week. The two chambers approved a tougher law outlining conflicts of interest for public officials.

The ethics bill, approved in the House on a vote of 190-7, now moves to Governor Allain for his signature. The measure was devised to close loopholes in a 1983 law and outlines conflicts of interest prohibited by a proposed amendment to the state constitution. The amendment will be on the November ballot for voter approval.

The bill places strict limitations on the types of transactions public officials can have with bodies over which they have jurisdiction.

With the oncoming deadline for statewide property reappraisal on July 1, legislators addressed homestead reimbursement to alleviate a drastic tax increase for homeowners.

Homestead exemption is currently $5,000; in 1985, homestead exemption will climb to $7,500. At the time, a de-escalation factor would figure in based on the actual millage rates set by counties to insure that counties would receive the reimbursement at least equal to the reimbursement total in the prior year.

The Legislature also sent to the Governor a bill making it a felony for non-parental guardians or relatives to remove a child from the state without consent of the legal guardian. The bill carries a maximum penalty of three years in prison and a $2,000 fine.

If you need additional information regarding legislation pending, please do not hesitate to contact me at 948-7321.

Letters

Dear Editor:

My question is "why the local radio station will sign off the air at 11:00 p.m. when our county is under a severe weather situation, but will broadcast all night if necessary to give election returns?"

Is not the welfare and safety of our local citizens more important?

Many families living outside of Booneville depend on Radio Station WBIP for weather updates. It only seems reasonable that when we are under severe situations that they would continue to broadcast.

Thanking you in advance for any enlightenment you may come up with, I remain.

Robert L. Grooms, Sr.

Dear Editor:

The recent furniture market in High Point, North Carolina was both an exciting and eventful occasion. This was Parklane's second ever show and the first time for us to display our new product lines. The response to our products was exceptional and the opening of many new large accounts was the result of the hard work and dedication of our people. This effort will result in the creation of new jobs in our community.

I would appreciate the opportunity to congratulate our employees for a job well done and make our community aware of the effort being given. The real success of our company is a result of a "can do" attitude and a desire to build a strong company for our futures. Everyone in our community should congratulate the work force that is making the Parklane Dream come true.

That Yankee From Yonder

By Ed Woodward

Managing Editor

Saturday was a milestone for two people. My daughter, Andrea, turned 18.

Why it is a milestone for Andi is obvious. She is now an adult in the eyes of the law. In most states she can now get credit, sign contracts and get married without her mother's or my consent. And she is now old enough to vote.

The fact that my daughter is now an adult is the obvious reason her 18th birthday was a milestone for me. The other reason is not so obvious.

You see, Andi's 18th birthday marks the end of my 10 years at the mercy of a lopsided court system.

The U.S. Congress has recently been debating the custody and support situation. But, as usual, everything is being considered from the viewpoint of the mother. No one ever looks at these things from the viewpoint of the father. Fathers' Rights is as much of a contradiction in terms as Military Intelligence.

My case is by no means unique. But it is the one I know best, so I will use it for a brief example.

I divorced Andi's mother 10 years ago this summer. Ten years ago next December I moved to New York.

For some strange reason, neither in Ohio nor Mississippi could I withhold support in retaliation for being denied visitation. If I withheld support I was in contempt of court. But if she withheld visitation, she was not.

An Ohio welfare department employee once explained to me that it was virtually impossible for a father to gain custody there. But, when custody is awarded to one parent the other is automatically considered unfit in the law's eyes.

He told me I could actually have proved that Andi's mother was a prostitute and she would still have gotten custody. But, since the court considered me unfit, if Andi were taken from her mother for any reason, she would automatically be placed in a foster home.

That was Ohio law. New York was an improvement. In New York a father can legally withhold support if he is being refused visitation. So, after paying for two years while being refused visitation, I began withholding it.

Then I moved to Mississippi. And, though, the federal support and custody laws are supposed to be "uniform and reciprocal," they aren't. For that support I withheld legally in New York, I have since been arrested in Ohio and fined $500 and threatened with jail in Mississippi.

And, even though I have seen Andi for only one six-week period in the last 10 years (Her mother relented and let her come down when my father died four years ago), no court in any of those three states has ever even slapped her mother's hand for denying me my right to see her.

But now the ordeal is over. Andi is 18. She has already moved out of her mother's home and in with her grandparents. She is engaged to a boy who appears to be a good choice and they plan to come down to visit this summer. And, best of all, she says she'd like to live down here after they are married.

I'd like that, too. It would finally give us a chance to get to know each other. We have an awful lot of catching up to do.

the Governor. Much of the debate on the reorganization bill centers around who will have responsibility for developing and overseeing the state budget. The bill creates three fiscal agencies — one for the Governor, one for the Legislature and a Fiscal Management Board composed of five executive branch officers.

In my opinion, the Governor will veto this bill if it passes the House of Representatives. The primary purpose for the bill was supposed to have been to strengthen the office of Governor and lessen the power of certain high-ranking legislative officials.

The bill skirts this issue entirely and forces the Governor, whoever he might be, to share his power with four other state officers. The Governor has promised to veto this bill if it passes the House of Representatives and I believe him.

Last week the Senate and the House came to agreement on a number of bills and sent them to the Governor for signature into law. Some of these are:

Homestead Exemption: In order to prevent homeowners, farmers and businessowners from receiving large increases in ad valorem property taxes due to reappraisal of property, the homestead exemption for tax years 1985 and 1986 was raised from $5,000 to $7,500.

In 1987, it will drop to $7,000 in 1988, it will be $6,500; and in 1989, it will go to $6,000.

For 1985, counties will be reimbursed for homestead exemption under the present formula. After that, counties will be reimbursed $1000 per homestead exemption applicant with no counties to receive less than the previous year.

Dual Registration: When this bill is signed into law and approved by the federal Justice Department under the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, voters will be eligible to register either at city hall or at the county courthouse and be eligible to vote in all elections.

Also, the regular polling places in the precincts and any other places approved by the county board of supervisors may be used for voter registration at designated times with notice of such to be given in the newspaper.

Interest Rates: This bill which sets maximum interest rates on loans extends the current law for two years. The provision to allow banks to charge a fee for credit cards was not in the final version of the bill.

Child-Napping: This bill makes it a felony to take a child from the state without consent of the child's legal guardian.

Appropriations: Because of no measures to increase taxes, the appropriations for state agencies and programs for the coming fiscal year were set at a "low budget recommendation."

In most cases, the funding will be near the current level. Two items which were not funded were $60,000 for expenses for Supreme Court Justices and $4 million for the Institute of Technology Development whose goal is to create 33,000 new jobs in Mississippi by 1995.

Corrections: The Corrections Department was extended for two years and provisions were made to hire a superintendent to have full control over the state penitentiary at Parchman. Another bill allows supervised parole to be discontinued after two years with the remainder of the parole to be served unsupervised.

Mental Health: A bill was passed to tighten the involuntary commitment to a mental institution procedures. Although the mental health department budget was appropriated at $9 million less than requested, 179 new positions at the state hospital at Whitfield were left in the bill.

Bills which have been recently signed into law by the Governor include:

Lethal Injection: This requires all prisoners sentenced to death after this law becomes effective to be executed by lethal injection rather than the gas chamber.

Racketeering: The Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act allows for the seizure of property such as airplanes and boats used in drug trafficking and other forms of organized crime. Also, businesses financed by illegally acquired money can be confiscated.

Insurance Premium Rates For Vets To Be Cut

For the maximum coverage of $35,000, the new premium will be

$2.80 per month, as compared to the current charge of $4.06 per month. ### SINUS TROUBLE

Headaches, nasal discharge or nasal stuffiness, post-nasal drainage, facial pain, dizziness, bad breath, cough, that frequent cold may all be signs of sinus trouble. Irritation, inflammation and congestion of the sinus cavities may develop following a cold, changing weather, breathing dust, smoke or other irritants. Yet, whatever the contributing factors may be in a case of sinus trouble, a normal nerve supply to the delicate membranes of the nose and sinus cavities is necessary for complete healing. A diminished nerve supply through pressure on certain nerve trunks weakens these membranes and causes them to be more susceptible to irritation and inflammation.

Many drugs have been made available for the supposed "cure" or "relief" of sinus conditions, but at best these products have afforded little more than temporary relief while frequently causing minor to serious side effects. You do have a better choice! Modern chiropractic science has proven to be highly effective in the care of acute and chronic sinus conditions. Consult your doctor of chiropractic to see how you too may be helped.

County Agent's Notes

By CLIFFORD J. HAMPTON
County Agent

Seedling diseases of cotton cause serious losses to cotton producers in Mississippi each year. A Cotton Disease Council estimate shows Mississippi producers lose an average of 3 percent of their total crop to seedling diseases. The estimate does not include the cost of replanting.

Seedling diseases identifies a complex situation involving the interaction of several organisms and the environment. Certain fungi that cause these diseases are carried either on or in the seed. Other fungi live from season to season in the soil and can attack the seed or seedling.

The organisms that cause seedling diseases are found in all cotton producing areas of the United States but populations differ from area to area. Soil-borne pathogens most commonly involved in the seedling disease complex in the southeast are Rhizoctonia, Fusarium and Pythium.

How to Identify Seedling Diseases. Seedling diseases may cause many different effects on cotton plants. These may be grouped into three general phases.

1) Seed Rot - A number of organisms in the soil and on or in the seed can cause seed to rot. Seed decay can result from poor handling of seed during harvest or from poor storage conditions. Such seed tend to be low in ability to live and easy prey for seed rotting organisms. 2) Pre-emergent Seedling Rot -- Pre-emergent seedling rot describes the loss of a cotton seedling to disease between the time the seed germinates and emerges from the soil. The infection is usually seen as a soft rot or lesions on the expanding root and stem.

3) Post-emergent Damping Off - Post-emergent damping off is a phase of the disease occurring at any time during the first part of the growing season. "Soreshin" is another name for this stage of the disease.

Plants are at first lighter green than normal and stunted. As the disease progresses, the plants begin to show mid-day wilting and lesions appear near the soil line. These lesions are first light brown but turn progressively darker until the whole area takes on a black "wire stem" appearance. These plants eventually die, leaving an uneven stand.

Seed Treatments. All cotton seed used for planting should be treated with a fungicide. Seed treatment fungicides are sold individually or in combinations of two fungicides under a single trade name. One fungicide in combinations is active against Rhizoctonia, while the other is active against Pythium. Since several disease-causing organisms may be involved with seedling disease, the use of more than one seed-applied fungicide is suggested.

For more information concerning cotton seedling disease, come by or call the county Extension Office at 728-5631 or 728-7092.

ASCS News

By C.E. CALVERT
County Executive Director

Foreign investors reported owning 13.7 million acres of U.S. agricultural land at the end of 1983, compared with 13.5 million acres in 1982, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The reports indicate foreign owners plan to keep 92 percent of their acreage in agricultural production.

The 13.7 million acres represent slightly more than 1 percent of the nation's agricultural land.

Foreigners reported no change in tenancy or rental arrangements on 42 percent of the acres, some change on 29 percent of the acres and no response for the remaining 29 percent.

Of the foreign-owned acreage reported, 57 percent was in forest land, 14 percent in cropland, 24 percent in pasture and other agriculture, and 5 percent in nonagricultural and unreported uses. Corporations own 83 percent of the foreign-held acreage, partnerships, 9 percent; and individuals, 7 percent. The remaining 1 percent is held by estates, trusts, associations, instructions and others.

Here in Mississippi, foreign-owned agricultural land totaled 344,589 acres for 1983.

Among the States, Main reported the largest number of acres - 14 percent - owned by foreign persons. This represents about one-fifth of all the reported foreign-owned land nationwide. Except for Main, foreign holdings were concentrated in the South with 35 percent, and the West with 29 percent. Rhode Island is the only State with no reported foreign-owned agricultural land, according to the report.

The agricultural Foreign Investment Disclosure Act of 1978 requires all foreign owners of U.S. Agricultural land to report their holdings, acquisitions, dispositions, leases (10 years or more) and land-use changes to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Foreign owners who fail to report or who are late in reporting face possible penalties. In fiscal 1983 and the first quarter of fiscal 1984, the USDA assessed 174 penalties for late filings, amounting to approximately $109,500.

USDA Moves To End
"Discriminatory" program Practices

Calling some past U.S. Department of Agriculture policies discriminatory, Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block has announced changes that will allow either spouse to sign USDA documents on behalf of the other in connection with government price support and acreage reduction programs.

Under the change, county offices of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service have been provided power-of-attorney forms which will permit either spouse to execute commodity program documents.

The change is effective immediately.

Previously, only owners or operators whose names were on record at the county office were permitted to sign USDA program documents.

Block announced the change during prepared remarks to the Farm Women's Forum here.

Farmers Receive Wool, Mohair Payments

The objectives of the wool and mohair programs are to encourage growers to do their best job in marketing and to improve the quality of fibers. The more producers receive from sales, the more they receive in incentive payments. Payments are determined by multiplying the payment rates times the net dollar return received from the sales of wool and mohair.

The 1983 national average market price for shorn wool was 61.3 cents per pound, 91.7 cents less than the $1.53 per pound support price. The payment rate - 149.6 percent - is the amount required to bring the average price up to the support price. For mohair, the average market price was $4.05 per pound and the support price $4.63, making the payment rate 58 cents per pound, or 14.2 percent.

To compensate growers for wool on live lambs marketed in 1983, the agency authorized a $3.67 per hundredweight payment rate on unshorn lambs sold or slaughtered.

Four cents per pound will be deducted from 1983 shorn wool payments, 20 cents per hundred pounds of liveweight from lamb payments, and 4½ cents per pound from mohair payments to finance advertising and sales promotion. The money is sent to the American Sheep Producers Council and the Mohair Council of America.

Soil Conservation

By ED CALVERT
Soil Conservationist
Booneville Field
Office

Last year's severe cold and early winter depleted many livestock owners supplies of hay before spring arrived. This has made many farmers aware of the need to properly manage their hayland to produce the best and largest amounts of hay off their land.

Here at the Soil Conservation Service our purpose for good hayland management and that of the landowner is much the same. We want to prolong the life of desirable forage species to maintain or improve the quality and quantity of forage, to protect the soil, and reduce water loss. We hope that is your purpose, too.

Following are several things to consider in meeting the needs of your hayland. In grass-legume mixtures where re-seeding of the legumes (clovers) is desirable, defer grazing to the latter part of the growing season to allow seedhead to form. Remove surplus growth of grass in excess of two inches in September to allow legumes to become re-established.

Fertilizer rates will depend on type of grass being grown and the soil type. An average would be 400 pounds of 13-13-13 when growth begins and an additional 200 pounds nitrogen after each cutting except the last cutting.

Do not cut annual lespedeza more than once a year. Make the cutting early enough to allow plant to mature seed after hay is harvested.

Do not cut sericea lespedeza more than twice a year. Make the last cutting no later than Aug. 15. Do not cut alfalfa more than three times a year. Make the last cutting early enough to allow about 8 inches of regrowth before first frost. Alfalfa may be grazed two weeks after first frost to remove foreign material.

For all grass and grass-legume mixtures, make the last cutting at least one month prior to the end of the growing season. Control weeds in hayland by clipping or use recommended herbicides.

For more information on hayland management, contact the Soil Conservation Service at 728-3544.

National Extension Homemaker Week is being celebrated May 6-12. The theme for 1984 is "Homemakers in Touch with the World." This special week is a salute to womankind for making a house a home!

It's a salute to women who volunteer their time and talents to serve their homes, communities and counties. Extension Homemakers are an educational organization of over 30,000 clubs across the nation staying in touch with the world while they learn and share together.

Prentiss County has seven Extension Homemaker Clubs. These clubs are: Blackland, Booneville, Eastview, Jumpertown, Needlecrafters, Pisgah, and Zion. These groups devote their time to learning new skills in sewing, stretching the family dollar, food and nutrition, housing and many other skills and activities that improve quality of living in their homes, communities and county.

If you are interested in joining an Extension Homemaker Club or organizing one in your community or neighborhood, contact the County Extension Office at 728-7092 or 728-5631. What better time to join than during National Extension Homemaker's Week?

Food Preservation Update - A special Food Preservation Update meeting will be held May 22, 1:30 p.m. at the County Extension Office. Mrs. Melissa Mixon, Extension Food Preservation Specialist will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Mixon will discuss new food preservation information and will demonstrate skills in canning and drying foods.

Pressure Canner Testing - With the busy food preservation season approaching you need to make certain your canning equipment is up to standard. Bring your pressure canner to the County Extension Office for testing. Be sure your name, address and phone number is attached to the canner.

That powdery stuff on your windshield may not be dust at all! This is the time of year for Mississippi's pine trees to start releasing their pollen.

For those who may have forgotten, pollen is the fine, grainy substance produced by male flowers and carried by wind or insects to female flowers. The pollen fertilizes the female flower, which in turn produces seed. Most trees produce pollen in late winter or early spring. Pines do so beginning about early March. It'll last for several weeks.

Although some people consider tree pollen to be the primary cause of spring hayfever, the accusation is only partially deserved, according to Charles Wilson, with the U.S.D.A.'s shade and ornamental plant laboratory up in Ohio.

In a recent Journal of Forestry article, Wilson says tree pollen is responsible for only a small portion of hayfever and asthma attacks. He says for pollen to cause hayfever, pollen must (1) be produced in large quantities, (2) be disseminated by wind, and (3) possess allergenic toxicity.

Pine trees produce a large amount of wind disseminated pollen, but pine pollen has very little, if any allergenic toxicity.

Oaks are a different story according to the researcher. They produce large amounts of pollen and are a major contributor to spring fever.

The pollen of a lot of other tree species can cause hayfever too, but most are of minor importance in Mississippi. The oaks are a problem because they are much more prevalent than other allergy-aggravating trees.

If you have allergies, it is wise to learn the facts before you do something drastic like cutting down your pine trees. You may even find that you are allergic to house dust rather than tree pollen. It would be a shame to lose all the benefits of your shade trees, especially if you then discover that you still had the hayfever.

Until next week - here's looking atcho-o-o-o!

Farms Decreasing In Prentiss County

Preliminary reports of the 1982 Census of Agriculture show that the number of farms in the county decreased from 580 to 564 since the 1978 census. All land in farms totaled 111,307 acres in 1982, an average of 197 acres per farm.

The Census Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold.

Land from which crops were harvested decreased to 63,869 acres since 1978.

The county's farmers sold $12.0 million in agricultural products according to preliminary reports from the 1982 Census of Agriculture. The 1982 sales figure represents an average of $21,237 for each of the county's farms.

The census reports that $6.9 million or 58 percent of total sales were for crops, while $5.1 million or 42 percent of the total came from the sale of livestock, poultry, and their products.

Preliminary data indicate that expenditures for feed for livestock and poultry were $1.1 million; total farm energy costs were $1.1 million; fertilizer costs were $1.5 million; and seed costs were $291,000.

Of the total farms in the county, 87 had gross sales of $40,000 or more; 380 reported sales of less than $10,000. Farms operated as sole proprietorships represented 92 percent of the total. In 1982, the average age of farm operators was 51.6 years. The proportion of operators reporting farming as their principal occupation remained essentially unchanged at 46 percent since 1978.

Data in the report for 1978 and 1982 are directly comparable for acreages and inventories. Dollar values have not been adjusted for changes in price levels.

Preliminary reports can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Mississippi's continuing battle of control fire ants is the topic of a feature story on Farmweek, the television series for farmers in the state, when it is telecast at 7:30 p.m., Monday, May 14, on Mississippi ETV.

Methods of controlling the ants, both new and traditional, will be discussed.

4-H News

By WAYNE LAND
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

Every day, millions of Americans take time from their work, their leisure, their homelife, to volunteer their talents and energies to seek solutions to problems in their communities. They are young, old, and every age in between.

They come from every economic group, from every race, religion, and ethnic background. They share in common their citizenship as Americans and their commitment to improving the quality of life for all.

The 4-H volunteer in Prentiss County represents the best in volunteer service. The time and energy shared through the 4-H program is an investment in America's future as young people in 4-H learn to be volunteers.

In his inaugural address, President Reagan called on all citizens to reflect their love of country through service to those in need. Through our individual and collective actions we can continue the American dream of a nation that offers equality, opportunity, and justice to all who have freely chosen to call it home.

National Volunteer Week 1984 - May 6 through 12 - offers a time to renew our commitment to each other and to our communities, and to celebrate America's volunteers - our greatest natural resource.

BHS Insights

By MICHELLE DOWNS
BHS Journalism Student

During the last week of school, BHS art students painted sports pictures on the walls leading to the upstairs library.

Football players, baseball players, tennis players, and other sports figures captured the attention of the teachers and students. These drawings add variety to the school and demonstrate our school spirit.

MONDAY NIGHT, a band banquet was held at Northeast Junior College. Members of the high school band received awards and ate a delicious meal provided by the college lunchroom ladies.

THE SECOND annual art show will be held May 10 at the Bank of Mississippi. The displays will be presented by students in Arts I and II. Pottery, pencil drawings, and other works of print will be entered. The judging will take place that day winners will be announced at the reception at 7 p.m.

STUDENT COUNCIL speeches begin at 12:30 Monday, May 14. Nomination speeches and candidate speeches for Student Body President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer will be heard by all five classes to determine voter preference.

AWARDS DAY will be held at 10:10 a.m. May 17 in the gym. Awards will be given to the students with the highest scholastic averages in each course, as well as to students with outstanding academic achievements.

THE SENIOR exams begin May 15 and will continue through May 17. Graduation practice will be the day after exams, May 18, at 10. Graduation will be at Northeast Junior College the same night beginning at 8 p.m. We invite you to come and see your favorite senior receive his diploma.

Booneville Head Start Cooks Expert Bakers, Too

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

Martha Lindsey and Carolyn Cleveland, the cooks at Booneville Headstart, are now using an instant yeast that causes dough to rise up to 50 percent faster.

This means a lot when you have to prepare breads for 80 children at the center.

In December Maylene Brown, area food specialist at the headstart center, attended a training session in Jackson and learned about the instant yeast.

Since then Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Cleveland have been using the yeast and found that it did cut the mixing to serving time in about half as opposed to using regular yeast.

Mrs. Lindsey, who is head cook, has been working at the headstart center for five years. Mrs. Cleveland, assistant cook, has worked in the cafeteria two years. In all Mrs. Cleveland has worked at headstart for nine years because she started out working in the classroom.

"We really enjoy working together," Mrs. Lindsey said, which is obvious as the two busily prepared lunch plates for the children.

The work may be hectic but they have their lighter moments, too. "Sometimes we seem like Lucy and Ethel," Mrs. Cleveland laughs.

SOME OF the most popular foods the headstart children enjoy are potato casserole, hamburger casserole and corn dogs.

Although the potato casserole recipe calls for hashbrowns, they use French fries instead.

Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Lindsey also serve chicken livers, which they call "Liver McNuggets."

"The children love them," Mrs. Cleveland says. "They think it's something else - definitely not liver." And the two tease that if they give the children a little ketchup "they'll eat anything!"

To prepare the chicken livers, they soak the them in cold water for about half an hour. After draining them they dip them in buttermilk and put plenty of self-rising flour, salt and pepper on them. They cook the livers for about four minutes and drain.

Another "good idea" they have learned is serving kosher dill pickles with a nourishing meal the children might not like. It's an idea that works well, they say, because the children eat the pickles along with their vegetables.

INSTANT YEAST is available in local groceries. One brand is called Red Star, Mrs. Brown said.

The following recipes are ones Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Cleveland use. These recipes will come in handy to prepare since it's the time for family reunions and church dinners.

Rolls

2 Qts. water
7 1/4 qts. flour
1 and one-third c. nonfat dry milk
1 and two-thirds c. sugar
1/4 c. salt
1 and two-thirds c. shortening
one-third c. plus 2 Tbs. instant yeast

Put water into mixing bowl. Add all ingredients except instant yeast.

Blend eater and ingredients with dough hook for 1 minute on low speed. Add instant yeast to center of mixture. Mix on medium speed of 3-speed mixer (third speed of 4-speed mixer) to full development. (a) With bread flour, mix approximately 8-10 minutes; (b) with all purpose flour, mix approximately 5-7 minutes.

Cover dough in bowl. Let set until doubled in size (approximately 30-40 minutes).

Punch down dough. Cut of "pinch off" 1 oz. rolls; shape and place on lightly greased sheet pan. Let rise to double in size (approximately 30-40 minutes). Bake about 18 minutes at 400 degrees until golden brown in color.

Makes 100 rolls.

French Bread

11 qts. flour

GAS-PERMEABLE LENSES
While many people lament the current state of the world (often with good reason), it is also true that we are living in an age which offers many advantages over the past. Nowhere is this more true than in modern vision aids.
A new generation of lenses is being made from a variety of improved polymers (plastics). These include CAB (cellulose acetate butyrate), silicone, and a polymer generally referred to as "Polycon." While each is somewhat different, they all offer superb optics as well as numerous advantages.
These gas-permeable lenses permit more oxygen and carbon dioxide to pass through them, allowing the cornea to "breathe" directly from the air. They allow better pumping of tears across the eye's surface, and transmit heat more readily. These qualities not only increase comfort, but they allow modern lenses to be worn longer -- up to two weeks -- before there is any need to remove and clean them!

The Olympic Games, like many other events, are named for their original site, Olympia, Greece. There was only one race and the prize was an olive wreath. The modern Olympics were first celebrated in Athens in 1896. They have grown enormously in scope, complexity, and range of individual athletic achievement. David Wallechinsky has compiled a history and record of the games entitled "The Complete Book of the Olympics."

Skilled at compiling data, he is joint author of "The Book of Lists," this author has likely answered most questions on this subject.

The fate of the Russian royal family at the beginning of the revolution in that country has been certain for all but one, Grand Duchess Anastasia, beautiful young daughter of Tsar Nicholas II.

The possibility that she escaped murder on July 18, 1918 has been the subject of numerous magazine articles, plays, and a moving picture. Was Anna Anderson really Anastasia?

In his new book, "Anastasia: the Riddle of Anna Anderson," Peter Kurth says that new evidence and a recently discovered file at Harvard University unravels a story more heartbreaking than any fiction.

Ken Hogue and David Senter shot a two day total of 127 to capture the Booneville Country Club's Celebrity Golf Tournament last weekend.

The Fulton duo edged out last year's winners, Dennis Bumpas and Bobby Dean Davis, by three strokes.

Both teams were tied after eighteen holes on Sunday. However, Hogue and Senter pulled away from the team from Corinth on the back nine holes.

In the first flight John Ferrell of Booneville and Don Carpenter of Oak Ridge, Tenn., led. They were followed by John Floyd and Chris Shackelford of Booneville.

Second flight honors went to John Wallin and Mike Joyner of Trenton, Tenn. Manfred Saylor and George

Coach Miller Resigns At Baldwin High

By GREG SHOOK
Sports Writer

Baldwyn High School has announced the resignation of Gary Miller from its coaching staff.

Miller, who coached boys' and girls' basketball, tennis and girls track will be returning to his home town of Hatley where he will be taking on the boys' basketball coaching job and ill teaching a course in Mississippi History.

Last year at Baldwin Miller compiled an 18-13 record in boys' basketball and a 28-6 girls' record. He also taught general science at the high school.

"I am really happy about going home," Miller said. "I have a brother who is the head girls' coach down in Hatley and I am looking forward to going down there to help him out.

"I have a lot of family in Hatley. And I will enjoy being down there with them," he said.

"I have enjoyed coaching in Prentiss county and at Baldwin. They have great kids here," Coach Miller said.

Reportedly, James Jobe a coach at East Union High School, has accepted the coaching job at Baldwin. However, Jobe was not available for comment prior to press time.

Two BHS Girls Sign With UNA

By GREG SHOOK
Sports Writer

University of North Alabama head basketball coach Wayne Byrd announced the signing of Dianne Harris and Vanessa Groves last week.

Coach Byrd and the Lady Lions managed a 25-5 record last season before being put out of the NCAA tournament by Valdosta State in double overtime.

In the last two years Coach Byrd and his Lady Lions of Florence, Ala., have compiled a 41-16 record.

Harris and Groves, both Booneville natives, were 1983-84 season standouts for the Northeast Junior College Lady Tigers.

Harris, a 5'8" center, averaged 22.2 points and 10.9 rebounds last year at Northeast. She was selected as Most Valuable Player in the Mississippi Junior College All-Star game.

Harris had been recruited by the University of Arkansas plus many other senior colleges before signing with UNA.

New BHS Coach Changes His Mind

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

Booneville High School Principal Mac Curlee announced this week that the school's newly hired girls' basketball coach, Gary Post, has resigned.

Post accepted the position almost one month ago. However, the school had not made an official announcement until this week.

Curlee told The Banner-Independent that Post informed the school of his resignation last week.

"Coach Post had officially accepted the position earlier," Curlee said. "However, family matters caused the coach to change his plans."

According to Curlee, Post's wife had accepted a promotion in her company which required her to move to Northeast Mississippi. But, after learning that his wife's job would be in Tupelo, rather than Booneville, Post decided to apply for an opening in the Tupelo School System.

Former Tupelo girl's basketball coach Michelle Prince resigned earlier this year and Post said he resigned from the Booneville position to apply for that opening.

Curlee said the school will continue its search for a replacement and plans call for a new coach to be named "very soon."

"We plan to hire a replacement within the next few weeks," Curlee said. "We want to hire someone so they can come in and meet with the players and plan summer workouts."

Curlee said anyone interested in the Booneville position should contact him at BHS by calling 728-5445.

Bearcats Take District 1 BB Baseball Title

The Baldwin Bearcats took a 13-2 win over the Mantachie Mustangs last Saturday at LJC Field to claim the District 1BB baseball title and advance to the finals of the North State baseball tournament this week. Leading hitters for the Bearcats were Tracy Grice who went four for five, Greg Tucker and Kevin Cole, who both went two for four and Corey Starks who hit two out of five. Greg Tucker was accredited for the five hitter win while Dan Reynolds suffered the 15 hit loss for the Mustangs. Baldwin stands at 11-11 overall and 7-2 in district play.

Both City Parks Announce Summer Schedules

According to Booneville City Park Director Roger Inman, registration for summer church-league softball will be Saturday, May 12, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the swimming pool. All churches wishing to participate should send a representative to the meeting, Inman said. He said registration for T-ball, Little League and girls' softball will be held May 19, from 9 a.m. to Noon at the city pool. "All youngsters who would like to play should be at the pool for the registration," Inman said. He said there will be a $5.00 registration fee, which will go to the cost of uniforms and park up-keep. T-ball participants must be between seven and nine years of age. Little Leaguers must be between 10 and 12. Inman said age limits for girls' softball have not yet been set. "We are looking for a big turn out of kids this year to participate in the program," said Inman. Anyone wanting further information about any of the summer programs should contact Inman at 728-3440 or William Dallison at 728-4750. The East Booneville Park has announced that Little League registration has been set for Saturday, May 12, at 4 p.m. at the Park Community Center. All children 12 and under are urged to attend. Parents are also welcome to attend.

Fishing Roundup

Sardis Is Best Lake This Week

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

THE WEATHER has warmed up and finally the fish have started biting. And, for area anglers that brings a sigh of relief. The heavy rains in April and the first week of May have caused the water level of most area lakes to be extremely high. According to area semi-pro Danny Comer of Baldwin, the fish are in shallow water due to the rising waters. "The rain that we have had in the past few weeks has really raised the water level," Comer said. "The fish are in the shallow water now, usually one to four feet deep."

FISH HAVE BEEN BITING real well at the area lakes, especially at Bay Springs. Spinner baits and worms are the best lures for catching them, according to several reports. The water temperature at Bay Springs is around 67 degrees, which is a good temperature for fishing; the best water temperature for fishing being between 65 and 75 degrees, according to the pros.

REPORTS SAY the best color at Bay Springs has been chartreuse so far this spring. Also, the fish seem to be very active right now. According to Comer, the best lake for this week is Sardis Lake. "There have been a lot of bass and crappie caught already at Sardis," he said. "They are usually very shallow at Sardis and fishermen should fish about two or three feet deep for the best results," Comer said.

THIS WEEK'S fishing tip should give area anglers an idea of where to fish at the lakes mentioned above. Because of the high rains, a lot of the green grass along the shallow portions of the lakes is under water. Most of the time, there will be fish in these spots. Anglers should fish these areas for the best results.

Tournament Update
THE TUPELO BASS CLUB held their first Pickwick Lake tourney last weekend. Billy Langford captured the top spot with 12 pounds. Comer finished second with 9 pounds, 7 ounces, and Mark Gwin took third place with 8 pounds 5 ounces. There will be a Red Man Tournament at Sardis Lake on May 13. The weigh-in area will be at Engineer's Point. If you have a question or a tip on fishing, or if you would like to tell about your prize catch, drop me a line (without a hook). Write me at: Fishing Roundup, The Banner-Independent, P.O. Box 269, Booneville, MS 38829. Until next week, good fishing!

Small Field, But 'Successful'

Weather Mars Gaston Baptist Centennial Run

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

The Weather played havoc with the second annual Gaston Baptist Church Centennial Run last Saturday. Only a small number participated in the event. However, the run was very successful, according to Pastor Milton Koon, and "everyone had a wonderful time." The run is the only road race in Prentiss County at the present time. The Boone Hill Festival run has not taken place for several years. Several excellent times were posted in the Gaston run. Larry Fleming was the overall winner in the one mile run with a time of 6:02. Benny Eaton took the overall award for the four mile event with a time of 28:54. Dan Floyd holds the overall record in the four mile run with a time of 24:56. Jennifer Randolph of Pontotoc proved to be an inspiration to everyone. The winner of her age division for the past two years, Randolph is only six years old. She said she had been running for several years and enjoys it very much. Following are the winners in each age division for each event:

FOUR MILE RUN

0-11 girls: Jennifer Randolph, 43:45; 31-45 girls: Becci McCutchen, 50:03; 46-59 girls: Ripple Bullard, 54:14; 60 and above: Avis Ryan, 55:15.
12-17 men: David Jenkins, 31:29; 18-30 men: Cliff Cartwright, 30:16; 31-45 men: Benny Eaton, 28:54.

ONE MILE RUN

0-11 girls: Jennifer Johnson, 8:32; 12-17 girls: Amanda Murphy, 8:22; 18-30 girls: Marsha Cox, 13:04; 31-45: Brenda Cox, 10:11.
0-11 men: Kerry Jackson, 8:24; 12-17 men: Larry Fleming, 6:02; 18-30 men: Terry Hunt, 6:40.

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

Booneville High School athletes took five first place awards in the Body Connection's recent meet. Booneville's Steve Collins, Dal Stell, Alan Tollison, Robby Rogers and Mark Lothenore all captured the top spots in their respective weight classes. Three Booneville citizens also won First Place in the Open Division.

Ray Moore won First Place in the 132 Pound Class, Art Jumper won the 148 Pound Class and Nelson Cole took top honors in the 242 Pound Class. Tupelo native Roy Crayton took the Overall trophy for his lift of 550 pounds. Coach Wayne Jones, one of the event's sponsors, called the event "a total success." Jones said plans call for the meet to become an annual event. "We had an excellent turnout and we hope for a bigger crowd next year," he said.

Winners in the High School Division were: 132 Pound Class - Steve Collins, First, and Jerry Kendrick, Second; 148 Pound Class - Dal Stell, First, and Tommy Osborn, Second; 165 Pound Class - Alan Tollison, First, and Junior Whitaker, Second; 181 Pound Class, Robby Rogers, First, and Jeff Lyles, Second.

ASCS Enters Computer Age At Local Office

By C.E. CALVERT
County Executive Director

ASCS at the county level has begun preparations for implementation of a computer system with many capabilities. The first major task is to assign tract numbers to farm land based on each ownership tract. This will not affect farm serial numbers as presently in use. However, each ownership tract within the farm serial number as presently used on ASCS records will be identified and a tract number assigned.

Automation of county offices is expected to be integrated with Data Processing through ASCS by May, 1985. County offices will use on-site data processing systems to support the operational and management functions. At the present time, county offices use digitizers, programmable calculators, special forms and type elements for machine scannable documents, addressing machines, and other related equipments.

Desirable improvements that are expected by development of new computer technology include eliminating paperwork, direct support of daily operations, reducing tedious manual processing, speeding communications, sending information to all who need it, reducing unnecessary reports, enhancing the ability to carry out new procedures and greater uniformity and accuracy in operations.

In today's environment, most county office records are maintained in the county office with procedures and forms originating in the Washington and State Offices. Under the new procedure, this will not change; however, instead of paper, the records will be maintained on electronic recording media with access through a typewriter-like keyboard. Records will be viewed, as selected, on a video screen.

This screen and associated keyboard will be the primary work station. In addition to record keeping, the computer will have the capability of preparing listings of producers in particular program matters, prepare address labels, place addresses directly on envelopes, prepare forms with information filled in, prepare printed forms in their entirety, transmit program and accounting information, and transmit electronic mail.

The application of the equipment to be installed will cover a wide spectrum of activities. The ASCS office will be able to secure information that farmers need much more rapidly than has been the situation in the past. Enrollment of farms in programs will be simplified.

Service to the public will be enhanced in every respect. We are looking forward to the installation of the new computer system and believe that it will be of great value to farmers and other individuals who transact business with the county ASCS office.

County Educators Work On AIM Plans

Prentiss County teachers assembled at Hills Chapel School on April 19 for an AIM workday.

Kathleen Arnold, Virginia Cox, Eddy Mae Spencer and Martha Murphy are shown working on the 5th grade AIM plan.

J.W. Greene, Superintendent and Garry English, AIM Coordinator, addressed the group before the work session.

Jack Arnold, Phil Worley, Kathy Trimble and Janet Hodges were a part of the Science committee.

While teachers worked on their AIM plans, aides and first grade assistants attended a workshop at the Educational Service Center conducted by Janie Alexander.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Brokenness

Text: Psalm 51:17

"The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise."

By Dwight R. Massengill

A universal principle set forth in nature and set forth in the Word of God is that whatever is used must be broken.

Before an ear of corn can be raised, the ground must be broken. Before the new house is built, the trees must be cut down and sawed up. The wheat crop must be broken down into smaller particles before wheat bread is made. The egg shell must be broken before you have eggs for breakfast. The peanut shell must be broken before you enjoy eating peanuts.

There are many broken promises in life, broken hopes, shattered dreams, and unfulfilled ideals. But to the child of God, however, every broken thing is but the assurance that God is making something better!

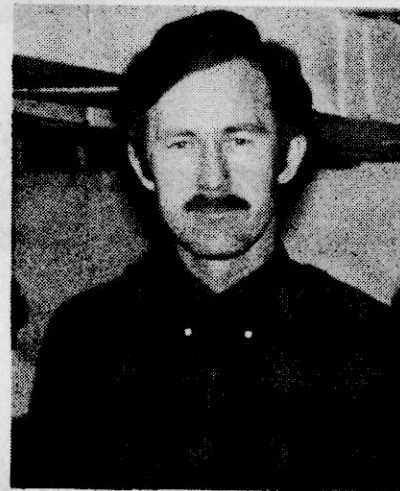

If you are being broken by disappointment, loss or pain, weakness or sickness, remember that although to us broken things are tragedies, to God they are stairways to get to His glory! We throw aside the broken things and call them "junk," but our Lord throws aside the unbroken things and calls them useless!

Roy Hession said, "To be broken is the beginning of revival. It is painful, it is humiliating, but it is the only way. It is being, "Not I, but Christ." and a "C" is a bent "I." There is no one more beautiful than one who is broken to do the will of God!

Let us remember that every trial, test, or problem in our lives will make us bitter against God, or make us better for God; according to the attitude we take.

So, as brokenness comes, may we respond with humility to His working, filing, and chiseling in our lives.
