Roundup

Shooting Death

Michael Starks, 20, of 308 N. Lake St., Booneville, died Sunday of an apparent shotgun wound to the chest, according to Prentiss County Sheriff W.V. Horn.

Starks was shot with a 410 shotgun in the center of the chest, Horn said.

Starks was reportedly found in the bedroom of his home, Horn said.

Prentiss County Coroner James Horn said the North Mississippi Ambulance Service received the call concerning Starks around 6:55 p.m. Sunday.

An autopsy was performed Tuesday afternoon on Starks in Magnolia Hospital in Corinth. It will be 2-3 weeks before the autopsy results are known.

"The wound appears to be self-inflicted," Coroner Horn said. "But it could be something else. We won't know for sure until we receive the autopsy results."

March PO Construction

Construction for the new Booneville Post Office could possibly begin in March or April, according to Booneville Postmaster Jack Wright.

"An architect is working on the plans now," Wright said. "I'm guessing that construction might begin the first of March or April," he said.

The new post office will be located adjacent to Kentucky Fried Chicken on Highway 45.

Escapee Caught

A prisoner who walked away from the Prentiss County jail late Monday night was apprehended by the Baldwin Police Department the following night, according to Prentiss County Sheriff W.V. Horn.

Raymond Price, 19, of Airport Road, Baldwin, had been let out of jail to sweep floors when he apparently walked away from the jail Monday night. He was in jail on charges of breaking and entering.

Sheriff Horn said Price was on parole and would probably be transported to another facility.

A hearing for Price had not been scheduled as of early Wednesday morning.

Lawsuit Dismissed

A lawsuit filed by the family of Jerry Wayne Lewis against former Prentiss County Sheriff John McCauley has been dismissed by Circuit Judge Frank A. Russell on the grounds that the Lewis family had no case.

The case was scheduled to be tried Monday during the first day of the vacation term of Prentiss County Circuit Court.

The Lewis family filed the half-million-dollar lawsuit against McCauley after Lewis was reportedly shot and killed by his brother during a family argument Aug. 4, 1983.

The suit claimed that Lewis' death was caused by the sheriff's department failure to come to the Lewis residence after breaches of the peace had been reported.

Greg Keenum of Booneville, attorney for McCauley, said "The judge agreed that the law didn't compel McCauley to go out there without an arrest warrant and one was never presented to the sheriff's office. The judge said, according to the law, the sheriff had no right on private property unless an affidavit and arrest warrant were signed."

James Mathis of Corinth, attorney for the Lewis family, could not be reached for comment.

Electricity Extended To Wilson Point

BY ED WOODWARD
Managing Editor

Twelve electric poles now line the road back to Wilson Point and the Prentiss County Electric Power Association is in the process of stringing power lines to a house being built by Cecil Smith on a hill overlooking Bay Springs Lake.

The project is the culmination of a saga that began early this year when Smith approached the PCEPA board of directors to ask them to reconsider charging him a deposit of $1,000 per pole to provide electricity to the site, which he admitted he planned to develop.

That meeting was declared in executive session by then-board president Percy White and The Banner-Independent was forced to leave, prompting a request for an attorney general's opinion on whether the PCEPA was subject to the state's Open Meetings Law.

It was also Smith's attempts to obtain electric service for Wilson Point that spearheaded the drive to obtain a quorum at last month's annual PCEPA members' meeting at which Smith and three other challengers, Marjorie Waters, Jack Wright and Ronald Michael, attempted to unseat four incumbent directors whose terms were expiring.

Prior to the beginning of construction of the Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway Divide Section in 1978, the area had been served by the Tishomingo Electric Power Association. But, when construction began, the TEPA abandoned all service west of the Allen Line Church.

Smith first attempted to get the PCEPA to provide power to the area, but said he felt the requested deposit of approximately $18,000, was exorbitant.

The Banner-Independent investigated the possibility that the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers might be responsible for restoring power. But the Corps' Nashville District Office determined that there had been no electric service to the area known as Wilson Point prior to the TEPA abandonment.

Because of that, the Corps refused to assume responsibility. But a Corps engineer, John Hall, at first told The Banner-Independent that the Corps would give an easement to TEPA if they agreed to extend their lines across from Piney Ridge Peninsula to Wilson Point.

According to Smith, subsequent negotiations on that possibility fell through. He then alternated negotiations with TEPA and PCEPA throughout the summer, he said. Ultimately, it was PCEPA that agreed to supply the power.

Though Smith admitted it was costing him less than the originally estimated $18,000, he declined to reveal the exact cost.

"Some people said I wanted it for free and that was why I ran for the board. But there's never been a more vicious lie spoken," Smith said.

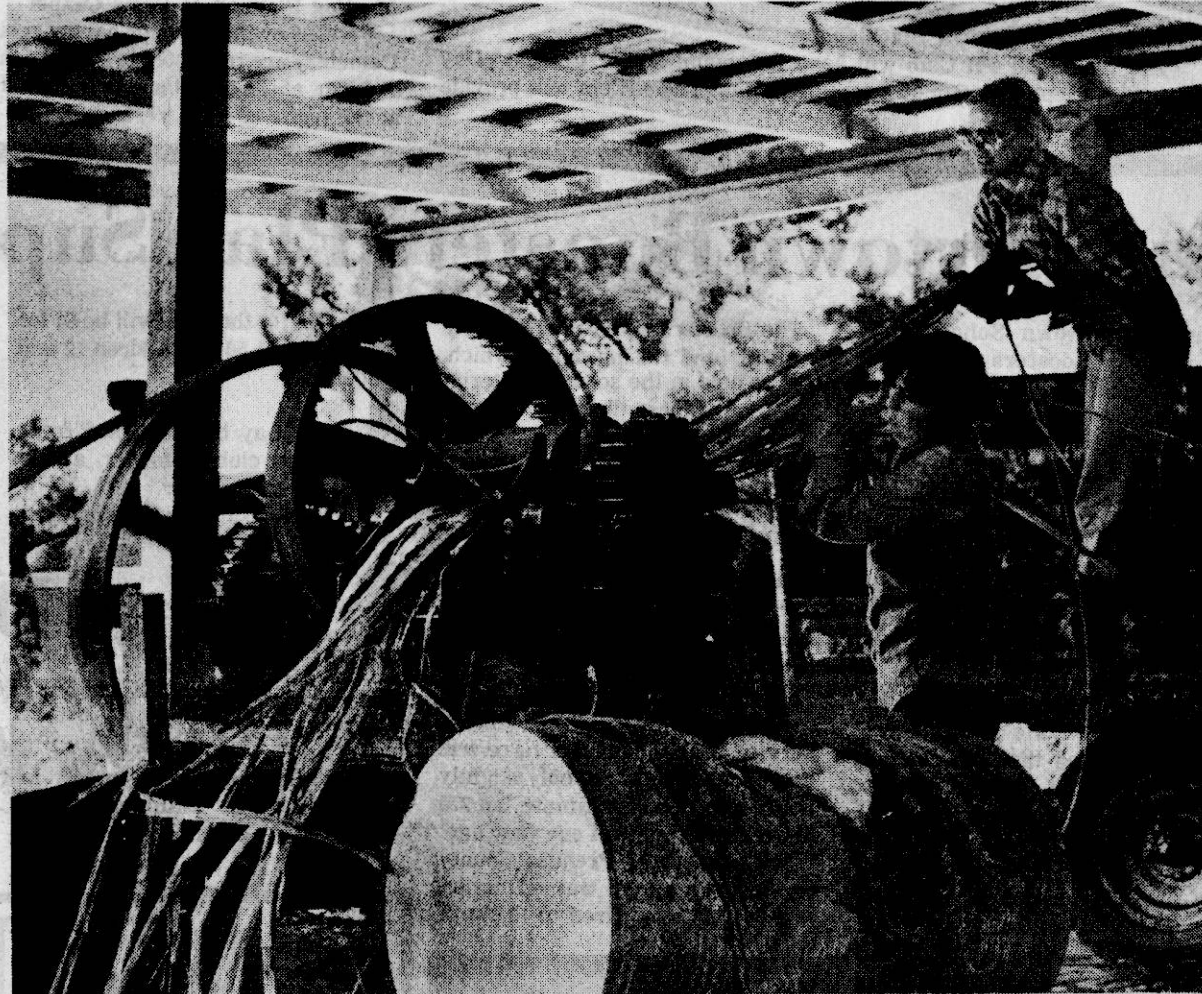

According to PCEPA general manager Ronny Rowland, the association began setting poles last week. "We've about got it finished," Rowland said Tuesday, Sept. 25.

He said he wanted to make it clear that "we are not replacing any service. This is an area we've never had a line to." According to Rowland's description of the project, a compromise was apparently worked out between Smith and the cooperative. "What we did, he asked us to run to that one location; where before he had asked us to run power to all the lots. But, we're not running power to all the lots. We're just running a line down to that one location," he said.

"The best I remember, when we first started this, we were going to put in, like, 21 poles, and there are

By ANGELA SMITH
Staff Reporter

The McKinnies are making sorghum molasses.

Making molasses is a family tradition for the McKinnies. Their molasses making goes back four generations.

The sorghum mill is located behind William L. McKinney's home in the New Hope community.

When the McKinnies begin making molasses, it turns into a family affair.

While William L. McKinney is busy at his job as Prentiss County fifth district supervisor, his father, Houston, works in the sorghum mill.

The elder McKinney has been making sorghum molasses for about 56 years. And his father, Sheldon, and grandfather, Irvin McKinney, also made sorghum molasses.

WILLIAM L. began making molasses around 1959 when he was in the eighth grade.

Delma, Houston's wife, and Zela, wife of William L., also work at the sorghum mill as does Sarah Hill, William L.'s sister.

The present sorghum mill used by the McKinnies was built in 1971.

The McKinnies begin making sorghum molasses around 7:30 a.m. and work as late as it takes to finish the job.

Houston grew about 2½ acres of his own sorghum. The McKinnies neighbors also grow sorghum so the McKinnies stay busy making sorghum until after frost.

After the sorghum ripens, the leaves are stripped and the heads are cut off. It is then run through the crusher which is located on a hill above the sorghum mill. The juice then runs through a pipe to

Goal Is $35,000

Community Fund Kicks Off '84 Drive

The Prentiss County Community Fund will kick off its 1985 drive Tuesday, Oct. 2, at 6:30 a.m. with a kick-off breakfast at the Northeast Junior College cafeteria for all Community Fund workers.

This year's goal has been set at $35,000 and Sam Milton, president of Community Fund's board of directors, said this year's drive promises to be one of the most successful yet. Last year's goal was $33,000.

Milton said this year marks many "firsts" for the organization, including:

- 1) Affiliating with the National United Way;
- 2) Moving the fund drive from May to October;
- 3) Adopting the largest budget

ever; and

-- 4) Initiating "Fair Share Giving" (asking for one hour's pay per month).

Milton said the Community Fund has also taken on a special drug awareness project for the county. The Rev. Joe Pack Arnold will chair the drug awareness program for the Community Fund.

"The Community Fund is making every effort to adjust to the needs of the community and feels the drug awareness program will help meet these needs," Milton said.

Volunteers who are serving as division chairmen for this year's drive include:

Education: Mrs. Louise Peeler, J.W. Green and Robert Griffin.
Industry: Sam Milton, Junior

'Because We Care'

Roper: Bobby Elam, Mrs. Nelwyn Murphy, R.J. Bonds, Charles Crabb, and Lanier Thompson.
Finance: Bobby Elam and Mrs.

Marjorie Franks.

Food and Drug: C.L. Davidson and Mrs. Billy Bonds.

Governmental Agencies: Charles Crabb and J.P. Davis.

Automotive: Bill Murphy and Lanier Thompson.

Professional: Dr. Ken Goodwin and Joey Langston.

Public Service: Charles Walden and Mrs. Opal Anderson.

Merchants: The Prentiss County Rescue Squad, Roy Lowery, O.C. Hare and James Chase.

Retired Business Men and Women: Mrs. Mary Dobbins.

According to Nelwyn Murphy, secretary of the fund raising organization, the agencies supported by the Community Fund are operating on the same local budget that they were in 1975.

"The needs of these agencies cannot be met at the present level of giving," she said. "The Community Fund is asking for an increase in giving in order that the agencies are able to meet the needs of the people."

"Prentiss Countians are caring people and will respond to the agencies' needs," Mrs. Murphy predicted.

Milton said that during the month of October volunteers will call on businesses in the city for their contributions.

"Remember," he said, "when you give to the Community Fund, you are giving to all 11 agencies at one time. Please adjust your gift accordingly."

BIBLE QUESTION BOX

QUESTION: When was the Bible divided into chapters and verses, etc.?

ANSWER: The Bible as we have it today, though the content is unchanged, has the addition of a number of helps. These helps must be recognized for just what they are. Helps that have been added by uninspired men. DIVISION INTO CHAPTERS is attributed to Cardinal Hugo in 1250.

While it is very helpful in locating verses in the Bible, we must remember that often times thoughts are not completed at the end of a chapter. It is easy to fall into a pattern failing to carry the thought of study from one chapter to another. DIVISION INTO VERSES is attributed Sir Robert Stephens in 1551. His son, Henry Stephens reports that they were divided on a journey on horseback from Paris to Lyons. Brother Hailey remarked that he sometimes wondered if the pen only touched when the horse bounced. Seriously they too aid in locating places in the scripture, but we must remember that they too were uninspired. The whole Bible divided into chapters and verses, first appeared in 1560 in what is known as the "Geneva Bible." CROSS REFERENCES are also very helpful but we must examine the verses in the context to see if those who supplied the references are accurate. STUDY YOUR BIBLES.

either 11 or 12 poles now," Rowland said. "So, we've cut the poles essentially in half."

"Then, before, we had transformers...it seems like there was about six of them to serve all those lots. And, now, we're just putting in one at this particular location."

"Now, at this one transformer location I think there are about five, or six or seven lots that could potentially come off of that one transformer," Rowland said.

He admitted that most future development will occur between the original power lines and Smith's new house. "That's essentially true. But there are two or three lots that would be what I would consider east of where he's actually building his house now," Rowland said.

Rowland said, though the Corps has done some developing of their land at Wilson Point, installing trash cans and port-a-potties, and designating the area as a primitive camping site, he has received no requests for power from them.

In regard to his fight to obtain electric service for the area, Smith said, "Some people told me it wasn't worth it and some said nothing and just waited for the chance to vote. But every damned one of them already had plenty of power."

"But I hope this will eventually prove that supplying the power to Wilson Point has caused no burden on anyone except the ones who wanted progress to stop in our county at someone else's expense," he said.

"For myself, the struggle has been with my left hand and words, while, with my right hand and my soul I was working for the membership of the PCEPA."

"But the people who will eventually tie onto this new line will owe me nothing. All I ever wanted was for power and service to be restored to this area," Smith said.

At Anderson Jr. High

Students Train Students

BY ED WOODWARD
Managing Editor

Last year, the students in Mrs. Barbara Holland's Scholastically Talented Enrichment Program at Anderson Junior High School talked their parents into chipping in most of the money needed to buy two TRS-80 Color Computers and software for their class.

The school came up with the balance of the money and some inactive TV sets were taken out of storage for use as monitors.

And Mrs. Holland's STEP students became the recipients of an educational advantage -- the opportunity to learn computer literacy and enjoy hands-on practice with their newly acquired skills.

This year, Mrs. Holland's students are giving other AJH students, and their teachers, the benefit of last year's training. They have, in effect, become "resource persons" for the rest of the school's population.

The STEP students are now carrying their computers into other AJH classrooms and acting as guest speakers in weekly training sessions that appear to be benefiting teachers and students alike.

The programs are being offered in the math and science enrichment classes which were added to the curriculum for all students at the beginning of the 1984-85 school year.

The STEP students bring their "computer camp" to the enrichment classes once a week. On other days the enrichment classes are devoted to drama, music, art and library sciences.

"My students go when invited to the seventh period 5th, 6th and 7th grade math and science enrichment classes," Mrs. Holland said.

She said the STEP students instruct in hardware, software, computer programming, the use of printers and in LOGO, a computer language for producing graphics.

According to Mrs. Holland, the students and their teachers have been very receptive to the program, which offers hands-on computer experience for students who would normally have to wait until they entered high school or pay to attend out-of-school class or summer computer camps.

"Also, my STEP students acquire valuable experience explaining what they have learned and working with their friends," Mrs. Holland said.

"Another positive benefit in addition to giving the students a chance to learn about computers is that it is helping the teachers who have never worked with computers to overcome their fear of them," she said.

"It does not take long to see that a computer really is not smarter than a human after all, and can only do what it is told to do."

Mrs. Holland said she feels that, through the cooperation of the classroom teachers, her students and the other students, all the students at Anderson are benefiting as they get a glimpse into the computer age.

Mrs. Holland also said her students are continuing to add to the computer related equipment available to the STEP class.

"So far this year, they have already raised $600 to use for computer maintenance and the purchase of software and other supplies," she said.

Let The Bible Answer

Hill's Chapel Church Of Christ

ROUTE 5, BOX 271—BOONEVILLE, MISS.

IS CHRIST COMING AGAIN?

While the Old Testament points to the coming of a Savior, the New Testament points to the coming of a judge. The New Testament assures us that Christ is coming again (Acts 1:9-11, John 14:1-3, Heb. 9:28).

Many have tried to set the date for the coming of Christ, but their predictions have been proven false. The coming of Christ will be at a time that is unexpected (Matt. 24:43-44, 1 Thess. 5:2). No one knows the day or the hour wherein the son of man cometh (Matt. 25:13, Mark 13:32).

The Bible describes the manner of the coming of Christ. He is not sending representatives, but is coming in person (Acts 1:11). Christ is coming in the clouds as He went away (Rev. 1:7). The coming of Christ will also be public and visible (Matt. 24:26-27, Rev. 1:7). His coming will be with power and glory (Matt. 25:31).

The purpose of the coming of Christ will surprise many. Christ is not coming back to earth to set up a kingdom and reign here. Christ is coming to resurrect all of the dead (John 5:28-29, 1 Thess. 4:15-18, 1 Cor. 15:50-58). When He comes the world will be destroyed by fire, so there can be no kingdom here on earth (2 Peter 3:9-13). The judgment will take place when Christ comes again (Matt. 25:31-32, 46, 2 Thess. 1:7-9, Jude 14-15). Death will be destroyed and the kingdom returned to God upon His return (1 Cor. 15:24-26).

Since Christ is coming and has a purpose for His coming, what should one do until He returns? The Bible teaches that we should watch and pray until He comes again (Matt. 25:13, Matt. 26:41). That does not mean that we ought to become sky gazers (Acts 1:9-11). Those who follow Christ should work until He returns (Rom. 12:1-2, 1 Cor. 15:58). Adequate preparations should be made for the coming of Christ. Only the prepared can be with the Lord for ever (1 Thess. 4:17, 1 John 3:2).

Do we believe that Christ is coming again? Have we made the necessary preparations to meet Him?

Talk 'O The Town

Street Opinion

QUESTION: Do you think a 10 p.m. curfew in the city of Booneville would help cut down vandalism?

BOBBY LAMBERT, Route 1, Booneville: "I certainly do. If we could get the troublemakers off the streets by 10 p.m. it would make the policemen's jobs easier and the good people would fair better. It's the good people we're concerned about. Tupelo has a curfew on juveniles after a certain time and it's working out good for them."

HUBERT KITCHENS of 303 Walker Ave., Booneville: "No doubt about it - because most of the stealing and vandalism occurs late at night and around 2-3 a.m. I believe the curfew would help the law abiding citizens."

PAUL BONDS of 501 Central Drive, Booneville: "If a person is going to vandalize someone's property - if they can't do it at 11 p.m. they'll do it at 9 p.m. The curfew might help a little, but you're not going to get all the troublemakers off the street - otherwise there wouldn't be any daytime thefts."

DEBBIE WILLIAMS of Route 3, Booneville: "No. If a person wishes to commit a crime, they will do so when it is convenient for them to do so, with or without a curfew."

MATTIE PERRY of Route 5, Booneville: "I think having a curfew would just be a dare for a young person. It would give them a thrill to get out and do something and get away with it. They would just try to trick the law."

KAY NAVE of 111 Terry St., Booneville: "I really don't think it would do any good. But I think the curfew would be worth a try."

(Editor's note: "Talk O' The Town" is not intended as a scientific poll of public opinion. Rather, it is simply intended to give Prentiss Countians an opportunity to voice their opinions on particular issues and topics. Maybe we'll ask you next!)

Eyes On Mississippi

Winter Forces Not Yet Ready To Give Up

By BILL MINOR
Syndicated Columnist

JACKSON, Miss. - The William Winter forces are evidently not ready to concede that being behind right now in the polls by anywhere from 12 to 23 points is conclusive evidence that Sen. Thad Cochran has the Senatorial race locked up. Their view of the situation is that the race really just started three weeks ago when Winter finally got on the tube with his paid commercials. Starting with low-keyed material reminding voters of his major accomplishments as governor, Winter's TV has now targeted Cochran's record with gradually stepped-up attacks.

Not until the poll results come in the first week in October, believe the Winter folks, will the real picture be shown on how effective their television stuff has been and if Winter has made significant movement in closing the gap.

Meantime, the Cochran camp is well satisfied with how the race has been going and what the poll results have been showing. But they too apparently are anxiously awaiting the results of their latest poll which is now in the field, to see if Winter has made any gains.

The Robert Teeter poll for Cochran in the last week of August was the one which showed the Republican Senator's lead had bulged out to 23 points, rather than showing some upward movement by Winter as the Cochran forces had expected.

What was most significant about that poll, say the Cochran people, is that it showed Cochran with 28 percent of the black vote, exceeding their hoped-for goal of 25 percent support among blacks. It also showed that Winter's unfavorable rating among blacks was as high as Cochran's.

In order to make the polling among blacks more reliable, the Teeter poll over-sampled and used a factor of 32 percent of the total vote on Nov. 6 being black. That is above the 28 percent of the total vote cast by blacks in the 1980 presidential election, the highest black turnout on record in Mississippi.

Winter forces hasten to point out that the earlier Cochran poll showing the big lead was taken before the Winter television began to run, and after Cochran had already spent almost $500,000 on TV and radio spots.

Winter's polling is now being done by Dick Morris, the fiery New York political pro who was brought into the campaign a month ago to help launch the Winter offensive. Morris had been deeply involved in Gov. Bill Allain's campaign strategy last year and is credited with countering the homosexual charges made against Allain.

Basically, Morris' polling in the Winter campaign is aimed at issues rather than matching Winter head-to-head with Cochran on which man the voters would choose at this time. Morris is assigned the task of finding where Cochran is most vulnerable and helping to gear Winter's television commercials to exploit those issues.

On a how-would-you-vote-now basis, however, the Winter camp admits their candidate is behind, but they put the point spread at 10-12, rather than in the 20's as the Cochran forces contend.

The biggest ray of optimism in the Winter camp is that the polls indicate Cochran's support is still "soft," in that he has surprisingly low hard-core commitment from voters who say they favor the incumbent Senator at this point.

When voters cannot give a reason why they are supporting a candidate, pollsters such as Morris believe those voters can be moved over to the other side with the proper stimulus.

Apparently the Winter people feel Morris is developing the right kind of strategy to close the gap on Cochran, but the main question is: will they have the money to implement it?

The thinking around the Winter campaign hierarchy was that Cochran had spent some $850,000 going into September, more than three times what they had spent, and that from here on in, Winter could match Cochran dollar for dollar on television. Now it appears that estimate was a bit too rosy since there seems to be no slackening of Cochran's heavy schedule on TV, and the Winter money is still short.

This is why the Winter forces are counting heavily on the early October poll to prove their television campaign is paying off and Winter has made significant upward movement, in order to pull in a big chunk of Mississippi money so he can stay on TV.

That probably is Winter's last shot.

Gardening Still Popular Leisure Time Activity

By ED BLAKE
Mississippi
Farm Bureau
Federation

Man's expulsion from the Garden of Eden during Genesis times obviously made gardening a lot tougher and more sweat demanding, but this 20th century finds garden tending still ranks as the number one outdoor leisure activity of Americans.

While many millions of Americans yet are engaged in the autumn phase of their 1984 gardening activities, the latest figures show that some 35 million American households planted gardens in 1983.

Gardeners surveyed as to why they persistently year after year till a small plot of soil on their premises and practice mini-farming give three main reasons which vary in importance according to whom you ask. Those reasons are to save money on food for the table, to provide fresher vegetables and fruits in their seasons and for the sheer enjoyment and exercise of it all.

For Mississippians the gardening season begins early and ends late, if at all. For many in this Gulf Coastal state it is a 12 months activity beginning with plowing and tilling in January when gardeners catch a good break in the weather. Seeding of English peas commences in late January or February with Irish potato plantings in February along with onions, cabbage, lettuce and other vegetables that need an early spring start.

Most gardens produce their best in June and July and by late summer are in the doldrums as grass, weeds, the hot sun, diseases, pests and droughty conditions often separate the leaders of the flock from the flock.

Then fall gardening activities allow those who fell by the wayside in mid-summer to redeem themselves and their efforts by cleaning up the summer growth, tilling and planting an increasingly popular group of fall vegetables such as turnips, mustard, collards, onions, broccoli and a host of other cool weather crops.

The mildness of the Mississippi winter determines the longevity of the fall garden. In the fall of 1982 turnips and mustard thrived into and through the winter in central Mississippi without being seriously damaged by the cold. But last winter they got zapped by hard freezes and that was it.

Early this spring we visited with Mr. and Mrs. Grover O'Bryant north of Kosciusko as they worked in a spring garden with a particularly good looking planting of English peas in the blooming stage. The active retired couple said they gardened because they enjoyed doing it, but also for economical reasons and because they prefer their vegetables garden fresh.

The Cecil Bennetts east of Winona had such a pretty spring garden that it caused me to turn around and go back and visit them. Cecil reported that he does the tilling and his wife the plant care. Elizabeth had done her job to perfection with inter-planting of vegetables on the same row and double plantings on a single row when appropriate.

Smilingly Cecil Bennett says they garden "for the groceries" first and then because they like to garden. The perfection of the garden however seemed to reverse their order or preference. Nearby they had a small greenhouse where they grew their own plants from seed.

Johnnie and JoAnn Bowie, a part-time farm couple near Pascagoula, grow blueberries and blackberries commercially and have a sprawling vegetable garden behind their home.

Johnnie responded to my question as to why they garden simply, "for the same reasons that farmers farm." JoAnn knitted her brow and said "I don't know!" before smiling and gazing intently at the effects of spring drought on her vegetables. Yet the tidy rows spilled the beans and provided a better answer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beavers near Lucedale, widow of the late state senator Gatha Beavers who also served as county agricultural agent in George county, maintains an impressive garden alongside Highway 98. At an age when most people are dependent on others, Mrs. Beavers continues to produce a variety of choice vegetables because she enjoys gardening, supplying her own table needs, and sharing her surplus with others.

Obviously sharing ranks high as a reason for vegetable gardening although few gardeners talk about it. Joe Rees of near Pocomah is one of those. As a part-time farmer he is somewhere near the head of that class of gardeners who excel in the art of production and sharing. Joe always plants too much, sells a good bit, and quietly sacks up deliberate surpluses many times a year for gifts to friends, acquaintances, or those in need.

Then there are many parents who still garden out on the home place to help stock their grown children's freezers in town.

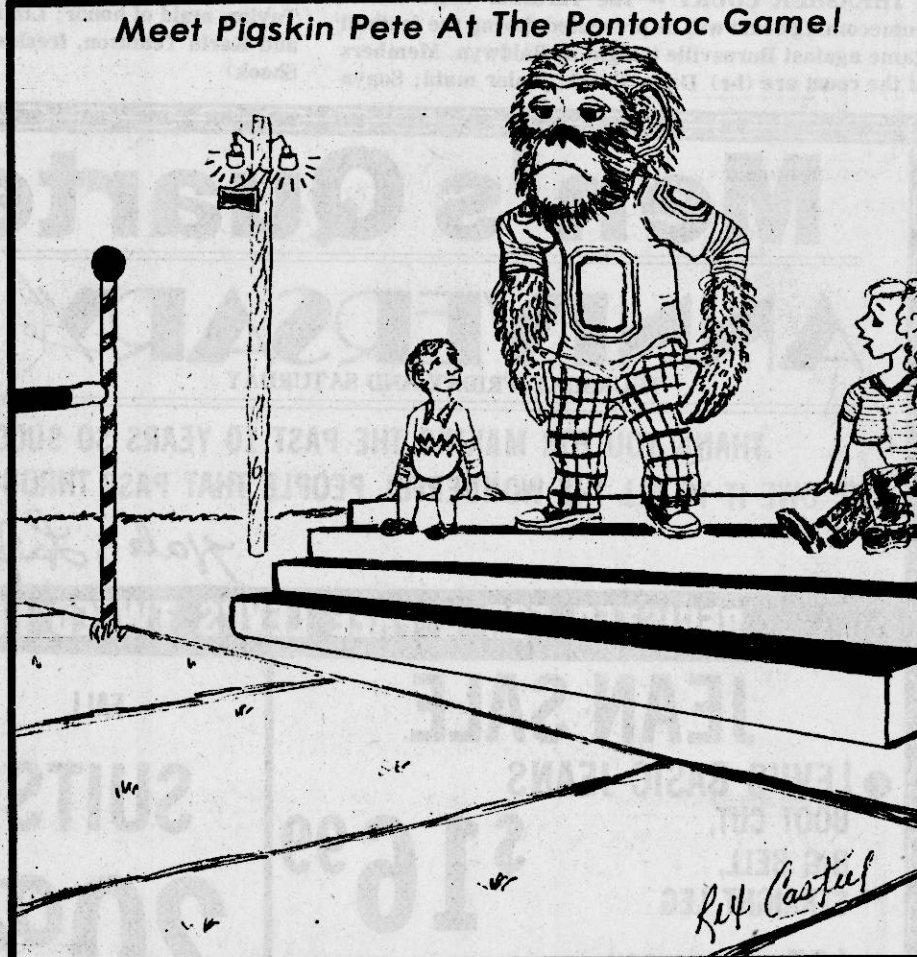

Nationally 81 percent of the households were involved in at least one form of gardening activity lawn care in 1983.

And although it ranked number one in outdoor leisure activities, it ranked sixth in overall leisure activities - surpassed by watching TV, listening to music, reading, pleasure trips in a car, and movie going - in that order.

Strangly enough, gardening ranks ahead of watching professional sports on TV, home baking, vacationing, sewing, physical conditioning, fishing, and sports participation.

Rural areas led the country with 60 percent of all households gardening while suburbs and small towns trailed with 39 percent and cities brought up in the rear with 31 percent.

That Yankee From Yonder

By Ed Woodward

Managing Editor

Though I spent eight hours in my car last Friday, the four hours I spent at Mississippi ETV's studios in Jackson definitely made the 400 mile round trip worthwhile.

The actual purpose of the journey was my debut appearance on ETV's Mississippi Week news program. But, last week, at the ETV luncheon in Booneville, Dr. Zoe Brown had offered me a tour of the facilities while I was there.

So, I arrived about 1 p.m., with two hours to spare before time for the Mississippi Week taping, plenty of time for the tour.

Mississippi ETV's offices and studios are part of the state's Education & Research Center on Ridgewood Road, in Northeast Jackson and the facilities are impressive. They cover two floors of a large building, and the instructional TV crew, including Booneville's Donna Green, occupies three large, portable, steel buildings in back.

The main floor is devoted to administrative offices and the art department, where I meet several artists and acquired a number of signed posters for my collection.

The production facilities are in the basement, which is divided equally, studios on one side and engineering on the other.

When we arrived at the studios, they were about to tape a segment of Faces, featuring real-life witches Gavin and Wanda Frost, to be aired Oct. 25. Dr. Brown introduced me to Rick Klein, director of Faces and Mississippi Week, who said I could watch from the engineering booth.

I am a fan of the horror genre in books and films. I was reading H.P. Lovecraft when I was 10 and Stephen King and Peter Straub are among my favorite authors now. The occult has always fascinated me, and I had already heard the Frosts on a talk show on WLW radio, one of those AM stations that comes in loud and clear late at night.

Though the Frosts were interesting, and even cast a spell on the hostess' cold (the public information people will let me know if it worked), I don't believe they actually gave a definitive answer to any question during the show.

My appearance on Mississippi Week was a strange experience. Unaware that I could have chosen two specific subjects to talk about, I went on cold.

During the pre-show discussion with moderator Howard Lett it was decided he would ask me for an update on our stretch of the Tenn-Tom and about the PCEPA. But I had no idea about specifics.

They wouldn't let me wave and say, "Hi, Banner Bunch," like Angela wanted me to do. But, during the show I did manage to ask two reasonably intelligent questions of the other participants. When Howard asked me a direct question, though, I felt like I was blabbering incoherently while giving my answer.

I didn't get home in time to watch the show Friday night, but Sara assured me I had done fine. Still, I had to wait until Sunday afternoon to find out for sure. And, lo and behold, my incoherent blabbering was coherent after all.

But, I have decided I need to get my eyebrows trimmed before my next TV appearance. I looked like a bald, bearded John L. Lewis with those bushy brows bobbing up and down as I spoke.

But, then, Howard Lett and I were the only ones with expressive faces. Those other two fellows were pretty deadpan. And I thought I looked awfully distinguished, too.

Lydia Darst

Miss Darst And Mr. Moore Plan October Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George V. Darst Sr. of Booneville announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Lydia Idell, to Tony Keith Moore, son of Elaine Moore of Booneville and Charlie F. Moore Jr. of Iuka.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. Wanda Chambers and Tom T. Chambers, both of Booneville, and Mrs. Frances Darst of Rienzi and the late Clyde Vernon Darst.

The prospective groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Pannell of Booneville and Mrs.

Mary Moore of Iuka and the late Charlie F. Moore Sr.

Miss Darst is a 1984 graduate of Thrasher High School. She is presently attending Northeast Junior College.

Moore is presently employed with Ed Northington Trucking Co., Inc.

The couple will be married Friday, Oct. 12, at 6 p.m. at the home of the prospective groom's mother. A reception will be held following the ceremony.

No invitations are being sent, but all friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

'Traipsin' Authors To Sign Books At Allen Library

Co-authors Nancy Brewer of Booneville and Nancy Brock Zacharias of Ripley will be available to autograph copies of Traipsin' North Mississippi Roads, Thursday, Sept. 27, from 3-6 p.m. at the George E. Allen Library.

Both Ms. Brewer and Ms. Zacharias, who are teachers at Northeast Junior College, said they compiled the 88-page travel guidebook because of a sense of pride in North Mississippi and a desire to share the information with others.

Traipsin' North Mississippi Roads is the only tourism promotion of its kind for the area of the state from U.S. 82 north.

Traipsin' tells where to eat, to sleep, to shop and have fun on the main routes as well as the backroads. The listings that have been included were of their own choosing -- no person, attraction or establishment has paid to be included. Listings were chosen on the basis of what the authors thought trustworthy and of interest to those coming this way.

The autograph party is being sponsored by the Booneville Junior Auxiliary. Ms. Brewer is a charter member and past president of the club.

Eastview Homemakers Discuss Money

Mrs. Mamie Currie hosted the East View Extension Homemakers Club meeting Tuesday, Sept. 11.

Mrs. Peggy Cleveland gave the devotion.

Roll call was answered by members naming their favorite homemaking shortcut.

AFTER THE business meeting, Mrs. Mary Sue Jones gave the focus topic, "Debt Management."

Mrs. Patty Robinson, Extension Home Economist, presented the program, "Your Money Matters." She then discussed the Holiday

House to be presented by county homemaker clubs during the first week of December.

After Mrs. Robinson's presentation, the club started plans for participating in the Holiday House. The meeting was adjourned by the president, Mrs. Cleveland. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting of the East View Extension Club will be Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Brenda Green of Marietta.

Retired Teachers Supporting Trust-Fund Bill

The Prentiss County Retired Teachers Association met in regular session on Sept. 20, at the George E. Allen Library.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Paul Dobbins, who led in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Group singing was led by Brown McCutchen, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Eva Garner.

Mrs. Ruby Inman gave the devotional using First Corinthians, Chapter 3, which states that wisdom of the world is foolish and cautions against man's glory in man.

Dean Joe Childers of Northeast Junior College spoke in the interest of a news letter released from the Clarion Ledger entitled "Retired State Workers Want Trust Protected." Copies of this letter were passed out.

A newly formed group of public retirees began a drive recently to protect the future of the state retirement trust-fund system by writing it into the Mississippi Constitution.

Membership fee is $5 per retiree and should be sent to the Mississippi Retired Public Employees Association Inc., at Jackson, Miss., to defray expenses in getting the bill through the legislature.

The bill got into committee during the last legislative session.

The state president of the Mississippi Retired Teachers Association, A.A. Alexander, was introduced by Hubert Summers.

His talk stressed co-ordination of programs. He informed the group of legislative programs affecting the retired teachers association.

A nominating committee was appointed. The committee consists of Elmer McCoy, chairman; Mrs. Verlon Honeycutt, Mrs. Eloise Shirley, Mrs. Fannie Lauderdale and Mrs. Louree Jones.

A Retired Teachers Association meeting will be held in Jackson on Oct. 9. After prayer by Elmer McCoy, lunch was served.

Church of Christ

Dear Neighbors and Friends,

On behalf of the members of the Booneville church of Christ, I want to thank you who were with us last Sunday on our BIG DAY, '84.

We had 580 in Bible classes, 745 in morning worship and fed 500 at noon.

Dr. Gerald Turner, Chancellor of Ole Miss, did a marvelous job in challenging us to take control of our lives.

If you would like a free copy of Dr. Turner's lesson, on cassette tape, write to us or give us a call.

Plan on being with us next year on our BIG DAY, '85. It will be even greater.

If we may serve you in anyway, please call on us.

Sincerely,

Doug

County Agent's Notes

By CLIFFORD HAMPTON
County Agent

This topic was brought to my attention by dairy farmers who have had problems with them. Deaths and disabling accidents occur yearly at harvest time on dairy operations. Major problems are: (1) silage cutter entanglements, (2) power take-off accidents at unloader or blower and (3) silo gas.

Silage Cutter - When servicing the cutter or unclogging the intake, kill the engine of the tractor. An electrical switch or hydraulic P.T.O. control may actuate accidentally or vibrate on. Servicing a running cutter is courting a fatal accident. It can actually pull you in before you can let a stalk go. Once it has your hand, it has all of you!

Power take-off shafts on unloaders and wagons should be guarded. No one should work by them or step over them while it is running. Do not get on blower or work on P.T.O. driven equipment or in unloading silage wagons unless the tractor is shut down with key out. An accidental start of the equipment could kill someone in contact with it. This has happened in the past.

Silo Gas - If you have to enter an unventilated silo or manure pit, borrow, rent or buy some kind of breathing equipment and always use a safety rope so you can be rescued.

Farmers working in or around silos should take precautions against fatal poisonings by gases which may collect after filling.

To prevent injury from silage gases, do not enter the silo at least a week after filling. Ventilate the silo for two weeks after filling.

When entering the silo, run the blower 15 to 20 minutes before and while inside.

If you encounter silo gases, use a self-contained breathing apparatus, while ventilating inside as much as possible, using fans.

Use a dust mask when harvesting and handling dusty feeds and forages to protect you from immediate sickness or long term lung illness.

Tractors overturns and runovers are occurring.

Don't overload the trailer or wagon; don't operate on steep inclines; don't allow riders; don't jump from a moving or running tractor. In some cases, it has been knocked into gear and caused runovers; don't over rush. Do it and properly and live longer.

For more information concerning farm safety call 728-5631 or, come by the county Extension office on 404 East Church St.

Timberline

By ROBERT THORNTON
County Forester

Soil compaction is one of the most common detriments to a shade tree's health. It inhibits the tree's ability to get needed oxygen and water from the soil resulting in reduced tree growth and increased susceptibility to insects and disease and other problems.

What is soil compaction? It is a condition in which the top soil is so dense that the pores are too tight to allow sufficient oxygen to pass through to the tree roots.

Trees and other plants need a loose soil with plenty of oxygen and good internal drainage for proper root development. Foot and vehicular traffic and construction activities on home sites are primary causes of soil compaction.

Recent studies have shown that soil compaction around the average construction site severely reduces root development of trees and landscape plants.

Leading culprits are (1) traffic on soils that are wet, including use of heavy equipment such as bull dozers and big trucks during construction or clearing, (2) routine vehicular traffic or parking in a tree's root zone, and (3) removal of surface organic matter.

What can be done to prevent soil compaction? In order to save existing trees on a construction site, the tree and its root zone (which extends out at least as far as the branches) must be barricaded off before lot clearing even begins.

Where traffic over root zones is unavoidable, a six-inch layer of coarse mulch, such as wood chips or pine bark nuggets, poured over the soil helps distribute the weight of vehicles, acting as a cushion to reduce compaction. The mulch also helps prevent bogging down when soil is wet and holds down dust during dry spells.

Trees that already suffer soil compaction need attention to offset damage incurred. Aeration is the first step. This can be done using anything that will break up the surface soil to a depth of about three inches - a sharpshoot shovel, a manual soil auger or an auger attached to an electric drill. Special push-type soil aerators are available at lawn-care supply stores. The aeration pattern should radiate out from the trunk as far as the branches or beyond.

Application of adequate fertilizer is the next step, and a regular fertilization program thereafter will help restore tree health and lengthen tree life.

Beef And Forage Field Day Planned

Area beef producers are invited to a Beef Cattle and Forage Field Day on Oct. 4 at the Black Belt Branch Prairie Unit near Brooksville.

Registration for the field day starts at 1 p.m., said Bob Coats, superintendent at the Black Belt Branch. The field day ends at 7 p.m.

During the field day, officials with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, MAFES and other Mississippi State University officials will give the latest information on beef cattle and forage production systems.

County Executive Director

Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block announced a 20 percent acreage reduction program and a 10 percent paid land diversion program for the 1985 crop of upland cotton. Program sign-up will be Oct. 16-March 1.

Producers may request 50 percent of their projected 1985 deficiency payments and 50 percent of their 1985 diversion payments when they sign up.

USDA estimates the deficiency payment rate at 19.80 cents per pound. Advance payments to eligible farmers will be half that rate.

The land diversion payment rate has been established at 30 cents per pound. This is based on the per pound payment rate times the farm yield times the acres diverted. Advance payments will be one half of the diversion payment.

A producer who accepts an advance payment, but who later does not comply with program provisions, must refund the amount of the advance payment with interest plus liquidated damages.

Secretary Block encouraged cotton producers to participate in the 1985 program and help prevent stocks from rising to excessive levels.

To be eligible for program benefits, a producer must agree to limit upland cotton acreage planted for harvest to not more than 70 percent of the farm's upland cotton base and devote to acreage conservation reserve an acreage of eligible cropland equal to 28.57 percent of the 1985 planted acreage plus 10 percent of the applicable upland cotton base.

The 1985 target price is 81 cents per pound. The loan rate for the 1985 crop cannot be determined until after Oct. 15. The statutory minimum loan rate is 55.0 cents per pound.

Other 1985 upland cotton program provisions include:

-- The 1985 acreage base will be the average of the acres planted and considered planted to upland cotton in 1983 and 1984.

-- Acreage conservation reserve acres must have been devoted to a row crop or small grains in two of the last three years. For summer fallow acreage, the cropping requirement is one of the last two years.

-- Haying will not be permitted on acreage conservation reserve land. However, the acreage may be grazed except during the five principal growing months of May 1 through Sept. 30, 1985. Block said he has approved a standby measure authorizing, in the event of a natural disaster, implementation of emergency haying and grazing privileges. Approval of the emergency privileges would be made as needed on a county-by-county basis.

-- Offsetting and cross compliance will not apply.

-- Contracts signed by program participants will be considered as binding and will provide for liquidated damages in cases of failure to comply with program requirements.

-- Recourse loans will be available for seed cotton. The seed cotton will be adjusted to a lint basis and the loan rate applicable to lint cotton will be used.

SECRETARY OF Agriculture John R. Block said farmers who participate in the 1985 feed grain, cotton and rice programs and the 1985 wheat program will be eligible for advance deficiency payments.

At the time they sign up, producers may request 50 percent of their projected 1985 deficiency payment and 50 percent of land diversion payments in those programs where land diversion payments are provided. Signup for all programs will be October 15 through March 1.

USDA estimates the wheat deficiency payment rate at $1.08 per bushel and has established the wheat land diversion payment at $2.70 per bushel. The advance deficiency and diversion payments will be half these rates.

A producer who accepts an advance payment, but who later does not comply with program provisions, must refund the amount of the advance payment with interest plus liquidated damages.

Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block has announced a 10 percent acreage reduction requirement for participants in the 1985 feed grain program.

Signup period for the feed grain program will be Oct. 15-March 1. Producers may request 50 percent of their projected 1985 deficiency payments when they sign up. USDA estimates that per bushel deficiency payment rates will be: corn, 47 cents; sorghum, 46 cents; barley, 44 cents; and oats, 0 cents. Advance deficiency payments to eligible farmers will be half these rates.

A producer who accepts an advance payment, but who later does not comply with program provisions, must refund the amount of the advance payment with interest plus liquidated damages.

Price support loan and purchase rates and target prices will be the same as in effect for the 1984 crops.

Loan and purchase rates, per bushel, will be: corn, $2.55; sorghum, $2.42; barley, $2.08; oats, $1.31; rye, $2.17.

Target prices, per bushel, will be: corn, $3.03; sorghum, $2.88; barley, $2.60; oats, $1.60.

Other 1985 feed include:

-- To be eligible for program benefits, a producers must agree to limit corn, sorghum, oats and barley acreage planted for harvest to not more than 90 percent of the farm's feed grain base and devote to acreage conservation reserve an acreage of eligible cropland equal to 11.11 percent of the planted acreage. As under the 1984 program, two bases will be established for determining permitted acreages -- one for corn and sorghum, and one for barley and oats.

-- The 1985 acreage base will be the average of the acreage planted and considered planted to feed grains in 1983 and 1984.

-- Land designated for the acreage conservation reserve must have been devoted to row crops or small grains in two of the last three years except for a summer fallow farm. In the case of summer fallow, the cropping requirement is for one of the last two years. The land must be protected from wind and water erosion throughout the year.

-- Offsetting and cross compliance will not apply to the 1985 program.

-- Haying will not be permitted on the acreage conservation reserve land. However, the acreage may be grazed except during the five principal growing months of May 1 through Sept. 30, 1985. Block also approved a standby measure authorizing, in the event of a natural disaster, implementation of emergency haying and grazing privileges. Approval of the emergency privileges would be made as needed on a county-by-county basis.

-- There will be no immediate entry in the farmer-owned reserve for the 1985 crops of feed grains. USDA intends to review the size of the reserve before regular price support loans for the 1985 crops reach maturity. At that time it will be determined whether entry into the reserve will be permitted.

-- Contracts signed by program participants will be considered as binding and will provide for liquidated damages for failure to comply with program requirements.

4-H News

By WAYNE LAND
4-H Youth Agent

Maybe you've thought in today's society your own personal efforts were probably less important than the average computer's. Maybe you've thought that what you did didn't really make a difference -- that the world would pretty much roll on without even noticing.

Well, that's not so. Today, more than ever, the efforts of one concerned caring human being can make a difference. You may not change the world, but you may change a person. And, that's not bad for a start!

At the end of a day, do you feel like somehow you didn't accomplish much? Do you read the newspapers and feel like there are so many problems that the whole situation is impossible? And, what's worse, there's nothing you can do about it. However, there is something you can do; you can volunteer your skills, talents, mind and time. You can roll up your sleeves and attack a problem, and when you've finished, you'll know you've done something that made a difference. 4-H wants to help you do something.

4-H is a voluntary educational program for youth ages 8 to 19. The 4-H motto is "Learn-By-Doing." 4-H members choose from more than 40 projects; they plan their own programs and activities with the guidance of a volunteer adviser. Materials are available to help 4-H members and volunteers to succeed and have rewarding experiences. The Extension Service provides training sessions and workshops on timely subjects and gives individual assistance when needed.

It's simple; give us a call at 728-5631 or, come by the county Extension office. We'll do the rest. We'll talk to you and find out your interest and skills. We'll even help with your training. And to make sure your volunteer experience is everything you expect it to be, we'll check with you later to see if everything is O.K. You'll never know how much good you can do until you do it.

USDA Announces 10 Percent Acreage Reduction For Cotton

Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block has announced a 10 percent acreage reduction program for the 1985 crop of extra long staple cotton.

Program signup will be Oct. 15 through March 1. Block urged ELS cotton farmers to help reduce surplus stocks and maintain a better balance between supply and demand through participation in the 1985 program.

To be eligible for price support benefits, farmers may plant no more than 90 percent of their established acreage base. A number of acres equal to 11.11 percent of the acres planted must be devoted to an acreage conservation reserve.

As required by law, the ELS cotton loan rate will be 150 percent of the loan rate for upland cotton. The upland cotton loan rate cannot be determined until after Oct. 15. Also the ELS cotton target price is required by law to be 120 percent of the ELS loan rate and cannot be determined until later. The minimum ELS cotton loan rate and target price are $2.5 and 99.0 cents per pound, respectively.

Other 1985 ELS cotton provisions include:

-- The 1985 acreage base will be the average of the acres planted to ELS cotton in 1981, 1982 and 1983, including acres prevented from being planted by conditions beyond the producer's control.

-- Acreage conservation reserve acres must have been devoted to a row crop or small grains in two of the last three years. For summer fallow acreage, the cropping requirement is one of the last two years.

-- Haying will not be permitted on acreage conservation reserve land. However, the acreage may be grazed except during the five principal growing months as designated by county ASC committees. Block said he has also approved a standby measure authorizing, in the event of a natural disaster, implementation of emergency haying and grazing privileges. Approval of the emergency privileges would be made as needed on a county-by-county basis.

-- Offsetting and cross compliance will not apply.

-- Contracts signed by program participants will be considered as binding and will provide for liquidated damages in cases of failure to comply with program requirements.

-- Recourse loans will be available for seed cotton. The seed cotton will be adjusted to a lint basis and the loan rate applicable to lint cotton will be used.

USDA Will Revise Corn Standards For 1985

Effective next September, the U.S. Department of Agriculture will clarify Sample grade requirements and include a definition for "distinctly low quality" in its official standards for corn.

These changes to the official standards for corn do not alter the present grade or grade requirements for corn, said Kenneth A. Gilles, administrator of USDA's Federal Grain Inspection Service.

The revision expands the definition of Sample grade to include previously established limits for stone, glass, castor beans, cockleburrs, unknown foreign substances and animal filth. The revision also adds a definition for "distinctly low quality" corn.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

A Meditation From 'The Upper Room'

"May you always be joyful in your union with the Lord. I say it again; rejoice! (Phillipians 4:4, Today's English Version)

As I crossed our lovely state, I noticed something beautiful in every place. First, I passed through lush grasslands that led up into high mountains covered with dense forests. Next, I came down into the desert with its many unusual plants and creatures.

I passed through irrigated fields of corn and alfalfa leading into rolling hills covered with golden grain. Last came rocky lands with herds of grazing beef cattle.

The scenery was never the same, never static, and every type of landscape had beauty. Neither is our life static -- all the same. We are called upon to play different roles at different times in our life. Even in hard economic times or times of ill health, we can find rainbows if we look for them. Scenery that is not our favorite still possesses its own beauty.

PRAYER: Dear God, help me to notice the beauty in our lives wherever we are right now. Amen.

The thought for the day: There is beauty in every landscape of our lives.

Home Economist's Notes

By PATTY K. ROBINSON
Extension Home Economist

Most of the pears in Mississippi are Kieffer pears or Sand pears. Although large, attractive and rather resistant to disease, Kieffers have a reputation of being very poor in quality.

When freshly picked, the fruit is hard, coarse and lacks characteristic pear flavor. Kieffers never ripen on the tree to a soft texture that is desired in fresh fruits.

Even when cooked they do not soften to a product entirely satisfactory in texture. Nevertheless, Kieffers make a good product if they are softened and ripened by proper storage. Harvest the fruit when its two-third to ¾ full size.

When the green color of the fruit gradually fades and the fruit become lighter or slightly yellow, the fruit is at its best stage. To prevent bruising, the pear should be picked from the tree, not shaken or knocked down.

The quality of Kieffers for preserving is improved by holding them for two weeks after harvesting at a temperature of 60 degrees to 65 degrees F by spreading pears one layer deep in a dry place. Kieffer pears can be stored up to three months at 32 degrees F and then ripened at 60 degrees to 65 degrees F.

They will soften more rapidly after being held at 32 degrees than a freshly harvested pear. The stored pears will have a better flavor and texture when they are canned, made into preserved, dried, pickled or frozen.

One pound of fresh pears is approximately 2 cups sliced pears. Two to 2½ pounds fresh pears will yield 2 pints canned pears. One pound fresh pears will yield 1 pint of frozen pears.

Canned Pears

Sort and grade pears. Peel, cut in halves, core and plunge immediately into an anti-darkening solution. In removing cores, care should be taken to cut out the surrounding tissue that contains objectionable stone cells. If the fruit is firm, drop it into water and precook until tender.

Make a syrup using 2 cups of the pear liquid and 1 to 1½ cups of sugar according to the sweetness desired. For each pint of fruit allow ½ to two-thirds cup of syrup. Boil pears and syrup 4 to 8 minutes.

If the fruit is ripe, drop it into a sugar syrup made of 1 to 1½ cups of sugar to 2 cups of water and boil for 4 to 8 minutes. Pack pears into standard canning jars, cover with syrup and remove air bubbles. Adjust lids. Process pints for 20 minutes and quarts for 25 minutes in a boiling water bath canner.

Canned pears may be used as follows:

- Baked - 350 degrees F for 30 minutes and add any desired spices
- Broiled - served with broiled meats
- Glazed - as a garnish
- Spiced - with ginger, cinnamon or cloves for desserts
- Pies - tarts, turnovers, puddings, upside down cakes or pie crisp

Pear Jam

1 pound ground pears
¼ cup crushed pineapple
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1½ cups sugar
Wash, peel and core fruit. Put pears through a food chopper using a coarse blade. Cook in quantities of four pounds or less. Mix and heat all ingredients, stirring thoroughly until sugar is dissolved. Boil mixture until it is thick and clear. Pack in standard canning jars. Adjust lids. Process in a boiling water bath for 10 minutes.

Pear Preserves

1 pound pears, cut in uniform pieces
½ to 1 cup water
¾ to 1 pound sugar, or 1½ to 2 cups
2 teaspoons lemon juice
Fully ripened fruit gives a slightly better yield in pear preserves. The riper the pears, the darker or browner the preserves. Unripened fruit makes shrunken and tough preserves. Cook preserves in quantities of four pounds or less. Preserves turn dark if they are cooked in large quantities. Peel, core and cut into uniform sized pieces. Drop into an anti-darkening solution.

Do not leave fruit in solution longer than 30 minutes. Rinse. Add to sugar and water and cook at once. Stir while heating. Boil until tender and remove pears from syrup. Boil syrup rapidly until fairly thick. Return pears to syrup and let plump overnight in the refrigerator. Pack in standard canning jars and adjust lids. Process in a boiling water bath, hot preserves for 10 minutes, cold preserves for 25 minutes. The Kieffer pear is low in acid. To achieve the tartness which most people like, add 2 teaspoons lemon juice. Recipe makes approximately 1 pint.

Pear Mincemeat

7 pounds ground pears
6 cups sugar
½ cup cider vinegar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
3½ to 7 pounds ground apples
2 pounds raisins
1 tablespoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon allspice
Peel and core apples and pears. Chop pears, apples and raisins with knife or coarse blade of food chopper. Mix ingredients and cook until thick, about 1 hour. Pack in clean standard canning jars and adjust lids. Process in a boiling water bath canner for 10 minutes. Recipe makes approximately 8 to 10 pints. Suggested using for pear mincemeat: pie, upside down cake, turnovers, stuffing for baked apples, topping for ice cream, filling for cookies.

Sweet Pear Pickles

4 quarts pears, cut in uniform pieces
2 quarts sugar
1 quart water
1 quart cider vinegar
2½ sticks cinnamon

2 tablespoons whole allspice
Wash pears, peel, cut in halves or quarters, or core. Drop pieces into an anti-darkening solution. Do not let remain longer than 30 minutes in this solution. Rinse. Steam or boil pears in one pint of water for 10 minutes. Remove pears. Tie spices loosely in cheesecloth bag. To the water the pears were cooked in, add spices, sugar and vinegar. Bring to a boil. Pour mixture over pears and let stand overnight in the refrigerator. Next day drain off the syrup and boil until thick. Add pears and cook until tender as desired. Pack into hot standard canning jars, cover with syrup and adjust lids. Process in a boiling water bath canner for 10 minutes. Recipe makes about 4 quarts.

Pear Relish

8 quarts peeled and cored pears
5 green peppers, seeds removed 5 red peppers, seeds removed
3 hot peppers, seeds removed
5 large onions
5 cups cider vinegar
5 cups sugar
1 teaspoon salt
Grind pears using coarse blade of a food chopper and drip until excess juice is removed. Grind peppers and onions. Combine all ingredients, bring to a boil and boil about 20 minutes. Fill standard canning jars, adjust lids. Process in a boiling water bath canner for 10 minutes.

Pear Butter

5 pounds pears
1 cup water
2½ cups sugar
½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
Peel, core and cut pears into eighths. Put pears and water in a heavy enamel kettle and cook over medium heat until soft. Stir to prevent sticking. Remove from heat and when pulp is cool enough to handle put it through a food mill, sieve or food processor. For every 1 cup of pulp add ¼ cup of white or brown sugar.
Return to the heavy kettle and bring to a low boil until the sugar is melted. Cook quickly over medium-high heat to a brisk boil, stirring constantly. Mixture scorches easily. Cook puree until it mounds slightly on spoon and has a sheen to it. As butter begins to thicken add spices. Ladle butter into clean, hot jars leaving ¼-inch head space for ½ pint jars and ½-inch head space for pint jars. Adjust lids and process in a boiling water bath for 10 minutes.

Variations: Omit cinnamon and cloves. Instead add ½ teaspoon scraped lemon peel and ½ teaspoon of freshly grated nutmeg.

Deadline For Crop Insurance Applications September 30

September 30 is the last day to apply for Crop Insurance for wheat in Prentiss County. Crop Insurance covers unavoidable loss of production resulting from adverse weather conditions, disease, insects or fire.

"Many farmers are not aware of the newest changes in the Federal Crop Insurance program," said Ralph Gillespie, District Director for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation. The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation is an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"Today's Crop Insurance can be tailor-made to meet protection needs against adverse growing conditions for a variety of individual farmers."

"By choosing Crop Insurance protection, farmers may close the gap between planting and harvest by minimizing problems which prevent completion of a successful growing season," said Gillespie.

Now marketed through private insurance agents and companies, the Crop Insurance program has been renovated to be more responsive to the needs of today's farmers. Insurance needs can be tailored to meet a specific financial obligation, allowing the producer to repay loans or cover out-of-pocket expenses," said Gillespie.

For more information about the program, producers should contact an authorized Crop Insurance agent. To select an agent, producers should check the list of agents available at their county ASCS office. Applications must be made no later than September 30.

the mill where it is cooked until just the right consistency. The sorghum is cooked over a gas flame -- which is much easier than using wood slabs for heat, William L. said.

"There's nothing easy about making molasses," he said. "It's hot and hard work. But if I didn't like it, I wouldn't do it."

The sorghum mill is located under a shed -- so the McKinnys can make sorghum molasses rain or shine. "I've been here sometimes when the lightning was so bad I think I should have been in the storm house instead of cooking molasses," Houston grinned.

THIS YEAR two women, Angelet Ward and Debra Bullock grew their own sorghum. "They

NEW POLE UP AT 4 & 45 - Heritage Cablevision workers connect their cable to a new pole installed by South Central Bell on the corner of Church and Second Streets. The original pole had to be replaced after it was knocked down, dropping the traffic lights (foreground) to the street. The pole was sideswiped at 5:28 p.m. Monday, when Wayne Hackathorn, a driver for Bingham Systems of Booneville, cut the corner short on a right turn with his semi-trailer rig. even worked the sorghum with a garden tiller," William L. said.

Not only did the women grow their own sorghum, they even fed the sorghum cane through the crusher -- which is hard work for anyone -- especially someone who has never made molasses before, he said.

The McKinnys have customers from all areas. In addition to people coming from all corners of Prentiss County to purchase molasses, people travel from Corinth, Burnsville, Iuka, Belmont, and Cherokee, Ala., because the McKinnys have the reputation of making good molasses.

There are many people who buy the sorghum molasses to carry to their relatives out-of-state.

School groups frequently tour the McKinney's sorghum mill.

"Visitors are always welcome," Houston said. "I'd like to see others get interested. We need some young molasses makers."

"THIS YEAR seems to be a good year for sorghum molasses -- we're making good syrup," William L. said.

"No two crops make the same," he added. "There's a difference in every crop of sorghum. It depends on the type of soil."

After making so much molasses one might think the McKinnys might tire of eating molasses. Not so.

"I eat some about every morning," William L. said. "You can't beat good sorghum molasses."

BHS Insights

By MICHELLE DOWNS
BHS Journalism Student

"Go, Devils, Go!! Go Devils, Go!!" BHS fans yelled Friday at the game against Kossuth.

The Devils played with mighty force, giving the Aggies a "run for their money," but sadly lost 19 to 6. Losing a game makes them work harder for the next one, and they are ready to meet the other challengers of the year.

Support the team and attend the next game Friday, Sept. 28, at NEMJC.

Besides football, other activities are on the road at BHS. Wednesday, Oct. 3, the BHS journalism staff will set out on a short trip to Tupelo. A tentative schedule includes visits to the journalism staff at Tupelo High School, a tour of the radio station, the newspaper, and the television station. Seeing professional employees hard at work, the staff will have a better understanding of journalism as a career.

During the next school day, Oct. 4, members of the Anchor Club, Space Club, and FHA will travel to MUW and tour the university. Afterwards, they will visit the Columbus Air Force Base and late that night "break into action" with one of the most popular groups of today - Alabama. Held at MSU, the concert should be a "Dixieland at College."

Schedule of Events

Students

Attend Camp

Ellen Kirk and Amy Elizabeth Kirk of Booneville attended summer cheerleading and gymnastic camps at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Cheerleaders enrolled in high school, junior high school and middle school attended the four-day instructional session.

The camp featured instruction including classes in cheerleading conditioning, gymnastics safety and techniques, new cheers and chants, leadership seminars, pompon routines and private coaching on a daily basis.

Gymnastics camp helped participants attain their maximum potential in gymnastics.

MR. AND MISS J.H.S. - Scotty Blassingame and Karen Phillips have been chosen Mr. and Miss J.H.S. at Jumpertown High School. This is one of the highest honors a student can receive. Karen, the daughter of Betty Jo Phillips, serves as editor of the annual staff and is a member of the F.H.A. Club. During high school, she has been chosen F.F.A. Sweetheart, Best All-Around, Most School Spirited, and Most Feminine in the Who's Who. She has also served on the paper staff and cheerleading squad. Scotty, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blassingame, is a member of the varsity basketball team, the F.F.A. Club, the Beta Club and the annual staff. He has also served as editor of the paper staff, and was selected as Campus Cut-Up in the Who's Who.

Anderson Junior High PTO Elects Officers For 1984-85

The Parent-Teacher Organization of Anderson Junior High School met at 7 p.m. on Sept. 17, in connection with the school's Open House Activities.

Election of officers was the main item on the agenda. Those elected to serve as the 1984-85 officers were President, Emmett Carr; Vice-President, Bill Murphy; Secretary, Diane Johnsey; Treasurer, Reba

Hughes; and Reporter, Sue Honeycutt.

For Open House the teachers were in their rooms available to discuss with parents their area of instruction and the students' progress.

Mississippi Educational Television had a representative at the school showing what ETV has to offer students on a junior high level.

S.T.E.P. students demonstrated some of the computer software.

All parents of Anderson Junior High students and other interested persons are encouraged to become members of the Anderson Junior High School PTO.

CB Club News

By LADY BLUE SURF

Tuesday night was our first meeting of the new year. All officers were present. Birdhunter and Moma Clutch were sworn into their respective offices.

We want to welcome two new club members who will be unit No. 37. They are Eula Isabell - Coonhunter and Gladys Isabell - Five Cent.

The Spina Bifida Association is asking for anyone who will to write your senator and representatives about forming a clinic in Tupelo for crippled children.

Silver Dollar Queen has had as their guest this week her sister and family from Wisconsin.

Lady Q is feeling better, but said she was getting tired of the four walls. Big Q has had a cold.

Telephone Man and family, Termite and family, Blue Surf and family, and Butterbean Lady all spent the weekend camping. Saturday night everyone had a fish supper with all the trimmings. They were joined by the Little Rabbit family, and Airplane Man and family. Everyone sang happy birthday to Blue Surf and Butterbean Lady and cut a red velvet cake for dessert.

It was agreed to have a tacky party for the Oct. 6 social. Everyone is to come dressed tacky or pay a $5 fine. We will have judges and prizes for the tackiest male and female. Also a cake walk will be held. It will be pot luck. The Country Rhymns will entertain after supper.

Blue Surf urges all officers and club members to work together to make this a better year than last year.

The club is planning to cut wood for the public. For more information call 728-6972 or 728-7417 after 6 p.m.

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

Prentiss County is considering applying to the Governor's Office of Federal State Programs, Department of Community Development for a Small Cities Community Development Block Grant of up to $100,000. The State of Mississippi has been allocated approximately $30 million that will be made available to cities and counties on a competitive basis to undertake eligible activities. These funds must be used for one of the following purposes:

1. To benefit low and moderate income persons; or
2. To aid in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight; or
3. To meet other community development needs having a particular urgency because existing conditions pose a serious and immediate threat to the health or welfare of the community where other financial resources are not available to meet such needs.

The activities for which these funds may be used in the areas of housing, public facilities and services, and economic development. More specific details regarding eligible activities, program requirements, and the rating system will be provided at a public hearing which will be held at Board Room, Prentiss County Courthouse on October 4, 1984, at 11:00 a.m. The purpose of this hearing will be to obtain citizen input into the development of the application. 31-ITC

VOT Employer Of The Week

J.W. Greene & Keith Smith

The Vocational Business Education Department at the Prentiss County Vocational Technical School this week spotlights J.W. Greene, Prentiss County Superintendent of Education, and his student-employee, Keith Smith from New Site High School, and a part of the Prentiss County Cooperative Vocational Office Training Program.

Greene began his term as Prentiss County Superintendent of Education in January of this year. He had 20 years of teaching and administrative experience prior to his present position. He is a graduate of Northeast Junior College, Mississippi State University, where he received his Bachelors, and the University of Mississippi, where he received his Masters Degree.

Greene is married to the former Evonell Sparks, they have five children, and attend the Marietta Church of Christ. He is a member of the Lions Club, Mississippi School Board Association, and the Mississippi School Administrators Association.

Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jack Smith, and a junior at New Site High School.

He and his family attend Little Brown Free Will Baptist Church, where Keith sings in the Youth Choir.

He is a member of the Student Council, ACE, assistant editor of the school newspaper, and is vice-president of the Prentiss County FBLA Chapter.

He placed fourth in the State FBLA Computer Programming Competition last year, and was a delegate to the National FBLA Conference at Atlanta in July.

Booneville Student In Choir At Tennessee College

A Booneville resident has been selected as a member of the Freed-Hardeman College Chorus. Rhonda D. Sartin, a junior at the Henderson, Tenn., college, will be a member of the 40 member group.

The F-HC Chorus is the oldest singing group at the college. For more than 30 years it has presented programs of sacred music at churches and schools.

The group may be heard weekly on Hymns from Freed-Hardeman, aired by 39 radio stations across the country. The director is Kelley B. Doyle, chairman of the F-HC Department of Music.

Sartin is pursuing a major in word processing at Freed-Hardeman. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sartin, Booneville.

USM Homecoming Will Be November 2 and 3

Homecoming festivities at the University of Southern Mississippi Nov. 2-3 will focus on the theme, "Go for the Gold!"

A committee of student representatives from organizations across the campus selected the theme, which will be used by their groups in campus displays that become more elaborate each year. Display winners are selected in the categories of theme, beauty and originality.

Members of the Classes of 1914, 1924, 1934, 1944, 1954, 1964 and 1974 will gather for class pictures and visits at 2 p.m., Nov. 3, at the Alumni House.

Air Force Offering 3,000 Scholarships

According to Capt. Steven L. Weaver, an Air Force admissions counselor, the Air Force will be offering 3,000 four-year scholarships in 1985.

The scholarships, which cover full tuition, certain fees and expenses and a $100, tax-free, monthly allowance are available to students willing to serve at least four years in the USAF after college, Capt. Weaver said.

"Now is a good time for high school students entering their senior year to start investigating AFOTC scholarship opportunities," he said.

Of the 3,000 AFOTC scholarships to be awarded nationwide, Weaver said 80 percent will go to engineering majors, 17 percent to science majors, including computer science and math, and three percent to non-technical majors.

He said applications should be completed early to insure processing before the Dec. 15, 1984 deadline.

The scholarships are competitive and applicants must meet certain qualifications, Capt. Weaver said. The qualifications include an SAT total score of 1,000 with 500 in math and 450 in verbal or an ACT composite score of 23 with 20 in math and 19 in English, a high school grade point average of at least 2.50 on a 4.0 scale, and a high school class standing in the top 25 percent, he said.

"There is no obligation or commitment for applying, so you are encouraged to keep this educational option open," Capt. Weaver said.

He said an application booklet is available from high school counselors, or additional information can be obtained by writing him, Capt. Steven L. Weaver, AFOTC Regional Admissions Counselor; University of Southern Mississippi; Southern Station Box 5145; Hattiesburg, MS 39406.

Wheeler PTO Discusses Fund Raising Projects

The Wheeler PTO met Monday night, Sept. 24, to discuss and approve the by-laws of the organization.

Other fund raising projects were discussed.

The PTO will have a booth at the Halloween Carnival.

All parents are urged to contact the teachers to see where they can be of help.

The next PTO meeting will be Nov. 19.

Two Local Musicians At Festival With DSU Band

The marching band from Delta State University has accepted an invitation to march as the exhibition band in the Eighth annual Dyersburg Invitational Marching Festival held at Dyersburg, Tenn. on Oct. 6.

The band, making the Dyersburg contest a stop-over on the way to the U.T. Martin vs. Delta State football game that night, is scheduled to take the Savers stadium field at 4:45 in the afternoon.

The band's musical selections will include: "A Festival Prelude," "Action Front March," and Lionel

Richie's "All Night Long."

The percussion section will be featured in their rendition of Charlie Daniel's "The Devil Went Down to Georgia" and the Delta Bells dance line will perform a routine to the Dixieland classic "Five-Foot Two."

The band will then close with their traditional theme song "Darkness on the Delta" arranged by staff composer-arranger Sam Hollomon.

Members of the band from Booneville are Liz Ferrell and Linda Howell.

Counselor From Mississippi College To Visit BHS

Nancy Myers, admissions counselor with Mississippi College, will be visiting Booneville High School on Tuesday, Oct. 9, to better acquaint local students with the academic programs of the state's largest private college.

Myers will be at the high school at 7 p.m. to provide information on entrance requirements available at the College. Students interested in Mississippi College are invited and encouraged to visit with her.

Myers is one of several admissions counselors who travel throughout the state and surrounding areas visiting high schools and junior colleges on behalf of Mississippi College.

Thrasher Rebels Shut Out Mooreville Troopers

BY GREG SHOOK
Sports Writer

Dwight Shinault scored two touchdowns and gained a total of 137 yards to help guide the Thrasher Rebels to a 22-0 victory over the Mooreville Troopers last Friday night in Trooper country.

After marching 92 yards in 16 plays, Shinault put Thrasher on the board when Rebel quarterback Alan Fugitt connected to him in the end-zone.

Jeff Deaton then came on for the PAT putting the Rebels up 7-0.

Thrasher kicked-off to the Troopers and, on the first play from scrimmage, running back Jamie Franks fumbled the ball into the hands of Rebel defensive tackle Paul McCutchen giving the Rebels a first and 10 on the Trooper 34.

The Rebels attempted to score four times, but found a tough Trooper defense there to stop them and Mooreville took over again at their own 22 yard line.

On the second play of the drive Trooper quarterback Brad Hood fumbled. Robert Shumpert turned up at the bottom of the pile with the football, giving the Rebels another chance to put the ball in the end-zone. But, again the Rebels could not manage to put the ball across the white line for six.

Three more fumbles by the Troopers rounded out the first half of play leaving the Rebels with a 7-0 lead.

The second half of play opened with a blast as Rebel running back Shinault scored his second touchdown on an 82-yard kick-off return. The Rebels then faked the extra-point kick and put two more on the board as Alan Fugitt rolled right to run the ball in from three yards out.

The Rebels regained possession only three plays later on a punt to punt and took the ball 45 yards in five plays. Shumpert took it in from two yards out, and Deaton came in for the PAT, putting the score 22-0 Rebels.

In the fourth and final quarter the Rebels caused and recovered three fumbles. The first fumble came when Trooper Jamie Frank lost the football to Deaton. But Thrasher controlled the ball for only two plays before Shumpert fumbled for the Rebels.

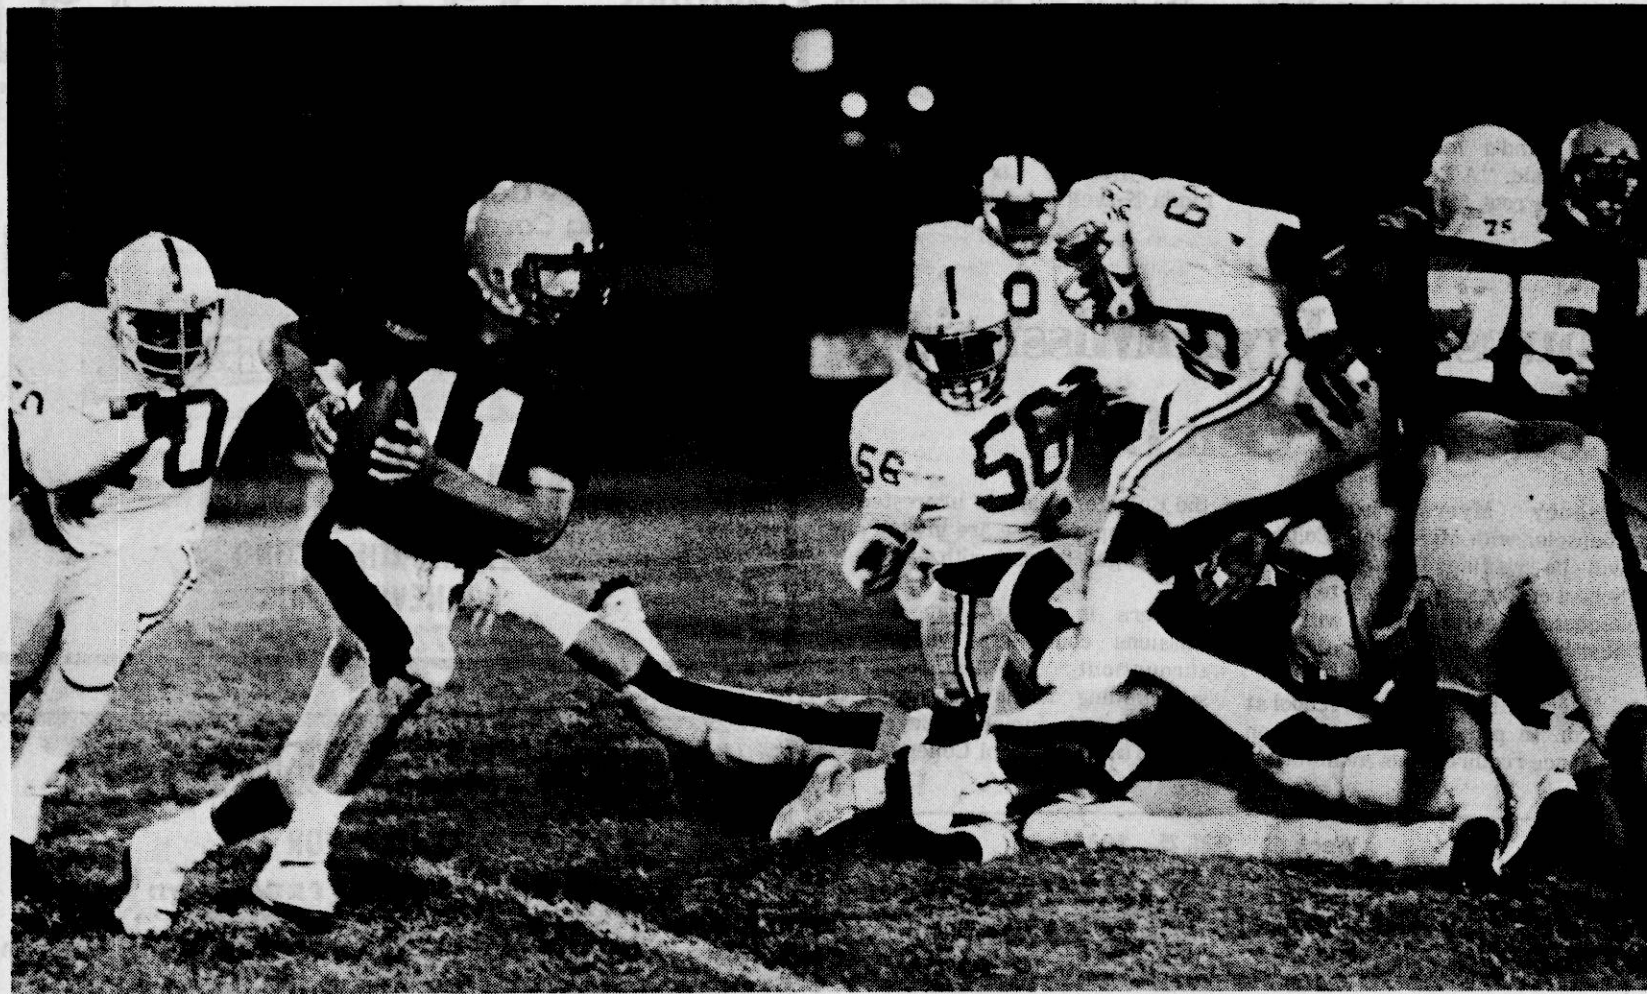

Thrasher got the ball right back when Rusty Boren fumbled to Rebel defender Jeff Reeves. On the next play Thrasher's Keith Beene fumbled to Ivy Bishop of the Troopers. And, on the next play, Trooper Rusty Boren fumbled to Paul McCutchen.

Mooreville then tried a series of passes in an attempt to score in the final two minutes. But Rebel Lamont Harvey stepped in front of a Trooper receiver to intercept.

"We played a much improved defense," said Thrasher coach Willie T. Jackson. "Our kids got after someone and it showed."

"Of course, fumbles helped us out a lot, too," Jackson said.

This puts the Rebels at 2-1 on the season. The Rebels will face the Burnsville Mustangs tonight at Latimer Park in Baldwin. This will be the Rebels' homecoming. Everyone is invited to come out and cheer on the Rebels. Game time is set at 7:30 p.m.

Tigers Drop Game 4 To Holmes

BY MARC LINDSEY
NEMJC Public Information Office

A lone touchdown by Northeast Junior College's Ray Holloway was the only bit of offense the Tigers could muster in their 30-6 loss to Holmes Junior College Saturday Sept. 22 in Keenum Stadium.

Spurred on by quarterback Tommy Wasden, the Bulldogs' offense took advantage of their breaks and steadily gained momentum as the game went on.

The Tigers, with Iuka's Randy Burton making his starting debut, played even ball throughout the first quarter, racking four consecutive first downs to drive to the Holmes 16. But a fumble gave the Bulldogs possession on their own 18.

The Tigers recaptured possession and again took the ball to the Bulldog 16, where Holmes declined a penalty for the football.

The second quarter saw the Bulldogs cranking up their offense as Wasden moved his team 70 yards in eight plays. The touchdown came on a 43-yard run by Wasden and was followed by a successful PAT.

Another Bulldog touchdown came late in the second period when Wasden connected with a 12-yard pass into the endzone. The PAT was good, bringing the halftime score to 14-0.

Two field goals in the third quarter by Bulldog Mark Jackson boosted the lead to 20, as Jackson

Devils Lose Tough Battle With Kossuth Aggies

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

The Kossuth Aggies came alive in the fourth period to pull away and beat the Booneville Blue Devils 19-6 in a hard fought district battle at Kossuth last Friday night.

Despite losing to the Aggies, Booneville Coach Wayne Jones said that he was well pleased with his team's performance. "We stayed with them the entire game and never let up," Jones said. "I felt our kids gave all they had and it helps to know that after losing a tough game."

The Blue Devils held Aggie quarterback Pat Mathis, one of the premier passers in the state, to only 59 yards passing and picked off two of his passes. Both interceptions were made by Devil Rod Coggin, who was also named the offensive player of the game.

Besides leading the Devils as quarterback, Coggin booted 6 punts for a 47.8 average, increasing his season average to an amazing 47.3 yards per kick.

"Our game plan was to stop Mathis and I thought we did a pretty good job of it," Jones said. "But he hurt us on those screens and short dump passes and those were big plays against us."

Two of the short passes by Mathis did hurt Booneville as the senior quarterback connected on two short scoring strikes that aided in the Kossuth victory.

Although the Aggies won the football game, it proved costly for coach Jim Drewry's squad. Kossuth had already lost five starters and Friday night, running back Paul Bradley went down with a shoulder separation.

The Blue Devils were more fortunate, however. They didn't lose any players but received good news as former starting quarterback Michael Blalock played against the Aggies as a place-holder on the extra points. Blalock is listed as a "possibility" for Booneville's game tomorrow night against Pontotoc.

The BHS game with Kossuth was a close, nip-and-tuck battle until the fourth quarter when the Aggies opened up their lead. Both the Devils and the Aggies had eight first downs and only 40 yards of total offense separated the two teams.

Booneville opened the scoring when Jimbo Goddard broke loose on a 36-yard touchdown run. But, a holding penalty against the Blue Devils brought the play back and BHS lost the football on a fumble three plays later.

Booneville running back and defensive end Rodney McVey, who was named the defensive player of the game, said that the play where the touchdown was called back was a big factor in the game. "That was probably one of the turning points in the game," McVey said. "We just didn't get anything going after that."

After the Aggies had recovered the Booneville fumble, they marched down the field and got their first score when Mathis connected with running back Johnny Handcock on a 6-yard scoring pass. Scott Benjamin's PAT gave Kossuth an early 7-0 lead with 2:37 left in the opening period.

Kossuth added three more points early in the second period when Benjamin booted a 39-yard field goal. The Aggies had jumped out to a 10-0 lead as a stunned Booneville team looked on.

However, the Devils snapped out of their apparent coma when McVey took a pitch from Coggin and scooted 11 yards for the touchdown. A bad snap foiled Coggin's chance at the extra point and he just missed going into the endzone for the two point conversion when he scooped up the miscue.

Booneville had fought back to within four of the Aggies at 10-6 as the teams headed to the dressing room for halftime.

Both teams played a strong rugged defense in the third period as no one was allowed a score. The Booneville defense shut down the powerful Kossuth attack as the Aggies returned the favor when the Blue Devils had the pigskin.

Kossuth finally begin to pull ahead for good in the fourth quarter as they added 9 points to their lead. There first score came when Mathis tossed another short scoring strike to Donald Wallace. Benjamin added another PAT to give the Aggies a 17-6 lead, one they would not lose.

The Aggies added some insurance to their lead two minutes later as defender Bo Seago blocked a BHS punt out of the endzone for a safety. Kossuth held a comfortable 19-6 lead with 6:11 left in the game.

"We feel like our kids gave 110 percent to the team effort," Jones said. "Sooner or later the breaks will begin to fall our way."

Booneville may need more than just the breaks tomorrow night when they host the powerful Pontotoc Warriors in Keenum Stadium. Pontotoc has been one of the favorites to win the district race. And, the Warriors showed last week that they were for real as they shut out the New Albany Bulldogs 41-0. The Bulldogs were last year's state runnerups and were expected to field another strong team this year.

Jones said the his Blue Devils must have a good week of practice and get people healthy if they expect to stay with the Warriors. "If we can cut down on our mistakes and get some key people healthy then we could possibly stay with them," he said. "They will be tough to stop. It's going to take a full team effort from everyone."

However, Pontotoc coach Tommy Morton feels his Warriors have suffered long enough in district play in the past as they are looking to win the title this year.

"We have been in the rebuilding process over the past two years and our kids have finally developed," Morton said. "We have played with a lot of emotion this fall and we must have that every week if we expect to accomplish our goals."

Pontotoc probably has one of the biggest high school teams in this area. The Warriors will start a line that averages well above 200 lbs. and an offensive backfield that will be hard to stop. Transfer Wesley Walls (6-4, 235) will start at fullback and his presence could give the Devils fits.

"Not only is Wesley big and powerful, he can also run the forty yard dash in 4.8 seconds which is unheard of for someone his size," Morton said. "He also has been real good on our weight program. He takes to weights like flies."

If that wasn't enough problems for BHS, the Warriors will also start Robert Montgomery (6-2, 235), half-brother of Ole Miss standout Terry Williamson, at a lineman spot.

"I feel like we match up pretty well against Booneville," Morton said. "I think we will be much bigger and stronger. But we still expect the toughest game we have had to play all year."

The kickoff for the district battle is set for 7:30.

Bearcats Top Hilltoppers

BY GREG SHOOK
Sports Writer

The Baldwin Bearcats rushed for 396 yards, and passed for another 109 in search of their 35-19 victory over the Houston Hilltoppers last Friday night in Houston.

The Bearcats got on the board first when Stan Scott booted a field goal from 20 yards out. Their next points were also provided by Scott - this time from 15 yards out.

The Hilltoppers came back with an attack of their own midway in the second period when Charles Moore scored on a short run and Jodi Blizard connected for the PAT. Houston led at the half 7-6.

Things turned around for the Bearcats in the third quarter when quarterback Greg Tucker broke for 65 yards to set up his own score from four yards out. A Tucker to Stan Scott combination provided the two points conversion.

Later in the third period Tucker found Scott open again to score six more for the Bearcats. Scott again connected for the extra point.

Tucker found Scott open one more time from 15 yards out to round out the Bearcats scoring. The PAT was good.

This gives Baldwin 3-0 for the season. They will face Okolona tomorrow night at Latimer Park. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Tigers

hit one from 44 yards out and another from 41 yards.

Another TD in the fourth on a six-yard jaunt, coupled with a 20-yard field goal, brought the Bulldogs to the 30-point mark. But the Tigers, refusing to be shut-out, scored when Holloway popped through a hole in the Holmes defense for a 25-yard touchdown run. The two-point conversion attempt failed.

The Bulldogs more than doubled the Tigers in total offense with 356 yards to NEMJC's 139. Of their total yardage, Holmes gained 299 rushing and 83 in the air. Northeast gained 76 yards passing and 126 on the ground. Holmes had 17 first downs to the Tigers' seven.

Vonnie Howard led Northeast rushing with 69 yards in 14 carries. Behind him were Holloway with 38 yards in three carries, quarterback Lamar Keith with 31 yards in eight carries and starting QB Burton with 16 yards in seven keepers.

Marion Brown caught two passes for 51 yards and Andy Brown, who was later sidelined with a shoulder injury, caught one 12-yard pass.

Punter Mark McCreary had an excellent night, averaging 40.7

yards per kick with 285 total yards in seven kicks.

"They whipped us every way they could whip us," said Tiger head coach David Carnell.

He said the big plays by Wasden especially hurt the Tigers as the momentum shifted and he and his staff will have to regroup to pull things together for the last half of the season.

The Tigers are on the road again as they travel to Gulf Coast Junior College in Perkinston for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff Saturday.

Wrestling At Northeast

Professional wrestling will return to Northeast Junior College Friday, Oct. 5, at 8 p.m.

The main event will feature Jerry Lawler and Randy Savage against Rick Rude and King Kong Bundy with their manager Jerry Hart.

An international title match will pit Dutch Mantel against Eddie Gilbert, while a Southern tag team title match will feature the Night Mares against Tommy Rich and Dutch Mantel.

The first match will have Tojo Yamamoto taking on Angelo Poffo. Also on the card will be Rufus R. Jones and Mack Rogers against the Spoiler and Lanny Poffo.

Tickets are available at the Chicken Hut in Booneville.

This Chimp To Get Chummy With Fans Friday Night

By PIGSKIN PETE
Sports Columnist

Last week I proposed that everyone turn out for the Booneville-Kossuth game even though it was being held in Kossuth. And from my confidential reports, I was proud to learn that a full house was on hand for the game.

Although the Blue Devils lost the game in a hardfought struggle with the Aggies, the team had good support from the fans and many feel that the Devils won the game in all phases except the scoreboard.

Now, as I promised, I will make my first "official" appearance tomorrow night in Keenum Stadium when the Blue Devils 'face the tough Pontotoc Warriors.

I expect to see you all there and talk to as many of you as I can. Also, I will sign autographs for all my fans at the game.

I did the with Doug Jumper and Leighton Miller last week. But, they were just lucky and probably won't have another week like that for the rest of the year.

Leighton must have read what I said last week because he really picked well. I can't wait to see what he does this week - he'll probably get 3 of 15 correct as usual.

Getting down to this week's picks, Coach Wayne Jones and his Blue Devils face another tough challenge when the undefeated Pontotoc Warriors come to town tomorrow night.

Pontotoc shut out powerhouse New Albany last week, while the Blue Devils lost a heartbreaker to the Kossuth Aggies. But, don't expect the Blue Devils to roll over and play dead when the Warriors invade Keenum Stadium.

Jumper Leads Prog Race

Doug Jumper picked 10 of 14 games correct last week to pass former leader and defending champion Manfred Saylor's only four weeks into the season.

Jumper tied for the top spot last week with Leighton Miller who also picked 10 games correct. Jumper now has picked 32 of 52 games correct for the year for a 62 percent average.

Bill Ward moved up in the standings as he picked 9 of 14 games correct last week. He is now tied with Saylor's for second place. Ward has picked 31 of 52 games correct, as has Saylor's, for a 60 percent average.

Miller moved closer to the leaders with his performance last week. He has picked 30 of 52 games correct for a 58 percent average.

Last week's guest picker Willie T. Jackson of Thrasher High School picked 8 of 14 games correct for 57 percent average. The Banner-Independent will be picking in place of Manfred Saylor's, who is out of town.

Sports Profile

Baldwyn Quarterback In 4th Season

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

The name Tucker is familiar to anyone who has been around the Baldwyn community for the past several years.

Hubert Tucker has piloted the Baldwyn High School football team as far back as most can remember. And, his son, Gregg, has been the starting quarterback for the Bearcats for the past four years.

The younger Tucker is also one of the squad's carryists. But, being related to the coach hasn't made his road to success any easier.

Gregg has led the Bearcats to a 21-14 record since his first game as a freshman at Baldwyn. Last season, Baldwyn went 11-1 and captured the top spot in their district. During his four year tenure, Young Tucker has completed 25 passes for scores, four already this fall.

"It was hard to adjust to playing under him at first," Gregg said. "A lot of people were sceptical about my starting and the coach being my father. But, I tried not to pay any attention to them and just got out there and did my best."

Tucker said, once he is on the field he tries to forget about the relationship with his father and think of him as just "coach".

"When I'm out there no relationship seems like there is no relationship," he said. "I just try to give my all to the team effort and aim for a win."

Coach Tucker agreed with his son that there was no special attention awarded on the field. "I just try to keep detached from that point of the game once we are on the field," he said. "I try to give the whole team my full support and not just a few individuals."

The elder Tucker said he is his team's biggest supporter and he cares about each member; not just his son.

"When Gregg does do good, I'll pat him on the back side and congratulate him," he said. "And, when he does bad I'll give him some constructive criticism like I do everybody else."

Young Tucker has already passed for 545 yards on 29 of 48 attempts. And, the experience of being a four-year starter has helped him, as well as the Bearcats.

As a freshman, Tucker automatically gained the starting spot when a former Baldwyn quarterback transferred to Booneville. Since then, he has been one of the main reasons why the 'Cats have done so well.

"He was fortunate to come into the program when we needed a quarterback," Coach Tucker said. "I didn't show any favoritism, he just earned the job and has held it ever since."

Gregg attributes his success to his offensive linemen, who have allowed him to be sacked only once this year. "Those guys have really done well up front," he said.

"They're not very big, but they're quick and very strong and provide a lot of time and protection for me."

Young Tucker feels that this year's team, which has jumped out to an early 3-0 record, is much better than last year's undefeated team.

"Of course we miss the three running backs we lost from last fall's team," the senior quarterback said. "But, their replacements have done a fine job so far this season."

One thing most football fans in North Mississippi hear whenever the Bearcats play is what the opposing team plans to do to young Tucker. At the Bearcats season opener this fall, the Saltillo Tigers posted threats against the Baldwyn star on their dressing room walls.

"It really doesn't bother me that much," Tucker said. "I know a lot of people are keying on me. But that will leave someone else open and I try to get them the ball. Anytime the players know each other it makes for an intense rivalry."

Young Tucker said that the 'Cats must try to improve each week if they expect to win their district race. "We just have to work hard each day for the next game," he said. "We don't look down the road to anyone. We just have to play one game at a time."

Baldwyn will get a their first test tomorrow night when they host the Okolona Chieftans. Coach Tucker feels the winner of that game will probably be the odds-on favorite to win the district title.

"They are extremely tough and we must prepare this week if we expect to do any good," he said. "Winning our district and the state championship is our goal and we must work hard each week if we expect to accomplish it."

Ole Miss has shown the most interest in signing Tucker so far this fall. However, Mississippi State, Delta State, Southern Mississippi, North Alabama and a host of others are all interested in the youngster's talents.

Get Out And Cheer

Northeast's Flying Tiger

Pigskin Pete

Booneville is about to break loose from their slump and surprise a few teams in North Mississippi. And it could all start with a victory over Pontotoc tomorrow night. I know that a lot of people with disagree with me, but I'm going to pick Booneville to win. With all that talent, they're bound to break loose just any time.

Booneville 23 Pontotoc 17
Coach Willie T. Jackson's troops from Thrasher High School are on a roll with a 2-1 record and all Rebel opponents should take caution -- this bunch is for real.

The Rebels downed Mooreville 22-0 last week in Mooreville, a task that seemed almost impossible. But, the Burnsville Mustangs won't allow the Rebels to have such an easy time of things when the two teams meet tonight in Baldwin.

With one more victory Thrasher will have equalled their win total of last year. Bet on the Rebels to pick up that win tonight and then gain some more before the season is over.

Thrasher 37 Burnsville 8
The Baldwin Bearcats will face their first challenge tomorrow night when they host the tough Okolona Chiefs. Baldwin coach Hubert Tucker is well aware of this and he is in the midst of preparing his 'Cats for the battle.

Quarterback Gregg Tucker and receiver Stan Scott plan to hook up for even more scores tomorrow night. The "Dynamic Duo" has already racked up four scores and over 500 yards this season.

However, Okolona will not be a pushover and many think the Chiefs will surprise everyone by beating the Bearcats. But, don't count on it.

Baldwyn 28 Okolona 26
The Northeast Tigers are suffering through some early season blues. They have yet to win a game in four attempts. And things don't look good for the Tigers as they are faced with traveling to Gulf Coast Saturday to play the powerful Gulf Coast squad.

Gulf Coast beat the Tigers twice last year -- once during the regular season and once in the playoffs. And Coach David Carmel and his troops have not forgotten the losses.

Northeast hopes to avenge those losses when they hit the field Saturday night. But, Gulf Coast is

In other selected games next week, Kossuth will beat Amory by 10; New Albany will beat Ripley by 4; Ole Miss will beat Tulane by 3; Florida will beat Mississippi State by 11; Southern Mississippi will beat Memphis State by 6; Alabama will down Vanderbilt by 9; Auburn will beat Tennessee by 5; LSU will down USC by 3; Clemson will beat Georgia Tech by 10; Iowa will down Illinois by 5; and Texas will beat Penn State by 1.

Don't forget, I expect to see all of you tomorrow night at Keenum Stadium. Feel free to come up and shake my paw (watch out for the monkey grease) and get my autograph.

If I feel he mood coming, I might even pick the winners of a few games for you. But, the only way you'll ever get to meet Pigskin Pete is to "be there". I had better run along. I'm trying to fix the kitchen faucet. You guessed it, I'm using a "monkey wrench". Don't forget to go out and support your favorite team this weekend. See ya next week.

Preparing For Blue Devils' Entrance

Mistakes Prove Fatal For

Mississippi State Bulldogs

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

The Mississippi State offense, unstoppable in the game's first 30 minutes, couldn't find the first down marker in the second half and turned an exciting contest into a one-sided affair as the Missouri Tigers beat the Bulldogs 47-30 in Columbia.

In the second-half the Bulldogs managed only 162 yards and coughed up three fumbles. Mississippi State quarterback Don Smith of Hamilton, who picked up 115 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, couldn't explain the sudden turnaround.

"They didn't change anything in the second half, we just made too many mistakes," Smith said. "It was just frustrating. There were just too many breakdowns."

Missouri pounced on the scoreboard first when Eric Drain bulled into the endzone from a yard out to make it 7-0. But, Smith directed Mississippi State 70 yards, scoring the touchdown on a three-yard keeper around right end to tie the score.

Then, with 1:23 left in the first period, perhaps the most advantageous play for the Tigers occurred. Missouri quarterback Warren Steltz, after being shaken up on a pitchout, pulled himself out of the game and allowed walk-on quarterback Marion Adler to lead the Tigers the remaining 14 yards to paydirt.

Mississippi State then built a commanding lead picking up a safety, a 57-yard run by Mike Williams and a 51-yard scamper by Smith. But, Mizu pushed back to go ahead of the Bulldogs 24-23 at halftime as Adler led the Tigers to three quick scores.

The Tigers took control in the final period, outscoring the Bulldogs 20-7 in the period for the win. Kicker Brett Burditt's two field goals in the period led Mizu to an easy victory.

Mississippi State will now travel to Gainesville Saturday to face the troubled Florida Gators. The Gators have been hit hard by the NCAA for over 100 violations and the firing of head coach Charley Pell. However, Ballard warned that, "Florida has a lot to prove and they will be a tough challenge."

The Gators downed the Bulldogs 15-7 in Starkville last season.

Rebel Defense Provides

Victory Over La. Tech

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

The Ole Miss defense, led by Memphis Melrose safety Barry Withum, saved the day when the Rebel offense bogged down and pushed Ole Miss to a 14-8 hard-fought victory over the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs in Oxford last Saturday.

Withum made the game-saving tackle with 11:48 left when he stopped Tech running back Garlon Powell at the one foot line on fourth down.

The Ole Miss defense held La. Tech on four downs from four yards on what was probably the best defensive series of the year. The Ole Miss offense didn't register a single first down in the second quarter. And the Rebels had seven punts in the first half.

Rebel coach Billy Brewer said he was glad his team was able to sneak away with a win despite playing so poorly. "It might not have been pretty," Brewer said, "but, I'm glad it's over."

"This was the poorest execution of the three games we've played," he said. "We had no emotion and lacked execution."

Ole Miss jumped on the board first when former West Point High School All-Star Robert "Thunder" Smith scored on a three yard scoring run. Jon Howard's PAT gave the Rebels an early 7-0 lead. Louisiana Tech closed the score to within four when George Benzola booted a 37-yard field goal in the third period. The Bulldogs pulled even closer when Doug Landry tackled Rebel running back Nathan Wonsley in the endzone for a La. Tech safety.

Ole Miss pulled away for good when they drove 47 yards in 11 plays for their second touchdown. Smith's second score with 5:20 left in the game and Howard's second PAT gave the Rebels a hard-fought 14-8 victory.

The Rebels will now entertain the Tulane Green Wave Saturday afternoon in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford. The matchup has been declared homecoming at the university with an overflow crowd expected. The Kickoff is set for 1:30.
