Rienzi Man Sentenced

A Rienzi man was sentenced last week during the vacation term of Alcorn County Circuit Court after he pleaded guilty to jail escape.

Carl Eddie Odom, 25, of Route 3, Rienzi, was sentenced to serve five years for jail escape. His term is to run concurrently with a current 15-year sentence on two convictions of armed robbery.

Odom escaped from the Alcorn County Jail Sept. 13, where he was a trusty. He reportedly walked out of the jail building without being observed. He was apprehended several days later near his home.

Odom was previously been sentenced to 15 years in prison after he pleaded guilty to robbing a Biggersville Grocery Store.

Santa Letters

In order to have children's letters to Santa published in the Christmas edition of The Banner-Independent, the letters must be received on or before Friday, Dec. 14.

Any child who would like to have his or her letter published so Santa can read in the The Banner Independent, should send the letter to Letters to Santa, The Banner-Independent, P.O. Box 269, Booneville, Miss. 38829, or bring it by the newspaper office on Main Street, across from Booneville City Hall.

Elementary school teachers in Booneville and Prentiss County are also welcome to submit for publication letters which their students have written to Santa Claus.

Early Dismissal

The Booneville Municipal Separate School District will dismiss students at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 12.

The purpose of this early dismissal is to allow opportunity for staff development activities involving the district's curriculum in mathematics.

Lunches will be served at all the schools.

Baldwyn Parade

According to Susan Phillips, who assisted Parade Marshall Wayne Stone, the 1984 Baldwyn Christmas Parade, held Thursday night, Nov. 29, featured 73 units, including eight floats and bands from Baldwyn High School, Saltillo High School and Northeast Junior College.

Ms. Phillips said the float winners were: 1st Place - Wheeler Baptist Church; 2nd Place - Baldwyn First Methodist Church; 3rd Place - Asbury Methodist Church.

The band trophy went to Saltillo, the only visiting band in the parade, Ms. Phillips said.

Community Fund $12,000 Over Goal

By ED WOODWARD
Managing Editor

With $45,000 collected to date, the Prentiss County Community fund has exceeded its 1984 goal by $12,000, according to PCCF executive secretary Betty Williams.

"That's not real bad for a little, ol', country town," said Sam Milton, agency president. "We're very excited about it, to say the least."

"The generosity of the people of Prentiss County has been overwhelming. And industrial giving this year has far exceeded expectations," Milton said.

Ms. Williams said agencies receiving support from the PCCF include the American Red Cross, the Boy Scouts of America, the Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, the Prairie Girl Scout Council, the Mental Health Association, Prentiss County 4-H Clubs, the Prentiss County Goodfellows Fund, the Prentiss County Rescue Squad, the Regional Rehabilitation Center in Tupelo, United Service Organizations and the Prentiss County Drug Awareness Program.

"The Drug Awareness Program is a new agency this year," Ms. Williams said. "We hope, with some of this excess money, to fund it better than we had anticipated."

"Joe Pack Arnold is our chairman and we're in the process of setting up a board for him."

"We feel like one of the reasons for our fund drive's success has been the inclusion of the drug awareness program," she said.

"We need more community things to support so we can use more of what we collect locally," Ms. Williams said. "I'm not saying it is not well-spent. But we want to use as much as possible at home."

"We would be receptive to any presentation that anybody would like to make to our board regarding a worthy local program we could support," she said.

Mrs. Williams said she and Milton both felt that the PCCF board of directors deserved recognition. "They have been very instrumental in the success of the fund drive," she said.

She said the directors are Mrs. Louise Peeler, Mrs. Nelwyn Murphy, Mrs. Opal Anderson, R.J. "Piggy" Bonds, James Bethay, Joe Childers, Charles Crabb, Carroll

Getting The Christmas Spirit

The chill in the December air didn't cool down the enthusiasm of spectators at Booneville's Christmas Parade Monday night. Onlookers just bundled up

Christmas Parade Winners Announced

Parade Marshall Nelwyn Murphy said she felt Booneville's 1984 Christmas Parade, held Monday night, Dec. 3, was a complete success.

The parade, with the theme "Christmas On Boone Hill," followed a new route that, for the first time, included Highway 45 and featured 30 floats, three Booneville school bands, the newly formed Prentiss County School Band and bands from Belmont and Northeast Junior College, as well as various walking units and Santa Claus.

Claire Lamb, Booneville's 1984 Christmas Queen, led the parade riding in a sports car, followed by a float carrying the Christmas Court, to raise money to provide Christmas baskets for needy families in Prentiss County. Approximately 400 baskets of fruits, nuts, candy and other items will be given to needy families this year, Crabb said.

He said prospective recipients will be screened by Lana Tapp of the Community Action Agency.

"I'd like to thank everyone who participated, or had any part in the program," Crabb said. "I especially want to thank The Banner-Independent for the publicity they gave us, WBIP and 'Piggy' Bonds, Bro. Larry Hill and the civic clubs that helped in

Goodfellows Go Over Goal, Too

According to Mayor Charles Crabb, the 35th Annual Goodfellows Program, which was held Saturday night, Dec. 1, at the Westside Community Center, was a complete success.

"We had approximately $4,200 pledged," Crabb said. The 1984 goal was $4,000, up $500 from last year. So the program exceeded its goal by approximately $200, he said.

Crabb said he wanted to remind everyone who pledged a donation Saturday night to be sure to fulfill that pledge as soon as possible.

"Last year, we had some that did not ever turn their pledges in and that makes it rough when we get ready to buy our Christmas baskets and get them paid for," he said.

He said those who pledged can drop off their donations at the Booneville City Hall, or at any of the three banks.

"All they have to do is make a deposit in the Prentiss County Goodfellows Fund account at any of the banks. And they should write their name on the deposit slip so we can give them credit on our books," Crabb said.

"We really had a good turnout," Crabb said of the fund raising program, which was also broadcast on radio station WBIP.

The purpose of the program was

Four NEMJC Teachers Plan Trans-Mississippi Run

By ED WOODWARD
Managing Editor

Four of Northeast Junior College's instructors will not be taking it easy during the school's holiday break. Instead, they plan to spend six days of the vacation running the length of the state from the Tennessee line north of Corinth to Gulfport.

The four, Jim Lamb, Bob Craig, Johnny Mattox and Ray Cozort, will be making the run as a Phi Theta Kappa sponsored project to raise money for the American Cancer Society.

"Three of us, Johnny, Bob and myself, are sponsors of Phi Theta Kappa, the junior college honor society. And each year chapters of the society are encouraged to select service projects of different types," said Lamb.

"The four of us have been running together, now, for around two years," he said. "Dr. Cozort and Dr. Mattox have been running longer in races, and all."

"We enjoy the running, and we noticed different groups were raising money through running, through rolling beer barrels, pushing people in wheel chairs... And, when I saw The Terry Fox Story on TV, that's when I got the idea that we could do this in Mississippi through the Phi Theta Kappa to raise money for the American Cancer Society," Lamb said.

"So we discussed it, and found all kinds of reasons why we shouldn't do it," he said. But, the longer the four talked about the idea, the more solidly they convinced themselves they could do it.

Lamb said they originally planned to make the run last year. "But we realized we weren't in good enough shape. So we've been running more this past spring and during the summer to get ready for this," he said.

Lamb said, in the meantime, after discussions on the state level, the run became a statewide Phi Theta Kappa project.

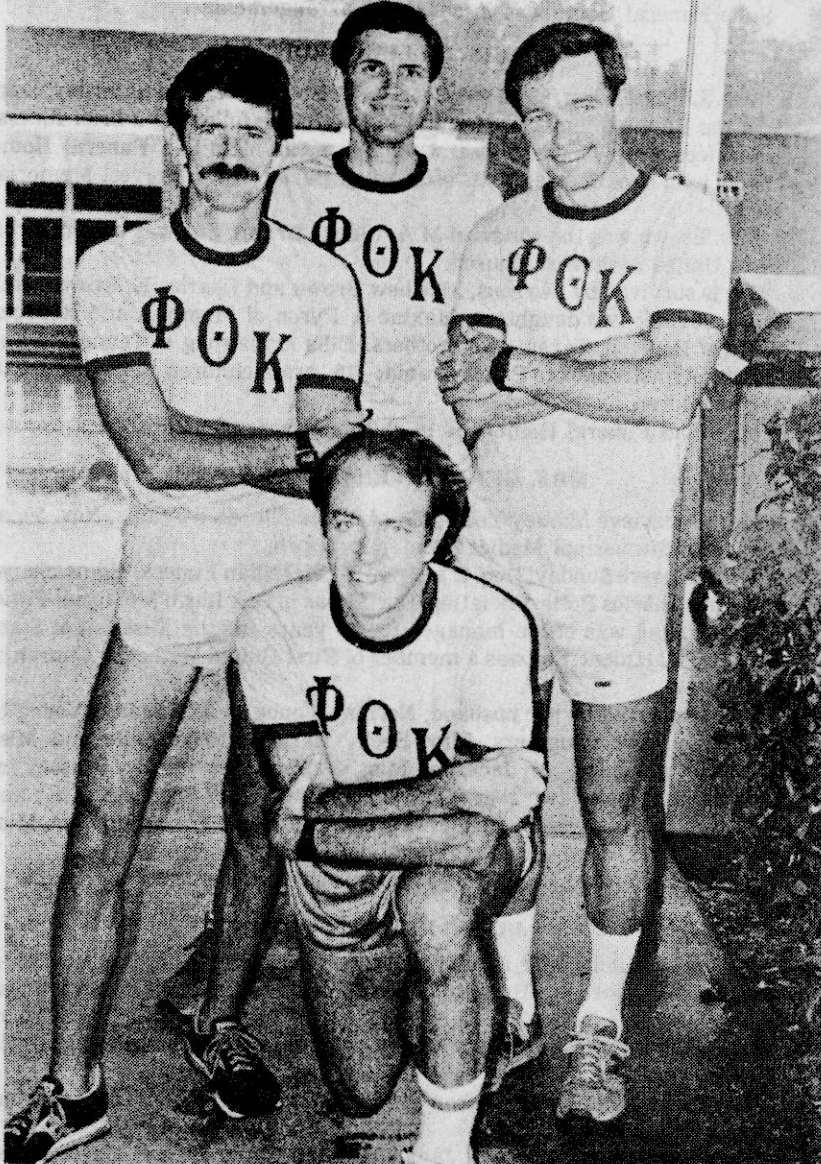

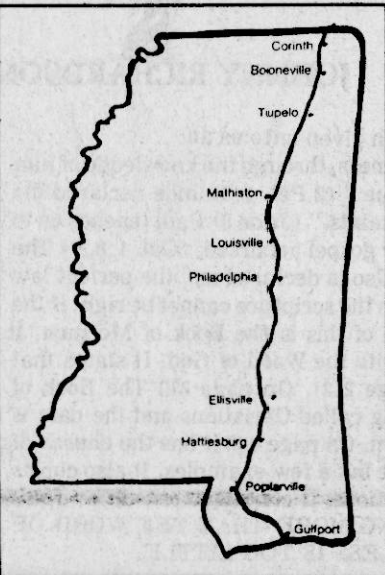

"Also, each one of us has a direct personal reason. We all have family members who have either succumbed to cancer or currently have cancer. And that's kind of a motivating factor," he said.

"We've never done anything like this," Lamb said. "Ray, Bob and Johnny have run marathons. But I have not. So we've been working on our distance running."

Lamb said the dates for the run are December 27, 28 and 29 and January 3, 4 and 5. "We will begin at the Tennessee line on Highway 45 at 7 a.m., Thursday, Dec. 27. Then we will each run a 15-mile leg, which will be a total of 60 miles the first day. That will put us about six miles south of Tupelo on the Nat-chez Trace Parkway," he said.

Lamb said the four men will each run 15 miles a day for each of the six days. Though this only gives a total of 90 miles per man for the entire run, he said they would each make up the extra 10 miles along the route for a total of 100 miles each, the distance they are asking people to

QUESTION: "Are there revelations other than the Bible?"

ANSWER: This is an important question. The question addresses a belief that the scriptures are not complete, or that other "so called" revelations are equal with the inspired scripture. To recognize additional revelations is to deny the COMPLETENESS OF REVELATION Peter declared, "According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue." (2 Pet. 1:3) Jude declared the Faith "was once delivered unto the saints." (Jude 3) Paul teaches us to count any who would preach another gospel accursed. (Gal. 1:8, 9) The N.T. presents itself as complete. It also is declared as "the perfect law of liberty." Anything that contradicts the scripture cannot be right if the scriptures are right. An illustration of this is the Book of Mormon. It contains numerous contradictions with the Word of God. It states that Jesus was born in Jerusalem, (page 212). On page 310 The Book of Mormon speaks of believers as being called Christians and the date is B.C. 73, years before Christ was born. On page 169 it has the church of Christ in existence 147 B.C. These are but a few examples. It also copies the King James Version in some sections. It contains absurdities, false teaching, and false hope. ANYTHING MORE THAN THE WORD OF GOD IS TOO MUCH ANYTHING LESS IS TOO LITTLE.

Aldermen Question Editor About Police Story

In an executive session following a short Dec. 4, meeting of the Booneville Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Ed Woodward, managing editor of The Banner-Independent, was questioned regarding a news story that appeared in the Nov. 14, issue of The Banner-Independent.

The story, titled "Denies Reason For Suspension," contained an interview with Booneville Police Lieutenant James Pennington, who had been suspended and was threatened with demotion.

Pennington claimed in the story that, though he had officially been suspended for bringing a Cinemax converter to the Police Station for use by the night dispatcher, the actual reason for his suspension was his refusal to lie about the location where a bag of marijuana had been confiscated during a February, 1984, arrest.

Pennington accused Captain Hubert Kitchens of asking him to say that the marijuana had been found in the suspect's truck while it was parked at his house, although Pennington claimed he had found it during a search of the truck at police headquarters.

He said, because he refused to back up Kitchens' story, Kitchens and Chief John O. "Bobby" Lambert had conspired to have him suspended and demoted because of the Cinemax box.

Several times after the story was published Woodward was contacted by Lambert and asked for confirmation that Pennington had actually made the statements attributed to him in the story.

Lambert had again contacted Woodward for the same purpose Tuesday morning, Dec. 4, and asked Woodward if he would either write a letter to that effect or state the fact to the board.

During the executive session Crabb explained that the board needed clarification on the matter because Pennington had testified to them that it was Kitchens and officer Jess Chaffin who were conspiring against him.

Crabb said Pennington had told the board he had consulted Chief Lambert on the matter and Lambert had told him only "to tell the truth."

Woodward was then sworn in by Mayor Crabb, and questioned by board attorney Eugene Gifford and Chief Lambert's attorney Donald Franks.

Both attorneys asked questions to determine whether Pennington had actually made the statements attributed to him in the article and Woodward verified that Pennington's quotes were accurate.

Franks submitted a deposition signed by Kitchens regarding the Cinemax converter incident and the board adjourned without making a decision on Pennington's status.

In other action prior to the executive session, the board voted to name Myron Coats to replace Marvin Burcham, who is retiring as Superintendent of the City Gas and Water Department on Jan. 1, 1985.

Mayor Charles Crabb reported that Burcham has agreed to remain with the water department as a consultant until the completion of the current sewage and water facility rehabilitation.

Both Burcham and Coats have worked for the city for 24 years. Mayor Crabb gave the board an update on the status of the rehabilitation project, saying that installation of pump and pressure lines is 85 percent complete. The projected completion date is August, 1985.

Crabb also announced that the city tax rolls are now open for inspection at the city clerk's office. He said the deadline for protest is Dec. 17, at 11 a.m.

"I also want to recognize the young ladies who assisted in getting the pledges, Karren Cole, Lori Burcham and Holly Bonds," he said. "They brought the pledges from back where the ladies received the calls up to the front and gave them to us."

"They worked their... They worked all night long. They were our gofers," Crabb said.

"We had a good turnout, and we appreciate every contribution that was made. And we're just hoping that we can help all those who are in need with a basket," he said.

Crabb said, despite the fact that Blue Bell is presently closed, adding to the number of families in need, "the employees made a pretty doggone good contribution."

"I thought it was great. They gave us $600," he said.

"Also, the employees at H&W Industries gave $150. And Prentiss Manufacturing Co. gave $500."

"These are just three of our industries that made a pretty good contribution. And industry plays a great part in meeting the community needs, in addition to fulfilling economic needs," Crabb said.

TO PRESENT SINGING TREE - The Singing Christmas Tree will be presented in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church of Booneville Dec. 9, 10, 11, and 12. Because of the large attendance last year, there will be two presentations on Sunday, Dec. 9, at 6 and 8 p.m. The performances on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be at 7 p.m. This year's tree will feature 82 singers and over 2,500 lights. Pictured are (seated, l-r) Cammie Sweeney, Doug Holland, music director; (back, l-r) Rod Coggin and Steve Gaines.

Sheriff's Report

The Prentiss County Sheriff's Department reports a total of 11 arrests during the period of Nov. 26 - Dec. 3. Charges placed by the sheriff's department during this period include:

DUI, 4; speeding, 1; forgery, 1; reckless driving, 2; assault and battery, 1; improper equipment, 1; public drunkenness, 3.

Elton Wilemon of Route 3, Booneville, reported the theft of a 1983 GMC truck and trailer from Big V Dec. 4.

A break-in was reported at the residence of Randy Grisham of Route 3, Booneville, Dec. 4. Some $150 was reported stolen from a purse. A shotgun was also reported stolen. A break-in was reported Dec. 4, at the residence of Larry Garrett of Route 3, Booneville. Among the items reported stolen included a stereo and VCR.

John Phillip Berryhill, 23, of Route 3, Rienzi, has been arrested in connection with the theft of a 1984 Mercury Cougar from Tishomingo County, according to the sheriff's department.

Berryhill was arrested Dec. 1, and charged with suspended driver's license, assault with a vehicle, no tag, public drunkenness, failure to stop for a roadblock, failure to stop for an officer, resisting arrest and receiving stolen property.

Assisting in Berryhill's arrest were Fifth District Constable Tommy Smith and Booneville Police Officers Tip Norris and Jerry Barnes.

Berryhill remained in the Prentiss County jail as of Wednesday on $28,000 bond.

QUESTIONS ABOUT CHRISTMAS

Perhaps the most joyous season of the year is Christmas. Webster defines "Christmas" as "(Christ plus Mass) an annual church festival, kept on December 25 in memory of the birth of Christ, celebrated generally by special gifts, greetings, etc." This kind of definition causes Christians to wonder how they should look upon and observe it. This article will deal with some very basic questions on Christmas and how it should be observed.

WAS CHRIST BORN ON DECEMBER 25th? Christ was born in the fullness of time. (Gal. 4:4). He was born in Bethlehem and shepherds were abiding in the field. (Luke 2:4, 8). The Bible tells of the birth of Christ, the place and surroundings, but not the day. There is no divine or human testimony to settle the day of Christ's birth. His birthday has been placed in every month of the calendar by many scholarly men. If it was necessary for us to know the day of His birth, it would have been recorded in the New Testament. God has given unto us all things that pertain unto life and Godliness, so the day of Christ's birth must not pertain unto life and Godliness, since it is not revealed. (2 Peter 1:3, Deut. 29:29).

WHEN WAS DECEMBER 25th FIRST OBSERVED AS CHRIST'S BIRTHDAY? Recognized scholars testify that it was not observed or recognized as the birthday of Christ until 336 A.D. It was first called "Christmas" (Christ plus Mass) in 1038 A.D. Adam Clarke stated in Volume 5, page 370 of his commentary on the Bible that "... the Latin Church, supreme in power, and infallible in judgment, placed it on the 25th of December..." When did God give to any group of people the right to legislate or determine truth. Only Christ and His word is the authority. (John 12:48). Where in the Bible are we instructed to observe December 25th as Christ's birthday?

Talk 'O The Town

Street Opinion

QUESTION: Do you think local stores should be allowed to open on Sunday?

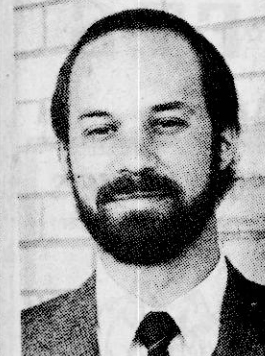

CASSIE CASTILE of Route 4, Corinth: "Yes, after church. A lot of times that's the only times people have to shop. A lot of people work on Saturday."

DENNIS BAIN of Route 2, Tishomingo: "I don't think they ought to be open. I think that's the Lord's day."

OLIN SAYLORS of 403 Stanley St., Booneville: "Yes, I think they should. That's the only time a lot of people, especially those who work overtime, have time to shop. And it's just more convenient."

MIKE STEEN of 203 N. Third St., Booneville: "No, I don't think they should be allowed to be open on Sunday. I think we should observe the Sabbath Day."

HENRY BUTLER of Route 6, Booneville: "I don't believe they should because of religious reasons."

MARK ANDERSON of 447 S. Third St., Baldwyn: "No, because that day is set aside to worship. It's the Lord's day."

(Editor's note: "Talk O' The Town" is not intended as a scientific poll of public opinion. Rather, it is simply intended to give Prentiss Countians an opportunity to voice their opinions on particular issues and topics. Maybe we'll ask you next!)

Ponderings

By Angela Smith

Staff Reporter

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas. It even looked like at one point Tuesday that it might snow. But it didn't. But the Christmas spirit seems to be floating over much of Prentiss County -- even if there is a lack of snow...so far. I am amazed that there are so many Christmas trees already decorated. And many of the trees were decorated just days after Thanksgiving. I feel a little guilty. I don't have my Christmas tree decorated. But I plan to this weekend...if I can save up enough energy. If you've already put up your Christmas tree you know what I mean. You've first got to select the perfect tree unless you're using an artificial tree. If you're using an artificial tree, then it's got to be assembled. Sometimes that's easier said than done. When you're searching for a live tree in the woods it can be fun. Unless you're in a hurry to find the 'perfect tree.' Then you usually don't have much luck. After you finally have your tree then comes the awful task of putting the lights on the tree.

PUTTING lights on a tree can take up to three days -- if one becomes entangled in the lights. The lights have to be tested. Then it's usually traditional to break several lights after they are all finally working.

But when the lights are at long last put on the tree -- they look beautiful.

I marvel at those people who decorate their houses and yards in all those strands of lights. They have more patience than I do.

We haven't even put up our Christmas tree at the office.

But I think we're going to today or tomorrow. Right now we're in the process of typing letters to Santa Claus. We've got to get them finished in time to publish them in the Christmas edition for Santa to read before he makes his trip on Christmas Eve.

The only hint that 'Christmas is coming' in our office is a reindeer.

The reindeer, made out of a gray wool sock, has red antlers and was a present to our publisher from his sister-in-law, Sandy Christian of Slidell, La.

The reindeer has been put in a prominent place in the office so that everyone coming to The Banner-Independent can see it.

When someone comments on the reindeer the publisher modestly tells them he as been deer hunting.

In order to get the bunch I work with in more of a Christmas spirit, I have compiled each one of them a list of Christmas presents they could buy me.

For some reason they didn't receive my lists with much enthusiasm.

I HAVEN'T really even done any Christmas shopping. And now whenever I go to shop the stores are crowded with all these people in a frenzy over which gifts to purchase.

They should realize I'm trying to Christmas shop and just stay home. Just kidding. I know they're probably all buying presents for me.

Stennis' Health Prompts Speculation About Successor

By BILL MINOR
Syndicated Columnist

JACKSON, Miss. -- Mississippi's political community must now face up to the reality that the long, distinguished career of Sen. John Stennis is coming close to an end.

It is a difficult subject for political writers to discuss. It is even more difficult for pragmatic politicians to speculate in public about what may be inevitable while the gallant old political warrior is battling with a new health setback.

Everyone would hope of John, who has laid low before and then come back, will again be able to resume his career in the Senate.

If John Stennis had not had an extraordinary constitution, he would have been dead back in 1973 when a bullet from a street robber's gun ripped through vital organs of his abdomen. He survived that ordeal after many weeks of recuperation. Many said it was miraculous.

Then, a year ago, at age 82 he underwent corrective surgery and afterwards contracted pneumonia. With sheer determination, he defied the odds for his age and again went back to the Senate.

Now, the courtly, beloved solon faces a new battle this time with cancer, perhaps the most treacherous and formidable foe he has ever encountered.

John Stennis has always been a very private man. Few, if any really, know what has driven him to keep going against virtually insurmountable adversities, at an age far beyond three score and ten.

This writer recalls a significant conversation with Stennis during a Christmas break a few days before the beginning of 1972. The subject was his possible retirement when he came up for re-election in 1976, at age 75.

I recall vividly that Stennis, pointing to the age of some of his colleagues who had gone on to serve until they were in their 80s, commented "I don't intend to make that mistake."

Whatever were his intentions then, they changed radically a year or so later after he had been gunned down by a robber and had his amazing recovery.

When he passed the crisis, he confided to a few intimates that he felt it was an act of Providence that his life had been spared in order to continue in the service of the people of Mississippi. As long as he was physically able, he would offer himself to their service.

Hardly anyone believed, however, that his commitment could extend beyond seeking one more term in 1976. However, when 1982 came, Stennis was still on his feet at age 81 and saying "I may just go ahead and make a career out of this."

No leading Democrat in the state, not even William Winter, Stennis' longtime dear friend and ally, had the courage to try to convince Stennis the time had come for him to stand aside so the Democrats could have a chance to replace him with a younger man.

Perhaps the real truth of the situation was the Democrats were afraid to risk losing the seat to U.S. Rep. Trent Lott if they could not saddle up ol' John one more time.

The hope of most Democrats in getting Stennis elected in 1982 was that it would at least buy them some time to get another strong horse, namely Winter, on the track to take Stennis' place. Many will recall a rumor rampant in 1982 that Stennis would resign after his re-election so Winter could appoint himself in his place.

Rural Mississippi Still A Wonderland In Autumn

By ED BLAKE
Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation

Rural Mississippi is a Cinderella-like manifestation on these crisp, beautiful, late autumn mornings that make one wonder to what heights of natural beauty and elegance this state and its inhabitants could enjoy -- if we really cared.

This writer lives so deeply in rural Mississippi that a "back forty" is my frontyard and my rural mail carrier still is chagrined because he had to bring me a mail order tomato.

But the rewards are sheer elegance these great autumn mornings as you or I drive to work alongside frost covered meadows. This morning, as I write this, was one of those occasions.

A dazzling sun alit frost covered cypress weeds growing in profusion along the road banks. The view of Limekiln Creek coursing lazily beneath the Highway 49 bridge reflecting golden hickories, red dogwoods and a full range of color among the oaks, sweetgums, elms, ashes and sycamores was enough to turn me around to go back and make a color picture of the spectacle.

Photographed from the east line bridge, the beautiful autumn scene and the bridge itself were mirrored in the golden, silt-laden waters of the creek as it headed toward an ultimate confluence with Bogue Chitto Creek, Big Black River and the Mississippi River south of Vicksburg.

The rolling road toward Jackson passed lakes reflecting the autumn colors along their shores. A large hawk with a whitish breast smoothed its feathers with its beak as I passed.

Rounding a bend in wooded hills the sun backlit red leaves of blackjack oak tree among green pines and Spanish moss draped oaks. Another stop, another color photo. It was almost enough to make me forget the plastic bags of someone's garbage which had been dumped in a ditch.

I remembered the phone call I had received from a socially prominent Jackson lady whose home is often visited by tourists to our capital city. She wondered what could be done to save the bois d'arc and black locust trees on the black topped road near her home from being swallowed up by honeysuckle. Maintenance lately, it seemed, had become slack in her area.

We Mississippians can be pretty sloppy about our outdoor housekeeping, it seems.

I recall my repugnance on many occasions upon seeing herbicides being sprayed along the rights-of-way turning avenues of wild flowers into a chemical battle zone. I remembered too similar practices in other parts of this fair state that have eradicated colonies of yellow fringed orchids, cardinal flowers and purple gayfeathers.

Then there's the memory of a river bottom right-of-way in central Mississippi where spring blooming phlox and evening primroses once were one of nature's rarest treats in this state -- but they are almost all gone today.

And there is a dismaying remembrance of county operated bushhogs that tilt vertically to shatter, rather than cut, sapling and tree limbs along the rights-of-way of many of our rural roads in Mississippi.

Practical maintenance, as opposed to husbandry of and with our natural resources. It is sad to be poor.

Still this choicely endowed state, like the neglected and abused Cinderella of literary fame, can flaunt a thoroughly captivating beauty when the elements and seasons give it only slight provocation.

What if we really cared!

That Yankee From Yonder

By Ed Woodward

Managing Editor

It's the time of year when local residents and Banner-Independent employees begin to complain about how cold it is; the time of year when the temperature actually dips below 40 degrees -- something that, according to Yankee legend, never happens in "the sunny, warm South."

When I moved down here six years ago (in about two weeks -- another anniversary), I laughed at how Southerners thought this kind of weather was cold. I was wearing only a sweater, while the average native bundled up like Charlie Brown preparing to play in the snow.

When two inches of snow fell, and factories, schools and stores closed, I became hysterical. The only thing I didn't find funny was driving on the same highway with drivers who didn't realize snow was slippery.

I grew up in Northwestern Ohio where the first 'good, six to eight inch snow usually occurs around Thanksgiving and it is not unusual to have a foot of snow at Christmas and at least two or three blizzards with 18 to 24 inches of snow and six to eight foot snowdrifts in January and February.

In fact, I once lost a Volkswagon in my driveway after a blizzard.

"Do you want to know what cold is?" I used to boast. "Cold is 5 a.m., with two feet of snow, a temperature of 20 below zero and a 40 mile an hour north wind. That's cold!" I would say. "What you get down here is just chilly."

I was not making up the weather conditions described above. I have actually experienced them, bundled up in thermal longies and socks, heavy pants and shirt, a sweater or sweatshirt, a jacket, trouser cap and lined boots.

I have seen snow so deep that removal crews used bulldozers, power shovels and dump trucks to clear the main streets, while our entire neighborhood shoveled for a whole day to clear our block so we could get out to shop, or go to work or church.

During my tenure as a taxi driver in New York City I had to walk three long blocks on 47th Street toward the Hudson River every day to pick up my cab. Quite often, the temperature would be hovering between 10 above and 10 below and a 30 to 40 mph wind would be whipping across the river into my face.

By the time I got to the garage, my moustache would be frozen, brittle and breaking off in pieces whenever I touched it.

Now, that is cold! And it's one of the reasons I moved south. After 39 years of such weather, I had had enough. I don't like cold weather. It hurts. And I think people who like to frolic in it on skis or ice skates are either weird or descendants of Eskimos.

My last winter in New York City we had two blizzards within two weeks and I actually saw someone skiing down Fifth Avenue. That was enough for me.

My first winter down here I seldom wore more than a sweater. The second winter I wore a jacket. The third, I wore a sweater and a jacket. My Harbormaster topcoat hung in the back of the closet getting dusty. And, all the while, I was laughing at all the locals who said they were freezing.

Now, after six years, I think my blood must be thinning. Lately, even when it's in the 40s, a temperature at which I used to run around in shirt sleeves, to prepare for my daily walk I don thermal socks and thermal longies under my sweat suit, then add a hooded sweatshirt and gloves on top. And I still can feel the wind whipping my legs.

Thomas Wolfe was absolutely right. I know I can't go home again, especially during the winter. I'd become an icicle.

City School Superintendent Tells Pilots Of Local Schools' Needs

Members of the Pilot Club and the Business and Professional Women's Club of Booneville jointly toured the newly renovated Baptist Memorial Hospital in Booneville as guests of the hospital personnel on Thursday evening, Nov. 5.

The tours were guided by John Tompkins, hospital administrator, and Mrs. Frances Green, director of education at the hospital.

After the tours, the two groups were dinner guests in the hospital dining room.

Later, Pilot Club members held their regular program meeting in one of the hospital's conference rooms. Dr. Neola Cleveland, president, presided. The invocation was given by Mrs. Mabel Nelson. Mrs. Robbie McDaniel led the pledge of allegiance.

In keeping with the American Education Week, the club's education area with Mrs. Patty Robinson as leader, had charge of the program. Other members of this area include Mrs. Clarene Goddard, Mrs. Carolyn Jackson, Mrs. Ouida Jumper, Mrs. Robbie McDaniel, Miss Rebecca Millsaps, Mrs. Mary Gault Nabors, Mrs. Mabel Nelson, Mrs. Becky Kelly and Mrs. Mary Robinson.

Mrs. Quay Michael, patriotism area leader, introduced Miss Jennifer Jones as the Good Citizenship Girl of the month. Miss Jones, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Jones, is a senior at Booneville High School. She serves as captain of the cheerleaders, secretary of the Anchor Club, and as a member of the Student Council. She was named the school's 1984 Homecoming Queen.

Miss Rebecca Millsaps, safety area leader, was recognized as Pilot of the Month by Mrs. Mary Gault Nabors.

Mrs. Patty Robinson introduced Robert Griffin, the superintendent of the Booneville Municipal Separate School District, who spoke on needs of the local school system. He listed the following: space and facilities needed for both quality and quantity, science and computer laboratories, speech therapists, improvements to high school facilities including new or renovated parking facilities for safety purposes, increased teacher salaries and fringe benefits;

An enlarged curriculum to include foreign languages, choral music and speech in the high school along with public school music and guidance services in the elementary and junior high schools;

More recognition and visibility of academic excellence and achievement, and quiet family time in the home with emphasis being placed upon discussions, reading, and relaxation.

In conclusion, Griffin stated that he had a commitment to improve facilities at the Booneville High School for the benefit of students, parents and the economic welfare of the community. He remarked, "Upgraded schools would help to attract industry and boost economy."

A short question and answer period followed his talk.

Special guests of the club included Mrs. William T. Jones and Mrs. Robert Griffin.

PILOT GUEST SPEAKER - Robert Griffin, Booneville City School Superintendent, was the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Pilot Club of Booneville. Also pictured are members of the education area, Mrs. Mary Gault Nabors, Mrs. Robbie McDaniel, Mrs. Ouida Jumper, Miss Rebecca Millsaps, Mrs. Patty Robinson, Mrs. Mabel Nelson and Mrs. Carolyn Jackson. Not pictured are Mrs. Clarene Goddard and Mrs. Mary Robinson.

Cancer Run

sponsor them for. The actual distance of the run is 370 miles, he said.

The men will run the first half of the run, then return home until the following week, when they will start where they left off and run the second half.

Lamb said Mattox will run the first leg and the run through Booneville will be made by Cozort at around 10:30 a.m. on the first day.

Each was asked what his individual motivation was for making the run. Craig answered first. "My understanding was that, originally, each chapter was going to have its own runners and we were only going to run as far as IJC."

Craig jokingly indicated he felt the four of them had been drafted, then grinned. "But I think it is a worthy cause and I'm looking forward to it," he said.

Cozort said, though he is the only one of the four who is not actually affiliated with the sponsoring society, he is a supporter.

"I guess my motivation is a curiosity to see whether we can actually do it. And, if we're going to do it, we might as well have a reason for it," he said.

"Plus, as Jim said, all of us have some relative who has cancer, is currently combatting cancer, or, in my case...I have a sister who died from cancer. So we all thought this would be a really good project to take on, and, at the same time, give us a good reason for running," Cozort said.

Mattox said Cozort had also spoken for him. "I have a brother with cancer. Plus, I also want to see if we can make it," he said.

"We're gonna make it," Lamb said.

Asked their ages, two of the men confessed to being in their 40s, one will be 40 at the time of the run and one is 33.

Lamb said the four are now searching for people to sponsor their run with donations to the American Cancer Society.

"Coca Cola of Corinth is going to help us by providing a van to go along with us. The three who aren't running will ride in it and it will help protect us from traffic."

"Also, Karen Arthur, who runs

Printer's Alley in Booneville, is donating special t-shirts for us to wear during the run," Lamb said.

Lamb said any person who wants to sponsor any or all of the four runners, either with a flat donation or at any amount per mile should contact him at Northeast Junior College, 728-7751.

'Color Coding' Explained To Kappas

Mrs. Alloyce Simpson, chairman of the Cosmetology Department at Northeast Junior College, lectured on "Color Coding" at the November meeting of the Gamma Conclave of Kappa Kappa Iota, a national educational sorority.

A Thanksgiving table, covered with a yellow tablecloth on which a large beribboned pot of chrysanthemums was surrounded by paper turkeys, served as the speaker's podium.

Hostesses were Mrs. Carol Killough, Mrs. Louise Peeler, Mrs. Avenell Cunningham, and Dr. Neola Cleveland.

Mrs. Simpson, who classified herself as a "winter" and was dressed in one of winter's colors (purple), instructed the educators how to determine whether they are winters, springs, summers or autumns. She mentioned main colors for each season and suggested some colors each season might want to avoid.

Hostesses were ensconced behind a tea table overlaid with a hand decorated Thanksgiving tablecloth, set with sterling silver candelabra with orange candles.

From silver trays Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Killough served cakes and Mrs. Peeler poured hot tea.

A MISTAKE?

HAMMOND HOUSE
1004 E. Main St. Booneville, Miss.

REID BROTHERS
December 1984
Corinth, Miss.

Dear Customer,

Friends have questioned our decision to mark-down much of our fine clothing and many gift items before Christmas. They suggest we are making a mistake. However, we feel that you deserve and, perhaps, need to save money right now when you have so many gifts to buy and want to look especially nice during the holidays.

Also ... stores in Jackson, Tupelo, Memphis, etc.... are tempting you with their "Specials" ... and we want you to know you can save with us without losing time and spending money to drive miles away, hunt a parking place and then try to find someone to help you.

We're ready to help you Now ... plus we beautifully gift wrap your presents FREE and do alterations on regular priced clothes FREE. We take a personal interest in helping you and really appreciate your patronage. These are services not found in malls or department stores.

And ... to tell the truth, having less inventory on Jan. 1st would be a big help on our OTB (open-to-buy) in 1985.

Are we making a mistake??? We don't think so ... and you'll agree when you shop with us and save.

Best wishes,

Doug & Martha Hammond

P.S. Santa's helpers have put red-tags with reduced prices on many, many items. Even Scrooge shops with us!

CB Club News

By LADY BLUE SURF

I am glad to report that some of our sick folks are better. Thrasher Star is conferring with a doctor in Jackson, Miss. She has been told she has arthritis of the spine.

Lady Termite has bronchitis. Lady Edd enters Tupelo Medical Center for surgery Tuesday. Lady Wrecker's father, Wesley Moore, is in serious condition in Baptist Memorial. We hope everyone is soon lots better.

The radiothon for the Rehabilitation Center in Tupelo was held Sunday afternoon. Blue Surf, Blue Wave, Termite, Lady Blue Surf, Butterbean Lady, Mama Clutch, Silver Dollar Queen, Yellow Dog, Brass Monkey, Fig Leaf and Bull all attended.

Club members presented the center with a check for $2,343.87, collected from our roadblock and sale of a quilt and some pillows. The quilt was won by Gene Gann of Booneville.

Little Blue Wave sung on stage over the radio with Buddy and Kay Bain and several other children. They sang "Jingle Bells" and "Santa Claus is Coming To Town." Cotton was home from school for the weekend.

We hope to see all club members Saturday night, Dec. 8, at 6:30 at the West Side Community Center for the Christmas social. The Timber Hills group will be special guests along with Mr. and Mrs. Red Raspberry. The Country Rhythms Band will entertain after supper. All club members are asked to bring plenty of extra food for the guests. Also, Santa Claus will be present.

Members are asked to meet after noon Saturday to decorate the center for the party.

We would like for anyone who has any scrapbooks or picture albums to please return them.

At the Dec. 17, business meeting, men, women and children are asked to bring a $5 gift to exchange.

The cutoff date for fall planting is Dec. 15, for Prentiss County and will reopen March 15, 1985.
Buy health, stocky, vigorous trees. A weak, spindly, stunted tree is expensive regardless of price because it will grow slowly and develop poorly.

To help farmers in disaster areas replenish their livestock feed supplies, USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service recently expanded the Emergency Feed Assistance Program to include lower grade wheat, grain sorghum, oats and barley.
The additional feed grains and wheat are of U.S. No. 4, U.S. No. 5 and sample grades. The commodities were added to the program because most of the lower grade corn has now been sold to eligible livestock producers.
Farmers can purchase the lower grade grain from the Commodity Credit Corporation at 75 percent of the loan rate for the average grade of available grain in the county where the commodity is stored.

Order trees early and specify a delivery date. Have the soil ready for planting the same day the trees arrive from the nursery. If this is not possible, heel in the bareroot trees. Break open the bundle of trees and distribute them evenly in a shallow trench. Fill the trench with soil to cover the roots. You can keep bareroot trees in this manner for a short time. Do not allow the roots to dry.

- Dig a hole large enough for the natural spread of roots. Loosen the soil in the bottom of the hole. Plant the tree at the same depth it grew before transplanting.
- Keep tree roots moist while they are out of the ground.
- Anchor the tree with a stake. Stake the tree with wires threaded through a section of garden hose to prevent bark damage.
- Wrap the trunk to lessen evaporation and to add protection from the sun. Wrap the lower trunk half with burlap or tree paper.

- Prune one-third of the branches so roots will be able to feed the remaining top. Cut branches next to stem or trunk; do not destroy the natural form of the tree.
- Replace subsoil in the hole with good top soil high in humus. Mulch the newly planted tree.
- Soak with water frequently and thoroughly. Mound the soil to hold water.

Oats are available in Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.
Grain sorghum is available in Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, South Dakota, Tennessee and Texas. Wheat is available in 33 States. Barley is on hand in Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.
Farmers to be eligible need to show evidence that their feed production and feed on hand is inadequate to maintain their foundation livestock and poultry during the 90-day feeding period, which begins when they apply for the program.
Prentiss County farmers and other interested persons are invited to submit comments and suggestions concerning conservation and environmental programs to USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The programs include the agricultural conservation, pollution control and forestry programs.
The written recommendations must be received in Washington by Dec. 7, to be considered.
ASCS conservation programs are designed to encourage farmers to voluntarily perform pollution abatement, soil, water and energy conservation measures. The programs authorize cost-share funds for farmers who ordinarily could not or would not perform such practices to the extent needed without some federal assistance.
USDA is also holding a public meeting on Dec. 12 to review program recommendations made by State and county agricultural conservation review groups. The meeting will begin at 9 a.m., in Room 4960 of USDA's South Building. Because of space limitation, persons desiring to attend the meeting should make reservations by calling (202) 447-7333.

"Farmers who cannot attend are encouraged to submit written comments," the ASCS official said.
The written remarks should be addressed to the Director, Conservation and Environmental Protection Division, USDA-ASCS, P.O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C., 20013.
DELEGATES elected during the Community Committee election will meet Dec. 13, 1984, at 9:30 a.m. in the county ASCS Office to elect a county committeeman to serve a 3 year term, a first and second alternate to the county committee to serve 1 year terms and the chairman and vice-chairman of the committee.

Home Economist's Notes

By PATTY K. ROBINSON

The Christmas season is here and time to select your Christmas tree. The following information is furnished by Dr. Bob Daniels, Extension Service Forester.
I hope this will be of help to you in selecting and caring for your live Christmas tree.

course, to ensure a fresh tree is to cut it yourself. Fine Christmas trees are grown in Mississippi and there is probably a Christmas tree population nearby where you can "choose and cut" your own tree. Ask your county agent.
If you buy your tree several days before it will be set up and decorated, store it outside. Set it in a protected place away from sun and wind. Cut the butt of the tree at a diagonal about one inch above the original cut - this opens the pores and aids in the absorption of water. Place the butt end in a container of water.
When you bring it into the house, saw the butt again, squaring off the diagonal. This facilitates placing the tree in a stand as well as aiding absorption.

Keep the butt end of the tree in a container of water the entire time it is in the house. Add an aspirin and one-half cup of sugar to a gallon of water and water your tree with the solution. Refill the container daily as a live tree requires a lot of water. Sprinkle water on the branches and needles before you decorate the tree will help retain freshness. Keeping the tree in a cooler room will also help it last longer.
Be sure that the base of the tree is well supported and the tree is placed away from fireplaces, radiators, electric heaters, televisions or any other source of heat.
Open flames, such as lighted candles, should never be used on or near the tree. In addition, never leave your home with the Christmas tree lights still on.

Check electric light cords for fraying and worn spots that could easily lead to fires. Don't overload electric circuits and avoid placing electric toys directly under the tree. Be sure to avoid the use of combustible decorations.
If a tree dries out, take it out of the house.
A properly cared for Christmas tree with moisture in its needles is no more combustible than a houseplant. Following these care and precaution measures should ensure an attractive tree and a holiday season free of Christmas tree mishaps.

Timberline

By ROBERT THORNTON
County Forester

The forest fire season is now in full swing and some of our landowners need to be thinking seriously about prescribed burning of their valuable pine timberland to reduce the hazard of wildfire as well as improve the growing condition.

Firebreaks are an indispensable part of any prescribed burn, whether it be for hazard reduction or for site preparation. Firebreaks have also saved many landowners thousands of dollars in avoided losses due to wildfires. They are relatively inexpensive and well worth the investment.

The improved access to your land provided by firebreaks can be very important in fighting wildfire. The conducting of timber sales and the recreational utility of your property can also be enhanced with a well-planned firebreak system.

Arson is a primary cause of wildfires in some areas of our county. In these areas strategically placed firebreaks are particularly valuable. The breaks should be plowed parallel to roadways. If firebreaks are located so that they cannot be seen from the road they will sometimes thwart the efforts of roadside fire setters.

If you have had a timber management plan prepared for your property there should be information in it indicating where you need firebreaks. If not, why not give us a call or come by the office and let's see what we can do to help protect and improve your forest. You might even qualify for forestry incentive program cost-sharing to help pay for such a project.

While firebreaks cannot guarantee that you won't suffer a loss due to wildfire, they will certainly reduce the chances. They are especially recommended for stands under the age of ten.

Department stores usually have large toy sections and, with Christmas near, toys will be in great demand. Not every toy is suitable for any child. Take time while shopping for toys to be sure the gift is an appropriate one.

Consider the following:

-- Flimsiness. Toys should be durable, but not too heavy.
-- Size. Tiny toys or those with small, removable parts are not suitable for young children, because these parts may be swallowed or inhaled.

-- Sharp edges. Brittle plastic, rough wood, metal edges and jagged parts can be hazardous, as can hidden spikes and spines, stiff wires, staples and prongs. Darts, arrows and similar toys are not suitable for young children.

-- Toxicity. Look for labels reading "nontoxic" and "lead-free" on painted toys and "washable-hygienic materials" on stuffed toys and dolls.

-- Moving parts. Springs or motors may pinch fingers or catch hair.

-- Electrical wiring. All electric toys should bear the Underwriters Laboratories (UL) seal of approval.

-- Suggested ages. Most toys come with a suggested age range. This can help the shopper avoid unsuitable toys.

No toy is safe for all children under every circumstance. Checking these possible dangers can save many troubles later.

The 4-H safety project teaches youth what to look for when selecting toys for young children. They will use and practice these skills as adults also.

NEMJC Christmas Concert Tonight

Northeast Junior College students in the chorus and ensemble will be featured in the annual Christmas concert to be presented Dec. 6 at 7:30 p.m., in Hines Hall Auditorium.

Selections will be performed by the men's and women's choruses, the ensemble and the mass chorus as well as solos by faculty member Judy Irvin and students Tommy Rowell of West Union and Todd Sanders of Birmingham, Ala.

The hour-long program, which is free to the public, is under the direction of George Martin. "Approximately 60 students will be performing in this year's concert," he said.

The selections performed by the male and female choirs were initiated last year, thus giving an additional dimension to the annual program. The women's chorus will be featured in their presentation of "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," while the men's chorus will sing "O Holy Night."

The ensemble, made up of eight male and eight female voices from the mass chorus, will perform selections by Besign, Grundman, Mac Ginsey, Wilhousky and Anderson, thus combining old time favorites from the religious and traditional carols.

As in years past, former members of the Northeast chorus will be invited to join the mass chorus in the singing of the final verse of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" to conclude the program.

"Year after year, the audience participation has proved to be the highlight of each performance," Martin said.

Northeast Instructor Attends Conference

Dr. Johnny L. Mattox, instructor at Northeast Mississippi Junior College, represented the Northeast Mississippi Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa at the district VII conference in Clearwater, Nov. 24. Phi Delta Kappa is an honorary international education fraternity.

A variety of education issues were discussed by panels and in small group meetings.

Dr. James Schneider of Brevard Community College presided over the conference. He is the district VII representative on the fraternity's board of directors.

George E. Allen Library

Life in Africa is much in the news and Alan Paton knows and loves South Africa. In Cry, the Beloved Country, Paton established an enviable reputation for creating in his novel the involvement of a dozen sharply contrasted individuals in a racially divided society.

Ah, But Your Land Is Beautiful advances his theme still further, and his cast of characters include diverse personalities of varying ages who possess a common character trait - great courage.

The author lives in Hillcrest, Natal and was the founder and national chairman of the Liberal Party in South Africa. For twelve years he was the principal of the Diepkloof Reformatory in Johannesburg, where he introduced humanitarian reforms.

Two non-fiction books recently received deal with subjects also treated in many magazine articles in the past few years. Stand Tall, by Notelovitz and Ware, provides information on osteoporosis. Since women are more subject to excessive bone thinning than are men, the book is chiefly directed at helping them prevent its disabling condition, but anyone can profit from the nutritional and exercising program it outlines.

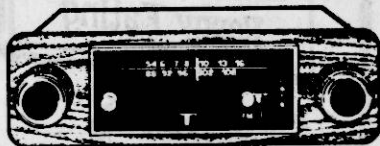

Detox, by Saifer and Zellerbach, locates sources of everyday toxic exposure and suggests ways to diminish and eliminate them. How to build your body's resistance through nutrition and exercise is also an important purpose in its advance. Both books aim at helping the reader feel better longer.

Baldwyn Bearcats Take North State Honors With Win Over Mound Bayou

By Greg Shook
Sports Writer

With less than one minute left in the fourth and final quarter Kevin Cole intercepted a pass on the one-yard line to give Baldwyn a 17-14 win over the Mound Bayou Hornets last Friday night in Oxford.

The Hornets were on the Bearcats' eight yard line preparing to go in for the score and the win when Cole intercepted the fourth down pass.

The win puts Baldwyn at 13-0 for the season and only one game away from the State Class AA championship.

Lenanza Holland put the first points on the board for the Hornets after catching a pass from quarterback Winston Delaney from 10 yards out. Delaney then connected to Kelvin Ross for a two-point conversion, putting the Hornets up 8-0.

The Bearcats got on the board when quarterback Greg Tucker connected to Cole on a 20-yard pass play. Stan Scott's PAT was no good after a bad snap from center.

The next Bearcat score came from a 32-yard field goal by Scott after a failed attempt to run the ball in. This put the Bearcats up 9-8 with little time remaining in the first half.

Mound Bayou managed one more second quarter score when Jackie Williams roared in from eight yards out as the half ended.

The half time score showed the Hornets ahead 14-9.

After a scoreless third quarter the Bearcats used the fourth to wrap up the ball game.

Baldwyn's final score came when Willie Howell dove in from one yard out after a long drive. A two-point conversion pass from Tucker to Greg Mitchell put Baldwyn on top 17-14.

A dream of another touchdown for the Bearcats came in the closing minutes as they took the ball down to the Hornets five before giving it up.

The Bearcats will now face Bassfield for the State Class AA championship in Madison-Ridgeland tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m.

Bearcat Coach Hubert Tucker said, "It will be tough. Those teams down in the south are really tough."

Devils 3-5? Devilettes 1-7

Devils And Devilettes Are Still Suffering A Bad Case Of 'Early Season Blues'

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

With three weeks of the season complete, both the Booneville High School Devils and the Lady Devils have suffered through some "early season blues".

The Devils are currently holding onto a 3-5 record, while the Devilettes are suffering through a 1-7 start. But Lady Devil coach Carlos Smith insists all his team needs is a little experience.

"The best thing for our team at this point is to play games," Smith said. "We are improving from day to day, but we are still a long way from where we would like to be."

"The more we play and get experience, the better we are," Smith said.

Improvement can be seen on the floor when the Devilettes play. They have been playing most area teams to the wire during the past few weeks.

This past Monday night at the Booneville gym, the Lady Devils stayed close with the Ripley Lady Tigers for most of the game, before the Lady Tigers managed to pull away and head on to victory in the final period.

The Ripley team won the game 51-35.

Krista Wacaser led the Lady Tigers with 20 points, while Sherry McDonald added 16. Susan Downs poured in 18 points to lead the Devilettes.

In the nightcap, the Ripley Tigers managed to hold off a determined Booneville team and earn a 70-63 victory.

Charles Childers led the Tigers with 19 points, as Ripley placed four players in double figures.

Clay Johnson, the leading scorer in North Mississippi with a 29.1 average, led the Devils with 29 points. Rodney McVey chipped in with 15 and Jim Caver added 10 for Booneville.

The Jumpertown Lady Cardinals jumped out to a 20 point first period lead and held on to down the Devilettes 81-63 in the Cardinal's homecoming last week.

Cassie Davis poured in 25 points for Jumpertown and Angela Welch added 22. Pam Crump burned the nets for 22 points to lead Booneville, as Jenny Weatherford and Lea Hughes added 13 each.

The Devils managed a split in the encounter as they downed the Cardinals 65-63 in a wild affair that went down to the final tick of the clock.

Johnson again led the Devils with 34 points, and Caver added 9. Craig Lauderdale led Jumpertown with 16, Andre Simmons scored 14 and Tim Betts, 12.

Both the Devils and the Lady Devils are scheduled to compete in Baldwyn's Tournament of Champions this week. The Devilettes were set to play Saltillo Tuesday night, but results were not available at presstime.

The Devils will play Saltillo at 7:15 tonight in their opening round game.

Tigers & Lady Tigers Both Making Good Showing In North Division

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

The Northeast Tiger men's basketball team downed the East Mississippi Lions 76-44 here at Bonner Arnold Coliseum Monday night to improve their record to 6-2, 3-0 in the North Division.

Coach Richard Mathis' club built up an early 35-14 halftime advantage and never looked back. Calvin Fields of Friendship, Tenn., led the Tigers with 18 points, Derrick Pollard of Alcorn Central and Ronnie Elam of Booneville added 11 and Roosevelt Combs of Memphis Melrose, 10.

Terry Mixon paced the Lions with 10 points.

In an earlier game, Coach Rickey Ford's Tigerettes beat the Lady Lions of East Mississippi 91-70 after leading 46-26 at intermission.

Trina Bullock of Pine Grove led the way for Northeast with 21, as Kunshinge Sorrell of Booneville and Ara Gardner of Ripley added 16 and Robbie Rogers of Kossuth and Jackie Perry of Jackson, Tenn., each chipped in with 14.

Loretta Brown burned the nets for 26 points to lead the Lady Lions and Amy Childers added 12.

FORD'S LADY TIGERS, now 5-1 overall and 2-1 in the division, had a much tougher time of things last week when they faced the Northwest Lady Rangers in Senatobia.

The Lady Rangers beat the Lady Tigers 68-52 as the Northeast team experienced a cold shooting spell throughout the game.

Rhonda Mikes pumped in 27 points for Northwest, last year's national JUCO champions. Sorrell led the Tigerettes with 16 and Perry added 13 in a losing effort.

The Tigers gained revenge for the Lady Tigers loss in the nightcap as they dropped the Rangers 78-76.

Fields led the way with 22 for the Tigers, with Pollard adding 14, Combs, 13, and David Robbins of Blue Mountain, 12.

Rickey Barrett led Northwest with 22 and Ronnie Miller added 19.

BOTH THE LADY TIGERS AND THE TIGERS gained wins last week over North Division rival Itawamba Junior College. The Tigerettes downed the previously unbeaten Lady Indians 63-50, while the Tigers beat the Indians 84-75.

Sorrell and Gardner led the Lady Tigers against IJC with 17 points each, while Regina Holland of Wheeler added 10. Stephanie Davis scored 15 for IJC in a losing effort.

After leading 41-37, the Tigers coasted into an easy nine-point win. Fields burned the nets for 36 points to lead Northeast, while Pollard added 15, Combs, 14, and Perry Perrin of Jumpertown, 10.

Kevin "Jeep" Jones of Tupelo led IJC with 17 markers.

Both the Tigers and the Lady Tigers will be at home tonight against Northwest Alabama, and again tomorrow night against Mary Holmes College. Tipoff is set for 6:00.

Rebels & Royals Share Wins

By Greg Shook
Sports Writer

The Thrasher Rebels and the New Site Royals shared one game each last Friday night at New Site. The Lady Royals easily took the opener by a score of 54-30. But in the boys' game, the Rebels came back from a sloppy first half to defeat the Royals 57-41.

Leading the way for the Lady

Royals was Carol Taylor with 24 points. Marie Miller led the Rebels with 15.

It was the second confrontation of the season for the Rebels and the Royals. New Site had taken the first game by only seven points.

The Royals came out with a 8-0 lead during the first two minutes of last week's ball game. But Thrasher was soon to answer their call.

The Rebels took the ball down the floor to set up their offense. Then Paul McCutchen gave the Rebels their first two from an outside corner.

The Royals only managed five more points that quarter while the Rebels closed the gap and put the score at 13-12, New Site at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter proved to be more exciting for both teams as the Rebels and Royals traded baskets. Just when the Royals would go up by three the Rebels would come back to put the game within one. This went on until, with one second left on the clock, Russell Lambert took the ball to the inside and put it in for two.

Lambert was fouled while shooting making it a three point play and putting the Rebels up at the half 25-23.

The Rebels only allowed the Royals to score five points in the third quarter, while, themselves, burning the nets for 16 points.

The fourth quarter proved to be all Thrasher as Windham and Lambert continued to do most of the scoring for the Rebels. The main help for the Rebels also came with the five block shots by Windham.

Leading the Rebels in scoring were Windham with 19 points, Lambert with 16 and McCutchen with 12.

For the Royals it was Doug Taylor with 10 points in a losing effort.

Wheeler & Thrasher Split Two

By GREG SHOOK
Sports Writer

The Wheeler Eagles and the Thrasher Rebels split a pair Tuesday, Nov. 27. The Rebelettes took the first game 53-51 in overtime, while the Wheeler boys blasted the Rebels 90-73.

Marie Miller hit two free-throws with only seconds left to clinch the girls victory.

Miller scored 21 points to lead the Rebelettes, while Kristi Wheeler added 10 in the victory.

Tenna Micheal and Pam Johnson paced the Lady War Eagles with 16 each.

The score at the half was a 45-45 dead-lock.

After a close first quarter Wheeler managed to pull out a big win over the Rebels.

High scorers for the War Eagles were Mike Chandler with 27 points, Clay Richey with 24, Willie Miller with 19 and Tony Tate with 10.

Bill Windham led the Rebels with 27 points. Paul McCutchen added 22 and Russel Lambert contributed 12.

Coggin Named All-District MVP

By SCOTT MCKINNEY
Sports Writer

Booneville High School punter-kicker Rod Coggin was named Most Valuable Player of the all-district specialty team and Alan Tollison and Jimbo Goddard were voted second team all-district performers last week during the annual winter meeting of all District One, Class AAA coaches.

James Goddard, he led the Devil rushing attack this fall with over 900 yards.

Goddard has been one of the mainstays in the Blue Devil weight program as he has added 30 pounds to his playing weight.

Booneville High head football coach Wayne Jones said last week that he was extremely proud of all of the players selected. "It's a great honor for them and our team,"

Jones said. "And, what makes it even better is that a coach could not vote for his own players. So, these athletes have left their names in these other schools."

"I am disappointed that some of our other athletes weren't able to make the squad," he said. "We had several who missed getting on the team by only one vote. But, I'm proud of the entire team and the good job they did last fall."

Coggin was voted first team all-district punter and placekicker by the district coaches after closing out a brilliant career at BHS three weeks ago.

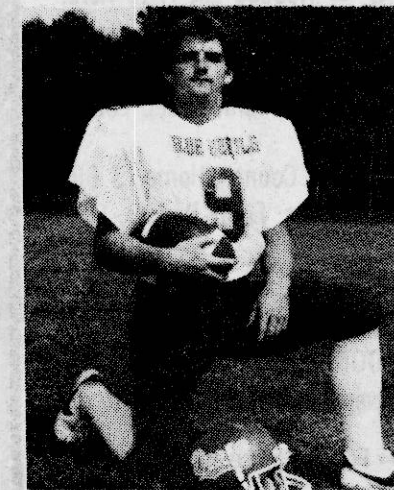

He finished the 1984 football season as the leading punter in the state with a 45.7 punting average, and was rated as one of the top placekickers in the area.

Several colleges have shown interest in the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Coggin, but, he hasn't decided on where he will play next fall.

Tollison, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tollison, was also named to the all-district squad as the second team center. Tollison led the Blue Devils last fall in sacks and finished second in tackles behind Kevin Eubank.

Northeast Junior College has shown interest in his services for next fall, as have several other colleges.

Goddard, who was one of only two sophomores selected for the team, was voted second team all-district fullback. The son of Mr. and Mrs.

WHEELERS SPLITS WITH E. UNION

The Wheeler War Eagles and the East Union Urchin split a pair last Friday night in Wheeler. The East Union girls downed the Wheeler girls in the opener 63-55. In the boys game the War Eagles could only manage a 76-72 win over the Urchins.

Leading scorers for East Union in the girls game was Ginger Pessel with 17 points, Wendy Harrell and Jill Treadaway with 14 each and Jennifer Wiggington with 12.

For the Lady War Eagles it was Pam Johnson with 20 points and Tenna Micheal with 15.

For the War Eagles in the boys game it was Mike Chandler with 19 points, Tony Tate with 17, Willie Miller with 16 and Anthony Gamble with 12.

For East Union it was Tim McDonald with 24 points, while Jeff Coleman added 19.

THRASHER DIVIDES WITH HICKORY FLAT

The Thrasher Rebelettes took a 51-50 win over the Hickory Flat Rebelettes last Saturday night to give Thrasher one win in the double game match-up. The Thrasher boys were dropped in the second game 70-61 by Hickory Flat.

Leading the way for the Thrasher girls was Marie Miller with 27 points, while Missy Ford tossed in 12 for the Hickory Flat girls.

Tony Beard totaled 25 points to lead the Hickory Flat team. He was followed by Chris Nickson with 18 points and Robert Mullins with 14.

For the Thrasher boys it was Paul McCutchen and Jeff Deaton with 16 points each, while Bill Windham and Benson Scott had 11 each.

Booneville Happenings

By MRS. GORDON McGEE
Correspondent

Dr. and Mrs. Otha Wingo and Vinsof of Cape Girardeau, Mo., were heré for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Wingo.

Mr. and Mrs. Noonan Chaffin and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Chaffin and family met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Chaffin for their annual holiday feast.

Prayers are extended for Roy E. Robinson who had surgery in the Veterans Hospital in Memphis last week.

In correcting an item in this column last week - it should have read those visiting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jim Eaton, Mandy and Sara for Thanksgiving dinner were Mrs. Bonnie Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Eaton, Mrs. Nina Pounds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crabb, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Goddard, Mrs. Dianne Guin, Missi and Candi, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Murphy, all of Booneville, and Mrs. John Simmons and Josh of Memphis.

The Foreign Mission Season of Prayers for First Baptist WMU began last Saturday morning, Dec. 1, in the home of Mrs. Sue Honeycut and Mrs. Ann Kimbrell with a mission breakfast. Nellene Pannell, president, led the opening prayer.

The central theme of the week of prayer is "Because I Love Him I Will Pray." Sue Honeycut brought the program. Dr. Bill Duncan, pastor, led the blessing and mission prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Gullett Jr. spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their children in Meridian, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herren, Amanda and Seth. Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Gullett III and Michelle of Starkville joined them for this annual get-together.

Mrs. Eloise Maddox spent the holiday weekend in Corinth with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Teeter and they attended church on Sunday at the Oakland Baptist Church. Joining them on Thanksgiving Day were Mr. and Mrs. Toy Mayo of St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Charlene Strange spent the holiday in Tupelo with Mrs. Shelia Shepherd, Jackie and Roger.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wingo of Memphis were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Ligon and Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Wingo.

absence of Director Troy Inman who is ill. Coy Stutts led the share time and Bro. Jerry Mitchell, pastor of the church, brought the message. The church then hosted a covered dish meal. The next meeting will be at Wheeler Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Malone Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Wroten, Manda and Josuah and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nantz of Memphis met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cartwright for Thanksgiving. The Wroten and the Nantz family came home with Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright for a visit and also visited with Mrs. Junie Hill in the Blackland community before returning home.

Little John Cartwright of Corinth spent last Tuesday through Saturday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Malone Cartwright. John's mother, Gloria had jury duty last week in Corinth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Jones of Oklahoma City, Okla., spent the weekend with Mrs. Nell Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Loveless. They attended the funeral of Mrs. Genevieve Young on Sunday.

Prayers are extended for Mrs. Hershel Stevens who had surgery last week in the Tishomingo County Hospital.

Mrs. Irene Hare, Cecilia Tollison, Sadie and Dana Downs went to Atlanta, Ga., for the holidays with Mrs. Hare's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Vick.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Genevieve Young who passed away last Friday and was buried Sunday. Among those from out-of-town attending the funeral were J.B. and Maxine Greene, Mr. and Mrs. David Qualls, Jane and Mr. and Mrs. Quitman Loden have returned from an 11 day visit with their children and families, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Loden and Kevin and also Bill Loden. They attended church at First Baptist in Richmond.

Bill Stennett of Ole Miss spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Pauline Stennett.

Prayers are extended for Melvin Oakley who was admitted to the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Booneville.

Thursday, Nov. 29, the senior citizens of the Prentiss Baptist Association gathered at Crestwood Baptist Church for their meeting. Bro. Harris Counce presided in the

Ruth Raspberry, Raiford and Peggy Carter, Linda and Darla Wallis, Charles and Mary Mickey, Doris Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Caldwell, Wilma White, Will Denton and Helen Richard, all of Tupelo; Terry Cartwright, Nancy Kelly Walker, Taft and Janie Little, Bob and Corrine Sykes and Virginia Johnson, Corinth;

Pat, Lanette and Trish Browning, Sonny and Rachel Muse, Tom Massey and Kim Whatley and Paul Hamilton, Jackson, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Floyd, John and Elizabeth Curlee, Aberdeen; Lucille Wallis, Pauline Murphy, Billy and Bettye Hopkins, Baldwin;

Frank and Sara McGarr and Ellis Wilmon of Ripley;

Robert Fulghum, New Albany; Hob and Elsie Sanderson, Amory; Peggy Laney, Iuka; Howell and Beth Bridges, Belzoni; Ernestine Ballard, Fulton; Johnnie and Barbra Young, Batesville; Carl and Kathleen Burrosa, Henderson, Tenn.; Jimmie and Dot Jones, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Maxine Dulaney, Counce, Tenn.; Dave and Sara Ann Cole, Memphis; Eddie and Kim Young, Georgia; and Bill Tays, Cleveland, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bonds and Mrs. Pauline Lovell attended the radiothon for the handicapped in the Rehabilitation Center in Tupelo Sunday, Dec. 2. Mr. and Mrs. Bonds carried them a check for $900 from the sale of aluminum cans this past year. They want to thank each one who saved the cans and made this possible. They are beginning as of today working for next year. If you will call them when you save your cans, they will pick them up. Their number is 728-7860. Some 36 Prentiss Countians received therapy in the center this year.

Mrs. Gladys Rowland, Mrs. Nell Jones, Mrs. Annie Walden and Mauveline Walden went to Fulton last Friday and visited Mrs. Sara Cown in the Daniel Memorial Nursing Home. She had been dismissed from the Fulton Hospital that day.

Sympathy and prayers are extended to the families of those who have passed away: Mrs. Tenny Spencer, Sadie Patrick Windham, Chester M. Moss, George Washington Taylor, Mrs. Norman Young and Mrs. Hazel Key who lived in Tallapoosa, Ga. She is the grandmother of Mrs. Wade Irvin of Booneville.

In my items last week, the name Mrs. Matthew Bryant Davis, should have read Martha Bryant Davis who was a visitor of Mrs. A.L. Bryant.

Boosters Meet

By MARIE ROBERTS
Club Reporter

The meeting of the Boosters Club was changed from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Nov. 29, due to the Baldwin Christmas parade.

The meeting was called to order by Bobby Johnson, president. Judy Wilson, secretary, read the minutes. Mrs. Marjorie Franks, treasurer, presented a memo of the financial statement. These were both approved by members present.

Mrs. Sam Richey was recognized by the president and commended for her work on the historical booklet. She was presented a gift certificate.

Coach Richey suggested it would be nice if members started a collection of pictures for a scrap-

It was noted that there are still Eagle buttons and historical booklets available. More caps have been ordered. Anyone wanting those items should contact Lee Swinney, project chairman, or any Boosters Club member.

The club also voted to purchase jackets for the ballplayers and cheerleaders. Those who would like to order a jacket may contact Coach or Mrs. Richey. Individuals purchasing a jacket must pay for them in advance.

Coach Richey and Coach Murphy were given a check each to purchase a meal for the ballplayers following a game if they felt they deserved it.

The meeting was adjourned until further notice after the holidays.

Wheeler War Eagles Are On A Roll

By Greg Shook
Sports Writer

The Okolona Chieftains were the 16th victims of the War Eagles last Monday night as Wheeler took an 80-64 win.

The War Eagles started the game off as they usual, slow, then came back to finish strong.

Todd Swinney scored eight of the first 10 points for the War Eagles from the inside. The other two coming from Mike Chandler from the corner.

Wheeler continued to build its lead with shots by Willie 'Goose' Miller and William Lowery. And by the time the quarter ended the War Eagles were 10 points ahead.

Wheeler took advantage of second quarter turnovers by the Chieftains, building to a 46-28 lead at the end of the first half.

In the third quarter it looked as if Okolona had brought out a whole new team when they started to close the scoring gap. Three straight turnovers by the War Eagles let the Chieftains pull with 12 points.

But after a time out pep talk by Wheeler coach Sam Richey, the War Eagles came back strong, pulling ahead by 22 points.

A time out was then called by the Chieftains coach, after which the Chieftains began closing the gap again.

But Wheeler put together a sudden surge of thier own in the fourth and final quarter, scoring eight straight points.

LEADING THE WAY for the War Eagles were Willie Miller with 22 points, Todd Swinney with 16, William Lowery with 11 and Mike Chandler with 10.

The high scorer for the Chieftains was Ricky Hill with 26 points.

Wheeler's Eaglettes also took the girls game 40-35 over the Okolona girls.

Leading the scoring for the Lady War Eagles were Teena Michael with 20 points and Pam Johnson with 14.

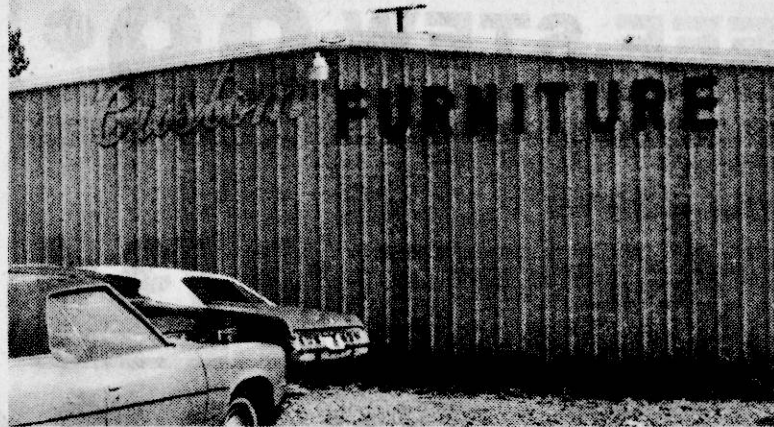

For the Lady Chieftains it was Barbara Walker with 14 points.

At Baldwyn Christmas Parade

HAPPY FACES - Baldwyn's 1984 Christmas Parade was held last Thursday night, Nov. 29. A large crowd of children of all ages, some with painted faces (left) lined West Main Street and other sections of the parade route to watch 73 units, including eight floats like the one above plus bands from Baldwyn and Saltillo High Schools and Northeast Junior College. Community Fund

"Also instrumental in the success of the drive were Bill Murphy, Roy Lowery, O.C. Hare, Charles Walden and J.P. Davis," Ms. Williams said.

Asked how she thought the Prentiss County Community Fund managed to exceed its goal by such a large amount despite the local economic conditions, Ms. Williams said, "Primarily, I think it was the enthusiasm and the support we got from Sam Milton.

"We have had outstanding presidents in the past. But I don't know that we've ever had one who has been willing to devote as much time to it as Sam has," she said.

"He took time off from the bank and went with me to Tupelo to see how Lee United Neighbors is set up. And we were able to get some fantastic ideas.

"He also had the foresight to see that we needed to move our fund drive kickoff date from May to October to take advantage of the national publicity through the media for the United Way's drive," she said.

"That's been very instrumental in our success. We chose a time in the beginning when we were not conflicting with other agencies' drives. But many of them changed their dates and, by the time we started our drive all the businesses and industries had already given what they had budgeted.

"We affiliated with the United Way International, and we were helped by their publicity after moving our date...but, more than anything else, it's been Sam Milton's drive, and enthusiasm and interest that put us over the top," she said.

Ms. Williams said this is the first time in five years that the Prentiss County Community Fund has reached its goal.

"When we lost Blue Bell and Brown Shoe, two of our major industries, it scared us to death, because we thought we weren't going to be able to pay the agencies we fund," she said. "But Sam suggested that we go into the industries and increase our payroll deduction pledges.

"When we started out 20 years ago, we were asking for 15 cents from each employee, which was a Coke and a pack of Nabs. And we had not gone back into the industries and reworked them since," Ms. Williams said.

"So, the increase is from reworking the industries. We went back in and asked them for 'Fair Share Giving', which is one hour's pay per month. And many of them did that.

"In fact, at our new plant in Baldwyn, Southern Diversified Industries, 40 percent of the givers were 'Fair Share Givers,'" she said.

Revival Next Week

ESTUS W. PIRKLE

The Rev. Estus W. Pirkle will be the speaker at revival services at Oak Hill Baptist Church Dec. 10-14, at 7 nightly.

The Rev. Pirkle, a native of Vienna, Ga., has been pastor of Locust Grove Baptist Church in New Albany since 1965.

He is the author of such books as Preachers in Space, Wintertime, and I Believe God.

In addition to being a pastor and author, he is also an evangelist. Since 1967 he has averaged being in 35-40 revivals, Bible conferences and camp meetings each year. He has held revival campaigns in all of the six major continents. He also takes a group to the Holy Land each year.

The Rev. Pirkle has also produced films, one entitled "The Burning Hell."

The Rev. Dwight Massengill, pastor of Oak Hill Baptist Church, and the congregation, invite everyone to attend these revival meetings.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

The Only True Security

By Charles L. Potts

Charles L. Potts, Pastor
First United Methodist Church
Booneville, Miss.

Phil. 4:7 "And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

This is one of my favorite passages. Verses 4-7 have everything in them: Joy and thanksgiving, a realistic commitment of everything to God in prayer, a view of life focused on the things that are true and good, and an unshakable confidence. The secret of it lies in this verse seven given above. We are all open or vulnerable to a germ or virus, to accident or violence. Just when we think we are safest . . . we get a letter or call . . . and all our hopes and dreams are shattered. How hard we try to find real security! The only real security is in God's peace . . . it stands like a sentry keeping guard over our hearts and minds. We are safe indeed when we have peace with God, peace within ourselves and are at peace with our fellowmen. We can face the unknown without fear . . . rejoicing in the unlimited resources and total security of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Internal Revenue Service Has 746 Refund Checks Unclaimed By Mississippians

Undelivered refund checks for last year and prior years are waiting to be claimed by 746 Mississippians.

IRS district director Sylvia Wren has issued a list of names of Mississippi taxpayers to whom refund checks were mailed but were returned to the IRS as undeliverable.

Wren said, "These refunds total $267,575 and range from $1.00 to $15,103.00 with the average being $358.68."

Wren said it is not necessary for anyone whose name appears on the list to consult or engage in the service of a "locating" or "searching" service or for anyone else to obtain information with respect to their refund check.

"One need only establish his or her identity and right to receive the check," he said.

All that is necessary is to call the IRS toll-free telephone number (1-800-424-1040) or addressing a letter to the Internal Revenue Service; Refund Inquiry Unit; 100 West Capitol Street, Suite 504; Jackson, Mississippi 39269, which includes the following information:

- 1. Your name and address exactly as shown on the tax return;
- 2. Your present name and address if different from that shown on the return;
- 3. The tax year for which the refund is believed due;
- 4. The amount of refund claimed and any other pertinent information needed to verify the claim; and

- 5. Your signature (do not print). If it is a joint return, both spouses must sign.

Wren said some Mississippians don't receive their refunds for various reasons such as moving and leaving no forwarding address, errors on returns, death of the taxpayer, etc.

Some Christmas Toy Safety Tips

Santa Claus is coming soon. Children everywhere are waiting with eager anticipation to see the toys old St. Nick will leave under the tree.

Chances are that your youngsters will open their gifts Christmas morning and have a great time getting acquainted with their new toys. But in all too many households the toys themselves will dim the happy Christmas season by causing accidents and injuries.

The Mississippi State Medical Association offers some simple tips for selecting toys that will help insure a completely happy Christmas.

- Beware of small toys that can be swallowed, flammable toys, and toys with rough or sharp edges.
- All electric toys should be safe. Look for the UL (Underwriters Laboratory) label on the cord and on the toy itself.
- Avoid toys made of lead or colored with lead-based paints. You're unlikely to encounter these today, as the danger of lead poisoning are now well known. But it's wise to be sure.
- Baby's toys should be too large to put in the mouth, washable, lightweight, and non-brittle.
- Eye injuries are a particular hazard from some Christmas toys. Sling shots, air rifles, archery sets and even the spring-action toy pistols that propel sticks capped with rubber cups have caused injuries.

PISGAH ROYALTY - Pisgah Headstart Halloween King and Queen winners were Erica Bush and Justin Perrigo, and Jennifer Cummings and Jeremy Taylor. The staff at Pisgah Headstart said all donations to the carnival were greatly appreciated.

VOCATIONAL STUDENT OF THE MONTH - Scott Lovell (right) has been selected as Vocational Student of the Month at the Prentiss County Vocational Technical School. He was selected on the basis of attendance, personality, performance and cooperation. A member of VICA, he has placed in local, district and state contests. He is enrolled in the Auto Mechanics class and is also a junior at Thrasher High School. Upon graduation he plans to pursue a career in auto mechanics. His instructor is Ray Vuncannon (left). Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lovell of Thrasher.

RURAL TRANSPORTATION PROGRAM BEGINS - Transportation via the Northeast Mississippi Community Action Agency van and mini-bus began Dec. 1. Potential riders may contact the center at 728-8142.

Tell us about your heroes, ages 12 to 18.

We want to give our outstanding young people an award for their achievements and a cash savings account.

First Bank Young Citizen Awards.

It's our third annual First Bank Young Citizen Awards, and it's our way of saying thanks to the local young people who, again and again, go that extra mile.

Young people ages 12 to 18 who live in any First Bank county are eligible. And you can nominate them. All you do is pick up a nomination form, and tell us why, in your own words, you think the young person is especially outstanding. Why you respect him or her so much.

The boy or girl next door.

Maybe your nominee will be a young neighbor who spends his afternoons caring for and loving his elderly grandmother. Maybe he or she is the team captain or club officer who inspires others to give their all. Or maybe the youngster who excels in school and helps with family finances. Or maybe a dedicated volunteer at the local hospital.

With so many fine young people in our communities, the possibilities are almost endless. Feel free to nominate more than one.

Awards. Cash. Banquet.

Awards will be given in four categories—Leadership, Responsibility, Achievement-Plus and Service. And there may be as many as five awards in each category.

First place winners in each category receive a gold award and a $400 savings account. Second place winners receive a silver award and a $300 savings account. Third place winners receive a bronze award and a $200 savings account. Other finalists in each category will receive a $100 savings account. All winners and finalists will receive certificates of achievement.

Plus all finalists, their parents or guardians, and the persons who nominated them will be guests at a special awards banquet.

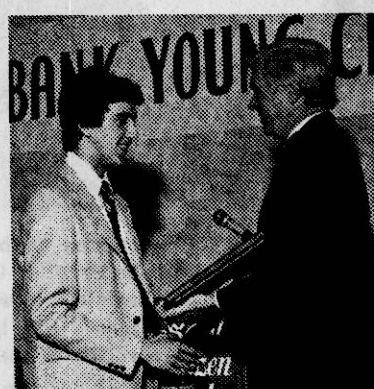

Award winners will be selected by a panel of local citizens made up of teachers, ministers, homemakers and mothers, and business and professional men and women.

Nominate now.

Nomination forms with complete details are available now at all First Bank offices, or call us at 728-9468 to receive your forms in the mail. The deadline for this year's nomination is December 15, 1984.

Please put your thinking cap on now, and make a list of all the deserving young people you know. They work so hard every day to lead, to achieve and to give. Saying thanks is the least we can do.
